LIQUOR LICENSE COMMISSIONERS MEET

Six Licenses are Granted at an Adjourned Meeting Held on Tuesday

The liquor license commissioners, Mr. J. H. Taylor, J. Pichette and W. H. Marquis, chairman, met on Saturday afternoon in the council chambers for the purpose of dealing with the petitions for licenses for Ward III. Fourteen applications were received by the liquor license inspector, these being Harvey Molcoid, F. X. Boudreau, John McIntyre, Anselm Francœur, John Lemieux, J. I. Boudreau, A. Hopper, P. O'Leary, H. Cormier, J. Doucet, A. Guindé, retail; and N. Bernatchez, Joseph S. Boudreau, and Isaac Boudreau, wholesale.

The liquor license inspector, having reported on the several applications before the commissioners, Mr. A. T. LeBlanc, on behalf of the petitioners, pointed out the law as regards the granting of the licenses and in the course of his remarks stated that his own opinion was that the commissioners could grant licenses for the total population, which is over 3,000 as shown by the last Dominion census in 1911. The Rev. C. W. Squires presented to the commissioners a petition signed by the requisite number of ratepayers objecting to several applicants on the ground that they had been convicted on repeated violations of the liquor license law. Mr. M. A. Kelly, who appeared for the temperance party, spoke in support of the petition objecting to the granting of the licenses on the grounds as stated in the petition and also on the fact that under the act objection could be taken to the granting of so many licenses around the I. C. R. station. Speaking further, Mr. Kelly said that according to Mr. LeBlanc's opinion that if licenses could be granted for the full total of the population no provision having been made under the Dominion census for taking the census of the town by wards, it would follow by the same argument, that the commissioners could not give any licenses at all until the act had been changed to meet conditions. Mr. Kelly was supported by the various Protestant ministers in town, Rev. R. H. Stavert and W. D. Duncan, the latter of whom, as one of the petitioners against granting of licenses also spoke on the petition. After consideration by the Board it was resolved to adjourn until Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, the commissioners meeting in private, at which meeting the following licenses were granted:—John McIntyre, Henry Cormier, J. I. Boudreau, John Lemieux, F. X. Boudreau, retail, and N. Bernatchez, wholesale.

CAMPBELLTON VICS SOME HOCKEYISTS

The Newest Member of The N.B. League are Showing The Others How to Play

Campbellton's second game of the New Brunswick Hockey League was played last Thursday evening with the Marysville team as visitors. The previous evening Marysville had suffered defeat at the hands of Chatham by the odd goal in a total tally of nine and a good game was expected. The local boys saw to this end of it in no uncertain manner and when the smoke of battle had cleared away Marysville had got it where Mary wore the beads to the tune of 14-3.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:—
Marysville Goal Campbellton
McDonald Brogen Point
Hughes Cover Watling
McMorris Rover McLatchey
Robertson Centre Fraser
Arnold R. Wing Fowler
Hovey Matthews
Harrison L. Wing Delaney
Goal Judges: Irvine Wade and Alf. Gullis.

Time Keepers: Cook Forbes and A. Mowat.
Penalty Time Keeper: Howard Luke.
During the first period play was fairly even and exciting and fifteen minutes had gone before Fowler netted number one. Play was stopped when Hovey broke a skate and as he couldn't get another skate in a dry town like Campbellton, he was replaced, after some delay, by Harrison. After end to end play Matthews got possession and passed to Fowler who scored number two.

The second period started with McDonald, the goal tender in the box. It was only three minutes old when Delaney, after a run up the ice, added number three. Play was now chiefly confined to the visitors' end, when Matthews netted number four from a pass from Delaney. From the face-up play was carried to McLean's territory when, after repeated attacks, Harrison was successful in scoring number one for the visitors. Matthews added number five for the home and Delaney followed with number six. Just before the tinkle of the bell Robertson beat McLean with number two for the visitors.

The third period was a picnic for the purple, eight goals being scored in order by McLatchey, Watling, Matthews, Delaney, (2), Fraser, Delaney, and Matthews. Harrison added number three for the visitors.

It was the old story of combination against individual effort. It was a pretty sight to see the Vics' forwards with Fraser working up the ice and it was almost a certainty that once they got going a score would ensue. McLean stopped many hard ones and towards the end of the game was seldom troubled.

Marysville, after their match of the previous evening, couldn't stand the pace set by the Vics, all of whom, with the exception of McLean, figured in the list of scorers. Sandy Staples handled the game to the satisfaction of all concerned and meted out the following penalties:—Fraser, 2; Arnold, 2, 3, 4; McDonald, 2; Delaney, 3, 4; Matthews, 3; Harrison, 3.

Tuesday's Game.
Campbellton, 3; Fredericton, 2.
Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 27—Campbellton retained the lead in N. B. H. L. tonight by beating Fredericton 3 to 2. The game was fast throughout and rather rough towards the close. Campbellton scored once in the first period. There was no score in the second. In the third, Campbellton scored twice in quick succession and it looked like a shut out for the locals. Fredericton came back hard and scored two goals, making a whitewind finish. Campbellton succeeded in holding its lead of one goal until time expired.

Upwards of one thousand people saw the game. Penalties were few, and the game was pretty clean. Fredericton claimed a goal on a shot of Frechette in the second period, but the Campbellton goal judge said the puck went over the net and not through it, as alleged by the Fredericton players. Campbellton had the better team, while Fredericton, with few exceptions, had better individual players. Jimmy Murphy, who was cover for Fredericton, was in poor condition and had distress signals out early in the game. Burdon, at centre for the locals, was entirely out of his class. Coward, who was substituted, should have been in his place. McLean in goal for Campbellton, put up a magnificent game, particularly in the second period when

DEATH OF MR. G. A. BINET AT QUEBEC

President and Manager of The Campbellton and Gaspé S. S. Co., Buried Monday

Word has been received here of the death at the Hotel Dieu, Quebec, last Thursday, of Mr. G. A. Binet, the president and manager of the Campbellton and Gaspé Steam Navigation Company. The late Mr. Binet, who was well known here, had not been in very good health all summer but it was thought that with rest and care he would have made some improvement during the winter, and the notice of his death was received here by his friends with deep regret. Mr. Binet was born in River du Loup in 1854, and in his younger days was purchasing agent for McKay Brothers, Montreal, later becoming travelling salesman for McLimont and Sons of Quebec. He thereafter took up business at Fraserville, his native town, as a general merchant, establishing a splendid paying business, and was Mayor of his native city. He retired from active business a few years ago, becoming president of the Campbellton and Gaspé S. S. Company, who were owners of the S. S. Canada, in which company he had large interests.

The funeral took place at Fraserville on Monday morning, being attended by a large number of people, prominent citizens of the city and surrounding districts, as well as many friends and acquaintances from Quebec and Montreal, paying their last tribute to one whose death was greatly regretted and who was so well known and highly esteemed.

he saved goals repeatedly. Fowler, Matthews and McLatchey were the strong players of the rest of the team. Frechette, the player for the Canadians of the N. H. A., was easily the best player on the ice. Mike Murphy played a good game, as did Walker, Arnold and Titus.

Fredericton began in the first period to play combination, but were inferior to the visitors, who took their lead of one goal in this period. In the second, Fredericton resorted to individual play with better success. Largely through the work of McLean in goal, they failed to score, one goal claimed being disallowed.

In the third period, Campbellton took advantage of the sagging of the Fredericton team, and put in two goals. McLatchey scored after quick following, and Fowler made the third goal on a magnificent shot from side.

Mike Murphy, with everyone thinking that the game was over, went up the ice and scored Fredericton's first goal. Soon afterward Frechette scored, after boring in on the Campbellton net.

The line up was:
Fredericton Goal Campbellton
Titus McLean
Walker Point Watling
M. Murphy Cover point McLatchey
J. Murphy Rover Fraser
Burden Centre Fowler
Arnold Right Wing Delaney
Referee—A. McN. Staples.

Scoring summary—First period, 1, Campbellton, Fowler, 7 min. Third period, 2, Campbellton, McLatchey, 6, 30 min.; 3, Campbellton, Fowler, 4, 30 min.; 4, Fredericton, M. Murphy, 3 min.; 5, Fredericton, Frechette, 4 min.

Penalty summary—Campbellton, Matthews, 2 min.; McLatchey, 3 min.; McLatchey, 2 min.; Delaney, 2 min. Total, 9 minutes.

Fredericton—Arnold, 2 min.; M. Murphy, 2 min.

After their gruelling game at Fredericton, our boys met the Marysville team on Wednesday and went down to defeat to the tune of 3-1.

At the time of going to press no particulars of the game could be learned, but no doubt our boys took it easy judging from the last drubbing they gave Marysville.

ELECTION PROTEST IN DURHAM ELECTION

Evidence Taken Before Committee of Council Brings Out Many Facts

The annual session of the Restigouche Municipal Council which opened at Dalhousie last Tuesday morning and continued well into this week was the most exciting session held in recent years.

For four days the business of the council was at a standstill while a committee of three chosen by the council were investigating certain charges preferred against the councillors elected for the parish of Durham Messrs. Murchie and Lawlor.

When the matter of the protest was brought up in the council the first day the council voted that there were sufficient grounds to warrant an investigation into the charges.

Next in order was the appointing of a committee of three to investigate the charges. Two committees were named, but on division the council stood 7 to 7, the Warden voting. The deadlock lasted until adjournment.

The following morning a committee composed of Couns. Montgomery, Alexander and Dickie was chosen to take the matter in hand and immediately after the noon recess started in to take evidence. Mr. P. J. Byrne of Bathurst appeared for Messrs. Murchie and Lawlor, while Mr. A. T. LeBlanc and Mr. A. E. G. McKenzie appeared for the petitioners.

John Kerr, one of the defeated candidates was the first witness.

JOHN KERR.

His evidence was chiefly to show that the nomination papers of his colleague and himself were regularly filed with the parish clerk, Mr. Dan. McAllister, but while his own was received and his name placed on the notices required to be posted, giving the names of the candidates duly nominated, that of his colleague was not so posted. He also swore that to the best of his knowledge the piling of officers were not sworn as required by law, and the fact that his colleague's nomination was not received prejudiced his election.

ARTHUR CULLIGAN, M. P. P.

Arthur Culligan, M. P. P. was the next witness and he swore as follows: I live in the parish of Durham. I know John Kerr and Frank LaPointe. I know Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor who were candidates in the last council's election for the parish of Durham. I remember the day of the council's election, the 2nd of September last. I voted at the poll at Jacques River over which Mr. D. McAllister presided. I came to the Jacques River poll about 4 o'clock to vote. I went to the upper poll before poll opened. I was an agent for John Lawlor and Arch. Murchie the candidates. I was in the poll when it opened but did not stay in. Paul Doyle was also an agent. James Currie was chairman at this poll. Thos. Hayes was also in this poll. I was outside poll more than I know Wm. E. Firlotte, Joseph Dion and David McGregor of Beckettville. I do not know any other David McGregor.

NO ALUM

Ques.—Do you remember paying money to one, David McGregor, on Sept. 2nd, 1913, to influence him to vote for Arch. Murchie and John Lawlor. (Objected to by Mr. Byrne) Objection sustained.

I remember a fellow named John J. Newell, Jr. Do not remember seeing him that day at the lower poll.

Q.—Do you know if John Newell had been paid any money to vote for Murchie and Lawlor. (Objected to by Mr. Byrne and objection sustained.)

DANIEL McALLISTER.

Daniel McAllister the parish clerk of Durham was the next witness. His evidence was very exhaustive and went to show that the voters' lists had been prepared in time for the election; that he refused to accept the nomination paper of Frank LaPointe because he thought that he was not qualified to run, was not qualified because he was receiving pecuniary allowance from the council as an assessor; he was duly sworn in as chairman of poll by Matthew Ellis; that he refused to count the votes cast for LaPointe and that he had taken legal advice in regard to his action in refusing the nomination of LaPointe.

FRANK LAPOINTE.

Frank LaPointe gave evidence as to the filing of his nomination paper with the parish clerk; the making of the assessment; and other points bearing on the case.

E. McMillan, Esq., a Justice of the Peace for the county of Restigouche gave evidence as to the signing of LaPointe's nomination paper.

JOSEPH HACHEY.

Joseph Hachey was one of the most important witnesses heard. He swore as follows: I live at Jacques River, in the parish of Durham. Am a ratepayer in the parish of Durham. I remember the last election for councillors for the parish of Durham. I was at the upper poll the day of the election. I know Arch. Murchie and John Lawlor, two of the candidates seeking election as councillors for the parish of Durham at the last election. I saw Arch. Murchie about the poll the day of the election. Mr. Murchie gave me a ticket, and told me to vote the ticket. His name and John Lawlor's name were on the ticket.

Q.—Did you receive any money in that election from anyone to vote for Murchie and Lawlor.

A.—Yes, I received two dollars. It was given to me by Arch. Murchie, one of the candidates (Objected to by Mr. Byrne) He gave me two dollars about noon, when he gave me the ticket, near the poll.

Cross examined by Mr. Byrne. James Landry paid me no money. When Wm. E. Firlotte swore that Jas. Landry paid me money he swore to something which was not true.

Mr. LeBlanc.—Did Mr. Murchie ever talk to you about that after the election.—No.

To Mr. Byrne.—I did not vote at all in this election.

DAVID MCGREGOR

David McGregor also proved to be an important witness and swore as follows:

I reside at Nashes Creek in the parish of Durham. My name was on the list of voters for the last council's election for the parish of Durham. I was at the Durham Centre poll the day of the election. I know Murchie and Lawlor two of the candidates in the election. I did not see Arch. Murchie pay any money to Jos. Hachey. I do not know if James Landry paid any money.

Cross examined by Mr. Byrne. I voted at the last election in Durham. I do not own any property but pay taxes. I voted in Colborne and also in Durham in the last election. I thought I had a vote in both parishes. No one asked me to go to Colborne in the election. I did not see Arch. Murchie pay any money to Jos. Hachey. I do not know if James Landry paid any money.

To Mr. Dickie.—I say that contents of paper are true and have bearing on the case.

Mr. LeBlanc.—Did you get any money from anyone to influence your vote in this election. Disallowed.

David McGregor recalled.

Mr. LeBlanc.—Did you have a conversation in reference to this protest. Yes. I had the conversation in this room. Arch. Murchie told me to swear I got the $2.00 from Mr. Arthur Culligan for work. That is all he told me. I never worked for Mr. Culligan.

ARTHUR CULLIGAN, M. P. P.

Arthur Culligan.—Sworn. The day of the polling, McGregor came to me and said that I owed him $2.00 for some time. He kept at me for some time. Later in the day, I did give it to him, but not to influence his vote.

as he had no vote at this election.

To Mr. LeBlanc.—I would not like to swear that I did not give him a ticket. I do not think McGregor did vote that day. I did not go to the door of the poll with him. He had never asked me for that $2.00 previously. Said I owed it to him for work he had done at a former election. I do not remember what he did for me. On his word I gave him $2.00. I know David McGregor, know him as Scottie McGregor. I did not speak to him as Scottie, spoke to him as Mr. McGregor.

I do not know that I would have known him unless he had sworn here. I did not give him $2.00 to vote for Murchie and Lawlor. He told me what I owed him for. I did not know him very well before Sept. 2nd.

ARCHIBALD MURCHIE.

Archibald Murchie took the stand in his own defence and after being sworn said in part as follows:—

I asked David McGregor if he did not get $2.00 from Arthur Culligan which he owed him for work. He said yes. I said he did not give you money to vote for Lawlor and myself.

He said no.

Q.—Did you pay Hachey $2.00 for his vote.

A.—I swear positively that I did not give Hachey any money to vote at any time.

Q.—Did you pay Hachey any money on election day.

A.—I will not swear to that.

Q.—Did you owe Hachey any money that day.

A.—I don't know. Hachey did not work for me.

Q.—Why did you pay Hachey $2.00 on election day.

A.—I do not remember.

I cannot swear that I did pay Hachey $2.00 election day. I will not swear that I did not pay Hachey $2.00 on election day. I can't swear that I remember paying Hachey money. I remember hearing Hachey swear yesterday that I gave him $2.00 for his vote.

Q.—Will you swear that when Joe Hachey swore yesterday that you gave him $2.00 election day that he swore to what was not true.

A.—I will not answer that.

I swear positively that I did not pay W. E. Firlotte $1.00 election day.

At about this period in the proceedings the committee were advised that as the accused councillors had been in the council room when the committee to hear the evidence had been appointed, when the bylaws clearly state that they should withdraw, that the appointment was not legal. They therefore reported to the council and were dismissed.

A new committee composed of Coun. Dickie, Giroux and Alexander have been appointed to carry on the investigation, but owing to the lateness of the session and the fact that business was being retarded they reported to council and asked to be authorized to sit some time during the recess and report at the July session.

Nothing which learned council could do was left undone to prevent the admission of damaging evidence and some lively encounters took place between counsel and between counsel and W. S. Montgomery, who was chairman of the committee.

Protest of Election of Councillors Murchie and Lawlor Take up Time of Session

Dalhousie, Jan. 26, 1914.

The council reassembled at 10 o'clock and the entire day was taken up with the passing of accounts, and good progress was made.

Dalhousie, Jan. 27th, 1914.

The council reassembled at 10 o'clock and accounts were again taken up, and nearly all the accounts were disposed of at 11 o'clock, when Coun. Dickie asked for recess for fifteen minutes to enable committee on election protest to meet and make a short report. After discussing this for some time the council adjourned at 11.15 until 2 o'clock.

At the afternoon session six councillors absented themselves, so that as Coun. Levesque was absent, no quorum was present and no business could Council reassembled at 10 o'clock, all the councillors present except Coun. Levesque, granted leave, and Couns. Montgomery, Arsenau, Firth, and Peters.

The balance of the accounts were taken up and disposed of, when the parish officers were appointed for Durham.

A lively discussion took place over the appointment of the parish officers for Durham.

Coun. Harquail submitted a list and the two councillors for the parish also submitted a list for Durham.

An effort was made by the Warden to bring both parties together to agree on the list, when the matter narrowed down to one official. On this both parties held fast and the matter was taken up by the council, when the list submitted by Coun. Harquail, with a few changes as suggested by Coun.

DIVERSIFIED INDUSTRIES IN SCOTIA PROVINCE

During the Last Thirty Years Nova Scotia Has Become a Manufacturing Centre.

In an address to the Manufacturers' Convention at Halifax a few years ago, Mr. Thos. Chantley drew attention to the fact that there is a general idea abroad that agriculture is the leading industry of Nova Scotia. The truth, however, is that if a group together the closely related and steel industry, the products of these largely exceed in value the agricultural production of this province, while its manufacturing products as a whole are of very much greater value than the products of the farm.

The coal mined annually in Nova Scotia is over 50 per cent. of the total production of Canada, while the coke made is over 55 per cent. of the total Canadian make. Nova Scotia's pig-iron output is practically 42 per cent. and of steel 48 per cent. of the total Canadian output.

Campbellton, N. B., Jan. 29, 1914.

The session of the Municipal Council of Restigouche county which came to an end Wednesday evening because the law distinctly states that it could only sit for eight days, was a record breaker as regards length of session and also for the small amount of business transacted.

The action of some of the members who lost no opportunity to block the business was a disgrace to the Municipality
as well as to the parishes and town which were responsible for their presence in the council.

In the elections of September last a majority of liberal councillors were elected, there being eight liberals and four conservatives.

In the parish of Durham the liberals claimed that irregularities had taken place and a protest was filed against the return of the two conservative councillors elect, Messrs. Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor.

The conservatives were strengthened by the appointment of W. S.
Montgomery as councillor from the town of Dalhousie and the acquisition of Coun. Firth, whose opinions in regard to the protest took a right about face between the time he arrived in Campbellton and his appearance at council Tuesday afternoon. What considerations were responsible for this change we have no means of learning as Coun. Firth is not talking for publication, but suffice it to state that councillor Firth who has always been an active liberal lined himself up with the other party.

W. S. Montgomery, mayor of Dalhousie, and the defeated conservative candidate in the last Dominion election captained the conservative forces, while Coun. D. A. Arseneau, a former liberal, but who changed his stripes immediately the liberal government was defeated, so that he could retain his office as government scaler, was his able lieutenant.

We must admit that much to the county's detriment, the leaders of the conservatives outwitted their opponents, and although they were in a minority they were able to successfully hold up the business of the Council from day to day. No subject was too trivial for them to have motions and amendments spread on the minutes and give them an excuse to talk and take up valuable time.

The climax was reached Tuesday morning when the committee appointed to investigate the charges contained in the protest against Couns.
Murchie and Lawlor of the parish of Durham, asked the council for a recess of fifteen minutes.

Coun. Montgomery was up on his feet at once, followed by Coun. Arseneau and Coun. Peters followed him, with Coun. Firth getting a word in between times. Considerable time was wasted and to facilitate matters the majority gave way and agreed to adjourn until 2 o'clock, although it was only a few minutes past eleven o'clock.

In the interval the committee met and decided that as there was a large number of witnesses to hear in reference to the protest, they could not complete their duties at the present session and asked authority to continue their work at some future date and report at the July session.

At 2 o'clock the following councillors were present:—The Warden, Harquail, Gillis, Dickie, Alexander
Giroux and Bernard. Unfortunately Coun. Levesque had been excused by the Warden as he had been called to St. John.

It requires eight to make a quorum of council, so the seven sat around all the afternoon while Couns. Montgomthe council chamber. Consequently no business could be transacted and at 5 o'clock the council adjourned.

STEEL INDUSTRY IN UNITED STATES
Reduced Wages and Short Time Prevalent—Trade People Blame Reduction in Tariff

The "Daily Iron Trade" of Cleveland, one of the recognized iron and steel organs of the United States, takes rather a pessimistic view of the iron and steel situation in that country. It reports that many of the Middle Western mills are running only about 60% capacity and others being down as low as 45%. Not only are thousands of hands laid off, but working at reduced hours, but wages are being reduced. In the Middle West several companies have cut their wages 10%, that is, a man who formerly earned $12 a week now gets $10.80. A variety of causes are blamed, but to the new Wilson tariff, which has put most iron and steel products on the free list, is attributed most of the trouble. German and English mills, with lower cost of production through lower wages, have been able to dump their surplus products in the United States. This has obviously meant less business for the United States mills, which in order to meet the price have had to reduce wages.

Canada would do well to look carefully into the situation in the United States with respect to iron and steel.
We have seen large industries in New Glasgow and Sydney and elsewhere suffer in the past through foreign competition. The big United States mill with its highly specialized product can afford to cut the price in Canada
on many lines in order to take away the Nova Scotia mill's market. This process may be rapid in the next couple of years unless steps are taken to shut out the British and foreign steel manufacturer. When we take into consideration the enormous quantity of money that is put in circulation in the Maritime Provinces by the iron and steel industries we can ill afford to allow conditions to be created which would curtail the production in these industries. In fact it would seem evident that some steps ought to be taken to insure continuity of operation and a market at reasonable prices for the product of the Canadian plants.

A HUGE PAY ROLL AND ITS MEANING

Dominion Coal Company's Army of Employees—What They Mean to the Country

The Dominion Coal Company's employees number over 13,000 persons, and the population directly dependent on their operations will number not less than 50,000 persons. In providing housing accommodation for their work-people, the Company has been obliged to spend very large sums of money on homes, which are rented to the men at very reasonable rates.
The more recently erected miners'
houses are comfortable and commodious, the rentals charged varying from $4.00 to $8.00 per month.

As the collieries of the Company have, in many cases, been located in entirely unsettled locations, it has been necessary not only to provide homes, but stores, electric light, water, sewerage and other corporate conveniences.

On Modern Principles
The mines of the Company are conducted on the most improved modern principles, and although the Company does not blazon the fact, safety is a prime consideration.

The progress of the Company may be gauged from the fact that during the first five months of 1913, the coal output has shown an increase on the output in 1912 of over 23,000 tons monthly. The same period of 1913 showed an increase of 42,000 tons per month over 1911, so that, in two years, the monthly capacity of the mines has been increased 75,000 tons.

An increase of 75,000 tons per month necessitates among other things, an addition to the working force of over 1,000 men.

In the Waterford district there was not a single colliery in 1907. At the present time there are four collieries, producing 110,000 tons per month, and a fifth colliery is in process of development.

Helped by Trade Policy
Where five years ago was nothing but the original forest, there is now a thriving community of probably 8,000 people with schools, churches, water supply, and all the beginnings of a full-sized town. It is to be doubted whether even the Canadian West can show a better example of rapid industry and development than the district surrounding New Waterford, all being due to the extensive operations of the Dominion Coal Company.

The progress of the Dominion Coal Company has only been possible through the increased demand for its products from manufacturing industries situated not only in the Mar-time Provinces but as far west as Montreal. Under Canada's existing tariff many large United States firms have found it advisable to locate branch factories in Canada. Every one is a large user of coal and iron and steel products, and all this adds to the prosperity of the people in Sydney and the surrounding country.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptoms, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.

CAMPBELLTON
The resignation of W. A. Trueman, Esq., as legal advisor was taken up,
and by unanimous vote it was decided not to accept same.

The councillors per diem an mileage
was passed and the council adjourned sine die.

NOTE—The report of the committee to investigate the election protest was not placed before the council so the investigation is off until the session of July next.

TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Edmonton, Alberta, Can. — "I think it is no more than right for me to thank you for what your kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me.

"When I wrote to you some time ago I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had organic inflammation and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend your medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills, and think they are fine. I will never be without the medicine in the house."

—Mrs. FRANK EMMLEY, 903 Columbia Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta.

The Other Case.
Beatrice, Neb. — "Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."

—Mrs. R. B. CHILLO, Beatrice, Neb.

THE CHIEF CAUSE OF FIRES IN 1913

Forest Fires Loss Can be Greatly Reduced by Co-operation

Mr. R. H. Campbell, Director of the Dominion Forestry Branch, says: "Carelessness was undoubtedly the chief cause of forest fires in 1913. The best remedy is indicated by a recent statement of Mr. E. T. Allen, Forester for the Western Forestry and Conservation Association, who says: 'The best single result of the 1913 fire season is to prove that systematized co-operative effort at an insignificant cost per acre or per thousand, can reduce our forest losses of an average year from four or five million dollars to about as many thousands.' If, on the twenty million acres of timberlands controlled by the lumbermen forming this association, the fire loss can be so enormously reduced by co-operation, the saving which Canadian citizens could effect by co-operative effort on the 500,000,000 acres of forest land in Canada, is almost incalculable.

The functions of the Government in this respect are well understood, and a great deal has been done, especially by the field officers of the Dominion Forestry Branch, to promote the co-operative spirit in the matter of fire protection. But only recently has the initiative been taken by private associations in co-operative fire protection, yet there are now thirty timber-owners' associations in the United States, the members of which have got together to adequately protect from fire their combined holdings, which now total about 25,000,000 acres.

In Canada there is but one association of this kind but it compares favourably with any in the United States. The development of this co-operative movement, which culminated in Canada in the St. Maurice Fire Protective Association, is described in detail by a bulletin now being issued by the Forestry Branch, Ottawa. The Quebec limit-holders comprising this association have by a self-imposed tax of one quarter cent per acre installed a fire protective system on their 7,000,000 acres of holdings second to none in Canada. In 1913 over 275 forest fires were extinguished with practically no danger, proving, in the words of one of the members, that 'The success of co-operative forest fire protection has been established without a doubt.'

HACKING COUGH OF TWO MONTHS STANDING

Cured by Na-Dro-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne.

You know how hard it is to get rid of a cough that has hung on for over two weeks, let alone two months. So you will appreciate what Na-Dro-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne did for Mr. Patrick Holland, of East Belisle, P. R. I. He says:

"I suffered from a hacking cough for over two months. I tried several remedies, but they failed to cure me. At last I tried Na-Dro-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne, and got great relief that I tried more, and after using three bottles was absolutely cured."

The unique, scientific combination of these three reliable remedies makes Na-Dro-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne the best preparation that has ever been offered for all sorts of colds and coughs. Get a 25c or 50c bottle from your Druggist and see for yourself. It is a National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada.

HOW TO CONSTRUCT A SPLIT-LOG DRAG

Home-Made Implement is Invaluable Aid in Maintaining Rural Roads

The following article which we reprint from Conservation, while perhaps may be a little behind or ahead of the times will no doubt be found of interest to the citizens of rural districts:

"There are many miles of roads which must be maintained by some inexpensive means. The split-log drag has been found to be one of the most useful implements for this purpose. It is now in use in many localities, and this simple instrument is keeping in repair economically an increasing mileage of the rural highways of this country.

"A dry, sound, red cedar log is the best material for a drag, the hardwoods being usually too heavy for this purpose. It should be from 7 to 8 feet long, from 10 to 12 inches in diameter, and carefully sawn down the middle. The heaviest and best slab should be selected for the centre, both flat sides to the front, and should be set on edge thirty inches apart. The back half is given a setback of 16 to 18 inches at the right-hand end, so that when the drag is drawn along at an angle parallel to the ditch on the right hand side of the road, the extremities of the back half will be directed behind those of the front half, as otherwise, the ditch end of the rear slab would project past the ditch end of the front slab, resulting in crowding into the bank and interfering with the proper working of the drag.

"Two cross-pieces are wedged in two-inch auger holes bored through the slabs and, on the right-hand side, a piece of scantling is inserted between the ends of the slabs. This is of great value in strengthening the end of the front slab. In working a clay or gumbo road it is advisable to put iron on the lower edge of both flat sides.

"Handles may be attached to iron shoes shaped like sled-runners, the shoes to be stapled to the back of each end of the front slab in such a way as to allow motion sideways as well as up and down. By pressing the handles the drag can be raised, thus depositing a load of dirt when desired to fill a hollow or increase the crown at some particular spot.

"A platform of inch board held together by three cleats should be placed on the stakes between the slabs. These boards should be spaced at least an inch apart to allow any earth that may heap up and fall over the front slab to sift through upon the road again. The end cleats should be placed so that they will not rest upon the cross stakes, but drop inside them. These cleats should extend about an inch beyond the finished width of the platform. An extra weight may be added if necessary, but it is seldom needed.

"To use the drag attach a chain to the left cross piece, which is behind the front slab, running the other end of the chain through a hole in the front slab near the right end or around the front end. It is a mistake to hook this end of the chain over the front slab as in the case of the other end, for when the drag strikes a stone or snag there is great danger of toppling forward. With the right end of the chain drawn through the hole in the slab as suggested, this danger is obviated.

"The operation of the drag is very simple. For ordinary roadwork purposes the drag may be drawn up and down the road one or two rounds, commencing at the edge and working towards the centre. Usually it is drawn at an angle of about 45 degrees. For the last stroke or two the drag may be drawn backwards with the round side of the slab to the front and comparatively little angle."

MONCTON MAN GETS VERY FAST PACE

Mr. P. A. Bellevue, of Moncton has purchased from William Fenwick, of Bathurst, the fine dark brown pacer, list. 1-1, 2-1 1/4, and which is being greatly admired by local horse fanciers. Mr. Bellevue, who visited Campbellton last week, saw Hal L. in action on the ice there, and after he won the free-for-all from a good field of entries, Mr. Bellevue offered Mr. Fenwick a good price for the pacer, which was accepted. Mr. Bellevue is willing to match his recent acquisition against any other horse in the Maritime Provinces on the ice, particularly a St. John horse.

Candy Girl, formerly owned in Moncton by Mr. P. A. Bellevue and later by Mr. Chas. Beaupre, has been sold to Mr. Henry Good of Dalhousie, he purchasing her from Mr. Henry Beaupre of Moncton. Candy Girl has a mark of B17 and it is said that the latest price for her was $450.

The Sable Lorcha

By Horace Hazelton.

A little later the morning papers were brought in, and I scanned one after another in search of some new twist or turn of the story of the previous afternoon. The more conservative journals were inclined to make light of the scare. "Mr. Cameron," said one, "ceased to be active in the affairs of the Crystal Consolidated over two years ago. If he is ill, which is by no means certain, the fact can have but little real significance so far as the company of which he is the largest shareholder is concerned. It may be stated on the best authority that Mr. Cameron's share have never been used speculatively, and that even in the event of his death they could not by any possibility come on the market, for the reason that he has provided a trust fund, by will, for the benefit of his niece, and that they are a part of that fund."

The sensational press, of course, still insisted that the Glass King was in a New England sanitarium, though they had failed to locate the institution. Despite my alarm I smiled at the thought of how their afternoon editions would have to eat the leak, as the Welsh say.

The papers finished, I grew restless. I desired constant news from the sick room, and lacking it, I roamed about the house, in nervous uneasiness, my brain busy with conjecture, forming one theory after another, and dismissing such as readily. The situation was a tantalum. The answer to all the questions which had absorbed me for weeks lay dormant in the brain of the man sleeping beyond that closed door. Theories, therefore, were now more futile than ever. The one accomplishment to be asked was the arousing of an intellect, the stirring of a memory. Dr. Massey had promised that when Cameron's awakened mental clarity would be restored, that he would be able to answer questions with intelligence.

It is hard to explain why I doubted this. I think it must have been something I saw in those dull, vacant eyes, when I first looked into them under the pale light of the white-gloved electric street lamps. If I had been forced to identify Cameron by those eyes alone, I should have said that this man was not he. They were so different, lacking all the expression of the Cameron eyes I knew. And yet I made no question as to his identity. I knew him, despite this; knew that strong chin and jaw, which spelled determination in two syllables; knew his broad, generous nose, and his high intellectual forehead. These points of recognition were so convincing, that I never seen before and the wasted frame and the shrunken, unsteady legs.

At brief intervals I consulted the clock. It was marvellous how the time dragged. And that natural desire to never have an errand outside the suite? I had told him I should spend the morning in the house, and that I wished to be informed of the slightest change in his patient. I must conclude, therefore, that Cameron was still sleeping, that Bryan was still watching.

From the fact that Evelyn had not yet appeared I drew a measure of consolation. If I could have tidings of even the slightest improvement in Cameron before meeting her, it would aid me in the assumption of confidence upon which I had determined.

At ten minutes past eight I was searching the encyclopaedia in the library for information on the subject of brain concussion. Already I had followed the trail through three volumes from "Brain" to "Nervous System" and from "Nervous System" to "Concussion," when an opening door caused me to turn eagerly. Mr. Bryan, the nurse, in a white uniform such as hospital doctors wear, stood on the threshold. The next moment I had risen from my crouching position before the bookcase and had met him midway across the room with anxious inquiry.

"Mr. Cameron awoke a quarter of an hour ago," he told me. "His power of speech has returned. He asked me where he was and what had happened. I told him he was in his own house, and that he had not with an accident."

"Yes, yes," I hurried him. "And where then? Did he inquire for any one?"

"No. For all of a minute he lay looking about the room without another word. Then, in a puzzled way, he repeated: 'My own house?' and asked, 'Where is this house?' And I told him. He did not seem to recognize the room at all."

"Is he still awake?"

"Oh, no. Dr. Massey left directions that he was to be given some more sleep—a raw egg and milk—and then another powder to make him sleep. He turned on his side after that, and in less than three minutes was in a deep slumber once more."

I was annoyed that I had not been called. I let myself hope that night as I might possibly have stirred his memory even though the faintest echo of his old mind might have been in the air. I let myself hope that night as I might possibly have stirred his memory even though the faintest echo of his old mind might have been in the air.

sure, whose twinkling eyes were in violent contrast with his thin-lipped, grave, determined mouth.

"Dr. Massey's orders were that for twelve hours no one should be admitted to the room," was his unanswerable rejoinder.

"Which means not until after five o'clock, this evening?"

"Exactly, sir. But I shall report to you everything he says as nearly as possible in his own words."

"Very well," I said. "I shall spend the day here." My tone conveyed dismissal and I felt it still smacked of annoyance. Mr. Bryan, however, gave no sign of resentment. His eyes were still kindly merry, his mouth still inspired reliance. He turned towards the door, saying:

"I'll probably sleep four hours at least, Mr. Clyde. If you wish to go out, there's no reason why you shouldn't."

I meant to reply. My lips were already framing a sentence, when a faint knock checked me.

Evelyn Grayson was standing in the doorway. She wore a clinging house gown of pale blue, cut low at the throat, and bordered with a deep collar of Irish lace. The rose flush of youth and health tinted the cream of her complexion and a shaft of sunlight from a near window made a glittering golden nimbus of her hair. With wide, startled eyes she was gazing at Bryan, or to be more exact, at the snowy linen duck in which he was clad, and which must have held for her a perplexing significance.

The nurse had halted, deferentially standing aside at sight of the girl whose young beauty seemed to dazzle him.

For a moment the stillness and silence were absolute. Then Evelyn turning her gaze upon me advanced quickly, with a little questioning cry:

"Philip?"

"You're surprised to find me here."

I interpreted, with hands outstretched.

"And to—" she began, laying her fingers against my palms.

"To find a nurse here, as well."

I finished for her. "Let me introduce Mr. Bryan."

"But when I would have presented him he had already gone."

"But who is ill?" she questioned in nervous haste. "What?"

"It were well, I thought, to have the revelation over and done with as speedily as possible."

"Your uncle, I brought him home at two o'clock this morning."

I do not know what I expected, but I am sure I was not prepared for what ensued. Her fingers, suddenly releasing themselves from my hand, burst into a passion of sobs. In vain I made efforts to comfort and quiet her. She became hysterical. She laughed and cried by turns, and the I, making bold to regard her as a sorrowing child rather than the woman she was, held her close and murmured all the soothing, encouraging words and phrases I could conjure.

"I am so glad," she whispered at last, her big liquid blue eyes swimming, her fair face wet with the torrent of her emotion. "I am so happy."

Presently I placed her in a great, cavernous leather chair, and lent her my handkerchief—washed, indeed—to remove the evidences of her tumultuous joy. After which I sat down opposite her and answered a hundred questions, still marveling at the contrast of the feminine's permanent which defies disaster, dried and over good tidings is like the blue of tears.

Evelyn's emotions alone considered, it was, therefore, just as well that Cameron had not returned robust and at ease. Her unrestrained emotion might have resulted in nervous breakdown. As it was, the mere fact that he was weak and a trifle dishevelled, which was the mildly equivocal way in which I softened the truth for her—had for her fortitude the revivifying potency of a tonic. It so balanced her joy with anxiety, that she grew strong in surprisingly short space.

"I do not see why a nurse is at all necessary," she objected, at once. "I shall nurse him, myself. Louis and I can do everything that is required."

"But Dr. Massey—" I began, when upon she interrupted me.

"Dr. Massey probably thinks I am a foolish, frivolous child. I shall nurse Uncle Robert even if I have to dismiss Dr. Massey and get another physician."

There was nothing to be gained by opposing her at this time, so I held my non-committal peace, doubting, nevertheless, the practicability of her proposition. But to her next proposal I must needs interpose the obstructive truth.

"Come," she commanded, brushing back from her temples with both hands the encroaching golden hair, with the gesture of one who prepares for conquest, sitting erect, as it were, the last clinging vestiges of her own youth.

"Come, let us go to see him."

"I will wait until you are ready."

To be Continued.

INDUSTRIES ACTIVE IN MARITIME PROVINCES

Important Factor in Industrial Development—Great Progress in Recent Years

Canadians are not generally aware of the fact that the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia contain within their borders nearly one-quarter of Canada's cotton mills, and about an equal percentage of the total spindles and looms in operation in Canada. These mills are situated at Halifax, Moncton, Milltown, N.B., Maryville, N.B. and Yarmouth, N.S.

The Canadian Cottons, Ltd., are adding 10,000 spindles and 200 looms to their Gibson mill at Maryville. The Cosmopolitan Cotton Co., at Yarmouth, is being doubled to take care of the increased duck importations.

These mills are important factors in the life of the communities in which they are situated. They afford steady employment in well lighted and ventilated factories for practically all the hands that are available, and very often they are unable to obtain the requisite help.

One of the most satisfactory features of the trade policy which Canada has followed for the last thirty years is the distribution of industrial plants throughout the whole country.

The circulation of the woolly roll is not confined to the merchants of the larger cities and the farmers in the country surrounding them. Instead we find the villages and small towns sharing in the prosperity which results from home manufacture. If we can imagine any of the cotton industries which are a part of our organized factory means to a town. Not only those who are directly interested in the cotton industry, whether as employers or employees, but all those with whom they spend their money, that is the merchants and the farmers and others in the district should give serious study to the proposal to increase the British Preference.

Obviously the intention of those behind this proposal is to increase the import of British and foreign cottons, and it follows that the more cotton there is imported the less there is for the Canadian mills to make and the less they make the fewer employees they will require. It is doubtful whether any one residing in a prosperous factory town would support a proposal which would diminish the production of the town's mainstay.

SKATING CARNIVAL HELD WEDNESDAY

Masquerade at Skating Rink Brings Out Goodly Number of Skaters

On Wednesday evening, the first carnival of the season was held at the skating rink with a very large attendance. Viewed from the gallery, the skaters presented a gay appearance, many new and striking costumes being worn by the maskers, and the spectators who were out in large numbers had much to interest and amuse them.

We regret we are unable to give all the names and characters represented on the ice, very few of the maskers handing in this information to the attendant at the rink.

Mr. P. H. Blyth and Mr. J. C. Cameron acted as judges, and the four prizes given by the management were awarded as follows:

Best Dressed Lady, Mrs. Thos. Matheson as "Sunflower";
Best Dressed Gentleman, Mr. R. V. Murray as "George III";
Most Original, Wallace Henry as "The Witch";
Best Children's Costume, Frank Isaacs as "Indian Boy".

Among the others taking part were: Miss Florence LeBlanc, Queen of Flowers.

Frances Lanigan, Snow Shoe Girl; Hazel Alford, Fisher Lass; Irene Crawford, Bat; Isabel McBeath, Some Glass; Katie LeBlanc, Yama Yama; Avis Miller, Gipsy; Onor Boulet, Old Time Flower Girl.

Ethel Baird, Snow Glass; Clair Mowat, Red, White and Blue; Edna Farrar, Mexican Maid; Mr. Russell Dobson, Loco Engineer; John Cool, Clown.

SYDNEY'S GROWTH

Enormous Development Along Lines of Manufacturing

Details of the census of Canada for 1911, relating to manufactures, show that the percentage of increase in the value of products in Sydney is the highest of any manufacturing centre in the East. In fact no manufacturing centre that figures in the census of 1890 surpasses the growth of Sydney in the last twenty years.

We thus see what the development of a basic industry, such as iron and steel, will do for not only the community in which it is situated but for the surrounding country and in fact the whole province.

Under the reasonable policy of encouragement for manufacturers, which has prevailed in the last twenty years, the value of products manufactured in Sydney has grown from $225,000 in 1890 to $2,225,000 in 1911. There has, of course, been a corresponding increase in the number of workers and the wages they received. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have passed over the country since the opening of the Sydney and the surrounding country during the last twenty years that would have been expended in the United States had Great Britain and Canada not been wise enough to encourage the manufacture of iron and steel.

DEAD FROM EXPOSURE AND INTOXICATION

John Cuddeby of St. John's Newfoundland, Found Dying Near New Mills

Last Thursday, a man named John Cuddeby, about 15 years of age, was found dying by John McAllister lying in the bushes, beside the I. G. R. track near New Mills. He was well dressed and a square face about half full of gin was found on him. He was alive when discovered by Mr. McAllister, but expired shortly afterwards from it is presumed intoxication and exposure, as he must have been lying out all the night.
