OBITUARY.

Mr. Ambrose Nichols.
One of the saddest events which can be recalled for some time and one which has called forth the greatest amount of sympathy is that of the sudden death of Ambrose Ray Nichols, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Nichols, Nicholasville, at the age of nineteen years.

On Dec. 28th this young fellow, of more than ordinary strength and vigor, leaving his home for the first time, accompanied his brother to New Glasgow, to engage in a shell-producing factory. He contracted measles, which, with a complication of bronchial pneumonia and laryngitis, caused his death. His mother received a delayed telegram on Tuesday, notifying her of his illness. She and daughter Alice hastened away the following day in high hopes of being able to nurse him back to health. Upon their arrival in New Glasgow they found that he had been removed to the hospital, his condition having become critical. That evening another message was received, summoning the father, who started from Kentville early next morning. Trusting that in a few hours, a change for the better might come, not even this anxious, grief-stricken family were allowed to visit him in the hospital and all that remained for them to do was to see that the best medical aid obtainable was procured and that every appliance was used to prolong life. All efforts were unavailing and the end came on Saturday afternoon.

When the sad intelligence reached his home, friends and companions it cast a gloom over the place which cannot soon be dispelled, for Ambrose possessed a bright, cheerful disposition and a Christian character, which caused him to be greatly respected by all.

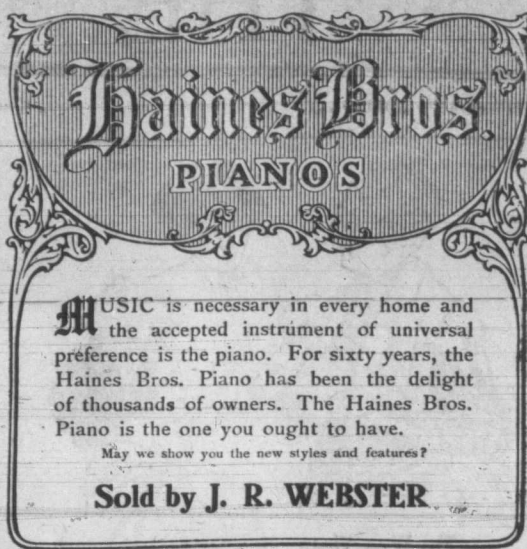

He leaves a corrowing mother, father, one sister, Alice, and brother, Myron, also grandmother, Mrs. Emma Robinson, in the home, and it is with these that friends and strangers alike, have expressed their heartfelt sympathy.

The remains, accompanied by a family, were brought to Aylesford on Monday, 24th. Funeral service, which was very largely attended, was held on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Wm. Brown, of Aylesford, and Rev. T. Brindley, pastor of Nicholasville Methodist Church, of which the deceased was a member.

Floral tributes were beautiful, consisting of anchor, from friends at The Pines, Trenton, New Glasgow; cut flowers, sister; large wreath from young friends in home and adjoining community; wreath, uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. McMahon, Aylesford; basket, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Killam, Halifax, and several offerings from other friends.—Register.

William Hutchell of Toronto was fined twenty-five dollars in the police court Monday for using obscene language over the telephone. The prosecution was under an enactment passed last year and the conviction is believed to be the first of its kind in Canada.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM DR. H. S. MOORE.

Received Last Week by His Grandfather—Mr. A. A. DeWolfe.

At the Front, Jan. 6th, 1916.

Dear Grandp:
Just received your Christmas card and the Kentville papers and needless to say I was much pleased to get them. We learn to appreciate news from home out here although it takes me a long time to get any, because I've been with so many different regiments and ambulances, my letters and papers follow me about four weeks before I get them.

Well another Christmas has come and gone and its the first one I've spent away from home. It was not a very pleasant one, but fair under the circumstances, plenty of champagne and French wine. We were planning on a big dinner for Christmas in my ambulance, which is stationed in an old French brewery, but on Dec. 22nd, I received orders to join a regiment for temporary duty and so missed the big dinner. Just as well I guess, because two of the officers drank so much they have been drinking 'Vichy Water' ever since, ha! ha!

The regiment which I joined were stationed in a battered French village just behind the firing line and we officers had our mess in an old French farm house. While we were eating lunch on Christmas Day, the beastly Germans were very rude, and put two shells into the yard and broke all the windows out of the house and the other went through the roof of the barn where the Machine-guns were billeted. They all scrambled down the ladder shouting and laughing as if it was a great joke. The British Tommies don't seem to care if they get hit or not especially when they are full of French beer.

The day after Christmas we started for the trenches. It was a cold rainy night and after riding my horse for about two miles I sent my servant back with him, and marched the rest of the way with the men. The part of the line which we had to hold was a very bad salient and as we neared the trenches the German flares seemed to be going up all around us. Its very weird marching along the road at night, when you are near the firing line. Even on dark nights the star shells make everything as light as day. The Germans have three different colors, red, blue and white, but what they mean I don't know. They go up like a sky rocket and then burst and the white ones are like big arc-lights. The French star-shells are attached to a sort of a parachute and remain in the air much longer than the German shells. When you are slinking along a road about a thousand yards from the German lines and these flares go up you duck your head and wish the earth would open and swallow you up for then the bullets begin to hum like bees and sometimes shrapnel and pipsqueals. But we were lucky and only had three men hit with stray bullets. I had to stop and dress them the best I could, beside the road in the dark and rain. One poor chap was shot through the stomach and so I gave him a grain of morphia and sent a messenger for the ambulance.

When we finally arrived at our headquarters we found that the regiment which we were relieving had a very hot time that day and they strongly advised us to change our quarters. We wisely took their advice and found another cellar some distance away. I was unable to find another cellar for the dressing station however and so had to keep the same one, where the Germans had been shelling that day and killed 4 men in a dugout and buried three more close by. But it's part of the game to take chances and we do it every day. In fact most everyone gets too reckless after a time and a good many don't live to tell about it.

The first day was quiet and there was only a little shelling but the second day they commenced in good style and gave us very little rest. At first they sent shrapnel and whizz-bangs, but when they got the range they started sending over the big stuff "eight inch." The stretcher-bearers and I sat in the cellar and shivered expecting the next big one to be our last. But the luck broke with me again and they came all around but none on top. Towards night they let us up some and we were not sorry. I tell you Grandp one of those big shells coming for you shortens life about a year, and longer than that if it hit you, ha! ha! They make a noise like an express train going into a tunnel and then there is a tremendous crash which shakes the earth for hundreds of yards around. A big cloud of black smoke goes up and the air is full of flying bits of shell, sticks and dust. One morning it was so bad I thought we would have to leave, but we stuck it out for seven days and a regiment was relieved.

Every day I used to take a walk up to our front-line trenches and found them in very good condition. Most of the trenches have boards now, which keeps them quite dry and the Tommies are quite cheerful. Many of them were broiling bacon over open fires which they made on the freestep, regardless to the fact that they were making an awful smoke for the Germans to see, who were only two hundred yards away. Some of the trenches in the front have very deep dug-outs I went down in one which was about thirty feet deep and was large enough to hold about two hundred men.

My respect for the British Tommy grows more and more every day. He takes everything as it comes and never complains. He does not know the meaning of the word fear and would rather fight than eat. But I think the Scotch Highlanders are the pick of the lot anyway you take them. The English Tommies call them the "Jacks" and the Germans call them "The Women from Hell." I saw them fight on the 25th of September and you bet they made the dirty Germans run, but it was the last fight for a good many of the gallant Jacks.

On New Year's Eve the Germans all got drunk. We could hear them shouting and singing and playing concertinas until the dawn of New Year's day. Their artillery celebrated the New Year by giving us an awful straying, but did not do much damage outside of killing two poor chaps on the road. Its peculiar how this war hardens a person. In peace times back home if a citizen of the town is accidentally killed there is a great hubbub and many lamentations. And yet not a day passes out here that I don't see fine young fellows killed or mutilated and very little said about it. One day you are drinking wine in a French cafe with a bunch of officers and the next day you hear that one or more of them has been killed by a shell or sniper. I often marvel how they stick it so well. But when the Huns commenced this war they forgot one vital factor and that is the bull-dog tenacity of the British and that's what will lick them in the end, mark my words. Two weeks ago I had seven days leave in London and except that its very dark at night there are few signs that England is at war. All the theatres and music-halls were crowded afternoon and evening, and everyone cheerful. On my next leave I expect to visit Paris. I hope you are all real well and Kentville is flourishing.

Your affectionate grandson, HUGH.

The result of the Prohibition vote in Three Rivers, Quebec, was announced, the vote being 100 for prohibition. There ought to be no difficulty in enforcing a prohibition law in that district.

LT.-COL. GUTHRIE ENTHUSIASTICALLY WELCOMED TO KENTVILLE.

Lt.-Colonel Percy A Guthrie, who commanded the 10th Overseas Battalion, C. E. F., at Festubert was given an enthusiastic welcome on the occasion of his visit to Kentville Friday evening. Lt. Col. Guthrie is on a recruiting tour of the province and was accompanied by Archdeacon Martell, now Captain Martell, Chaplain of the 112th Battalion, and Lieut. Howe, assistant recruiting officer for Nova Scotia.

Previous to the hour of meeting Mayor Felton took the party for an auto drive around town, headed by the Hiawatha Band. On their arrival at the Nicklet Theatre a crowded house greeted them.

Lt. Col. W. E. Roscoe presided, explaining in a clear and concise manner the primary object of the meeting, re the organizing of the County into recruiting districts. He brought forcibly to the minds of the people the need of such work. The people did not give the matter the necessary consideration, because the position was not understood. Some information is forthcoming but there is a lack of proper information. He spoke of the situation at the Dardanelles and also at Mesopotamia—owing to the lack of men. The call of every recruiting officer is for men. Kings County has a population of 22,000, we should send at least 600 men. Every man in the British Empire that can be spared is needed. Let us be true to our country in this hour of her greatest need. He then read the following resolution:

Whereas, a call has been made in the Dominion of Canada, for an additional 250,000 volunteers for Overseas service in the War in which the British Empire is now engaged

And whereas, it is necessary that every part of the Dominion co-operate to its fullest extent in order that the quota of men be forthcoming

Therefore resolved, that this County of Kings be organized for that purpose by establishing each Town or Ward in the County as an individual recruiting district, and that there be a recruiting Committee for each Town or Ward, and Mayor of the Town and the Councillor of the Wards be requested to act as chairman of such Committees and to associate with themselves such other persons as will form committees for the purpose of enabling enlistment to be carried on effectively, thru the whole County.

Dr. W. B. Moore moved the resolution in a short, but neat and effective speech.

Rev. T. C. Mellor occupied a few minutes in making a most convincing and charming address in seconding the resolution.

Captain Martell was then introduced to the audience, and made a very able and interesting address, giving many striking episodes of history in connection with the British Empire. He stated that he was optimistic, and gave many reasons why we should be proud of the great British Empire. There were certain characteristics in this war on which we could look with just pride. First—The Empire's Love of Fair Play. Second—Protection of the Weak, and Third—Our Slowness to Enter a Fight. He emphasized the fact that we must all do our share. We are all in one Imperial lifeboat, and we must sink or swim together. Strong emphasis was placed on the noble part in this great struggle taken by our Great Navy, "the little boys in blue" the silent fleet that guards our shores. Its the navy coupled with our army that will bring peace and victory. He called for men to rally around the old Union Jack, for the sake of their Empire, their country, their homes, and their God. It was a great speech, which thoroughly enthused the audience.

After selections of popular and very appropriate music by Lieut. Howe, Lt. Col. Guthrie was called upon, and was greeted by three rousing cheers and a tiger.

Colonel Guthrie has given his best to the service of his country, and all were eager to hear this wounded hero who had been in the thick of the battle, and could speak from experience. He is a very pleasing speaker and his address was most interesting and instructive, holding the rapt attention of the audience from start to finish. He addressed his remarks principally to the young men between 18 and 45 years of age. He spoke of the beginning of the war. How Germany had been always working to build up an army and navy, and when the time came she eagerly seized the opportunity to ride rough shod over poor little Belgium.

Then Britain arose and the call came for men to go forth and avenge the cruel oppressor—and the call is still coming and every physically fit young man who can possibly go should listen to the call. The call comes on behalf of your comrades who are in the trenches, who are watching and waiting for you. Do You Want to help them? Surely you will not let the old Flag fall. I have too much faith in the young manhood of Canada for that. His address was a heart to heart talk and every young man must have been thrilled and enthused to fight for the Empire of which we form a part. He gave a very interesting account of trench work, and incidents at the front which we hope to publish later.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, after which matters were discussed in reference to forming committees in conjunction with the recruiting scheme.

RECRUITING SCHEME FOR THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

The recruiting scheme for the Maritime Provinces which Colonel Guthrie is promoting is as follows:

The Province of Nova Scotia will be organized as follows:

A Provincial Committee to be composed of two prominent business men from each county, who will be organized for the purpose of getting behind the Recruiting Movement until the end of the war. These men are to devote much time to the work and shall act as directors of the company.

A Provincial Organizer shall be appointed who shall act as General Manager of this Company.

Each County will be divided into districts to be worked by local committees. A ladies and a gentleman's committee. The object of these committees is to keep sentiment alive in each part of the Province. Each public meeting and entertainment should be turned into a recruiting rally.

Returned men shall be added to the staff of the Provincial organizer and they will be detailed to attend meetings in the Province. These same men, together with officers and men detailed from the units now being formed shall be called upon to make a personal canvass of each district.

The Revisors shall be asked to send in a list as follows:

1st—Single men between 18 and 45 years of age.

2nd—Married men between 18 and 45 years of age.

3rd—Boys between 14 and 18 years of age.

Our object is to get at every man direct who should be wearing the khaki. If he has reasons why we want to answer the reason why and show him why he should enlist.

WEDDING BELLS

Gilliatt-Clarke.

The marriage was solemnized in Boston, Mass., Jan. 26, by the Rev. Ernest Graham Guthrie, pastor of the Union Congregational Church, Back Bay, of Miss Mary Gilliatt, only daughter of the late Captain Charles Gilliatt, Cornwallis, and Mr. John Andrew Clarke, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clarke of Canada.

The bride was becomingly gowned in sand color silk tulle, with hat to correspond.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for New York and other American cities. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will make their home in Canada.

HOCKEY.

Halifax vs. Kentville.

An interesting game of hockey was played at Kentville Arena Saturday evening between the Halifax Royal Bankers and the Kentville team. The game ended in a victory for the visiting team, Score 8-4.

The best of feeling prevailed between the teams, and a good clean game of hockey was the result. Both teams played well but the visitors proved too strong for the home team, some of the regular players being absent owing to illness.

The line-up was as follows:

HALIFAX	KENTVILLE
Goal	Barnaby
Point	Swanson
Centre	Christie
Centre	Brown
L. Wing	Thompson
R. Wing	Neary
Spare man	Young

J. Christie refereed, Robinson starred for the Bankers.

In the second period Earl Neville of the Halifax Bankers was accidentally injured having his cheek bone broken.

At the close of the game, skating was in order after which the visiting team was entertained at a Dance given in the Arena reception room.

TRAGIC SHOOTING AT LAWLOR'S ISLAND.

A tragic shooting took place at Lawlor's Island Saturday night at ten o'clock as a result of which Sergt. Williamson, of the 63rd Halifax Rifles is dead and Private Charles Fielder of the same unit is held at the County Jail at Halifax charged with murder. The gist of Fielder's explanation when questioned as to the shooting was that "something came over him," and he did the shooting.

Sergeant Williamson was standing in the mess room of the 63rd, when Fielder appeared, scantily clad, advanced a few paces into the room, placed his rifle to his shoulder and fired. Death was instantaneous. He is survived by a wife and six children, the oldest sixteen years of age. The family reside at Halifax.

MAGNIFICENT PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS AT OTTAWA TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Origin of Fire a Great Mystery.

Ottawa, February 4.—At two o'clock this morning the entire parliament building, except the library in the rear is a mass of flames and will be a total loss except what portion of the wall may be saved; the tower reaching 200 feet high is aflame, and all the contents are lost. Two lives are known to have been lost, friends of the wife of Speaker Seigny; there are rumors of further deaths, and several members of parliament were injured, more or less severely, in making their escape through the sudden onrush of smoke and flame.

The corner stone of the parliament building was laid by the Prince of Wales in 1860, and the financial loss will be at least two millions of dollars.

At one o'clock three-fourths of the building was in flames. The Senate chamber, blazing with only less intensity than the Commons in the other end, and it was certain that the entire structure would be in flames in less than an hour more.

The wind carried the fire almost straight west and east, and so far the library, on the rear of the building, was safe. The loss of records in the burned building is one of the most serious features of the catastrophe, practically nothing of this character being saved, members lost their private papers, and public documents are gone. Ministers got nothing out of their offices, one member from Nova Scotia met with a particularly heavy loss. The members of the press gallery lost their typewriters, and those in the gallery were glad to get out with their clothing. The escape of Mr. Ide, private secretary to Hon. Mr. Burrell, was remarkable. To reach the corridor he had to creep on his hands and knees under the flames. The mace was left on the table in the commons, Captain Smith, the sergeant-at-arms finding it impossible to get it off the table.

The cause of the fire is not known. The prevalent opinion is a cigar or match in the reading room, where there are great numbers of loose piles of newspapers, that would afford a rapid vehicle for the spread of fire once started.

The House of Commons will meet tomorrow as usual, but in some other quarters. The Russell theatre has been suggested, but not decided. Two other places are under consideration.

At a late hour it was reported that four men had lost their lives in the fire, but this was not verified. It is said that a messenger, a plumber and two policemen, who were trying to remove property, had been caught and could not escape.

A SUGGESTION BOX

A woman writing in a recent issue of the "Canadian Courier," says: "We were talking the other day, about buying Canadian manufactures, when a woman who prides herself on her smartness of attire said: 'There are certain things you simply cannot get in Canada—that is, if you wish to wear the best.'"

"We admitted that she was quite right with regard to one or two items mentioned, and then one of us, who is most earnest in the campaign for Canadian goods, said: 'At least, we should give everything Canadian a fair trial and even make suggestions where we think improvements might be made. We can help wonderfully by encouraging our own manufacturers. I have often been ashamed of the carelessness of Canadian women in regard to their own Canadian productions.'"

Would it not be a good idea to have a suggestion box of some kind into which every loyal Canadian could drop a word of encouragement or helpful criticism to be passed on for the benefit of others. What do you think about it? Will you co-operate?

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Kentville People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress.

The secretions are dark, contains sediment.

Passages are frequent, scanty painful.

Backache is constant day and night.

Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent.

The weakened kidneys need quick help.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache, and urinary disorders. Kentville evidence proves this statement.

James Foster of Gaspereau, N. S., says: "For several months I had been very much troubled with large and sore back which inconvenienced me very much in working. The pains in my back were so severe at times that I would have to stop my work. The kidney secretions I had also been highly colored and contained a heavy sediment. I had tried various remedies to relieve me but without receiving any benefit from them. I then learned of Booth's Kidney Pills through an advertisement and procured a box at J. D. Clark Pharmacy and found in them almost immediate relief. Today I feel as if I had a new back as it does not trouble me in the least. The kidney secretions have also returned and I feel better generally. Sold by Dealers. Price 50 cents." The R. T. Booth Co., Lt. Fort Erie Ont., Sole Canadian Agents.

MEASLES

(Issued by the Department of Public Health, Nova Scotia.)

This common disease is not usually accorded the attention which it should receive. It is a very serious disease, one which accounts for many deaths in our Province, and which is frequently followed by disabling after effects.

No age is exempt from measles, although children are more susceptible to it than adults. Contrary to the belief generally held, it is more apt to be fatal in children than in grown people, and it is therefore important that children should be protected from the infection with especial care.

The most infectious period of the disease is that which precedes the eruption. The early symptoms are suggestive merely of an ordinary "cold." Consequently when measles is prevalent in a community any case of "cold" (except in a person who has already had measles) should be regarded with suspicion, and dealt with as a possible case of measles until the diagnosis is certain. Otherwise, the spread of the disease may be expected.

After the appearance of the rash, the infectiveness is less marked, but there is still danger of its being communicated for a period of five or six days.

The first symptoms of the disease may appear seven days after exposure to infection, but usually after a somewhat longer period. If a fortnight elapses after exposure, it is unlikely that the disease will develop.

It is now generally considered that the infection of measles is rarely, if ever, conveyed through the medium of clothing, etc. Contact with one who is actually suffering from the disease, especially before the rash appears, is much the most likely means of infection.

In order to prevent the spread of measles, therefore, an early diagnosis is of the utmost importance. Every patient should be isolated and should be kept isolated for at least five days after the rash appears. Those belonging to the household who have previously had the disease need not be restricted, but, as there is a slight possibility of a second attack, they should be kept under the physicians observation. Those who have not previously had measles, and who have been exposed to the infection, need not be restricted for seven days after the exposure, but should therefore be isolated for at least ten days and kept under the observation of the doctor.

In order to avoid the dangerous pulmonary complications which account for practically all deaths from measles, it is most important that the room in which a patient suffering from this disease is being treated should be large and carefully ventilated.

"Nora," said the mistress to the new servant, "we always want our meals promptly on the hour."
"Yes, mum, An' if I miss th' first hour shall I wait for th' next?"

Mi-o-na Has Reached a Gold Standard, Says Harry Ellis, of Fergus, For Stomach Trouble

Harry Ellis, of Fergus, Ont., says: I believe that Mi-o-na for the cure of stomach trouble, is worth its weight in gold. It cured me from a stomach difficulty that seemed to puzzle all other prescriptions and remedies. I was unable to eat, the food would ferment and form gas and make a serious pressure on my heart. There were terrible pains in the pit of my stomach. I became weak, drowsy, discouraged and later I got nervous and could not sleep or rest. This disease makes one feel like not wanting to see any human being and produces melancholy and foreboding. I was told to try Mi-o-na, and when I commenced on the first box I had hardly any faith in it, but the first two days' treatment made the pain in my stomach cease, and to make a long story short, the upset of my using Mi-o-na was that it cured me wholly, and now I can eat what I like and when I am hungry. I am an advocate of the use of Mi-o-na.

J. D. Clark sells Mi-o-na Tablets the dyspepsia remedy that is making such surprising cures throughout Canada for 50 cents a box, guarantees them to cure, or money back.

KILLED IN ACTION.

The sad news of the death of Private Lloyd Dorman, of New-tonville, who has been serving with the 25th Battalion in Belgium, was received last week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Dorman, now residing in Margaretville, and his sister, Miss Ina Dorman, who is a student at Acadia. The message read only, "Killed in action," and it is presumed he was shot while in the trenches where he has been serving since last October. He was 20 years of age, and was one of the first volunteers from this vicinity for the 25th. He was one of the bravest of our boys. In a letter to friends here recently, he wrote, referring to someone from his company who had been changed to an 'easy job' outside the firing

MAGNIFICENT PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS AT OTTAWA TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Origin of Fire a Great Mystery.

Ottawa, February 4—At two o'clock this morning the entire parliament building, except the library in the rear is a mass of flames and will be a total loss except what portion of the wall may be saved; the tower reaching 200 feet high is aflame, and all the contents are lost. Two lives are known to have been lost, friends of the wife of Speaker Sevigny; there are rumors of further dearths, and several members of parliament were injured, more or less severely, in making their escape through the sudden onrush of smoke and flame.

The corner stone of the parliament building was laid by the Prince of Wales in 1860, and the financial loss will be at least two millions of dollars.

At one o'clock three-fourths of the building was in flames. The Senate chamber, blazing with only less intensity than the Commons in the other end, and it was certain that the entire structure would be in flames in less than an hour more.

The wind carried the fire almost straight west and east, and so far the library, on the rear of the building, was safe. The loss of records in the burned building is one of the most serious features of the catastrophe, practically nothing of this character being saved, members lost their private papers, and public documents are gone. Ministers got nothing out of their offices, one member from Nova Scotia met with a particularly heavy loss. The members of the press gallery lost their typewriters, and those in the gallery were glad to get out with their clothing. The escape of Mr. Ide, private secretary to Hon. Mr. Burrell, was remarkable. To reach the corridor he had to creep on his hands and knees under the flames. The mace was left on the table in the commons, Captain Smith, the sergeant-at-arms finding it impossible to get it off the table.

The cause of the fire is not known. The prevalent opinion is a cigar or match in the reading room, where there are great numbers of loose piles of newspapers, that would afford a rapid vehicle for the spread of fire once started.

The House of Commons will meet tomorrow as usual, but in some other quarters. The Russian has been suggested.
