Message

I had the opportunity to meet many of you last June at the dedication of the Air India Memorial in Ireland and to share your grief. The shock, distress and anger that the Air India disaster continues to cause touched me most deeply. I can only express the wish that time will lessen your pain and allow you to rebuild your lives.

The Memorial on the beautiful Irish coast will never be a substitute for lost loved ones. Yet in the wall of names, the dramatic sun dial, and the evocative location can be found a permanent monument to the memory of those who perished in this senseless tragedy. I hope that it will become a place of pilgrimage for you in the years to come.

Many of you could not travel to Ireland to participate in the dedication ceremony. I hope that, in time, you will be able to visit the Memorial that was so lovingly designed by Mr. Ken Thompson.

This booklet and video cassette commemorate the Memorial and dedication ceremony. It may, in some small way, ease the burden of your loss to know that, with this small token, your grief is shared by all Canadians.

Joe Clark
Secretary of State for External Affairs

Message

Il m'a été donné de prendre part à votre deuil et de rencontrer bon nombre d'entre vous en juin dernier, lors de l'inauguration, en Irlande, du monument à la mémoire des victimes de la catastrophe d'Air India. J'ai très profondément ressenti l'horreur, le chagrin et la colère que cette tragédie continue de susciter. Je ne puis qu'émettre le vœu que le temps vienne apaiser votre douleur et vous permettre de reprendre le fil de vos vies.

Le monument érigé sur la côte irlandaise ne pourra jamais compenser la perte d'êtres chers. Mais la beauté du site, le mur de noms et le spectaculaire cadran solaire apportent un témoignage permanent à la mémoire de ceux qui ont péri dans cette absurde tragédie. J'espère que vous en ferez un lieu de pèlerinage dans les années à venir.

Beaucoup d'entre vous n'ont pu se rendre en Irlande pour prendre part à la cérémonie d'inauguration. Je formule l'espoir qu'il vous soit donné à tous un jour de visiter le monument conçu avec tant d'amour par M. Ken Thompson.

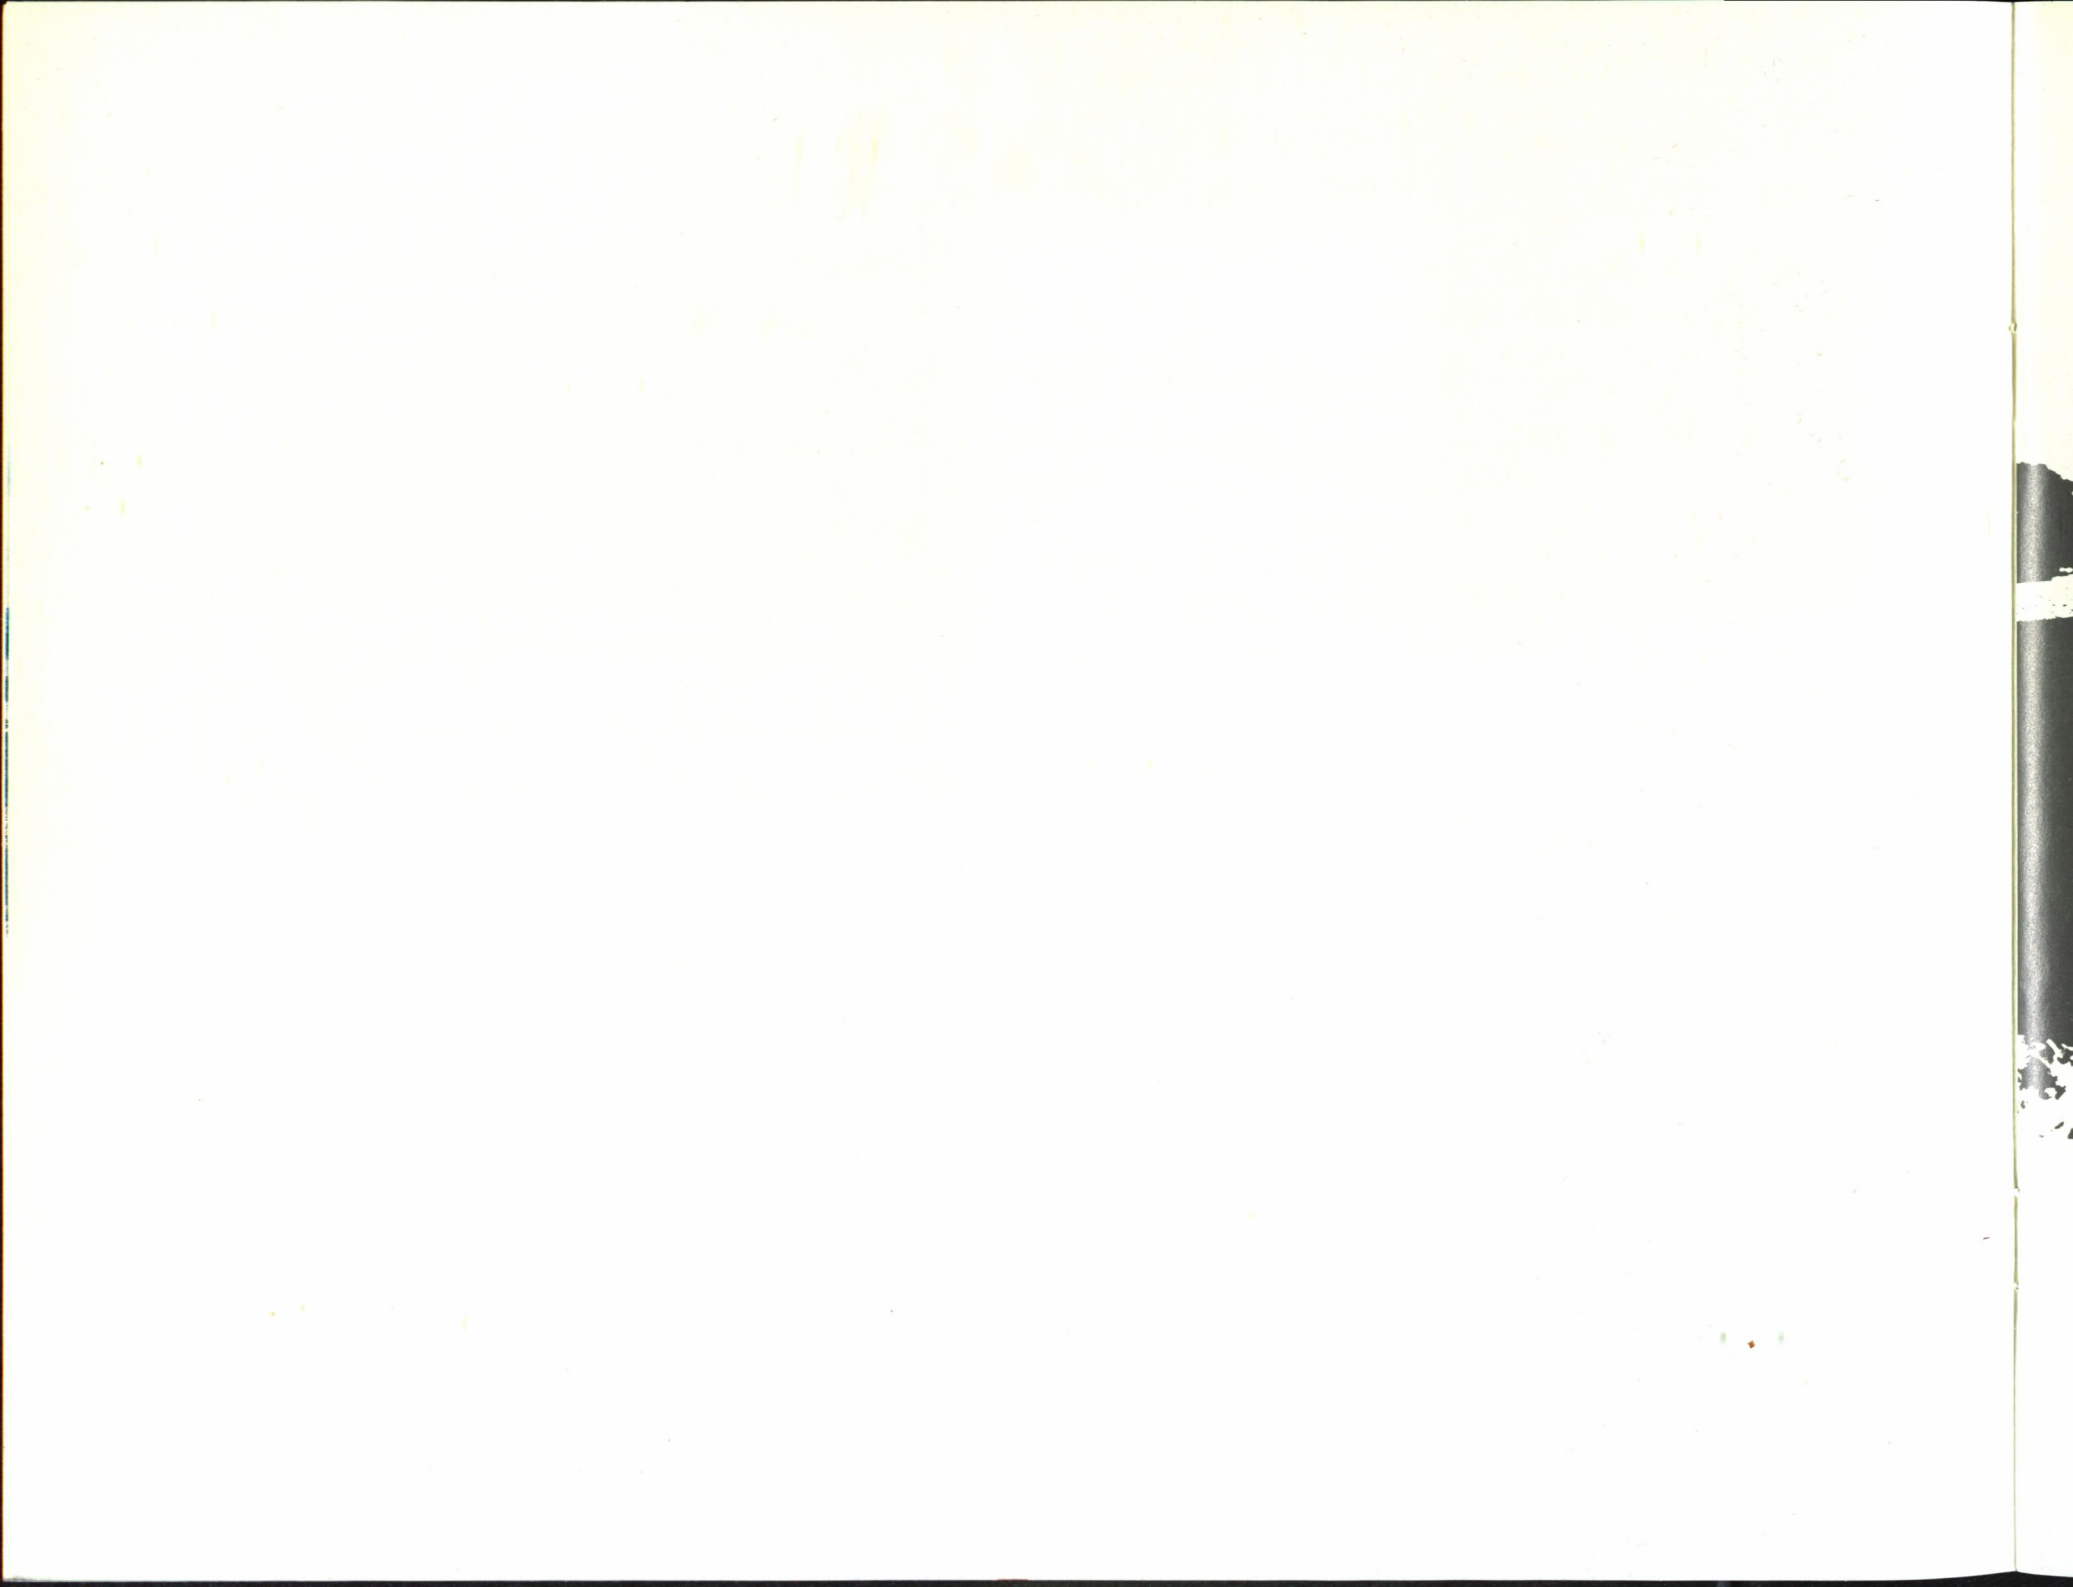

Ce livret et la vidéocassette qui l'accompagne ont été réalisés pour conserver le souvenir de l'inauguration du monument. J'espère qu'ils sauront contribuer à adoucir votre épreuve et à démontrer que tous les Canadiens partagent votre douleur.

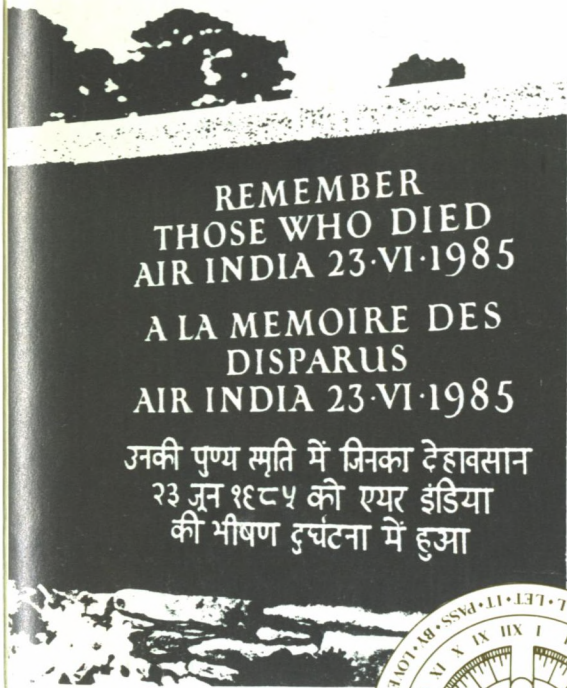

Le secrétaire d'État aux Affaires extérieures

Joe Clark
