GILBERT PARKER SAYS CANA-DA IS NOT A PANAMA.

Attack on Our Girls by an English Woman-Trouble is Feared in Connection With To-night's Meeting at Birmingham.

London, Nov. 11 .- Sir Gilbert Parker, speaking at Gravesend last night, said :- Lord Rosebery says the news he gets shows that Canada is more interested in the question of Alaska than in preferential tariffs. What a catchpenny statement! The Alaskan boundary question is only a nine days' excitement; the preferential tariff is Canada's permanent desire. Lord Rose-bert foras that American immigration ada's permanent desire. Lord Rose-bery fears that American immigration into Canada would destroy loyalty to the British flag. He forgets the his-tory of the French-Canadians; he does tory of the French-Canadians; he does not know that seventy-five per cent. of the American immigration into Canada is either Canadians repatriating themselves or Scandinavians and Germans, not nativeborn Americans. He forgets that a settler becoming identified with a country is jealous of its autonomy. Does he think that Canada is Panama? We are told that free trade is the policy of the open house, and a welcome to strangers, and be hanged to your poor relations.

strangers, and be hanged to your poor relations.

Birmingham is all in a ferment over to-morrow's promised attack by Lord Cecil and Mr. Winston Churchill upon Mr. Chamberlain's trade policy. Hundreds of sandwichmen are parading the streets, carrying such inscriptions as "Shall the Radicals be allowed to oppose our Joe?" "Come in thousands." The square in which the Town Hall stands will be barricaded, and a large cordon of police will be held in readiness to prevent a riot. Mr. Moore Bayley, who will preside, adds irritation to the case by his anti-Chamberlain views. The Duke of Devonshire has appealed for fair play in a city represented for so many years by John Bright.

The Daily Express is offering $125 to the owner of the first parrot able to say distinctly "Your food will cost you more" (one of The Express' pet phrases in its attack on the free traders). Phonographs and gramaphones may be used to teach the birds. When trained they need not be brought to the office, but, on notification, a representative of the paper will be sent to inspect them.

STRATTON PAID FOR AFFIDAVIT

Where the Money Came From" for the Crossin Bye-Election Roorbach.

Interesting Expose of Ross Campaign Methods—Stratton and His Lawyer Arranged Matters.

Toronto, Nov. 10 .- The Gamey case or, to be more correct, the Stratton. scandal, has already provided a pletheria of surprise, but still another was sprung to-night, when an affidavit was made public that reveals the true inwardness of the roorbach published in the Government organs under scare headings a couple of days previous to the recent by-elections. The affidavit is made by W. H. Callaghan, and in it he discloses "Where the money came from' to purchase Gamey's interest, in the Crossin Piano Company, and secure from Edward Crossin a statement respecting alleged tampering with the firm's books by Mr. Gamey in order to strengthen his story before the commission.

ano salesman, having learned that Mr. Crossin was in difficulties, sug-gested that if he would "disclose cergester that in he would disclose cell-tain necessary information" he could put the company on a sound financial basis. Mr. Callaghan then told E. F. B. Johnston, K. C., of the position of things and the lawyer immediately told him to bring Crossin into the told him to bring Crossin into the office, and an appointment was made for the next day. Then Mr. Callaghan secured from L. V. McBrady, who was the Liberal candidate in East Toronto, a letter to Hon. J. R. Stratton, in which it was explained that the bearer was a good Liberal. Armed with this Callaghan saw the Provincial Secretary, and explained to him that if the Crossin Piano Company were reorganized there might be some valuable information obtainable. Mr. Stratton asked how much money he were reorganized there might be some valuable information obtainable. Mr. Stratton asked how much money he needed, and was told $25,000. The Minister then said he did not want to appear in the matter, and sent Callaghan to Johnston. As the result of interviews with Johnston, Crossin later reported to Callaghan that everything was all right, and that he would have to make an affidavit concerning the Gamey case. The next day, Getober 13, Crossin saw Johnston gain, and afterwards told Callaghan that all the Government would put up at present was $3,500 - $22,000 for Gamey's stock, and $1,500 for working capital. On Oct. 21 Crossin teld Callaghan that Gamey had received his $22,000, but there was not provision for him (Callaghan), who, it had been agreed, was to have a salary of $2,000 a year as a piano salesman, and $5,000 stock in the company. Since then Callaghan has made repeated applications to Mr. Stratton to get his share, but mothing has been done. Only to-day the Provincial Secretary referred him to Mr. Johnston.

SHOT TWO WORKMEN.

SHOCKING CARELESSNESS OF A DEER-HUNTER.

One Victim Killed, the Other Badly Wounded-Thomas Stanley Fires Two Shots Into a Party of Men Working on the Road Near Parry

Parry Sound, Nov. 11.-A double shooting accident occurred near Edgington, fifteen miles from here. Three men, James McComb, Dan Quinlan and another, whilst engaged working on a camp road, were fired hunting. The first shot struck Mc-Combo in the chest. He threw up his spade, at the same time exclaiming, I'm shot!" A second shot quickly followed, hitting Quinlan in the thigh. Stanley then appeared from the woods and the awful spectacle of his performance was presented to his eyes. McComb died in five minutes. Stanley is the son of a settler who lives in the township of Christie, and has been brought up in the bush. James McComb, who was killed, was a well-known resident of this district. He was married and had a large family. Oninmarried and had a large family. married and had a large family. Quin-lan has been taken to the hospital here. It is thought he will recover. The third man, whose name has not been ascer-tained, owes his escape to the fact that he fell flat on the ground before the second shot was fired. Stanley was only about a hundred yards from the men when he fired, and it seems al-most incredible that he should have taken the men for a deer, seeing that they were working in an open space. Summarized, the affidavit sets forth that Callaghan, who is a Toronto pithey were working in an open space. An inquest will be held.

AGAINST UNION LABEL.

Council May Not Make its Use Part

Nov. II. - Chancellor Boyd yesterday decided that the City Council in calling for tenders for firemen's clothing could not include in the specifications the use of any particular union label. The decision was the result of a suit brought by the Crown Tailoring Co., asking for a perpetual injunction to restrain Council from demanding in connection with a contract for clothing the use of the Journeymen Tailors' Union label. The company presented the lowest tenders on the firemen's clothing contract last spring and were awarded the contract by the Board of Courted Council awarded the Control Council awarded the contract at a higher price to a company that would use the union label named, and the Crown Tailoring Co. as a ratepaver secured an injunction. The con tract for summer clothing was then awarded to them and that for winter clothing is still not awarded, the Aldermen not wishing to displease the labor unions by accepting clothes without the union label.

ATLAS LOAN TROUBLES. May be Lightened by Settlement

With Ames & Co.

Toronto, Nov. 11. — It would look as if a settlement is in sight between the broking firm of Ames & Co. and the Atlas Loan Co., in liquidation, in respect to the losses said to have been sustained by the Atlas Loan through its business connection with Ames & Co. On good au-las Loan through its business connection with Ames & Co. On good authority it is learned that Mr. Ames has made an offer of settlement, and to this end negotiations are now proceeding. There was a considerable difference of opinion between the liquidator, the National Trust Co., and Ames & Co. over the amount at which the settlement should be made. Ames & Co. are said to have offered something less than one hundred thousand dollars, while the liquidator considered that in view of the circumstances about double that amount would be nearer the mark.

The examination of Mr. Ames was to have been proceeded with yesterday before the Master in Ordinary, but the court did not sit, as an arrangement had been made for an adjournment till torday. The adjournment from Thursday last was ade in order that accountants representing both A. E. Ames & Co. and the liquidator could go through the accounts and agree upon one statement as to what the losses had been. These figures, it is understood, have been repared, but are not made public. Probably in them will be found the basis of compromise that will be agreed upon.

Montreal, Nov. 11.-In order to satisfy a claim against the American Locomotive Company, bailiffs intercepted a freight train in the Grand cepted a treight train in the Grand Trunk yards at Point St. Charles, and seized two Mogul engines, which were in transit from Paterson, N.J., to the Sydney & Louisbourg Railway. The engines, each of which is worth about $18,000, were seized at the instance of Sydney A. Stephens of Montreal, who claims that the American Locomotive Company owes him $20,000 in unpaid commissions.

DRESDEN

Nov. 11.—Last Thursday we pub'ished in these columns an item re Captain Davidson's refusal to pay the five cents advance in the 'bus fare. The 'busman has since informed our correspondent that his information was not correct, and that Captain Davidson did not refuse to pay the increase. simply because he did not tell him of the advance in the fare, and, of course, the Captain tendered the same amount he had paid all along, which was accepted by the driver, and the Captain went on his way, gnorant of the special rate which had been given him.

Arthur Parrott, of Napanee, who is visiting relatives in Chatham, spent yesterday with Dresden relutives and friends.

A Clergue Story.

When Frank H. Clergue, promoter of the Lake Superior Consolidated Company, was a little boy in Maine, playing about the lumber wharves in Bangor, he gave promise of his ability at financiering, his old neigh-ability at financiering, his old neighbors say. A circus was coming to town, and the embryo promoter was hard put for the price of a ticket. Then he had an inspiration.

All the water which came to the circus grounds was brought through a wooden tunnel from far up the hill. Its source was an old spring, seldom visited and hard of access. Frank waited until the morning parade was over and the circus help were hungry for their midday meal. Then he mounted the hillside and inserted a wooden plug in the tunnel. By the time he had reached the grounds he found everything ripe for a strike. The water had ceased to run.

"Say, mister, gimme a ticket, an' I'll fix it for you," he offered.

"Fix it, and you can have half a dozen," cried the manager.

Inside of ten minutes the plug was removed, and the horses were drinking their fill. And the boy Frank took five bosom friends to the show.

Swallowed His Passport. The story of the dog sent by express who "et his tag," is a familiar one, but a correspondent of The London Daily Mail at St. Petersburg tells how an elemail at St. Petersburg tells how an ele-phant ate a passport. He says that an Englishman, one of the conductors of the elephants which have been per-forming in the aquarium there, has re-ported to the police the loss of his passport, which occurred under strange conditions. He slept in the same place as the elephants, and as a precaution against their predatory habits used to hang his coat one a nail above their reach. One night by an oversight he hung it on a lower nail, and was suddenly awakened by a disturbance among the animals. Getting up, he saw two of the elephants fighting for the possession of his coat, of which each had a portion his trunk. Before he could intervene the coat was torn in twain, and one of the animals pulled out from his portion the pocket-book containing the Englishman's passport, a small sum of money and a pencil case, and swallowed it. elephants, and as a precaution against

There was a great audience, among whom were several members of the Chamber of Commerce and Maritime Exchange, as well as representatives of the United States Navy. The New York Tribune thus reports his remarks:—Mr. Connery said he would avoid scattering the usual "chunks of wisdom" in the way of advice to the young graduates, and confine himself mainly to one branch of the subject—the treatment of sallors by captains and mates on board American ships. The crueity still practised, he said, was a disgrace to the American merchant marine, and wholly inexcusable, not to say unaccountable, at a time when nearly every other civilized Government had succeeded in protecting the sallorman at sea and on shore. The barbarities were mostly to be met with on sailing ships in deep sea voyages, he declared. He had witnessed them with his own eyes, and the contract of the law witnessed them with his own eyes, and the contract of the laws, which he against trade, and to encourage young men a protect sailors obrutal shipmasters, and protect sailors obrutal shipmasters, had the sailors with the would stress well as at sea, as Great Britan does, he demanded. A SPUNKY MAYOR. Knocked a Russian Official Down for Striking Him.

London, Nov. 10.—Russian corres pondents of The Times say that a systematic agitation has been organized in the Russian provinces of Armenia, where the confiscation of the church property has converted the whole of the native population into rebels. Enormous crowds assemble at the churches, and violent speeches are made, followed by the singing of revolutionary hymns. At Achalkalsky, in the Tiflis Government, after midnight Mass was celebrated a young woman delivered a fiery harangue, and the proceedings were concluded by solemn maledictions upon the Russian Government. At a village near Erivan the villagers were summoned to give up the church property, and the Commissioner of Police, in order to terrorize the crowd, struck the Mayor in the face. The Mayor replied by knocking down the Commissioner and tramping upon him. It was all the police could do to rescue their chief. pondents of The Times say that a sys-

It is strange what fool theories men of good common sense will allow themselves to believe. Listen to this, which comes from one of our veterinary writers: "Oats in the hull will so injure and inflame the lining of the crop of the fowl as to cause death." As a theory, this is bad enough, but when we are told by some poultry edi-tor that we must give up feeding oats because the practice is dangerous, then is becomes ridiculous. As a matter of fact, the hull of the oat is not of an inflammatory, pattern and execution fact, the hull of the oat is not of an inflammatory nature, and contains nothing that can possibly lead to an inflamed condition. Oats fed whole are not even irritating, as the hull is neither stiff nor sharp, and when moistened in the crop of the fowl becomes soft and pliable.

I have fed oats to hens and to growing chicks for years, and have never had one die from this cause. On the contrary, I believe oats to be not only a stimulating and energy-making food, but a very wholesome one as well. From my experience, which is by no means limited, I have come to believe that oats are one of the best well. From my experience, which is by no means limited, I have come to believe that oats are one of the best egg-making foods we have; that they are productive of growth when fed to chicks, and that they go a great way toward keeping up the energy and health of the flock. The hull of the oat may not contain much nourishment, but it has some food value and is harmless.

Hens need some bulk to their feed.

Hens need some bulk to their food, and the oat hulls will keep the food from becoming too compact in the crop and digestive organs. There is no need to resort to the expense of feeding hulled or ground oats, whole oats are better and cheaper.

My flock of laying hens has eaten an average of one-half bushel each during the year—I have sometimes fed more—and the results have been satisfactory. Not a case of crop disease of any kind.—E. C. Dow, Belfast, Me., in N. Y. Tribune. Hens need some bulk to their food

is a species of pasteurized cream and is made as follows :--"The milk must be taken direct from the cow and strained into the pans in the usual way. It should set in a cool dairy, and I believe for want of this cool apartment many a good housewife has failed to turn out the genuwife has failed to turn out the genuine article. Good, sound pans must be used, as they have to bear constant heating. There is an objectionable plan in some establishments of leaving the milk in the sheds for a time after it is drawn from the cow. Clotted cream made from such milk will not turn out a good flavor, as there is sure to have been more or less tainting of milk while standing about. Just now many Devonians milk out in the open field, and if the cows are quiet the plan has its advantages, for there is no tainting of milk there.

"This requires the most care; in-plan has its advantages, for there is no tainting of milk there.

"This requires the most care; indeed, there is nothing else in the whole process but a mere tyro could ananage. As soon as the milk is cold, or, say, about nine or twelve hours after brought from the cow, the pans are lifted to the fire. In big dairies there are what are known as Devonshire stoves especially made for the purpose. The stoves so made, heat water in which a number of pans may be set so as to scald a quantity of milk with little trouble. In smaller dairies the kitchen range does duty, the pans of milk being set in vessels of boiling water, or the pans may be set on a heated range. In any case, the object is to scald the milk, and to do it promptly and exactly. It should reach such a temperature that causes a little movement on the surface—a very slight simmer suffices; then it may be removed back to the dairy to get cold. When cold, the cream is taken off at convenience, and that is clotted cream, which is rightly, so highly esteemed. In cold weather the milk is all the better left for twenty-four hours or even thirty-six, before scalded."—Hoard's Dairyman.

Strawberry Cure for Rheumatism.

"The strawberry cure for rheumatism is the latest fad I have heard of," said a druggist. "This cure has, too, some reason and some fact behind it. Linnaeus, the great naturalist, cured himself of rheumatism with strawberries, and it has recently been proved that strawberries contain salicylic acid, which is the rheumatism remedy that all physicians use. Linnaeus, I understand, was very poor and very rash. In studying nature he would go out in all weathers, and it is said that he would often sleep all night in wet clothes. Consequently, rheumatism developed in him. He cured this disease by eating several quarts of strawberries a day. His biographers narrate the story, and in that way the fruit's popularity as a rheumatic specific was achieved. Lately, on account of the discovery of salicylic acid in strawberries, this popularity has increased. I know a great many rheumatic persons, who are eating strawberries three times a day, with great benefit to their feath. Salicylic acid, the rheumatic specific, is used also to keep milk fresh and to preserve meat."

The size of the seed for potatoes influences the yield. In England whole potatoes are used almost in every section, and successful growers in the United States use seed potatoes cut in half, never cutting to smaller sizes. Deep ploughing, deep planting and level culture give better results than hilling. A single plant in a place gives the largest tubers, but not so many as when two or more plants are together.

Senior Fruit Inspector Alex. Mc-Neill is still attending the fall fairs, giving his interesting and instructive demonstrations of the proper packing and marking of apples and pears for the export trade. He was at Brantford on October 2nd, at Burford on October 7th, and on the 15th he will be in attendance at the Simcoe Model Fair.

LABOR PROBLEMS.

Gampers Discusses Questions of Interest.

Boston, Nov. 10.-With nearly 500 delegates in attendance the 23rd annual convention of the American Federa-tion of Labor commenced, Pre-tion of Labor commenced, President Gompers occupying the chair. He spoke of the proposed Canadian Senate bill aimed at foreign organizers, and defended the Federation from charges of strife-stirring made against it. Concluding his remarks thereon, he said that the report of the Royal Commission which investigated labor troubles in British Columbia reflected on some organizations, but we can proudly declare that not one scintilla or shadow could be thrown reflecting upon the honor, integrity and faithfulness of any organization affiliated to the American Federation of Labor or upon any of its men. Recently I had an interest conversation with Mr. W. L. M. King, chief of the Bureau of Labor for Canada, a member of the commission, and he substantially repeated this to me. We have the right, then, to insist that the bona tially repeated this to me. We have the right, then, to insist that the bona fide labor movement and its men shall not be ostracized or outlawed, particularly when it is the aim and work of the American and Canadian trade unionists of Canada and the remainder of the American continent to make for the well-being, the good citizenship, the loyalty and the fraternity of all We urge upon our fellow-trade union the loyalty and the fraternity of all We urge upon our fellow-trade union ists of Canada to use their utmost endeavors for the maintenance and perpetuation of the fraternal honds existing between us, and to submit to all fair-minded people of the Dominion, including their Government, that unjust legislation, discriminating against the guiltless, must react to the disadvantage of its promoters, and do that which all enlightened men condemn when injustice is inflicted upon any-

APPETITE WAS GONE.

MRS. WALTER MANTHORNE, BROOKLYN, N.S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing o blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."

Hurry Out Sale of Furs

The weather we have had for the last month has been glorious in many respects-good for the farmers, good for the pavement makers and scores of other lines, but it has NOT been good fur weather, and that's the reason for our story to-day.

We know there is lots of cold weather coming, but we cannot afford to wait for it. The fur manufacturers look to us for their money promptly, no matter what the weather may be like. We want the money to pay for all these furs, and we want it right away, so that's why we are going to sell furs at the prices indicated below.

Please remember that all our furs were bought early in April last, and are fully 10 per cent. cheaper than present market prices. When we quote regular price we mean our present marked price which is, as we said, fully 10 per cent. below the present market value of the same goods.

SMALL FURS,

Such as Ruffs, Caperines, Stole Fronts, Boas, etc., in almost endless variety here to choose from as well. You will find prices on them all that are decidedly in your favor. We haven't said anywhere that the prices in the wholesale ones, or that they are either above or below cost, we simply assure you that the values are better than we have ever offered you at any time of the year heretofore. Back of every garment sold stands our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back.

If you have a fur want, it will pay you to see these offerings, and quickly, too, as once any advertised furs are sold we cannot take any special orders to replace them at the same prices

There are at least half a dozen reasons why you should at least know what being shown at Austin's, before you make your purchase. 1.—The breadth of the stock, variety. 2.—Handsomest fabrics shown anywhere. 3.—Correct and stylish cut of the garments. 4.—The excellence of the hidden linings and workmanship. 5.—Finish excelled only by the finest custom work. 6.—Lastly, prices that are decidedly lower than can be found elsewhere, on cloth equal character. These are only a few of the reasons which have built u enormous clothing business here in so short a time. There had to be tangible and decisive evidence of betterness, or the business would neither have come to us nor staid with us. Isn't it to your interest to find getting the best for your money in clothing? Look, for instance, at our tailormade suits and overcoats at $10, $12 and $15.

The Use of Gas Coke for Fuel

A great many people do not know the advantage of using gas coke as the advantage of using gas coke as fuel in furnaces, ranges, coal stoves, or, in fact, in any apparatus that will use coal as fuel. The following letter will give the experience of one of Chatham's prominent business men, who has made a test of the value of Coke as compared with Coal. This letter will explain itself and will be followed by others of a similar na-cure from other customers. Coke in any quantity, promptly. Let have your order for a trial load.

Chatham, Oct., 31, 1903. The Chatham Gas Company, Limited,

Gentlemen,-I have much pleasure in

Gentlemen,—I have much pleasure in testifying to the advantages of using Gas Coke as a heating fuel. I have used it for the past two seasons in my*hot water furnace at the house, and find it very economical, and at the same time easy to regulate.

I may say that last winter I made a test of one ton of coal at $7.00 per ton end the same money's worth of coke, and found that the $7 worth of coke lasted fully one-third longer. May say that the weather conditions were fully as severe, if not more so, during the time I used the coke.

Blood, fibre, tissue, and cells begin to absorb poison from the stomach and alimentary canal instead of nutriment, and right here is the producing cause of Constipation, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Uterine and Ovarian troubles, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervous and Mental Distress, Bronchitis, Heart Affection, Pulmonary Conumption, Ja un di ce, Liver and Skin Diseases.

Inability of the stomach to properly handle food is mainly caused by overeating, drinking too much liquid, gases generated from slow digestion, preventing the mixing of food with gastric juice to properly prepare it for use in the body.

Bourassa was perfectly frank throughout in explaining the views of French-Canadians, and his opinions met with cordial sympathy from the large audience gathered to hear him.

Mr. Bourassa, who was loudly applauded, admitted that he had been preceded by a bad reputation, but he fixed the opportunity of laying before the people the views of his French-Canadian compatriots. He then went into a very frank exposition of those canadian compatriots. He then went into a very fraink exposition of those views, and explained that while French-Canadians understood the English through knowing the language and reading the papers, the English-Canadians, on the contrary, knew nothing of the French-Canadians were widely different from the people of old France with the French-Canadians were widely different from the people of old France. that the French-Caradians were widely different from the people of old France in the most essential qualities, those qualities which should render easier good feeling between the two. As a lawn plant, where the usual grasses can only be grown with great diffi-culty, the fog fruit is a very desirable substitute. It maintains a compact mass of green foliage interspersed with small purple and white flowers, giving it the general angerspacers. it the general appearance of a clover lawn. The fact that it does not require constant applications of the laws mow-er to keep it in presentable condition is another valuable characteristic of the plant. Chief of all, however, are its sell binding properties, and for prevent-ing the washing of reservoir and storm water embankments in dry regions it has no equal.

ADVERTISE IN THE PLANET

THE SAVOR OF OUR DAILY SPEECH

By REV. JOHN J. DOLAN, Pastor Church of the Nativity, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Let your speech be always with grace easoned with salt.—Col., iv., 6.

No gift belongs so peculiarly to man as speech. Many of the irrational creatures surpass us in the gifts we hold in common, but speech is the glory of man alone. As this gift is so truly remarkable, for the use of it we shall be held strictly accountable. "By thy words thou shalt be condemn-ed;" and "For every idle word men shall speak they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

But it is not of the abuse of speech would speak, but of its use in our social intercourse with one another, of its proper employment by Christians, whose tongue is mostly utilized in discourse about the passing things of the day, and who look forward to the time when, before His thone, this same tongue shall announce His praise.

How, then, can Christians carry out the Apostolic injunction mentioned in the text? Can there be grace or savor discovered in the conversations of daily Can our ordinary speech be not only free from blame, but can it also have in it that which is good to the point of edification?

Yes. "There is One that holdeth His peace, that is found wise;" One who lived thirty years in ordinary life and whose tongue gave no offence. He made doors and bars to His mouth and kept His tongue from evil, and in every word was pleasing to His Father. While the Evangelists have given us no account of our Lord's words during those thirty years, yet there are three instances related that unfold to us a fact that our Lord mingled freely in social intercourse with others-first, when he tarried behind after the festival in Jerusalem; next, at the marriage feast in Cana, and then the words "The Son of Man came eating and drinking." These instances show that our Lord did not shun social meetings with His neighbors. For all that, He was in no way odd, but chose to be like unto the mass of His brethren and to pass through life as most of us have to pass through. He took part in all things not sinful in which our daily lives are spent, and thereby gave us the comforting assurance that our low liness and earthliness need not make us sinful, either. He proved conclusively that we need not separate ourselves from our ordinary calling to be acceptable to God.

So Jesus Christ walked with men for many years without separating Himself from them in speech, for His speech was "always with grace, savored with salt." Surely we can learn a lesson after the manner of Christ! Many honest-minded persons have an erroneous idea that conversations cannot be righteous unless religious topics are spoken of, and they regard all who are not prompt in such speech as unspiritual. How unlike Christ is this class! For thirty years Christ drew others toward what was good, yet it was so done as not to attract extraordinary attention to Himself; so done that He seemed to those to whom He spoke as none other than what His outward condition betokened Him, "the carpenter's son." This class, however. attract attention to themselves by placing too much value on religious talk in every day life.

The action of Christ, on the other hand, suggests that our ordinary conversations are vastly more important than our direct religious comments, or, in other words, it is of greater conse quence that we watch over our com mon talk on ordinary matters than that we be often talking religiously, for there is no need for religious conversations to reveal the true inwardness of a man. What is really in a man will be felt in his ordinary discourse. "Out of the abundance of the heart the will be felt in his ordinary discourse. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. A good man, out of a good treasure, bringeth forth good things, and an evil man, out of an evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things." For a truly religious man will have his words always "seasoned with salt."

As in our ordinary meals a little salt, though it does not appear, yet savors the food, so, too, without protruung itself the influence of a good man who has the love and fear of God in his soul will be felt. On the contrary, the man who talks religion, constantly dwelling especially upon himself, his feelings, his experiences, his fitness to teach and guide others, has his speech overseasoned with salt and leaves an unpleasant savor; for if any man think himself religious, "not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his own heart, this man's religion is vain."

Let us strive, then, to use aright this gift of speech, so that in the resurrection, amid the perfections of the future state, our tongue may be deemed worthy to be everla ingly employed in giving glory, honor, praise and thanksgiving to Him who sits upon the throne, and let our prayer be the words of the Psalmist, "Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth and a door around my lips," forever bearing in mind that "a peaceful tongue is a tree of life, but that which is immoderate shall crush the spirit."

A PRIVATE TUNNEL.

One Fourteen Miles Long For Use of

It appears that an interesting work has been going on in Chicago for several years without the knowledge of the people in the excavation of a tunnel fourteen miles long under the business district of the city. This tunnel is a business undertaking simply and is to contain a railway for the transportation of freight among the great mer-cantile houses and between them and the freight stations of the forty-two railways which enter Chicago, besides furnishing accommodation for tele-phone wires and possibly wires of oth-

It is almost incredible that a tunnel of this length, varying in width from six to thirteen feet and in height from eight to fourteen feet, could have been constructed under the most crowded part of a great city without the knowledge even of the newspaper reporters, but the tunnel is far below the surface, the depth varying from twenty-seven to sixty-five feet, so that it was unnecessary to make temporary roadways over it, and the excavated material ha een taken out at night through shafts opening in private grounds and taken away to the lake front.

The ground under Chicago is a soft clay, which was easily excavated, but it has been necessary to line it everywhere with concrete. A considerable portion of the tunnel is already in use, and many business houses have shafts open into it, equipped with elevators by means of which freight packages brought by cars running on the tracks laid in the tunnel are hoisted to the warerooms. Although an underground freight railway of this kind seems ar expensive substitute for trucks and horses, it is quite possible that it may promote economy as well as conven-lence in handling and transferring mer-

Every one must see that the mainte nance of a stable full of horses and wagons and of a multitude of grooms and drivers is an important item in the cost of carrying on business, especially when, as is often the case, the wagons are driven half the time empty or with only one small package in them, and a system by which goods arriving by rail could be at once delivered at their destination with the minimum of handling, while those shipped could be billed through from the shipping clerk's desk, would be of immense advantage to merchants, as well as to the ates still refer to him as "Small Cap" Shafter, a nickname which originated at a banquet given to several army officers in Denver many years ago at which Shafter was one of the guests. One of the Denver papers reported the banquet and gave a complete list of the guests, but when the proof slips were sent to the proof reader he observed that Shafter's name was in lower case type, and so he marked it "small cap," the usual way being to note "sm. c.," meaning that the words should be reset in capitals of small size. It seem that the compositor was not familiar with proof corrections, and, supposing that the note made by the proof reader indicated some military title with which he was not familiar, instead of making the proof correction he substituted the words "Small Cap," and it was so printed in the paper. Shafter was in "a frame of mind" when his attention was called to his name in the paper, but the other officers made much many years.

Chaplain Dean's Advice Benjamin Franklin, a lawyer of Macon. Mo., has been recalling some sto ries of Henry Dean, a chaplain of the United States senate before the war, a turious character, with the picturesque forcibleness of language of a pioneer and a voice of extraordinary range Perhaps this is one of the most inter esting of the stories: "When I started for Charlton county, Mo., in 1884 to teach a country school near Brunswick." says Mr. Franklin, "Dean voluntarily gave me a letter of recom-mendation to his friend, Casper W. Bell, a noted citizen. He also offered this advice, and I will never forget it, as it has served me well: Benjamin, l want to say this to you: You will always find that mankind will respect you most when it sees the ivory handle of your pistol sticking out of your pocket."

A New Milk Product.

Galalith is the name of a new substance made from skimmed milk by treating the casein with metallic salts and scaps and, finally, with formalde byde. It is as hard as celluloid, takes a fine polish, is odorless and is less in-flammable than the gun cotton and camphor combination, At the recent Hygienic Milk Supply exposition in Hamburg there were shown tollet arti-cles, chess figures and even tables made of the new substance. These had the appearance of marble, as galalith takes kindly to various coloring proc-esses, but were far lighter in weight. As an article of commerce it is des-tined, so its sponsors believe, to become widely used and correspondingly reasonable in cost.

A man talks about owning his business. But as a matter of fact his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business owns him to be about the business of the busi regulated by the demants of the business. The time at which he rises, his breakfast hour, the time given to meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he can't spare the time from business" to eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business. The reabsolute slave to business. The results which follow this slavery are to be seen on every hand. Men dyspeppeptic, irritable, nervous, with drawn faces, and hollow eyes, sit at the desk or stand behind the counter until they or stand behind the counter until they collapse in a fit of sickness, or are taken away by heart failure. Those who cannot escape the exactions of business will find a friend in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, increases increasing the vicality and physical vigor. It makes men strong and prevents those business break-downs which so often terminate fatally.

A SCOUT'S HARD LIFE.

Some of the Hardships and Dangers That Must Be Faced.

An unfortunate, says Leslie's Month-ly, was sent with a dispatch to one of the smaller outposts in the far northwest. It was toward spring, when the midday sun thaws the surface of the snow and the light frosts harden the melted crusts to a glace of ice as dazzlingly bright as the blinding flashes of sunlight from polished steel. The thaw had crusted over the trail, and the scout had to keep a sharp eye on the way not to lose the path altogether. Suddenly the midday sun developed extraordinary hues. Magenta, purple and black patches began to dance on the snow, alternately with wheels and rockets of cheese colored fire. Then the light went out altogether, though the man knew that it was broad day. He had become snow blind. The only thing was to give his horse the bit.

The horse stood stock still. By that time he knew that he had lost the trail altogether or the broncho would have followed any visible path. He wheeled the horse about. It still refused to go on, and then the man inferred that the crust of ice had been so hard that the horse could not follow back the way it had come. That night the trooper slept under saddle blankets, with the faithful horse standing sentry.

For five days the trooper wandered blindly over the prairies, losing all count of time, eating snow to quench his thirst and sleeping in the holes that the broncho had pawed through the ice crust to the under grass. The trooper was now too weak to mount and keep the saddle. As a last hope the thought struck him that if he unsaddled his horse and turned it loose might find its way back to the fort, and so notify his friends that he was lost. He did this, but the faithful creature refused to leave the man lying on of all his efforts to drive it off. On the sixth day the mail carrier found the pair. The trooper was severely frozen, but the rider and horse lived to see many another day's service.

Agnes and Ethel are the kind of twins it is difficult for intimates of the family to distinguish apart. They are four years old and a source of despair to mere acquaintances.

A friend of the family met one of the twins on the street the other day and

"Now, which are you, Agnes or Ethel? I simply can't tell you apart." "I'm Agnes," gurgled the small maiden, and then she put one of her chubby little fingers in her mouth and mumbled: "You can tell me easy. I'm the one with the loose tooth."

The Turk and the Grave.

In Russia many of the peasantry still bury their dead in grottoes and caves, just as their princes and noble men were accustomed to do centuries ago. In Constantinople, as in other Turkish cities, bodies are placed in the ground as soon as the last spark of life has fied. The Mussulman believes that as long as the body is unburied the spirit is in torment and that it is a crime akin to murder to molest a grave. Accordingly, the cemeteries around many oriental cities far exceed in extent the shodes of the living.

The fair young thing was telling about how bappy she was when she saw her brother's baseball team win the intercollegiate game "Oh," she gur the intercollegiate game. "On," she gur-gled, "I was so delighted that I just hugged myself for joy!" Here the grave professor of psychol-ogy looked up with an air of interest.

"Hugged yourself?" he asked. "In-deed, you must have been quite beside yourself to have done that."—Judge.

Blind Swimmer's Straight Steering It is a standing puzzle that all blind swimmers are able to hold an almost perfectly straight course for very con-siderable distances, though no more guidance is given to them than seme species of call er whistle coming from the winning goal. A blind man, in fact, desiring to go in a straight line possesses the curious power of being possesses the curious power of being able to do se almost exactly. A pro-vincial mayor instituted a series of contests in an open lake between blind men and ordinary ones of about equal skill and strength, and the result was marvelous so far as the straight steering of the blind was concerned.-Lon don Chronicle.

W.C.T.U. Convention Closed-Cigarette Bill to be Reintroduced in the Commons-Superintendents

Elected-Resolutions Passed -King's Reply to Congratulations.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.-The W. C. T. U. convention has adjourned after getting through a formidable programme of business. At one time yesterday it seemed probable that another session might be needed to-morrow, but extra exertions were made and greater brevity adopted in discussion and when 6 o'clock came the order paper was cleared. To-night there was an entertainment, at which the ladies enjoyed a relaxation from their arduous labors of the past few days.

The following Superintendents of

The following Superintendents of Missions in Ontario were elected:—Peace and Arbitration, Mrs. M. J. Wright, Aylmer; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. C. B. Bigelow, Cornwall; Purity and White Shield, Mrs. (Rev.) D. V. Lucas, Grimsby; Evangelistic, Mrs. A. Gordon, Ottawa; Foreign Work, Mrs. Chisholm; Raftsmen and Lumbermen, Mrs. Hilborn, Toronto; Flower, Fruit and Delicacy Mission, Mrs. Harry Lavell, Smith's Falls; Y.W.C.T.U. branch, Secretary, Mrs. F. W. Waycott, Montreal; Women's Journal, Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, Toronto; Juvenile and Bands of Mercy, Mrs. M. J. Poole, St. Catharines; Anti-narcotics, Mrs. Jennie Waters, Hamilton; Press, Mrs. E. A. Stevens, Toronto; Schools of Methods, Mrs. May R. Thornley, London.

E. A. Stevens, Toronto; Schools of Methods, Mrs. May R. Thornley, London.

Resolutions on the following subjects were adopted:—(1) Upon the suggestion of Lady Henry Somerset, requesting Great Britain to take the necessary steps to restrain Turkey from oppressing its subjects, and if possible to prevent a recurrence of the atroctites; (2) To discourage the giving of prizes in progressive games as a form of gambling; (3) To prevent indulgence in the tobacco habit to the detriment of others on street cars, trains and steamboats; (4) In favor of carrying out the mandate of the House of Commons and re-introducing the anti-cigarette bill; (5) Protesting against publishing the prospectus of a New Orleans gambling syndicate in Canadian papers; (6) Condemning the habit of using patent medicines, in which there is a large percentage of alcohol; (7) Urging the President of the World's Fair Exposition at St. Louis to use his influence for the suppression of houses of ill-fame and gambling places in that city; (8) Reaffirming the union's policy of total abstinence for the union and prohibition for the State; (9) In favor of a continuance of efforts for the better enforcement of the military regulations in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors at canteens in military comps of instruction and better observance of the temperance pledge in military colleges; (10) Encouragement of the training of women for public speaking and urging local unions to take part in local contests; (11) In favor of scientific teaching as to the effects from the use of alcohol and tobacco being placed on the same footing as other studies in the public schools. and tobacco being placed on the same footing as other studies in the public footing as other studies in the public schools.

The ladies were delighted to receive this reply from the King to their message of congratulation upon his birthday:

"Sandringham, Nov. 10.—The King thanks the members very much for their loyal congratulations on occasion of his birthday. (Signed) Knollys."

There was quite a flutter over some remarks attributed to Rev. Dr. Chown in a newspaper report of a sermon at Toronto. The paragraph in question declared "that there was an aldermanic Toronto. The paragraph in question declared "that there was an aldermanic contest in Quebec between a Roman Catholic temperance candidate and a Roman Catholic liquor seller. The contest was so close as to be a question of single votes. There were seven voters hanging around waiting to be bribed. Five ladies, members of the W. C. T. U., had votes and the liquor party bought up five of the seven. The temperance organization raised $14 and purchased the votes of the remaining two and won the election."

Some of the ladies thought the report must be garbled. The President, Mrs. Rutherford, did not think there was any reflection on the W. C. T. U. One lady suggested that no notice be taken of the matter. Finally it was decided to send the clipping to Dr. Chown and ask him for an explanation. Toronto. The paragraph in question declared "that there was an aldermanic

Rev. Dr. Chown stated last night in reference to the above:—"The only re-ference that I made to the W. C. T. U. in the sermon was that in the contest referred to five members of the W. C. T. U. were willing to vote if needed, and they voted for the temperance candidate. I said anothing at all about didate. I said nothing at all about the W. C. T. U. buying votes."

FIRE IN COAL HOUSE.

Thirty Thousand Dollars is Estimated Loss. Toronto, Nov. 11. — The Con-umers' Gac Company's large sumers' coal and coke house at Parliament and Front streets was visited by fire, which broke out a little after the noon hour vesterday. The damage, the company's officers say, will not exceed $30,000, covered by insurance to the extent of $81,500. The flames were first noticed in the south end of the building, and a general alarm brought the whole fire department to the scene. Within a few minutes Chief Thompson had half a dozen lines of hose playing on the building, and by 1.30 the fire was under control. Chief Thompson and the firemen have good cause to complain of the poor pressure. The 8,000 tons of coal in the building escaped serious damage, and the building was only partially destroyed. The machinery also escaped serious damage. The cause is unknown. by fire, which broke out a little after

Current Comment of Citizens Gathered for Planet Readers

THE MAJOR'S DEVOTIONS. "I have just received my Bible," renarked Major Coogan this morning a ne sat down to a perusal of the Military Gazette.

The Major spent the larger portion of his life in the army and still takes a keen interest in all matters pertaining to it.

SOURCE OF DANGER.

There is a matter to which attention has been repeatedly drawn, and which should be attended to at once by the authorities," said Robert Cucksey to The The Planet to-day, "and that is the danger of runaway accidents caused by loose paper flying around on ed by loose paper flying around on King street on windy days. I was standing on a street corner near Austin's store the other evening when a large piece of paper was carried by the wind down the centre of the street. A young horse was tied to a near-by post and he became greatly frightened. He pranced up and down for some time until he was quieted down again. If he had not been securely tied he would have surely runaway. There is a by-law against throwing paper on the street and it should be observed where possible. It was the street and it should be observed where possible.

NOCTURNAL DARKNESS.

"Why is it that the electric light on the corner of Lorne Ave. and Raleigh street has not been liv for the past month?" asked a resident of that vi-cinity this morning. "The light should be taken out althgether or else the city should provide power chough to have it lit regularly."

THAT ELUSIVE CREDIT.

"Well, who's got the credit for the Lake Erie settlement now, and who s going to get the credit for Wabash shops if we get them?" asked Ald. Archie McCoig this morning. "Did it ever strike you who would claim the credit if the settlement had not been made or if it had been a failure? I think that if the men who are claiming credit would only stop for a min-ute and remember that the settle-ment was obtained because the Coun-cil only did their duty, you would not hear so much talk about it. You must remember the Council is elected each year for the express purpose ooking after the city's business."

GREAT SCARCITY.

"It is a long time since there was such a scarcity of eggs," said a Queen street grocer to a Planet reocrter this morning. "We have only received a dozen or so since Saturday. The price is now in the neighborhood of 28 cents and there need be no surprise if eggs cost 30 cents per dozen on the market Saturday.

TO EXTEND PAVEMENT.

"Abraham Huff, of Queen Street South, was down Queen St., here, this morning," remarked a citizen of that now busy thoroughfare to a Plane reporter, "and he expressed himself as being willing to pay his share to have the pavement extended to Indian the pavement extended to Indian Creek. He seemed very enthusiastic over the new street and thought it would be a great thing to have it ex-tended to the creek."

SITUATION IS CRITICAL.

Impressive Words of Premier of Tokio, Japan, Nov. 11.-Premier Katsura has received a deputation of the anti-Russian League. He impressed the delegates with the necessity for complete unity and solidarity sity for complete unity and solidarity among the people in face of the existing situation, which, he declared, was most critical.

There is a strong inclination in well-informed circles to doubt the pacific forecasts issued in Europe. It is believed here that peace will-only-be made possible by Russia's complete acceptance of Japan's claims regarding Manchuria. The Japanese Government finds it increasingly difficult to restrain popular sentiment.

ment finds it increasingly difficult to restrain popular sentiment.

At an important dinner this evening at the Imperial Hotel, at which over 250 persons were present, representing all sections, a resolution was adopted amid the greatest enthusiasm, declaring that the continued delay was detrimental to the national interests and to peace in the far east, and urging the Government to take prompt and decisive action.

London, Nov. 11.—The Tokio correspondent of The London Daily Mail says he is informed that the French Minister to Japan, in an interview, has denied that he has been instructed to mediate between Japan and Russia. The Minister characterized the Anglo-Japanese alliance as a diplomatic failure. The Minister careacterizes the London Landon Landon

Japanese alliance as a diplomatic fail-ure. The Minister, according to The Daily Mail's informant, said in conclu-sion:—"Why should not Japan join Russia, and so inflict a crushing blow on England in the far east?"

LONDON MAN KILLED.

A Lathe Fell on Mr. Bartholemey Clampitt.

London, Ont., Nov. 11.—Bartholomew (unloading a unloading a three-ton lathe, when the machine fell off the truck, crushing Mr. Clampitt so that he died in a very few minutes. The accident occurred at the company's work on King street. Deceased was 71 years of age, and lived at 20 Colborne street. He leaves an invalid wife, one daughter and two sons.

From the first day that we opened our first store, one of our first thoughts has ever been to care for the clothing wants of the boy. Don't you think that after 15 years of such care and such thought, we ought to know something of the boy and his togs? Then it was one small store with a few dozen suits for boys, now it is three large stores with hundreds and hundreds of boys' suits, and our knowledge has increased with the stores and stocks.

Then we clothed a small proportion of the boys of one city, now we clothe hundreds of boys all over Western Ontario.

There is a big showing of fancy suits for the little follows and an extensive range of stylish, mannish suits for the larger boys, all made from the most correct pat-terns in fall tweeds. Also all the new styles in both hard
