We regret to announce the death of Mr. William Kennedy, Confectioner for many years a resident of this city. The deceased was a man of much literary taste and of good abilities, and for some time, now more than twenty years ago successfully edited Rom's Weekly. At the time of his death he was President of the time of his death he was President of the Charlottetown Literary and Scientific Association. Well posted in English and American politics, as upon the current topics of the day, he was till shortly before his death known to be a welcome contributor to several of the city papers. He was an industrious business man, but lost heavily in the fire of February twelvemonth, since which his health gradually broke down,
