system he employs. At one stroke the rebels in Canada have been placed on their guard, and the British government has been furnished with a ready-made cause for complaint.

"If the British Government furnished a ship which has taken Mason and Sidel to 'Davy Jones' Locker,' will not the United States have a right to demand indemnity? After their return to the country, we had calculated upon their being served 'as the other leaders should be hanging up the neck'—Rechercher Democrat.

The Northern journalists do infinite harm to their cause by the insertion of such paragraphs. They show a malevolent and blood-thirsty spirit unworthy, not merely of public teachers, but even of ordinary humanity. We should expect to hear of hanging the rebels in barrooms and such places, but to parade them in respectable newspapers is outrageous. The Democrat knows very well that Mr. Lincoln does not hang a rebel now, and that if the insurance were put down the North would be only too glad to buy-gone be by-gones and grant a general amnesty. It may be that we shall have to see Jeff Davis again in Faneuil Hall, exchanging compliments with Mr. Everett, and telling how well the South likes the progress of emancipation.—Globe.

On reconsideration of our position in New England in the event of hostilities breaking out, government has determined to try the experiment of transporting horses across the Atlantic to a limited extent. The Mauritius is at present fitted up for 46 horses, and is at this moment embarking at Cork the gunhorses of a battery of the 8th Cavalry. The Calcutta, which is also fitted up for 46 horses of Captain Smyth's battery of the 4th brigade. In the event of the experiment succeeding, the guns at any rate, with the officers and non-commissioned officers, can be brought into action, and the remaining and less important horses of the wagons can be more easily provided.—Army and Navy Gazette.

Mr. James Morton M.P.P. for Frontenac has been suffering severely for the past few days, under an attack of influenza. On Tuesday last, Mr. Morton was in a very critical condition, but we are happy to announce that he is now convalescent, and will be able to occupy his seat in the House on the assembly of Parliament.

A Washington paper says that a Massachusetts Colonel was attacked on Thursday night by a fit of imaginary rattlesnakes in his boots and had his sword taken away from him on Friday.

The Right Rev. Dr. Lewis, Bishop elect of the Diocese of Ontario, has taken up his residence in the city of Kingston, and now lives in the mansion known as Alvington House, formerly the residence of Lord Sydenham, and more recently the abode of the Baron de Longueuil.

The price of Pork in Montreal is lower than it has been for eighteen years, a grievous loss for farmers, arising from the war between North and South, which shuts Western Canada out of the Slave States and de-luges Canada and Europe with its surplus.

In the large aristocratic uptown houses of New York, where the salaries are $5,000 or $6,000 per year and the aggregate expenses nearly double this amount, there is financial distress. Most of the peo-holders are men of reputed wealth, but the failures and losses of the war exert a powerful influence, and fearfully cripple their resources.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—Before the death of Prince Consort it had been arranged that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was to spend some months of the winter in the Levant and Syria, visiting, of course, Malta and Corfu on his way. We understand that the programme will be adhered to, notwithstanding the most melancholy event which has occurred, and his royal highness will shortly leave for the East, returning in time to take part in the opening of the Great Exhibition.

A statue of Esculapius has been unearthed near Tivoli. It is said to be a masterpiece of sculpture, and when discovered only an arm was wanting, and this limb was subsequently found.

The Fiji Island Pastoral Agricultural, and Commercial Company have purchased the island of Kila, which has three good harbors and 15,000 square miles of land. It produces cotton nearly equal to good American, arrowroot, coconuts, tobacco and building wood. There are only 60 natives on the island, whose labor will be useful to the company. Portions of several of the Fiji Islands are already occupied by Europeans, and preparations are making by them for stocking their settlements with sheep and to undertake cotton growing.

The Court of Russia has just gone into mourning for twelve days, and the ball to be given on the occasion of the fête day of the Hereditary Grand Duke has been postponed in consequence of the Prince Consort of England.

THE LANGUAGES SPOKEN IN RED RIVER.—There is a curious confusion of tongues in this Settlement. A stranger visiting this country is struck with the variety of our dialects, no less than with the variety of race. For such a secluded, isolated community, with little or no intermingling of foreigners, immigration, one would naturally expect to find us characterized by uniformity in language, customs and manners, race &c. How different is the actual case! As to language, we have English, French, Gaelic, Chippewa and Cree, and we do not enumerate all, but only those spoken by a large section of the community.—Nor-West.

INHABITANTS OF THE OCEAN.—Take up a pinch of the soil over which lies 2,500 fathoms of seawater, submit to the microscope and behold! though it looks and feels like fine clay, it does not contain one particle of sand, earth or gravel. Every atom under the lens tells of life and living things; the bed of the Atlantic is strewn with the bones and shells of the myriads of creatures inhabiting its waters—creatures so numerous that figures fail to convey an idea, or the mind to embrace their vast profusion. The navigator traversing the blue sea sails for five days in a fleet ship through waters so thickly covered with small pulpy sea nettles, or medusæ, that it looks to him like a boundless meadow in yellow leaf. The savant, following on his trail, places a single one of these blubbers in a lens, and in one of its nine stomachs finds 70,000 tiny shells of microscopic diatomaceæ, one of the many animals of the sea. Thus each creature in these thousand square leagues of medusæ was sucking from the sea millions of these diminutive creatures, and getting their shells to fall in a gentle yet powerful shower down to the bed of the ocean, and there in time form strata of silicious or chalky matter, for future geologists to ponder over. And remember that upon all these medusæ prey legions of bigger creatures, and that in these helpless colonies lies the huge whale with cavernous mouth and gushy blow, as many of them as every feast as they do of the minute diatomaceæ.—Blackwood's Magazine.

SHOCKING AFFAIR—A WIFE ACCIDENTALLY SHOT DEAD BY HER HUSBAND.

A correspondent informs us that on the forenoon of Saturday last, at their residence on the Varra and bayfield gravel road, in the township of Stanley, a dreadful calamity suddenly befell the family of Mr. Joseph O'way, an old and respected resident, resulting in the violent death of his daughter-in-law, a smart active woman of about 30 years of age, and the mother of 5 children, the youngest of whom is only one year old. It appears that her husband, on hearing that a deer was feeding in his fallow, hastily took his rifle from its usual place, and was rushing with it out of the house, when his sleaze or some other part of his clothing got entangled by the door handle—causing the hammer to descend, when the rifle instantly went off, discharging the ball and part of the ramrod into the breast of his unfortunate wife. The ball having penetrated the heart, she instantly dropped dead, while streams of blood gushed from the wound over the floor. The husband is of course inconsolable. The event is a fearful warning to every one holding fire-arms, to use the great care caution.

IS THE BLOCKADE EFFECTIVE?

The Montreal Transcript, speaking of Mr. Seward's notice of U. S. Consuls in Canada, doing the duty of Federal spies, makes the following proper remarks:—"The duty of Consul is purely that of a commercial agent, with a commission to watch over the commercial rights and privileges of the nation deputed him. If he transgresses that line, it is sufficient reason why the Government to which he is deputed should withdraw its sanction for his execution of the ordinary duties of his office, in other words, should cause his diplomatic functions to be terminated. He has no diplomatic functions whatever to perform, and he is expressly forbidden to participate in any manner whatever, direct or indirect, in the political concerns of the countries by whose Governments they are severally acknowledged and recognized in their public placemats. The President of Mr. Seward affords strong ground for a representation on this subject, and a disavowal by our Government of any such acts of espionage as appear to have been committed by the United States Government."

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE GEN. MONTGOMERY.—On Saturday night, Captain Chapman and Henry of Col. Hays's 63d Pennsylvania regiment, returning from Washington in a state of intoxication, naturally fell into a street disturbance in Alexandria, which attracted a crowd. Gen. Montgomery, the military governor of the city, intervened, the captains abused him violently, and he ordered their arrest. Mr. Henry pulled out his revolver, and shot at the general twice, but fortunately missed him. The arrest was made without a struggle, during which Mr. Henry was bayoneted in the left breast by one of the guard. The wound is not serious. Both officers were handcuffed and confined.

At Utica on Sunday afternoon, an Irishman named James O'Connell, who was married, and then killed himself. He first knocked his wife over, cut her throat with a razor, and then cut his own throat with the same weapon. Two children—a girl aged 9 years, and a boy aged 8, are orphaned by these deeds of blood. Dunn was drunk.

The work of building the "Temple of the Lord," at Great Salt Lake City, suspended by the crisis of 1858, has been resumed. The Desert News goes into raptures over it—avers that "the continued noise made by the many hammers by their hammers and chisels is pleasing to the ear, and looks forward to the day when this saintly edifice 'on the top of the mountains' will be completed, and 'heralded to the ends of the earth.'"

By the way of Port Royal we have a confirmation of the report previously received of a federal vessel firing into a French cruiser the mouth of the Mississippi. The U. S. steamer De Soto arrived at ship Island and the French steamer Milan, disabled in tow, the De Soto having run in to her at mouth of Mississippi, on account of her acting in a suspicious manner. It was proved, that the Milan was not a rebel vessel, but that she was a French vessel, and that the United States authorities to ascend the river and take on board several families desirous of leaving for Europe. Mr. Seward's fancy will have to be prompt with his amende. This rough usage of the part of independent Captains, a de Captain Wilson, was the cause of the Washington government.

Letters from Hayti speak of the late plot to overthrow the present government of Hayti to have been of a more extensive character than at first reported. Two of General's own Ministers were involved in the head of the Department of Agriculture, and that of Police. It was the intention of the conspirators to place the latter at the head of the government. Both Ministers fled to Jamaica upon the discovery of the plot. The trouble is about colored men, who are being uneasy under the rule of the mulattoes, though Gelfard, the President, is a black.

There is such an amount of dampness and mud at Washington that a person cannot walk or ride in the street without being bespattered. The secretaries of Virginia admit the wheels of wagons to the hub, and as the roads have not been protected by logs, it is almost impossible to carry on transportation to any extent. People who have seen the state of the roads shake their heads incredulously when the probability of an advance of the army there is mentioned.

A purse containing fifty dollars was presented to Rev. Wm. Bleasdel, of Trenton, on New Year's morning by the ladies of his congregation, along with a complimentary address.

An elevator, worked by a steam engine, has been erected at Portland, and is now in operation loading vessels with grain brought by the Grand Trunk Railway, which is discharged by the cars into a bin for that purpose.

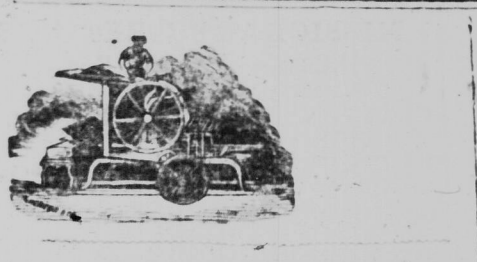

Early on the morning of Thursday, the 9th inst., the premises of Mrs. Leggett, widow of the late Joseph Leggett, of Mar-mora, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $2,000, upon which there is no insurance.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.
(From the Chicago Tribune.)

That advantage will be taken of irritation which the blustering of the Canadians has excited in this country, to attempt the adoption of the Reciprocity Treaty, is already indicated by the tone of the journals hostile to that measure. But we trust that the members of Congress from all the Lake country, which is peculiarly interested in the maintenance of unrestricted commercial intercourse with the British provinces, will suffer themselves to forget their two to their constituents in the clamor which other interests are endeavoring to excite. We put out of sight altogether, though they play an important part in the business of the West, all advantages which accrue to the Lake region by a free interchange of products with our Canadian neighbors, and consider our readers to the one fact, which, in the West, should be conclusive: The St. Lawrence route to the ocean, now, by the operation of the Reciprocity Treaty, open to every vessel of western grain to a market, full two cents per bushel in Canada, and all twenty cents per bushel in the United States, would be compelled to seek the already over-crowded Erie Canal, and in addition to the loss and vexatious delays incident to accumulations of freight, we should probably be called upon to bear an increase of tolls, which the short-sighted policy of New York would not permit us to evade. We cannot afford to pay the tax which such a calamity would entail upon our industry; and we have no patience with and are not inclined to submit to the policy which Buffalo warehouse men, transportation agents, bankers, commission merchants, and others who now live on Western products, are so ready to advocate. It is a war measure, or if for any cause grown out of our relations with Great Britain and her colonies, it is necessary to abrogate the treaty, the West will make no complaint; but when asked to give up a considerable fraction of the small price now gotten for corn, or wheat, or any other article, in order to secure a reduction of the present market rates of four cents, for the gratification of international spite, or to put money in the pockets of any interest in New York, the West will make a protest that the whole country will be sure to hear.

Luckily, though notice may be given now, the treaty is not yet adopted, and cannot be had until 1864. It is a work to which we commend them. Let them see, as a preliminary step, the new tariff which Canada has enacted, and in other commercial arrangements, there is not reason for amendment and improving the bargain into which the United States have entered. The Canadian complaint may be removed, other articles may be taken from or added to the free list, and details may be perfected by agreement, and without touching the point in the maintenance of which the West is vitally concerned. But let it be all the while remembered that the free navigation of the St. Lawrence, Mississippi from St. Anthony to Balize, and that it cannot be destroyed without creating in the most loyal part of our country a feeling of dissatisfaction exceedingly hurtful to the general well.

NATIONAL RIFLE MATCH.—Arrangements have been made for an annual rifle match between the volunteers of England and Scotland. The prize is a splendid shield, presented by Lord Elcho, and the country which gains it will have the honor of retaining it for one year. The successful champions have been engraved on the trophy. The first match will take place at the meeting of the National Rifle Association, at Wimbledon in 1862, the competitors on each side being eight in number. FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!!!
FARMERS AND OTHERS,
IF you want to protect your BUILDINGS AND FAMILIES from injury or harm by Lightning, secure immediately PROFESSOR MORSE'S LARGE SIZE TWISTED RODS with platinum points and PATENT INSULATORS, which are warranted to be a perfect protection against injury from Lightning.
As some buildings have been struck and lost by Lightning with Rods on, many falsely contend that they are no protection, without considering the Size of the Rods, the kind of insulators and the imperfect way they are put up. Take an imperfect ELECTRIC MACHINE without good insulators and it will not work, neither will the Magnetic Telegraph operate correctly if any part of it is not properly put together. And so it is with Lightning Rods. Get the small cheap Rods and inferior points and insulators, and your building will be sure to be struck by lightning, as they will attract the electricity but are not sufficient to carry it away. But if you want your buildings protected, call on the Subscriber for PROFESSOR MORSE'S LATEST PATENT INSULATORS AND POINTS, and the large TWISTED RODS, and your buildings will never be struck by lightning. ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
WM. EDGAR,
Smith's Falls, 29th July 1861.
