MAKING IS SCENE OF A FEW CARNAVE

Manchus' Massacre of Thousands of People

REGARD NOT AGE OR YOUTH Men, Women and Children Cut Down—Seventy Thousand Flee From City—Preparing for Big Battle While Court Issues Another Appeal for Peace

Nanking, Nov. 11—More than 3,000 native Chinese men, women and children are dead, and 75,000 others are helpless as the result of wanton slaughter throughout this city by the imperialists. The butchery is still going on today but in a less degree. Reinforcements arrived today and joined the rebels and the attack upon the imperialist army was resumed. A frenzy of rage against their enemies for the massacre of defenseless Chinese, the rebels fought desperately for vengeance.

Nanking, Nov. 11—Nanking is desolate. Fully 3,000 of its inhabitants lie massacred and numerous business houses and dwellings have been looted and burned. Seventy thousand persons already have fled the city and still others are joining the exodus. Along the railway tracks leading from the city a long snake-like line of humanity is straggling, seeking a haven of safety. It was the hand of the Manchus that brought the devastation.

While the republicans were in camp three miles away awaiting ammunition and reinforcements, the Manchus began the carnage. Men, women and children were slaughtered. Neither youth nor age was taken into account.

White, the emblem of the revolution, marked its wearers for instant death. Chinese white shawls, a handkerchief, were ruthlessly slain. Quizzes heads were severed from their bodies.

There was little fighting yesterday between the revolutionists and the troops. The imperialists are to be short of ammunition for their big Krupp guns, and their most capable gunners are said to have deserted them. The republicans complain that owing to the neutralization of the railroad they have been unable quickly to transport their arms and munitions. These are being brought by boats and pack mules. A desperate battle is expected soon.

Tsuan-Fu, Province of Shantung, Nov. 11—The rebel leaders here at a conference this week, recommended united action among the revolutionists in the Province of Chi-Li, Shantung and Shan-Si with a view to terminating the Manchu rule. Negotiations are proceeding at Chin-chow-fu, in southwest Manchuria, and close to the border of the province of Chi-Li, on a suggestion that the Manchus adhere to the revolution on the promise that there will be no disposition of officials, pending the granting by the emperor of the popular demands of the Chinese. Autonomy and the neutrality of the Province of Shantung were emphatically declared today.

Melbourne, Nov. 11—The British cruiser Pegasus and Prometheus have been ordered to proceed to China. Shanghai, Nov. 11—An official announcement says that the supreme court, meeting the dowager empress and emperor, will move from the winter palace to the inner city on November 20, and order the officials on duty to attire themselves in winter raiment.

Another Appeal From Throne An imperial edict again pathetically begs the Manchus and Chinese to seek their differences and live in brotherly affection. The national assembly is not holding regular sessions, but the members are twenty gather in groups and discuss the situation. They evidently are awaiting Sun Shi Kai, whose coming to Peking continues to be deferred. The Chinese newspapers say that General Li Yuan, the leader of the revolutionists, has made a counter proposition to Yuan Shi kai to join the rebels, and assume temporarily the presidency of the republic, pending the assembling of a parliament. The attitude of the foreign legations are much commented upon. The Germans are conspicuously prominent and should the Manchus be victorious it is believed their activities will be of great benefit to them. The Germans have advocated supporting the government with loans, but British objection to such a step has prevailed. A quartette of German bankers accepted large loans for the government, but the trains bringing it have been stopped by General Chiang Shiao sen's followers. The Germans are now arming the ex-war minister, Yin Shung, who recently was deposed as commander of the imperial troops, and Prince Kai-Jao, a brother of Prince Chun, the regent. The Russians are giving asylum (Continued on page 3, fifth column).

WHERE ITALIANS SUSTAINED HEAVY LOSSES

Soldiers firing from the trenches in the Buniama, the Italians' most advanced point in Tripoli. It was here that the Turks attacked the Italians and drove them in after a terrible cavalry charge with fearful losses on both sides. In the background are the houses of the town where the Turks, supposed to have surrendered, fired on the Italians in the rear, causing the latter to take their revenge by slaughtering the men, women, and children. The officer in the foreground is Major Itani, who a short time after this photograph was taken, was killed by one of the Arab riflemen.

CROWN PRINCE GIVEN A PUBLIC REBUKE

First Time in German History Since 1863 — Kaiser Reprimands Son

Berlin, Nov. 11—A public and semi-official rebuke has been administered to Crown Prince Frederick William through an inspired telegram published in The Cologne Gazette today, and which fully confirms the report that Emperor William reprimanded his son for having openly demonstrated his approval of the attacks on the government Moroccan agreement and a bellicose utterance in the Reichstag on Thursday.

For a similar instance of public censure for the crown prince, one must go back to 1863, when Crown Prince Frederick was rebuked for criticisms of Chancellor Bismarck's policy in a speech made in Danzig. The dispatch to the Cologne Gazette says:

"We believe it to be the right and duty of the emperor to take an interest in politics. He cannot be reproached for forming his own opinion even if it is not consonant with the imperial policy. We further do not desire that the crown prince be prevented from expressing his opinion in a fitting manner and place, not however, in the way chosen in the Reichstag on Thursday. The emperor's rebuke evolved therein cannot be agreed to."

The crown prince will return to Danzig this evening.

AMERICAN CATHOLIC HISTORIAN IS DEAD

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11—Martin J. Griffin, secretary of the American Catholic Historical Society, widely known as a church historian, died at his home last night from paralysis, aged sixty-nine years. He was the author of many works dealing with Catholic history, and was a frequent contributor to magazines and periodicals.

He was born in St. Thomas, N. J., secretary and treasurer of St. Thomas college, was at his father's death.

FALLS TO DEATH FROM BROKEN PARACHUTE BAR

Perkins, Okla., Nov. 11—Samuel Heller, thirty-four years old, was killed here last night, while making a balloon ascension. When his balloon was 3,000 feet high, Heller cut loose a parachute. The sudden jerk broke the brass bar to which he was holding. He hung to the broken bar until he was 100 feet from the ground, then lost his grip, and fell.

A HIGH SCHOOL MATTER

In a morning paper today there was published a report that "there was reported to be trouble in Grade XI of the High School." The cause of the alleged trouble was that some of the answers written by certain of the young ladies in the fall examinations were so peculiar as to arouse a strong suspicion of cheating. Speaking of the matter this morning, W. J. S. Myles, principal of the High School, said that the report was greatly magnified, and there was no necessity of newspaper comment. The action of one or more of the girls had led to some talk outside of school, and the matter was placed before the members of the class in preference to discussion outside of the room, for "there should be no talk out of school."

It was merely suspicion throughout, caused by talk on the part of some of the pupils, and there was nothing in any of the examination papers to justify the rumor that cheating had taken place. No dishonesty had come to light so far as Mr. Myles could ascertain, and so far as an investigation reducing the number of culprits, this also, he said, was greatly magnified.

THIRTEEN FERCE BULLS FOR "SPORT" IN MEXICO

New York, N. Y., Nov. 11—Thirteen fighting bulls for Mexican holiday sport reached New York yesterday on the steamer Montevideo from Barcelona. They are described as of the fiercest type, and will be sent by steamer to Vera Cruz, there several others to the hospital. The attacks are generally from house tops and by the time the police climb up to the places from which missiles come, the throwers have disappeared.

TEAMSTERS' STRIKE THREATENING IN NEW YORK TODAY

Trouble Follows City Cartmen's Going Out—Garbage Piles up and Health is Menaced

New York, Nov. 11—The most dreaded of all labor troubles, a general teamsters' strike, threatens New York, unless the city speedily settles its differences with the several thousand laborers in the street cleaning department. The strike of the cartmen who collect the city's ashes and garbage, extended to the street sweepers today, and tonight the department street drivers and others will meet to consider the situation.

Already the city already is suffering from a prodigious accumulation of rubbish and garbage. Ordinarily 9,000 cart loads are removed every day.

The strike since last Wednesday has persisted rubbish of all kinds to pile up until today it is not only an inconvenience but a menace to health. Strike breakers were put at work today, and more outbreaks are feared.

Already these disturbances have cost the life of one strike breaking driver and sent several others to the hospital. The attacks are generally from house tops and by the time the police climb up to the places from which missiles come, the throwers have disappeared.

WARNING IN WEST AGAINST MORMONS

Bishop of Calgary Makes Address Before Alberta Synod

Calgary, Ala., Nov. 11—The Bishop of Calgary yesterday, before the Alberta synod, delivered an address of the alarming growth of Mormonism in Southern Alberta, and urged all denominations to take united action to suppress it.

ATTACK ON TICKET SPECULATORS NOW FROM ANOTHER POINT

New York, Nov. 11—The United States postal authorities are making a vigorous investigation into the sale of tickets for the world's series of baseball games in New York, last month, with a view of seeking indictments in case it should be established that there was any fraudulent use of the mails.

NOTED PAINTER DEAD

The special crown of India which the king will wear at the durbar on December 12, and other state jewels are already aboard the vessel. They were placed in safes and with the regalia were taken to Portsmouth yesterday unostentatiously. They were packed in brown paper by the court jewellers and were carried to the steamship without guard or formality except the presence of a single Scotland Yard detective.

NOT LIKELY TILL SPRING

The permanent paving in Mill street is not likely to be completed until next spring, owing to the delay occasioned by the railway crossings in front of the Union station. The work has been held up since new cross rails, and the season is now so far advanced that it is not expected that it will be possible to do the work this fall. The paving operations in Dock street are proceeding rapidly, and if the present mild weather continues that street should be completed very soon.

LIFE SAVING SERVICE

Commander Henry Thompson, of Ottawa, superintendent of the dominion life saving service, arrived in the city today, and will leave on Monday for Little Wood Lake to inspect the plant there. He has recently spent some time on the Digby coast, and said this morning that he had some suggestions to make for the improvement of the service, but he could say nothing as to their nature until they have been submitted to the government.

URGENT THAT SALE OF PARTRIDGE IN THIS PROVINCE BE STOPPED

Fish, Forest and Game Protection Association Present Reasons to Support the Contention

The New Brunswick Fish, Forest and Game Protection Association issues the following to the public on "Why the sale of partridge should be stopped."

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a law prohibiting the sale of partridge, many persons, who should know better, are for selfish reasons only still endeavoring to buy them, and some are taking all they can purchase. Now they are not only violating a good law, but are causing the local dealers or middlemen to do the same, and both are encouraging the market hunter in his wholesale work of the destruction and, finally, the extermination of one of our most valuable game birds. It is an undeniable fact that several species of valuable game animals and birds have been almost completely wiped out of existence by the insatiable greed of the market hunter.

What is far more deplorable is the fact that—according to reports—exporting is still going on. Just think a minute of what the exporter is really doing. The partridge, which we are trying to protect, are being ruthlessly slaughtered by his agents and sold to satisfy the appetites of those who have almost exterminated their own. The dealer who sells locally is bad enough; but the exporter is far worse, and judging from past convictions for this offense, they are men owning and operating successful concerns engaged in legitimate business, and can well afford to do without the small proportionate profit obtained in this export trade.

A never ending revenue would be provided for the farmer and a ready local market would be opened up for his produce. It is not a question of the number of birds going to the income for his sale? In this country this is being done by the company from future betterments, but government subsidies were granted not for this purpose, but to open up the country for far larger traffic than the prairie country can produce for many years to come. This expenditure will be a waste of money if the prairie country is not developed.

It has an excellent road-bed, but this very road-bed is the subject of criticism by those who maintain that it is being built for far larger traffic than the prairie country can produce for many years to come. This expenditure will be a waste of money if the prairie country is not developed.

The popular support given to the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme when originally started, has resulted in a number of government subsidies in both Canadian and American circles last summer when it was discussed by the Grand Trunk with negotiating with western railways in the United States to obtain cheap through rates for emigrants via United States ports to western Canada, rates which would compete with emigrant rates via Canadian ports. This was a blow aimed at Canadian ports, which came unexpectedly from a railway in such close alliance with the Canadian government.

Again, the manipulated cost of the eastern section of the National Transcontinental Railway has given the Grand Trunk Pacific a loop-hole for violating its obligation to operate that section of line. It would pay the Grand Trunk better than it would pay the prairie to Portland, U. S., instead of Moncton and Halifax, Canada.

"Canada altogether 25,000 miles of railway in operation, of which 2,043 are actually owned and operated by the state. The government keeps a close watch on the railway rates by means of its board of railway commissioners, a body which has the support of all parties and is composed of men of the highest integrity."

"Mr. White, the new minister of finance, as an avowed believer in state ownership of railways, but does not believe in giving unlimited government credit to a private company without having control of the expenditures."

"Mr. Borden, the new premier, avowedly a defeat at the election before the last year, to the influence of the Grand Trunk, who, perhaps, have been too open in their political sympathies, as for instance, when they named one of their hotels 'Chateau Laurier.'"

MUNICIPALITY WAITING RECEIPT OF INFORMATION

Reference was made at the meeting of the St. John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis yesterday, to the need for a home for advanced cases and hopes were expressed that the municipality would advance the funds. The meeting apparently overlooked the fact that this already has been done. At a recent meeting of the county council a delegation from the association and the Medical Society was heard on behalf of this project and on the motion of Councillor Frink the council decided to place next year's estimates an appropriation for this purpose.

Some British Papers Look For This Action

ATTACK IS MADE

Borden Attitude Towards Railways of Canada Subject of Reference by Several—Newcastle Journal Makes Assault Upon G. T. P. Matter

(Special to Times)

Manchester, Eng., Nov. 11—A number of influential British newspapers deal with the attitude of the new Canadian government toward the railways. These papers anticipate the government's refusal further to subsidize the western section of the Grand Trunk Pacific from Winnipeg west.

"Moreover, the route taken at certain stretches by this section of the railway has been severely criticized, for instance, it loses much of the traffic between Winnipeg and Saskatoon, owing to the inconvenient situation of the station at the latter place, and west of Edmonton its tracks run for many miles only a few yards distance from and parallel to those of the Canadian Northern Railway, through bush country that is barely sufficient for one railway."

"It has an excellent road-bed, but this very road-bed is the subject of criticism by those who maintain that it is being built for far larger traffic than the prairie country can produce for many years to come. This expenditure will be a waste of money if the prairie country is not developed."

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY

The Divorce Case of The Dillons - Culling Out Shams from British Museum - The Spanish Pretender

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company.)

Viscount Dillon's only son and heir, Harry Lee Dillon, formerly an officer of the Rifle Brigade, offered no defence in the suit for divorce brought against him by his wife, the daughter of a surgeon of Crawley, in Sussex. The marriage, was at no time a happy one, and resulted in the husband leaving his wife three years ago. There is only a little girl, now four years old, born to the union, and it is probable that as soon as the divorce is made absolute, Harry Lee Dillon will marry again; this time a woman of his own world, and thus prevent the viscount and estates from going to his cousin, Arthur Lee Dillon, of the Travellers' Club.

In the event of his marrying again, however, he will be obliged to abandon the Roman Catholic church, to which he became a convert some years ago, since it does not recognize or tolerate divorce.

His father, Lord Dillon, is the seventh viscount of his line, and among the treasures of his ancestral home at Ditchley Park, in Oxfordshire, are a number of fine implements found on the site of the Virginian town which takes its name of Ditchley from his country seat. It was while visiting Ditchley, Va., some thirty odd years ago, that he made the acquaintance of a Canadian girl, Miss Julia Stanton, who became his wife.

He has royal blood in his veins; for among his ancestors, is Lady Litchfield, the illegitimate daughter of Charles II. She was indeed one of the former chateaux of Ditchley Park, where all the Merrie Monarch's confidential correspondents with her still preserved, in an antique, brass-bound chest. English sovereigns have been entertained at Ditchley Park, notably Queen Elizabeth, and the grand panelling of the billiard room is still adorned with several pieces of red velvet, shot in 1688 and 1610, by James I. and by his son Henry, Prince of Wales, in Ditchley Park.

James was pleased with Ditchley and with its owner, then Sir Theobald Dillon, that he bestowed upon him the Irish viscountcy of Dillon, in the county of Down, in County Mayo. Lord Dillon, however, although his peerage is Irish, is as wholly English and entirely an Englishman, that he has never been elected as one of the representative peers of Ireland and consequently has no seat in the House of Lords. Yet he would prove a useful member thereof, as may be gathered from the fact that he is president of the Society of Antiquaries, and of the National Portrait Gallery, a trustee of the British Museum, a former officer of the army and curator of the armoury of the Tower of London. In fact, he is the greatest authority on ancient armor now living, and inaugurated his term of office at the Tower of London by reorganizing the entire collection there, eliminating therefrom a most extraordinary quantity of shams.

Thus, he relieved from the collection the helmet and surcoat shown as having done duty at the execution of Queen Anne Boleyn, proving it to be a swindle, since Anne was beheaded by a sword. And then he took the armor suits one by one, and demonstrated that the familiar figures were most shamelessly arrayed in pieces of armor manufactured in different centuries, and at different epochs, and that the armor of the Spanish Armada, could never have figured as part of the dress of King Philip of Spain.

By the time that he had completed his work of reorganization, the collection presented a very different appearance. While many familiar features were missing, having been assigned to the scrap heap as shams even more flagrant than that of Queen Anne Boleyn's axe, the exhibition of armor in the Tower of London has the merit today of being absolutely correct and authentic.

The Spanish Pretender

Don Jaime de Bourbon, legitimate pretender to the throne of Spain, and Duke of Madrid, played a very important role at the recent wedding of Princess Zita of Bourbon-Parma to young Archduke Charles, the second heir presumptive to the throne of Austria-Hungary. In his capacity as the aged emperor, and his brother Archduchess Maria Josefa, widow of the late Archduke Otto, while the bride followed immediately afterwards in walking between her mother, the widowed Duchess of Parma, and Don Jaime, Duke of Madrid, he was arrayed for the occasion in his uniform of Russian

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"Clon hath a million acres, Ne'er a one have I; Clon dwelleth in a palace, In a cottage, I; Clon hath a dozen fortunes, Not a penny I; Yet the poorer of the twin is Clon and not I. Clon, true, possesseth acres, But the landscape I; Half the charms to me it yieldeth Money cannot buy."

—Charles Mackay

FOR some reason it has come over me very strongly today, how much discontent and unhappiness might be avoided, if we could only try to control and lessen the craze for possession, the mania for owning things, the belief that the greatest happiness in life is in having many and costly possessions to call our own.

In other and far finer words if we could only realize that "a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth," but in the belief that the greatest happiness in life is in having many and costly possessions to call our own.

A young couple about to be married think that if they only might have the guest's room furnished in Circassian walnut and the dining-room in mahogany they would be perfectly happy. And to do this, perhaps they accept assistance from the old folks which will mean a year or two of scrimping and self-denial on their part.

Is it possible that the possession of a little silver furniture that most of their compurers have, can offset their own hearts' accusation of selfishness?

An ambitious wife spurs her husband on to tremendous effort in order that they may buy a beautiful home. Is it possible that this possession of the beautiful home can give enough happiness to offset the nervous overwrought condition into which the overwork throws him, and its consequent ill effect on the home life?

A working girl puts all her earnings into handsome clothes and makes a fine show of them. She has a thousand and one opportunities for culture and education that might otherwise have been within her reach. Is it possible that the possession of the handsome fabrics can offset the fact, interesting life she might have had?

It is because we can't buy and possess things like these that we aren't so keen about them.

It is not beauty they crave, but possession.

Says Robert Louis Stevenson, "If we were charged so much a head for sunsets, or if God sent round a drum before the Hawthorne came in flower, what a work we should make about their beauty."

Is it because we can't buy and possess things like these that we aren't so keen about them?

Are these people who sacrifice so much to possess beautiful and expensive things the people who enjoy sunsets and the wonders of nature to the full, who haunt picture galleries and support fine music?

Indeed they are not.

It is not beauty they crave, but possession.

Says Robert Louis Stevenson, "If we were charged so much a head for sunsets, or if God sent round a drum before the Hawthorne came in flower, what a work we should make about their beauty."

Is it because we can't buy and possess things like these that we aren't so keen about them?

INDIGESTION AND ALL STOMACH MISERY IS ENDED

Diapiesin Makes Your Out-of-Order Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or anything else you might expect from a simple lead, or other disagreeable medicine. Should you be suffering now from indigestion or sourness you can get relief in five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist on your next visit a box of Diapiesin you could always get a table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would be free from all no indigestion or sour risings, nights or headaches or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Page's Diapiesin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

Daily Hints For the Cook

BROWNIES.
 Two and one-half cups of graham flour, 2 cups white flour, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 cup melted butter, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 dessert-spoon of ground cinnamon.

GRIDDLE CAKES.
 Soak stale bread a few hours in cold water, then squeeze out until you have a cupful. Beat two eggs, pinch of salt and 1 teaspoon of milk in a bowl, beat well. Add 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoonful of baking powder, 1 tablespoon melted butter. Drop a spoonful at a time on a hot griddle or an iron frying pan that has been rubbed over with a piece of fat pork.

HOW TO BROIL STEAK.
 Trim the steak, cutting out a portion of the suet. Place the steak in a wire broiler, and if you use coal or wood, put it very near the fire. Have a good clear fire. First sear it on one side, then turn and sear it on the other. Then hit it at least six inches from the fire and broil more quickly, turning it two or three times. If the steak is one inch thick broil it for eight minutes; if an inch and a half thick, broil it for 12 minutes; if two inches, for 20 minutes. Season when done.

WHAT ABOUT THE BRITISH PREFERENCE?

Lord Selborne some days ago addressed a special meeting in Queen Hall, London, arranged by the Imperial Mission, an organization whose object is to promote Imperial unity and inter-Imperial trade.

Every reader may judge for himself what period Lord Selborne contemplates when he uses the phrase "within a few generations." Meantime, it appears that one of the objects of the Imperial commission is "to show the advantages of promoting inter-Imperial trade to the various members of the Empire."

What a grand time there will be when the Tories in Canada and the Tories of the United Kingdom compare notes and such discovers that the desire of the other is really to create a tariff as high as Haman's gallows, and squeeze the consumer for profits.

THE COAL SUPPLY

The geological survey on the production of coal in the United States in 1908 estimates that above ninety-nine per cent of the original supply is still available.

But it is quite possible that with the growth of civilization and increase of income, the demand for coal will be more and more substituted for black and other countries will be used for lighting and heating and driving machinery.

Already the inventor has gone far toward solving the problem of what may be accomplished when the supply of coal is exhausted.

INDUSTRIAL POWER

In dealing with power companies which want to enter St. John, the Common Council's attitude should be progressive, not obstructive.

No one power company should be favored to the exclusion of others, and the Hydro-Electric, for example, is not asking for special privileges.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Rev. Dr. Workman, who was dismissed from the Wesleyan College, Montreal, for alleged heretical views, has been given judgment against the institution for $3,500—$2,500 for wrongful dismissal and $1,000 for libel and allowed all his costs. The British steamer Fairport, carrying a crew of thirty, is believed to have foundered during a gale in the North Sea. Anitour Carriage has given $25,000,000 to the Carnegie Corporation of New York, organized yesterday, "to promote the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding among the people of the United States."

The C. P. R. liner Empress of Britain collided with a small steamer in the Irish Sea yesterday morning, but escaped with little damage. The other craft put into harbor in the Isle of Man, waterlogged. Policeman Harris, of Campbellton, is seriously ill as the result of eating tinned food and the proprietor of a lunch wagon, where he got it, is also sick from the same cause. Strong forces of Turks and Arabs delivered a determined attack on the Italians at Tripoli yesterday. Despite desperate courage the Turks were driven back, but the Arabs inflicted heavy losses on the Italians.

The bodies of two more supposed victims of Mrs. Louise Vermilya, of Chicago, were exhumed yesterday and arsenic poison was found in the viscera of each. The bodies were those of Frank Bendham, her son, and Conductor Richard T. Smith. Mrs. Vermilya is being at death's door in Chicago.

The action of the German Crown Prince in annulling the Berlin remarks of the Conservative leader of the German Reichstag, was criticised yesterday by Dr. Otto Wimmer, a Radical member, who said that the prince's action could only harm the cause of peace. The prince was not present, and his absence gave color to the statements that he is under his father's displeasure. Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, in a violent speech, replied to his critics.

A new scout patrol was formed last evening by the intermediate class of the Y. M. C. A., to be known as the Beavers. They will tramp to Long Lake today to spend the night.

Robert Cawley, of the staff of J. C. Mackintosh & Co., will leave in a few days for Reshbro to take a position with R. O'Leary there.

The GILLETTE Is An Economy

Not An Extravagance

Because a fairly good open blade razor can be bought for two dollars, while a GILLETTE costs five, have you concluded that the GILLETTE is an extravagance? It is not.

The open-blade costs you $2.00 to buy and at least 25c. a year to keep honed and in condition. Total, $2.25 for the first year.

The GILLETTE with 12 double edged blades, costs $5.00, and a second box of blades (should your beard be very tough) adds $1.00. Total, $6.00 for first year. Difference $3.75.

Looks bad for the GILLETTE, eh? But wait! The three-minute GILLETTE will save you 5 to 10 minutes every time you shave. Put it at 5. That's over three working days a year. Isn't your time worth over $1.25 a day?

When you're nearly late for the train or an important engagement, the five minutes which the GILLETTE saves you is apt to be worth several times the whole cost.

Then there's the comfort of the clean, cool, easy GILLETTE shave—worth in itself several times the difference in price.

For real economy—time and life, as well as cash considered—buy a GILLETTE and enjoy it.

Standard Sets $5.00.
Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00.
At your Druggist's,
Jeweller's or Hardware Dealer's.

HOWARD PYLE, AUTHOR AND ARTIST, DEAD

Florence, Italy, Nov. 10—Howard Pyle, an American artist and author, died here yesterday of heart trouble.

His home was in Wilmington, Del., where he was born in 1833.

Howard Pyle was at or near the head of American illustrators of the day. Besides fame he attained a fortune in his work.

His house and studios—there were several, his own large, light, severely plain workshop, and smaller ones for favorite pupils—were charming as one would expect to find the surroundings of the author and artist of "The Rose of Paradise," and "The Garden Behind the Moon." Mr. Pyle taught a large number of illustrators and always had a helping word and hand for the younger artists.

His industry may be judged from a list of his books, which includes besides "King Arthur and His Knights," the works above mentioned: "Within the Capes," "The Wonder Clock," "Otto of the Silver Hand," "A Modern Aladdin," "Men of Iron," "Jack Bullister's Fortunes," "Twilight Land," to say nothing of a large amount of magazine sketches and miscellaneous illustrations.

An American critic has found in Howard Pyle's work a quality similar to that of Watts the English painter, and the American artist is acknowledged the founder of a new school of illustration, a worker of great scope and variety, and unrivaled in his own peculiar style both in black-and-white and in color work, while his pen-and-ink drawings suggest the old German fine work in their semirude, masculine, and always interesting and vital quality.

BUSINESS MEN wishing to increase gross sales and net profits, or desirous of expansion, further inquiries caused, with the result that one year after his advent to St. Stephen's, Bonar Law found himself parliamentary secretary to the board of trade.

That was in 1900, and Bonar Law's march forward has been very rapid since. They say his advancement to ministerial rank came about in a most simple fashion. There had been a great deal of talk about the need of business men in the various British departments. Happening to sit next to Bonar Law at dinner one day Mr. Balfour got into conversation with him, and was much impressed by the forcible way in which the Glasgow M. P. put his points and gripped the subjects under discussion. Further inquiries caused, with the result that one year after his advent to St. Stephen's, Bonar Law found himself parliamentary secretary to the board of trade.

SPY FEVER EPIDEMIC IN GERMANY

High Price of Food to Furnish Election Campaign Material—Compulsory Insurance Against Old Age—Theatre Notes

(Times Special Correspondence.)

Berlin, Nov. 11—Spy fever has apparently become epidemic in Germany, and details of a fresh interesting case are supplied by the Tagblatt. According to information received by this journal the officials at the observation station of Himm, on the North Sea island, Sylt, noticed at the end of September "an individual" setting up a curious tripod apparatus among the sand dunes and seemingly taking photographs of the surrounding landscape.

PILES

Do not suffer another day with PILES. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you and cure you as certainly as you can see a spot of red on the paper. Sample box free if you mention the paper and enclose 2c. stamp to pay postage.

The procedure naturally, so it is stated, produced great excitement, and the consequence was that the police authorities of Westerland, the chief town on the island, were informed by telegraph of the mysterious incident, and a full description of "the individual" and his extraordinary apparatus sent to them. The burgomaster of Westerland took the matter up with commendable zeal, and ordered a police sergeant and a detective to watch the suspicious individual who was discovered quietly walking down the main street of Westerland, and offered no opposition when told that he must consider himself under arrest.

The prisoner declared that he was a harmless visitor from Bremen, who was seeking recuperation in the sea breezes of Sylt and enjoying his leisure in taking photographs of the scenery. This statement, says the Tagblatt, could naturally not be credited, and the two officials returned in the first place with the prisoner to his room in a local hotel, where they confiscated the photographic apparatus and plates they found there, and then told him he must accompany them to the burgomaster. The latter submitted the prisoner to a searching examination, demanded to see his papers, and ordered the plates found in his room to be developed. As not a tittle of evidence that he was a spy was found the prisoner was set at liberty.

ject and the imminence of the election, the discussion of the question promises to be scarcely less interesting than that up on Morocco, and quite as embarrassing to the government, which can offer no definite assurance of relief.

After a short and peaceful debate, the Reichstag read a first time and sent to a special committee the new bill providing for the compulsory insurance of employees. The purpose of the bill is to extend without state aid—the advantages of compulsory insurance against invalidity and old age to practically all categories of employed persons who are not subject to the provisions of the "workman's" insurance scheme and whose incomes do not exceed $1,250 a year.

"Fruit-a-lives" Saved My Life

Riviera a Pierre, Q., May 9, 1910. "I look upon my recovery as nothing sort of a miracle. I was for eleven years, constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion."

I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness, I was so thin that I weighed only 90 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate.

In the sixth and again in the seventh rounds, Moore complained that The Battle was hitting too hard, and in the eighth the referee cautioned Nelson. When Moore collapsed just before the opening of the tenth round, he said: "It was that foul blow."

The club physician said later on that Moore had been hit in the groin.

When a certain bell in the tower is rung the top of one pillar always sways seven inches to each side, although the base is immovable, and the stones are so firmly cemented as to seem like a solid piece of masonry. Notwithstanding that each of the four bells is about the same distance from the trembling pillar, none of the others has the slightest effect on it.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"Something Just As Good."

A discovery can be made but once. After that all similar acts become emulation, imitation or an attempt at substitution.

Newbro's Herpicide is a discovery. It was the first remedy ever given to science to kill the dandruff germ. Other preparations have been suggested to the public, some with appearance, some in color, but all bringing the same promise of doing the same thing. Herpicide has been doing for years.

Every article of this kind is merely one more instance of a show exhibition, vile imitation or a base attempt at substitution.

The "something just as good" story is old, why give it a thought? Herpicide is the Original Remedy. It kills the dandruff germ and prevents the hair from falling. Itching of the scalp stops almost with the first application.

Don't be deceived by "Something just as good." If your own druggist does not keep the genuine dandruff germ destroyer, Newbro's Herpicide, go to one who does.

Send 10c. in postage for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R, Detroit, Mich. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops. E. Clinton Brown, Special Agent.

All grass seeds must, before sowing, be thoroughly dressed by means of seed-cleaning machines or other sufficient processes for the purpose of removing all noxious seeds. All farmers are required under penalty of lines to clean thoroughly any threshing machines, clover dressers or chaff cutters immediately after being used. After these machines have been swept the second dressing riddles must be removed, and cleaned, the screen opened, the slide below the grain elevator taken out and all rubbish removed.

FIGHTING TUBERCULOSIS

At the annual meeting of the St. John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis yesterday afternoon, there was discussion on the report of the executive, recommending that the $2,750.50 raised on tag day, be devoted to a hospital for advanced cases of tuberculosis. Several of the members did not favor this scheme.

Mrs. E. A. Smith said that the association had a surplus this year, although it was not as large as that of last year.

The nominating committee then brought in its report, and practically recommended the continuance of the old board in office. The list as amended and adopted was: Hon. H. A. McKeown, president.

Miss Helen Sidney Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. J. H. Frink, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. L. Green, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. J. P. McInerney, Mrs. C. H. Pearson, Mrs. T. H. Bollock, Miss Grace Leavitt, Mrs. J. W. Carr, Dr. J. W. Reference was made to the incident of a young lady collecting money under false pretences in Carleton, and it was decided to issue official credentials for Miss Randall, the only collector for the society.

After a vote of thanks to the officers and executive, moved by Dr. Walker, who said the decreasing death rate from consumption could be traced to their efforts, and seconded by Rev. R. A. Armstrong, the meeting adjourned.

MESSRS. SIMMS GET SITE; WILL DOUBLE PLANT

Buy Four Acres of Provincial Hospital Land in Lancaster—More Property Matters

By the purchase of a four acre block of land in Fairville this morning, Messrs. T. S. Simms & Co., Ltd., have at last secured the site for their new building, which has been made necessary by the rapid expansion of their business. Not only will the new site facilitate the handling of their present large business, but it will give them room to double the size of their plant, as they wish to do, and the change will therefore be of as much importance to the community as the opening of a new industry of size equal to the present one.

The new site comprises the large block of land opposite the Provincial Hospital between the Suspension bridge road, the Union Point road and the C. P. R. tracks, with the exception of a few lots which had been sold previously. The land belonged to the provincial government, and was vested in the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital, Lancaster.

In order to prevent the land being bought for speculative purposes, the terms of the sale required the purchaser to commence the erection of buildings for a manufacturing industry to employ at least 100 hands, within eight months, and in completion within two years on penalty of the forfeiture of one-third of the purchase price.

The property was sold at auction at Chubb's Corner, at noon today, by Auctioneer F. L. Potts. There were only two bids—the first was at $5,000 and the property was sold on the second bid of $3,100 to T. S. Simms & Co., Ltd.

The Simms company have been looking for a site for some time, and as they had difficulty in fulfilling all their requirements and as attractive offers from other places in the province, there was some fear that they might possibly move away. The fact that they have settled upon this site and will be able to go ahead with the necessary expansion of their plant will be a matter of considerable gratification to the citizens.

The company will go ahead immediately with their plans for the new building, and it is expected that they will be ready to start operations in the coming spring. The work will then be rushed as much as possible in order that they may get into the new plant during the next year. The building to be erected will have at least double the capacity of the present plant. The company now employs about 200 hands, and in the enlarged premises this number may be doubled.

The two family dwellings owned by A. W. Suits at 208 Duke street, was also sold this morning by Auctioneer Potts. The tenement at 436 Main street was withdrawn at $1,100.

The White Candy Company will take over the present large building of the Simms Company as their own plant in Union street is not big enough for their business.

COOMBS WAS UNDER KNIFE OF SURGEON

Former St. John Pitcher Operated on for Hernia in Philadelphia Yesterday

A Philadelphia despatch today says that John Coombs, the Athletics' pitcher, formerly of the St. John Athletics, and who was injured during the world's series, became a patient of the city hospital yesterday.

Philadelphia and the New York Giants, was among those operated upon by Dr. John B. Deaver at a clinic attended yesterday by members of the North American clinical association.

The operation was for the hernia, received in the fifth game of the series in New York. It was entirely successful, and Prof. Deaver believes that Coombs will be able to pitch his usual game next season.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CONTEST NEARS END

The Y. M. C. A. membership contest, which has been going on for some weeks, will close today. There were two teams entered in the contest, the Reds and Blues, and at the last announcement the Reds were leading. The members of both teams have been working hard since then, however, and the result is now in doubt.

On Tuesday night the competing teams will assemble at the Y. M. C. A. when the results will be made known. The winning team will be treated to a turkey supper and the losers to a repast of cheese and crackers. The contest is exciting great interest among the association members.

IN THE POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning John McDonald was fined $8 or twenty days in jail on the charge of drunkenness and James Foley $10 or two months in jail on a like charge. Albert Wein deposited $10 on charges of being drunk and disorderly in the Union Depot yesterday morning.

The case against Robert Tucker, charged with being the proprietor of a disorderly house in Sheffield street, and Kate Barlow and Mary Hanson, charged with being inmates, was brought up in the police court yesterday afternoon. The Hanson woman was also charged with stealing a watch from Olaf Land. E. S. Ritchie appeared for Tucker, Sgt. Caples and Police Marshal, who made the arrest, gave evidence, after which the prisoners were remanded to jail. The case will be brought up again on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
