FRENCH REINFORCEMENTS ARRIVE

Frightful Losses Inflicted On Advancing Massed Troops

Reports From the Tremendous Battle Are More Encouraging to the Allies, For the British Have Held Their Defences and Retired Intact Only After Heavy Attacks.

Out of the chaos of the tremendous battle along the Lys River, south and southwest of Ypres, the thunder of which may be heard forty or fifty miles away, there have come during the past day reports which are more encouraging to the allied powers. The British have not only held all the ground which they were defending on Tuesday, but have struck back so powerfully that Metzeren and part of his troops were retaken and held for a time. Only after heavy attacks did the British retire again from the villages.

The most disturbing news has been reported from Berlin that Poelcapelle and Langemarck, north of Ypres, have been taken by the Germans, and the division from Louvain that the British have retired from certain of their lines in the Ypres salient. The retirement here was expected, for the advance of the Germans at Neuve Eglise and Bailleul left the positions in front of Ypres open to a flank attack. It is officially stated that the retirement is not known. It may be, however, that the German claim of taking Poelcapelle and Langemarck is the result of the British retirement.

The battle, now in its ninth day, has deepened in intensity at many points along the curved front from Messines Ridge to Metzeren. There have been reports that the Germans have occupied the village of St. Eloi, which lies less than three miles south of Ypres, but these have not been confirmed. It was also said that the Germans have taken positions on the south slopes of Mt. Kemmel, which is about two and a half miles north of Wulverghem. This, also, has not been confirmed. On all the rest of the front from Messines Ridge southward the Germans have flung themselves against the granite wall of the British defence. Official and semi-official despatches have told of the frightful losses inflicted on the attacking masses of troops by the British rifle and machine gun fire.

On the southern side of the salient there have been engagements of some magnitude, especially east of Robecoq, five miles northwest of Bethune, where the Germans were caught by the British artillery fire and scattered. Enemy Falls Near Arras. The line in front of Arras has again been the scene of fighting, but here the British took the offensive and drove the Germans out of British trenches which had been carried by the enemy.

In the Picardy sector there have been lively artillery engagements between the Somme and Oise Rivers, and only patrol encounters are reported officially. Further south only raiding operations have been going on. The Turks announce that they have taken the City of Batum, on the eastern shore of the Black Sea. They report strenuous fighting before the Russian defenders of the city were driven out.

The Macedonian front has again become active. Greek and British troops have advanced and driven the Teutonic allies from seven towns along the Struma River, on the eastern end of the line. French forces have also been active in this theatre of the war.

TOLL OF SINKINGS SHOWS INCREASE

Fifteen Vessels, Eleven Over 1,600 Tons, Are Torpedoed.

London, April 17.—The losses to British shipping by mine or submarine in the past week totaled fifteen, according to the admiralty report tonight.

Eleven of the merchantmen sunk were 1600 tons or over and four under that tonnage. One fishing vessel also was sunk. Twelve vessels were unsuccessfully attacked.

The arrivals numbered 2,211; sailings 2,466. In the previous week only six British merchantmen were sunk by mine or submarine, four of them of more than 1600 tons.

ENEMY SUFFERS LOSS IN EAST AFRICAN FRONT

British Heavily Engage Main German Column Near Mahua.

London, April 17.—The official statement on military activities in East Africa says: "On April 5, one of General Northey's columns occupied Mahua and pushed eastward. On April 11 this column heavily engaged a German main force and inflicted severe losses on them. On the same day General Edwards' troops executed a night march and seized Middleboma on April 12 after an all-day engagement in which the German losses were severe. The enemy was driven in the direction of Mwalla."

Some Fight Thrives. "Of the German divisions which the British engaged, 23 have been fought twice and once more. Of the German divisions which the French engaged four have fought twice. Of the German divisions which the British engaged together 15 have been fought twice and once more. "It is unpleasant business standing the hammering, but so long as we can stand it the only question to be asked is: What is happening to Blucher? What has become of the reserves? "Although the French army is larger than ours we have taken the strain of these battles off them. There is no reason to be in a state of despair if the situation is regarded from a broad point of view and if we regard our great sacrifices rightly as a necessary part of the great drama."

ANOTHER WATERLOO IN PRESENT BATTLE

British Army Has to Hold Enemy Till a Modern Blucher Comes Up.

NO REASON FOR DESPAIR

Gen. Maurice Says Only Anxiety Exists Regarding Endurance of Hammering.

London, April 17.—In summarizing the general situation on the British front, Major-General F. B. Maurice said today:

"What of the whole battle situation? Our army has been going thru a very severe strain and that strain has been reflected at home. The situation has had its critical moments and still is decidedly anxious. But remembering the general principle of a united front and must accept the consequences of that principle. We must look at the whole battle not from our army's sacrifices and sufferings, but from the standpoint of the whole enterprise.

Playing Old Role. "The British army is playing the role which it often has played before. It is fighting a Waterloo while Blucher is marching to the battlefield. Multiply the battle of Waterloo a hundredfold and the situation at present in this theatre corresponds to the situation now in the great world battle.

"The British army is under a terrible hammering, but providing we stand that hammering without breaking and providing Blucher is marching to the battlefield there is no reason for despair.

"The enormous task which the British army has performed and still is performing may be shown by a few figures. The British have engaged 25 divisions and since March 21 they have engaged 126 divisions. "Of these the British army alone has engaged 79, the French alone have engaged 24 and the remainder, 23, have been engaged by the British and French troops.

Some Fight Thrives. "Of the German divisions which the British engaged, 23 have been fought twice and once more. Of the German divisions which the French engaged four have fought twice. Of the German divisions which the British engaged together 15 have been fought twice and once more. "It is unpleasant business standing the hammering, but so long as we can stand it the only question to be asked is: What is happening to Blucher? What has become of the reserves? "Although the French army is larger than ours we have taken the strain of these battles off them. There is no reason to be in a state of despair if the situation is regarded from a broad point of view and if we regard our great sacrifices rightly as a necessary part of the great drama."

What has become of the reserves? "Although the French army is larger than ours we have taken the strain of these battles off them. There is no reason to be in a state of despair if the situation is regarded from a broad point of view and if we regard our great sacrifices rightly as a necessary part of the great drama."

FIVE RUSSIAN AIRMEN TO FIGHT FOR BRITAIN

Party of Distinguished Aviators Comes to Canada Thru Japan.

A Canadian Pacific Port, April 17.—Five Russian aviators, who are the Russian flying corps, arrived here today on a transpacific liner to offer their services to the British Royal Flying Corps. They have served on the Austrian and Rumanian fronts, and all have been decorated for bravery.

Col. Duklan, who heads the party, has been wounded three times. When Russia lapsed into anarchy, the aviators said, they resolved to come to Canada. They practically fought their way out of the country, they asserted, and after weeks of hardship reached Japan, where British consular officers arranged their passage overseas.

In addition to Col. Duklan the party is composed of Capt. Roemahof and Lieuts. Katiarski, Petrenki and Astakof.

COMMENCE DRIVE ON FOOD HOARDERS

Food Board Appeals to All Who Have Surplus to Return to Merchants.

Ottawa, April 17.—The Canada Food Board is inaugurating an anti-hoarding drive in order to prevent waste of food and other food products and also to make available the largest possible amount of food for shipment to the allies.

In a statement today the board appeals to all classes who have in their possession larger quantities of flour or other foodstuffs than are required for current needs, to return these thru the ordinary channels of trade. Merchants are asked as a patriotic duty to accept such returns at the purchase price in all cases where there has been no deterioration. Warning is given that all persons who fail to dispose of excess holdings of flour, vegetables or any other food commodities in time to prevent loss by spoilage, are liable to heavy fines or imprisonment under the anti-waste and hoarding order.

HOUSE TOLD IN SECRET SESSION OF VITAL NEEDS OF THE EMPIRE

BRITISH GUNNERS BY SMART RUSE CAUGHT GERMANS WITHOUT MASKS

Fired Shells Filled Only With Stinking Composition, and Suddenly Changed the Dose.

Paris, April 17.—The evolution of the use of gas shells has taken surprising form in the present battle. One new method is to fire heavy slowly-dispersing gases along charted lanes against the enemy, filling in the alternative spaces with quickly dissipating poison fumes. Storming attacks are then made by troops who charge when a sufficient interval of time has been given for the light gases to rise. The British gunners at one part of the line threw shells charged simply with a stinking composition. The Germans after a few hours discovered that this was non-poisonous and began laying aside their masks. After these shells had been fired for another 12 hours there was a sudden change to poison gases. About 2000 Germans were caught without their masks and suffocated.

FRENCH TROOPS HAVE JOINED THE BRITISH BATTLEFRONT

Haig Says They Are Co-operating With His Men on Lys

London, April 17.—After gaining a footing today in the villages of Metzeren and Wytschaete, the British were forced to make a second retirement, according to Field Marshal Haig's report from France tonight. "French troops, it is added, have now reinforced the British lines. The text of the statement reads: "This morning intense bombardments were opened by the enemy on practically the whole of the Lys battlefield, and from the Forest of Nieppe to Wytschaete were followed by infantry attacks. All these attacks have been repulsed and considerable losses inflicted on the enemy.

"In counter-attacks, reported in the morning communique, our troops succeeded in entering the villages of Metzeren and Wytschaete, but in the face of continued hostile attacks, were unable to maintain their positions there.

"French troops are co-operating with the British in the Lys front there is nothing to report."

Borden, After Reviewing the Situation, Points Out Extreme Gravity and Emphasizes Need of Canada Providing All the Assistance in Her Power.

Ottawa, April 17.—The house of commons met in secret session for two hours this afternoon. Beyond members and officials of the house, there were present members of the senate only. The following report of the proceedings at the secret session was issued tonight under the authority of the Speaker:

The prime minister, on a motion to go into committee of supply, made a full statement, surveying present war situation, tracing of the military position, the supply and production of foodstuffs and the problem of merchant shipping and the submarine, with special reference to the manpower position of the British Empire and the allies.

He stated that the government, being impressed with the desirability of giving to the house the fullest possible information, had communicated to the prime minister of the United Kingdom his intention to move for a secret session, and had requested from Lloyd George a statement of the present position which might be made known to the house. Lloyd George's message in response to this request was that:

Premier on Situation. The prime minister then presented other information and considerations bearing on the situation. The military position confronting the empire was explained in detail. The enemy had clearly disclosed his intention to make a supreme effort to destroy the British army on the western front as an effective fighting force. To do this he had adopted measures placing every man in the German Empire between the ages of 17 and 60 at the disposal of the government, reducing the age limit for military service, and reorganizing his formations in the field. His forces were being increased by the employment of Landwehr and Landsturm formations for the defence of the home front, and the use of these formations to supply individual men as drafts to replace casualties in France and Flanders, their places being taken in turn by the youngest recruits for purposes of training, the cessation of war wastage in the east, and the transfer in addition of large numbers of Austro-Hungarian troops—considering all these factors the Russian withdrawal had increased the potential enemy strength on the western front by 1,600,000 men without taking into account the reserves which would otherwise have been necessary for the Russian front.

Enormous Sacrifices. France had made already enormous sacrifices, and she would continue her heroic and glorious effort to the end. The government of the United Kingdom had accordingly initiated the most drastic measures for maintaining their effective fighting force, and providing the necessary reserves for the future.

A military effort already made by the United Kingdom, France and the Dominion was now being carried out in detail. Confidential information as to the strength of the forces which have been raised by each.

As to the position confronting this Dominion, it was apparent that an attack upon the Canadian army corps in full force must be expected. No one could say when, but in view of the strategic value of their position, it could be no doubt they must be prepared to meet any attack launched by the enemy, and the country must be prepared to provide the necessary reinforcements to make good all losses.

The government had been in communication with the overseas military authorities, and as the result of the most careful consideration the clear conclusion had been reached that if the Canadian army corps was to be maintained, no one could question that there was therefore no other alternative before the government but to propose further measures for reorganizing the needed reinforcements. These measures had been formulated and announced.

The Shipping Situation. With regard to the shipping situation, the prime minister pointed out that being 18,000,000 tons, the tonnage, estimated at 38,000,000 tons at the beginning of the war, had been reduced at the end of 1917 by a net loss of 2,500,000 tons, that is, about 3 per cent; while British tonnage, considered separately, had suffered a reduction of 20 per cent, the tonnage being 18,000,000 tons at the outbreak of war and the net loss taking into account new construction as in the other case, being 3,500,000 tons.

The strain on British shipping was illustrated by a citation of the very large proportion which is devoted to the special war services of the army, navy, the allies and the British dominions. The result was a very serious reduction in the amount available for supplying the United Kingdom with its essential foods and materials, and the sacrifices imposed upon the people of Great Britain could not be overstated. The shipping program of

MAN POWER BILL IN HOUSE OF LORDS

Lord Lansdowne Says He is Prepared to Throw Aside Many Old Notions.

London, April 17.—The house of lords today passed the second reading of the government's man-power bill. The Marquis of Lansdowne, discussing the bill, heartily welcomed the measure.

"Our duty," he said, "is to help encourage the gallant army to the utmost of our ability. I feel so strongly on this point that I am quite ready to throw aside old notions and old notions and antagonisms, and I believe that this can be done without harm to consistency or the dignity of the government. It would be very different under less serious circumstances.

"I could, however, have wished that the government had fixed the age limit lower, and I cannot help thinking that the extension of conscription to Ireland is very doubtful wisdom, while it is still more objectionable that this part of the question should be linked up with home rule.

Lord Derby, secretary of state for war, replying for the government, emphasized the gravity of the present situation. Any minimizing of the gravity would, in his opinion, be disastrous. At the same time, he desired to emphasize that although one must have the greatest anxiety, he was still quite confident regarding the result. He supported conscription in Ireland because he believed the government would get from there a number of young men that would more than fill up the casualties sustained since March 21.

Six Hundred Prisoners Are Taken by Belgians

Paris, April 17.—Belgian communications this morning the Germans attacked in force our system of advanced posts between Le Blancart and the Ypres railroad and succeeded in securing a foothold in a number of our positions, but energetic counter-attacks by our troops drove them out. About 600 prisoners remain in our hands.

Thousands of Families, Especially at Prague, Have no Food.

Washington, April 17.—Thousands of families in Bohemia, especially at Prague and vicinity, are starving, according to an official despatch from France today which quoted The Leipzig Volks Zeitung. Last week it was estimated that there was a deficit of 100,000 loaves of bread in Prague.

SITUATION BETTER FOR BRITISH FORCES

Canada Must Do Her Part. In conclusion the prime minister urged that it must be recognized that the position was one of extreme gravity. In view of the issues involved Germany must be defeated. There could be no other alternative. And to this end Canada must provide all the assistance in her power. She must supply the men necessary to keep her divisions up to full strength no matter what casualties were suffered, and must so organize the remainder of human power as to maintain and if possible increase her agricultural production.

CZERNIN'S REMOVAL OPENING FOR PEACE

London, April 17.—The Cologne Gazette, according to a despatch from the Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company, prints a report that a strong peace movement is developing in Austro-Hungarian circles in consequence of the removal of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. Many influential Austrian politicians, the despatch adds, hold that the removal of Count Czernin affords an opportunity to seek a basis for peace negotiations which had been impossible while the count was minister for foreign affairs.

ITALIAN PATROLS TAKE AUSTRIAN PRISONERS

Rome, April 17.—The official communication from headquarters today says: "Patrols on the Asiago Plateau and Italian patrols in the Monte Tomba area captured prisoners and material. In the Lavinia Valley we carried out effective artillery work, hitting a military train standing in the Rovereto station and also set fire to some depots at Mori."

DRIVER IS INJURED

Alexander Holton, 63 Canada avenue, a driver for the Canada Bread Company, sustained a fractured right leg when the wagon he was driving was struck by a motor car. He was taken to the General Hospital.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

Owing to continual German attacks, Metzeron and Wytschaete villages, on the Meuse-Wytschaete Ridge, which the British recaptured, had to be abandoned again yesterday. The British, however, repulsed numerous heavy infantry attacks of the enemy against practically the whole of the Lybaathfront from the Forest of St. Hippolyte to Wytschaete. French troops are now co-operating with the British, indicating that the reserves have effected a junction, and perhaps the necessary reinforcements have at last come up to stem the German onrush. The enemy so far has actually penetrated the first line of defense on the Meuse of the British, and back of the present lines there runs a deep zone of formidable positions. The suddenly increased weight of the German attack which first gained the ridge and created a danger that the British line would be overthrown, but apparently this crisis has passed.

The fighting continues on a comparatively narrow front, but the Germans penetrate deeper they come under an increasing fire from the sides of the salient, tending to check their momentum. The peril, however, is still formidable, for the enemy is determined to be merciless with his men in his attempts to gain some real tactical and strategic advantage. The west the principal British defenses still stand, with Mount Kemmel as the central feature. These heights form the backbone of the Ypres defenses. The British have evacuated the Passchendaele Ridge beyond Ypres so as to reduce the sharpness of the salient's curve and to make the defenses more handy. The higher command decided upon this withdrawal last Sunday, and it was carried out in a safe and expeditious manner. This action betrays the belief of the British higher command that the enemy is preparing an attack against this region. The withdrawal puts him at a considerable disadvantage. The Passchendaele Ridge corresponds to the Wytschaete-Meuse Ridge further north. It was the outlying section of the British defence.

The territory so far lost is valuable, not so much for the British defence as for a British offence, and the chief gain to the enemy is that he has improved his defence. If he fails to pay far too high a price for his gains and, moreover, if he is stopped, and, despite appearances, the situation has wonderfully improved for the British in the past day, according to headquarters reports, the allies can regain the lost territory with comparative ease. According to observers the struggle is entering its last phase of German exhaustion, and if the enemy loses in his throw of the dice he will be so weak that a comparatively small allied force of fresh troops can make a general advance. This is what Generalissimo Foch and Field Marshal Haig, in common agreement, are fighting and waiting for, and hoarding their reserves as misers hoard their gold. In previous battles the fighting has always stopped at the point of exhaustion for both sides. Thus neither side has been able to advance. The allies are present are giving ground so that the enemy may exhaust himself first, so that they may have an opportunity for retaliation.

In the eyes of the allied general staff every position is worth its price in casualties and the enemy can, if he chooses to use up his men, capture Ypres and the whole salient and for the defence the British position would still be improved. Ypres was valuable in the former plan of the allies for wearing down the enemy and goading him into attacking them. Ypres was therefore largely fulfilled its military purpose and its loss would not be vital to the British defence. Foch has probably other plans for his general offensive, so he can afford to let the enemy take Ypres, continuing his operations in the north. The Germans are probably fighting on the theory that if they win some big political success, like the capture of Ypres, the allies will consent to accept a peace. It would take more than a dozen Ypres to incline the allies to submission. Britain and the United States could evacuate the continent altogether and continue the war indefinitely.

HAIG'S TROOPS MORE THAN HOLD OWN IN WYTSCHAETE-BAILLEUL SECTOR

With the British Army in France, April 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—Things looked distinctly better today from the allied standpoint as a result of the British withdrawal in the north, which eliminated the great salient which bulged out over the Passchendaele ridge system. The defending troops this morning were situated in snugly-prepared positions along a line running a little east of Ypres, after a secret and orderly night retirement, with which the enemy interfered in no way.

KHAKI LINE HOLDS STRONG WITHDRAWAL IN NORTH MUCH IMPROVES ALLIED DEFENSIVE POSITION IN BELGIUM

The British official report of later date announced the loss for the second time to the Germans of Wytschaete. Certainly the men in khaki were fighting gallantly, and they were giving little ground here, according to British officials from the very front lines.

SCORE'S SPECIAL REDUCTIONS FOR APRIL

A business philosopher puts it well when he says: "Spring is a hopeful season and with its coming we can all renew our confidence in the lasting things—in patient workmanship—in outstanding quality—in intelligent forethought—whether we are building an army or making and selling a suit of clothes." Springtime is a most likely time for a man to require a new morning coat and waistcoat.

SUGGESTS NO AERIAL RAIDS ON TOWNS OUTSIDE WAR ZONE

London, April 17.—A Reuter's despatch from Amsterdam says that, according to a dispatch from Berlin, during yesterday's sitting of the Reichstag Herr Geck, socialist, suggested making an agreement with the allies to cease aerial attacks on open towns outside the war zone. A government representative replied that no official request hitherto had come from the allies, but that should it be made, it would be examined by the military authorities.

GERMANS THROWN BACK ON LINE BETWEEN MERVILLE AND GIVENCHY

With the British Army in France, April 17.—West of Bailleul the enemy was driven today from Metzeron, which has been a hotbed of conflict for days. In all this northern fighting grievous casualties have been inflicted on the Germans. Between Merville and Givenchy also there have been heavy engagements. In this section the invaders were hurled back. Further British successes are to be recorded for the zone below Arnae, also this sector has returned to the background since the drive to Hazebrouck began.

HAMILTON NEWS

ITALIAN TO FACE MURDER CHARGE

Dominic Speranzo Inquired in Court if His Victim Was Dead. ## When Mr. Householder Turns Out to Paint His Garden Gate

He Will Have No Worries as to the Paint Itself If He Uses "Diamond E." It is Ready Mixed, to Begin With, Runs Smoothly and Freely, to Go On With, and Affords General All-Round Satisfaction to End With

No excuse now that it gets dark too early to do any painting in the evening. No reason that the garden fence and the front steps should be a blot on the fresh spring landscape. This extra hour of daylight means a greater interest than ever in the big spring-time question of Paint. And for the benefit of the Man of the House, who does his own work about the place, we draw attention here to the manifold advantages of Diamond E.—the paint in the excellence of which we have such firm faith that we inscribe our name upon every can of it.

It is a ready-mixed paint, compounded specially for us, according to the most up-to-date processes, from the best materials the market affords. Among its points of advantage are the large amount of surface it covers per gallon, its low cost per square foot of surface, its durability and its good appearance.

Moreover, its range of colors takes in every tint you could wish for attractive decorating, including black, white, floor greys and blues, shutter greens, and all usual shades for woodwork and trims.

Prices are as follows:

Settling the Big Question of Awnings

Our Staff is Skilled in the Making of Canopies and Blinds of Every Good Looking, Serviceable Description

It won't be long now before a house must screen its face from the sun, or its carpets and wall papers will fade, and its inmates become uncomfortably warm. Awnings are not merely a gay summery ornament to windows and verandahs, but a bounden necessity.

If your dwelling-place is not already equipped with this same, let the Drapery Department send up a man to take measurements of your windows and balconies and supply you with an estimate of cost for equipping them with awnings.

The stock of fine imported materials affords a splendid choice of wide and narrow stripes in light and dark brown, green or tan on a natural ground. The staff of experienced workmen is skilled in all phases of blind and canopy making. And available is an immense choice of designs for sleeping porches, verandahs, balconies and windows.

Write, telephone or call concerning the work you wish done, and, as stated above, a man will be dispatched to your house at once to offer suggestions and furnish you with an idea of the cost.

HATCHERY NEEDED TO INCREASE FISH

Recommended That Lake Nipigon and Other Waters Be Restocked.

DEPARTMENT REPORT

Some Animals May Be Given Protection Owing to Decreases.

Claiming that a long felt want will be filled it is recommended in the eleventh annual report of the game and fisheries department for the fiscal year ending October 31, 1917, that a whitefish and trout hatchery be built in the District of Thunder Bay for the restocking of Lake Nipigon and other inland waters. By the opening of Lake Nipigon the department would be able to secure spawn from the famous spotted trout waters in the Dominion. The report states that the demand for both bass and trout for restocking far exceeds the supply and at the same time credit is given the Dominion Government for furnishing the department with 1,120,000 salmon trout fry for the inland waters. The report says that deer and moose continue to hold their own and that even the thousands of young men have gone from Canada to the war, there were over a thousand open hunters during the season of 1916-17 than during the previous season. Caribou in the Kenora and Patricia districts is on the increase and sportsmen have no occasion to complain of scarcity of ducks. It may be necessary to extend the close season for partridge owing to smaller increase than was expected.

Beaver continue to increase in spite of the fact that 1917 was an open season and it is estimated that the open season may continue without diminishing their numbers to any alarming extent. Marked increase is shown in musk and muskrat owing to the protection afforded by the government, but on the other hand martens and fisher are steadily on the decrease. Further protection may be considered necessary in the near future in the case of otter.

EXEMPTION TRIBUNAL ALLOWS FEW CLAIMS

Pte. Carmelo Bugaja, who is engaged in making patterns for marine engines to be used in steamers in the fight against the Hun submarines, was refused leave of absence to continue at this work when his case came up before the Toronto District Leave of Absence Board yesterday. The board referred to the present German offensive, and decided that the call for additional infantrymen left no choice but to refuse the application.

Pte. Geo. Duncan, 22 Bolton avenue, employed by the company of Ambrise Kent & Sons as a jeweler, has two brothers overseas. On reporting for service he had been placed in category C.3. He was also refused leave of absence, the board sending him up for a medical examination. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Macdonald, one of the board's members, said he saw too many young men walking the streets and talking about pink teas.

LOTS NOT ALL SOLD

Bidding Lively and Prices Fair at Township Sale.

Over 180 lots were sold at the last day of the York Township sale at the township offices on King street yesterday. Bidding was lively and prices were fair. Two lots were sold under the old law, whereby only the amount of taxes can be collected. This resulted in one 24 1/2-foot lot being out of 14 feet frontage, which sold for taxes. An adjourned sale will be held May 16 to clean up all adjustments.

DISMISSED FIREMAN LOSES DAMAGE SUIT

Judge Winchester yesterday in the county court found that Fire Chief William Smith was justified in dismissing W. McPherson, a fireman of the Toronto Fire Department, and dismissed the case. The case arose out of the alleged statement made by Fire Chief Smith that McPherson had been living with Mrs. Brownlee. Damages were claimed by McPherson for $500 for wrongful dismissal. McPherson stated how Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee were personal friends of both his wife and himself, and when Mrs. Brownlee had some trouble with her husband and he had locked her out, she came to his home. After that he had some words with his wife over some money matters, and she and left him, but Mrs. Brownlee stayed on and kept house for him. He denied ever having any improper relations with her, and all the time she was in his house she paid him $5 a week. A letter had been sent, it was alleged, to Chief Smith from Dr. Skinner Gordon, stating that McPherson was keeping Mrs. Brownlee in her husband's house. This letter at the time Chief Smith refused to show him. "I have never seen that letter, and that is why I am here today," stated McPherson. When he was accused by the chief, he denied it, and following some words, the chief had put him out of the office. He stated that the chief had said, "You are the man who caused the investigation of the Toronto Fire Department. You went on the stand and told a pack of lies, and I will get you."

Mrs. McPherson stated that Mrs. Brownlee was still living at her house. "And she will remain so long as I have a roof over my head," she declared. Several firemen called in defence testified that McPherson had stated to them that he had had improper relations with Mrs. Brownlee. They were contradicted flatly by McPherson. It is most probable that the decision will be appealed, according to a statement made to The World after the case by Mr. Phelan.

OIL YONGE STREET BEFORE WEEK-END

But West Toronto and Other Sections of the City Must Wait.

PLEASURE ROAD OILED

Humber Boulevard Has Received Its First Coat From Parks Department.

"Yonge street will be oiled before the end of the week" was the definite promise made by George Wilson, street commissioner, last night. The commissioner refused to state when oiling would begin on the other streets of the city, but he went so far as to say that West Toronto would be the last district to be served. "What are the most important streets of the city are served," he said. "How much oil have you on hand?" asked the reporter. "We have any on hand." "How much do you expect to pay for oil when you are able to buy it?" "I don't know," answered Mr. Wilson. "I suppose you are going to say that the parks department is buying oil at 12 cents a gallon to oil the Humber boulevard." "Wouldn't the oil be used by the parks department for your purpose?" asked the reporter. "Certainly. It would do fine." "How about Yonge street?" "Yonge street will be oiled this week if it doesn't rain." "And the rest of the city, when?" asked the reporter. "I don't know, but the day is the evil thereof," replied Mr. Wilson. Inquiry at the parks department revealed the fact that that department is purchasing the oil it requires from the Canadian Soap and Oil Company at 12 cents a gallon. The Humber boulevard was oiled on Tuesday. This morning the streets of Toronto, West Toronto and other business sections are dusty.

TENDERS TO BE OPENED TODAY FOR PAVEMENT

When the board of control meets this morning tenders will be opened for the purchasing of the work to be done to get the Bloor street viaduct open for wheel traffic. The tenders, which closed on Tuesday noon, are for 511 feet of asphalt pavement extending westwards from a line 26 feet west of Broadview avenue. When this work is completed the eastern approach from Danforth avenue will have been finished.

Other work yet to be done consists of laying the pavement from Bloor street to the Bloor and Danforth section; putting up the poles and stringing the overhead wires and laying the street car tracks. The work on the overhead wires, two miles in all, has been purchased, but cannot be strung up until the state of the metal market makes it possible to purchase the poles.

TWO HUNDRED LOTS ARE SOLD FOR CITY TAXES

Two hundred and twelve parcels of land sold for taxes at the city hall yesterday brought $15,168.14. Original parcels of land were held for taxes, but all but 246 were redeemed before the sale. The remaining 54 will be sold at an adjourned sale on Friday, April 25.

As usual there were plenty of bargains. One house, worth $4500, found only one bidder, who got it for taxes, amounting to $44. The lot number 144 was on Risholme road. After some brisk bidding it went to G. M. Orr, who paid taxes amounting to $17.72 for a portion of the lot, one-quarter inch by 49 feet.

R. in the action brought by Miss Ida Pesho for alleged negligence which resulted in the death of her father, aged 82, of Euphemia, Lambton, who was killed by a train at Bothwell Station, while traveling from Kent Bridge to North Bothwell on the Windsor-Toronto line of the C. F. R.

R., who died in Toronto January 20, left an estate valued at $11,150, and Mrs. Ada Susan Gray, 90 Boustead avenue, sole beneficiary and executrix has applied for probate of the will. The estate consists of $600 in household goods; $229 in the bank; $1030 due on a mortgage; $500 insurance and 90 Boustead avenue, valued at $4000.

QUEEN'S PARK SERVICE.

The date for the combined church parade and intercession service in Queen's Park has been changed to April 25. Furlough men of the first contingent will take part in the service.

UNITED FARMERS LEASE DISTRIBUTING CENTRE

The corner property consisting of 27 foot frontage on King street by 90 foot frontage on Francis street has been sold by T. Medland, Limited, to the Imperial Bank, which gets possession June 1. The foundations and walls of the present building will be used, but extensive alterations will be undertaken whereby the building will become a modern bank structure.

By a lease which is now being drawn up the United Farmers Co-operative Company will secure a store frontage at 130 King street, and will also have a frontage of 40 feet on Francis street, together with most of the remainder of this property, in the shape of an "L." The farmers will have the basement under Henderson's auction rooms, together with most of the basement under 130 and 132 King street, and all of the top storeys for warehouse and office room. Provan will have a store at 132 King street with a depth of 90 feet, and cellar. Both deals date from June 1, on which date the farmers will serve the Toronto public with country produce only, and A. Provan will conduct a general grocery business as usual.

MEDICAL OFFICER READY WITH REPLY

Dr. Hastings Has Answer for Every Charge Made by Controller McBride.

Dr. Hastings, medical officer of health, will present a report to the board of control this morning, replying to the "grave charges" made by Controller McBride against his department. The doctor refused to give a copy of his report to the press last night, but it is expected to contain an answer to each charge by the controller's allegations. Controller McBride's chief allegation was that a public health doctor ordered a certain family quarantined for scarlet fever when there was no case of fever in the house. Dr. Hastings states that there has never been a case of scarlet fever under the eye of the department when the doctors were more sure of their diagnosis.

THE WRONG NURSES.

Three or four other letters produced by Controller McBride make charges of misconduct against nurses of the department of public health. The doctor will call the controller's attention to the fact that the nurses in question were attached to a private nursing mission and had nothing to do with the department. It is interesting to note in connection with the controller's statement that the public health nurses are as "thick as flies" that Dr. Hastings has not added a single nurse to his staff since the war broke out. As a matter of fact he is looking after the medical and dental inspection of both the public and the separate schools with the same staff that formerly looked after the public schools only.

Dr. Hastings's nurses receive $992 a year as compared with $250 to $5 a day with board paid to private nurses, and $25 a week paid to nurses employed by large corporations.

IN THEE WE TRUST

By Robert Partridge.

'E'en in this time of stress, when nations bend
To stay the impulse of a tyrant's thrust,
When gathering hordes unite, our strength to rend,
Oh, Lord, in Thee we trust.

For many flow'r may bloom where heroes sleep
Who gave their lives so that the world might be Free from oppression. Now is ours to keep Their trust. And look to Thee.

Not strength of arms alone, but purpose strong
In our desire to crush that loathsome lust,
So as we strive, this be our battle-song:
"O, Lord, in Thee we trust."

Gen. Maurice Reports Recovery of Important Ground From Germans.

LATEST NEWS BETTER Withdrawal in Ypres Salient Previously Decided on for Purpose.

London, April 17.—The greater part of Wytschate and probably all of it is in the hands of the British, Major-General F. E. B. Miles, chief director of military operations at the war office, announced today.

Counter-attacking successfully at Molenbeek and other points, the British have driven back the Germans half way to Balleul. They have advanced and improved their line in the direction of Nevele, England.

"The news last night and today is better," says General Maurice. "While I am not able to say definitely that Wytschate is in our hands, I am sure we hold the greater part and probably the whole of it."

"As mentioned in Field Marshal Haig's communiqué, we made a withdrawal to a new line in the Ypres salient. The withdrawal was decided upon on Sunday. It was carried out partly on Sunday night and completed on Monday. It is a regrettable military necessity which forces us to give up ground which we won at such heavy cost."

"On Tuesday the Germans were still shelling trenches which we had left the day before."

"I returned last night from France," said General Maurice at the outset of his talk with the Associated Press. "The situation yesterday was very anxious, owing to the danger of a breakthrough in the Ypres salient. I had brought four fresh divisions into the line to meet the situation. The situation was very anxious, owing to the danger of a breakthrough in the Ypres salient. I had brought four fresh divisions into the line to meet the situation."

General Maurice then referred to the successful British counter-attack at Molenbeek, in the northern portion of the salient. The withdrawal in the Ypres salient, and continued:

"Preparations for shortening our line in the Ypres salient were made some time ago and the decision to carry it out was reached before the fall of the salient. The decision was reached before the fall of the salient. The decision was reached before the fall of the salient."

LONGEST AND SHORTEST FIGHTS

ST. THOMAS DEAD TOWN; OTHERS ARE IN LINE

The longest glove fight on record was pulled off at New Orleans in 1893 between Andy Bowen and Jack Bice. The fight went 110 rounds, lasting 7 hours and 15 minutes, and ended with a draw decision, when neither man could fight any longer. There have been a number of bare-knuckle battles, however, that lasted longer than the Bowen-Bice affair.

The shortest bout on record was that between Battling Nelson and Billy Ross after a five-minute fight, which ended in a knockout in the second round. Nelson had a punch in exactly three seconds. Ed Hogan, who has a record of 100 knockouts, but Malachy Hogan, who refereed both battles, declared Nelson had the shade.

St. Thomas, so far as he was concerned, was a dead town with that town. Hamilton, which he is to visit tomorrow, according to Knotty, he thought that two out of these would be there with bells on if the league was organized. The city is prosperous, and the western situation at present, he was confident that with summer the allied states would bring about a change in the situation. He thought that two out of these would be there with bells on if the league was organized. He thought that two out of these would be there with bells on if the league was organized.

By Ida L. Webster. That is, most we poor humans do; but they do say that it takes all kinds of people to make a world, and we reckon that is true. In fact, there is your old friend Jim McCaffery, the very man who should be bent double after all these foul jolts, and instead of weakening he is becoming stronger.
