BIG PLAN TO PROTECT FORESTS

Report That Hon. Mr. Sifton Will Present it at Convention

PROTECTION CORPS

Organize Service After Manner of Mounted Police—Ontario Revival of Scheme for Voting by Mail—Travers Out on $40,000 Bail

Toronto, Jan. 5.—(Special)—A Mail & Empire Ottawa special says—"It was learned today that a plan is expected to be outlined before the Dominion Forestry Convention in Quebec by Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of the conservation commission regarding conservation of forests. He will recommend an expenditure, during the next few years, aggregating $25,000,000, which will practically make the forests of the Dominion immune from any great loss at any one time by fire."

The plan involves organization of a fire fighting and fire preventing corps modeled upon the Northwest Mounted Police. It may also involve co-operative legislation by the various provinces, which will place all forests more directly under control of the Dominion government.

Winnipeg, Jan. 5.—(Special)—A representative of the Mexican revolutionary party has been after several veterans of the South African war, and at least two retired officers of the Canadian Militia department here with offers of big pay if they would join the revolutionary party. Transportation and $80 a month, with a guarantee, have been named.

Toronto, Jan. 5.—(Special)—The provincial government will be asked at the coming session to consider a radical change in the election law, under which provision will be made for voting by mail. This proposal has been advanced from time to time in the interests of commercial men and railway employees, but recently those in its advocacy have secured the sympathy of W. D. McPherson, M.P.P., who is writing on their behalf to secure information as to the working out of the proposal in Tasmania.

It is understood the proposal contemplates a change which will affect the voting in both provincial and municipal elections. W. R. Travers, former manager of the Farmers bank, was admitted to bail by the crown, and released from Toronto jail last evening. A. M. Orpen furnished bonds for $20,000 for Travers, on a charge of stealing $100,000 from the bank, and another for $20,000 on the first charge of making false statements to the department of finance at Ottawa, and another received by Mr. Orpen, making in all $40,000 bail furnished by him. Travers was in custody for about a month.

Farmers of Halton and Peel counties, who are shareholders in the Farmers' bank, are signing petitions asking for an investigation of the affairs of the bank by a royal commission. D. I. Clarkson, curator of the bank, said last night that the Farmers' Bank would pay its note circulation, and the statement would be issued within a day or two.

DRAMA OF THE BREAD LINE

Brothers Come Together After Two Years' Separation

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Hunger, which drove more than 700 men into a west side bread line, was the means of uniting James and Thomas Baird, brothers, who until two years ago resided in Leeds, Eng. After arriving in America they went to Schenectady, N. Y., and worked for six months until they could no longer get employment, and then drifted apart. For a year they were lost to each other. The brothers drifted into the line which stretched for two blocks toward the covered wagon, where rolls and coffee were being served. They reached the wagon almost together and at once recognized each other.

BEEF FROM BRAZIL

New York Corporation Gets Meat and Cattle Concessions

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 5.—A presidential proclamation has been issued giving authorization to an American corporation with headquarters in New York to do business in Brazil. The corporation has been given most and cattle concessions and it is probable that within six months or a year, Brazilian beef will be exported for the American market.

LABOR PARTY MAY ASK THEIR MAN TO RESIGN

Port Arthur, Ont., Jan. 5.—The labor party which elected one of four candidates for the city council, namely Fred Ury, has called a meeting for Thursday evening to discuss the advisability of asking him to resign as he alone is powerless to advance the interests of the labor party or the working man and also as a protest against secrecy in the board of control meetings.

IS THE C. P. R. AFTER MORE PROPERTY?

Rumor They Would Buy From North Wharf to York Point

Report Says This is Part of Big Scheme of Development—Soundings and Borings Being Made on Property Already Purchased

There is a well defined rumor going around that the C. P. R. is negotiating for the purchase of the wharf properties between York Point and North Market ship. The deal is said to include the Dominion Coal Company's big coal pockets and several other wharf properties in that vicinity. It is understood that this deal is part of the gigantic scheme of improvements inaugurated with the purchase of the Mill and Main street properties, and that great developments will follow in the early spring.

Engineers are now at work taking soundings and borings in the properties acquired from J. A. Lively, the Hazen estate and the cold storage company, so that detailed plans of the improvements can be drawn up. It was also stated some time ago that there was a strong probability of the C. P. R. securing the present I. C. R. depot, and the government road erecting a new station in the vicinity of Gilbert's Lane. This rumor is being revived again, and it is said that an understanding has been reached in the matter.

LAD KILLS CHUM; HIDES BODY IN CELLAR OF HOME

Steadfastly Denies But Finally Confesses—Girl Victim in Chicago Strike

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Lester Carlson, 13 years old, today confessed that he had shot and killed John Wisniewski, eight years old, and hid the body in the cellar of his home and for six weeks' professional complete ignorance of the whereabouts of his former playmate.

The body was found on Tuesday night and for 24 hours Carlson steadily denied any knowledge of the manner in which the boy met his death. He told the police today that he shot Wisniewski while the two were playing "Indian" in the yard.

Sherlock Holmes Characteristic in Mysterious "SP" Cut in Cheek of Murdered Man

London, Jan. 5.—Another element of mystery today developed at the inquest into the death of Joe Beron, whose mutilated body was found on Clapham Common last Sunday. The hill is noted in modern times as the scene of an enormous meeting addressed by Daniel O'Connell in 1845.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM FOR DISPATCHING OVER 2,000 MILES MORE

Montreal, Jan. 5.—It is understood that the new C. P. R. will install 2,000 miles more of telephone wires to replace the telegraph system now used in the operation of trains. It has been found that trains may be operated by telephone with greater safety than by the old telegraph system. The long stretch of single track on the Lake Superior division is now installed with telephone, while 400 miles or so of double track between Fort William and Winnipeg is jumped. The telephone system is again used in Winnipeg.

He was forty-five years of age. He was a native of Woodstock and when a young man joined Bailey Bros' circus in Woodstock and toured the United States and Europe with it. He then joined the United States army, fought through the Cuban war and received an honorable discharge at the close of the war.

Clark, one of the mail carriers, are still in Seattle. A report from Kamakak, where the robbery was discovered, said that Clark had checked over the mail pouches and found little missing besides the valuable registered packages in Clark's value which was stolen.

NO MORE TALL ONES ALLOWED IN CHICAGO

MR. BINKS IS PROUD

Mr. Peter Binks states that the respectful attention paid to the requests of police officers in St. John, by the average young citizen, is an object lesson to the world. He has no doubt that this deferential attitude is entirely due to the splendid manner in which the police are upheld in all the courts. Mr. Binks says his being has often thrilled with pride when he thought of the encouragement given to the policemen, and the warnings hurled at

Samuel Ferguson, aged 62 years, a carpenter employed in the rebuilding of the McLeod warehouse, Water street, was very seriously injured this morning by falling from the roof of the structure, a distance of about fifteen or twenty feet, to the ground. He was removed to the hospital where it was found that he had received a fracture and dislocation of the spine, which resulted in paralyzing both legs. He was unable to speak but was conscious and in a fair state of mind. His condition is regarded as critical and considering his age and the injury to the spine it is thought his chances for recovery are very slight. His home is at 228 Guilford street, west end.

WOULD NOT CUT WOOD

Young Crawford Left Home and Went to Coach House for Night

Harold Crawford, aged 14, was found by Policeman Anderson, between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning, lying in the coach house at the I. C. R. station and was placed under arrest. His father appeared in court this morning, and said that the boy had been in the coach house and had gone out of the house on being told to cut wood. The advice given him by Judge Ritchie was to "buy a good leather strap. It did not cost very much, and a little of it now and again would do no harm to any boy who was inclined to be unruly. Young Crawford was sent below for a time."

MONUMENT TO GEN. WOLFE UNVEILED BY LORD ROBERTS

London, Jan. 5.—Lord Roberts unveiled the statue to General Wolfe at Westminster. Lord Roberts said, that the way in which Wolfe formed his daring plan and led his troops to victory made one of the brightest pages in the history of the empire, and never lost its thrilling interest for the nation. That it was adopted was only justified by Wolfe's firm belief in the courage and discipline of the troops. The same grand feeling was reciprocated towards the commander. No wonder when he was mortally wounded he was able to murmur: "I die content."

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Among those present at the ceremony were Lord Stratford and Sir Charles Tupper. Laurel wreaths were sent by Canadians resident in Great Britain.

Foreign companies themselves," reads the statement "issued a legal action for the purpose of testing whether the American anti-trust law affects their position. They are convinced that the suit will serve only to clear up the situation and prove that the law is inapplicable and thus put an end to the agitation of competing companies who are the sole instigators of the movement against the foreign companies. Leading American lawyers are of the opinion that such an extension of the Sherman act to foreign companies is impossible; otherwise the American anti-trust law could be applied to all foreign manufacturers who export to the United States and who are members of syndicates."

Pittsburg, Jan. 5.—The three cushion billiard league will resume its tournament when the Pittsburg players meet their New York opponents here tonight. This will be the first meeting between the eastern and western clubs and the games will be continued for three nights.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam says he can observe a noticeable improvement in the country roads every time the St. John Standard is in a state of eruption. Mr. Jamey Jones suggests that when the city sets out to spend that $100,000 on the streets it settles $20,000 one dollar bill on the various streets, and let it go that way. Then "nobody would be sure to get some benefit."

JOHN H REID, BORN IN ST. JOHN IS DEAD IN FREDERICTON

Was Well Known in Connection With Exhibitions—His Suit for $3,000 Recalled

Fredricton, N. B., Jan. 4.—(Special)—John Hamilton Reid, one of Fredericton's oldest residents, died at his home here last night after a short illness, from pneumonia. He was widely known throughout the city and province as an exhibition promoter and broker of pure bred stock. He was born in St. John of Scotch parentage, in June, 1822 and was in his eighty-ninth year. He came to Fredericton in 1851 and continued to reside here up to the time of his death.

Mr. Reid was president of the old agricultural society from 1841 to 1868 when it passed out of existence. This organization held its annual exhibition palace which was destroyed by fire in 1868 and put on several successful exhibitions and race meetings in the city. Mr. Reid was an alderman in 1860 and assisted in welcoming the Prince of Wales to the city.

He was unsuccessful as a candidate for mayor on two subsequent occasions. Some years ago he brought a claim against the city for $3,000 and was awarded that amount by the board of arbitration appointed under a special act of the legislature to hear the case. The claim was in connection with an exhibition grant which the council voted forty years before but never paid.

Mr. Reid was a bachelor and the last survivor of his family. Several nephews and nieces reside in this vicinity.

TWO TOWNS DESTROYED

St. Petersburg, Jan. 5.—A message from Terek, Russia, Turkey, says there are unconfirmed rumors that the towns of Preshavak and Pishpook were destroyed by earthquake yesterday, and that a lake was formed on the site of the former places. Each town had a population of about 8,000. Communication is still impossible and the government has no advice substantiating the alarming rumors.

ONE LIFE LOST

HAMBURG-AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOW NO WORRY OVER SUIT

Hamburg, Germany, Dec. 5.—No anxiety is expressed in local shipping circles concerning the outcome of the suit instituted by the United States government to close American ports to the vessels of thirteen trans-Atlantic steamship companies which sail to the Atlantic conference so long as they continue an alleged agreement to apportion all traffic pro rata and destroy the competition of other carriers in the steersage passenger trade between the United States and Europe. In a statement issued by the officers of the Hamburg American line today it is explained that the suit is welcomed with confidence that the Sherman Act will be declared inapplicable to foreign companies.

FREE FROM LIABILITY

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 5.—Because a railroad company furnishes a special train to a party of men and it is used in carrying a mob bent on lynching, the railroad company cannot be held liable for damages. In effect this decision was rendered yesterday by Judge Niles in the United States district court.

CONGRESS REASSEMBLES

Washington, Jan. 5.—Congress will reconvene at noon today following the recess for the Christmas holidays. The senate will adjourn immediately out of respect for Senator Elkins, who died last night. ANARCHISTS WERE WANTED IN BOSTON

Believed Desperados Killed in Police Fight Robbed in States

One the Inventor of the "Can Opener" for Getting Inside Safes—Operations, Too, in Other Cities—London Police Criticized

Boston, Jan. 5.—Boston police officials of the opinion that the descriptions of the anarchists burned in London correspond to those of the men wanted here for the theft of $15,000 worth of jewelry from the store of Samuel P. Ullian in last March. They were arrested at the time but decamped while out on bail.

Their names are Harry Rothstein, alias Kavok, the Blacksmith, and Jacob Goldberg, alias Red Tracy, Kavok, the blacksmith is said to have been the inventor of an instrument known as the "can opener," which rips up an ordinary safe as easily as a real can opener will slice into a can of preserved peaches. The same men are said to have been wanted in Philadelphia and New Haven, the amount of their stealings, according to the police, aggregating something like $33,000.

The newspapers also print many letters, articles and editorials from foreign papers, criticizing the police methods and suggesting that a couple of desperadoes might have been smoked out or dealt with without such an enormous display of force.

CHESTER S. JORDAN, WIFE MURDERER, LOSES HIS APPEAL

New Trial Denied Him in Massachusetts Supreme Court and Will Be Taken to Washington

Boston, Jan. 5.—The case of Chester S. Jordan, convicted wife murderer, is to be taken to the United States Supreme Court upon practically the same exceptions that were argued before the Massachusetts supreme court.

The announcement follows the handing down of a decision of the full bench of the state supreme court overruling the decision of the full bench of the Massachusetts supreme court. Attorney Jeremiah S. Sullivan, counsel for Jordan, declined to say more than that the move to Washington would be made at once.

District Attorney Higgin said that he would move for sentence of Jordan soon, but that he had not decided upon the matter.

With respect to the motion for a new trial, because of the insanity of Juror Willis A. White, the decision of the full bench says:

The principal question relates to the burden of proof and the rule to be applied in weighing the evidence on the question of Juror White's sanity or insanity. The government was and is no more responsible for the presence upon the panel of the juror White than the defendant or the court. As finally constituted, the jury was the tribunal appointed by law for the trial of the case. Its members were selected in the manner provided by law from the body of the citizens of the county, and in case a question arose during or after the trial as to the sanity or insanity of one of them, the burden was upon the party alleging the insanity to prove it, not upon the commonwealth to show that the juror was sane.

RAILROAD COMPANY FREE FROM LIABILITY

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 5.—Because a railroad company furnishes a special train to a party of men and it is used in carrying a mob bent on lynching, the railroad company cannot be held liable for damages. In effect this decision was rendered yesterday by Judge Niles in the United States district court.

In the suit at issue, Mrs. Annie Rogers, whose husband was lynched at Tallulah, Louisiana, several years ago, sought the recovery of $50,000 from the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific Railroad. In her petition she held that the railroad company was liable for damages because they furnished the train which transported the mob from Monroe, Louisiana, to Tallulah, Louisiana, where they were charged with killing Jesse Brown, a planter of Girard. Both men were prominent.

NEW METHOD OF DRIVING TRANS-ATLANTIC STEAMERS

Washington, Jan. 5.—A new method of driving trans-Atlantic ships is about to be tried by a prominent ship company, according to consular reports. The new vessel, to be of 8,000 tons is to be unique in design in that the steam boilers and external chimneys are to be done away with. In their place two oil burning engines of the explosive type, developing 1,500 horse power and making 120 revolutions a minute are to furnish the means of locomotion.

The external appearance of these engines will not differ greatly from that of the steam engines.

TEN AT ONCE ON 'PHONE

Invention Promises a Revolution in Present Day System

IS GIVEN TO PUBLIC

United States Signal Corps Officer, the Inventor, Turns Use of it Over to the People—Some of the Possibilities

Washington, Jan. 5.—Patents have just been issued today for one of the greatest discoveries in years in telephony. The patents, issued to an army officer, are dedicated to the people of the United States to use free of all royalties, license, or rent.

The discovery is the work of Maj. Geo. D. Squires of the signal corps, who has for years been a student of electrical science, and has made numerous inventions for the use of the signal corps. His new invention is covered by ten patents.

The discovery may be described broadly as wireless telephony guided by a wire. As many as ten conversations, or even more, if desired, may be held over one wire. The vibrations of the ether surrounding the wire are the vehicles in which the conversation is held and not in the wire, as by ordinary telephony. The instruments employed are those now commonly used in ordinary wireless telephony.

Maj. Squires believes that the effect will be felt very soon in a general use of the discovery by private individuals and by telephone companies. He expects that one result will be a general reduction of the cost of telephone service and possibly a more widely distributed use of the telephone. The discovery is of special value for long distance use. It secures such a ringing, clear and audible tone that words probably be applied in that way sooner than in the ordinary work of local exchanges.

One of the best exhibitions of the new telephony is the successful way that music may be sent over the wires. The music of a band, a violin or of an organ or of the human voice is transmitted with perfection. It is believed that the time has come when the transmission of optimistic sermons and addresses and lectures by long distance is possible.

The new system makes it possible to conduct a telephone system without the use of two wires as now. "Ordinary" connections are used with a single wire. The superposition of numerous conversations on one wire will not in any way interfere with the present use of the telephone by the apparatus now in use.

SAVE MONEY IN TEAMS' FARES ON RAILROADS

National and American Schedule Committee Has Arranged Next Season's Plans

Cincinnati, Oh., Jan. 5.—According to statements made here by President Ray Dreyfus, the joint schedule committee of the National and American leagues has arranged the schedule for both leagues so that each club will save between $1,000 and $5,000 in railroad fares next year.

It says that each of the clubs has been travelling many extra thousands of miles every year and that the joint schedule body has cut down the number of miles to the lowest ebb. He would give no exact instances and said that his league would have to await the deliverance of the new schedule.

GOLD FIELD IN SCOTLAND

Duke of Sutherland to Throw Open Rich Area on His Estate

London, Jan. 5.—The Marquis of Stafford has publicly announced that his father, the Duke of Sutherland, will throw open to prospectors during the coming year the gold-bearing area in Sutherlandshire.

This announcement has been made in response to a recent public agitation about the lack of employment in the district. The decision recalls the great gold rush of 1868-69, when hundreds of miners passed a winter on the field very inadequately provided with shelter and the means of subsistence.

They endured great hardships, and their efforts met with such a poor reward that during the ensuing summer the field was almost deserted.

Although there were at one time more than 500 men at work, the total amount of gold obtained during the twelve months did not exceed £1,000 in value.

For the most part the diggers were crofters and fishermen, attracted from the surrounding district, but there were among them a few experienced gold miners who prospecting the area in more approved fashion, without, however, securing appreciably more remunerative results.

HOW MANY WILL WE GET?

Discussing the statement that 250,000 immigrants are expected to come to Canada this year, of whom 350,000 will come across the Atlantic and 150,000 from the United States, the Montreal Star makes the point that the method of their distribution will have something to do with the rapidly with which they will be assimilated and converted into good Canadians.

Normally, the great bulk of our immigrants will, for many years to come, look to the western provinces as their Promised Land, but even among them, there will be many who are better adapted to the farming conditions of the eastern and central portions of the Dominion and who fight with advantage to be diverted to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario.

With the rising of the tide of immigration there will inevitably come a corresponding increase in the difficulties which are to be adjusted and the dangers which ought to be avoided. If we shall ever need a wise and careful handling of immigration problems, it will be during the next few years.

It would be an extraordinary state of affairs, if, out of half a million of immigrants coming to Canada, the province of New Brunswick secured no larger number than were received during the last year. If Canada is attracting so much attention abroad as to lead hundreds of thousands of immigrants, many of them with considerable capital, to come to this country, it is clear that this province never had so great an opportunity to get a good class of settlers. They will not be secured by printing statements in government organs in the provinces about the virtues of the Hazen government, but by pursuing an aggressive policy to attract the attention of home seekers to the advantages offered in this province. More settlers and better roads are greatly needed. What will Mr. Hazen do about it? He boasts of a very large revenue. What will he do with the money to advance the welfare of the province?

THE GLOBE ANSWERED

The Montreal Transcript makes short work of the St. John Globe's attempt to break the force of Mr. Hazen's recent slashing criticism of the Hazen government's road policy. It says: "For the Globe to plead as it does that the present government should be excused from condemnation because of an alleged shortcoming by its predecessors, is so illogical as to be surprising in the case of a newspaper generally so astute as our contemporary. The account of the people with the government which Mr. Hazen succeeded was settled at the polls, and our St. John contemporary cannot very well ask that the old government should be again tried. The Hazen government came into power to remedy all those shortcomings, but it has not done so. The condition of the roads is not improved; it is as a whole worse than before. That being so, and undoubtedly it is, then surely it is time to inaugurate a radical reform. The Hazen government, by claiming through its journals that its predecessors were not altogether successful in their road policy, virtually admits the collapse of its own policy. Instead of pointing out the constructive features of the policy it initiated, the Hazen government says that the other fellows were just as bad. Mr. Hazen wasn't put into office to do no better, but to do better than his predecessors; and having failed in the latter role, it is time for a change."

MR. HAZEN'S FRIENDS

The Standard this morning playfully observes: "Bound hand and foot by the chains of patronage and graft, the Times feebly lifts its head out of the mud by which it lives and has its being, and gapes at such independence. A correspondent of the Standard, in the same issue, joyously adds: "It was the desire of the marauders (on Saturday night) to wreck the establishments where soiled men are cleansed why did they neglect the Telegraph and Times offices? This is strange when one considers the quantities of dirty political linen from Ottawa which the editors of the drudge's organs have striven ineffectively to make clean." These flattering references, couched in such elegant phrase, would almost smooth the pathway of a farmer over the Hazen highways. They clearly prove, moreover, that Mr. Hazen is a great statesman, Mr.

FOSTER A LOVELY LITTLE MAN, AND MR. BORDEN AND MR. MONK A NOBLE PAIR.

Speaking of dredges, it is said that in the course of their operations they sometimes stir up very strange and uncouth creatures, which prefer darkness to light.

BENEFIT FROM GOOD ROADS

A lesson on good roads comes from Grimsby, Ontario. The Toronto World states that fruit lands near Grimsby, which a year ago sold for $700 to $800 are now selling at $1,000 per acre. It adds: "The reason is not to be found alone in the increasing demand for fruit and the better packing. Good roads, as much as any one thing, have been a decided factor in the increase in property values. Wentworth and Lincoln are among the foremost counties in the good roads movement, both having spent large sums of money in establishing country road systems and building according to modern principles. The railroads have yet to demonstrate that they can ship fruit even a short distance without deterioration. Fruit that was formerly shipped by rail to Toronto has found a ready market in Hamilton because of Whitworth's good roads. The groves have been able to get better prices; the consumers have been able to get cheaper and better fruit, the only loss being the transportation companies. Good roads are also beneficial to town and country. The experience of the section of Ontario referred to by the World would be repeated under like conditions in New Brunswick. It is worth striving for."

The St. John Standard pledges the right hand of fellowship to every independent Liberal who inadvertently or otherwise may help to play its game.

The Montreal Herald says: "The Controllers refuse to dismiss Dr. Laberge, and a majority of council refuse to vote his salary. A more uncomfortable situation might have been devised, but it would take some study." Under the commission plan of city government there would be no such deadlock.

On the subject of good roads in the vicinity of cities an exchange well says: "Good roads mean the easy haul from the market garden and the farm to the city, and the easy haul means cheaper vegetables, poultry and other farm produce. The more smooth and easily travelled highways we have leading up to the city the greater the number of farmers who will bring their own produce to our doors, and therefore the more competition and the more reasonable the cost at which we shall furnish our tables."

The Globe last evening cited Washington as a commission ruled city which is not well-governed. The Globe should have explained, however, that the Washington commission is not elected by the people, and that there is absolutely no similarity between the system in the federal capital of the United States and that which has proved so completely successful in other cities. In no city where the commission plan as outlined in this paper recently has been adopted has it proved a failure. It is simply the application of business principles to city government.

The Calgary Albertan says it would be interesting to know what R. L. Borden would have said to that depiction of Western farmers about reciprocity and public ownership and such like. The Montreal Herald agrees with the Albertan and says: "They would certainly have been interesting, especially in view of the fact that the 'master of the situation,' so far as the tariff question is concerned (namely one G. E. Foster), has something to say about the tariff policy of the Conservative party, and he is dead opposed to reciprocity of any kind whatever."

Oakland, California, has declared in favor of government by the commission plan by a vote of three to one. The new charter provides for a commission of five members, headed by the mayor, establishes the initiative, referendum and recall, limits all franchise grants to thirty-five years, authorizes regulation of rates for public utilities, and reorganizes the municipal civil service. The only elective officers are mayor, auditor, four commissioners and six school directors. In the governing body of five all responsibility will be centred.

The second annual report of the Board of Education for England shows that 314 of 327 local educational areas have appointed school medical officers, who are dealing with over 6,000,000 public school children. They have examined incontinently to July 31, 1910, 1,047,000 children, and the work has been done through the school boards appointing the district or borough medical officer of health. In 230 of these the medical officer of health is the medical officer of schools, and in 74 of the remaining 94, the medical officers of the school do the work under the supervision of the district medical officer.

STOMACH DISTRESS INDIGESTION AND HEARTBURN VANISH

A Little Diapiesin Will Make Your Out-of-Order Stomach Feel Fine in About Five Minutes

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Diapiesin, and realize not only immediate but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes after eating.

If your meals don't comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, flatulence, or heavy eructations, get Diapiesin. It will be as soon as you take a 50-cent case of Diapiesin. There will be no sourness, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomachic flatulence, no gas, no indigestion, no heartburn, no nausea, no debility, no headache, no dizziness, no intestinal griping, no pain, no distress, no interference with your work, and no other stomachic misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomach, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomachic misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomachic disorder.

DUMB ANIMALS AND MEN He will not kick a dog, nor step upon the beetle at his feet. He even thinks it wrong to kill dumb animals to give us meat. With pity for all beasts and brutes His heart is very often stirred; Less thoughtful though is he of men, He often laments them with a word.

He will not whip a horse, nor use a check on that man for. To all the dumb brutes living here, But let us also be humane, Be of his kind, if he is of our kind. Less thoughtful, He is oft accused That he has sorely wounded them, With but a careless, angry word.

Withhold the whip that goads the horse, Put up the gun that slays the deer, And let's be kinder than we are, To all the dumb brutes living here. But let us also be humane, Be of his kind, if he is of our kind. Less thoughtful, He is oft accused That he has sorely wounded them, With but a careless, angry word.

IN LIGHTER VEIN HIS TROUBLE. Medical Student—"What did you operate on that man for?" Eminent Surgeon—"Two hundred dollars." Medical Student—"I mean, what did he have?" Eminent Surgeon—"Two hundred dollars."

TWO OF A KIND. "Sir, you seem to be troubled." "I am. For the last three years I have done nothing but pay out money, money, money, and get no sensible return for it. If this keeps up much longer I'll soon be a pauper." "Cheer up! I, too, have a son at college."—From Success Magazine.

A COMPELLING PERSONAGE. "Does your wife want to go to the polls and vote?" "No, sir," replied Mr. Meekton. "If Henrietta casts a vote it'll be important enough to have the polls brought around to the house when she sends for 'em."—Washington Star.

THE SIGNAL. Many a man who permits himself to be led forth to musical entertainments he does not care for will appreciate the following: "What made you start clapping your hands when that woman stepped on your foot in the theatre?" "I was dozing," answered Mr. Cumroo. "I thought mother and the girls were having a musical at-home, and one of them was signalling that it was time to applaud."—Tit Bits.

YOUNG WAGE EARNERS It is not easy for a young wage-earner to bank enough from week to week to provide a sum large enough when he becomes old to give him an income that will keep him in comfort for the rest of his days, and if he spends his capital as well as his interest he must always be haunted with the thought that his principal will one day be all spent. If he understood that by means of the system which the Canadian government has provided, namely, the annuities system, he could, by paying in twenty-five cents a week at any post office, secure at sixty, say, an income which nothing could deprive him of, he would probably immediately avail himself of the opportunity. For example, a young man aged 20, paying in twenty-five cents a week until sixty, would receive from and after that date so long as he lived an income of $12,911, or $29.91 more than he would derive from an investment of $2,000 at 5 per cent, if he happened to have $2,000 available for investment at 60, which it is safe to say that, having regard to the many temptations which he would have to spend the amount, he would not have. But the matter is easy for him if he will but make provision for his old age a charge upon his weekly wage. Any postmaster or the superintendent of annuities, Ottawa, will supply information as to how this may be done.

THE GLOBE'S ANSWERED. The Montreal Transcript makes short work of the St. John Globe's attempt to break the force of Mr. Hazen's recent slashing criticism of the Hazen government's road policy. It says: "For the Globe to plead as it does that the present government should be excused from condemnation because of an alleged shortcoming by its predecessors, is so illogical as to be surprising in the case of a newspaper generally so astute as our contemporary. The account of the people with the government which Mr. Hazen succeeded was settled at the polls, and our St. John contemporary cannot very well ask that the old government should be again tried. The Hazen government came into power to remedy all those shortcomings, but it has not done so. The condition of the roads is not improved; it is as a whole worse than before. That being so, and undoubtedly it is, then surely it is time to inaugurate a radical reform. The Hazen government, by claiming through its journals that its predecessors were not altogether successful in their road policy, virtually admits the collapse of its own policy. Instead of pointing out the constructive features of the policy it initiated, the Hazen government says that the other fellows were just as bad. Mr. Hazen wasn't put into office to do no better, but to do better than his predecessors; and having failed in the latter role, it is time for a change."

MR. HAZEN'S FRIENDS. The Standard this morning playfully observes: "Bound hand and foot by the chains of patronage and graft, the Times feebly lifts its head out of the mud by which it lives and has its being, and gapes at such independence. A correspondent of the Standard, in the same issue, joyously adds: "It was the desire of the marauders (on Saturday night) to wreck the establishments where soiled men are cleansed why did they neglect the Telegraph and Times offices? This is strange when one considers the quantities of dirty political linen from Ottawa which the editors of the drudge's organs have striven ineffectively to make clean." These flattering references, couched in such elegant phrase, would almost smooth the pathway of a farmer over the Hazen highways. They clearly prove, moreover, that Mr. Hazen is a great statesman, Mr.

FOSTER A LOVELY LITTLE MAN, AND MR. BORDEN AND MR. MONK A NOBLE PAIR.

Speaking of dredges, it is said that in the course of their operations they sometimes stir up very strange and uncouth creatures, which prefer darkness to light.

BENEFIT FROM GOOD ROADS. A lesson on good roads comes from Grimsby, Ontario. The Toronto World states that fruit lands near Grimsby, which a year ago sold for $700 to $800 are now selling at $1,000 per acre. It adds: "The reason is not to be found alone in the increasing demand for fruit and the better packing. Good roads, as much as any one thing, have been a decided factor in the increase in property values. Wentworth and Lincoln are among the foremost counties in the good roads movement, both having spent large sums of money in establishing country road systems and building according to modern principles. The railroads have yet to demonstrate that they can ship fruit even a short distance without deterioration. Fruit that was formerly shipped by rail to Toronto has found a ready market in Hamilton because of Whitworth's good roads. The groves have been able to get better prices; the consumers have been able to get cheaper and better fruit, the only loss being the transportation companies. Good roads are also beneficial to town and country. The experience of the section of Ontario referred to by the World would be repeated under like conditions in New Brunswick. It is worth striving for."

The St. John Standard pledges the right hand of fellowship to every independent Liberal who inadvertently or otherwise may help to play its game.

The Montreal Herald says: "The Controllers refuse to dismiss Dr. Laberge, and a majority of council refuse to vote his salary. A more uncomfortable situation might have been devised, but it would take some study." Under the commission plan of city government there would be no such deadlock.

On the subject of good roads in the vicinity of cities an exchange well says: "Good roads mean the easy haul from the market garden and the farm to the city, and the easy haul means cheaper vegetables, poultry and other farm produce. The more smooth and easily travelled highways we have leading up to the city the greater the number of farmers who will bring their own produce to our doors, and therefore the more competition and the more reasonable the cost at which we shall furnish our tables."

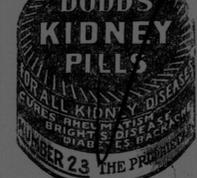

The Globe last evening cited Washington as a commission ruled city which is not well-governed. The Globe should have explained, however, that the Washington commission is not elected by the people, and that there is absolutely no similarity between the system in the federal capital of the United States and that which has proved so completely successful in other cities. In no city where the commission plan as outlined in this paper recently has been adopted has it proved a failure. It is simply the application of business principles to city government.

The Calgary Albertan says it would be interesting to know what R. L. Borden would have said to that depiction of Western farmers about reciprocity and public ownership and such like. The Montreal Herald agrees with the Albertan and says: "They would certainly have been interesting, especially in view of the fact that the 'master of the situation,' so far as the tariff question is concerned (namely one G. E. Foster), has something to say about the tariff policy of the Conservative party, and he is dead opposed to reciprocity of any kind whatever."

Oakland, California, has declared in favor of government by the commission plan by a vote of three to one. The new charter provides for a commission of five members, headed by the mayor, establishes the initiative, referendum and recall, limits all franchise grants to thirty-five years, authorizes regulation of rates for public utilities, and reorganizes the municipal civil service. The only elective officers are mayor, auditor, four commissioners and six school directors. In the governing body of five all responsibility will be centred.

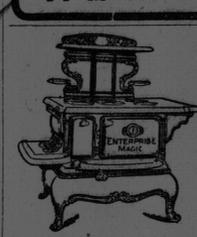

The second annual report of the Board of Education for England shows that 314 of 327 local educational areas have appointed school medical officers, who are dealing with over 6,000,000 public school children. They have examined incontinently to July 31, 1910, 1,047,000 children, and the work has been done through the school boards appointing the district or borough medical officer of health. In 230 of these the medical officer of health is the medical officer of schools, and in 74 of the remaining 94, the medical officers of the school do the work under the supervision of the district medical officer.

CORONATION M. DAL Design to Illustrate Ocean's Gift to the Crown. London, Jan. 4.—The design of the coronation medal, the work of Albert Toft, a celebrated sculptor, has been approved, and the die cut. A few casts have been made for examination by experts. In size the medals are almost the diameter of a half-crown and a half-penny respectively. The obverse side contains profile portraits of King George and Queen Mary, surrounded by a delicately wrought floral wreath. On the reverse side a symbolical design is presented. A sailing ship floats on peaceful waters, with two heralds standing at the prow announcing the arrival of the crown. The crown itself, resting on a cushion, is in the centre of the ship. The holding sails are covered with heraldic designs, the chief being the quarters on the Royal Standard. The object of the artist is to portray the ocean's gift of the crown to Britannia's ruler, and the effect has been cleverly obtained. It is probable that the medals will be cast both in gold and silver.

GOJD ROADS

(Montreal Witness) In the matter of roads, the contrast between Canada and the leading countries of Europe is unappealing. We are apt to think we are on the forefront of the world and far ahead of the sluggish eastern hemisphere; but in the matter of roads, as in some others, for instance, that of education, we have a very great leeway to pull up before we shall be able to get about with anything like the economy that good roads secure to the wayfarers of Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland, the low countries, Scandinavia, and others. The present offer of the provincial government to the rural municipalities to improve their roads is certainly generous. Every rural municipality which will conform to the code method of road taxation will receive four hundred dollars a year, and if the work of macadamizing is undertaken, the further sum of five hundred dollars a year is given. The annual tax of the municipality must, of course, be at least eighteen hundred dollars for it to receive nine hundred, but there are few municipalities, covering whole townships, which can profess to maintain their roads on a smaller tax than that.

The problem of turning from a statute labor to a cash tax should not be a serious one anywhere. The roads will have to be worked by local labor as before, and every man who wishes to do so may earn the payment of his cash tax and even something over. The system is already in operation in some countries, and it has worked admirably in this respect. The really essential thing now, as it seems to us, is to make sure that the large government aid will not be wasted by a continuance of bad methods in road making. Worse than the statute labor tax is the placing of the road-making each year under the supervision of Tom, Dick and Harry. Tom may be a natural engineer and know his business. His section of the township roads may be well done, but he only serves as overseer two years and is succeeded by Dick and Harry, who straightway undo the good work that has been done before them. Every township should have a competent supervisor for the whole of its roads, a man who knows what will make a steady of the material that each district may have. There is not the slightest doubt that skilled direction, as in France in the days of Turgot, would give infinitely better roads at one-third the present cost. But in order both that skilled direction may be available, and that when available it will really replace the haphazard method, there should be, we think, a wide and well planned campaign of instruction on road-making by competent experts. It should be no great difficulty, for instance, for such lecturers to first visit any particular locality and study the defects of the existing roads as well as the local material that there may be for their improvement. The advice then given at a public lecture would be doubly practical, and would be more likely to convince than if merely confined to general scientific principles. With the right kind of men to do this work, the campaign would be something in the nature of a university extension movement and would undoubtedly be effective in the long run. The government certainly has a great measure of progress in view in its endeavors to improve the roads of the province. The work will not be accomplished in a day or a year, and the forces of prejudice will have to be overcome; but in the end there will be something substantial to the credit of Sir James Goslin and his colleagues in this direction. The coming season is to be marked by increased grants to education and to good roads, two of the most important objects for progressive action that the government can undertake.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"I WILL neither eat nor drink what I know will detract from my ability to do my best work." That was one of the eight self laws which were posted on the wall in a California hospital and which I forgot the other day. I was inspired to bring it more especially before you by the experience which I had with it.

I was reading over those laws with a friend. We came to that one. "That's a mighty hard one to keep," he said. "I don't think so," I disagreed with him. "I think I keep that one right along with very little difficulty. I never eat things that disagree with me."

The next day after an unusually hard morning's work I went into a little luncheon room and picked up the menu. I certainly was never in greater need of a thorough nourishing meal than just then, and I meant to have one. Unfortunately my eye lighted on this special "soumy" and "muple syrup" of which I am very fond. I ordered that and a cup of tea and topped off with a delicious fudge cake, for which the luncheon room is justly famous. And it was of course with my appetite satiated but my needs quite unsatisfied, that it occurred to me how greatly I had violated that rule which I boasted so confidently of my power to keep.

It covers a good deal—that law. I wonder how many of us do keep it absolutely—in spirit as well as in letter. Eating indigestible things in the evening. Eating between meals. Eating candy to excess. Eating foods which we know have a tendency to disagree with us. Eating heavy meals and not taking care of them by exercise. Skipping meals when business presses. Eating hurried and insufficient meals for the same reason. Eating food which appeals to the palate, but does not satisfy the needs of the body.

Eating when overfed. These are a few of the offenses against the spirit of that rule. Oftentimes I hear women who have the utmost scorn and contempt for the drunkard's weakness say of some article of diet, "Yes, I know that is apt to disagree with me, but I love it so that I just can't help eating it once in awhile. These good women are committing the same sin as the man who drinks to excess—that is impairing their ability to be their best selves and do their best work."

They are committing it, moreover, under vastly less pressure of temptation. And yet they consider they have a right to look down on the drunkard. I don't think they have. The body is the tool wherewith the mind and soul carve out their work of character and achievement. Will you needlessly dull that tool or will you try to keep it sharp by neither eating or drinking what you know will interfere with your capacity to do your best work?

Daily Hints for the Cook

CELERY AND CHEESE Creamed celery poured into an Eclair cheese shell, covered with buttered cracker crumbs, and browned in hot oven is an attractive and delicious dish. It is served with powdered cheese and minced parsley.

BIRD'S NEST PUDDING. Pare and core six large apples, then put them into your well-buttered biscuit pan; now mix together five heaping teaspoons of flour, one scant teaspoonful of salt and one cupful of milk into a smooth paste, then add the yolks of three well-beaten eggs; add the whites and another cup of milk; pour this over the apples, bake one hour; serve hot with hard sauce or sweetened whipped cream flavored with lemon extract.

CHEESE PIE. Take one half pound of flour, sprinkle it with a saltspoon of salt, dredge in three cups of butter, use enough milk to make into a firm paste, roll out several times. Line a pie dish with this thin layer of this paste, fill up the rest of the pie with equal portions of grated cheese, bread crumbs and chips of previously fried and browned potatoes, cover the top with paste, brush over with beaten egg, and bake for an hour.

MOCK BISQUE SOUP. Stew a cup of tomatoes and strain, add a pinch of soda to remove acidity. In another saucepan boil three pints of milk in a thickened with a tablespoonful of corn starch, previously mixed with a little cold milk. Add a lump of butter size of an egg, and salt and pepper to taste. Mix with tomatoes and let come to a boil.

CARDAMON CAKES. Beat three eggs light, without separating. Add to them gradually two pounds of sugar beating steadily. Add three ounces of butter. Mix four tablespoonsful of ground ginger, and three of cinnamon with one pound of flour. Add to the eggs and sugar and beat until smooth. Bake in greased shallow pans, sprinkling the top with blanched almonds split in halves before putting in the oven. Cut in squares to serve.

GINGERBREAD. One egg, one half cup of sugar, one half cup of molasses, one fourth cup of butter, one half cup of milk, one teaspoonful of soda (level), one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of ginger, one fourth teaspoonful of cloves, little nutmeg. Flour to make batter stiff enough to drop from spoon. Cream the sugar and butter, and the egg well beaten. Dissolve the soda in the milk and add to the mixture. Then add the spice and flour. Bake in a hot oven 20 minutes.

THE STOMACH is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a feeble leader. A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

The Mother of Fifty

In the district of Kronsstadt, in the history, matrimonially and otherwise, is not to put too fine a point upon it—some what out of the common. Born on Oct. 20th, 1832, Mrs. Van Wyk (nee Thelia M. de Beer) began what was to prove an eventful matrimonial career at the age of eighteen, when she married Petrus Jacobus Laible. At the end of two years she became a widow with one child. After being a widow she married Nicolaas Martinus Pretorius, a widower with four children. After living with him for a year and five months he also died, leaving her with five children. After five years she married Pieterus, a widower with seven children. With him she lived eleven years and had seven children, when he also died. After two years she married for the sixth time, on this occasion with Conradus Hendrik Van Wyk, a widower, with five children, and with him she had four children, when he, too, died. Five years later she married for the ninth time, Hendrik Klopfer. With him she also lived eleven years, and had ten children, when he also died. After two years she married for the sixth time, on this occasion with Conradus Hendrik Van Wyk, a widower, with five children, and with him she had four children. After having lived together for eleven years he also died. She had thus fifty children who call her mother, and about 270 grandchildren. She is still alive at the age of 78 years.

Sir Wilfrid in Quebec
Quebec, Jan. 4.—Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier arrived in town this evening and will be the guests of Hon. Adolard and Madame Turgeon during their stay in Quebec.
The premier will have quite a busy time while here. In addition to the many social functions which have been arranged in his honor, he will be interviewed by the press. Wilfrid will be interviewed in regard to a number of matters which are at present agitating Quebecers, among them the organization of the Quebec harbor commission. The idea is to have a commission composed of three members similar to that of the city of Montreal. The town of Levis wants to be represented on the commission.
Another important question, is that of choosing a new site for the local branch of the marine department to establish their work shops. A strong movement is afoot to have the shops removed to the mouth of the St. Charles river, while other interests want the shops to be located along the river front at Wolfe's Cove.
Tomorrow afternoon Sir Wilfrid will be the guest of the Ladies' Club at the Chateau and will address them on the Trade of Paris in Canada since the Origin of the Colony.

WHAT A C.P.R. FIREMAN OWES TO ZAM-BUK.

George H. Duffus of Robertson St., Fort William, a C. P. R. fireman, says: "The water gauge of my locomotive burst and scalded the whole left side of my face terribly. I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I was using for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the first shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey and upon reaching home, I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. Zam-Buk acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nearly healed. I don't know anything so fine as Zam-Buk as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts, and similar injuries, which workers are so liable to, and, in my opinion, a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

Zam-Buk will also find a sure cure for cold sore, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poison, various rashes, pimples, eczema, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries, generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

The Almanac was Guilty (London Chronicle)
Copies of almanacs in France are legally responsible for the accuracy of their publications. This point was determined by a case tried in the days of Louis Philippe. Over a well-known army colonel, fell into difficulties and was eventually rescued by his creditors. According to French law, debtors cannot be arrested between sunset and sunrise. One evening, Overwood sat forth in quiet possession of his almanac, which he had just purchased, and was seized by a bailiff and pro- tected.

On New Year's eve citizens of Bille, Colo., set down to a banquet at which a magnificent menu was made of alfalfa. They had biscuits made of alfalfa meal, alfalfa-stuffed turkey, mashed alfalfa, alfalfa mince, alfalfa salad, alfalfa tea, and was served by a staff of alfalfa waiters.

Family Cough Syrup

Cures Any Cough in Five Hours

Here is given the most effective cough prescription known to the medical world. It is a mild laxative, too, and this is what is really needed when suffering with cough and cold on the lungs. A cough or cold indicates poisons in the system, causing inflammation and congestion. Not only do cough syrups relieve, but make the trouble worse by their stimulating effects. This prescription not only relieves quickly, but it cures any cough that is curable. Get one-half ounce of cherry bark, one ounce compound essence of codon, and three ounces of simple syrup. Mix and bottle in a half pint bottle. Give children less according to age. A few hours' treatment will cure and heal the throat and lungs, but consumption. Put out this and give it to some friends who may not get it saved from an early death by consumption.

Skating

Considerable interest is being taken in the skating rink which is to take place in the Victoria rink this evening. The entries include some of the fastest in the city. Albert and H. Collins.

THE AVIATOR'S LOVE SONG
Oh, fly, fly, over the mountain height; My airship trust waits for you And long to wing the flight. I've trained its course to the south wind's course. We'll dip in the summer sea; To the spicy isles where nature smiles, Oh, come and fly with me.

With love's bright chain I'll bind each plane; We glide on the passing breeze; I'll trace our chart with Cupid's dart. And steer for the land where love's stars above. Are bending low to thee; To the south sea isles where nature smiles, Oh, come and fly with me.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry
Save 52 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home

This recipe makes 10 ounces of better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough. Simply as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Paree (25 cents worth) in a 16 oz. bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a fairly long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pure glycerine on the membrane is well known. Paree is the most soluble concentrate of glycerine and is rich in ginseng and all the natural salting ingredients. Other ingredients will not work in this formula.

This Paree and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully. A genuine article of absolute satisfaction, very money-comparably refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Paree or will get it for you. If not, send to The Times Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE SECRET

All true success is the outcome of real personal interest and genuine endeavor.

You may be designing a battleship or you may be designing a bright idea for a 15 cent toy, controlling a commissariat or punting and experimenting with fruits and spices in order to perfect a new recipe for the home table, but the real road to success in just the same in one case as in each of the others. It is not what you are doing, but how you are doing it. You cannot know, unless it were told you, how much personal interest was thrown into the making of the 15 cent toy. Success before its name began to be a household word. The manufacturers—the largest firm of "mineral sausage" down to the world-wide determining upon producing a sauce that should reach perfection and so make a small profit and bring success to the makers.

The Midland Sugar Company of England and their H. P. THE EVANS FORTUNE The following from the Boston Herald of Wednesday will interest St. John claimants of a portion of the Evans fortune:—To provide for a just distribution after her death, of the fortune left by the late Robert Dawson Evans of Beverly, Mrs. Maria A. Evans, his widow, has begun proceedings in the supreme court of Essex county to establish the legal relationship of those who may have a claim to a share of the fortune of the late copper magnate. Attorneys are being engaged by people in Boston, various parts of New England, and even in England, by those who claim to be related to Mr. Evans, and it is that the testimony of these "may be perjured and be evidence against all persons," that Mrs. Evans has begun the novel proceedings, asking that commissions be issued to take testimony in different parts of America.

In the will probated by Mrs. Evans the estate of more than $10,000,000 was left exclusively for her use and enjoyment, but with the concluding provisions in the will that at her death "one-half of the residue is to go to my then eldest-son, they to take as by right of representation."

Until recently Rene Evans Paine of Brookline, only child of Mrs. Evans's sister Eliza, and Mrs. Margaret Brigham, widow of the wealthy milk contractor of that name, have been considered the heirs who were to divide the residue of the estate on Mrs. Evans's death.

Now however others have appeared, basing their claim on an old law which declares that the property of a deceased person may be inherited by persons five times removed.

The legal notice sent out by Clerk of Courts E. B. George of Essex county, ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested to appear before the justices of the Peace, county court sitting at Boston, Tuesday, the 7th day of February next, at 9.30 o'clock in the forenoon.

C. P. R. TO HAVE NEW YORK LINE

Will be Feeder to Australian Service from St. John is Report Today—Querida First Boat

The C. P. R., it is said today, are to have a monthly freight service between New York and St. John, and the first boat is now loading for this port. The service is in connection with the C. P. R. Australian service, and the scheme was decided upon, it is said, because of the fact that much of the freight for Australia originates in the United States. The idea is that these steamers will, on arrival here, discharge into the Australian steamers. The next steamer of the Australian service is the Wakatane, which is scheduled to sail from here on the fifteenth of the present month, and it is anticipated that the first steamer of the New York St. John service will be here in time for the arrival of that steamer. The vessel to make the initial trip is the Querida, owned by the Donald Steamship Company of New York, and commanded by Captain David Fitzpatrick. This steamer was formerly under charter to the Dominion Coal Company, and only recently terminated her charter. She is a new steamer, having been built in October, 1909, at Newcastle, England, by Swan, Hunter, Wiggin & Richardson, and is 630 tons, 230 feet in length, 36 feet beam and 16 feet deep. It has not yet been learned what other steamers will, with the Querida, perform the service.

S. Z. DICKSON DEAD AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

The End Came Suddenly—He Was a Prominent Dealer in the Country Market

Many expressions of regret were heard in the country market and elsewhere in business circles this morning when it became known that S. Z. Dickson, a prominent dealer in the market, had died suddenly at his home, 39 Paddock street. He had been ill with heart trouble for a week or so, and while there was the fear that he might not improve, yet his family had no thought that the end was so near. He appeared to be better last night and this morning sat up in bed and ate some breakfast. Almost immediately afterwards he passed away. Mr. Dickson was born in Jubilee, Annapolis County, sixty-five years ago. He came to St. John early in life and was connected with the old London House for thirty years, up to the time of its change in ownership. He then established himself in the meat business in the country market, and this he had successfully carried on for the last fifteen years. He also owned a farm in Jubilee and devoted some of his time to it. Mr. Dickson is survived by his wife, two sons—George, associated with him in business, and Edgar, in Cranbrook, B. C., and one daughter, the wife of Dr. W. H. Simon, V. S. For all there will be deep sympathy in their sorrow.

LIMIT MEMBERSHIP IN BOYS' DEPARTMENT OF Y.M.C.A. TO 350

Good Attendance at Physical Instruction Classes—Billiard Tournament Winner

It has been decided to limit the membership in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. because of the lack of accommodation for the lads. The limit has been placed at 350, and while the membership in this branch has not yet reached that number it is expected that before long it will do so, and for that reason, because of the accommodation, a limit has been set on the number coming in.

In spite of the fact that it is the holiday season the attendance at the physical classes instructed by E. J. Robinson, of the Y. M. C. A., is looked upon as very encouraging and proves that the lads are greatly interested in the work, as it seldom happens that so many attend during the holidays.

J. W. C. Rose was the winner of the recent billiard tournament. The prize was a billiard cue. His score was fifteen points won and six lost. The members of the Harriers' Club are looking forward with anticipation to the snowshoe tramp to be held on the evening of January 11 to Ketepee. E. J. Robinson will lead the tramp, and if the weather man is favorable, an enjoyable time is expected.
