ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

RETURN to an ADDRESS of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 11 June 1849;—for,

“COPY of any COMMUNICATION from Her Majesty’s Consul at Washington to Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in reference to Measures adopted by the Government of the United States, on the subject of the Expedition sent forth by this Country, under Command of Sir John Franklin, to the ARCTIC SEAS.”

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 13 June 1849.

CORRESPONDENCE with Her Majesty’s Chargé d’Affaires at Washington, respecting the Intention of the Government of the United States to send Two Ships of War in Search of Sir John Franklin’s EXPEDITION to the ARCTIC SEAS.

COPY of a DESPATCH from Viscount Palmerston to Mr. Crampton, Her Majesty’s Chargé d’Affaires at Washington.

Sir,

Foreign Office, 25 May 1849.

I TRANSMIT herewith a copy of a note which has been addressed to this office by direction of Sir Francis Baring, the first Lord of the Admiralty, referring to a statement which appeared in the “Times” of the 22d instant, respecting the alleged intention of the United States Government to send two ships in search of Sir John Franklin’s Expedition, and suggesting that, if this intention is entertained by the Government of the United States, it may be useful that they should be in possession of the printed papers sent herewith.

I have accordingly to desire that you will ascertain whether the above-mentioned statement is correct, and if it is so, you will lose no time in communicating the accompanying documents to the Secretary of State of the United States; and you will say, that Her Majesty’s Government fully appreciate the generous and humane motives which have induced the Government of the United States to send these ships to the Arctic Seas.

I am, &c.

(signed) Palmerston.

Captain Hamilton to Lord Eddisbury.

CAPTAIN Hamilton presents his compliments to Lord Eddisbury, and, with reference to an article under the head of “Canada News” in the “Times” newspaper of the 22d instant, in which it is stated to be “the intention of the Government of the United States to send two ships in search of Sir John Franklin’s Expedition, one to go round east by Labrador and Davis’s Straits, the other west by Bhering’s Straits,” writes by desire of Sir Francis Baring, suggesting for Lord Palmerston’s consideration the propriety of sending, for the use of the United States Government, the accompanying printed papers, containing the views of officers competent to give an opinion as to the best measures for affording relief to the expedition, and the steps taken by Her Majesty’s Government for that purpose.

Sir Francis Baring has no means of judging as to the truth of the report given in the “Times,” and as it is stated to have come by telegraph by Montreal, some little interval must elapse before it can be substantiated; but, aware of the importance of time in such a service, and assuming the possibility of such a generous and humane measure on the part of the United States Government, Sir Francis Baring supposes that with such documents before them, for comparison with their own views, that Government might be materially aided in drawing up instructions for their officers, and in arranging such plans as would render any auxiliary expedition infinitely more serviceable.

Admiralty, 25 May 1849.

2 CORRESPONDENCE RELATING TO THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

COPY of a DESPATCH from Mr. Crampton, Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Washington, to Viscount Palmerston.

Washington, 14 May 1849.
(Received May 28.)

My Lord,

THE Secretary of State of the United States has informed me that the President has given orders that two vessels of war be immediately got ready to proceed, the one by Bhering's Straits, and the other by Davis's Straits, in search of the Expedition under Sir John Franklin, with regard to the fate of which so much anxiety is felt by the friends of science in all countries, and for whose intrepid commander great admiration and sympathy are entertained in the United States.

This order of the President seems to have met with the universal approbation of the country.

I did not fail to express to Mr. Clayton my conviction that the feelings of enlarged generosity and humanity which have prompted this measure will be most warmly appreciated by Her Majesty's Government, and by the whole British nation.

I have, &c.
(signed) John F. Crampton.
