FIVE-YEAR-OLD BABY DIED AFTER BEING GIVEN BEER TO DRINK BY HIS FATHER

William Peters is Under Arrest Pending Inquest—Beat Three Women When Informed of Child's Death and Threatened Others—Notorious Characters Involved.

The death of his five-year-old son in a dilapidated cottage off Dundas street, may lead to a serious charge being preferred against William Peters, of 512 West King street. The grandmother of the boy alleges that he died from convulsions caused by liquor given to him by his father. Dr. Mason will open an inquest at the morgue this morning, when the matter will be thoroughly investigated. In the meantime, Peters is under arrest until the jury makes a finding.

Almost everyone who lives anywhere in the vicinity of Dundas street knows Sir Wilfrid Laurier Kingsley Peters. He was one of those little unfortunates who happened to have a drunken father. His grandmother, Mrs. Caulkwell, took the child away from Peters when it was only two weeks old. Since then she has had charge of Sir Wilfrid.

Gave Beer to Baby.
For the past five years Mrs. Caulkwell has supported herself and the boy by scrubbing floors and buildings. According to her own story, Peters and his wife tried several times to get the boy. When they did get a chance to have him for a few hours, they were in the habit of giving him beer to drink. Mrs. Caulkwell says she protested, but it was of no avail. At length the baby became possessed with a craving for liquor.

On Friday Mrs. Caulkwell took the boy in his carriage to Mrs. Dickinson's house nearby. Shortly after five they returned to their little home in the lane off Dundas street, just north of Argyle, on the east side.

No sooner had Mrs. Caulkwell opened the door than William Peters appeared on the scene. He entered and sat down. Peters then produced a bottle of beer and started to drink. He was warned not to give the child any and promised he would not.

After going into the yard for a stick of wood Mrs. Caulkwell found Sir Wilfrid with the beer cup up to his mouth. The cup was nearly empty. The father then went to his own home.

It was not until 11 o'clock Friday night that the boy complained of feeling ill. He had been given nothing to eat since leaving the Dickinson home. Mrs. Caulkwell attempted to nurse him and then went to a drug store for some powder. She gave him part of one powder.

Went into Convulsions.
Early Saturday morning he went into convulsions. The grandmother ran to Horton's pharmacy on Dundas street and secured some medicine. But this did not relieve the little boy's pain.

Several doctors were called in Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. With nothing could be done, however, and while being placed in a bath he died.

Mrs. Caulkwell carried the body about the streets in her arms until it was taken from her by the police and removed to the morgue.

William Peters called at the house about 5.30 on Saturday afternoon. When told that the boy was dead he kicked Mrs. Caulkwell into a corner, punched another sister in the face, and beat up another woman.

Overcome by Police.
Mrs. Caulkwell's son then interfered and put Peters out. The crazed man then walked up and down Dundas street, threatening to kill each and every pedestrian. He was finally overcome by the detectives and taken to jail.

That it was the beer which caused the convulsions is the statement made by Mrs. Caulkwell.

Every policeman in No. 6 division knew the boy and his grandmother. She took him with her to different places where she worked. Also he was 5 years of age, Mrs. Caulkwell generally had him in a carriage. He was always warmly dressed and neat in appearance. In fact, Sir Wilfrid had become very popular in that part of the city.

The lane in which the Caulkwell cottage is situated is graced by three small shacks. The landlord charges $10 monthly for the house in which the woman lives, and it has no conveniences.

Had a Hard Time.
Mrs. Caulkwell has a class in the Halton Avenue Anglican Church, and she also collects old clothes for the poor children. During recent years she has buried three children, served terms in the Mercer, had much domestic trouble and on one occasion was nearly beaten to death by a former husband.

AMERICA'S GREAT ASTRONOMER IS DEAD

Dr. Lewis Swift Received More Honors For His Work Than Any One Man—Was a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society of England and Canada.

BINGHAMTON, N.Y., Jan. 5.—(Can. Press).—Dr. Lewis Swift, America's great astronomer, died at 6 o'clock this morning, at his home in Marathon, never recovering consciousness following a stroke of paralysis sustained New Year's Day. The body will be interred in the village cemetery.

Dr. Swift was a fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society of England and also of Canada, received three gold medals from the Austrian Academy of Sciences at Vienna for discoveries, the greatest number ever given to any one man, and also received the Lalonde silver medal and 540 francs from France for the most rapid discovery of comets, ever made.

Dr. Swift was born in Clarkston, Monroe County, N.Y., on Feb. 23, 1830, and Feb. 23, 1908, as he himself has written, "was my 21st birthday, not my 22nd, because there was no leap year in 1900, and I went eight years without a birthday."

WOMAN BURNED WHILE COOKING

Mrs. Chappelle May Not Recover From Burns Sustained When Her Loose Dress Caught Fire.

When her dressing 'sacque caught fire while she was cooking the dinner about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Chappelle, 501 East King street, was so terribly burned that the doctors at St. Michael's Hospital entertain very little hope for her recovery.

Mrs. Chappelle was wearing a loose dress while working in the kitchen. She had occasion to take off the lids of the stove and stooped over to grasp a pan. The end of the blouse slipped into the fire.

Instantly she was enveloped in flames. Mrs. Michael Ryan, who happened to be in the house at the time, rushed to the unfortunate woman's assistance. She tore the clothes from her and then rolled Mrs. Chappelle in a blanket. In doing this Mrs. Ryan had her hands and arms severely burned.

Dr. O'Reilly was called in, and after rendering first aid had the woman removed to St. Michael's Hospital.

FIREMAN KILLED WHEN TRAINS COLLIDE

James Adams of Toronto Failed to Jump in Time When C. P. R. Freight Engines Collided Near Peterboro and Was Killed Instantly—Orders Were Not Obeyed.

The failure of an eastbound C.P.R. freight train to await the arrival of a westbound freight was responsible for a head-on collision about two miles east of Pontypool, near Peterboro, at 12:10 yesterday morning, in which Fireman James Adams of the east-bound train, a resident of ward seven, Toronto, was instantly killed. The main line between Toronto and Montreal was blocked for eleven hours as a result, but a thru service was maintained by the trains going around by way of Lindsay.

An official statement of the wreck, issued by the C.P.R., last night, reads: "At 12:10 Sunday morning an east-bound freight train (No. 902) and a westbound freight extra collided about two miles east of Pontypool, caused by the east-bound train hugging beyond Burketon Junction, where it should have awaited the arrival of the west extra. Fireman James Adams of the east-bound train was killed. The engines on both trains were slightly damaged and six cars were also damaged. An investigation will be held on Monday morning to ascertain the cause of the eastbound train not waiting at Burketon Junction until the westbound train had arrived."

All Others Jumped.
As the two trains were traveling at low rate of speed, the crews, with the exception of Adams, seeing a collision inevitable, were able to jump to safety. Fireman Adams did not leap out in time, and as a result was instantly killed. He has been living with Fred Woods at 188 Fairview avenue, West Toronto, and had only been out from the old country about six months. He was only about 31 years of age, and this had been his sixth trip out as fireman. He is survived by a mother and several brothers and sisters in England.

The young man's body will be brought back to Toronto today and taken to Speers' undertaking parlors. The interment will take place tomorrow afternoon in Prospect Cemetery. Dr. Tucker of Orono will open an inquest there today.

Auxiliaries were rushed to the scene of the wreck from both West Toronto and Havelock, but it was 11 o'clock yesterday morning before the track could be cleared. Both trains were carrying merchandise, and the three front cars of each were damaged.

Traffic Diverted.
But for the fact that the new grain route between Coldwater Junction and Bethany Junction, which was opened for service recently, was available, traffic between Toronto and Montreal would have been held up the eleven hours in which the track was blocked by the wreck. Thru the operation of the new line, however, the three passenger trains were sent round the wreck by way of Burketon Junction, Lindsay and Bethany Junction, which formed an angle out from the main line at this point.

This took the thru trains about two hours longer than the time taken going on the main line, and was used by Montreal train No. 22 and the Ottawa train No. 34 going west and Montreal trains 23 and 21 and Ottawa train No. 33 going east.

NEARLY ASPHYXIATED. Two Young Men Found Unconscious With Gas Turned On.

Two young men had a very narrow escape from being asphyxiated in a room at 208 Ontario street Sunday morning. Thomas O'Donoghue and Charles Ebrick arrived home about 2 o'clock in the morning and went to bed.

About 3 o'clock Mrs. Stevenson detected a strong odor of gas. She suspected that it came from the young men's room. The door was forced, and the youths found in an unconscious condition. The room was filled with gas fumes.

A coat was hanging on the gas jet, where it had been placed by one of the men. This jet was open, and the gas was entering the room from it.

O'Donoghue and Ebrick are being treated in St. Michael's Hospital.

Father and Son Killed

NORTH BAY, Jan. 5.—(Can. Press).—James Applegate aged 19, fatally injured, while drawing logs in the lumber woods near Mattawa, Saturday. Their team ran away, throwing the father under the runners, where he was killed. The logs became loose and rolled off, carrying the son to the ground, where he was crushed by falling logs and so seriously injured that he died this morning. Both men were farmers and lumber jobbers.

TORONTO NEEDS A GENUINE REVIVAL

Rev. John McNeill, in First Sermon at Cooke's Church, Says All Churches Need to Try and Imagine That the World Is a Little Larger Than a Potato Patch.

By his rich abundant humor, rather than by any set statement of theological dogma, did Rev. John McNeill show yesterday in his first sermon at Cooke's Church, the size of man he is. Lively curiosity on the part of the members of the congregation and beautiful weather, brought out the largest assemblage of people that the church has ever held, and it was possibly owing to this fact that Mr. McNeill spoke until 12:45. "Some of you may not be here next Sunday," said the minister, "so I'll do what I can with you now while I have the chance."

At the end of the sermon, Mr. McNeill made a needless apology for his length. "I trust that nothing has either burned or boiled over," said he to his hungry hearers—spiritually. Mr. McNeill chose as his text, 1st Chron. xii. 22: "At that time, day by day, there came to David to help him; until it was a great host, like the host of God. 'Isn't that a bonny flower growing in a stony place?'" said the minister, as he discussed David's career and Saul's ultimate defeat. It was a time of "revival" for David, "Who objects to the word revival?" asked the speaker. "When it comes in"

TWO OPPOSITE CORNERS SOLD

Yonge and St. Mary's Street Properties Sold by Fred Crompton to Outside Interests.

A local real estate broker has taken title for the two corners of Yonge and St. Mary's streets. He says he is holding them in trust for Englishmen, who may have other intentions than those of investment. The deals were closed up very recently, the vendor of both properties being Fred Crompton.

The southwest corner brought $1900 a foot, being 60 feet by 110. The street numbers are 694 to 700.

The north corner brought, it is said, $3000 a foot for the 80 feet front. This high price is due to the lot running back 200 feet on St. Mary's street. It also has a frontage on St. Nicholas street. The street numbers for this property are 702 to 714. The buildings on both corners are small, and did not figure to any extent in the purchase prices. St. Mary's is the second street below Bloor. The two deals reached nearly $400,000.

EXHUMED BODY OF WARWICK.

REGINA, Jan. 5.—(Can. Press).—The body of Ralph Warwick was lifted from its resting place on Friday in order that medical science might be satisfied as to the manner of death. The body was in a fair state of preservation, and Dr. Carlton was able to begin without preliminaries on his examination of the wounds, etc. While the result of the autopsy has not been made public, some startling discoveries are said to have been made. Mrs. Warwick will face the court on Wednesday for the conclusion of her preliminary hearing.

TURKEY UNBENDS PEACE OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTER

Powers Have Exercised Strong Pressure to Induce Both Sides to Modify Demands and Good Results Are Apparent—Turkey Given Time to Consider.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(Can. Press).—The general situation has ameliorated and the danger of a rupture of the peace negotiations tomorrow seems to be averted thru Turkey making fresh concessions which will enable the allies to enjoy a holiday during the festivities in connection with the Orthodox Christmas.

Rehad Pasha seemed to have turned into a sphinx so full of mystery is he, but from authoritative sources it is stated that the powers, thru their ambassadors here and at Constantinople having succeeded in mixing much water with both the allies and Turkey's wine. Strong pressure in favor of moderation has been exercised at Constantinople, while the Balkan representatives have been urged to be patient before breaking off the negotiations, especially as they can lose nothing by waiting, their position being better than that of Turkey.

The efforts of the powers appear to be successful on both sides. Thus, unless some sudden change occurs at the last moment, Rehad Pasha will present on Monday new terms, which will comprise another rectification of the Thracian frontier, bringing it further east than provided for in the terms presented Friday, perhaps to Dedesatch, but not yet including Adrianople, and possibly the question of Turkey's rights in Crete directly to the allies.

Time Allowed Turkey.
After representations had been made to them, Dr. Danef, Premier Venizelos, Mr. Novakovich and M. Mityukovitch met today and decided to give Turkey a further period of grace, considering the new terms as proof of a disposition on the part of Turkey to reach a satisfactory solution. They propose to

U. S. SYNDICATE AFTER STEEL INDUSTRIES

Offer Has Been Made to Dominion Steel Corporation to Sell Out Control to Schwab and Associates Backed by a Billion Dollars—Will Consider Offer.

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—(Can. Press).—An American syndicate, backed by a billion dollars and headed by C. M. Schwab, is after the Canadian Steel Companies.

It is known that influential capitalists have been approached in the matter and that a handsome offer has been made to J. H. Plummer for control of the Dominion Steel Corporation.

The proposal combination comprises The Bethlehem Steel Co., The Midland Steel Co., The Pennsylvania Co., The Cambria Steel Co. and Labelle Iron Works, the Dominion Steel Corporation and the Steel Company of Canada.

There is no doubt whatever about the offer to Mr. Plummer, but it is also said that he declines to recommend a sale.

LEASES TO RUN FOR MANY YEARS

Ernest McConkey Says Bank of Commerce Has Not Approached Him to Buy Property.

"They haven't approached me yet," said Ernest E. G. McConkey last night when asked if the Canadian Bank of Commerce had bought his property. He owns the building next the bank and has leaseholds on the land, one-half of which is the property of the Manning estate and the other the Baldwin estate. It was the Manning lot that was reported under negotiation for the bank.

"My leases have several years to run," continued Mr. McConkey, "and they must deal with me first."

His statement contradicts the general impression that his leases run out within a year. He returned from New York on Saturday with the full set of floor plans for his new hotel. The giving of the building permit comes up in council today.

Dr. E. S. G. Baldwin, a trustee of the Baldwin estate, on Saturday said that no one representing the Bank of Commerce had made him an offer for his property. He admitted that several agents had come to him about it, but none seemed very serious in their intentions. Certainly nothing had been set down on paper. The McConkey building covers both properties and is so built that part could not very well be torn down without injuring that standing on the other property.

Took Sick at Ottawa Three Weeks Ago, Was Taken to Hospital For Operation, and Passed Away From Heart Trouble—Was Very Widely Known and Highly Respected.

Senator Archibald Campbell, Liberal member in the Dominion House of Commons for twenty-three years, and West York's representative in the senate for the last six years, died in Wellesley Hospital last night after an illness of three weeks. Senator Campbell was 68 years old, but he looked much younger. He was robust of physique and his death comes as a shock to men in political circles as well as to his host of personal friends.

Ridgetown, Ontario, was the birthplace of the dead senator. He was of Scotch descent, his parents, Neil Campbell and Flora Johnson, coming from Argyleshire in 1830. He attended the Chatham Collegiate Institute, and after graduating gave his energies to the task of building up a milling business. Forty-two years ago he married Mirette Burke of Colma, California, who survives him with six children. Senator Campbell was taken ill in Ottawa three weeks ago, and immediately returned to his home at 233 Annette street, West Toronto, to rest up. He had always had perfect health, and for forty-two years of married life had never required the services of a doctor. Until ten days ago when he was removed to Wellesley Hospital it was hardly known what ailed him. Dr. Andrew Gordon and Dr. McPherson attended him, and after diagnosing his case as bowel trouble, Dr. F. N. G. Starr performed an operation upon him. The operation was successful, and the senator passed the critical period of three days and continued to improve slightly until noon yesterday, when he suffered a relapse and gradually succumbed from heart failure. He died about 9 o'clock.

Lived in West Toronto.
Senator Campbell had lived in West Toronto for twenty-one years, and before that resided in Chatham, where he has a married daughter, Mrs. Spencer Stone. For nineteen years he was a member of the house of commons, representing Kent County from 1887 to 1900 and West York from 1901 to 1907. While representing Kent County in the house of commons he was chairman of the banking and commerce committee and when he sat for West York was chairman of the railway and transportation committee. In 1907 he was called to the senate where he represented West York until his death.

Senate Vacancies.
By the death of Senator Campbell Toronto will have five senators instead of six, west of Toronto having four, or nine altogether. Furthermore the three last appointees were from the east, Taylor, Corby and Gordon. Strong pressure will be brought to bear on the government to give the vacancies and the next two or three prospective ones to a Hamilton man, or at least some western man. It is not very likely that any members of the house of commons from Ontario will be appointed at the present time, as election contests are not considered desirable, the two to three M.P.'s from Ontario are willing to go to the upper house.

IN THE COUNTRY YESTERDAY

A bright, mild day, notwithstanding Old Probs. Open fields, with water running undernath in the tiles and running in the creeks and rivers. Only five degrees below freezing at mid-day.

Twelve months ago there set in the most unusual year in the way of weather that the oldest Canadian herabouts ever experienced. It was cold and it kept cold; a late wet spring; little summer and a wet summer; crops standing in the autumn for six weeks, and then not dry when taken in; a bleak fall, without Indian summer—continued on to New Year's. The most marked evidence of the unusual character of the year, but not noticed by many: not a grass fire in the spring or in the fall; not a bush fire in summer. On one or two railway lines the engine sparks got a fire going here and there for a couple of days in November, and that was all. There's enough of grass under in the fields and along the roads now, if ever it gets dry, to make a great light-up.

What of the coming year? In England they've had a phenomenally wet year, and a weather prophet has said, "The beginning of a dreary cycle of wet years." Not for Canada, too, surely!

TAFT IS WILLING TO HAVE PANAMA ISSUE ARBITRATED SHOULD NEGOTIATIONS FAIL

In First Public Utterance on Question President Takes Definite Stand in Favor of Making Concessions to Britain—Senate's Rejection of Proposed Arbitration Treaties With Britain and France Denounced as Obstacle to World Progress.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(Can. Press.)—President Taft today declared himself unequivocally in favor of arbitrating the dispute between the U. S. and Great Britain over the Panama Canal tolls, provided pending negotiations between the two countries failed to satisfactorily settle the matter. This was the first public declaration of the president of his attitude toward the question. He was speaking at a luncheon given in his honor by the International Peace Forum.

"I am willing, and indeed, I would be ashamed not to be willing, to arbitrate any question with Great Britain in the construction of a treaty when we reach the exact issue which there is no doubt about on that subject. There need not be any public doubt on that subject so far as this administration is concerned. When there is a difference that cannot be reconciled by international negotiation and adjustment, then we are entirely willing to submit to an impartial tribunal.

"I am hopeful that we may get it either to a settlement or to submission before the administration in which I have the honor to be a dissolving view, shall cease, but it may not be because these negotiations move slowly. But I am glad to take this opportunity in this press to say that if the time comes, there will be no doubt about what I will do in response to the submission of that question as far as my power goes to an impartial tribunal for its settlement if that is necessary."

The president's remarks were apparently prompted by a declaration in a speech by Henry Clowes, the banker, asserting that for President Taft's administration to concede the right to arbitrate the difference would be a splendid achievement, but holding that "we are in the wrong and most likely will be defeated if it should go to the Hague for decision."

Denounced Senate's Action. President Taft warmly denounced the senate in connection with the defeat of the proposed arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France. "Once in a while," he said, "there comes an opportunity that seems to be a great step forward and when that opportunity is lost, when the step which might have been taken is not taken, the hearts of those who hope were high, are saddened. And this morning I feel that I have the earnest triumphant feeling that I had in my soul after I had visited almost every state in the union that urged the confirmation of the treaties, which we had made with England and France, and then lived to find that the confirmation of the treaties had been defeated in the highest legislative body of the world, as some of the members of that body are in the habit of calling it."

"The defeat was more than a mere destruction of our hope as to the progress that might be made by those treaties, because the vote carried with it a proposition which established as our constitutional law, relative to the United States to the rear rank of those nations which are to help the cause of universal peace. For the proposition is that the senate of the United States may not consent with the president of the United States to a treaty that shall bind the United States to arbitrate any general

ANOTHER GREAT BARGAIN IN BOOKS

Largest Order Ever Placed For the Benefit of Its Readers by The World.

The World has joined a syndicate of leading newspapers which has just placed the largest book order ever given to a publisher and will give its readers the benefit of the very low price at which these sets were purchased.

More than 25,000 Bibles and dictionaries were recently distributed to readers of The World, and these were considered the greatest bargains ever offered. Here is even a greater surprise. The useful set of books offered this time is called Everybody's Cyclopaedia. It is complete in five beautiful volumes bound in English cloth. The regular selling price is $12 per set, but on Friday, Jan. 10, and Saturday, Jan. 11, readers of The World can have this set of books for $1.98 by presenting at this office only one coupon.

This is the most wonderful set of books on earth. The price of the large cyclopaedia sets is usually so high, from $50 to $100, that they are invariably sold on the installment plan. The publisher of Everybody's Cyclopaedia took advantage of these facts and from a revision of all these various large national cyclopaedias they have compiled all that is good—all that is necessary—and have merely eliminated or condensed that which would be of interest to a specialist or technical student. The sets are too bulky to be sent by mail, but out of town readers can have them for $1.98, the set to be sent by express, shipping charges to be paid by the receiver.

Loss no time in clipping your coupon and presenting it next Friday or Saturday.

During the past few days the contest department has been busily engaged in moving the material into its new quarters. It is estimated that there is nearly one hundred volumes of proverb material, the proverb sets averaging about two hundred to the bundle.

On Saturday last between the hours of 10.40 and 11 p.m. Dr. L. E. Embree, chief inspector of high schools; Mrs. Flora MacD. Denison, president Canadian Women's Suffrage Association, and Thomas Wylie, advertising manager of The World's Book of English Proverbs, from which they were selected, and authorized the examination to be started. Their report appears on page 2.

A competent clerical force will be set upon the work and every effort will be made to arrive at the winners in the shortest possible time.

There is no telling just how long it will take the clerical force to examine, check and file the answers, but it is hoped it can be accomplished in a few days. Each set must be carefully compared and checked with the correct list, and contestants must be advised until the results can be arrived at.

In the meantime The World will publish instalments of the first instalment will appear in The Daily World on Wednesday, Jan. 8.

$30,000.00 SALE FURS ON NOVEL PLAN

We are not selling a thirty thousand dollar lot of job furs, nor have we set aside any particular line of furs to make up a special sale. Dineen's have decided to reduce an unusually large stock of furs for this season of the year by disposing of thirty thousand dollars' worth at prices that will bring the money in quickly.

There is nothing selected or set aside especially for this sale. The purchasers take their choice of any garment, set or piece of fur from our regular stock. Everything is marked with two tickets, one showing the regular price and the other showing the "forced sale" price.

It is an arrangement that means every advantage to the customer. Dineen's entire stock is available for selection at reduced prices until $30,000 has been turned over.

Judging Fur Values

We are not quoting prices in print, for the reason that the list is very extensive, and, besides, unless the prices are accompanied by full and unmistakable descriptions, they convey no intelligent idea of the actual values. Come in and see the furs. We do not expect customers to buy unless they are entirely satisfied they could not possibly do better elsewhere.

Reserving Orders

If you do not wish to buy today, at least come in and make your selection. It will be held to your later order.

TWO PLANTERS WERE KILLED IN NEW GUINEA

A Punitive Expedition Has Been Planned by Australian Government to Find Out Murderers

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 4.—Butchered by natives in New Guinea was the fate of two planters named James and Hermann Weber, brothers. They were set upon by cannibals, who came from the unexplored regions. No trace of their bodies has been found and it is believed that they were devoured. The news was brought here today by friendly natives, who state that the same tribe has been carrying on a campaign of butchery throughout the district.

A punitive expedition has been planned by the government. "Papua," the name given to the black island of New Guinea, a British possession, under the rule of the Australian Commonwealth, are supposed to be amenable to discipline, but occasionally an outbreak of cannibalism occurs and whites are slaughtered. The more civilized Papuans have a wholesome dread of the British law.

KINGSTON, Jan. 5.—(Special).—A roorbach, issued on Saturday, endeavored to bring the question of religion into the mayoralty campaign. T. J. Rigney, who is candidate against S. R. Bailey, is a Roman Catholic, and a circular issued by some unknown person stated that the reason the Catholics wish to have one of their number as mayor during this year is because the C. M. B. A. and Knights of Columbus intended holding a big convention in the city in August, and that they desired to get a grant from the council.

TORONTO SURPRISE FANS TRIM WANDERERS HANDILY

Rough and Fast Game Saturday Night at the Arena — Cameron and Davidson the Stars — Local Club Have a Strong Team.

Surprise are the words these days, but the most delighted surprise of all is when the home team wins. That happened Saturday night, when the Toronto pro-walloped the Wanderers in the fastest game of hockey seen here in many a day. By the score the Wanderers tried to win, but they were broken up by the Toronto players who were so sure of their own strength that they were not afraid to break up the show there was no denying the local boys and they even the most sanguine of our followers never expected a victory and that such an outstanding one should be secured from the Peasopiers is all the more appreciated.

After the first five minutes there was nothing to it but the Blue and White and the easterners faded gradually until the outstanding feature all the way the equals of Sammy's squad. How a team that have only played together for a few times could play so well together is something that has never been explained. It seems impossible, but they did it and the margin was larger than the difference in the scores.

Vigorous checks back and every one working tooth and nail so upset the Red and White boys that they forgot their heads and came up for a minute or two trying to get the ball back to the fact the home boys had quite a substantial lead.

Trusting that the usual blow-up would come in the final period they tried the old trick of playing a four-minute game, but did not avail themselves of this opportunity. The Toronto came back fresh as daisies and did some rushing and cutting that had such things as showed that they had gained some experience by working the same game themselves.

A lot of credit is due Jack Marshall for the new life he has instilled in the team and he seems to have worked steadily with those forwards by laying stress on the fact that checks should be made by the extra forwards and that they should have the boys follow the 40-minute instructions that they had in their heads like a tent.

Harry Cameron. The man of the night was Harry Cameron, the sturdy point hand who stuck to perfection. He had those Wanderers all kinds of speed and can handle a stick to perfection. He had those Wanderers all kinds of speed and can handle a stick to perfection.

Stopping Shots. O.H.A. goaltender was rushed here for the game and looks the pick of any net keepers seen here this season. He was very good, but he stopped what looked like impossible shots and received all kinds of applause from the crowd. The Game. The first period was very fast, and both teams went off with a bang. Wanderers metted the first goal when Hyland, pushed by himself. The play became very rough and both teams were up and down. Cameron came away and beat Ross after

OTTAWA EASILY BEAT CANADIENS

Frenchmen Score Their Only Goals on Combination—Rough Game Towards Finish.

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—Outplaying the Canadiens from start to finish, Ottawa had little trouble in defeating the Frenchmen in a most decisive manner before a capacity audience at the Arena. Saturday by a score of 7 to 2. There was never any doubt as to which was the better team. From the start the Capitals rushed, keeping the locals on the defensive at all stages of the game. They showed superior condition by setting a killing pace in the first twenty minutes that took the French players off their feet, and at the call of time most of the locals showed signs of being all in.

There was no excuse to be offered, as the ice conditions were favorable, and, although there was only one goal scored in the opening half, the Capitals, by the clever work of the goalkeeper that kept the score down. The Ottawa forwards kept up their attack on the Canadiens' net, Veina being successful in turning all but one of the shots aside. As the play continued, the locals weakened and started in to rough it, which did not add to their chances of victory. It was the clever combination play of the victors that told most against the Canadiens. The three forwards would go down the job ahead, and, with two exceptions, all of their goals were scored through this style of play. On the other hand, the Canadiens depended on individual rushes, and when a forward would find his way to the opposing end there was no one to pass to, and many opportunities were lost in this manner.

The visit of Ottawa brought into the limelight another hockey star in Punch Broadbent, who is said to be the smallest-paid man on the Ottawa team. He made the majority of the goals by clever shooting. He has plenty of speed and weight, which makes him one of the best forwards playing the game this winter. The Canadiens started in leaving Donald Smith on the bench suffering from a bad knee, but before the game was well under way he was called on the ice in an effort to strengthen the team.

In the last period Laviolette and Shore got into a fistful encounter, and both were fined $25 and ruled off for the remainder of the match. Denisson replaced Shore and Povey replaced Laviolette, which further weakened the chances of the Frenchmen. Lalonde worked the play to Ottawa's end and scored the second time for the Canadiens. Ottawa added two more. Broadbent and Lake each scoring, while, with less than three minutes to play, Lalonde worked in another of his rushes and landed the shot past Leseur, making the total seven to two.

Donald Smith charged in on Leseur, following up a shot, and drew a second major penalty and was ruled off. Pavan replaced him.

Line Up and Summary.

BRILLIANT COMEDY AT THE PRINCESS

Robert Loraine in "Man and Superman"—Gaby Deslys at the Royal Alexandra.

TRAVELING SALESMAN

"The Little Parisienne" at Shea's With Two Good Burlesques at the Star and Gayety.

Robert Loraine and the members of the London company arrived here yesterday afternoon and will open an engagement of one week at the Princess Theatre in George Bernard Shaw's brilliant comedy, "Man and Superman." During the seven years since Loraine interrupted his American tour to present this brightest of all comedies in England, he has been recognized by the London critics as the most brilliant of England's stage comedians. He has played "Man and Superman" in England and America, together over two thousand times. Loraine's excellent company includes: Bruce Kirby, who plays the role of John Tanner's fate; Ethel Pratt, Marguerite Blinley, Louis Hyde, Helen Wilham McVey, May and Rockcliffe Fellows.

Widow by Proxy. The attraction next week at the Princess Theatre will be May Irwin, the Canadian comedienne, in the latest and most popular of her plays, "Widow by Proxy." The final engagements for this engagement were completed by Misses Shepley and May Irwin last week, and the final orders for seats are being placed on the theatre. These will be placed on the theatre on Thursday, and the final engagements will be placed on the theatre on Friday.

Concert. The Whirl of Society. The Whirl of Society, which has been heard in the Alexandra Theatre, and as if by magic, and apparently from nowhere, came half a dozen men. They were stage carpenters, electricians and others whose backs of the curtain helps so much in the making of a performance run smoothly. The men were divided into sections, and the work of "making in the big" was done. One gang got busy constructing the "runway" which extends from the rear row of seats to the stage. Another started clearing the stage, removing all surplus scaffolding, electricians, and in a surprising extra for the brilliant lighting effects. At everything will be in readiness for the opening of the first presentation, "The Whirl of Society," which will be given tomorrow, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. There will be no matinee on Thursday.

Comedy Sensation. The company which played "Ready Money" at the Maxine Elliott Theatre, New York, will be seen here at the Grand Theatre next week. After being here, this company will play at the large cities of the United States, in none of which, excepting Chicago and New York, has the "Ready Money" yet been presented by it. Among those cities to which the present company will go are Boston, Washington and Washington, D. C. The company will be seen at the Grand Theatre on Wednesday and Saturday.

Traveling Salesman Characters. The bill at the Grand Theatre, which is the embodiment of all the "Traveling Salesman" characters, is a masterpiece of commercial travel, and he comes by honestly for he had it drilled into him by years of actual experience on the road. Grace Bryan, the charming actress, plays the part of a product of the Golden West. You can see it in the line of her figure, in her style of dress, and in the naturally independent spirit which she infuses into her work. She never takes anything for granted, but insists on being a woman. Harriet Sheldon, who plays the part of Mrs. Babbitt, is that rarity on the American stage—a really funny comedienne. She is possessed of a remarkable sense of humor, and her manner and wit will make her a formidable rival of the men as a laugh-maker. The fact that "The Traveling Salesman" is as successful this season as it has been for four years previous is a tribute to the excellent production, and the regular engagement at the Grand Theatre will be given.

"The Little Parisienne" at Shea's. The bill at Shea's Theatre for next week is the latest and best of the Lasky productions, a miniature musical comedy, entitled "The Little Parisienne." The production is by William Le Baron and Cecil de Mille, and stars a company of thirty in scenic splendor, which is headed by Marie Sorel, who appears as Jeanne.

Special attractions on the bill for next week are Eva Taylor and Marie Sorel, presenting a farce by Lawrence Stern, entitled "Just Married," and a play in clever character studies from the pen of the author of "The Little Parisienne."

Other feature acts included in this bill are Bert Fitzgibbon, D'Arcy Williams, Frank Hartley, Kitamura and the Grand Theatre.

TURKS ABLE TO MAKE STRONG RESISTANCE

Minister of War Says Newly Formed Army Along Defence Lines is Formidable One.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—(Can. Press.)—Nazim Pasha, the Turkish minister of war, who was asked recently by the Temps for a statement of his views on the war, has sent an interesting declaration, after taking time for full reflection. The generalissimo of the Turkish army writes: "The outbreak of the war found the Turkish army in an unpromising situation. Nevertheless strenuous efforts were made to place it on a war footing. The Ottoman army cannot be said to have been beaten at Kirk Kiliseh. We have succeeded in mending all that at Tchatalia and in showing the real worth of the army. Today along the Tchatalia lines is a newly formed army, more vigorous and more determined—an army which has been tested by terrible ordeals at Kirk Kiliseh and Lake Erzurum, and from which the rotten members have unmercifully been disposed of. "We expect great things from this army and this time we shall not be deceived. Ardor stimulated by the misfortunes which have smitten us, aims the blood in the veins of our soldiers, and the die being cast, the army at Tchatalia will be found equal to the general's demand, made of it."

IDEA OF PROGRESS NOT UNIVERSAL

President Falconer Says There Are People Now to Whom the Idea is Quite Strange. PROGRESS OF MODERNS Man's Growing Control Over Nature Usually the Definition of Progress—Address Women's Clubs.

The Women's Canadian Club on Saturday listened to a most thoughtful address by Dr. R. A. Falconer of the University of Toronto, his subject being "The Meaning of Progress." Dr. Falconer stated the truism that the average man in our western civilization believes that this age has made progress beyond other ages, but this progress may amount to nothing more than temperamental optimism, occasioned partly by climate, partly by the extraordinary discoveries of this new world, partly by the energy of growth. But the idea of progress is not universal. There are peoples now to whom the idea is strange. The mass of the people in China and India are not as yet permeated with the idea. The contributions of the Greek mind to our modern conception of progress. It was not, however, from the definition of the term progress that the idea arose, but was from their contribution to the meaning of human life. Man was for them a reasonable spirit in a beautiful body, and his reasonable soul to a beautiful environment was the aim of the Greek and at its best. Thus, the seeds of a great civilization were carried far and wide. Rome, in some ways less human than Greece, followed hard. With them law was supreme, and the individual had to submit himself to the will of the state. Thru stoicism came a conception of universal brotherhood, which prepared the way for what came to pass in Christianity.

Progress of Modern World. The modern world may be said to date from the time of Bacon and Descartes—Descartes, the greater of the two, as a more consistent philosophical thinker. A magnificent optimism is embodied in his philosophy which had an immense influence. The belief in progress in the 19th century was based, not upon any philosophical principle, but upon the actual discoveries of science and the application of science to industry. For the average man this condition of affairs seemed a theoretical basis in the doctrine of evolution. Then in the middle of the 19th century comes the awakening of the attention of Europe, and democracy of the new world, and democracy is now supposed to have justified itself, and progress is usually defined in terms of man's growing control over nature. But if our survey of the past is correct, we must look elsewhere for a definition of progress. From our hitherto standpoint, a belief in a goal of the human race on this eve yet before our human eyes. But that humanity will win will come only through great struggle and perhaps with any setback. But anything that will appear in a heightened reverence for human life, in less prejudice toward affairs and more respect for the opinions of others, in a deeper sense of duty, these are old virtues, old principles, but they are the things for which man has struggled and fought, and in the possession of these virtues will make life increasingly richer. Miss Constance Houston, president of the Women's Canadian Club, was in the audience. More than 400 ladies were present.

Shortly after 5.30 Saturday night a Lambton car in charge of Motorman No. 27 and Conductor 23, collided with a one-horse lorry, driven by Charles Ham of 21 Hook avenue, on Dundas street, opposite Medland street. The shafts of the truck were broken and the fender of the car damaged, but no one was injured.

The funeral takes place Wednesday morning to Prospect Cemetery.

BRAMPTON

BRAMPTON, Jan. 4.—Traffic was paralyzed on the Grand Trunk here yesterday till noon owing to a wreck at Georgetown. A thru freight on the main line at 5 a.m. ran into a freight crossing at the Great Western. No one was injured, but a number of cars were smashed and a half dozen derailed. No trains passed thru here before noon. The Chicago train and those westbound being sent around by Milton. Mr. W. McIntyre, contractor, lost a valuable work horse yesterday afternoon, the result of a runaway. His two teams were at the gravel pit. He advised a theoretical basis in the doctrine of evolution. Then in the middle of the 19th century comes the awakening of the attention of Europe, and democracy of the new world, and democracy is now supposed to have justified itself, and progress is usually defined in terms of man's growing control over nature. STRENUOUS EFFORT TO KEEP GALT DRY. Anti-Repeaters Close Campaign With Big Rallies—Many Vehicles For Use at the Polls.

GALT, Jan. 5.—(Special).—The last shot in the local option campaign was fired tonight at an opera house mass meeting presided over by James R. Cavers, secretary of the local option committee. Preceding this large gathering, made up of the congregations of the several churches, was an afternoon rally, at which Dr. Burnett was chairman, and the speaker Rev. R. M. Hamilton, secretary of the Dominion Alliance. Mr. Hamilton discussed the liquor question on economic grounds, arguing that nationally as well as municipally and individually the licensed trade always got the big end of the deal, and that partnership in the traffic was a mistake and a decided loss. Dr. Burnett declared emphatically that the absence of the bars had proved of benefit to Galt, and was far from hurting the town as to being general. "Booze had no connection with approved sports," he said. Rev. R. C. Knox, pulpit, preached a powerful sermon in support of local option tonight. At the mass meeting representative citizens gave the testimony in favor of the act and the gathering was most enthusiastic. Forts farmers' rights have been advanced, and the measure, including auto, cabs and carriages, which optionists' forces will employ tomorrow, and the anxiety is as to whether accessions to optionists' ranks will counterbalance the large recruiting which repeaters have effected among the new or old country people and the foreign element. These classes, it is felt, will have carried the day for repeal, if repeat wins out.

ELECTION NOTICES

Toronto North

Another new Presbyterian congregation is being started in what was known as North Toronto up to a few weeks ago. Rev. R. M. Campbell, B.A., conducted services at the Davisville avenue public school yesterday morning and a Sunday school in the afternoon. The concert to be held in the old town hall this evening, under the auspices of the Willing Workers of North Toronto, should be liberally patronized, as the proceeds will be devoted to aid the Muriel King Cot. in the Hospital for Sick Children. Mayor Hicken will occupy the chair. The old town's policeman, Ex-Chief John McIntosh and Constable A. Knibb have been sworn in to be members of the Toronto police force. Both will remain on duty in old North Toronto, as they are acquainted with the territory. Boost, Don't Knock

Shep Camp, in "The Traveling Salesman," says: "If there's any chance to boom business, boom it. Don't be a knocker. Don't pull a long face and get sour in your stomach. Hope a better jolly on you. Hold up your head. Get hold with both hands. Then pull. Bury your hatchet—drop your tomahawk. When a stranger drops in, jolly him. Tell him this is the greatest town on earth—it is. Don't get mullish. Don't roast. Get popular. Help yourself along. Push your wares with your own. Soon you'll have a whole procession. Be a good fellow. No man ever helped himself by knocking other people down. No man ever got rich trying to make other people believe he was the only good man on earth. You can't climb the ladder of fame by stepping on other people's corns. They're their corns—not yours—and they're tender. Keep off the corns. All men are not alike. Once in a while you may find one who is very much alike. But some are different. You are not the only one. If you don't like their style let 'em alone. Don't knock. Walk right in. Make yourself look pleasant. You'll get used to it. There's no end of fun in minding your own business. And it makes other people like you better. Better have other people on you than get stuck on yourself. Nobody gets stuck on a knocker. Don't be one—or two. Decisive Naval Battle Impending.—CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 4.—(Can. Press).—The Turkish fleet left the Dardanelles at 7.30 o'clock this morning under orders to engage in a decisive action with the Greeks. A battle began near the island of Tenedos less than two hours later. Panoram of Niagara Falls. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Jan. 5.—(Special).—Four manufacturing concerns yesterday subscribed $250 each to the $2500 fund being raised to install an elaborate panorama exhibit of Niagara Falls to be shown at the American Travel Association's Exhibition in New York in March. Failed to Post the Money. CALGARY, Alb., Jan. 4.—Major Bick, who arranged the match between Bonbardier Wells and Tommy Burns for Good Friday, has failed to post the $57,000. Unless the money was put up within forty-eight hours the match was to be off.

Good Progress Is Being Made on G. T. R. Main Line Between Montreal and Chicago.

Rapid progress is being made with the installation of the new telephone system of train despatching on the Grand Trunk Railway's main line between Montreal and Chicago. At the present time four gangs are at work on the Canadian sections of the line, and considerable water has entered for transmission. The lines have already been completed from Montreal to Lyn, a distance of 123 miles; from Belleville to Fort Hope, 80 miles; from Toronto to Niagara, 31 miles. This leaves only the gaps between Belleville and Toronto, and Toronto and Niagara, to be completed.

COLD-WEATHER OUTLOOK CAUSES FLURRY IN WHEAT

Lack of Snowfall Gives Rise to Anticipation of Crop Damage—Corn Also Strong.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—A moderate business was transacted in the grain and provision market of the board and trade today and prices moved upward. Although there were few flurries reported in Nebraska, Illinois and Kansas last night, the trade was inclined to take a chance that the cold would reach the wheat belt ahead of a protective covering of snow...

MONTREAL SELLS WHEAT FOR EXPORT

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—A fair amount of business was worked over the cable in Manitoba spring wheat. The demand from foreign buyers was good at firm prices for both nearby and future shipment. The local trade in coarse grains is figured in shipped out to the fact that buyers are well supplied and especially so with oats, of which the offerings are increasing and prices showing a lower tendency. Flour is steady under a fair local demand, but the export trade is dull. Demand for milled is fair.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET

Receipts of farm produce were not nearly as large as they were for the past two or three weeks, nor was the demand as great. In fact, trade was inclined to be slow, and in some instances prices were lower. Receipts of grain and hay were light. Barley—About three hundred bushels sold at 60c to 70c. A few loads of hay sold at $17 to $18 per ton for the best timothy and $14 to $15 for mixed hay.

BRODERICKS January Sale $22.50

To say you can get a $45.00 suit for $22.50 doesn't mean very much, but to say you can get a BRODERICK $45.00 suit for $22.50 means a whole big heap. Because a Broderick suit at $45.00 is worth far more than its price when judged by other standards. That is why this sale is really significant.
