GERMANS TOTALLY DEFEATED IN ATTACK AT PASSCHENDAELE

Complete Failure of Enemy Attempt to Recapture Ground Taken by British in Last Week's Drives on the Ridges of Flanders.

London, Nov. 14.—The Germans met with a complete defeat at the hands of the British yesterday in Flanders, the war office reports. An attempt to recapture the ground recently won by the British near Passchendaele was repulsed.

Stockholm, Nov. 14.—Premier Kerensky has returned Petrograd, according to a despatch received from the correspondent of the Swedish news agency at Haparanda, on the Russian border.

TO CONTEST WEST LAMBTON.

Special to The Toronto World. Brixton, Nov. 14.—Dr. J. G. Merrison was today nominated by the Laurier Liberals to contest West Lambton.

POLITICAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Pins possible candidates figure in Bradford election. Rumors of a dark horse to be brought out in North Waterloo.

NICHOLAS PROCLAIMED EMPEROR OF SIBERIA

Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—The Berlinische Tidende's Haparanda correspondent in a despatch received here says: "Officers at Tornea, Finland, say that Siberia has declared its independence and proclaimed former Emperor Nicholas as emperor."

THE PASSING SHOW

Political partisanship is deeply rooted in Ontario. It is evident that in most of the constituencies a Laurier candidate will be nominated, who whatever may be his professions on the platform, will get the votes of all those who oppose the draft and whose hearts are not in the war.

It is not necessary to challenge the sincerity of the Liberal leader. His commands merit affection; he has many of the qualities of a great gentleman. Those who once command under his influence seldom escape. If they do seem to escape they will have a vagrant and futile regard for him as long as they live.

But he has overcome Bourassa by refusing coalition and opposing conscription. If he should succeed in the election, at least half his following would come from Quebec. Of the remainder 25 per cent. would represent constituencies in the other provinces indifferent about the war or against further exertions and sacrifices by Canada.

In any event Mr. Rowell got what he wanted; and judging by the temper of public meetings all over Ontario, he got what Liberals wanted, what Mr. Pardee wanted, what Mr. Guthrie wanted, in view of his course through the war, how could Mr. Rowell have refused to enter a coalition government? How can Liberals who save so many evidences of approval of his course now refuse to support him and the candidates of the government which he has entered? If they desert him after cheering his demands for conscription and coalition, it will Premier Outlines to Commons Powers and Functions of the International Body.

London, Nov. 14.—The proposed new inter-allied council was the subject of discussion in the house of commons today when the former premier, H. H. Asquith, brought the matter before the house by introducing Premier Lloyd George on the functions of the council.

Terms of Agreement

Premier Lloyd George said the best way of answering the question was to read the actual terms of the agreement between the British, French and Italian governments for the creation of an inter-allied council of the allies.

Ribbons to Run Through Your Lingerie

In a Whole Rainbow of Shades, a Complete Range of Widths and in Many Patterns and Weaves, and of Course, They are Washable, All of Them

If you are thinking of making a cap, a cami-sole, or a negligee of the wider widths (joining the ribbon with lace), you may then use the narrower for its adornment. Or should it be but a set of lingerie claps or rosettes it is well to know the same shade may be had in widths from 1/8 to 2 inches. And such truly delectable shades! Pinks, shading from flesh to rose;
blues, matching sky or sea;
maize in the tints of a tea rose and mauve.

"Lingerie Francaise," as the name implies, is a pleasing French ribbon, finely woven with serge center and plain narrow edge, obtainable in maize, pink, blue, mauve and white, priced as follows: 1/8", 8c; 1/4", 10c; 3/8", 15c; 1/2", 18c; 5/8", 25c; 1 1/2", 35c;
2", 50c per yard.

With a lustrous satin finish, patterned with single violets, is a charming ribbon in similar shades, excepting maize, at the same prices.

The "Burney" a pleasing ribbon with tricot weave, justly famous for its satisfactory washing qualities, is obtainable in pink, blue, maize and white at the following prices: 1/8", 3c; 1/4", 4c; 1/2", 6c; 3/4", 8c; 1", 10c; 1 1/2", 15c; 2", 20c per yard.

A similar quality patterned with tiny shamrock leaves is to be had in the same shades and prices, omitting 1/8 and 3/4 inch.

EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS

Are You Wearing the Corset Best Suited to Your Figure?

It Makes a Whole World of Difference, You Know—in Comfort, Appearance, and Health Itself. And How Easy to Acquire it! The Department Has Corsets Designed for Every Type of Wearer—and Experienced Corsetiers to Advise and to Fit You. A Few of the Most Popular Makes Are Illustrated in the Accompanying Sketches.

A. To begin with the Average Figure—which, so far as Canadians are concerned, is a figure inclining just a trifle toward stoutness, with hips considerably larger than the bust. For this—the figure they are most often called upon to fit—our corsetiers find especial satisfaction in the "FRANCO," a front lace corset which Fashion and good sense have rendered so immensely popular. Its complete size range is from 21 to 30 waist measure, with prices $4.00 and $6.00.

B. The Misses' Figure—demanding little more of the corset than the support it supplies for skirt-bands, etc.—for this is "Ama," of light-weight coutil, softly boned, with low bust and short skirt. Sizes are 20 to 28, and price $1.00.

C. Here you have a figure only "medium stout," but disproportionately large in the hips and abdomen. For such a figure, one of the most successful of all corsets is the new front-laced "WONDERLIFT," one of the latest "Nemo" models, which affords a most valuable support for the abdomen, at the same time reducing any superfluous flesh. It may be had in sizes 21 to 36. Price, $7.50.

D. The slight figure, hipless and supple, the envy of her who delights in frills, flounces and fluffy ruffles. Few bones are required for her corset, which above the waist is little higher than a girdle. The model our artist has sketched is daintily contoured, a "NEMO," priced $4.00. It is also suitable for larger figures of similarly slight proportions, being available in sizes 19 to 36.

E. The Stout Figure—most dependent of all upon the skill and scientific study of the corset designer. And celebrated the world over as a corset that achieves wonders in the way of comfort, healthful support and modest outline for the woman characterised by emphasis is the "NEMO," the model illustrated known as the "WONDELIFT." It is procurable in sizes 28 to 36, and is priced at $8.50.

"Julia Marlowe"—A Smart Boot at a Moderate Price

Illustrating Two Attractive Models in Vici Kid and Patent Leather, Respectively, at $9.00 a Pair

THE demands of that first and foremost accessory, the shoe, which so greatly affects the appearance and comfort of its wearer, are amply met in the well-known "Julia Marlowe." Combining good material and workmanship with excellence of style, the result is a most practical and attractive bit of footwear.

Illustrated are two models similar in design, offering their appeal to women who require those attributes in a shoe of moderate pricing. That illustrated on the left is of fine vic kid, with Goodyear welted

Beaded Bags That Are Loveliness Itself

Of Course They Come Straight From Paris, and Are Clever and Original as Parisian Hand-bags Well Can Be—Veritable Treasures, if You're Looking for an Interesting Present to Give at Christmas

J. This bag presents a lovely medley of rich brown and silver beads, the groundwork of brown and green, with some red on a stripe in solid steel beading. Little knobs of steel beads grace either corner and centre of base, its four strap handles being outlined in steel beading. A pleasantly-toned cord of silk in blue and maize lines it. Price, $25.00.

K. Dull black faille silk is used for the foundation of this novel bag, steel beads forming its charming design, and its knobs, tassels and outlining of unusual inter-cats. Its handles are of silk with are of silk with bone clasp, the pretty lining of rose and white Dresden silk. Price, $15.00.

L. A simply fascinating little bag of the drawing variety it is, made with heading of a deep purple taffeta, the bead work being of a similar rich shade, patterned in grey, with touch of leaf green. Price, $10.00.

THE STORE'S CONVENIENCES

The Waiting and Rest Room, Third Floor. The Information Bureau and Postoffice, Main Floor. The Free Parceling and Checking Room, in the Basement.

SUCH enchanting neckties that have come in recently from Paris! They are made of beads, but they look as though the fairest had strung them—to the order of Pointe Jeanne Lavrin or some such magician of style. They are fashioned in miniature stole effect, lying flat upon the neck, and being obtainable in ruby red, old blue, amethyst, grey, white and green, they supply a delightful dash of color for the sombre costume. Prices run from two dollars to sixteen.

Did you ever wonder what the difference was between the rattan and willow used in the popular "wicker" chair? Rattan is the heart of the rattan vine, hundreds of feet long, that grows in South America. Willow is the slim, planty branch of the ordinary willow tree, that flourishes in Canada as well as elsewhere. The term "wicker" is applied to both.

Have you seen the charming little bowls and Dutch bulbs put up in boxes for giving at Christmas time? There are narcissi and daffodils, and a choice of blue and green pottery or copper bowls, with printed directions for bringing the bulbs to flower. Prices run from 35 cents to $1.50.

If you number yourself among the admirers of "Pia" and her clever drawings for the "Letters of Eve" in The Tatler, you will be interested to know that many of the chic little sketches of Eve and Tonton may now be had on the corners of handkerchiefs. For making up into glove and handkerchief cases, fancy aprons and such, they are an especially bright idea.

The Toronto World

At the Tribunals.

There are some pathetic cases before the tribunals these days, but those who are following the work of these bodies are inclined to admire them for their impartiality and general fairness.

It is a question of rights and privileges in the view of some. But what rights and privileges has any family or individual in a democracy over others?

According to our capacity we should expect to be served. The tender ties of the family are no more sacred for one group than for another.

The Farmers Under Fire.

The one man whose loyalty is never questioned is the farmer, because he more than anyone else has a stake in the country. Yet the National Nonpartisan League, composed of farmers in the American northwest, is under attack, and even suspicion, as not being wholeheartedly behind the government in the prosecution of the war.

The farmers claim that the big interests are hypocritically using the war cry to thwart the league's policy of economic reforms, which include state ownership and operation of grain elevators, flour mills and packing houses.

In the same way injustice seems to have been done the league by the eastern papers which so savagely denounced John M. Baer, the Dakota congressman, as a "foreign farmer" before he had taken his seat in the house of representatives.

Public ownership and operation of public utilities, not a premature peace, is what the farmers should strive to bring about. It is the toll taken by the middleman which makes conditions unjust, to the producer and intolerable to the consumer.

A Representative Zionist.

A notable visitor to the city yesterday was Dr. S. Levine, a leading member of the "inner action" committee, which controls the entire activities all over the world today of the Zionist movement, having as its object the installation of the Jewish people in Palestine as an independent nation.

thinks no other nation could approach them in this respect. He spoke of the remarkable success of the British in India in particular.

His views on the east generally are of deep interest. The engineer who went from Egypt to Mesopotamia reported that the latter was a better land to live in than Egypt, and with proper cultivation and irrigation could easily support a population of 25,000,000, even of 50,000,000.

Dr. Levine said it was a tradition among many of the Jews that the British were not of the Goyim or Gentiles, but kin to the Jews, and in many Russian villages it was believed that the British were the lost tribes. At any rate the feeling was very friendly, and the action of the British Government in declaring that the Jews should find their inheritance in Palestine had aroused much enthusiasm.

Dr. Levine's idea of a Jewish nation in Palestine was republican in form. The patriarchal conceptions of the nation easily fitted into this form. He did not think a theocracy was practicable, and preferred a free church as being the best thing for the church as well as the people.

The invasion of Palestine by General Allenby had interested Dr. Levine very much, as he knows the country well. They should remember, he suggested, that the contention in the Old Testament was between the gods of the hill and those of the valley. The British had been in the valley and were now going into the hill country beyond Hebron, where more care was necessary.

War Suffrage and Prohibition.

The New Republic points out a natural disposition on the part of everyone who favors this or that policy to connect up his argument in some way with the winning of the war.

So with prohibition. Already the president has prohibited by executive order the manufacture and importation of distilled spirits. Congress has made the District of Columbia dry, and there are many prohibition states.

In the United States it must be admitted, however, that national interference in certain problems, except under the necessity of war, is open to objection. The southern states, with their serious race problem, may well oppose a federal constitutional amendment enfranchising all the women of the country.

News From the Front.

A very fine compliment was paid to Mr. Stewart Lyon by the National Club, which tendered him a banquet on Tuesday evening on the occasion of his return from the front, where he had spent some eight months as special correspondent for the Canadian Press.

Mr. Lyon favored the club with a vivid two-hours' account of proceedings at the front on the understanding that what was said would be treated as in camera. Those who heard him might not be so inclined to object to the reforms proposed by Premier Lloyd George as those who were blind to all the conditions.

The crow family, to which the rook belongs, is placed by ornithologists at the head of the bird-world, as being more highly organized than any other. Linnacus gave the post of honor to the eagles because of their kingly quality of rapacity.

THE QUESTION OF ALSACE-LORRAINE

BY EMILE BOUTROUX.

There has been much talk recently of Alsace-Lorraine and people have, with justice, insisted that since these provinces were violently torn from France in 1871, their return to the mother country would be in no sense an annexation, but really a restitution, a reintegration, a dis-annexation.

More specifically it has been well said that it would be unjust to demand a plebiscite on this question after the war, for such a suggestion signifies that, in the opinion of the proposer, the double plebiscite of 1871, at Bordeaux and at Berlin, which sanctioned the annexations of Alsace-Lorraine in the most striking fashion, is null and void.

It is necessary to go back at least to the years 1814-1815, in order to grasp the whole question of Alsace-Lorraine. The pretensions of Prussia at the Congress of Vienna are well known. To become the preponderant power in Germany she demanded nothing less than the whole of Saxony to become the dominating power in Europe.

From that moment the question of Alsace-Lorraine has not been merely military but symbolic. The continuance of these provinces as French territory was the sign and symbol of the superiority of Europe over the will of Prussia.

That is why, before leaving the subject of Alsace-Lorraine, we must not forget to mention the fact that the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine to France is not a question of territory, but a question of principle.

Baseball Chaos in the Leagues

Talk of New Union Baseball Going Thru as Outlaw League

Speculation at Louisville on What Will Become of American AA and Our Own International That Has Only Five Clubs Left.

Special to The Toronto World. Louisville, Nov. 14.—If the three leagues go on now it will have to go as an "outlaw" league. Organized baseball turned a deaf ear to the pleas of the American Association, the Three Eye League, and Ed. Barrow, president of the International League, today, the National Association voting down the resolution to readjust all minor leagues by 11 to 2. The Pacific Coast League did not cast a vote, due to the illness of President Baum. Otherwise, the score might have been worse. Immediately after the National Association turned down the resolution, the American Association was holding a meeting. It was decided that the American Association would continue to exist, but that they would go ahead, some concessions having been made. One rumor had it that Tom Chivington, who arrived on the scene at the psychological moment, would resign. Tom Hickey, it was stated that owners Wathen, McGill and Brennan will all agree to continue under the American Association. There was another rumor that Ed. Barrow would resign Hickey, but Hickey is still president and owner. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the American Association held another meeting and adjourned immediately to meet in Chicago on Dec. 17. No concessions had been made; Hickey was still president and owner. This is just as it was before all of this league talk started.

The story is that certain American Association owners, Al. Pearson and Ed. Barrow received at the hands of the National Association does not rest well on their stomachs and there may be something doing in the field before the winter is far advanced, and there is a possibility that the thing might go over the top. The American Association, if the conditions are the same as heretofore they will be almost unbearable for Wathen, Brennan and McGill.

Owing to the fact that they have had the courage to carry the fight so far, it is thought that they have enough to win. They are undoubtedly willing to go "outlaw" if other clubs can be gotten together, and a capable president found for the new organization.

On Dec. 10 the International League will hold its annual meeting. At that time, it is said, the International League will throw up the sponge. Montreal and Richmond are thru, and Rochester is unwilling to continue. If this is true, Ed. Barrow will be left out in the cold, with five clubs on his hands. At the present time Barrow could not make a move if he were so inclined. The International League is still intact and will remain so until Dec. 10. It may not be a league after that. However, there is where the "outlaw" are figured to step out and form a league with Wathen, McGill and Brennan as president. If the "outlaws" do not get busy immediately after Dec. 10, there will be another warm session of the American Association, without a doubt, when it meets Dec. 17. It is not thought that Wathen, McGill and Brennan will sit calmly by and be kicked all around by the A. A. They have one path left open to them—"outlaws"—and they might take advantage of it, or else force the A. A. into making certain concessions that they deem advisable.

Some chances are that the third league idea will be allowed to rest in peace for a while. There isn't a chance to go ahead until after Dec. 10. If the International League should decide to continue, Wathen, McGill and Brennan will climb into the band wagon as quietly and peacefully as they know how.

The "outlaw" club certainly got the minors in their meeting today. They were cooked and primed to pull some progressive legislation to benefit their sick circuits, until, on Tuesday night, when the "outlaw" bugaboo was injected into the campaign, and then they scampered to cover.

NO UNION IN LEAGUE VOTE DEFEATS IT

Resolution to Redistrict Minors, Voted Down.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—Settlement of the factional dispute which threatened to disrupt the American Association and pave the way for the formation of a new league appeared to be assured tonight.

The rival factions were brought together after the National Association of Baseball Leagues voted down, 11 to 2, a resolution at its convention today to readjust the minor leagues of the country. The vote was taken after the American Association had tentatively decided to open their season about May 1—three weeks later than the opening date of a year ago—and the possibility of reducing the player limit.

President Hickey said a meeting would be held in Chicago on Dec. 17 to decide on plans for next season.

Barrow Led Fight.

Edward Barrow, president of the International League, brought the fight to readjust the minor leagues to the floor of the convention today. He offered an amendment to a resolution which provided for readjusting of only the smaller leagues. The proposal was received with a storm of protests, and half a dozen league presidents attacked it.

H. B. Sexton, president of the National Association, decided there could be no withdrawal of the Louisville, Indianapolis and Toledo clubs from the American Association, nor the formation of a new league, without the unanimous consent of all the clubs in the two organizations.

"It would have been criminal to destroy the American Association, which represents an investment of $8,000,000, with the majority of the club owners against it," H. B. Sexton said.

President Barrow was unwilling to fight to make any prediction as to whether the organization would take the New York Dec. 10 to take whatever steps are necessary.

Barrow said that "the merger plan apparently has fallen thru. I think it would have been a good thing for the game, especially in the war-time conditions we must face."

LEGALIZED BOXING ENDS IN NEW YORK

Bouts Must Now Be Conducted on the Membership Club Plan.

New York, Nov. 14.—At midnight tonight the Frawley Law, which for over two years has permitted ten-round boxing bouts to be held at licensed clubs everywhere in New York State, became obsolete.

After being on the statute books since July, 1911, the Frawley measure was passed during the closing hours of the 1917 legislative session at Albany.

In future, or until such time as some other measure may permit a revival of the sport in places where public admission fees can be charged, glove contests in Greater New York, or elsewhere in the state, will be confined to chartered clubs under the "membership" plan, which was in vogue here during the interim between the lapse of the Frawley Law and the enactment of the new measure.

According to the annual reports of the New York State Athletic Commission, patrons of the sport in the last six years have paid about $5,000,000 in admissions to ring contests and exhibitions held under the Frawley Law. The state tax of five per cent, and later 7 1/2 per cent, on these receipts, which has been paid into the state treasury, amounted to about $300,000. The banner year under the Frawley regime was 1916, when the receipts, including the big gate for the Ward-Moran bout at Madison Square Garden, amounted to $1,066,468, and the state tax, $79,955.

DENTALS VICTORS IN MULOCK FIXTURE

Stop Good St. Michael's College Outfit in Hard-Fought Game.

Dents are very much in the running for the Mulock Cup. St. Michael's College made an effort to stop the Dents yesterday at Varsity Stadium, and for the first fifteen minutes it looked as if they might pull the trick. The final score was 6 to 1 for Dents and the winners were getting better every minute of the game.

The Dental kickers more than hold their own with the shifty trio from St. Mike's and after the first half the Dental line was air-tight.

In the first quarter the Dents' line was anything but tight. They were bucked all over the field and it was more good luck than anything else that stopped St. Michael's from getting over the line. St. Michael's forced a fumble in this session and the second half the Dents were out-punting their opponents. Dents kicked over the line in the third quarter and a St. Michael's attempt to run it out, but dropped the ball, and the Dents promptly fell on it for a try that was not converted. A fumble in the last quarter brought Dents score up to six, and with St. Mike's held scoreless after the first quarter it ended 6 to 1.

The teams: (6)—Flying wing, McLaren; Dents (6)—Flying wing, Griffin; quarter-back, Edwards; three-quarter-back, Roberts; scrum-half, Bell; Butler, Fraser; inside wings, Long, McGowan; middle wings, McLaughlin, Graham; outside wings, Letellier, Staples.

St. Michael's: (6)—Flying wing, Brown; halves, McDougall, McIntosh; Lee; quarter-back, Finnerty; scrum-half, O'Leary; Gullies, Kelly; inside wings, Robbins, McGavin; middle wings, Greece.

NEW PRO HOCKEY LEAGUE IS O. K.

Still Discussing Whether Toronto or Quebec to Be Fourth Club.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is now stated that the eastern professional hockey clubs will not lift the curtain and reveal their plans until the latter part of this week. The Quebec club, it develops, was given a week to make up its mind. Manager Ken Quinn and his associates are now at work in the ancient capital, and whether they may decide right away, they may not notify Secretary Frank Calder until Friday or Saturday.

It is understood that another meeting of the delegates will not be necessary. Wanderers, Ottawa, Canadiens and Quebec have authorized Secretary Frank Calder to draw up the schedule, and it is now being arranged. It is arranged, of course, for Wanderers, Canadiens, Ottawa and Quebec, but the extent of Quebec dropping out, Toronto will be substituted. It is understood that a new organization operated by the Toronto Arena Company, Secretary Rosenthal of the Ottawa club, stated last night there were no new developments and that everything now rested with the Quebec club. He predicted that the Quebec club would decline to resume, explaining that M. J. Quinn and his conferees at the close of last week's meeting had appeared particularly cheerful.

Meanwhile there is considerable suspense with regard to the players of the Quebec and Toronto clubs. Should Quebec drop out, the Ottawas will make a bid for Dave Ritchie, their lightning-defence player. Wanderers, it is said, will make room for Harry Mumery, while the two Montreal clubs will draw for Jack Malton and Jack McDonald. Russel Crawford, Jack Marks, George Carey and one or two others will likewise be dis-

SOCCER NOTES

The Queen City Soccer League season and referees for Saturday are: Senior-Torveyma v. Riverside, at Dovercourt Park (referee, Hunter); Matthews v. Parkview, at Queen Alexandra School (Armstrong); Junior-Earlscourt v. Danforth, at Earlscourt School (Osborne); Juvenile-Old Country v. Brooklyn, at Lappin avenue (Robinson).

At a meeting of the Provincial Soccer League yesterday, an application from Wychwood to enter the Mappin & Webb Shield competition, run by the league, was granted, and the draw in which will be played on Saturday, resulted in Sunderland v. Wychwood (referee, Kerr); Toronto Scottish v. Royal Flying Corps (referee, Hunter); and Wychwood team will be strengthened by several of the ex-Irish-Catholic players, and should give Sunderland a good run for the points. The first annual cup of the league will be held on Saturday, Dec. 1, at which the Robertson Shield and other trophies will be presented.

President Scarborough of the Linfield F.C. has received a letter from Manager Wanda of Thistle F.C. junior champions of Hamilton, asking for a game with his club, to be played in Toronto on Saturday, 24th inst. The Linfield Club have agreed to play the game, which if granted, will afford soccerists an excellent opportunity to see the wares these junior teams can provide. Seeing that these teams are champions of Toronto and Hamilton respectively, good soccer should result from such a game. Linfield players please take notice.

SOUTHPAWS NOT SUCCESSFUL IN PAST WORLD SERIES GAMES

Have Pitched Good Ball, But Seldom to Win—Leonard, Marquard and Plank Have Two Games to Credit in Former Years.

It has been noted previously that the 1917 world's series was the first in which a left-hander pitched a shut-out, and by the same token left-handers have not in past series been very successful.

Southpaws who have shown well, but not brilliantly, in past world's series are Eddie Plank, Nick Altrock, Duke Harry White, Hub Leonard and George Ruth.

Altrock and White pitched 500 ball against the Cubs in 1908, and Leonard and Ruth turned in three victories for the Red Sox in 1915 and 1916.

Eddie Plank, who led in fast company longer than any left-hander, always pitched ably in the baseball classics, but he seldom was supplied with any victory.

Leonard's team-mate, Ruth, did not operate against the Quakers, getting into action against the Robins last year and winning over them in 14 1/2 innings, 2 to 1. He pitched 140 ball in this set-to.

Altrock and White split even, in their world's series games were Altrock and White. The Griffen's comedian coacher did better work than the tooth-puller, and a little clubbing on the part of the Sox would have returned him a winner twice over.

Marquard pitched in four world's series, doing good work only in the 1912 classic. His 1911 labors were not exactly peer. John Franklin Baker's home run wrecked Marquard's first game; in the second he was driven to cover in three innings, and in the third he was the only New York pitcher who wasn't beat.

SISLER HAS MUCH ON FIRST-SACKERS

St. Louis Star is a Marvel—Comparing Him With the Others.

One of the most notable developments in baseball during the past 10 years is evidenced in the marvelous batting and general offensive power shown by George Sisler during the 1917 season. The Akron boy's lustre was all that kept the St. Louis Americans from having a season of extreme disappointment.

It is a fairer way to measure the boy's feats by comparing him with others in the same position. Sisler is not, however, so most fans are aware, is able to take it in the box or play the outfield.

Go down the entire line of first basemen from Hal Chase to the newest recruit and the resultant comparisons will reveal a broader sense of the value of Sisler's skill.

Stuffy McInnis is the nearest approach to Sisler in the ranks of organized baseball so far as driving power is concerned. Sisler's greatest play is not in the batting line, but in the field.

Quebec, Nov. 12.—Mike Quinn, former president of the Quebec Hockey Club, had little to say about Saturday's meeting when questioned this morning.

It is likely that Canadians, Wanderers, Ottawa and Quebec will reorganize and play out a scheduled series of the N.H.A. back out, tho Mr. Quinn would not say anything regarding future plans.

Pittsburg, Nov. 14.—Jimmie Smith's father is dangerously ill and the Green-bergs are here, nursing his father, who is scheduled to play in the world's series games.

Morris a Failure in Western Bouts

Carl Morris is among those who thought it would be a cinch to make the four-round boxing game in France. Apparently he fared worse than Ted Lewis and other birds who took flight from the east as the demise of the Frawley law loomed.

Well, sir, we've seen Carl Morris fight; our hopes of the next three or four years have been realized; we've seen the "Tales Giant" and, honestly, all he has to be going east again; he'll be shipped to retain Jack Curley's stable of other wrestlers, and we'll never see him again—never.

Morris, 225 pounds of beef, was pitted last night at Drexelham Rink against Jack Dempsey, a 162-pound man, and he only did Morris lose the decision, but the fight, seen one of ten rounds, or even six, he would undoubtedly have been knocked out.

One thing can be said for Morris. He tried to fight. He did the best he knew of the quality, or a wave of the hand, would have started Carl out of the ring. But there was no occasion for anything like that, for Morris, as we started to say, tried to fight; he seemed anxious to make a dash for it, but he didn't know how to fight. He was just like a big Newfoundland dog pitted against a bull terrier.

The fellow who told Carl that they spoiled a good engineer trying to make a fellow who told him the truth. Morris wouldn't even make a good wrestler—he's too long-legged, awkward and slow. He's a failure, and he's a failure in San Francisco, would have put him out in a few minutes. He's a failure, and he's a failure since the battle went his way and coaxed a single Louis Pasteur's for the price of a hamburger steak.

—N. Y. POST.

Look at the sketch above. Let its meaning sink in. Can you sit down in peace to three good meals a day and refuse aid to the starving children of Belgium? For, remember, you might just as well refuse POINT BLANK as neglect sending in your contribution. Some child may starve to death for the lack of your subscription. Absolutely, it is as serious as that.

THEIR FATHERS DIED FIGHTING! The Orphans Die of Slow Starvation!

The Government ration of a bowl of soup and a slice of bread a day is not sufficient for a growing child. You know that. Hence the vital importance of these two funds:

1. Belgian Children's Health Fund—By means of your contributions to this fund children giving way under the slow starvation are taken from Belgium to Holland, where, at a cost of about $20, they are cared for, housed, fed, clothed and given medical attention for six weeks. Thousands are on the waiting list, WAITING for your contribution.

2. Belgian Orphans' Fund—Think why they are orphans! The sum of $3.70 a month will keep one orphan in hands where he will have a chance to live and get an education. Give—give generously—and don't wait for some one to come and ask you personally. This is personal. Leave your contribution with the local committee or mail it to-day, before you sit down to another meal.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"The 13th Chair." At the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week, beginning Monday evening, William Harris, Jr., will present "The 13th Chair," a play of mystery and thrill by Bayard Veiller, who also wrote the wonderfully successful melodrama, "Within the Law." Mr. Harris has assembled a company of real excellence for the portrayal of the different characters, and provided a production that is said to be scenically perfect. In the company are Blanche Hall, Joseph R. Garry, Elaine Anderson, Marie Gott, Noel Leslie, Herbert Fortier, Percy Hopper, Sidney Blackman, Madge Corcoran, Jane Gilroy, James H. Morrison, Edward Mason, Anne Amerys, Arthur Fitzgerald, Ethel Mantell, Robert Dudley and Stephen Heyburn. The reserve seats will be placed on sale today at the theatre box office.

"Here Comes the Bride." "Here Comes the Bride" will be seen at the new Princess the week of Nov. 13. It is the production of Klaw and Erlanger by arrangement with Edgar MacGregor, who also staged the play. "Here Comes the Bride" is designated as a live wire American farce comedy. It is a product of Max Marcin and Roy Atwell, and is frankly acknowledged to be for laughing purposes only. The story concerns an impecunious young attorney who is desperately "hard up" when he is offered one hundred thousand dollars to take a bride of mystery, whose identity is secret, and concerning whom he must ask no questions. Among the notable names in the cast are Oliver Cuger, Franklyn Ardell, George Parsons, William Holden, Mario Maderoni, Alfred Reed, Thomas Mesman, Maude Eburn, Ruth Shealy, Mildred Booth and Francine Larrimore, all of whom have been identified with popular successes in New York and here. The seat sale opens today at the box office.

Andrew Mack in "Molly Dear." The Grand Opera House has a list of splendid attractions looked the balance of the season, comprising some of the best-known stars of the American stage, as well as some of the greatest hits of the past year in New York, but there will be no engagement played there this year which will give more delight to the audience as it resembles that which is announced for one week, commencing Monday evening, when that splendid player of Irish roles and singer of Irish ballads, Andrew Mack, will be seen in a new play by Cecil B. DeMille, author of "The Royal Mounted," etc., entitled "Molly Dear."

Loew's Theatre. In "The Narrow Trail," which comes to Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden next week, William S. Hart, the great delineator of western characters, appears as a western highwayman, who ventures into a typical "lonky-tonk" of a decade ago. The Sextette De Luxe, a group of pretty girls in a combination of dances, singing and impersonations, will head the vaudeville attractions. Another favorite on the bill will be Bert Howard, "The Man From Marion, Indiana." The vaudeville stars will offer some new Broadway hits; and Johnny Mack and Mattie Lee will be seen in their playlet, "Milk and Melody." Phyllis Huntley and Paul Brown will introduce a one-act comedy drama, "Everywoman's Problem." Other bookings include Will and Kemp in "The Volunteers," and Bekimo and Seal, in an unusual display of animal intelligence.

Ben Welch Coming. Pat Kearney, Frank J. Murphy, Billy Wild, Sid Gold, Lois Lane, Leona Earl, Elva Grievess and Frankie Martin are the well-known vaudeville comedians who will appear in a new show at the Gayety Theatre all next week. The entertainment commences with a musical farce entitled "The Love Athor," and closes with the newest offering in burlesque, "Izzy At the Movies." Mr. Welch's specialty of changing from the Hebrew to the Italian character in lightning time will be only one of the many features with the show. The chorus is of the singing kind, with music written especially for the Ben Welch show.

"Some Babies." "They are taking movies of almost everything these days; all the famous plays of other days, even musical comedies, but I don't think they have ever successfully filmed a burlesque show," says Miss Grace Fletcher, the Dublin Doll with "Some Babies" coming to the Star Theatre next week. "Of course, in a comedy situations of burlesque could be done for the movies; in fact, many of them have been done by Charlie Chaplin, Ford Sterling and the late John Bunny, so that it would take with the audience, couldn't be done successfully."

"Joan the Woman." This impressive film version of the life of Joan of Arc not only is a most fascinating photoplay, but of distinctly educational value, so that it is expected that on its appearance at Messy Hall week of Nov. 19 there will be a big rush for seats. These may be reserved today. Prices at matinees 25c and 50c. "The Little American." "The Little American," now being shown at the Allen Theatre, is the kind of photoplay that should be exhibited in these times when the country is calling for more men, and it is safe to say that those who see this thrilling production, which vividly portrays the sinking of a large passenger liner, as well as other Hun outrages, will feel inspired to do their part in the stamping out of German militarism.

Fin Film at Madison. Today, tomorrow and Saturday the feature at the Madison Theatre will be the exceptionally charming Broadway photoplay, "The Little Duchesse," with Madge Evans, cleverest of child actresses, in the title role. With the main idea slightly reminiscent of "The Lord Fauntleroy," the photoplay is one packed with incident and with a potent appeal to every deeply human heart.

Clara Kimball Young at Regent. Clara Kimball Young is this week entertaining Regent patrons in one of the best pictures in which she has starred. As "Magda," in the play of that name she appears at her best, never more beautiful, never more charming; and there is an individual interest throughout the picture. Next week Madge Kennedy returns in her second Goldwyn production, "Nearly Married." For the three weeks of the Victory play, as drawn by Hugo's masterly hand, is enacted with marvelous realism in this fine motion picture.

"Les Miserables" at Strand. "Les Miserables" will continue to be presented at the Strand Theatre for the remainder of the week. This fact should afford the opportunity to any who can appreciate the best in photography, and who have not yet seen this production; to visit the Strand or one of the three days remaining. In addition, in fact, that one gets the chance of seeing a film which is thoroughly a worthy one in any and every detail. The spirit that the master-playwright, Victor Hugo, evinced on the very page is faithfully reproduced in the film. Jean Valjean, the most famous hero in literature, seems to live before our eyes. The tragedy of common life, as drawn by Hugo's master hand, is enacted with marvelous realism in this fine motion picture.

At Shea's. The musical comedy stars, Bonita and Lew Hearn, divide headline honors at Shea's Theatre next week with "Winston's Water Lions and Diving Nymphs," two of vaudeville's greatest attractions. Bonita is a child comedienne with a number of new songs, in which she is ably assisted by Lew Hearn. Winston's aquatic offering shows a number of well-trained sea lions and some beautiful diving girls in spectacular under-the-water features. Alfred de Manby, supported by Lillian Durkin and Helter McCarthy, offers a unique sketch which is called "A Fantasy of Melodrama." Lydia Barry, the American comedienne, needs no introduction to patrons of Shea's Theatre. A new repertoire of songs, clever comedy and amusing stories is included in her act.

SOCIETY CONDUCTED BY MRS. EDMUND PHILLIPS

Lady Beck and Miss Marion Beck, London, Ont., are in New York for the horse show. The entire proceeds of this season's horse show will be turned over as an unreserved gift to the American Red Cross, so the money paid for tickets, catalogues, etc. will be a direct contribution to war relief. One of the notable features of the show will be the competition for teams of hunters to be ridden by women in hunt club uniforms. Lady Beck and her daughter will lead one of these teams.

Mrs. Gerald Aldous and her baby daughter are expected in Canada in the near future. Mr. Gerald Aldous recently left England for France. Mrs. Aldous was the most interesting and also the most beautiful woman seen in New York. Miss Edith Cochrane has left for Providence, Rhode Island, where she will spend several weeks. Sir Thomas and Lady Tait and Miss Winfield Tait intend leaving for New York this week.

Mrs. St. Clair Sobart's address to the Women's Canadian Club this afternoon is looked forward to, as Miss Mary Cayley heard her speak in England and found it most interesting, and also illustrates her address with pictures. The Strathcona Chapter, L. O. E. gave a large bridge party and tea yesterday in the parlour rooms of the Sherbourne House. The guests were very numerous, present at tea-time that it seemed like a real old-fashioned pre-war party, and separated, "Married via Niagara." It has some really amusing scenes, and the dialogue is bright and refreshing. SLIGHT RETREATS OF THE ITALIANS Asiago plateau, which were occupying advanced positions on Monte Longara, after having repulsed the fourth and most powerful attack, were withdrawn to a line of resistance further to the rear. "During the afternoon the enemy, starting from the heights to the south of Gailio, advanced toward Monte Latis. He was repulsed, in the region from Asiago to the 'Sugrana valley' our advanced positions continued to be held. The enemy occupied the front line between the Brenta and the Piave rivers. The enemy occupied the front line between the Brenta and the Piave rivers. The enemy occupied the front line between the Brenta and the Piave rivers.

Along the Piave, combative activity has been increasing. Our artillery and the enemy's developed intense actions. Enemy attempts to cross the river between Queno and Ponzazzo, at the St. Don di Piave and at Intestatura were suppressed and the enemy suffered very serious losses. Desperate fighting took place at Di Padollini and at Zenson, where our counter-offensive continued, but it has not yet succeeded in driving the enemy completely. At Gaisola enemy groups succeeded in filtering thru into the marshy region between the Piave and the Beccia, where, however, they are held.

DOZEN MEN SURRENDER AND ARE EXAMINED

Six Were in Grade A and Reported for Service, While Others Go Temporarily Free. A dozen Toronto men who had failed to register under the Military Service Act, gave themselves up yesterday. After examination by the army doctors it was found six were in grade A, four in B and two in C. The six in A thought their reasons for claiming exemption were not impressive enough to stand up to a medical examination, and then set free.

Over 60,000 registration reports had been filed by men of Toronto military district up to last night. Of these, 5874 reported as ready for service in the C. E. F., and 59,189 put in exemption claims.

TO AID GOVERNMENT TO END PROPAGANDA

Vigilance Corps of American Defenders. Society Will Spread Through United States. New York, Nov. 14.—Vigilance Corps of the American Defence Society will be extended through the United States. For the purpose of aiding the government to combat German propaganda and enemy activities, which have been responsible for fires, munition plant explosions, sabotage, food scares and other attempts to damage the morale of the American people, according to a statement made public tonight by the trustees of the society. Under the plan of organization proposed, one of the duties of the vigilance corps in every city and town would be the classification of all residents under the following classes: Loyal, disloyal, doubtful, unknown. After the completion of this classification a further designation is urged, as follows: "Alien, enemy, pro-German, anti-government."

BORDEN DEFENDS CONSCRIPTION ACT

Premier Begins Campaign in Maritime Provinces at Halifax.

ONLY METHOD OPEN

Three Liberal French-Canadians Refuse Portfolio in Union Cabinet.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 14.—In a speech in which he contended that the coming election was a test of what Canada thought of the war and the necessity for the troops of the Dominion remaining in it, and which was being watched by Germany, Sir Robert Borden, premier minister of Canada, inaugurated his tour of the maritime provinces at a great meeting in Market Hall this evening.

Sir Robert announced that he considered the immediate enforcement of the Military Service Act the only method by which the imperatively necessary reinforcements of the Canadian forces in France can be supplied, and he contended that the only proposal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, if carried out, would only delay the arrival of supplies for a year, something that would be fatal to the German high command with great joy and not a little relief.

Discussing union government, Sir Robert mentioned that in his effort to give representation to all elements of the population that strove to maintain the national endeavor in the war he had offered a cabinet position to three Liberal French-Canadians, who had declined it. The premier was given a warm reception. Between four and five thousand people attended the meeting, including many women. The chair was taken by John W. Regan.

Hon. A. K. Maclean, who followed the premier, defended a decision to enter the union cabinet as a minister without portfolio.

Remarkable Union.

The speech of Sir Robert Borden, in part follows:

Since Halifax was founded, more than a century and a half ago, there has been no event in the world's history comparable with those through which we have passed since August, 1914.

If it were necessary to impress upon my fellow-countrymen the greatness of this war and the purpose to which the allied nations are today consecrating their strength, I could not do so in better words than those employed by the President of the United States in his recent address to the nation.

In this city by the sea you can realize the war more truly, perhaps, than those of any other community upon the continent. The war is brought in sharp relief, but Halifax does not dwell within its walls.

Even the British Islands. Imagine a rain of shells upon this city, no building intact, the streets filled with the dead and dying, half the civil population murdered, the rest carried into captivity and slavery, the children murdered—that is war as they know it in France, August, 1914.

Deeds Speak for Themselves.

In August, 1914, Canada entered this war by the unanimous vote of her parliament, and with the strong and even vehement approval of her people. The record of what has since been accomplished is before you. More than 400,000 men have been enrolled; more than 350,000 have crossed the sea; there is no more effective fighting unit today in any theatre of war than the Canadian army.

In the first instance we relied almost entirely upon the volunteer forces. Underestimate of Force.

The task before the allied nations proved incredibly greater than was first supposed. The power of two great empires, with a population of 25,000,000, more highly disciplined and more thoroughly organized than any other nation in the world, was arrayed against us.

ARRANGED WITH DE SOLA

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Clarence I. De Sola, head of the Zionist movement in Canada, says that the scheme for the repatriation of the Jewish people, recently endorsed by Great Britain, was practically decided upon at a conference held between Foreign Secretary Balfour and himself at Government House, Ottawa, in May of this year.

compelling force of circumstances, the stern duty of providing reinforcements by means of a conscription or draft under compulsory provisions.

I realize the urgent need of labor to sustain the great agricultural, industrial, and mining operations of our country, our munition plants and all the varied industries that are essential for carrying on the war. The Military Service Act, declares that in providing needed reinforcements for the men at the front, just and equitable consideration shall be given to these needs, but reinforcements must be provided.

Nations Must Fight.

In the face of the autocratic military aggression which seeks to dominate the world no nation can endure unless its people are prepared to fight in its defence. Under the Military Service Act the history of citizenship is the demand of the people. I am entirely confident that they will not shrink from that duty. It is said this law ought not to be put into operation without a referendum. Such is the notion put forward by opposition to that of the government.

I consider it my imperative duty to put the act into force immediately. That course is being pursued and it will be unhesitatingly continued. With the situation the need for reinforcements is insistent, compelling, imperative. So fully appreciated by me as minister of the interior is taking place in Russia and in Italy. The terrible need for reinforcements can be met, but even with the best speed that can be made we shall barely be able to meet the demand.

Referendum Spells Delay.

How many men could be brought into the ranks by means of a referendum within one year from today? Parliament stands adjourned on February 28, because the election returns will not be available until February 27. Probably the session could not begin before the middle of March. The passage of the necessary legislation for a referendum might take, at least two months. To hold the referendum election and obtain the verdict of the people requires two or three additional months.

At the meantime the Military Service Act would be suspended, the spirit of our men would be broken, and their ranks become more and more depleted. They had asked for reinforcements, and you gave them a referendum, and perhaps the war itself would have come to a conclusion without giving reinforcements to our country. This is a war in which the last of the men must be used.

Make no mistake about the proposal for a referendum has but one meaning: it means that Canadian forces at the front shall be left to their fate, without support and without reinforcements. Whether that beyond question will be the result, it would be hailed with great joy and not a little relief by the German high command. Can we doubt that if any effort on their part can bring about such a consummation it will be spared?

Union Government.

Out of the numerous events of the year, now drawing to a close, has arisen the union government, which appeals to the people to hold its hands in its terrible struggle.

The enforcement of military service is being carried on by a party government, if that course can possibly be avoided. It is a period, it became most important that a government should be formed by fellow-countrymen of every element in the population, prepared to support Canada's utmost efforts. I have never been so optimistic as I am today. I do not regret their decision. For its consequences they are responsible, not I.

During the past three weeks I have approached the issue of military service with the request that I do not approach them because my sincerely regret their decision. For its consequences they are responsible, not I.

Party Antagonism Grind.

I appeal to you all of whatever party and creed to unite in this great struggle. I have been associated to ponder well upon these events, and to put aside party antagonism, to give representation to the united in earnest, vigorous effort; to stand on principle, is a sorry spectacle at any time. In these days of war, it is little less than a crime. We have a great task upon Canada in this crisis.

Appeal for Support.

The politics of the government have been set forth in two messages already addressed to the Canadian people. To try to take up arms, even in so just a quarrel, still more unenviable is the duty of enforcing compulsory military service. That duty was urged upon me for nearly 18 months before I announced the decision of the government on May 18. During the government on May 18, 1916, men were enlisted at the rate of nearly 1000 per day and the need seemed to be adequately met. Then the summer and autumn of 1916 and the first four months of 1917, had increased it so slowly, notwithstanding the utmost personal effort myself and my colleagues, that only one of two alternatives could be adopted.

Compulsory Service.

One was to leave our Canadian divisions without support and without reinforcements, and the other was to enforce military service. My heart and my conscience did not permit me for one moment to endure the thought of the first; and thus I found myself upon me, not of my own desire, but by the

ENDORSE MEWBURN BY SMALL MAJORITY

Stormy Meeting of Liberals of East Hamilton Held.

MUCH OPPOSITION

Cries of "We Won't Back Him at Polls," Greeted Announcement.

Special to The Toronto World.

Hamilton, Thursday, Nov. 15.—Major-General E. C. Mewburn, minister of militia in Sir Robert Borden's fusion government, was endorsed as the Liberal candidate for East Hamilton at a particularly stormy meeting of the Liberal association of that riding last night.

Throughout the meeting considerable antagonism was displayed towards the new minister of militia, and when the vote was taken, showing that 37 of 69 Liberals present endorsed the candidature of the new minister, a howl of disappointment went up from the other present. Cries that the count was "wrong" and "we won't back him up at the polls" greeted the announcement of the count.

The resolution endorsing the candidature of Major-General Mewburn was moved by W. H. Brandon and seconded by Calvin Davis, editor of the Times (Liberal). Before putting the resolution, Walter T. Evans asked that it be declared out of order by Chairman John Lennox, president of the Liberal Association.

"I would like to see the resolution withdrawn, as it has been up before this association on two previous occasions. If we pass the resolution we will see it in the press that the Liberals of Hamilton have gone over to union government," said Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans pointed out that if union government was the right idea there would not be so much "dickering" and "dickering" spoken at the proceedings. He stated that the Liberal party was "split by the union question and that the Liberals had not had an association for the past five years."

"It has none now, except the winter league which has invited us to claim that party affiliation," said Mr. Evans. "I do not understand how Liberals tolerate Bourassa for a bedfellow. He should be taken out and shot. The question is whether we are going to line up with Rowell and Carvell or with Bourassa. Is it going to be with Laurier or our boys at the front?"

Mr. Brandon, in moving the resolution, said: "If Laurier is returned to power the Military Service Act will be suspended. I do not understand how Liberals tolerate Bourassa for a bedfellow. He should be taken out and shot. The question is whether we are going to line up with Rowell and Carvell or with Bourassa. Is it going to be with Laurier or our boys at the front?"

Mr. Davis, in seconding the resolution, said: "Every woman and man who has spoken at the meeting has claimed that they are the only true Liberals. None of us care a snap for Bourassa, Rogers or Bourassa. If that stamp should have been buried long ago, but we now have an opportunity to lay the party aside for a moment and to support our boys in the trenches." (Applause.)

In accepting Major-General Mewburn as the Liberal candidate for East Hamilton Mr. Davis claimed that the minister of militia was just as good a Liberal as those Liberals who had gone back on the party because they thought the party was wrong and they were right.

"Bourassa is the cleverest man in Canada, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the only man who knows it. He has only joined the Liberal party for the purpose of defeating Sir Wilfrid," said John Russell.

Mr. Russell drew rounds of applause when he said: "I think the press has used the freedom of the press. It is not serving the people. The press of this country is bought like Carvell."

Lyman Lee was made to retract a statement in which he started to ask whether it would happen if the government of union government were to win. He was "boiled" hard, so said: "Well, what I do say is that if union government is not sustained Canada is out of the war."

"That's a dirty sum," retorted Mr. Evans.

Victory Loan

The C.P.R.'s Example

THE following extract from a circular issued by Lord Shaughnessy to the Officers and Employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company explains clearly the reasons why the wage earner and the salaried Employee should buy Victory Bonds. The C.P.R. is underwriting bonds for its Employees because it knows the people must subscribe to make this Loan a success:—

TO OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES: Public announcements have, no doubt, made officers and employees familiar with the issue of the so-called "Victory" bonds in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, by the sale of which the Canadian Government desires to raise the sum of $150,000,000, or more, necessary to finance purchases to be made in Canada for the Allies.

The officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company have already proved their patriotism in many ways, and it is natural to expect that in line with such patriotic effort many of them will desire to invest what they can afford in this vitally important loan.

No better service can at present be rendered to Canada and to the interests of officers and employees themselves than by taking up these bonds. The agriculture, the industry and the commerce of Canada are at present largely devoted to the production, supply and transportation of foodstuffs, munitions and equipment for the Allies, and the loan is required to finance the continued activities in such directions. Without the money required, the prosperity of the whole country is imperilled, and we might have to foresee unemployment on an unprecedented scale.

The "Victory" bonds have the strongest guarantee that Canada can offer, namely, that of the Canadian Government itself, and the generous rate of interest, 5 1/2 per cent., means that the return on the money invested is good.

The bonds as issued by the Government will be payable ten per cent. on December 1st, 1917, one instalment of ten per cent. January 2nd, 1918, and four monthly instalments of twenty per cent., but in order to make it easier for officers and employees to purchase bonds, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company will arrange to carry these bonds, undertaking the payment on the required dates of such bonds as officers and employees pledge themselves to subscribe for, and extending to such officers and employees the dates of payment on the basis of ten per cent. per month, being $5 per month on each $50 subscribed, thus spreading the payments evenly over ten months, instead of six. Such payments will be deducted from the salary or wages as specified on the pledge form attached (to the circular).

WILL CABLE NAMES OF CANDIDATES

Work of Informing Soldiers Will Be Begun at Once.

POLLING AT CAMPS

May Begin Tuesday, But Will Not Be Possible at Many Places.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Notification was sent the high commissioner's office in London today that immediately after nominations on Monday the names of the candidates would be cabled, so that the work of informing the soldiers can be begun at once. Notices were also sent to all returning officers in Canada, instructing them to telegraph the names of candidates to the clerk of the crown in chancery at Ottawa.

Placards containing names, addresses and descriptions of the candidates will be posted upon the bulletin boards of each battalion in all camps where this is possible. Polling at the camps may begin on Tuesday, but it is not expected that this will be possible at many places. So far as Canada is concerned attention is drawn to the fact that naturalized citizens must present their naturalization certificates to the enumerators before they can be placed on the lists.

ALLAN STUDHOLME SPEAKS

In interests of Labor Candidate in North Waterloo—Questioning Refused.

Special to The Toronto World.

Kitchener, Nov. 14.—Mr. Allan Studholme, M.P.P. of Hamilton, tonight addressed a largely attended meeting in the interests of Dr. Hett, Independent Labor candidate. At the conclusion of Mr. Studholme's remarks Mr. Walters, a local manufacturer, asked leave of Chairman J. Clarke to ask Mr. Studholme a question. His request was refused, and upon pressing for permission the chairman declared the meeting closed.

Mr. Studholme's address was well received and he was frequently applauded. Dr. Hett also spoke, his words rousing the meeting to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

SELECT DELEGATES FOR EAST YORK CONVENTION

Liberals and Conservatives of the Riding Express Themselves in Support of Union Government.

Liberals and Conservatives joined in an enthusiastic win-the-war meeting in Armstrong's Hall last night under the auspices of the Ward One Liberal-Conservative Association, and five delegates for each of the 104 sub-divisions of East York were selected to attend the union convention to be held at St. John's Parish Hall, Norway, Saturday evening. The foiling of the meeting was entirely in support of the union government and the immediate operation of the Military Service Act in order to provide reinforcements for the boys overseas.

George Crighton, president of Ward One Association, presided, and the speakers were: Joseph Eusebi, M.P.A., J. R. MacNicol, Controller, Foster, Dr. Charles Sheard, Dr. W. B. Walters, Ald. Robbins and Ald. Fenwick. All appealed for the hearty support of the union government and declared that the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to power would mean that the men sent overseas by Canada would be forsaken.

Dr. Sheard's address was enthusiastically applauded. He declared that the people must keep their duty to the boys overseas before them in the coming election. It was the paramount issue, and all other matters must take second place. And it was for the relatives and friends of the soldiers to see that they returned men who would be worthy of those who had carried the name of Canada to victory.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN.

Special to The Toronto World.

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 14.—L. Porter Moore of the Italian Red Cross campaign being waged in western Ontario, reports that approximately $80,000 of the $100,000 goal has been raised to date. This leaves $20,000 to come before December 1, 1917. London, Ontario, has set a goal of $10,000, $2000 of which has been raised, and the balance will be reached by grants and the one-day campaign to be held. During the past 10 days $600 has been raised by various small towns and villages throughout the western part of the province.

H. C. HOCKEN NAMED IN WEST TORONTO

Supports Union Policies of Sir Robert Borden.

NO LIBERALS VOTED

Some, Bearing Cards, Were Present at the Meeting.

H. C. Hocken was nominated candidate in the forthcoming election at the West Toronto Conservative convention held in Orange Hall, College street and Euclid avenue, last night. Altho Liberals bearing cards from the Central Conservative Association were invited, none voted. There were three nominees, W. B. Graham, who withdrew, Mr. Hocken and John Tyler.

Mr. Hocken supported Sir Robert Borden and his union policies. He said the important question was to keep the Canadians reinforced at the front and win the war. Union government could accomplish things which either party alone would find impossible, he said. If he was elected he would support Sir Robert Borden in all his endeavors. He eulogized the premier for his action regarding the C. N. R. and added: "Sir Robert should eliminate the Grand Trunk board which sits in London, Eng., as well as Baron Shaughnessy. We would have better transportation if the methods in the United States were adopted."

He spoke strongly in favor of public ownership, and pledged his support in that regard.

Case of Quebec. Referring to Quebec, he said, "The French-Canadians should live under the same constitution as we." He spoke against two languages in Canada, and said he would bring the matter to an issue if elected.

He believed the manufacture of oleomargarine in Canada was a good thing and would have an effect upon the high cost of living.

John Tyler spoke first of the voluntary system of recruiting, and being on an exemption board, said the majority of these seeking exemption were patriotic and had reasons for not joining the colors. In his opinion, the dependents of those who were drafted into the army should be cared for by the conscription of wealth.

It was a serious matter that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had refused to join union government, and his actions would be written against him in history.

When the result of the voting was announced, Mr. Tyler moved that the nomination be made unanimous, and this was done. In acknowledging the nomination, Mr. Hocken thanked the delegates and urged them not to be too confident during the contest. "I will think of the interests of West Toronto riding first when I go to Ottawa," he said.

The meeting broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

PARTY CONTEST SURE IN HALIFAX ELECTION

Conservatives Nominate Two Candidates—Liberals Refuse Offer to Coalesce.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 14.—The Conservatives of Halifax, at their convention tonight, nominated Hon. A. K. Maclean and Peter F. Martin, mayor of Halifax, to contest this constituency at the coming federal election.

Late in the afternoon Premier Borden made a strong effort to bring about an agreement between the two parties and thus avoid an election. He sent for a number of representative Liberals, and suggested, as a compromise, the names of Geo. S. Campbell (Conservative) and Dr. Edward Blackadder (Liberal), the latter being pledged at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The committee placed the names before the Liberal convention, which declined to accede to any saw-off, and as a result there will be a party fight in Halifax.

It was announced that Sir Robert Borden, who sat in the last parliament for one of the Halifax seats, would probably run in King's County, the constituency represented by De Witt Postler.

H. C. HOCKEN, former mayor of Toronto, who was nominated as unionist candidate in West Toronto last night.

POLITICAL NEWS

The papers give a great deal of space to Sir Alan Aylesworth's speech at the Liberal meeting on Tuesday night. Sir Alan was always a fierce party man, and he stands by his old chief, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He seems also to have a special dislike of Sir George Foster, and says he will vote for any honest respectable man who runs against him. The prospects are not aluring for an opposition candidate in North Toronto, but there is some talk of tendering the Liberal nomination to Sir Alan himself.

Hartley Dewar presided at the meeting, and has evidently taken the laboring oar for the Laurier Liberals in the Toronto district. There was a general laugh when Mr. Dewar, calling out prominent men in the audience for the platform, announced "Alexander Macgregor of the Rowell Club." Rev. Dr. Workman, somewhat famous in Canada as the central figure in heresy trials and theological disputes, made a strong speech against the union government. There is just a trace of the pulp in Dr. Workman's platform oratory, but he is none the less an effective speaker. He reminds one a trifle of Rev. Dr. S. G. Bland, who is running for parliament in Centre Winnipeg, but he lacks much of Dr. Bland's fiery enthusiasm.

The nominations made during the past day or two reduces almost to zero point the acclamations likely to be granted union government candidates on Monday next. There is a curious story to the effect that some member of the government incautiously boasted two weeks ago that the Liberals would be without candidates in 40 Ontario ridings. This was overheard by a gentleman close to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the Liberal organization got busy without delay.

An Ottawa despatch to The Toronto News says:

Despite the appeals of Sir Robert Borden for harmony in the selection of union government candidates in order to present a united front, there are many ridings where apparently several unionist candidates will go to the polls which will almost certainly result in the return of Laurierites. Among such ridings are several of the strongest Conservative constituencies in Ontario, which should return unionist candidates by overwhelming majorities.

Caledon County is an example. There are no less than five unionist candidates in the field and there is such lack of harmony that it has been found even impossible to call a convention. Apparently all five will run, and the outlook is that Major Honeywell, the Laurier candidate, will be elected. Another riding which should be a unionist stronghold where such difficulty exists is Lanark. There are four unionists in the field, and the Laurier candidate will likely be handed the riding if the unionists do not unite on a man between now and nomination day, next Monday.

The only hope of the situation is that Sir Robert Borden has to name the official government candidate five days after nomination. If the unionist supporters will unite on the man named by the premier they can save the situation otherwise these ridings will simply be presented to Laurier and Bourassa.

The Toronto Telegram says: Report has it that Captain Tom Wallace has been picked by the parliamentary committee as the union candidate for West York. At the convention Saturday the Conservatives picked Capt. Tom Wallace and the Liberals Dr. Gilmore, and the parliamentary committee was billed to have one of the two. It was expected to name Tom or chances are the convention would have finished the job itself.

Anyway, the Laurier Liberals are expected to nominate Frank Denton, K.C., on Saturday, and the election will be run on party lines, except that some conscription Liberals will support Captain Wallace and anti-conscription Conservatives, if any, may vote for Mr. Denton.

In Lincoln County the Reform and Conservative candidates, both of whom were selected over two years ago, when conditions were very different, appear to be determined to make no compromise, but intend to stand as strictly party candidates. Many of the electors would like to see party politics dropped during the war. C. M. Grifton of Niagara Township may enter the contest as a supporter of union government and a win-the-war candidate. Other names are mentioned, and the voter in Lincoln may have a ballot with several names on it.

W. D. McPherson Will Speak At South Ontario Convention

Special to The Toronto World. Oshawa, Ont., Nov. 14.—Hon. W. D. McPherson will be the chief speaker at the union convention at Whitby on Saturday. It is expected that a good representation of Liberals in the riding of South Ontario in favor of union will be in attendance, and that a candidate satisfactory to these and the Conservatives will be selected in opposition to the Laurier candidate already in the field.

Buyers of War Bonds in Britain — 1 in 23 in United States — 1 in 27 in Canada — 1 in 187

Canada Must Change that Record

FEWER CANADIANS in proportion to the population have lent their money to the nation than have either the British or American people.

This in spite of the fact that the individual wealth of the Canadian people to-day is greater than it has ever been and is one of the largest of any country in the world.

Canada wants you to help change that record now.

You owe it to Canada, to yourself, to your children, to see that it is changed.

If you never bought a war bond before do it now. Be ready when the canvasser calls.

Remember this—That to win this war every man and woman in Canada must do his or her share, and to-day the most important, vitally necessary thing is to buy Victory Bonds.

The sons of the Maple Leaf are distinguishing themselves by bravery, gallantry, heroism, strategy, stamina and all the qualities which make valorous soldiers at every critical point on the western front.

Every day the first-page headlines of the Canadian and American press bring us news of how Canadians, native and adopted, are proving Anglo-Saxon superiority at every test.

To match these headlines—to give them complement and support—must go other headlines to the world—and, most of all, to the Hohenzollern autocracy at Berlin—to tell how the men and women at home—the fathers, the mothers, the sisters, the brothers, the near and distant relatives and friends of the men at the front—are backing the deathless initiative and courage of their soldiers with their subscriptions for Canada's Victory Loan in bonds of $50, $100, $500 and $1000.

Do not let this opportunity get by you. Buy your self a bond.

If you cannot buy a $1000 bond—buy a $500 one. If you cannot buy a $500 one, buy a $100 one.

But if you cannot buy a $100 bond, then be sure to have your name registered as one of your country's subscribers to the Victory Loan by buying a $50 bond.

These bonds are issued at par—100—free from taxes—free from income tax.

There is no better form of security in the world for your money than that afforded by the Dominion. Canada is your security.

And the net yield of the bonds is attractive—5.6 per cent. on bonds running 20 years, 5.68 per cent. on bonds running 10 years, 5.81 per cent. on bonds running 5 years.

The official prospectus of the Victory Loan describes easy methods of payment, extending until May 1, 1918, and on June 1, 1918, a full half year's interest on the bonds will be paid to the holders of bonds.

Subscriptions accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent. of the amount subscribed must be forwarded through the medium of a Chartered Bank. Any branch in Canada of any Chartered Bank will forward subscriptions and issue provisional receipts.

For a deposit of $5 you can secure a bond of $50 denomination. For a deposit of $10 you can secure a bond of $100 denomination.

For a deposit of $50 you can secure a bond of $500 denomination. For a deposit of $100 you can secure a bond of $1000 denomination.

We go on record now with the prediction that Canada's issue of $150,000,000 will be over-subscribed before December 1.

The Loan campaign is getting in full swing. Every day sees the interest growing. Next week will see the canvass of the country from coast to coast reaching fever heat, and from that time on until December 1 we will see Canada's patriotic fires glowing more brightly than at any time since the war began, and the loan flotation being pounded through—with something to spare—on schedule time.

The services of our organization in furnishing information and forwarding subscriptions for Canada's Victory Loan are offered free of charge.
