The Bad and Worthless are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated as of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole World that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprang up and began to steal the notices in which the press and the people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B; and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money on the credit and good name of H. B. Many others stated nostrums put up in similar style to H. B, with variously devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe that they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their, name, are initatious or counterfeits. I will not however deny that I have ex perienced some annoyances, and met with some little sacrifices, for these institutions; but then such is the lot of all persons engaged in works of charity, especially in those that bear directly on the pocket. Knowing this from the outset, I took the against insults of every kind; and I soon became gradually accustomed to regard such, either as unmeant or as simregard such, either as numerate or as simple jokes; for I could not bring myself to believe that any one, bearing the character of a Christian or the beart of a man, could surtonally oppose a work, so eminently religious and philanthropic as mine was; and if I did not regard them. (if such is possible) what the truth is, in this matter.

Many of the communications re published on the subject are, to me, exceedingly misty, as they fail to state elearly and intelligibly whether it is an exhibities or merely a declarative power they claim for the clergy.

Is this because they feel it would be blasphemous to claim the former, and atill are not willing to be content with the latter, as it is evident this would give the hierarchy no more authority than the laity? I am not learned in church history, but is it not a fact, that previous to the 13th century, the formula used in the absolution was Dens, or Christus, absol-vit to; and that it was only after the Lateran Council (1215) the formula eyo absol-

Turning to Scripture, can we find, in the New Testament a single instance of an Apostle, or the convert of an Apostle, pretending to impart forgive-ness in the name of Ged? If not, are we not justified in assuming that they did not believe they possessed the power? I admit that the portion of Scripture which speaks of the remitting and retain-ing of sios, is, on the face of it, and taken by itself, rather favorable to the exhibitive theory; but taken in connexion with Matt. XVIII, 15, 16, 17, 18, it is con-

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, would it not be well for writers on the subject to try and be a little less hasy, and not to write in one sentence "God only can forgive sina," and then a little further on to endorse the words 'I absolve thee" as fit words to be used by one mortal to another in the connexion intended.

The two statements, to my mind, are utterly extraordinary and incapable of being harmonized.

Ohio, of Nov. 25th, 1882.

Resident of the Commercial can not well forge that a large space has for years been taken up by Kendall's advertisements—aspecially of a certain Sparin Cure. We have had dealings with Dr. Kendall's for many years, and we know of some large numbers houses in clies near by who have also dealt with him for many years, and the truth is good honset man, and that his celebrated Spavin Cure is not only all that it is recommended to be, but that the Emplish Language is not capable of recommending it too highly.

Kendall's Spavin Cure will cure spavins. There are hundrads of cases in which that has been proven our or certain knowledge, but, after all, if any person condinas the userbaness of this celebrated medicine to curing spavins alone, they make a big mistake. It is the bees trediches known as an outward application for rheumastism in the human family. It is good for pains and aches, swellings, lamesses, and is just as safely applied to men, women and children as it is to horses. We know that there are other good lithinesias, but we do believe this apprin cure to be far better than any ever invented.

Dr. B. J. Kristaall, & Co., Gents:—For this past three years I have used Kendall's Spavin Cure. In every case of spavin, of which I have treated five,
thes killed them all, and entirely remered three.
In case of splint I find it has no equal, one case I had was of three years standing and the Spavin Gure removed it entirely. I had a cow getspavined and it entirely oured her. One year ago a two hundred pound bleek of ice fell out of a wagon stricking my foot on instep and toes, it would be mpossible to mash a foot worse without breaking any homea. I was taken home and carried into the house. I do not think amputation of the leg would cause any more pain. I sens for Kendall's Spavin Cure, it was all I used, and it at days I could walk around: About three weaks ugo my team ran away and three we out of the wagon, the hind wheel-struck my knee. After applying several sightly accommended liminatis without obtaining any relief, I wan side Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Iy law was drawn up and my knee swollen badly. In three days I was able to walk to the barn. I could go into dotalis more fully and make this a very long letter, but will not weary you.

P. O. Leek Box, 2362, Denver City, Col. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

Senta Rose, Cai, Neb. 6th, 1885.

B. J. Kurdall. & Co., Gents.—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum, to write you. Lhave, had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agoulting pain. Tried everything without relief, but after they ago of Kendall's Spavin Cure I have not seen nor heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I feel at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large banch gather on his breast to prove the contract of the piles and the cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bengit a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one weak the lump had disappeared.—Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. Fursed it as a last recort.

With grattinde and best visible for your success, I am faithfully yours,

J. H. Glazze.
