WAITS TILL RESIGNATION ACCEPTED BEFORE ANNOUNCING FURTHER PLANS

In a Few Days Hon. A. G. Blair Will Let the Public into the Secret of His Intentions Toward Sir Wilfrid's Railway Policy.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The one topic of conversation to-day has been the resignation of Mr. Blair. "What does it mean? What will be the next step? What will be done on every one's lips, and which one can answer Mr. Blair, apparently the only one who knows, is as silent as a sphinx. He was early at his office in the railway commission building to-day and received a number of representatives of the press with his customary affability. But he was non-committal, practically, on the subject which is uppermost in the minds of men just now, namely, the exact significance of his resignation of the chief commissionership in the heat of a political campaign, the chief issue of which is the very policy upon which he broke with the government a little over a year ago.

Mr. Blair summarized the situation as he wished it published: "My resignation," he said, "is in the hands of His Excellency the Governor-General, and will take effect upon its acceptance by the government. Meantime I shall proceed with the consideration of judgments in the cases in which the board has already completed the taking of evidence. Possibly some of the western cases will not be disposed of, as the evidence has not all been received. My resignation takes effect as soon as it is accepted."

Asked as to reports of his alleged immediate political intentions, Mr. Blair stated that he had nothing to say on that point.

"Will you have further statement for the public in two or three days?" he was asked.

"I cannot say as to that," was the reply. "My present intention is to retire from public life and to engage in the practice of my profession."

In what particular sphere, however, Mr. Blair did not feel himself at liberty to answer for the present. But doubtless he will be heard from in that regard within a very few days.

BLAIR'S PLANS.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(Globe Special.)—Mr. Blair this morning repeated his statement that he had no news to give about his plans otherwise than that he would continue at work until his resignation was accepted. There was a sitting of the railway commission, but Mr. Blair was not present at it.

TO SPEAK AT WINNIPEG.

Brandon, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—A message received in the city to-day announced that Mr. Blair would speak in Brandon before election day. If possible, arrangements will be made for him to appear before Oct. 31, the date fixed for the joint meeting of Richardson and Sifton, to enable the people to hear the railway question discussed freely without losing unnecessary time.

A BRITISH VIEW.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Oct. 19.—The Financial News says that politics and railways have always been pretty intimately mixed in Canada. Mr. Blair's being appointed solicitor to the C.P.R. somewhat discounts his opposition to the other Pacific project.

THE BRIDGE WILL NOT STAND FOR IT

LA PRESSE ON BLAIR.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The leading editorial in La Presse to-night on the Blair resignation reads as follows: The resignation of the Hon. A. G. Blair is the most important announcement that has been given to the political world for a long, long time. Mr. Blair is a man of vast experience, matured judgment, and absolutely without prejudice. He has been Sir Wilfrid Laurier's railway authority, and apparently he and Sir Wilfrid part without bitterness and without antagonism. The Conservatives now claim that Mr. Blair's resignation and his affirmation that he is today quite as much opposed to the Grand Trunk Pacific policy as when he resigned his portfolio, constitute a crushing condemnation of the scheme. The Liberals are hoping that Mr. Blair will do no more in the subject, but will substitute into private life after having retracted his protest. We do not think the public will be satisfied until they hear again from Mr. Blair with a full explanation. Until such explanation is forthcoming it is only fair to suspend judgment. The whole public of Canada, irrespective of politics, will read or listen with profound attention to anything Mr. Blair may choose to say on a question of such immense importance to the country.

Sir Wilfrid is Still Silent Re Mr. Blair's Resignation

Does Not Mention It in His Ottawa Address and Declines to be Interviewed.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(Staff Special.)—There was no word of Blair at the meeting addressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the rink to-night, no reference to the resignation of the "greatest railway expert."

After the meeting The World asked Sir Wilfrid if he would make a statement.

"Oh, no," he said, smiling most genially, "I have nothing to say." Sir Wilfrid is showing the effects of the arduous work of the past week. Those who saw him a week ago in Toronto could not fail to observe to-night the marked pallor and weakness. He spoke for fifty minutes to-night, but his physical condition was plainly not equal to a more prolonged effort. During the day he rested at the residence of William Thompson and saw no callers. There has not been a more enthusiastic meeting on the Ontario tour than that of to-night. The rink was crowded in every part.

Sir Wilfrid traversed the same ground as at Toronto, making much of his Canadianism and "his own" attitude on the discussion of the Grand Trunk Pacific deal. "On this he threw no new light. It was not required of him to argue the necessity of the railway. Mr. Borden agreed it was necessary, but his plan never commended itself to Sir Wilfrid again gave the cost of the railway as $13,500,000. Mr. Borden's figures were extravagant.

His concluding words were an appeal for a majority on Ontario. "My opponents make the point against me that I have a majority from the Province of Quebec, but I can see no reason why the banner should not be carried by Ontario as well as Quebec. Ontario in my younger days was the bulwark of Liberalism. In these days Quebec was Conservative, but in my old days I hope to see Ontario come back to the position it once held, the bulwark of reform and Liberalism."

EMMERSON'S VIEW OF BLAIR CAN HAVE NO MORE EFFECT

Moncton, N.B., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Hon. H. R. Emmerson, minister of railways, was electioneering in the county last night, and did not learn the news of Mr. Blair's resignation till early this morning on his way to Moncton.

He said: "Mr. Blair is simply where he was before he accepted the position on the railway commission. I have nothing to say with respect to his resignation or the time chosen for it."

Asked if it came as a surprise he said: "Naturally somewhat as a surprise, especially in view of our last conference before I left Ottawa. All I could say as to what Mr. Blair will do would only be in the way of conjecture. He is simply where he was when he resigned from the government. He seems to intimate that he has some position offered him. He has not said more than he had already said respecting the Grand Trunk Pacific. The country knows his views as stated in parliament, and his opinion will be no surprise to the country."

"I do not see how anything he may do can have any more effect. The arguments presented by those supporting the Conservative side are but a recital of Mr. Blair's speech."

EXPECTED LIBERAL PARTY TO SEE HIM THRU THE DEAL

Galvin, Who Marshaled the Minnie M. Gun, Swears Lawyer Grant Saw Him in Response to Letter to Mr. Stratton.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The name of J. R. Stratton is now connected with the Sault election scandal, and in such a way as to make him and the Liberal party almost directly responsible for the notorious visit of the steamer Minnie M. from the Michigan Soo to Michipicoten at election time, carrying as passengers a gang of workmen and others who were to act in the capacity of personators and pluggers if the sworn statements of P. J. Galvin be true. Mr. Stratton and the Liberal party are implicated by a confession made by P. J. Galvin of the Michigan Soo in a sworn affidavit read before Justice Oiler at the assize to-day.

This is a feature of the scandal much similar to the recent affair in North Renfrew, where the revelations regarding Hales' enormous election expenses were an outcome of the Liberal party's refusal to meet the obligations contracted during the election campaign. It was the employment agent that procured the men in the Michigan Soo to go up on the Minnie M. Galvin was given a promise that he would be seen thru, whatever trouble might arise, but it appears that such promises made on behalf of the Liberal party did not hold good.

What Galvin Swears.

Galvin, in his sworn statement made before D. R. South, notary public, in the Michigan Soo, states that in October last he was approached by Lack Kennedy on behalf of the Liberal candidate and arrangements were made to take a number of men on the steamer Minnie M. to Michipicoten. He and the men went up on the boat with them. Lack Kennedy was on board and assumed the name of Ferguson. On the way up the men were instructed how to vote. Kennedy looking after that part of it. At Helen Mine all except one of the men had been supplied to them on the way up. They voted again at Michipicoten Harbor on names also furnished them. The party returned to the Michigan Soo, where each man was paid $1. Galvin received $400 out of which he was to settle with the men.

Galvin swore he formerly resided in Peterboro and was well acquainted with Hon. J. R. Stratton, for whom he worked in political matters for many years. When Kennedy went to him he stated he had Stratton's authority and that Stratton had told him (Galvin) might be relied on to do anything he might want to assist C. N. Smith in his election. Galvin wrote Stratton, calling on him and the Liberal party to get him out of the predicament they had got him into, and was shortly afterwards contacted by R. A. Davidson, solicitor of Toronto, in response to his letter to Stratton, and who talked to see Galvin thru if he would follow instructions. He would be paid by him in behalf of the Liberal party. Grant advised him to stay away from court.

Met Other Liberal Also.

Galvin also met George Sutherland, who Kennedy told him was head organizer of the trip to Michipicoten. The Minnie M. plans were changed owing to a letter read at a meeting at the opera house. Galvin assisted in instructing the men how to vote. Liquor and cigars were paid for by Kennedy. Galvin made the statement to have the stumps attached to his name removed.

It may be that not one of the election offenders will be brought to trial. Geo. H. A. Watson, K. C., Toronto, was present at the assizes. He was asked by some of those summoned. The Galvin case was first called off by E. A. DuVerney, conducting the prosecutions. Mr. Watson raised an objection.

MR. STRATTON DENIES.

"I have not seen any despatch from the Sault with regard to the investigation you speak of. All I do know is that no one went to the Sault with my name directly or indirectly. Personally I know nothing about the case, and I am emphatically and implicitly as you can say so, I have no objection to my name being used in any way in connection with that election. They did so improperly, and I do so solely without my knowledge or consent. I do not know to whom Mr. Kennedy referred to, I never saw or spoke to him to my knowledge."—Statement of Hon. Mr. Stratton to The World.

BISHOP OF HURON PASSES AT ELEVEN LAST EVENING

Had Suffered Stroke of Paralysis on Friday and Never Regained Consciousness.

London, Oct. 19.—His lordship, M. C. Baldwin, Bishop of Huron, who has been very ill for some days, passed away this morning. He had been ill since last Friday and never regained consciousness.

The Right Rev. Maurice Scollard Baldwin was the fourth son of the late John, Bishop of Huron of Toronto, and was born in this city June 21, 1838. He was ordained deacon in 1860 and priest the following year by the late Bishop Croly, taking a curacy at St. Thomas and subsequently the incumbency of the parishes of St. James and St. Paul, Port Dover. In a few years he went to Montreal, where his earnest and self-sacrificing labors and his eloquence gained him a high reputation. He became rector of Christ Church Cathedral, Dean of Montreal in 1870 and third Bishop of Huron in 1888. Dr. Baldwin belonged to the evangelical school among churchmen, and his practical piety has won many tributes. He is the author of two volumes and has identified himself with the Lord's Day Alliance, and the Western Bible Society.

His lordship's last visit to Toronto was during the recent visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and he appeared at that time to be somewhat frail and feeble. The immediate cause of his death was a paralytic stroke, a clot of blood on the brain.

His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto was informed of the sad event on receipt of the intelligence by The World and expressed his deep sorrow. It can be arranged to get away by the train for Montreal, but having just returned from Montreal could not say positively.

LITERATURE IN STOVE.

How the Postmaster in Gallician Settlement Acted.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Another case of gross malfeasance on the part of a postmaster has just come to light. The postmaster at Insuper, a Gallician settlement near Yorkton, has been deliberately opening mail addressed to the people of the district, and, if finding it contained Conservative campaign literature, he proceeded to put it in the stove.

The authority for the statement is the Rev. Father Schinsky, head of the Catholic Greek Church in the Northwest, just arrived in the city from a pastoral visit and witnessed the destruction of the mail himself. The excuse the postmaster offered was that Mr. Sifton was doing everything for the country and the Conservatives must not be allowed to win. The postmaster's name is Fanzky, and he is a Russian-German.
