

LORD ROBERTS REVIEWS 7TH SAYS BRIGADE SPLENDID ONE

Hero of Kandahar Compliments Brigadier Little on Fine Showing of Command—"Bobs" May Pay Brief Visit to London—Col. Young Hurt in Fall From Horse.

[From Our Own Man.]

Quebec, July 21.—The Seventh Regiment, of London, was this morning reviewed by Lord Roberts. With the famous general was Earl Grey, governor-general of Canada, Gen. Otter, commander-in-chief of militia forces, and a distinguished entourage of officers.

The First Brigade, under Brigadier Little, of London, lined up on an immense field, which lies to the north of the camp grounds.

All morning the Seventh (London), Thirtieth (Hamilton), Twenty-first (Essex) and Ninety-first (Hamilton Highlanders) paraded and drilled, for it had been tipped off to the officers that "Bobs" was coming.

A Magnificent Spectacle.

All other divisions, four in all, also paraded on different grounds, though separated only by rail fences. The spectacle was the most magnificent ever witnessed in Canada, and the men massed on the field, made the greatest army of Canadian soldiers ever assembled. Away to the north, the Laurentian Mountains formed a fitting background for a host of brilliantly-uniformed infantrymen, cavalrymen, artillerymen, red coats, khaki trousers and kilts. Thousands of horses were in the review, thousands of bayonets glistened in the July sun; scores of pieces of artillery rattled hither and thither.

"Bobs" Arrives.

Far away to the left, a cry went up of "Bobs," and instantly the entire cavalry brigade sent up a cheer that shook the hills. Lord Roberts remained only a minute or so, and then galloped to the lines of the First Brigade. Brigadier Little had the men drawn up with magnificent precision. The first to the right, then the Seventh, the Twenty-first Essex, and finally Ninety-first Highlanders. The hero of Kandahar rode with Brigadier Little at his right along the lines of men minutely inspecting the ranks. At the conclusion of the ride he said: "There is a good division. Where does it come from?"

"Western Ontario," replied Brigadier Little, with a touch of pride. "What regiments compose it?" Brigadier Little told him.

"It is a good one," Lord Roberts said. "It is credit to you." The brigadier then called for three cheers for Lord Roberts, and they were given with a vim.

"Bobs" May Come Here.

It is unofficially stated that "Bobs" has consented to visit London for two hours on Saturday of Old Boy week unless an unforeseen contingency arises. It is understood that he told Col. Denison he would like to visit London if possible, but the visit must be brief. Sir John Carling has been in communication with the Governor-General and Gen. Otter in an effort to get "Bobs" to go to London.

A Fine Horseman.

Lord Roberts is quite stout now, and looks remarkably well. He rides his horse with head on chest, Napoleonic-like, and sits like a statue. With him is the Duke of Norfolk, world-famed as the most influential Roman Catholic in the British Empire. Norfolk spends much time at Chateau Frontenac, but "Bobs" sticks pretty well to the citadel, where his quarters are.

Mayor Stevelly Here.

Mayor Stevelly and ex-Mayor Judd, of London, visited the British warship Exmouth yesterday, and were shown over the battleship.

The guns of the fort are constantly booming, as officers visit each other.

Col. Young Hurt.

Col. Young, formerly of London, was slightly hurt by a fall from his horse in the camp grounds today.

Brigadier Little this morning placed Bandmaster Ruthven, of the Twenty-first Essex Fusiliers, under arrest. He had ordered the band to cease playing, but the musicians kept right on, despite the order.

In a few minutes, though, Col. Little allowed the bandmaster to go, strongly reprimanding him. The health of the Seventh Regiment remains good. The weather is warm and the men are comfortable at night. The food is excellent, and the grounds dry. The water, however, is warm and unpalatable. Orders appear to have changed re the prince's arrival. The Seventh, Thirtieth and Forty-eighth will send pickets for guards, but on different days. The Seventh will line the streets tomorrow and Friday.

All Ship-Shape for the Tournay Best Bowlers Will Be on Hand

Entry List a Large One and Personnel Assures Fine Contests.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual bowling tournament of the Western Ontario Bowling Association, and Secretary James D. Tylor looks forward to the best the association has yet had.

The entry list is already a large one, and they are coming in with every mail. Several new clubs have entered, and nearly all the old ones have come through with rinks.

The list will close on Saturday at 6 p.m., and the draw will be made immediately afterward.

Some Notable Entries.

Among the entries so far received are those of former Labatt trophy winners. Jimmy McDougall, last year's champion, will skip the same rink in the tournament, and it will be the ambition of this great four to repeat its victory of last year. This has never happened in the history of the association, but it may happen this time.

It is expected that Skip W. B. Smith, of Toronto, winner of the Niagara tournament, will be along with his rink. "Bill" Smith is always in the running at the W. O. B. A., and should do well this year. He was defeated in the finals by Dr. Del Marr three years ago, and the next year won the consolation.

It is certain that Skip Willison, of Toronto, winner of the Association in the Niagara tournament, will be along with a strong rink. Dr. Hawke and the famous Rennie will also be here, and should put up a game struggle.

Ed. Seagram, of Waterloo, winner two years ago, will be back again, and so will Dr. Del Marr, of Ridgeway, winner three years ago. The latter will be without the assistance of his famous third, Pete Bawden, who is in England with the tourists. Pete was first vice-president of the W. O. B. A., and would have been this year. The honor will probably go to Mr. J. C. Waddell, of Petrolia, the present second vice-president. He is a bowler of the best sort, and will do the honors.

President Davis, of Goderich, will give his personal attention to this tournament.

Bill Jackson, of Clinton, a former winner, will join down with a good bunch of trundlers.

Dick Gossnell, of Blenheim, champion near-champion of the association, will be here it is expected. Dick is one of the best.

The local committee, James D. Tylor, Ned Weld, Jimmie McDougall, and the others, have everything in good shape, and the coming tournament should be the best in the history of the association.

Bath Pond Free for the Children

The sulphur baths swimming pond will be open for girls, free of charge on Friday next, from 9 o'clock until 1 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained from Mr. McGuire at the playgrounds on Gerry's Flats by all those who wish to take advantage of this offer.

The Playgrounds Association have also arranged with Mr. Butterworth to present also.

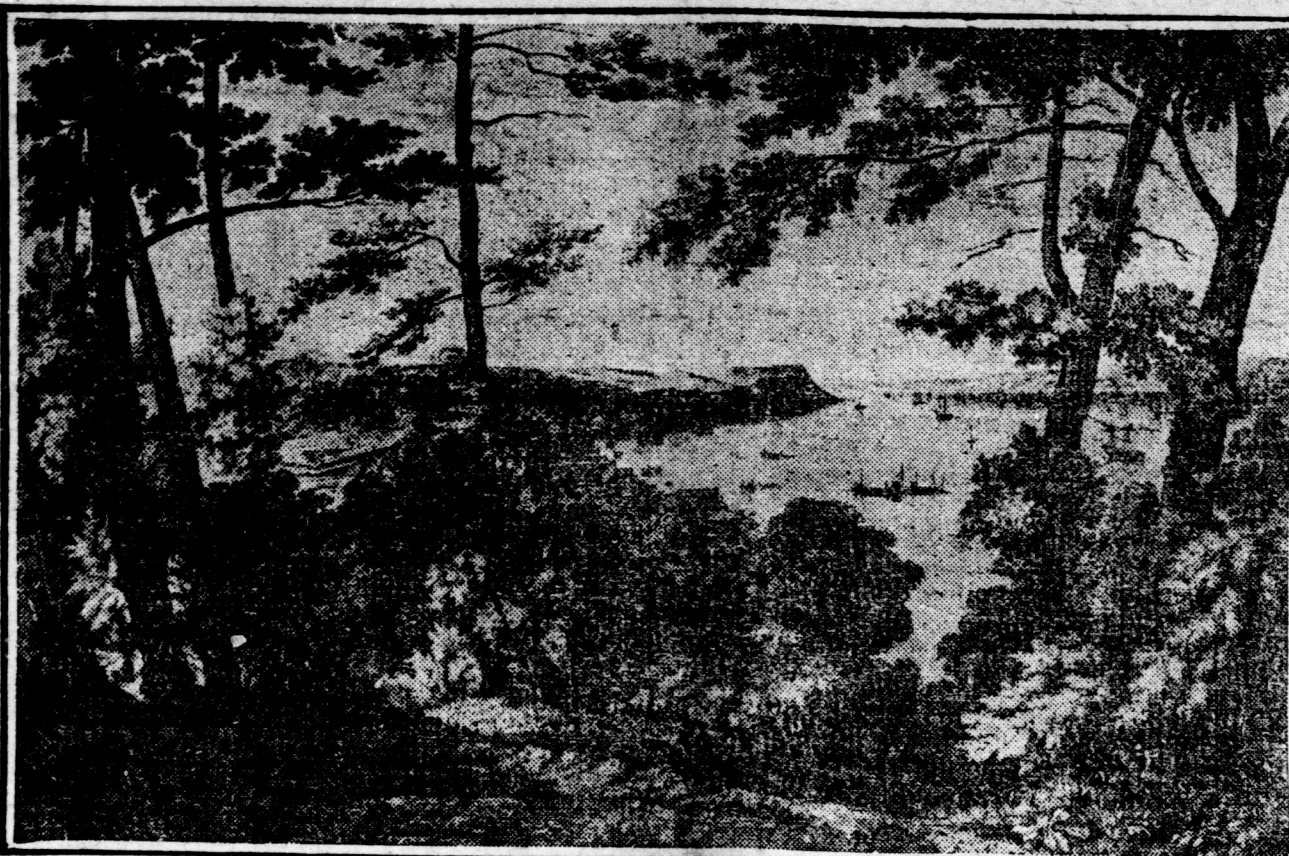

Beware of the Clothesline Thieves

A gang of clothesline thieves have been busily operating in South London for several nights, and numerous reports are being received at the police station regarding articles of wearing apparel that have been stolen. Many persons have gone to bed and be present and teach the girls how to swim. This is an opportunity not to be despised and it is thought that a large number of girls will take advantage of this and learn how to swim, a very necessary accomplishment these days.

The baths will be open to the boys on Wednesday morning. It is possible that Mr. Butterworth will be left a whole line of washing on the line only to find in the morning that it has all disappeared. The thefts are confined to any particular neighborhood, but seem to be general, and the police are going to make a special effort to locate the offenders.

KERR, CANADIAN WON HIS HEAT

Beating the American Crack Runner in 200-Metre Flat Race.

London, July 21.—There are only two finals on today's programme of the field and track events in the Olympic games at the stadium, the running high jump and the 800 metres flat race. While both of these events will create some interest, there are some heats to be run off, the results of which are more eagerly awaited, notably the semi-finals in the 100 metres dash and the 400 metres hurdles.

The morning, which is somewhat clearer than previous days, saw the commencement of the running jump, and the heats of the first round of the 200 metres flat race. As there are fifteen heats in the latter event, there was little time for anything else, but the committee managed to get in the third heat of the high diving contest.

200-Metre Race. Kerr, of Canada, who was more feared by the United States sprinters than any other foreign competitor, carried off his heat in the 200 metres flat race today, defeating W. W. May, University of Illinois, one of the best men on the American team. It was a good race, May pushing Kerr right up to the tape.

George, United Kingdom, won the first heat of the 200 metres dash in the Olympic games today, beating Henney, Holland, the only other competitor. Time, 23.2-5 seconds.

IGNORED SUMMONS

Ingersoll Member of Regiment Gets Into Trouble.

Ingersoll, July 21.—Magistrate Morrison sentenced Elijah Titus, of Centreville, to six months in the Central Prison, because he ignored a summons to appear in the police court.

Preliminary steps for the formation of a mounted infantry regiment in Oxford and Waterloo counties have been taken. The organization of the regiment will mean two squadrons in Oxford County, and one in Waterloo. For this town, which will be the headquarters of the South Oxford squadron. The present information seems to indicate that Mr. T. R. Mayberry, M. P. P., will be appointed major of the South Oxford squadron, while the name of Mr. W. A. Edgar is associated with the captaincy.

WEATHER NOTES.

The low area which was centred in Northern Manitoba yesterday has moved to Lake Superior with diminished energy, while the small depression which was over Misouri has moved directly towards Lakes Erie and Manitoba, and is now giving a general rain in Southern Ontario. The weather is fair and moderately warm in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, and fine and very warm throughout the West.

Harks Back 300 Years Pageant in Full Swing

Ancient Capital Is Picturesque With Old-Time Ways and Costumes.

Quebec, July 20.—The Champlain Tercentenary celebration every day assumes greater proportions. The incidental spectacle on the streets of Quebec today is one that in picturesqueness could not be duplicated anywhere. Thousands of people dressed in modern summer garb, hundreds of clerics of various orders, men in uniform representing every section of the Canadian militia, Jack Tars of the three great navies participants in what are to be the great spectacular features of the celebration, all lend to the most beautiful of the North American cities the attractiveness of a vivid life which moderns associate with the Middle Ages.

The great event of the day was the arrival of the Mounted Heralds-at-Arms and Men of the Watch, one of the conceptions of Mr. Frank Lascelles, who is in charge of the general picture. Mr. Lascelles is the man who put on the Oxford pageant last year and who goes to the City of London for the historic commemoration of that city next year. Considering the limited means at his disposal, this spectacle here is a remarkable one. In using the word limited, one does not mean that the matter of funds is involved, but the assistance and properities necessary are very difficult to secure; for instance, this afternoon Mr. Lascelles had to appeal to the military authorities for one hundred and fifty horses, which he could not obtain elsewhere, and which are promised him.

The stupendous character of the spectacle may be realized when it is explained that to move one great sheet of canvas painted blue, and representing the floor of the court of Francis the First, fifty Jack Tars were required. (Continued on Page Nine.)

CATTLE EMBARGO WILL CONTINUE

A Straight Statement That the British Government Will Not Remove It.

London, July 20.—Sir Edward Strachey, member of Parliament for the South Division of Somerset and representative of the board of agriculture in the House of Commons, dashed the hopes of those who had advocated the importation of Canadian cattle by Commons this afternoon that the Government had no present intention of proposing legislation removing the prohibition of such importation. The Irish party in the Commons are to a man opposed to any removal of the embargo, and all stand together in vigorous opposition to any attempt to raise it. They say it would involve Ireland in bankruptcy.

END OF RELAY RACE NEW YORK TO CHICAGO

Arrived at the Windy City at 9:30 a.m. Today.

Chicago, July 21.—The Y. M. C. A. messengers, bearing word from Mayor McClellan of New York to Mayor Busse of Chicago, reached the city hall here at 9:30 a.m. today.

BURGULARS BUSY

Gang Operating at Sandwich—Three Places Entered.

Walkerville, Ont., July 21.—The provincial police are looking for a gang of burglars, who have been operating in this vicinity recently. The police have received reports that three places in Sandwich East, above here, were entered in one night, the burglars getting about $30 in stamps from Charles Montreuil's hotel, the offices of the McGregor-Banwell Fence Company, and the office of the Crounman Coal Company.

PHONE COMPETITION

Another Company Seeks Entrance to Chatham.

Chatham, Ont., July 21.—Still another independent telephone company is seeking an entrance into this city. Neil Watson's Ridgeway and Mull companies is said to be ready to compete with the Blenheim and South Harwich companies. Both are fighting the Bell company in the rural districts.

MASKED ROBBERS WERE OUTWITTED

Plucky Cashier Foiled the Six Crooks, Who Finally Ran Away.

Ada, O., July 21.—Six masked men rode into this place late last night and attempted to rob the local bank. With three of the gang waited near the bank building, the other three went to the home of Cashier Myers, and arousing him, compelled him to go to the bank with them.

They attempted to compel Myers to open the safe. The cashier, however, was equipped with a time lock, and so it could not be opened. Thereupon two of the members took Myers to a nearby woods and tied him up, the other four men remaining at the bank to blow the safe.

Myers, however, managed to escape from his captors, and promptly turned in a fire alarm, arousing the citizens. The crooks jumped on their horses and galloped out of town. They were pursued for some distance, but finally escaped in the darkness.

Bloodhounds will be placed on their trail. The robbers did not succeed in opening the safe.

NOT THE NOTORIOUS RUSSIAN ADMIRAL

It Was Another Rojstevsky Who Died in Germany.

Berlin, July 21.—The announcement made yesterday from Bad Nauheim, Germany, that Vice-Admiral Rojstevsky, who commanded the ill-fated Russian fleet that was annihilated by the Japanese in the battle of the Sea of Japan in May, 1905, had died there the night of July 19 from heart trouble, is incorrect.

A Russian named Rojstevsky did die at Bad Nauheim, but he was not the admiral.

Ante-Mortem Comment.

The papers of St. Petersburg commented uncharitably on the reported death of Vice-Admiral Rojstevsky. The Reich says that although acquitted by the courtmartial he was condemned by public opinion as one of the guilty naval officers who personally contributed to the Russian naval disaster in the Sea of Japan years before it occurred. At the notorious manoeuvres off Revel in the presence of the German Emperor, Rojstevsky's fleet, this paper declares, attained brilliant firing averages by means of fraudulent targets, and later as chief of the naval staff he superintended the building of worthless battleships of the Borodomo type, which were an easy prey to the enemy—the Japanese fire sank the Borodomo in twenty minutes.

Thunder Clap Assists a Murderer Crash Deadens Sound of Shots

A Widow the Victim—Bullets Miss Daughter—Slayer Steals $2,300.

Hackensack, N. J., July 21.—Mrs. Ottillie Eberhard, widow of a well-to-do Viennese merchant, who arrived in this country with her daughter on Thursday to live in New York, was murdered and robbed of $2,300 in a lonesome spot on the tracks of the New York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad, near Rochelle Park, two miles west of Hackensack, late Saturday night.

Daughter Narrowly Escapes.

Ottillie Eberhard, the 20-year-old daughter, who was with her mother, narrowly escaped death also, four shots having been fired at her, one passing through the rim of her straw hat, another so close to her head that it scorched her right eye, another grazing and breaking the skin on her left shoulder and the fourth bullet having flattened itself on one of her corsets stays in the middle of her back. The police are looking for Augustus Eberhard, nephew of the dead woman. (Continued on Page Two.)

Ignored a Summons to Court And Spends Night in a Cell

A Citizen Smartly Punished for Contempt of Court.

The next time that Mr. Henry Hornby gets a summons to appear in the police court as a witness, he will probably not treat it with the same contempt that he did the last one. Mr. Hornby was summoned to appear in court last Saturday morning as a witness in the case of abusive language laid by Conductor Hanna, of the London street railway, against George Lewis. Mr. Hornby evidently did not think it was worth while, and did not put in an appearance. He was arrested last evening and spent the night in the cells. When he appeared before Magistrate Love this morning he was in a very penitent mood and apologized profusely to the court for not obeying the summons. Hornby promised never to be guilty of such an offence again and Magistrate Love very kindly allowed him to go instead of giving him the penalty allowed by the law.

Fire Engine Boiler Stands Test Steams Quickly and Good Stream

Official Trial Made Before Chief and City Representatives Yesterday.

The official test of the new boiler in the fire engine was conducted yesterday afternoon by Chief Clark and his men in the presence of Ald. Greenlees, chairman of No. 3 committee, Ald. Booth and Mr. Hugh Cameron, representative of the Watrous Engine Company, the firm that supplied the new boiler. The test was very successful in every particular, and the city representatives were highly pleased with it.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the engine was taken to the flats at Hunt's Mills. A fire was started and in ten minutes there were 60 pounds of steam showing. In thirteen minutes there were 100 pounds of steam.

Two streams were thrown by the steamer over 100 feet.

"The test was completely satisfactory," said Chief Clark. "The new boiler did the work in a most satisfactory manner, and is according to contract."

"The engine seems all right," said Ald. Greenlees. "It was in every way satisfactory. I think the engine should last a long time. So far as I can judge the work was well done."

"The fireman got steam up, but Mr. Cameron had said he could. I think the test was quite satisfactory."

A pressure of 160 pounds was the limit of the test, and at this pressure the engine worked very smoothly. The old engine sent by the Watrous Company to replace it temporarily will be returned to Brantford today. It is a relic of other days, and as a curiosity is worth considerable.

The new engine will be placed in commission today.

Many King Street Residents Want the Pavement Resurfaced

Will Petition Council Asking It To Look Into the Matter.

The residents of King street are getting up a petition asking the council to apply the 10 per cent guarantee left with the city treasurer by Blight & Fielder, contractors for the King street pavement, to repair the pavement.

It is at present in a very bad condition, but it is doubtful whether the sum left with the city treasurer, which amounts to about $800, will do the work at all satisfactorily.

The upper surface is practically gone, and in some places the foundation is beginning to wear.

To make any sort of a job at all, the whole street would have to be resurfaced, and then the pavement would last some time.

Bligh & Fielder guaranteed the pavement for five years, which has very nearly run. "The contractors would have to be notified to repair the pavement," said Acting City Engineer Kirkpatrick, "and if they did not do the work within 48 hours, the city could use the guarantee to repair the pavement."

"It is at present in a very bad condition," he continued. "It is hard to see what can be done. The debentures have ten years to run, and the council cannot issue a second series of debentures on the same pavement without special legislation. So a contract for a new pavement could not be let without that legislation, and that, of course, would take some time. It might not be granted at all."

"The street is a frightful one," said a prominent resident to The Advertiser. "The surface is completely gone, and what is left is not even a good mud-paved road. The dust from it is very bad, and is causing a great deal of inconvenience. I think the council should do something to get it repaired. We must continue to pay for ten years for a pavement that is worse than the original road. It is disgraceful."

"Many of us were willing to pay for a good pavement, but a number of them wanted the cheaper class," said another resident. "They got what they wanted, and I hope it is cheap enough. It is to make a decent job of it. However, something will have to be done. I would favor resurfacing it with asphalt. But the difficulty comes regarding the debentures. I wish the council would take the matter up and help us out of the difficulty. It is rather a serious one, I assure you."

It is expected that the petition will be sent to the council shortly, and then the matter will be taken up officially.

A SEPARATED COUPLE IN CONTEST FOR CHILD

A Windsor Man Causes the Arrest of Girl's Mother.

Windsor, July 21.—To regain possession of his 7-year-old daughter Marie, Thomas Cornell, a laborer has caused the arrest of his wife, Mary Cornell.

Cornell and his wife separated some time ago, the wife going to Detroit with her child to work. Three weeks ago the husband crossed the river and brought the little girl home to live with his mother.

A short time later Mrs. Cornell came over and took the child back.

Cornell has laid the charge in police court in an attempt to show that his wife is not a fit guardian for the child. The woman was taken into custody at the dock as she came from Detroit and is now locked up awaiting a hearing.

EXTENDING GROUNDS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Two Lots Ninety Feet Deep Secured Back of St. George's School.

The board of education is making considerable headway with the purchase of land for the enlargement of several school grounds in the city.

Already Trustees E. J. MacRobert, chairman of the board of schools, has secured two lots 90 feet deep, at the rear of St. George's school, and the grounds will be made ready immediately for use of the youngsters after the summer vacation.

It is the intention of the board to enlarge several other school grounds, and options have been obtained on some of the property, although the negotiations have not progressed sufficiently to take in all the property needed.

It is the intention of the board to have the finest lot of playgrounds in Canada when the work is done. The work of painting the schools is being done by a large staff of men.

WOODS' FAIR J. M. THOMSON

Down and Out, Says Leslie Carter

New York, July 20.—Mrs. Leslie Carter, who was divorced some years ago and has since remarried, but who retains her first husband's name for the stage, testified on the witness stand today that she is now without funds, deeply in debt and that her last theatrical tour under her own management was a financial failure.

Her appearance before the United States commissioner was brought about by a summons compelling her to submit to examination in an effort to discover other assets than those given in the schedule which she filed with a petition in bankruptcy some time ago.

Mrs. Carter said her financial troubles dated back prior to November, 1907, when for the second time she started out for a road tour under her own management.

"We had little more than our rail-road fares when we started out that time," she said. "It cost us a lot of money to get the scenery out of the stage. The tour was not a profitable one. In fact we had a loss."

Mrs. Carter said she has a claim for $18,659 against Charles B. Dillingham, the theatrical manager, and also that there is a sum of money due her from David Belasco, under whose management she appeared in leading roles for many years. She said the claim against Belasco is of long standing. She left Belasco's management two years ago.

150,000 Men About to Resume Work

St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—Within the next thirty days practically all of the large factories and foundries in Southern Illinois which were closed by the financial depression will be reopened, and 150,000 men will be put back to work, according to data gathered by the East St. Louis Commercial Club.

By the end of next month it is expected

C. P. TRAINMAN INJURED.

Ottawa, July 20.—George Bennett, brakeman, and T. Hamilton, conductor, of the C. P. R. this morning near Ottawa. They thought the car would overturn and jumped. They were injured, and the van escaped. Bennett just has a scalp wound, and Hamilton a compound fracture of the leg.

Married men of Belgium have two votes and the single one but one. Priests and some other privileged persons have three.

PRINCE MAKES A QUICK TRIP

Battleship Indomitable in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

THE QUEBEC FESTIVITIES BEGIN

Exchange of Visits and of International Salutes Are Already Under Way.

Quebec, July 20.—The British battleship Indomitable, with the Prince of Wales aboard, came in wireless touch today with the British authorities here. She entered the Gulf of St. Lawrence early this morning, and is estimated to be some 600 miles from Quebec. She evidently made a fast trip over, equaling, and perhaps exceeding,
the record time for a battleship passage. The landing is scheduled for Wednesday, and the Indomitable will probably slow down now so as not to be ahead of her welcome.

Earl Grey has received word that Vice-President Fairbanks will arrive by train at Lévis, opposite Quebec, at 7:55 on Wednesday morning. A military guard of honor, and officials of the Governor-General's staff, will meet the vice-president and escort him to Spencer Wood, which is to be his official residence while here.

Calls of Ceremony.
The arrival of the United States battleship New Hampshire at 1 o'clock today increased the international fleet in the harbor to ten battleships. The New Hampshire is a center of attention, her white hull and light yellow superstructure being in marked contrast with the dull-gray British and blue-gray French battleships.

During the call of Admiral Cowles and Captain Winslow, the Governor-General and Countess Grey this afternoon escorted the American officers to the Italian gardens and promenade, prepared for the Prince of Wales, commanding a view of the assembled warships.
The American and French officers exchanged calls of ceremony this evening, the New Hampshire and the new French warships exchanging salutes.

Festivities Commence.
Although the Prince of Wales does not arrive until Wednesday, the week's festivities commemorating the foundation of Quebec began in earnest today with the appearance of the mounted regiments, armed men of the watch, in the quaint costumes of the days of Champlain, announcing the events of the celebration.

The city has taken on a carnival aspect, and the main thoroughfares, Highlanders and bluejackets, some 5,000 of the population are arrayed in the dress of the middle ages, representing the phases of Quebec's history from the time of Cartier and Champlain down to the battle on the Plains of Abraham. Large parties of Iroquois and Ojibwa Indians have been brought here to lend reality to the scenes depicting the struggles of the French with the Indians.

Many bluejackets are ashore tonight joining with the French and British tars in the festivities. The city is brilliantly illuminated and vast crowds throng Dufferin Terrace and the main thoroughfares, viewing the carnival scenes preliminary to the coming historical pageants.

THUNDER ASSISTS MURDERER

who was engaged to the girl and who after inducing them to go on a trolley ride with him on this side of the river last night led them to the place where the shooting occurred.

Two members of a section crew starting on their rounds from the Rochelle Park station early this morning stumbled on fragments of the murdered woman's body, which was found near her body were six 100 kronen notes, about $125. In this bag was also found a receipt for $5 paid as the first installment on a flat at 1466 Amsterdam avenue, New York. Behind the woman's name, which was given in this receipt, there was no clue as to her identity or how she came to be in Jersey.

Girl Tells of Tragedy.

An hour after the body was found and before he had been notified of it County Prosecutor Ernest Koster, of Bergeron, was called from his house on Central avenue by August Wormer, who lives at Passaic Junction, a mile and a half west of Rochelle Park, who turned over to him the frightened young girl, who, he said, had been brought to his house late in the night by an Italian, had spent the night there, and now wanted to hunt for her mother, who, she said, had been struck by lightning on the railroad tracks. Miss Eberhard was still so dazed that she hardly realized she had been shot herself. The prosecutor took her into the house and obtained a weird story from her. She said her mother carried $2,400 in her clothing.

Young Eberhard, she said, had called upon her and her mother at a hotel in New York, where they had been staying since their arrival in the city.
She could not remember the name of the place and was hazy as to its location. It was hot and her mother had suggested that they go up to one of the parks. The young man had replied it would be much better to take a trolley ride into the country, and they had set out.

Thought Lightning Killed Mother.
"When they arrived at Rochelle

Park, the girl said, her cousin had suggested they get out and take another trolley back to the city. It was getting late and commencing to thunder and lightning.

Alighting from the car nearly a mile from the Rochelle Park station young Eberhard led the woman and her daughter directly away from the trolley tracks toward a railroad. It was dark, the girl said, as they turned into the railroad tracks. They walked between the tracks in the direction of Paterson.

Suddenly there was a terrible crash of thunder, a vivid flash, and screams from the woman. As the girl swung around her mother sank down on the tracks, crying in German: "I have been hit by lightning."

Cousin Told Her To Run.

The young woman rushed back to her side and just as she stooped over her four shots that grazed her head and body were fired from close behind her. She staggered to one side, dazed, and declares her cousin grabbed her and shouted in her ear to run fast as she could. Turning without a word she stumbled blindly off down the tracks. She was so frightened she did not once look around, she said, to see if her mother and cousin were following, and did not stop until she saw a light in the window of a small house near the tracks, and fell exhausted on the doorstep.

The girl could give no explanation of the tragedy when she was told that her mother had been shot, but insisted her cousin could not be suspected.

BALLOON RACING IN THE WEST

Chicago Led the Aeronauts Who Started for St. Paul—No Records Made.

St. Paul, Minn., July 21.—The five balloons which started Saturday have landed, failing to break the two world's records—that for distance and for duration of flight—which they sought. It is said that the lifting power of the gas used was not as great as was expected and thus prevented the best showing.

The Chicago pilot, by C. A. Coey, menaced the longest flight. It landed at Bloomington, Minn., 73 miles on air line from St. Paul.

The Pommern, piloted by Dr. E. R.
Thomas, descended at Warsaw, Minn., 52 miles from the start, according to unofficial figures.

The air line distances covered by the three contestants which landed first, were given out as follows:
United States, 55 miles; America, 58 miles; King Edward, 24 miles.

Capt. P. S. Hudson, pilot of the America, returned to St. Paul today with his assistant, Horace B. Wild, of Chicago.

Wild Tells of Flight.

Mr. Wild made the following statement in regard to the flight:
"We were handicapped because the gas was too heavy. To make a long flight we should have carried fifty sacks of sand ballast, but we were unable to get away with more than fourteen."

"We shot up to a height of 4,500 feet and sailed at that level for a long time. Our highest altitude was 5,200 feet. As the sun began to sink the gas began to contract and the balloon fell to the 2,000-foot level. Clouds also obscured the sun and caused a further contraction of the gas. We threw out sand, a handful at a time. We finally descended until we were within 100 feet of the earth, and our trail rope was dragging over trees, fields and fences. We had no time to rest or eat again. Determined to stay in the air as long as possible, we threw overboard everything, even our water and food."

Coey Blames "Circular Winds."

Charles A. Coey, pilot of the balloon Chicago, was the victim of a "circular wind," according to reports sent to friends in Chicago. Mr. Coey says that before landing he believed he was in the vicinity of Lake Michigan. The news of his descent was conveyed in the following telegram, timed 4:45 a.m.
to William Pickens, Stratford Hotel:
"Bloomington, Minn.,—Landed here this afternoon. Astounded to learn we were so near St. Paul.
Thought we were traveling southeast
at a good clip and looking for Lake Michigan. Our landing proves we were the victims of the vagaries of a shifting wind, traveling in a circle.
Sighted Dr. Thomas, seemingly bound southwest. The cause of our early landing was the abnormal gas furnished us at St. Paul."

"The Chicago behaved splendidly, but labored hard, struggling with the heavy load, with no buoyancy from gas. If Thomas wins with Pommern, sure challenge for a $5,000 bet for a race from Chicago, with our perfect gas, on Labor Day.—C. A. Coey."

Balloons Next War Scouts.

A Washington dispatch says: "In the next war the advance column will be made up of balloons and airships."
This is the belief expressed by army and navy officers here. For this particular reason the army balloon tests which are to begin at Fort Myer next week will receive much attention.

One of the most important results of the Fort Myer tests probably will be the establishment of an aerostatic corps in the navy. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry has been following the progress made in the bal-loonings.

Another enthusiast in the navy is Rear Admiral R. M. Admiral Chester claims that aeronautics should be an adjunct of the navy, because the mariner is specially fitted to deal with the conditions that are met with in the air.

FIRE AT WINDSOR

Row of Stables on Racetrack Burned—
Loss $5,000.

Windsor Race Track, July 20.— Fire broke out at the stables here at noon. Several of the large barns are burning fiercely, and it was feared that the flames would spread to the other buildings and finally reach the grandstand. Everybody moved horses and personal effects out of the grounds.
The Windsor fire department was called out. Meanwhile buckets were used.

At 1:30 the fire brigade had succeeded in getting the fire under control, and there is no danger of the grand stand going. The stable room, known as "Irish Row," is entirely destroyed, and the loss estimated at about $5,000. Had the wind changed the grand stand and all the buildings would have been a total loss.

FATAL MOTOR ACCIDENT

Well Known Pittsburg Doctor Meets Instant Death.

Pittsburg, July 21.—Dr. E. B. Mc-Graw, a well known physician, was instantly killed and Andrew S. Mc-Swigan, manager of Duquesne Garden and the traction company parks of the city, was injured early today in an automobile accident.

The two men were driving from New Kensington to the city in the doctor's runabout.

At a sharp turn in the road at Springdale, a suburb, the steering mechanism broke and the car dashed over an embankment, turning turtle.

The doctor was caught under the machine, and his life crushed out.

Sergis, Urquhart and Murray of the Sixty-second Regiment of St. John, fell from a troop train, and the former was killed, and the latter severely hurt.

The Clyde shipbuilding yards produced 500 vessels during 1907, as compared with 372 the previous year.

BLACK HAND IN CANADA

Fruit Grower Near Dalhousie Receives a Message.

St. Catharines, July 20.—A Syl-vane, a wealthy Frenchman and fruit grower in Louth Township, near Port Dalhousie, is the latest to receive a message from the "Black Hand." On Saturday he received a letter from the society demanding that he place $500 near the Maple Leaf rubber factory in the village by a certain hour if he wished to save his residence and farm buildings from destruction by dynamite.
The matter has been reported to the police.

John B. Chapman, a wealthy resident of Winchester, Va., and a Confederate veteran, was murdered at Slavesville, W. Va.

A remarkable condition arose in the Muskegon (Oklahoma) clearing house recently. When members of the association met at 11 o'clock to adjust their bank clearings it was found that there was $40,000 in checks in the day's business, and that when settlement was made the accounts of each bank against all other banks balanced to a penny. No bank had to pay a cent to any other.

SPENT $3,000 SEARCHING FOR HEALTH.

FROM SHOAL LAKE MAN COMES THE FOLLOWING WONDERFUL STORY
Mr. Robert Squires says:—"I have spent over $3,000 in search for health; have travelled from place to place looking for suitable climate. I came to the conclusion that climate made no difference in curing throat and lung troubles. At the health resorts consumptives died there as at any place else so I determined to find a home remedy. A friend advised me to use Psychine. The first few bottles gave great relief from coughing and seemed to ease the pain in the lungs. Within a month the cough and night sweats had disappeared, and I had greatly regained my strength. I used ten bottles, but my case was a serious one, and I didn't begrudge the cost, for I was completely cured after medical men considered my case hopeless. My lungs are now sound and no sign of disease whatever is apparent."

How strange it is that we often overlook or despise the remedies near at hand. In Psychine we have the greatest and most successful tonic this country has known. There is life in every dose!
The proprietors want you to prove their statement by sending for a sample. Cut out the coupon and mail with your name and address to the Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto, and we will gladly send

LONDON, TUESDAY, JULY 21.

AT OLD QUEBEC.

Tomorrow the heir-apparent of the British throne will set foot on Canadian soil for the second time, and will give the finishing touch to the great historic tableau at Old Quebec.

The celebration at the ancient capital is more than a passing show, and is serving more than one purpose. First and foremost it is a feast of concord between the two races which form the Canadian nation. It recites and glorifies the deeds of both French and British heroes. To the French the shades of Champlain, Laval, Frontenac, La Salle and Montcalm may be the presiding deities of the celebration, and to the English the whole spirit of it may be Wolfe's victory and the English conquest; but there is no bitterness in these memories, and the two elements are meeting on common ground, in a fraternal mood.

A secondary purpose is the strengthening of the bonds of amity between the mother countries of the French and English in Canada. A new seal is placed upon the Anglo-French entente. Only a few years ago the co-operation of France in the functions at Quebec would have been an impossibility, or at the utmost the presence of French warships and French commissioners would have been a cold formality. Today, they are welcomed from the heart.

Another practical benefit of the pageant at Quebec is the focussing of the attention of the English-speaking world upon this country. Its imperial aspect, of course, charms the imagination of the people of the United Kingdom, but it is a lesson also to our American neighbors. The historical significance will not strongly appeal to them, but although they will have little interest in the Canada of a century and two centuries ago, they will not fail to see in the spectacle at Quebec the Canada of today—the young giant of the North. They will see in it an assertion of the pride and progress of the Dominion—the present, if not the past.

Lastly, the celebration will be given a permanent character by the nationalizing of the battlefield upon which French and English met in a death struggle, and where their commingled blood cemented the cornerstone of a new nation.

LABOR LEGISLATION IN NEW ZEALAND

New Zealand, like its neighbor colony, Australia, has of late years been experimenting a good deal with labor legislation.

First of all, New Zealand tested a law which reserved to the workers the right to strike after their grievances had been submitted to a court of arbitration. In 1903 this law was amended by withdrawing the right to strike, and the workers claim that since then they have met with little else but reverses in the arbitration court, the result being numerous strikes, notwithstanding their prohibition by the law. It is admitted that compulsory arbitration has broken down.

A new bill is now before the colonial parliament which completely remodels the present law, and has called forth the strong denunciation of organized labor, which demands the restoration of the law in force prior to 1903. The proposed new law imposes a penalty of £10 on strikers, with a further penalty of £1 for every week the strike continues. In addition to this there is provision for a penalty of £200 for a lockout, and one of £50 for every week during which it continues. Special penalties are provided for strikers whose refusal to work involves danger to the public health or safety, such as bakers, slaughtermen and employees of gas and coal companies, and on railways and tramways. Fines for breaches of the awards of the arbitration court are recoverable by proceedings in a magistrate's court. If the strikers default the fines are to be deducted by their present or future employers from the wages due.

For the present conciliation boards, composed of a magistrate and assessors from the industry concerned. In the event of the council's failure to settle a dispute, it may state a case for the arbitration court, which is to have added to it assessors engaged in the industry concerned, but not parties to the dispute. The court is empowered to fix a "needs" wage, i. e., such as workers of average skill and energy would earn, and also an "exertion" wage, or a wage meaning extra pay for work done over and above the earning capacity of the average.

This measure is likely to bring strong opposition from the labor party. While the Australasian colonies have been experimenting with such legislation, Canada, by means of the conciliation measure bearing the name of Hon. Mr. Lemieux, has made the nearest approach of any country towards attaining the object in view. It is not pretended that that measure will entirely prevent clashes between employers and employed, but it can fairly be claimed that it is a potent force in bringing contending parties together, and speedily effecting peaceful settlement of a large class of disputes. No legislation of like character has attracted more attention or been more favorably commented on in other countries, and it is not surprising to learn that the United States Congress has been recommended to enact a similar law.

BOUNDARY EXTENSION AND REPRESENTATION.

The question of the representation of the provinces, particularly the Maritime Provinces, in the House of Commons, in connection with the enlargement of the boundaries of Quebec, is sentimental, rather than practical, for, as the St. John, N. B. Globe points out, the Parliamentary representatives of all the provinces, instead of voting as such, vote with the political party in the House to which they belong. Nevertheless, it is well that even the appearance of unfairness should be avoided, and this the arrangement proposed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier does.

As is pretty generally known, under the British North America Act, the representation of Quebec is fixed at 65 members. The unit of representation for the other provinces is ascertained by dividing the population of Quebec by 65. On this basis Ontario lost six seats and the Maritime Provinces four after the last census. Members from the Maritime Provinces contend that if the enlargement of Quebec's boundaries results in a large increase in the population of that province, the smaller provinces will suffer an injustice.

The proposal of the Premier is that, notwithstanding the enlargement of its territory, Quebec's representation shall remain the basis, but the boundary of the province as it was at the time of confederation shall be pivotal, the regulative unit. Sixty-five members shall continue to be the representation, and the number of people living within the old boundary divided by sixty-five shall give the unit of representation for all the other provinces. Representation will be given the territory added to Quebec on the same plan, but in fixing the basis of representation its population will not count. In other words, supposing Quebec has at present a population of 650,000, that number divided by sixty-five would make the unit of representation for all Canada 10,000, but if there were 20,000 population in the new territory, although its population would not count in fixing the basis of representation for the whole country, that territory would have two representatives, making 67 for the enlarged province.

RETURN OF GOOD TIMES.

[Toronto Telegram.]

Here are the three great "conditions precedent" to a return of good times:

1. An abundance of money in London, Paris and Berlin.

2. Abundant crops in Canada.

3. Industry and commerce have worked themselves out of the condition of being overstocked with raw materials and finished products.

Canada's best authorities assume that this country's period of abounding prosperity reached two years ago. The activity in factories and warehouses was artificially prolonged for a few months. According to this assumption Canada has now survived almost two years of quiet times or worse.

FIGHT THE WEEDS.

[Milwaukee Wisconsin.]

This has been a remarkable growing season, and the weeds are thriving as well as the crops. Look at them! In the gardens that are not properly tended; look at them in the fence corners of some of the farms; look at them along the roads. They are vigorous specimens of plant life. There is something about their thrift that inspires the approbation of people who do not stop to think of the sinister significance that they have as enemies, whose prosperity is to be dreaded; and their flourishing aspect at the present time will suggest the policy of cutting them down before they mature and scatter their seeds.

APPLE LAND OF THE PACIFIC.

[The Britannia.]

Tasmania has long been known as the apple land of the South, but few at home have any real idea of the money that can be made, and is being made, out of apple growing in that island. Last year, for instance, there were many small orchards in the South which returned as much as 1,200 bushels to the acre, and one owner of four acres, who picked over 4,000 bushels of marketable fruit, which he sold at 4 shillings per bushel, reaped a gross return of $800. As his expenses at the outside would not be more than $100, his profit per acre worked out at something like $700. Of course this was an extreme case, but orchards of twenty acres and upward averaged fully 500 bushels per acre, and yielded a clear net profit of quite £1,000 in some cases. The area actually planted at the present time in domestic and commercial orchards is about 20,000 acres, and upwards of half a million cases of apples were exported to this country last year.

DULL FICTION.

[London Saturday Review.]

The average six-shilling novel is not a good thing. Some people call it a six-shilling shocker. The description is absurd. It does not shock. It wears a man out. The plot is impossible as a rule. The characters are dummies. They are worked by wires, and the wire-puller too often is a very indifferent manipulator. Novels are read off by routine. The reader learns nothing through them. He doesn't inform himself. He doesn't refresh himself. Scott said he could always get some information out of the dullest passenger in a stage coach. But Scott would have failed to get anything out of most six-shilling novels.

IS ONTARIO BECOMING ALIEN-IZED?

[Toronto Star.]

All our principal cities already contain considerable colonies formed by Europeans who are not Anglo-Saxons. Here and there these distinct colonies are to be found in the interior of the province. If the indisposition of those born on the soil of this Province to remain there continues to increase, there will be a corresponding increase in the number of those speaking another tongue who will buy up farms offered at less than value. The present situation, both from a national and sociological standpoint, is one of great interest, and is one to which more attention should be paid.

"Do you know how old I am?"

I WILL!

[S. E. Kiser.]

I will start anew this morning with a higher, fairer creed;

I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless neighbor's greed;

I will cease to sit resigning while my duty's call is clear;

I will waste no moment whining, and my heart shall know no fear.

I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;

I will search for hidden beauties that elude the gambler's gaze;

I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread;

I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.

I will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown;

I will not deny his merit, but I'll strive to prove my own;

I will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine;

I will cease to preach your duty, and be more concerned with mine.

SEVERAL DEATHS BY DROWNING

Three Members of a Surveying Party Meet Death in the Montreal River.

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—Diving from a pile in front of the harbor master's office on the river front near the foot of Randolph street Sunday morning, Wm. Lowrey, 36 years old, 470 Gerrard street east, Toronto, and living in Detroit at the Canadian Hotel, 15 Bush street, landed upon a sunken pile, fracturing his right collarbone and sustaining severe scalp wounds. He was rendered unconscious by the blow, and was drowned before friends could rescue him.

A Toronto dispatch says: William Lowrey, who was drowned at Detroit, is in all probability the son of Mrs. Lowrey, who lived until recently at 450 Gerrard street east. A number of telegrams were sent to the above address, but as Mrs. Lowrey did not live there, were not delivered.

Peterboro, July 20.—Joseph Mollieff, an employee of the Cavendish Lumber Company at Lakefield, was drowned in the Ottawa River last evening by the capsizing of a canoe from which he was trawling. In company with another young man, Harry Dodge, of Lakefield, Mollieff had paddled down the river, and above dam No. 2 they hooked a lungy, and both men leaped over to one side, upsetting the boat. Mollieff, who couldn't swim, was drowned, while his companion hung on to the canoe until help arrived from the shore. Mollieff was 24 years of age, and came from Trenton, Ont.

Cobalt, July 20.—A triple drowning accident occurred yesterday shortly after noon on the Montreal River, just below Pork Rapids, when O. E. Newberry, of Elgin Mills, Harold Dowseley, of Cornwall, and a man named Black, from New Liskeard, met watery graves. The three men went up in a survey trip for the firm of Sinclair, Smith & Sutcliffe, and at the time of the accident had with them a fourth man named William Cameron, of Haliburton, who was their transit man. Full particulars of the drowning are not yet to hand. The canoe upset in some manner, and after much struggling Cameron was able to reach the shore. Then men had the same canoe that Everett May was using when he was drowned on the Montreal about three months ago, and at the time of the accident they were on their way to view his grave and take a photograph of it. Newberry was single, 24 years of age. He had been up in this country prospecting for about two years, and was formerly a lieutenant in the 1st Cavalry, and was a cousin of Dr. Reid, M. P. of Prescott.

Hog Cholera Prevails in Oxford

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Woodstock, Ont., July 21.—One hundred and eighty hogs, big and little, thoroughbreds and Yorkshires, were shot on the farm of Joseph W. B. Boyle, just east of this city, last evening, by order of the Dominion inspector.

Hog cholera had gotten in the flock, presumably communicated from passing trains, and severe measures were taken to crush out the disease and stop it from spreading.

The hogs were fine animals and the loss will be considerable, though the Government pays two-thirds. The carcasses were buried and orders were issued that no more hogs be kept on the farm for three months.

Mr. Boyle runs a big stock farm. He is the gentleman interested in the famous Yukon mining suits with Detroit miners.

MUST NOT "MISTER" NEGROES IN COURT

Delaware Judge Fines Colored Man for Doing So.

Wilmington, Del., July 21.—Judge Cochran, in the municipal court, has ordered that witnesses should not refer to negroes as "Mr." "Mrs." or "Miss," and fined Christopher Brooks, a negro, $5 and costs for contempt of court, because he forgot himself after being warned, and again called Sarah Archer, a negro, "Mrs. Archer."

Brooks and two colored women were charged with breach of the peace. "Mrs. Archer" was the prosecuting witness. Brooks called the negro participants in the case "Mr." and "Mrs."

Judge Cochran warned the witness to cease his formality when referring to negroes and to call them by their names without any prefixes.

Brooks, who was trying hard to win his freedom, became so earnest that he soon slipped up, despite his efforts to stop being polite. He again referred to the prosecuting witness as "Mrs." and was stopped by the judge. The next intimation, he said, will be fined for contempt. Brooks forgot the admonition of the judge and was fined. He was placed under $500 bond to keep the peace.

Subsequently Isaac J. Henry, a negro, was the prosecuting witness against Walter Coyle, and Wm. Welden, white men, charged with theft. He called one of the defendants "Mr." and the negro prosecutor referred to the accused as "Coyle" and "Welden."

Judge Cochran in a recent case in which the Pennsylvania Railroad was concerned, dismissed the defendant, saying: "This court will not be a collecting agency for that railroad company."

TURKEY SUFFERING A GREAT CRISIS

Owing to Macedonian Situation—Sultan Angry With His Ministers.

London, July 21.—A special dispatch from Constantinople to the Daily Telegraph says that there is not the slightest doubt that Turkey is suffering the greatest crisis in her internal affairs that it is possible to imagine.

The Sultan, continues the correspondent, is furious with his ministers, whom he holds responsible for the situation in Macedonia, and whom he accuses of misleading him as to the true facts of the situation.

They have advised him to pardon the officers now awaiting the court-martial on the charge of assisting the "Young Turkey" agitation, but he obstinately refuses to do this, and declares that the ministers are traitors. The Sultan threatens to remove all the officers of the third army corps and crush the Albanians by force.

CENTRAL AMERICA COOLING DOWN

The President Hears Favorable
Reports at Oyster Bay Conference.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 20.—The President was in conference several hours on Saturday with Attorney-General Honorable, Acting Secretary of State Robert Bacon, Enrique Creel, Mexican ambassador to the United States, and W. I. Buchanan, formerly United States minister to the Argentine Republic and Panama, and one of the foremost authorities on South and Central American affairs.

It is understood that the situation in Honduras, Guatemala, Venezuela and other South American storm centres was gone into at length. As he was leaving, Secretary Bacon expressed the belief that the South American troubles had simmered down until there was no further cause for alarm.

Secretary Bacon came by automobile from New York to attend the meeting at the Hill. He brought with him the Mexican ambassador and Mr. Buchanan, both of whom had accompanied him to New York from Washington.

Upon his arrival Secretary Bacon was asked about a press dispatch from the City of Mexico, in which it was stated that the United States and Mexico, or one of those countries alone, might establish a protectorate over Guatemala, if President Cabrera continued his rule or ruin policy. After reading the dispatch, the secretary smiled and said he had heard nothing of the matter.

Senator Creel said that the present method of maintaining peace in Central America has been working well for the last year, and that he believed it would continue to do so as long as the United States and Mexico were bound by treaty to see that one of the countries did not encroach upon the rights of another.

FREIGHT RATES TO BE HIGHER

Mr. James J. Hill Says That an Advance Is Necessary.

New York, July 21.—That the raising of freight rates will be the only way out of the present financial problem in the country is the opinion of Mr. James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, who has just arrived here from a fishing trip in Canada. He is not in favor of a cut in wages as a means of increasing the net earnings of a railroad.

Mr. Hill says: "There is no alternative but to raise rates. The credit of the railroads has been seriously impaired. The way to enhance credit is to increase rates. The manufacturers who deny an advance in rates fail to appreciate that without an improved credit the railroads will be unable to expend the hundreds of millions which hitherto have made prosperity possible to themselves and employees."

"Wages should not be cut. Efficient labor is essential to successful operation. Railroad employees have peculiar responsibilities. They have to meet a hard test. They should get fair recompense."

A Louisville dispatch says: "At a meeting Saturday the executive officers of all the railroads east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio decided to advance their freight rates from four to ten cents per hundred weight. This schedule will come into effect on Aug. 1."

In a close-woven rug, like a Kirman, measuring a mere five feet by eight feet, there are 400 knots to the square inch. As the weaver's speed is about three knots a minute four years of continuous labor would be required on such a rug.

According to the report of the geological survey of British India the production of coal in that country in 1907 was 9,783,250 tons.

OFFER $100,000 ON "BILL" TAFT

Chicagoans Ready To Place Big Odds—Insuring Against Bryan.

Chicago, July 20.—Evidently there is a lot of Taft money in Chicago waiting for takers. A Chicago man Saturday was anxious to place $100,000 with Lloyds of London against Bryan's election.

A telephone call was received by Moore, Case, Lyman & Herrick, insurance brokers, and Lloyds' agents, 159 La Salle street, asking if that firm would take the wager and transmit it to London.

E. A. Bremner, associate member of the firm, told the man the firm did not handle that class of business, and referred him to New York brokers.

He did not get the man's name," said Mr. Bremner. "He told me he was an agent for a German lottery and that a client of his in Chicago wished to place the bet with Lloyds."

A great deal of Chicago and other western money is being placed with Lloyds as "insurance" against Bryan's election. All or a majority of the bets, however, are handled through New York brokers.

Lloyds' agents in Chicago are willing to do what is termed "legitimate election business," but none of the insurance firms is handling election bets. "Legitimate" business is taking risks on a possible decrease in stock values in the event of Bryan's election.

Alfred Graham, manager of Klea, Rogers & Co., insurance brokers and Lloyds' agents, 150 La Salle street, said his firm is anxious to get all of that class of business it can get. So far, he said, no risk of that class had been written, but in anticipation of business he sent the following cablegram to Lloyds:

"It is reported you can insure with first-class underwriters on possible decrease of stock values in the case of the election of Bryan. Please cable particulars."

"We do more business for Lloyds than any other firm in Chicago," said Mr. Graham. "If any firms are taking bets I would know about it."

"What do you call 'legitimate' election business?" he was asked.

"Well, insuring against loss as the result of a slump in the market in the event of Bryan's election," said he. "Many businessmen fear there will be a heavy shrinkage in stock values if Bryan should be elected, and they are anxious to protect themselves."

"Why they fear that I don't know, but it seems to be the general feeling. That class of business is legitimate, and we will handle it, but not straight wagers on the outcome of the election. That's too much like bookmaking."

Mr. Graham then told of how Lloyds was originated by speculators who used to gather in Lloyds' coffee-house in London and bet on the safe arrival of East India merchantmen.

BIG ZOO DEER GORES ITS KEEPER

Man Probably Fatally Hurt by an infuriated Buck—An Exciting Scene.

New York, July 20.—William C. Reardon, a deerkeeper in the Bronx Zoo, was perhaps mortally hurt yesterday by an angry buck which attacked him before several helpless spectators. This is the breeding season for the deer, but Reardon is an experienced man and considered himself in no danger when he entered the deer run in the afternoon with a scythe to cut the grass along the high wire fencing. Outside the fence sight-seers stopped to watch the keeper swinging his scythe a few feet from Ajax, the patriarch of the herd. The six does in the run seemed to take an interest in the performance also.

Presently the scythe blade caught the rays of the sun and for an instant reflected them into the eyes of Ajax. He seemed to resent it, but instead of attacking directly the big fellow moved cautiously to the rear of the keeper.

Then before the crowd knew what was up he rushed at Reardon. The keeper turned just in time to be caught by the antlers, gored in the side and thrown.

Ajax appeared to be frenzied and rolled the keeper over and over while he stabbed him with his antlers.

Reardon's calls for help and those of the witnesses drew Keeper McGiboney from the deer house. He came on the run, seized a pitchfork and jabbed Ajax in the flanks, but to no purpose. Reardon was apparently unconscious when McGiboney was joined by Keepers Snyder and Bayreuther.

Snyder managed to get a rope around the buck's forehead as he reared in the air and then drew the animal. Reardon's head was in a corner during the fight and seemed scared. Ajax will be shot if he is found to be made when Dr. Phair examines him today.

Ajax, after being tied down for nearly an hour, was turned loose again. The does remained huddled in a corner during the fight and seemed scared. Ajax will be shot if he is found to be made when Dr. Phair examines him today.

THE C. P. R.'S TROUBLE WITH THE EMPLOYEES

Report of the Board of Mediation Regarding Rules.

Winnipeg, July 20.—Early this afternoon a majority report of the board of mediation inquiring into the trouble between the C. P. R. and its shop employees, signed by the chairman and the representatives of the company, was made public. There is also a minority report, signed by Mr. Somerville, who represented the men.

The report in opening rehearses at length the troubles leading up to the appointment of the board and then turns to the findings, which are technical and lengthy.

The report favors the new rules put in force by the company and which precipitated the trouble. The wages of the machinists are fixed at 40 cents per hour, and there will be one apprentice for every five men and one apprentice for the shop.

The report finds that the company during the negotiations had consented to a clause similar to that governing the relations between the engineers and the company, wherein the men are entitled to a committee on grievances, who shall be allowed to wait on the foreman during working hours, and if it be proven they are in the right will be paid for the time lost.

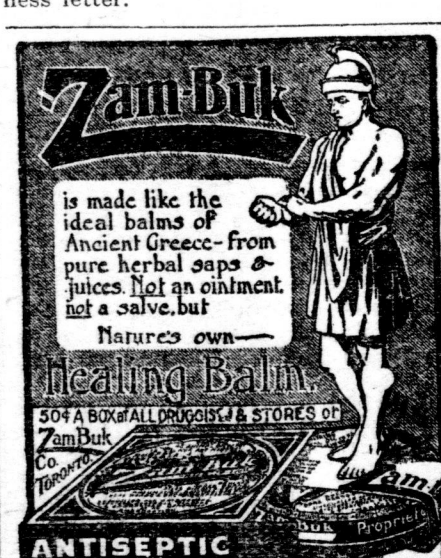

The report states that the company appears willing to grant a nine-hour day if other roads would do the same.

In the matter of schedules the report goes on to say that it seems that meetings between the parties arranged to be held at Montreal and Winnipeg could settle the matter.

MAYOR WON'T SIGN.

Berlin, July 20.—Mayor Fisher, of Waterloo, has declined to sign the hydro-electric power contract ratified by council until consumers sign agreement to use a sufficient amount of power to insure the venture being a paying one for the town.

Valparaiso is only about 5,000 miles from New York, but it requires from 70 to 80 days to get a reply to a business letter.

Cause For Alarm

EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA, GRIPPE, CATARRH TROUBLES PNEUMONIA INCREASING.

A marked increase in troubles of the breathing organs is noted in many localities. If you will only have Hyomei at hand to use with the first attack of Cold in the Head, Pneumonia, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup, in fact, any respiratory affection, the trouble will be quickly overcome.

If the attack is neglected and becomes severe, speedy relief will come in most cases, and a persistent use of Hyomei will cure.

The directions for using it vary, but the principle is always the same, that of destroying all the germs in the air you breathe and having it reach the air passages with dry medication from the Pine and Eucalyptus forests.

Remember that liquids or moisture is barred from the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs. It's the dry air of Hyomei that reaches the spot. W. T. Strong guarantees it.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

QUOTING, BOXING,
FOOTBALL, GOLF, CRICKETBobby Kerr Wins Heat Easily
In 100-Metre Olympic SprintOlympiad Management Making Concessions in Prices of Seats.

London, July 20.—The second week of the Olympic contests began with the first day, devoted principally to field sports. The track athletes were the stars, and the programme contained many fast and exciting events. The British and American runners and jumpers gathered at the lion's share of the laurels, as usual.

The spectacular feature today was the seven-hundred trial heats of the 100 metres sprint, and the eight trial heats of the 400 metres. These furnished several close and stirring finishes. In the sprint, the American runners and jumpers gathered at the lion's share of the laurels, as usual.

The standing broad jumping contest was practically an American event, although notable records were made. Ray Ewry, the American champion, being considerably behind his own record made at St. Louis. His greatest distance today was 10 feet 11 inches. Tasilitis, the Greek jumper, won second in this event, with 10 feet 7 1/4 inches, one-quarter of an inch better than Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C.

The results today added three wins to the American score, and one to France, the other nations not improving their positions. In the field events, America added six points, Greece, the only other nation to increase its score in these contests, picked up three. America is now only eight points behind the United Kingdom, the score standing: United Kingdom, 54; America, 46.

The first heat of the 100 metres race was won by Duffy, South Africa. Time, 11 3/5 seconds.

The second heat was won by George, United Kingdom. Time, 11 3/5 seconds.

The third heat was won by M. J. Cartmel, University of Pennsylvania. Time, 11 1/2 seconds.

The fourth heat of the 100 metres race was won by Walker, South Africa. Time, 11 seconds.

The fifth heat was won by G. Kralitz, of London, who is on the American team, was second. W. W. May, University of Illinois, won the sixth heat in 11 1/5 seconds. The seventh heat was won by A. Duncan, United Kingdom. Time, 11 2/5 seconds.

The eighth heat was won by L. E. Stevens, of Yale, and the ninth by Morton, United Kingdom, both in 11 2/5 seconds.

Kerr Wins.

The tenth heat was won by Kerr, Canada. Time, 11 1/2 seconds, and John, Chapman, United Kingdom, by a yard.

The first heat was won by Cloughen, American. Time, 11 seconds. The eleventh heat was won by W. F. Hamilton, Chicago A. A. Time, 11 1/5 seconds.

The twelfth heat was won by H. J. Huff, Chicago A. A. Time, 11 2/5 seconds.

The thirteenth heat was won by Lawson Robertson, Irish-American A. C. Time, 11 2/5 seconds. The fourteenth heat was won by D. R. Sherman, Dartmouth University. Time, 11 1/5 seconds.

The fifteenth heat was won by J. A. Rector, University of Virginia. His time was 10 5/5 seconds, which equals the record made by Jarvis at the Olympic games in 1900 at Paris. The sixteenth heat was won by Seak, United Kingdom; time, 11 4/5 seconds. The seventeenth heat was won by Roche, United Kingdom; time, 11 2/5 seconds.

Billy Sherring Hands Out Tips
Likes Lawson for the Marathon

Billy Sherring, coach of the Canadian Olympic team, in a letter home, makes the following selections, some of which have already gone wrong.

Bobby Kerr is my selection for the 100 metres; Rector will be the runner-up.

For the 200 metres I will not look farther than Bobby Kerr for the winner, with Cartmill for second.

In the 400 metres, Halsell, the English championship winner, will be the man to beat, with Taylor or Hillman, the Americans, fighting out for second.

In the 800 metres I look for Melvin Sheppard, the American, or Just, of England, to break the tape first.

In the 1,500 metres, Wilson will be the man to beat. He can do 3:38 for the distance, and that I look to win.

In the five-mile event, Voight will be hard to beat. He can do well under 25 minutes, and has a fine finish.

The Drawing.

The drawings for the heats in the second round of the 100 metres flat race, which will be run off tomorrow afternoon, are:

First heat—Roche, United Kingdom; May and Stevens, of America; Walker, of South Africa.

Second heat—Morton, United Kingdom; Kerr, Canada; Sherman and Hamilton, America.

Third heat—Duncan, United Kingdom; Rector and Huff, America; Duffy, South Africa.

Fourth heat—Stark and George, United Kingdom; Cloughen, Robertson and Cartmel, America.

The first heat of the 400 metres hurdle race was won by Koops, Holland, who ran alone, Joseph Bromilow, jun., Irish-American A. C., and the others being scratched.

The second heat was won by H. L. Coe, University of Michigan, in 58 4/5 seconds. He beat Denham, the United Kingdom champion. This was Coe's first attempt at the hurdles, and he only won it after a hard race.

The third heat was won by C. J. Barton, Irish-American A. C., who beat his only competitor, Duncker, Africa, by 25 yards. Time, 57 seconds.

The fourth heat was won by Harmer, United Kingdom, the former British champion, although he had just contested a hard 800 metres against Loughlin. The British won six, and the Americans three of the nine heats in the hurdles.

The standing broad jumping contest was practically an American event, although notable records were made. Ray Ewry, the American champion, being considerably behind his own record made at St. Louis. His greatest distance today was 10 feet 11 inches. Tasilitis, the Greek jumper, won second in this event, with 10 feet 7 1/4 inches, one-quarter of an inch better than Martin J. PICKING WINNERS in the Olympic games is almost as hard as picking winners at the racetrack. One day temporary losses may be won, the next Lawson or Simpson.

TAKE A PEEP at this barefaced howl from the F. P.—

"We hereby have been commissioned by our restless and delirious athletes to do the same, challenge, dare and defy the 'Tizer' Demons to a battle of ball on Tecumseh Park on Wednesday afternoon. Marquis of Queensbury rules to govern, and a cordial invitation is extended to society editors. For the benefit of the spectators it might be stated that there is an absolute guarantee posted that P. Wigle, formerly of the Ruthven Invincibles, will pitch the entire game for the Free Press tossers."

WE ARE UNDECIDED whether to take the above as a joke or vice versa. After what happened to our contemporaries last year in baseball, bowling and hockey it would appear that for unprecedented impudence the deft is the limit. Under certain conditions, though, the Demons may be considered to administer to their opponents their annual wallopings.

THE DEMONS insist that the players be composed of present members of the staff of both papers, and that in case of ringers the umpire force the game to the non-offending team.

BOBBY KERR fully met the fondest expectations of his admirers on this side of the briny yesterday, when he won his heat in the 100 metres race over one of the best Yankees could offer. The Yanks have long prided themselves on their superiority in the sprints. It is now up to Boss Sullivan to protest Kerr.

Welching is becoming common on the Metropolitan Tracks. The money lost or let him go along playing his luck and nerve against your money.

Only recently one of the best gamblers on the track accepted a $3,000 bet on a horse that looked like he'd have to fall down to lose. Well, the horse lost, and he didn't fall down, either, and the next day when the money was paid out, he was there, he stands the better approaches him.

"Sorry, old man," is his salutation: "You'll have to carry that matter along for a while. I had an awful tough day."

The day's tough day isn't taken into consideration at all. All he could do in this case was to reassure the better that it was all right; that he could take his time about settling. As a matter of fact, the lawyer needed the money very badly, but wouldn't have done him any good to say so. As it is he stands a better chance of getting it by treating the player as he did.

"This is one big reason," continued the gambler, "why racing under the present system of betting can hardly last. For the bookmaking or even the non-recording system to be a success and a paying venture the public's money must be handled. This is impossible under the present conditions. Now it is simply gamblers gambling among themselves, the western gamblers against the eastern gamblers; and, strange though it seems, Tom Shaw, Rose and the rest of them have got the easterners on the hip."

SULLIVAN'S REASONS FOR PROTESTING INDIAN

London, July 21.—Interviewed by a Canadian Associated Press correspondent as to his ground for protesting Tom Longboat, the great Canadian runner, President Sullivan, of the American Amateur Athletic Union, said that Longboat had been competing in Canada against Percy Sellen and George Cummings, well known in America as English professionals, and he was therefore looked upon as a professional.

Sullivan will, therefore, protest, although he will accept the ruling of the Amateur Athletic Association, which is in charge of the Olympic games. "But if Longboat is accepted as an amateur," says Sullivan, "why don't the British wire for Shrub?"

Sullivan's protest is absurd on the face of it. The C. A. A. U. permitted the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club of Toronto to send Longboat to Boston to run an exhibition race, and other members of the club, all amateur athletes in good standing in the C. A. A. U. These runners included Cummings, Pearce and Sellen, all of whom hold C. A. A. U. cards, and who competed regularly in athletic meets in Canada. There is absolutely nothing against either Cummings or Sellen, the latter having been reinstated several years ago by the C. A. A. U.

CRIME is increasing rapidly in New York city. There were more complaints, more indictments, more charges preferred and more cases tried during the last half-year than in any six months in the history of the city, and the increase has been in much larger proportion to the increase in population, which is estimated at 65,000.

SWEET REVENGESmiler Holds Athletics To Five Scattered Hits at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 20.—Enlivened by a row with Silk O'Loughlin, the final game of the series went to Detroit today, 4 to 1. It was Donovan's victory all the way.

Wild Bill, whom the Athletics peppered when he opposed them last Thursday, holding the home team down to five hits, of which Hartwell was the only member of the team to get two.

One of Topeka's drivers, a triple to the flagpole, saved the Athletics from a shut-out, for it was followed by Eddie Collins' out, on which the toward cross-bats the plate.

Only another man reached third. This was Davis, who in the same inning got there on his single, and Donovan's two-base wild throw to catch him napping. Jimmy Collins popped up a little fly to Schaefer.

THE EEL IS FAST
SAYS ED. GEERSThe Canadian Pacer Travels at 2:02 1-2 Pace in a Race
With Minor Heir.

The Detroit Free Press says: "You will see some of the fastest horses at the Detroit meeting this year the world has ever known," remarked Ed F. Geers, the popular driver, as he paused during his dinner at the Normandie cafe last evening. Mr. Geers had reached the city in the afternoon from Terre Haute, after a roundabout ride, and six carloads of horses, trained by himself, Lon McDonald, Gus Macey, T. Murphy, W. L. Snow, W. G. Durfee and others arrived at the same time.

Ordinarily Mr. Geers lives up to the accepted term—"the silent man from Tennessee"—but this time he was quite talkative.

"You have seen lots of horses," he continued, "but you never saw one as fast as Minor Heir. He is the fastest pacer in the world. Why, after the heat in 2:01 1/2, he came right back in 2:01, and in such manner that it left no doubt of his greatness. He is a wonderful pacer. By the way, that Canadian horse, The Ed, is not to be overlooked. He is very fast. I dare say he paced right around 2:02 1/2 in the heats when Minor Heir was making a record."

"The fastest trotter? Amy Brooks is the fastest I know of. She is a great mare. Charley Dean went down to the half in a minute with his M. & M. horse, Fleming Boy, but when he passed there Amy Brooks still was trotting, whip of Fleming Boy was dizzy. She didn't mind it at all. I never saw her equal, and where she will end for Lon McDonald is hard to say."

"Highball looks pretty good," was suggested.

"He is," said Mr. Geers. "He is a splendid trotter. How does he compare with The Abbott (2:03 1/2)? Well, just about the same."

A telegram was sent by the driving club to Mr. Geers, asking him if he would race Highball (2:03 1/2) against Sweet Marie (2:02), at the Blue Ribbon meeting next week. He replied that he would, yet he did not talk much of Highball, which is giving every early promise of being the champion before now.

$3,000 FOR CUP OF COFFEE

Woman Rewarded for Kind Act Done
Many Years Ago.

Plymouth, Mass., July 21.—For a cup of coffee which she once gave to a stranger, Mrs. Harvey Bartlett, of Wellsfleet, has received $3,000. The gift is from Mrs. B. Lilley, of New York City.

Many years ago while waiting for a train at the Kneeland street station of the Old Colony Railroad, Mrs. Bartlett's sympathy was aroused by the sight of an elderly woman who was travelling alone and who appeared to be ill. Mrs. Bartlett went to a lunch-room and got a cup of coffee for her.

Mrs. Lilley, as she proved to be, did not forget the kindness and has since sent Mrs. Bartlett numerous gifts. The most recent remembrance is $3,000 worth of stock in a New York manufacturing company paying 8 per cent dividends.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY IN BUSY EAST LONDON

BOARD OF WORKS VISITS THE EAST

With Assistant Engineer Makes a Thorough Inspection of Drains.

The members of the board of works, accompanied by Assistant City Engineer Kirkpatrick, yesterday made an inspection of the East End Hall, and will report at the meeting to be held Thursday evening.

Those who made the inspection were Chairman Ald. Gerry, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Stewart, Ald. Rose and the engineer.

Their visit to the East End Hall, where the drains have been causing frequent complaints, it was found that the drain was blocked, and that it would be necessary to put it in shape.

The Mary street drain which has been occupying a lot of time lately was seen. The chairman stated today that the board was willing to stand the cost of a half a tiled drain here, but that the residents will not pay their share.

On Edward street the same conditions exist, and the residents are now preparing a petition, asking the council to pay half the cost of putting the thing in proper condition. The city will probably agree to this, but it would be establishing a dangerous precedent to comply with the East Enders' request. It would also be unfair to the people north of Dundas street, who paid for the tile there themselves.

Egerton street and the Hamilton road was found to be in bad condition. There is no drain on the street, and the storm water has no outlet. It was formerly conducted into the property at the corner, but this has been built on recently, and the drain torn up. The matter will be reported, and it is probable that the city will ask the county council for a right of way for a drain to the river.

It was decided to recommend that Trafalgar street be gravelled for one block west of Egerton street, the city and county to share the cost.

The Marmora street sewer has been causing some discussion. Mr. Pocock, who operates a cement block factory on that street, has been agitating for the sewer for some time, but has met with some opposition. If he is unable to get the proper number of names to the petition, he will construct the sewer himself, with a rental agreement with the city.

Hamilton road was found to be in very bad shape. It will be gravelled. Work on the streets to be gravelled will not be continued until the river recedes, as it will be impossible to remove the gravel therefrom.

Railroad Agents Here.

The following railroad agents are visitors in London today: Mr. F. M. Jolly, travelling passenger agent of the Peninsula and Occidental Railroad, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. W. W. Jones, of Toledo, Ohio, Queen and Crescent Route; and Mr. W. E. Belcher, Detroit, general agent for the Northern Pacific.

Nichols Suspended.

Joshua Nichols, the clever Muncie Indian distance runner, formerly under the management of Dr. H. A. Stevenson, of this city, has been suspended by the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union for selling a medal which he won in a five mile race at St. Thomas. Nichols has run a number of races in London and vicinity, and while never a world-beater, he always displayed good form.

Old Railroad Gone.

One of the oldest and best known railroad men in Canada died at his home, 181 Clarence street, this morning in the person of Mr. James Taylor. Mr. Taylor was engineer for more than 25 years on the G. T. R., and was widely known all over the system. About ten years ago he retired. He was 61 years old. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery.

Charged With Attempt at Suicide—Is Not Insane Now.

Anthony Kaae, the middle-aged Dane, who recently attempted suicide in a Pottersburg boarding-house, appears before Squire Chittick this afternoon for a hearing.

Kaae is charged with having cut an artery in his arm with a razor in an attempt to take his life.

At one time Kaae was a successful professor in one of the large Danish colleges, but drink caused him to lose the position. Later he succeeded in obtaining a position as teacher in a Danish public school, and again drink threw him out of employment.

Crossing the water, Kaae settled down in London, where he has been living for several years. Drink eventually placed him in a position where work was practically unobtainable, and when his landlady ordered him from the house recently, he retorted that he would soon be where board-bills were unknown.

The jail physician gave it as his opinion that Kaae at the time was insane, but that he has since recovered his mental equilibrium.

The authorities are puzzled as to why Kaae should have attempted to take his life. He has been over here too long for deportation, and jail sentences have proved poor lessons in previous similar cases.

FAR FROM PETROLEA AND WITHOUT A CENT

W. J. Kilpatrick, an east end hardwre merchant, was charged by Magistrate Love with selling an air rifle to a little boy. Mr. Kilpatrick pleaded ignorance of the law in relation to air rifles. Magistrate Love imposed the lightest fine possible, $1 and $2.60 costs, and warned Mr. Kilpatrick not to sell weapons to minors any more.

John Brophy, a drunk, who was allowed to go on Saturday, was gathered in again yesterday, but was too drunk to appear yesterday morning.

Mr. Brophy looked considerably worse for wear when he arrived at the cage this morning, and spent about ten minutes in yawning and making a minute inspection of his fellow prisoners. Apparently satisfied that he was in good company he sat down and went to sleep. When awakened and told to stand up he said he was from Petrolea. Magistrate Love imposed a fine of $5, and not having the money Mr. Brophy will spend ten days of his summer holidays at that beautiful summer resort overlooking the river at the foot of Dundas street, known familiarly as "The Jags' Retreat."

Samuel Levi, a peddler, who has no license, was given a week to get one.

PIONEER PASSES

George Erwin, of Caradoc, Expires at the Age of 88 Years.

Another of the pioneers to whom the country and the present generation owes so much, passed away on July 4, at his home in Caradoc, in the person of Mr. George Erwin.

Mr. Erwin's parents came from Ireland, when the deceased was 4 years of age, and settled near Toronto. The deceased was married over 60 years ago to Miss Jane McIntyre, who survives him, at the ripe old age of 91, and is still bright, possessing all her faculties, and no person could be more thoughtful of others than she is.

Mr. Erwin formerly engaged in the bakery business near Thorold, but he finally located on a farm in Caradoc, three miles from Delaware, where he died. The children were five daughters, one of whom is dead, and two sons. They are: Mrs. George Cawthorpe, of Caradoc; Mrs. William Griggs, Mrs. Robert Griggs and Mrs. Phyllis Griggs, of Bay City, Mich.; and James and Albert at home.

The large number of friends and relatives that followed the remains to the Delaware Cemetery, and listened to the funeral service, conducted by the Methodist minister in the church, returned to their homes, feeling they had lost a true friend, who was always willing to extend a helping hand or drop a word of sympathy to anyone in need.

—Mr. A. M. Smith, of the A. M. Smith Company, wholesale grocers, left last night for Montreal, from whence he sails for England shortly.

A CYCLE FEATURE FOR OLD BOYS' WEEK

Old-Time High-Wheel Riders Will Re-organize for the Occasion.

Special features for the Old Boys' reunion are coming out with great frequency these days, and a new one was sprung this morning.

The old-time members of the Forest City Bicycle Club have announced their intentions of taking part in the parade, and also in the sports at Queen's Park.

This club was a famous organization twenty years ago, and has a great record behind it.

Those were the days of the old high-wheel, and many races were pulled off under its auspices.

Mr. E. W. M. Flock is completing the work of reorganizing the club, and already several members of the club have dug up their old high-wheels and are getting them in shape.

In 1890 two well-known racers were Fred Lawragon and "Nip" Tune. They had a famous race over eighteen years ago, which was never finished. The old rivals had a chat over old times, and agreed to finish their race.

This will easily be one of the features of the day's sport.

The club will wear the colors of the old club and will act as escort to some prominent men in the procession.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Elmer George, Murray Weir and Willie Davidson are holidaying at Grand Bend.

Miss Vina Pearson, of 251 Simcoe street, is visiting Mrs. T. E. Pinfold, of Windsor.

Miss Florence Lepper arrived home from Galt and Preston, where she spent a very pleasant visit with friends.

Miss Ethel James and Miss Viola Garton and Mr. Ed James, of this city, are visiting relatives at Lyons and Havelock.

Miss May Pearson is spending her vacation with her cousin, Miss Lila Taylor, Maple Avenue Farm, Zion, and with friends in Exeter.

Friends of Mr. Alfred Talbot, who underwent a serious operation at St. Joseph's Hospital Saturday, will be pleased to learn that he is improving.

Miss Wynnie McLeod, of 83 Maple street, and Miss Mabel E. Potter, of the Asylum nursing staff, are visiting friends and relatives in Cleveland and Detroit.

The Misses May and Gertrude Weir, Miss Olive Wakeling and Mrs. Burt Bedgood, of McWilliams, and Miss Edna Bonser, of London, are holidaying at Chestnut Grove, Port Stanley.

PLAIN CLOTHES MAN RAN DOWN CYCLIST

Latter Rode On Sidewalk and Got Mixed on His Address.

John Senghan, a young man who gave various addresses, was arrested on Saturday afternoon by P. C. McCullough for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk, and this morning was fined $1 and $1.50 costs. Complaints have been very numerous lately regarding the recklessness of young men who ride on sidewalks in out-of-the-way districts in South London, and on Saturday afternoon P. C. McCullough was sent over there to do a little plain-clothes work. It was not long until Senghan passed him on the road, and a little further down took to the sidewalk. The officer gave chase and Senghan spurred. P. C. McCullough can ride some, too, but did not catch up to Senghan until he had got over King street bridge. When asked his name Senghan said it was John White and that he lived at 20 Ridout street. P. C. McCullough wanted to know where that was, and Senghan said he did not know. Then he thought it was 26, and finally said it was 456. P. C. McCullough took down his right name and address. Magistrate Love gave Senghan a severe lecture for his conduct.

Eight other bicycle riders, who took to the sidewalks, paid $1 each.

CITY LACKS GRAVEL FOR PAVEMENT WALK

The city engineer's department is up against it for gravel. They have been taking it out of the river for some time, but the recent heavy rains have caused the Thames to rise so much that it is impossible to take any gravel whatever from it.

As a result there is very little work being done in the city street paving department. The city has a very great deal of graveling to do yet, and it will be some time before it can be completed.

The work on the Carling street pavement is also being held up on that account. However, arrangements were made with the board of works this morning for gravel out of one of the city's pits, which is still in operation. As a result the contractors expect to have the Carling street pavement finished by Old Boys' week.

TROLLEY COLLISION

Near Aurora, Ill.—Forty Persons Said to Have Been Hurt.

Chicago, July 21.—A head-on collision on the Elgin and Aurora electric railway, occurred four miles from Aurora this morning.

The superintendent in charge of the road, who was at Wheaton, in answer to a telephone message, declared that no one was killed, and that only one injury, a broken leg, was serious.

One reports says 40 persons were hurt.

Limit Your Spending

And save the balance. That is a better way to get a start financially than to limit your saving and spend the balance. It is surprising how quickly you can create capital when you go about it in the proper way and with determination.

With capital—reserves—fund—you are ready for business opportunities which will surely come to you. Remember, it is

Not Your Saving

Alone that will make you independent. Your money must be in a safe place and must work for you. Open a savings account in the Bank of Toronto and set aside a certain amount every week and you will be surprised at the rapidity with which your balance grows.

DAVIDSON-ADAMS
Interesting Event at the Home of Mr. Ebenezer Adams, Caradoc.
About sixty guests assembled at the residence of Ebenezer Adams, sixth concession of Caradoc, on Tuesday, June 30, to witness the marriage of his youngest daughter, Olive Jane, to Frank Davidson, of the fifth concession. The bride was given away by her father and looked beautiful in a gown of white silk organdie. She was attended by Miss Hazel Walls. The groomsmen were Mr. Murray Waters, of Toronto University. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary West, of Mount Brydges. The bridal party stood under an arch of evergreens and pink roses, while the ceremony was conducted by Rev. R. W. Leitch, of Delaware. After the good wishes of all had been expressed, the party sat down to a daintily-spread table. Afterward the bride couple left on their honeymoon trip to Chatham. The presents received were numerous, beautiful and useful. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in their native township.

VERY BUSY DAYS AT PORT STANLEY
The Hotels and Private Houses Filled—Masquerade Ball This Evening.

NEED MORE FUNDS FOR DECORATION
Old Boys' Scheme for Beautifying City Big Drain on Resources.
The Old Boys' executive is making arrangements for the street decorating and lighting, but while making fair headway, is not getting along as rapidly as is desirable.
The reason is that the funds are not equal to the demands, as the scheme is costing more than was anticipated. The executive is as a result in a dilemma, and it is not known what will be done as yet.
A Beautiful Display.
The decorations, if carried out according to the programme, will be very elaborate, and will easily eclipse anything in that line ever seen in the city. At the corner of Richmond and Dundas there will be a very fine arch erected. It will be a combination of four arches, in fact, and will be handsomely decorated. Myriads of electric lights will produce a most telling effect.
"The executive is in somewhat of a dilemma," said Secretary B. C. McCann, "if we can get the money we will have a great scheme of decorations, but at present we are handicapped by the need of funds. However, we expect the citizens generally to come to our assistance and help us out. The Old Boys will be one of the greatest advertisements the city has ever had, and the citizens, I am confident, will come to our assistance."
The other details of the celebration are being carried out without a hitch and everything points to one of the most successful reunions the city has ever had.

ROLLING MILLS ANNUAL OUTING
Seven Hundred Picnic at the Port as Guests of the Management.
The annual outing of the employees of the London Rolling Mills was held at Port Stanley yesterday, about 700 participating in the merry-making. The picnickers left for the lakeside on the 9:45 train, and did not return to this city until evening.
Every married employee of the company was provided with transportation for three persons at the expense of the management.
Sports were indulged in, and the day was made one continual round of pleasure.
The programme of sports was an excellent one, and all events were keenly contested.
Results of the sports were as follows:

CAR IN BAD RUN-OFF ON WELLINGTON ST.
A very bad run-off occurred on Wellington street last evening, when Ottawa belt car No. 115 jumped the track south of Simcoe street.
The car was in charge of Motorman Geo. Colbert who claims that there was no obstruction on the track.
Following the run-off, a car, which was nearly one hundred feet up the road before it came to a standstill because of the east curbing. It was several feet clear of the tracks.
No attempt was made to replace the car until after midnight.
The passengers were badly shaken up, but were uninjured.

ST. GEORGE'S FLOAT WILL BE A WINNER
Twenty-four Beautiful Girls Will Sing Patriotic Songs.
At a meeting of St. George's Society held last night it was reported that the work of building the float is progressing most favorably. St. George's float will carry on it 25 young girls, one of whom, representing Britannia, will be enthroned above the others. The 24 will be dressed in varied costumes, and will sing patriotic songs during the parade. St. George's members are most enthusiastic about their float, and are sparing neither time nor money to make it one of the most beautiful.

ROMANCE HAS TRAGIC END
Lovers Elope in Open Boat and Are Drowned in Storm.
Vienna, July 18.—A tragic ending to a romantic love story is reported from Lesina, a well-known health resort along the coast of Dalmatia.
Florina Rinal, aged 18, fell in love with Alberto Cora, a visitor. The girl's parents would not hear of the match, and the lovers decided to elope.
They took a small boat and put out to sea, with the intention of boarding a passing steamer to Venice. Unfortunately they were overtaken by a violent storm, the boat was upset and the lovers were drowned.

SEND A POSTAL REQUESTING McCLARY'S SASK-ALTA.
"Sask-Alt" is the name of the latest booklet issued by the McClary Manufacturing Company. The booklet is beautifully printed and illuminated. The fine paper, the cover design being particularly appropriate. It tells in concise form of the materials, construction, looks and advantages of their new range, Sask-Alt. Every housewife should secure one, study the advantages of modern, up-to-date range construction. A postal addressed to the McClary Manufacturing Company, London, will bring you one.

A Letter of Thanks.
To the Editor of The Advertiser:
Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to thank my many friends who so willingly and readily supported me in my aspirations to become queen of the Mardi Gras. Although defeated, the notoriety and publicity has brought me in contact with many dear old friends that I never expected to meet again. Under the circumstances I am better pleased than had I been victorious. Respectfully,
MRS. C. G. WILSON.

Florina Rinal, aged 18, fell in love with Alberto Cora, a visitor. The girl's parents would not hear of the match, and the lovers decided to elope.
They took a small boat and put out to sea, with the intention of boarding a passing steamer to Venice. Unfortunately they were overtaken by a violent storm, the boat was upset and the lovers were drowned.

SEND A POSTAL REQUESTING McCLARY'S SASK-ALTA.
"Sask-Alt" is the name of the latest booklet issued by the McClary Manufacturing Company. The booklet is beautifully printed and illuminated. The fine paper, the cover design being particularly appropriate. It tells in concise form of the materials, construction, looks and advantages of their new range, Sask-Alt. Every housewife should secure one, study the advantages of modern, up-to-date range construction. A postal addressed to the McClary Manufacturing Company, London, will bring you one.

A Letter of Thanks.
To the Editor of The Advertiser:
Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to thank my many friends who so willingly and readily supported me in my aspirations to become queen of the Mardi Gras. Although defeated, the notoriety and publicity has brought me in contact with many dear old friends that I never expected to meet again. Under the circumstances I am better pleased than had I been victorious. Respectfully,
MRS. C. G. WILSON.

NEED MORE FUNDS FOR DECORATION
Old Boys' Scheme for Beautifying City Big Drain on Resources.
The Old Boys' executive is making arrangements for the street decorating and lighting, but while making fair headway, is not getting along as rapidly as is desirable.
The reason is that the funds are not equal to the demands, as the scheme is costing more than was anticipated. The executive is as a result in a dilemma, and it is not known what will be done as yet.
A Beautiful Display.
The decorations, if carried out according to the programme, will be very elaborate, and will easily eclipse anything in that line ever seen in the city. At the corner of Richmond and Dundas there will be a very fine arch erected. It will be a combination of four arches, in fact, and will be handsomely decorated. Myriads of electric lights will produce a most telling effect.
"The executive is in somewhat of a dilemma," said Secretary B. C. McCann, "if we can get the money we will have a great scheme of decorations, but at present we are handicapped by the need of funds. However, we expect the citizens generally to come to our assistance and help us out. The Old Boys will be one of the greatest advertisements the city has ever had, and the citizens, I am confident, will come to our assistance."
The other details of the celebration are being carried out without a hitch and everything points to one of the most successful reunions the city has ever had.

ROLLING MILLS ANNUAL OUTING
Seven Hundred Picnic at the Port as Guests of the Management.
The annual outing of the employees of the London Rolling Mills was held at Port Stanley yesterday, about 700 participating in the merry-making. The picnickers left for the lakeside on the 9:45 train, and did not return to this city until evening.
Every married employee of the company was provided with transportation for three persons at the expense of the management.
Sports were indulged in, and the day was made one continual round of pleasure.
The programme of sports was an excellent one, and all events were keenly contested.
Results of the sports were as follows:

CAR IN BAD RUN-OFF ON WELLINGTON ST.
A very bad run-off occurred on Wellington street last evening, when Ottawa belt car No. 115 jumped the track south of Simcoe street.
The car was in charge of Motorman Geo. Colbert who claims that there was no obstruction on the track.
Following the run-off, a car, which was nearly one hundred feet up the road before it came to a standstill because of the east curbing. It was several feet clear of the tracks.
No attempt was made to replace the car until after midnight.
The passengers were badly shaken up, but were uninjured.

ST. GEORGE'S FLOAT WILL BE A WINNER
Twenty-four Beautiful Girls Will Sing Patriotic Songs.
At a meeting of St. George's Society held last night it was reported that the work of building the float is progressing most favorably. St. George's float will carry on it 25 young girls, one of whom, representing Britannia, will be enthroned above the others. The 24 will be dressed in varied costumes, and will sing patriotic songs during the parade. St. George's members are most enthusiastic about their float, and are sparing neither time nor money to make it one of the most beautiful.

ROMANCE HAS TRAGIC END
Lovers Elope in Open Boat and Are Drowned in Storm.
Vienna, July 18.—A tragic ending to a romantic love story is reported from Lesina, a well-known health resort along the coast of Dalmatia.
Florina Rinal, aged 18, fell in love with Alberto Cora, a visitor. The girl's parents would not hear of the match, and the lovers decided to elope.
They took a small boat and put out to sea, with the intention of boarding a passing steamer to Venice. Unfortunately they were overtaken by a violent storm, the boat was upset and the lovers were drowned.
