Zion Church And St. Judes

Debate in the Subject of "The Evils of Fashion and Intemperance"

Monday evening was educational night at the Zion Y. P. G., under the direction of Mr. Harvey T. Watt, the popular vice-president of that department. A debate between Zion and St. Judes was the feature of the evening, the subject being, "Resolved, that the evils of fashion exceed the evils of alcoholic intemperance." The affirmative was upheld by Misses J. Mitchell, A. Carpenter and C. Mitchell, for Zion, while the negative was handled by Misses E. Burr, Peattie and L. Pelling for St. Judes. The debate proved a most interesting one, many points, especially on the affirmative side giving new food for thought to the large audience assembled, and the speeches proved the ability of the young ladies participating. The judges, Messrs Rev. Jenkins, Foster and J. S. Dowling, brought in a report in favor of the negative, while Rev. G. A. Woodside acted in the capacity of critic, summing up the debate, and the rules of debate in general, in a few well chosen remarks. While the judges were out, Miss L. Anguish delighted all with a well rendered solo, after which refreshments were served. After speeches from the president of St. Judes, A. Y. P. A., Mr. F. Pelling, and Rev. Mr. Jenkins, the meeting was brought to a close by the benediction, all voting it the best yet of the many evenings enjoyed with St. Judes A. Y. P. A.

DEBATE HELD BY YOUNG PEOPLE

Alexandra Young People Entertained Balfour Street Society on Monday.

On Monday evening the Alexandra Presbyterian Young Peoples Society very hospitably entertained the Balfour St. Young Peoples Society in the form of a debate and social evening. The subject of the debate was "Resolved that the awakening of China is a menace to civilization." The Alexandra Presbyterian Young Peoples upheld the affirmative, and the Balfour St. Presbyterian Young Peoples upheld the negative.

The speakers for Alexandra Presbyterian Young Peoples Society were Miss N. Rogers, Mrs. C. May and Mr. N. McDonald. For Balfour St. Presbyterian Young Peoples Society, Miss Grace Raynor, Mr. John Dewar and Mr. Ernest Danby. Much enthusiasm and interest was taken in the debate.

The judges for the debate were Mr. Albert Tomlinson, Mr. Thomas Lyle, and Mr. John Conway. While they were making their decision, the Alexandra Presbyterian Young Peoples Society put on an excellent program which was very much appreciated. The judges then awarded their decision in favor of the negative, upheld by Balfour St. Presbyterian Young Peoples Society. Lunch was then served, and after everyone had done ample justice to the tempting viands, the evening was brought to a close by the singing of "God be with you till we meet again," and repeating the Mizpah.

GRAND JURY ON ROUNDS

No Fault Found With Public Institutions--All Running Smoothly.

The Grand Jury yesterday visited public institutions and at the High Court this morning made the following presentation to Mr. Justice Kelly:

We first visited the County Jail and found it in excellent condition. The inmates appear to be well looked after and matters in general all that could be desired.

We next visited the House of Refuge, and so far as the management is concerned, we could find no fault with the system used for the benefit of the inmates.

We next visited the Brant Sanatorium, Beautifully situated as it is, it suggests to the visitor its great value to the citizens as a tubercular sanatorium.

We next visited the Brantford General Hospital, where everything appears to be well-managed and things running as smoothly as is possible under existing conditions.

interest and gave us a description of the new dormitories nearing completion. We were strongly impressed with the number of modern appliances provided for the protection of life and property and also the neat and clean appearance of things generally.

The citizens of Brantford have every reason to feel proud of such an institution in their city, and one which is doing so much for the alleviation of affliction and suffering.

All of which is respectfully submitted. Signed on behalf of the Grand Jury, W. H. FREEBORN, Foreman.

MONEY TIED UP

All Coins Found in Mail Are Sent to the Dead Letter Offices.

Thousands of letters are lying in the dead letter offices in Ottawa, Toronto and other cities that contain money. That is the reason why they are in the dead office.

Many retail houses do a good deal of rural business in this way. Many of their customers enclose coins in envelopes and send them through the post to retail houses.

It is not expected that the order will remain long in force. Strong representations against it have been made to the postmaster-general.

Military Notes

At a meeting of C. Company, 38th Regiment, Sergt. E. J. Brunsten was elected company representative to the Rifle Association.

A rig, express wagon and a motor car were nearly mixed up in a general scrap heap this morning when the car suddenly rounded the post office corner and came across the rig and wagon both coming down George St.

With splendid presence of mind he almost halted the car and managed to get through between the horse and drawn vehicle by a splendid exhibition of driving skill.

MEREDITH CASE IS BEING HEARD (Continued from Page 1.) commit suicide. Detective Chapman and Constable Boylan had the factory watched and she was arrested. She gave a total denial of all charges and repeated the denial before Chief Slemin, who told her that she must submit to a medical examination. Dr. Ashton then entered the case and made at the police station the physical examination against the wishes of the girl. This assault was not legal and His Lordship could tell them the law upon that point. The police had no right to examine any person physically in their custody. This assault was the subject of the claim for damages, which was laid to-day. They were not suing him for the arrest or for any of the actions which led to the girl's appearance at the police station. He was only sued in connection with the assault committed, and his only possible defence was consent, and he would frankly say this would be the defence contended. He therefore asked the jury to consider conscientiously all evidence put before them.

"WAIT AND SEE" SAYS PRESIDENT NELSON TO THE ANXIOUS FANS

Have you got a team? This question is and has been continually fired at President Nelson, the Red Sox boss, for weeks past. Well, Mr. Nelson finds it hard to answer. "You know," he said, "it is the easiest thing on earth to dope out a winner on paper. Any man can have nine or fifteen players, assign them to their positions, sit back and dream about filling a ball park, because he has the championship tucked away. Fake it from me, we are not making that mistake this year. If we have a winner, it won't be long before the people know about it; if we have a loser, the fans will tell us about it mighty quick. The news will out some way."

Then Mr. Nelson expressed his hope that Manager Deneau would have a real team. "Certainly whatever represents Brantford this year, will be an improvement on last year. From the time we picked Deneau out to manage the club," said the Red Sox boss, "we had reason to think he would not be a failure in Brantford. He has never been a failure in three years, and it looks reasonable to expect that he will be able to make things go here."

"You can't tell about all the players Deneau has signed until you see them. He can't tell himself, but he has had an ear to the ground on most of them, and if their records count for anything the team should be a good one. From this end of it I do know that the club never has paid the money for pitchers, in particular, which we are paying this year. If that part of a contract calls for games won, the Red Sox percentage this year should be fairly respectable."

"Obviously," said Mr. Nelson, "after past experience winning the pennant in the month of April is not good business. I would like to be able to answer the numerous questions of the fans, but they'll have to wait and see."

"Then there's no truth in the rumor that you're trying to run the club on the cheap?"

"GET OUT OF HERE!"

Sporting Comment

The London Advertiser is credited with the statement that "Dad" Stewart would in all probability be seen in a Red Sox uniform this year. Brantford isn't an old man's home, nor are they after Stewart. That worthy may have had some good ball in him in his earlier days, but Brantford doesn't want Joe Joe Keenan the second on the team this year. Manager Deneau has all the men he needs this year, and he is not looking for any more men at present until he gets rid of some he has. It would be well to remember that this is as good as a class B league, which it will in all probability be before many moons, and the players this year will have to be a good bit faster than they were last year.

Despite their defeat at Woodstock College last Friday night, the local Collegiate Institute basketball team are confident they can reverse the score on their next Friday night when the return game will be played in the Collegiate gymnasium. The Brantford team is a well balanced one, and they work systematically every play being made on a signal. Slennin and Woods on the forward line are whirlwinds and demon shooters. It is hard to say which is the better. Both can shoot from any position and both work together. MacDonald at centre could not be improved upon. He is a tall rangy player with plenty of weight, and the way he handles himself is a treat to watch. Hitchon and Secord on the defence are both fast men and hard checks and stick to their men all the time. They also feed the forwards very skillfully, which greatly adds to the work of the team. Next Friday night will undoubtedly see the fastest game of the season, and a big crowd is expected.

Real Stuff on Friday Night

Charlie Conkle Agrees to Throw Hank Peters--Will be Some Bout

Another series of boxing and wrestling bouts which will undoubtedly be the best put on in this city will be staged at the Grand Opera House Friday night of this week when Hank Peters of the Big Six Nations Indian who threw Harry Ireland here last week, will try conclusions with Charlie Conkle the man who once threw Frank Gotch in Buffalo and who is conceded to be one of the best wrestlers in Canada. Conkle is old, but those who know him and have seen him in action, say he still has his old cunning and tricks which have won so many bouts for him. Peters is a big husky fellow who has a world of power and speed but who is practically a novice at the game. Peters is confident that he can throw the Hamilton man and Conkle is equally confident that he can't and when these two come together on Friday night the fans will witness a battle royal.

Conkle sprung a new one on the sporting fans yesterday when he made the announcement that after his bout with the Indian, he will throw Ireland Golding and Peters all inside of 20 minutes. Some people say he can't do it, but he is equally confident that he will be something doing.

Wag Bremner, the local boy and Books of Hamilton will also furnish a good bout.

Those who avail themselves of the opportunity to see these bouts will undoubtedly get their money's worth as they promise to be the best bouts of the season.

EDDIE HOLLY WILL MANAGE TORONTO

McCaffery Releases Three Players From International League Team to Canadian Leaguers.

TORONTO April 1—President Jas. J. McCaffery of the Toronto Ball club announces the release of Eddie Holly, Pitcher; McGinn, Infielder; Charlie Isaacs, and Catcher T. C. Burns to the Toronto Canadian League team. Burns, McGinn and Isaacs are all three Toronto boys. Burns and McGinn were with the Don Valley league last year while Isaacs was with the New York State League. The release of Eddie Holly settles the question of the management of the Canadian League team.

Canadian League News Notes

Thraikill, the new third baseman signed by Midge Craen, of the Saints, is an Indian. He batted .248 last season, and fielded .934. St. Thomas will have Nevitt, another Indian, on its lineup.

Manager Yates of the Hamilton club will report in that city on Wednesday. The Hamilton management will then be wised up as to the players that have been signed up for this season.

Ottawa has become enthused over the fact that Fran! Smijkel has signed up for 1914. Smijkel was a joke last season, and it is hard to see why Ottawa should show any interest in his return to the club.

Bill Baker has not yet signed up with the Saints. Bill is "pursuing the even tenor of his way" at the London Hospital for the Insane, where he is employed; and he is not worrying any. The Saints cannot get along without him and they'll come across all right.

Little is heard about the Erie club these days, but there is no doubt that Manager Smith is doing some signing up on the quiet and he will have a fine collection of players when the season opens.

The Senators will train at Chatham this spring but London would make a better training place than the Maple City. This city has a fine ball park and springs that equal those at Chatham, while the weather is just as good.

Toronto Telegram: Joe O'Hara, the diminutive outfielder, is popular with the club, and the members are all hoping he will make the Toronto Canadian League team for a place on which he is a candidate. A quiet and gentlemanly little chap. Everybody is pulling for him.

According to Dr Reisinger Dummy Taylor should have no trouble making good at Erie. The former Giant has a great head on him and lots of experience. Many of them get by on less.

Bradshaw, the Berlin pitcher drafted by Toronto, will hardly do for the International League team, but it is likely he will be found with the Canadian Leaguers.

HUSBAND GOES BANKRUPT, WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Henry Siegel Was Formerly Allowed $25,000 Per Year.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Henry Siegel, the bankrupt banker and merchant under indictment for grand larceny and violation of the state banking laws is named as defendant in a suit for absolute divorce which counsel for Mrs. Marc Vaughn Siegel, said would be filed to-day. It is understood that two correspondents are named.

Mrs. Siegel was the widow of Geo. M. Wilde, brother of Real-Admiral

Wilde, United States navy, when she came to New York from her home in Virginia in search of work. She was employed as a newspaper writer and was assigned to write a story about the Siegel stores, when they opened. There she met Siegel. She resigned from the staff of the newspaper and went to work for Siegel. In 1898 they were married.

Until four years ago, Siegel and his wife maintained luxurious establishments in New York, Mamaroneck and London.

Four years ago, Mrs. Siegel went abroad. Then the fact that the couple had separated became known. Siegel became known as paying his wife $25,000 a year. These payments, however are declared to have been discontinued some time ago, after Siegel's affairs became involved.

Mrs. Siegel arrived in New York from Paris about five weeks ago, she consulted her attorney and they prepared a divorce complaint.

A Thrilling Story

Of Revolution, Liberty and War

By FREDERICK STARR, of the University of Chicago

MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES

Tells not only what is known of the earliest inhabitants of the country, but it also gives a careful, most absorbing account, of the course of government and the conditions and modes of life of the people since the invasion and conquest of the Spaniards. It traces the development of railroads, commerce and progress, and the vital part which foreign capitalists and adventurers have played. It portrays the cruel rule of the Spanish viceroys, the terrors of slavery and peonage, and the oppression of the working people. It describes the winning of freedom in Mexico, the Texan revolution, the war with the United States, the French invasion, the empire of Maximilian, the rise of Diaz and the development of the peculiar, complicated conditions that have resulted in the present situation.

A Country Exploited for Benefit of the Few

It is in the revelation of Mexico's intolerable political and economic conditions that the book possesses one of its chief values. The story of the evils which exist in Mexico has never been adequately told. All previous attempts have been suppressed by powerful influences. Now, however, in this volume is given a complete description of the conditions which exist—a description which will arouse a nation and compel reformation.

The Eyes of the Civilized World are upon Mexico. All nations are to-day watching unhappy Mexico, where bullets are more potent than ballots, and where the force of arms has replaced the consent of the people in maintaining a form of government. The struggle which is being carried on for the establishment of justice and civil rights is of greater moment than merely its effect upon Mexicans.

To be fully informed on this very vital question one must read this book. Over 400 large octavo pages. Fine super paper. Over 100 great photographs, maps and portraits. Artistically bound in fine book cloth. $3.50

CROWN'S CASE IS SUBMITTED

Krafchenko Trial in Manitoba Is Still Continuing—More Facts Are Revealed.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

MORDE... Man, April 1.—The Winnipeg end of the crown's case against Jack Krafchenko in connection with the Plum Coulee robbery and murder was begun this morning when Ovido Bebeau, keeper of a Winnipeg cafe, was put on the stand. Bebeau testified that he rented a room to Krafchenko on the morning of December 4th, the day after the murder. Krafchenko then was a stranger to the witness and gave his name as Williams, describing himself as a railroad man.

Bebeau said he had had a conversation with the supposed Williams regarding the Plum Coulee affair.

"Do you think Krafchenko did that in Plum Coulee?" he asked.

"No Krafchenko would not do that," replied the accused.

Benjamin Ralph a Winnipeg chauffeur, supposed to be one of the most important witnesses from the crown's standpoint, took the stand.

WHOLESALE PRICE OF COAL REDUCED

But Local Retailers Will Not Make Reduction Until About May 1.

The wholesale price of hard coal dropped to-day by 50 cents per ton but local dealers state there will be no reduction in the retail price until May 1. The price is now $7.75. The reason for not reducing the price at once is because the dealers have a considerable quantity of coal on hand all of which was purchased at the top wholesale price, and it will take about a month to unload this. Furthermore coal ordered now at the reduced prices from the wholesale companies would not arrive before May 1. Local dealers say that their prices this year have been lower than many other cities, Toronto, for instance charging $8.25 per ton.

Workmen Will Get Judgment

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

TORONTO, April 1.—The appellate division has dismissed the appeals of R. S. Blome Company, contractors of Hamilton, from the decision of Mr. Justice Middleton, awarding two of their workmen damages for injuries received in the fall of a hoist. Spencer Fitzgerald, bricklayer, was awarded $3,500, and Joseph G. Johnstone, laborer, was awarded $2,500. The two men had been sent up to fill apertures in the wall of the Fowler Canadian Company's new factory last August. The breaking of a rope jarred the engine operating the hoist and released the clutch round which the hoist cable was wound. The two men fell about thirty feet. They sued for $10,000 each.

"Stow it!" retorted one of the men in a surly tone. "You're no admiral, you shrimp!"

"I'm cap'n here, though, I'll have you to understand, you 'blundering' Snipes with a volley of oaths.

"Steady, boys," cautioned one of the men who had not spoken before. "It ain't goin' to get us nothin' by fightin' among ourselves."

"Right enough," replied the sailor who had resented Snipes' autocratic tones. "But by the same token it ain't goin' to get nobody nothin' to put on airs in this bloomin' company neither."

"You fellows dig here," said Snipes, indicating a spot beneath the tree. "And while you're diggin' Peter kin be a-makin' of a map of the location so's we kin find it again. You, Tom and Bill, take a couple more down and fetch up the chest."

"Wot are you a-goin' to do?" asked he of the previous altercation. "Just boss?"

"Git busy there!" growled Snipes. "You didn't think your cap'n was a-goin' to dig with a shovel, did you?"

The men all looked up angrily. None of them liked Snipes, and his disagreeable show of authority since he had murdered King, the real head and ringleader of the mutineers, had only added fuel to the flames of their hatred.

"Do you mean to say that you don't intend to take a shovel and lend a hand with this work?" asked Tarrant, the sailor who had before spoken.

"No," replied Snipes simply, fingering the butt of his revolver.

"Then," shouted Tarrant, "if you won't take a shovel you'll take a pick-axe."

With the words he raised his pick above his head and with a mighty blow buried the point in Snipes' brain. For a moment the men stood silently looking at the result of their fellow's grim humor. Then one of them spoke.

"Served the rat jolly well right," he said.

One of the others commenced to ply his pick to the ground. The soil was soft, and he threw aside the pick and grasped a shovel; then the others joined him. There was no further comment on the killing, but the men worked in a better frame of mind than they had since Snipes had assumed command.

When they had a trench of ample size to bury the chest, Tarrant suggested that they enlarge it and inter Snipes' body on top of the chest.

"It might 'elp fool any as 'appened to be diggin' 'erabouts," he explained.

The others saw the cunning of the suggestion, and so the trench was lengthened to accommodate a corpse, and in the center a deeper hole was excavated for the box, which was first wrapped in sailcloth and then lowered to its place, which brought its top about a foot below the bottom of the grave. Earth was shoveled in and tamped down about the chest until the bottom of the grave showed level and uniform.

Two of the men then rolled the rat faced corpse unceremoniously into the grave after first stripping it of its weapons and various other articles which the several members of the party coveted.

They then filled the grave with earth and tramped upon it until it would hold no more.

The balance of the loose earth was thrown far and wide and a mass of dead undergrowth spread in as natural a manner as possible over the new made grave to obliterate all signs of the ground having been disturbed.

Their work done, the sailors returned to the small boat and pulled off rapidly toward the Arrow.

The breeze had increased considerably and as the smoke upon the horizon was now plainly discernible in considerable volume the mutineers lost no time in getting under full sail and bearing away toward the southwest.

Tarzan wondered what the chest they had buried contained. If they did not wish it why did they not merely throw it into the water? That would have been much easier.

Ah, he thought, but they do wish it. They have hidden it here because they intend returning for it later.

He dropped to the ground and commenced to examine the earth about the excavation. He was looking to see if these creatures had dropped anything which he might like to own. Soon he discovered a spade hidden by the underbrush which they had laid upon the grave.

He seized it and attempted to use it as he had seen the sailors do. It was awkward work and hurt his bare feet, but he persevered until he had partially uncovered the body. This he dragged from the grave and laid to one side.

Then he continued digging until he had unearthed the chest. This also he dragged to the side of the corpse. Then he filled in the smaller hole he had dug, replaced the body and low the grave, and above it, covered it over with underbrush and returned to the chest.

Four sailors had sweated beneath the burden of its weight. Tarzan of the apes picked it up as though it had been empty and, with the spade slung to his back by a piece of rope, carried it off into the densest part of the jungle.

He could not well negotiate the trees with his awkward burden, but he kept to the trails and so made fairly good time.

For several hours he traveled until

WHITE SWAN BAKING POWDER

THE SECRET OF SUCCESSFUL BAKING!

"It all depends, madam, on the kind of baking powder you use."

"White Swan Baking powder makes every baking an assured success, because it is chemically pure and its materials are accurately combined by experts to give proper strength."

"You can always rely on 'White Swan' to produce light, sweet, digestible and wholesome biscuits, cakes and pastry."

Scientific Reasons.

Baking Powder is primarily a preparer of food, when mixed under proper conditions, a chemical reaction takes place, giving off a leavening gas. The residue left in the food you eat is not the original baking powder, but an entirely new substance.

In cream of tartar baking powders, the residue in the food is 70% of its weight Rochelle Salts, which are medicinal and harmful to the system when taken this way.

White Swan Baking Powder is a phosphate, leaving only a 30% residue, which is a fibrous bone building substance—recommended by authoritative physicians as the best baking powder for kitchen use. Order it from your grocer—in 10c or 25c tins.

White Swan Spices & Cereals Limited, Toronto

he came to an impenetrable wall of matted and tangled vegetation. Then he took to the lower branches, and in another fifteen minutes he emerged into the amphitheater of the apes, where they met in council or to celebrate the rites of the dumtum.

Near the center of the clearing and not far from the drum, or altar, he commenced to dig. This was harder work than turning up the freshly excavated earth at the grave, but Tarzan of the apes was persevering, and so he kept at his labor until he was rewarded by seeing a hole sufficiently deep to receive the chest and effectually hide it from view.

Now the natural curiosity, which is as common to men as to apes, prompted Tarzan to open the chest and examine its contents, but the heavy lock and massive iron bands baffled both his cunning and his immense strength, so that he was compelled to bury the chest without having his curiosity satisfied.

By the time Tarzan had hunted his way back to the vicinity of the cabin, feeding as he went, it was quite dark.

Within the little building a light was burning, for Clayton had found an unopened tin of oil which had stood in place for twenty years. The lamps also were still usable.

As Tarzan approached the window nearest the door he saw that the cabin had been divided into two rooms by a rough partition of boughs and sailcloth.

MORLEY IS NOT TO QUIT THE CABINET

His Intentions Were Announced to House of Lords on Tuesday

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

LONDON, April 1.—Viscount Morley of Blackburn, lord president of the council, yesterday abandoned his intention of resigning from the cabinet announced in the House of Lords yesterday.

The cabinet met yesterday and the strongest pressure was brought to bear on Lord Morley not to add to the difficulties of his colleagues by giving up his office.

When the House of Lords met later in the day, Lord Morley announced to the members that he had not quit the cabinet.

Viscount Morley said: "If Colonel Seely's first resignation

Look, Mother, If Tongue is Coated Give "California" Syrup of Figs

"Children love this 'fruit laxative' as nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty bowels and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your child becomes cross half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally. It is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother. See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of 'California Syrup of Figs' and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give 'California Syrup of Figs' because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Hazel Miller, the younger daughter cross-examined by W. S. Brewster, said her sister had made clothes out of cloth belonging to the institution. She knew that if she ran away that she was liable to have her hair cut and also liable to solitary confinement.

Four of them had agreed to run away. When they were brought back after the escape, she was taken to the sick room and her sister and the others were put into solitary confinement. Meals had been sent up to her. She had not a word to say against Mr. Ashton, who had never struck them. She remembered she had seen some worms in some oatmeal, which had been served to them. The only time she had seen bad meat served was to a companion some months ago.

Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, who spoke on behalf of the government said ministers were not prepared to make any concession beyond the six years exclusion of the Ulster counties from the operation of the bill offered by Premier Asquith.

The country, he said, must settle the question at the end of that time. Meanwhile the question of Ulster could not arise until after a general election, but if there was sporadic outbreaks in that province force must be used, said Sir Edward, and if an attempt is made to set up a provisional government and defy the imperial parliament the army must be called upon.

Sir Edward Grey added that if there had been a general election last week it would have been upon a much graver issue than home rule. If the army took active sides in politics, the country would have faced a graver problem than it had faced in the last three centuries.

The Foreign Secretary said that if there was any question raised of government by parliament without interference, he himself took a stand as firm as that of any labor member.

Sir Edward suggested the resumption of conversations between party leaders in order to see whether the lines of a settlement could not be reached on the basis of establishing a federal system for the whole country before the end of the six years named by the government in its offer to Ulster.

OTTAWA'S TROUBLE NOT YET SETTLED

The Provincial Government May Step in and Order a Pure Water Supply

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

TORONTO, Ont., March 23.—Ottawa's water difficulties are by no means settled by the passing of the by-law yesterday in favor of the Currie or Ottawa River scheme. The provincial board of health will now take a hand and there is a strong probability of the people of Ottawa having the 31-Mile Lake scheme forced upon them despite the result of the plebiscite. In a statement made this morning Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, said that the ruling of the Provincial Board of Health would be accepted by the government and that if the board decided that the 31-Mile Lake scheme was the one most suited to the needs of the people, then the scheme would be put into operation and the people of Ottawa would not be given an opportunity of deciding the issue again.

The provincial board of health will now take a hand and there is a strong probability of the people of Ottawa having the 31-Mile Lake scheme forced upon them despite the result of the plebiscite. In a statement made this morning Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, said that the ruling of the Provincial Board of Health would be accepted by the government and that if the board decided that the 31-Mile Lake scheme was the one most suited to the needs of the people, then the scheme would be put into operation and the people of Ottawa would not be given an opportunity of deciding the issue again.

Wireless Aids In Search For Missing Boy

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
NEW YORK, March 31.—The wireless station at Seagate, the Brooklyn navy yard, and the Bush terminal in South Brooklyn got in touch yesterday with all the big ships a sea which the could reach in an effort to find some trace of two young men, Thos. Jordan, 19 years old and Clarence Brown, 22, who left the New York Canoe Club on Gravesend Bay, an moon Sunday in an eighteen foot canoe. Last night reports came back that no trace of the canoe had been found.

A search of all the waters in that region by friends of the young men met no success, and it was decided to ask the wireless stations to enlist steamship in the hunt.

John Combs, of the Village of Maple, Vaughan Township, County of York, died yesterday at the age of 83 years. He was born in Hampshire, England, and had resided in Vaughan Township 64 years.

DAMAGE ACTION IN NOW SETTLED

Hazel Miller, the younger daughter cross-examined by W. S. Brewster, said her sister had made clothes out of cloth belonging to the institution. She knew that if she ran away that she was liable to have her hair cut and also liable to solitary confinement. Four of them had agreed to run away. When they were brought back after the escape, she was taken to the sick room and her sister and the others were put into solitary confinement. Meals had been sent up to her. She had not a word to say against Mr. Ashton, who had never struck them. She remembered she had seen some worms in some oatmeal, which had been served to them. The only time she had seen bad meat served was to a companion some months ago.

Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, who spoke on behalf of the government said ministers were not prepared to make any concession beyond the six years exclusion of the Ulster counties from the operation of the bill offered by Premier Asquith.

The country, he said, must settle the question at the end of that time. Meanwhile the question of Ulster could not arise until after a general election, but if there was sporadic outbreaks in that province force must be used, said Sir Edward, and if an attempt is made to set up a provisional government and defy the imperial parliament the army must be called upon.

Sir Edward Grey added that if there had been a general election last week it would have been upon a much graver issue than home rule. If the army took active sides in politics, the country would have faced a graver problem than it had faced in the last three centuries.

The Foreign Secretary said that if there was any question raised of government by parliament without interference, he himself took a stand as firm as that of any labor member.

Sir Edward suggested the resumption of conversations between party leaders in order to see whether the lines of a settlement could not be reached on the basis of establishing a federal system for the whole country before the end of the six years named by the government in its offer to Ulster.
