RUSSIA DECLARES DEFENSIVE WAR

Hertling's Camouflage Does Not Deceive Eyes of Allies Bolsheviki to Fight Against German Invasion

PSKOV MAY BE HELD BY EITHER PARTY

Possession of the Town in Doubt; Bolsheviki Relying Forces to Repel Advance of the Invading Teutons

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 27.—It is uncertain whether the Germans or the Russians now hold Pskov. An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Petrograd, under Tuesday date, but bearing no time, says that the Bolsheviki announce Pskov has been recaptured. All reports confirm the earlier statement that the town frequently changed hands.
Another Exchange Telegraph dispatch says that Borisov, 60 miles northeast of Kinsk, has been captured by the Germans, and that Orsha and Smolensk, northeast of Minsk, are being evacuated.
Fighting at Rostov on the Don ceased Monday night. The Cossacks retired and are being pursued by Bolsheviki forces. Gen. Nazarov, the Cossack leader, has been arrested by Bolsheviki troops.
London, Feb. 27.—Luga, half way between Pskov and Petrograd, has been occupied by the Germans, according to an unconfirmed rumor, a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says. A number of British subjects have left Petrograd for home during the past week. The embassies still remain there.
The Bolsheviki continue extremely busy enrolling men, gathering and shipping arms and supplies and in other defense activities. A dispatch from Moscow says that 70,000 revolutionary troops have been sent from Moscow to war at Bologie.
London, Feb. 27.—The municipality of Reval, captured Monday by the Germans, has published a manifesto declaring the independence of Estonia, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Petrograd. Estonia is declared a neutral state and a provisional government of citizens has prohibited participation in the Russo-German war. Property confiscated by the Bolsheviki will be returned immediately to the former owners.
Government troops in inland it is said have arrested Madame Alexandra Kollantay, Bolsheviki minister of public welfare, and other members of the Bolsheviki delegation sent abroad to organize an international Socialist conference.
Zurich, Feb. 27.—Negotiations are in progress for the union of Lithuania and Saxony, according to a despatch from Dresden, with Prince Frederick Christian, second son of the King of Saxony, as king of Lithuania. The pour parlors indicate that the wishes of the Poles for a renewal of the old union between Poland and Lithuania will not be fulfilled.
London, Feb. 27.—In a despatch filed at Petrograd, a correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, says that Germans operating in the region of Pskov inquired of the German General Hoffman, whether in view of Russia's acceptance of the German peace offers, they should continue to advance. General Hoffman, the despatch says, replied in the affirmative.

IRISH SITUATION IS THREATENING AGAIN

Troops Sent To Assist Police In County Clare; Lawlessness Reported, and London Hears That Situation Is Passing Beyond Control
By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 27.—Much prominence is given the situation in Ireland by the morning newspapers in connection with the official announcement that troops have been sent to assist the police in County Clare. Various acts of lawlessness are reported.
Some correspondents assert that unrest is deepening in the west and south of Ireland and that the situation is getting beyond control. On the other hand The Daily News, whose Dublin correspondent the other day reported the situation in the west and south as alarming, to-day prints a dispatch from Limerick that there is no cause for alarm. It adds that arrangements have been made to cope with any trouble and that reports of disorder are exaggerated.
The position of H. E. Duke, chief secretary for Ireland, is the subject of many rumors. The Dublin correspondent of The Daily Express sends a report that he has resigned.
The Daily Mail says the Government has decided in the future to disregard hunger striking by prisoners.

AERIAL ACTIVITIES

HUN RAID REPULSED BY FRENCH
German Attempt To Recapture Lost Positions Failed Entirely
By Courier Leased Wire
Paris, Feb. 27.—After a heavy bombardment German troops in the Champagne last night attempted to recapture the positions recently taken by the French at Bette du Mesnil. To-day's official report says the Germans were halted by the French fire.
London, Feb. 27.—"Hostile raids were repulsed during the night northwest of St. Quentin, in the neighborhood of Bullecourt and east of Vermelles," says to-day's War Office report. "The artillery was active on both sides early this morning northeast and east of Ypres."

RUSSIA TO DEFEND THE REVOLUTION

HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK; NO PATIENTS ABOARD

Steamer Torpedoed in Bristol Channel Yesterday; Survivors of the Crew Landed By American Torpedo Boat Which Came to Rescue.
By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 27.—The British hospital ship Glen Artcastle was sunk yesterday in the Bristol Channel, it is announced officially. There were no patients on board. Survivors were landed by an American torpedo boat. Eight boats are still adrift.
The Glen Artcastle, 6,807 tons gross and 440 feet long, was built at Belfast in 1900. She was owned in Southampton.
The official report follows:
"The British hospital ship Glen Artcastle was sunk in the Bristol Channel at 4 a.m. yesterday. She was outward bound and had all her lights burning. There were no patients on board.
"Survivors were landed by an American torpedo boat destroyer. Eight boats are still adrift. Further information will be published as received.
Steamer Foundered.
Washington, Feb. 27.—The United States naval tug Cherokee, formerly belonging to the Luckenbach Steamship Company, foundered yesterday off Fenwick Island lightship, 22 miles south of the Delaware Capes. Survivors are being taken down to Philadelphia.

Is Anxious For Peace But Prepared to Fight Against Teuton Invasion if Huns Reject all Terms

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 27.—The Russian revolution will defend itself against Germany, says an official Russian statement sent out by wireless and which announces that Germany has refused to grant an armistice. The announcement reads:
"A peace delegation is now on the way to Brest-Litovsk. We expect any moment, news that it has arrived at the place appointed for peace negotiations, but there is no armistice. The German Government has formally refused an armistice and German detachments continue to advance.
"We are prepared to sign their peace of usurpation. We have already declared this, but there are many indications that the German imperialists do not desire peace.
"At the present moment, but rather the immediate strangling of the workmen's and peasants' revolution.
"Resistance to the German hordes thus becomes the principal task of the revolutionaries. It is a task of a brave, heroic, obstinate and pitiless resistance. Every position, every railway station, every locomotive must be defended. Every possible obstacle must be put in the way of the enemy.
"If Germany's plundering raid should advance, the task of the government would be to destroy the possibility of a simultaneous catastrophic decision by the Germans. They are attempting to crush the authority of the councils and are in search of it on the routes leading to Petrograd.
"We will buy these routes by everything we can interpose as obstacles. This, at the moment, is the principal task of the heroic Petrograd proletariat and its revolutionary staff.
"Will they have adequate forces to carry out such a task, if we defend ourselves heroically? No. They never will have forces enough. Such an enterprise inevitably will resolve itself into mass adventure, and will fail. However, deeply they penetrate Russia, then the more surely will they bring about the outbreak of a revolution in Germany. Patience and firmness is necessary.
"The first symptoms of panic created by the German plundering raid, have become bygone events. The cowards are in flight and have made room for the brave who are rallying themselves in hundreds and thousands for the defense of the Socialist fatherland.
"If peace with the revolution is not the aim of the German imperialists, they will see the revolution knows how to defend itself.
NO REPLY YET.
Petrograd, Feb. 26.—The Bolsheviki have not yet received a reply from the Germans to the message of Ensign Klychkov, asking whether Russia's acceptance of Germany's peace terms renewed the previous armistice.

Hertling's Vague Utterances on German War Aims Find Deaf Ears

LIE GIVEN TO GERMAN CLAIM OF DEFENSIVE WAR

New Teuton Offensive Against Russia Robs Hun Diplomats of Their Strongest Gallery Plea—British Opinion is Unmoved by Chancellor's Speech Before Reichstag
By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 27.—As far as the British public is concerned, the mild words of Count von Hertling, concerning Germany's pacific intentions and his partial acceptance of President Wilson's basis for lasting world peace, fall upon almost deaf ears. A few weeks, even a few days, ago their reception would have been different, but German speech is judged here by German acts.
All details of the new war against helpless Russia of German statesmen of their stock-in-trade—the plea that Germany is waging a war of self-defense.
The British press is virtually unanimous in the belief that the whole eastern situation has been cleverly arranged and plotted with a view to bringing eastern and central Europe under German domination, and for the vital immediate purpose of getting food from the Ukraine.
The most important newspapers, which lean toward peace by negotiation, notably The Westminster Gazette and The Manchester Guardian, seem to have undergone a change of outlook as a result of events of the past week, while The Daily News to-day, although condemning the Entente for aiding von Hertling's argument that the Entente and not Germany, is the real obstacle to peace because the Allies have not jointly formulated a peace plan, says in effect that no hope can be drawn from the chancellor's speech. The Daily News adds:
"When we turn from his words to his acts in Russia, we see his professions have no meaning. German statesmanship which plunders an invaded country with which it has just made peace, at the same moment utters sham phrases about independence and self-government."
The paper sees no hope for the change of heart in the military despots of Prussia, but finds more hope in a change of spirit in Austria, and sees ground for confidence in the appeal of President Wilson and the allied democracies to the German people. The Allied democracies, it says, will not leave Russia to German domination, but will defeat it and overthrow Prussian militarism by application of the principles which President Wilson has laid down for the establishment and governance of the future.
The Daily Chronicle says:
"Inconsistency between words and deeds surely seldom has been carried further than in the contrast between von Hertling's professions and the actions of his government in Russia. He blandly agrees to President Wilson's propositions and all the time it is carrying out by brute force the most gigantic scheme of annexations modern Europe ever has known."
"We are quite unable to believe the chancellor is speaking the truth," says The Morning Post. "What Germany does is alone worth consideration. What Germany says is interesting only as an essay in making the worst appear the better reason. Until the German people depose their rulers or until the German armies are defeated, it is impossible to conceive how an honorable peace can be obtained."
The Daily Telegraph thinks the speech reveals an attitude as essentially antagonistic to a peace which the Entente can accept as any of his previous statements. It adds:
"It is quite enough to test the chancellor's so-called acceptance of

RAIDER HOME

By Courier Leased Wire
Amsterdam, Feb. 27.—According to the Kiel correspondent of The Cologne Gazette, a copy of which has been received here, the raider Wolf arrived in Kiel harbor Sunday afternoon and the town was bedecked in honor of the occasion.
The official German communication announcing the arrival of the Wolf says merely that she had "returned home." A Berlin despatch printed in The Dusseldorfer Zeitung, however, said this cruiser had put in at the Austrian harbor of Pola in the Adriatic Sea, having been barred out of the North Sea by the watchfulness of the British ships.

HERTLING'S CAMOUFLAGE WEAK AND INEFFECTIVE

Chancellor Spoke as a Man Who Has All Chips on the Table and Would Call off Game, is American Opinion; Speech Leaves Situation Unchanged
By Courier Leased Wire
New York, Feb. 27.—Editorial comment of the morning newspapers assert that Count von Hertling's last discourse leave the situation unchanged. It was expected that following the Russian collapse Germany would don the mask of conciliation. Some newspapers, however, see an effort to try and drive a wedge between the United States and Great Britain. The Herald in this respect says:
"Obviously the Imperial German Chancellor seeks to drive a wedge between the United States and England. His camouflage is ineffective, his efforts so palpable as to defeat his purpose.
"Translated into language which all Americans understand, Count von Hertling's talk is that of a man who has all the chips on the table in front of him and is looking for a chance to call off the game."
The World says the speech must have been made for a purpose, but what that purpose is cannot be ascertained from the cabled text of the discourse. So far as the Chancellor has accomplished anything in regard to influencing the opinion of the peoples of the allied nations, it is to confirm the judgment upon the German Government, which President Wilson passed in his reply to the Vatican when he said that word of the present rulers of Germany could not be taken as a guarantee of anything unless explicitly supported by evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves.
The Sun says: "Of course, Germany would welcome peace with broad provinces dropping like fat larks into her mouth and with the war strength of her latest and not least adversary mounting every day.
"With so much already gained, and so little to lose if only she can secure the recognition of the existing conditions on her eastern borders, why should not Germany wel-

DANGER FROM RIVER IS OVER FOR PRESENT

Water Going Down in Eagle Place—Ice Is Broken Up
At noon the river at Lorne Bridge was practically broken, although not clear of ice. Huge cakes, the largest in the history of the district were seen by numerous spectators. No further danger is anticipated.
At an early hour this morning the water had gone down three and one half feet at the far end of Eagle Place, and the inmates of many were relieved. The water had made its way over the dyke at Baldwin avenue about nine o'clock last night, and resulted in the flooding of a few cellars, but it is hoped that the damage will not be so heavy as has been believed. The municipal railway cars on the Eagle Place line were stopped last night, when water backed into the storm sewers, necessitating the blocking of a manhole with sand.

Wedding Bells Ring At Simcoe—Two Deaths In Town

(From our own Correspondent) Simcoe, Feb. 27.—The parlors of Mrs. Charles Derricks, at 48 Robinson St., were gaily decorated in pink and green, for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Eric, to Mr. Mattand Tisdale, son of the late E. Tisdale of Woodhouse, and himself a prosperous young farmer.

The ceremony was performed at two o'clock by Rev. H. McBeau of St. James' Methodist church, in which congregation the bride has been an active worker. It was a quiet family function. Standing under the canopy of snow white wedding bells, the bride looked charming in a gown of ivory silk crepe de chene with georgette crepe pearl trimmings and the conventional veil and orange blossoms, wearing the groom's gift, a pearl sunburst, and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and carnations.

The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Gladys, prettily attired in grey duchess satin with a combination of green and grey georgette crepe trimmings, and carrying a large bouquet of opelia roses.

Little Helen Booth, cousin of the bride, in a dress of rose silk, made a dainty flower girl. Sweet peas were her offering.

The groom was attended by Mr. Henry Fisher of Cobourg.

After the tie that binds had been fastened, a dainty buffet luncheon was served by six girl friends of the bride.

The happy young couple left for Toronto and points east, the bride wearing a travelling suit of African brown taffeta with hat to match. Returning, the young couple will hang the crane on the fire-place of the groom's farm in Woodhouse.

The bride was the recipient of many and varied useful presents. The groom's souvenirs of the occasion were, to the bridesmaid, a ring set with pearls, to the flower girl, a pearl ring, and to the groomsmen, a tie pin with pearl settings.

We cannot refrain from remarking that this is the second time within a very short time, that Cupid has entered the municipal offices and led out an efficient clerk and stenographer. Of course, marriage licenses are sold there, and that may be a clue to the cause, enquiry on the part of the writer failed to find the connection, however.

Mr. Robert J. Yocum, Almeda, a widow of Robert J. Yocum, of Kent St., died at her home yesterday in her 43rd year. Deceased was a native of Haldimand County, a woman of retiring disposition, and a faithful wife and mother. A husband and one son survive. The latter has been called up in Class I for overseas. Internment will take place at Selkirk cemetery on Friday.

Mrs. Andrew Ostrander, Jessie Maxon McLellan, widow of the late Andrew Ostrander, of 273 Taibot St. north, died yesterday aged 76. Mr. Ostrander died some months ago. Mrs. McLellan has a daughter, and has been here with her mother for some time.

ILLNESS OF W. P. INNES CRITICAL

Condition of Leading Citizen of Simcoe is Believed to be Serious

(From Our Own Correspondent) Simcoe, Feb. 27.—Late last night W. P. Innes was reported to have rallied somewhat during the day. He was visited on Monday evening by Dr. Caven of Toronto and the family physician, Dr. S. A. Richardson. Neither of them extend much hope for ultimate recovery, or much change for some three or four days. Members of the family were all in town yesterday. Mrs. Innes is still confined to bed and quite unwell.

SIMCOE'S WAR WORK

Activity of St. Paul's Church—Other Centres are Busy

Simcoe, Feb. 27.—(From our own correspondent)—Those interested who perused our I.O.D.E. report must not get the impression that the figures given include the entire work of the county. As a matter of fact, the entire work of the town was not included.

The Work at St. Paul's. Apart from yesterday's statement, and apart from hundreds of Christmas boxes and scores of boxes that go regularly week by week and month by month, another considerable work has been done by some of the women of St. Paul's Church. Early in the year, many of the ladies of St. Paul's Church began work in the school room of the church. Later the Methodist ladies, for whom there was not working room on Monday, began to meet on Tuesdays and this year, the Baptist ladies have chosen Wednesday St. Paul's product for a time was forwarded through the I.O.D.E., but for some time past, independently. The output from St. Paul's is therefore tabulated below: (a)—Shipped through I.O.D.E. (b)—Total manufacture and shipment.

(a) (b) Pairs Sox ..... 124 558 Scarfs ..... 1 1 Trench Caps ..... 2 6 Balclutha Caps ..... 7 6 Sutti Pyjamas ..... 192 774 Handkerchiefs ..... 180 180 Per. Prop. Bags ..... 540 904 Stretcher Caps ..... 180 244 Hot water Bottle cov. 48 264

1268 2937 The same activity is reported from many other centres. Waterford and Delhi have their stories to tell.

Port Rowan in Line. And what of the Abigail Becker I.O.D.E. at Port Rowan, which recently reports receipt of $1328.51, a considerable portion of which has been allotted to various war causes. We might be pardoned for suggesting that their balance on hand of $437.94 is rather large, but then Simcoe had on hand that much in material, and probably both had outstanding accounts to offset these balances.

Port Rowan, too, has its "Khaki Sisters" with considerable to their credit, and St. Williams is not wanting.

Port Dover, too, Busy. The Britomart Chapter at Port Dover, had receipts during the year of $1452.57 of her own and that splendid (?) voluntary contribution of $50.00 given by the United Boards of Trades from where not up the line, $1502.57, all of which has been turned over to various relief funds or converted into comforts for the men. So that roughly speaking, the Simcoe I.O.D.E. statement represents perhaps half of the county's effort; perhaps a little more.

We bow our thanks for the kind words of appreciation received from Simcoe readers yesterday evening regarding the report of I.O.D.E. work. The achievements of our women was deserving of notice.

SEVEN YEARS FOR MORELLO.

(By Courier Special Wire) London, Ont., Feb. 26.—George Morello, of Ingersoll, Ontario, a burglar who broke jail here while awaiting sentence on a conviction and was later captured in Kitchener, Ontario, was to-day sentenced by Police Magistrate Graydon to seven years in Kingston.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The work is going on. The tall treatise work which stands out in Robinson street will elevate the mind, concrete, to such a height that it can be delivered by child all over the building, as required direct from the mixer. The device takes the place of a deal of barrow and hand work.

"Hans" Goes North. The afternoon express car goes north now at 3:45, instead of 4:31. High school students for Waterford have now to wait for the 5:12 car with others from the north. The change was made because of a change of timetable on the C.P.R. main line, which advances the express train by about an hour.

Old News. Harry Reynolds has disposed of his blacksmith business and good will to Roger Cropp.

E. Ramey went to Toronto yesterday to see the Kitchener-Dentals hockey match.

A Simcoe physician will go to Woodstock to-morrow to assist in an operation upon a citizen of Simcoe, his family doctor for the patient. Compare the quest with what it would be if Norfolk had a hospital here. Don't be indifferent. It surely pays a high school tax in the long run. Think it over. ## LAST CARNIVAL OF THE SEASON

Blaze of Bright Costumes At the Simcoe Arena Last Night

THE PRIZE WINNERS

(From Our Own Correspondent) Simcoe, Feb. 27.—There was very full attendance of skaters and spectators, and a splendid array of costumes with an exceptional number of new ideas at the last carnival of the season. Though postponed twice on account of late spring weather in February, it was a general success. Even the band was all that could be desired.

The Judges. From the many hundreds Miss Ethel McKim, Miss Edna Johnson and Miss J. Jones assumed the task of selecting the winners of prizes, and the work was done quite satisfactorily as men would have done it.

The Winners. These were the chosen: Best lady—Mrs. J. Thompson as St. Patrick Girl. Best girl—Miss Fern Woolough. Best man—C. G. Barber as Jester. Best boy—Arthur Frost as King of Hearts.

First comic—Fred Woolley as Stout Lady with good taste. Second comic—Miss Helen Perry, Other Costumes. Very few of the characters registered last night. Those were among the cards the following: Clarence King—Remnant of the 39th. Helen Cross—Little Red Riding Hood. Jean Borland—Hockey Girl. John Caffery—Red Man. Morley Cross—Ruler. Wm Waffle—Indian. Muriel Morden—Chinaman. Gladys Ramey—Japanese Girl. Cliff Abbey—Cowboy. Helen Johnson—Queen of Hearts. Grace Hampden—Gipsy. Thelma Johnson—Motor Girl. E. Tisdale—Robin Hood. Ernest Eyrwin and Mrs. Nett, as Mr. and Mrs. Has-Been. Miss Collins, Miss Hoag and Mrs. M. Hamilton, as Three Old Maids of Leam.

Helen Nell—Chinese Girl. May Nell—Red Cross Nurse. Jean Waddle—Japanese. Harry Harper—Cadet. Helen Culler—Valentine Girl. Gladys Piette—Gipsy. Nina Harper—Hockey Girl.

Many Accidents. Charles Hart, of 88 Head street north, who fell yesterday with a piece of flooring at the Dominion Cannery, is the sixth or seventh man who has met with a more or less serious accident up about the cannery plant since the contractor began to overhaul the main building. Geo. Nash of Toronto, James Stewart and Engineer John Recher are some of the others.

CANADIAN LINES VISITED BY HAIG

British Leader Found Spirit of Confidence Dominant Everywhere

Canadian army headquarters, Feb. 27.—(By W. A. Willison, Canadian Press war correspondent)—The week-end was characterized by the failure of another German attempt to raid our lines, and a visit to the Canadian Corps by Sir Douglas Haig.

The enemy attack, which was launched against our front north of Lens, was broken up by one of our posts after sharp hand-to-hand fighting, in which the Germans were driven off, leaving two killed, and three wounded.

As a result of the failure of the raid and the marked success of our raiding parties during the last ten days, the enemy is showing increasing nervousness, bombarding his own wireless installations and increasingly heavy fire on No Man's Land during the night.

Detecting one of our battle patrols last night, the enemy opened a regular fire with light trench mortars, but without inflicting any damage.

The German artillery also has been active. He has been using gas shells to some extent. Our heavies and field guns also have been active during the week-end, firing on enemy defences, harassing support areas, lines of communication, while our stokes light and heavy trench mortars and machine and Lewis guns have been busy on harassing programs.

Yesterday the weather was stormy but Saturday and Sunday our air planes were very active, with frequent brushes with enemy machines, one of which was shot down in flames by one of our machines.

The commander-in-chief was taken through the officers' club and inspected the night to raid one of our saps south of the Arras-Cambrai road was driven off by rifle fire. Late to-day's war office report elsewhere there was nothing of special interest to report.

DONALD B. McMILLAN. The Arctic explorer, who is about to enroll with the American aviation Corps for service in France.

preparation. Innumerable miles of trenches have been dug, communicating roads have been improved, fresh and monstrous growths of wires spring up on every road and field through where the German advance will assuredly be. Artillery and munitions are ready in quantities. The Germans have never before encountered such preparation, but an even surer and stronger defence is the unconquerable spirit of the French army. They are ready as they have always been, and better prepared than ever before.

From any druggist get Hoop's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel better, look better, eat and sleep better. It is the old reliable tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, tonic and appetizer. It revitalizes the blood, and is especially useful in building up the debilitated and run-down.

Hoop's Sarsaparilla is helping thousands at this time of year. Let it help you. Get a bottle today and begin taking it at once. Be sure to get Hoop's.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphates before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact, to feel your best day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast, each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of hot water and limestone phosphate is an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives you a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

PARENTS FOOLED ON BOY'S FUTURE

Some Celebrities Whose Fathers Did Not Value Them in Youth

When a Gainsborough sold the other day for ten thousand guineas few people recalled the fact that the sale falsified a very confident parental prophecy.

The far more famous Thomas, the great painter, at an early age started his father by forging his signature to a message addressed to the local schoolmaster which ran as follows: "Kindly give Tom a holiday."

Charles Darwin, who lies in Westminster Abbey, next to Newton, was the subject of a very drastic parental prophecy which went very far wrong.

Clive's Early Life Perhaps not even every Londoner has noticed that the Clive statue, which was ousted from its place in Whitehall for the purpose of building on its site a wooden emergency hut for the War Office, has found a new and far better site, by great good luck, at the top of the Foreign Office steps, looking across St. James' Park, and it is well to remember that but for him to-day in- stead of the whole history of the last century altered.

Yet his father concurred with his schoolmaster's verdict that he was a hopeless fool, and, prophesying total failure, packed him to India out of the way. It was only when he dropped his clerk's pen and took the sword—which in his hands was certainly mightier—that he disproved the parental prophecy and gave Britain a new Empire and our King an additional title.

GERMANS AFTER RUSSIAN SUPPLIES

$200,000,000 Worth of Ammunition Concentrated Near Pskov

RESISTANCE GROWS Bolsheviki Armies Are Now Everywhere Opposing The Invaders

London, Feb. 26.—Although the Russians have accepted Germany's proposals for peace, the Germans are continuing their forays both into Great and Little Russia. In the north some opposition is being placed in the path of the invaders, but evidently the pressure has not yet been sufficient to stave the progress of the enemy. Considerable fighting has taken place around the town of Pskov, which, according to latest advices, has changed hands several times. In Volhynia the German of Kolenowitz has been captured after some fighting, and according to the Berlin official communication bands of the Bolsheviki in Ukraine have been put to flight by the Germans.

THE SITUATION

It is eminently characteristic of Germany, that while the Russian Government has agreed to an abject peace, the hordes of the Kaiser continue to march ruthlessly forward, and to seize everything that they can lay their hands on. The Bolshevik leaders now seem to realize the manner in which they have been duped and they are making the boast that "the revolution knows how to defend itself," but the disorganization of the troops renders that very much of an idle threat, for the present at any rate.

Bonar Law, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking in London yesterday, said that he had studied the coming of the war for twenty years and he was not afraid of any German bluff. Her course in Russia clearly showed that she was still determined to carry on hostilities for the reason they were started—the conquest of neighboring territories and peoples. The defection of Russia would prolong the struggle, but the final and certain triumph of the Allies was still assured.

Another Spanish ship, the fifth already this year, has been torpedoed, and Berlin apparently does not give a hang what the Spaniards think about it.

WHAT JAPAN WOULD WANT

In a recent editorial the Courier expressed the opinion that Japan in return for her active entry into the war on the side of the Allies would probably require free entry of her people into the States, and all portions of the British Empire, Canada, of course, included, and the Philippine Islands.

Speaking before the Canadian Club in Hamilton on Monday evening, Prof. Bates, for several years a member of the faculty of a college at Kioke, Japan, spoke in a similar strain with regard to the immigration phase of the matter. He said that he believed such a concession would be mainly asked with regard to this Dominion. In so doing, he emphasized the fact that the population of Japan was increasing to such an extent the country was faced with an economic situation under which living was fast becoming impossible. There were now 54 millions of Japs crammed within a country one-third the size of the province of Ontario. This meant that if Ontario had the ratio of population which at present prevailed in Japan, this province would contain 180,000,000 people.

Japan resembled a cup which was constantly being filled until it had to overflow. It tried to overflow in the direction of Canada, but the Canadians told them firmly, "You can't come in here." The United States said: "You can't come in here." Australia said: "You can't come in here." That was the situation which faced Japan and her statesmen resigned themselves to the alternative, that Japan must turn its tide of emigration towards the more sparsely populated portions of Korea; Twenty years ago there were scarcely any Japanese in Korea; now there were 300,000. There was a similar number in Manchuria, as against practically none twenty years ago. All down the Chinese coasts there were settlements of Japanese, and still the need was for more outlets.

It may be added, however, that the encroachment of Germany in the East is likely to give Japan cause for anxiety on her own account, and participation in the conflict is likely to become more and more necessary, even if the restrictive barriers against her people on this continent still remain and their removal is not desirable.

THE GUELPH GARBAGE EXPERIMENT

It would pay Brantford to keep close tabs upon the result of the scheme in Guelph to turn the garbage there into "oakal," or in other words, coal bricks. The Mercury of that place in referring to the matter states that the agreement with the company is to erect a plant capable of manufacturing one hundred tons of coal per day, and to sell the product thereof at a rate not more than $7 a ton. Citizens will have the preference on this coal, which so far has responded splendidly to every test imposed upon it. The Oakal Company are to employ a stated number of employees, and the city is given the right of purchase within a certain number of years. It will receive a free site and the city agrees to perform certain work, in addition to hauling all the vegetable and other suitable garbage to the Oakal Co.'s plant. A start must be made at building the factory, this to be not later than April 1st. The company is also given free taxation, except as to school and patriotic taxes. The company must produce a strictly sanitary fuel, and erect a proper plant. It was scarcely to be expected that it would agree to a prohibitive clause preventing the sale of stock in the city, which was all the more ridiculous, seeing that if the proposition is a good one, Guelphites will want to get hold of the stock, and if it isn't any good we don't want the concern at all.

On the whole the proposition appears to be one that will, when running, be of distinct service. It will dispose of garbage that is at present a nuisance, and it will produce a fuel in its place that would be hailed with great delight if it were only available to-day, when fuel is scarce and so many are clamoring for it. The proposition being a new one, and little known about it in Canada, the Council, it is said, made enquiries and is apparently satisfied as to the merits of Oakal, else it would not have signed the agreement. We hope it will prove all that is claimed and expected of it, for undeniably a scheme that will give up coal in place of a lot of useless garbage is something that is highly desirable and likely to prove a valuable addition to the city's industries.

Incineration is the only safe way of disposing of garbage and eliminating those festering spots where decomposing matter is piled up, and when to this is added a fuel that is claimed to be not only clean, but odorless and practically smokeless, the combination of using garbage for a good purpose and securing a fuel at greatly reduced prices is a most powerful and pleasing one to the people of Guelph, and something that will effect a leverage upon coal prices in the future.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The song hereabouts is "Toll roads, they never grow weary."

Instead of gondolas in connection with certain flooded Brantford streets it is a case of gone dollars.

The dove of peace which the Russians hoped for is wearing a drawn sword and Hessian boots.

Don't be backward this season with the backyard.

Public sentiment has effectively put the kibosh on the proposal to have Brantford streets scented with garbage cans.

In the matter of pestiferous odors the natural gas is still on the job sufficiently to satisfy most tastes.

she is cleaning up. The real sensation of the past week among scandal mongers at the Lasky studio in California has been the fact that old bad Bill Hart was seen in the act of pouring tea at a Red Cross benefit. Great fear was expressed that this famous exponent of Western characters will degenerate into a lounge lizard, and run around with a rose in his button-hole, and wearing lavender kid gloves to adorn his trigger finger.

The beauty and cleverness of Mary Thurman, star in many Paramount-Mack Sennett Comedies, has reached to the Orient, and the result is that the exquisite Mary has received a formal and dignified invitation to visit Japan as the guest of a great motion picture club. The invitation is couched in the flowery language of the Japanese and is distinctly flattering in tone. It isn't on record that, at the present time, Miss Thurman will see fit to accept owing to the disturbing conditions throughout the world and also because she is busily engaged in adding picturesque scenes to the comedies evolved under the direction of the master of screen humor—Mack Sennett. But some day, possibly when the war is over, she will travel to the land of Madama Chrysanthemum and permit the club to escort her throughout the domain of the Mikado in regal style.

After becoming more or less identified with Sherick Neil and her "chaps," six-shooters, etc., Polly Moran, cowgirl apprentice and comedienne extraordinaire of the Paramount-Mack Sennett forces, is to change her apparel and her characterization, in a forthcoming film and will be lost for a time without the big "gags" at her waist and will have to tie a rock to her belt for ballast, till she gets used to it. Meanwhile, Polly's bronco wears the new stuff with equine scorn and without conditions throughout the world and also because she is busily engaged in adding picturesque scenes to the comedies evolved under the direction of the master of screen humor—Mack Sennett. But some day, possibly when the war is over, she will travel to the land of Madama Chrysanthemum and permit the club to escort her throughout the domain of the Mikado in regal style.

PROFIT SOMEWHERE

By Courier Lensed Wire
Kingston, Ont., Feb. 27.—A Kingston lady purchased a bag of potatoes from a local grocer. She paid 40 cents a peck or $2.40 a bag. In emptying the bag one of the potatoes had a string tied around it and a card attached. It bore the wording: "I sold at $1 for a ninety pound bag? What did you pay?" The farmer's name was attached. The profit on this bag of potatoes was almost 150 per cent., being $1.40 on a $1 bag. Enquiries were made to determine who this profit went to.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

WOUNDED. Pte. J. Hooper of Brantford, was reported in this morning's official casualty list as wounded.

LADIES SERVED SUPPER. The following ladies served tea to the High School Club at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday: Mrs. A. McFarland, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Frank, Mrs. G. J. Williamson, Mrs. Danby, Mrs. Cromar.

REPAIRS TO WIRE. The fire alarm wires near the G.T.R. Bridge, in West Brantford, caused some trouble yesterday, and in the afternoon one of the fire wagons was sent over to execute repairs.

SAN FLOODED. A unique feature of Monday's storm was aired to-day when it was found that there was three inches of water in the cellar of the Sanatorium, which is almost unbelievable, the building situated on a high hill.

INQUEST MONDAY. The inquest into the death of the late Albert Bates, who was killed in the Glue Works on Monday, will be held on Monday night next in the police station.

POLICE COURT. Thos. Nezol in this morning's police court was charged with keeping liquor for sale at 150 Pearl Street. Under the direction of Inspector Caret, a raid was made on the premises last week. The case was dismissed.

WANTS LIKE ACTION. Says The Hamilton Herald: A few days ago The Herald suggested that the Ontario Government, with its large surplus, might forego the war tax of a mill which it makes the municipal authorities collect for it. The Brantford City Council is of the same way of thinking, and has decided to petition the Legislature to relieve the municipalities of the burdensome tax. Why shouldn't our City Council take similar action?

Y.M.C.A. CIRCUS. A nighttime special, embracing several cars of dramatic thrills, is the greatest mechanical feature of the Y.M.C.A. Circus. "Some of the other features for the event includes magicians, ventriloquists, acrobats, travelogues, and many new and unheard of wonders," the boys tell us.

RESTLESS CHILDREN. When children are restless in school and do not pay any attention to their work, the cause is often found in eye-strain. If your children are not progressing as they should, it may be that defective vision retards them in their studies. Bring them here for an eye examination.

BAN NOT LIFTED. "There is no truth in the report that the ban has been lifted on the Hearst publications or the International News Service," said Col. Chambers of Toronto, chief censor for Canada, in reply to a question on this point. "I am aware of the fact that a report of this kind has been circulated, but there is not a word of truth in it. The regulations are still being rigidly enforced both in Great Britain and in Canada, and I am not aware of any intention on the part of the authorities in either country to lift the embargo."

HIGH SCHOOL CLUB. About fifty members of the High School Club were present at the regular meeting of the club, held last night in the Y.M.C.A.

BILLIARD TOURNEY. The finals of the G.W.V.A. Billiard tourney will be played off to-night at the Soldiers' Home. A big crowd of veterans will witness this event.

FIREMEN'S REPAIR WORK. The machine shop of the central fire station is about fitted up and anvils, drills, emery wheels, etc., have been installed. The firemen will, in future, do all their own repair work.

INVESTIGATE CASE. His Honor Judge Hardy, has fixed Tuesday, March 12th, for proceedings with the Sutch investigation as referred to the report that a resolution of the city council, the investigation embraces any supposed breach of trust, malfeasance or misconduct of Mr. Sutch during that period while he was Superintendent of the sewers. Mr. Anderson, K.C., will appear at the hearing for the city and W. S. Brewster, K.C., will appear for Wm. Sutch.

THEATRES MUST CLOSE. "The matter has not been considered," was the reply given to-day by C. W. Peterson, Deputy Fuel Controller, at Ottawa, when questioned in regard to the report that the Monday closing of theatres and moving picture shows is about to be discontinued. Under the closing down order issued by the Fuel Controller some time ago the theatres will close on Mondays until March 25th.

FRICITION IN G.W.V. It is officially announced that friction is again imminent between the Great Northwestern Telegraph employees and the management. The time it is the matter of wage adjustment between certain offices and linemen. The officers of the union are of the opinion that apparently the management of the G.N.W. have paid no attention to the award handed down by the board of conciliation last September. International President S. J. Konekapp is taking the matter of adjustment with the Minister of Labor at Ottawa to-day.

COMING HOME. Mrs. Bell, 270 Brant Avenue, received a cablegram yesterday from her husband, Corporal W. Bell, announcing that he had started on his way home. He left Brantford with the first Canadian contingent, and at the time of his enlistment he was a letter carrier here. He has been on the firing line from the commencement, and was once severely gassed, his eyes still bothering him as a result. Corp. Bell also saw service in the South African war. His many friends will be glad to welcome him back again. He is on furlough, another man having this granted because of the draft under the Military Service Act.

KITH AND KIN. The Terrace Hill Kith and Kin met at the home of Mrs. Earthy on Thursday, February 21st. There was a good attendance and the meeting opened with the singing of the National Anthem. The president occupied the chair. The usual business was attended to and plans discussed for the sale of work, home made cooking, etc., which is to be held in the near future. While Victrola selections were playing, tea and cakes were handed round, and the meeting was brought to a close by the singing of God Save Our Men, all having spent a very enjoyable time. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Dunsdon's, Terrace Hill street.

THANK OFFERING. The annual thank offering of the Brantford Auxiliary of the Mission to Lepers was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Adams, Chatham St. The President, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, presided. Mrs. Peters gave a Bible lesson from the "Widow's Mite." Prayers were offered by the Rev. Mr. Martin, Rev. Mr. Jenkins and Rev. Mr. Gordon. The speaker of the afternoon was the Rev. Mr. Anderson of Waterloo, formerly of Bombay, India, who gave a very comprehensive talk on the work of the Mission to Lepers throughout the world, showing the benefit derived by the Lepers, both physically and spiritually. Miss Anguish sang a solo very acceptably. Mrs. Carpenter moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, Rev. Mr. Anderson to Miss Anguish for her beautiful solo, and to Mrs. Adams, who for eight years in succession has offered her home for this meeting. It was seconded by Mrs. McFarlane. The offering amounted to $120.

REGULATIONS AS TO GARBAGE

Authorities Anxious To Know If Service Is Not Efficient

"Citizens who have complaints to make about their garbage service," said W. Glover, Sanitary Inspector, this morning. "Would save time if they complained direct to the office instead of going to the press. Drop a card or telephone to the inspector and the case will be investigated and the responsibility placed where it belongs. If the fault is with the men we want to know and if the householder is to blame it will be up to them to comply with the regulations or their garbage will not be removed. It is not fair to the citizens who comply with the regulations that they should suffer for the carelessness of others who do not provide proper receptacles and keep the garbage so the men can handle it conveniently. Galvanized cans are the best, but where barrels or boxes are used they should not be filled so full that a man finds it impossible to lift them into the wagon. Receptacles which are too heavy will be condemned and not taken."

Wesley Church Gave Concert

A very excellent concert was put on last evening at Wesley Church in the interests of the Silver Thimble and Thimble Fund, under the auspices of the Division Five of the Wesley Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Crowley, the convenor, deserves great credit for the excellent and enjoyable evening. The chairman of the concert was Rev. D. E. Martin, who gave an address at the commencement of the program, telling of the fund and what it did to supply the needs of the soldiers at the front. The program was an unusually good one. Solo, Mrs. Leeming; reading, Miss Riley; solo, Miss Garbin; instrumental duet, Miss and Mr. Fuller; solo, Miss McLennan; instrumental solo, Miss Eloise Baird; solo, Mr. Edwin McKinley; reading, Miss Riley; solo, Mrs. Leeming; solo, Miss Garvin. Some of the talent were unable to be present on account of car service being blocked, yet there was a respectable crowd present, which will mean a good sum for the Thimble Fund. As many were down at the river the attendance was not what it might otherwise have been.

IN FAVOR OF PROHIBITION

Rev. C. S. Oke, of this City, Spoke Before Toronto Convention

Capt. (Rev.) C. S. Oke, pastor of Alexandra Presbyterian church here, speaking at the Dominion Alliance convention in Toronto last night, drew a splendid picture of the battle of Vimy Ridge to drive home his argument that because the boys were fighting in France and Flanders for freedom and honor, and to make the world a better place to live in, so they at home must fight to make Canada a cleaner country. Those at home must keep up the temperance sentiment, must maintain organizations to see that the law was enforced, and put themselves on record as favoring an empire-wide measure of prohibition. Capt. Oke was in favor of detailing to the Mother Country, but in the matter of temperance reform, he said, she was woefully behind the times, and until Great Britain rooted out the liquor traffic she would not win this war. If the nation were to go down on its knees before God for a month, Capt. Oke believed that would accomplish more than one hundred extra divisions on the western front. Two things Canada could do to bring the Mother Country into line. One was for the whole of the Dominion to put itself on record as favoring empire-wide prohibition, and the other to make certain that no grain shipped overseas was turned into liquor. Capt. Oke had great faith in Her David Lord George, only temperance reform he required encouraging.

CAPT. H. K. HARRIS KILLED IN ACTION

Toronto Officer Awarded the Military Cross for Gallantry

The Toronto Mail and Empire says of Capt. Howard Harris, whose death was reported in The Courier yesterday: "Captain Howard K. Harris, M.C., of 123 St. George St., was killed in action on February 22 while inspecting an advanced enemy post. Official notification of his death has been received by his mother, Mrs. E. V. Reynolds, who is now in England. Captain Harris went overseas in April, 1915, to take a commission in the Imperial Army, and was attached to the Royal Essex Regiment six months ago he was awarded the Military Cross for gallantry in carrying out a successful raid on the German trenches. Prior to his departure for overseas he held a commission in the 48th Highlanders of Toronto. He was a graduate of University in Arts, and was qualified for the Ontario Bar at Osgoode Hall. He was with the firm of Frank Baillie & Co., later the Bankers' Board Co., and was 31 years of age. A brother, Lieut. Lawrence Harris, is on the musketry staff of this military district."

Appreciation of Fire Dept.

Chief Lewis received the following letter of appreciation from the deputy fire marshal of Ontario: D. J. Lewis Esq., Chief Fire Dept., Brantford, Ont. Dear Sir,—I have just received a copy of the Brantford Courier of Feb. 12, containing copy of your annual report to the Mayor and City Council for 1917. I certainly congratulate you on the work of your department and the splendid results therefrom. It further accentuates the benefit that any community may derive from up-to-date apparatus and proper equipment and willing workers offered by competent and efficient men. You have great responsibilities on your shoulders, and it is to be hoped that the Mayor and members of the council realize that it is up to them to furnish you with the proper equipment. With best wishes, I am, Yours very truly, GEO. F. LEWIS, Acting Fire Marshall.

MONTHLY MEETING OF PARIS COUNCIL

Garbage Collectors Granted No Increase—Toll Roads Question

OTHER NEWS OF PARIS

(From Our Own Correspondent). Paris, Feb. 26.—The monthly meeting of the Town Council was held last night, those being present including Mayor Robinson, Reeve Pitts, Deputy-Reeve Stewart, Ald. Blake, McKay, McCammon, Paine, Walker and Wooler.

A communication was read from Mr. Michael Dowling, stating that the water from Main street and adjacent places flooded his property, filling his cellar and last week there were twelve inches of water over his kitchen floor. This was referred to a committee to investigate.

On motion of Reeve Pitts and Ald. McKay, it was decided that no action be taken in regard to the request of the garbage collector for an increase of salary.

On motion of Ald. Wooler and Paine, the sum of $200 was granted the band, they to give twelve concerts in King's Ward Park during the summer.

On motion of Ald. McCammon and Paine, it was decided not to continue with the telephone service at the G.R. tower. The Bell Telephone Company notified the Council that the contract for same would be increased to $8 or more on a new contract, and that the time expired on March 31st.

A communication was read from Mr. Albert Bee, stating he would purchase the corrugated iron building at town hall for $15 and he would remove same. On motion of McCammon and Paine, it was decided not to accept the offer.

On motion of Ald. Blake and McKay, a number of accounts were ordered to be paid.

A communication was read from the sanitary contractor, suggesting that the cost of collection of refuse be added to the taxes of householders as much time was lost collecting same. This was referred to the Board of Health.

On motion of Deputy-Reeve Stewart and Ald. Paine, the Streets and Sidewalk Committee were authorized to purchase tar and road oil required for streets during the coming season.

On motion of the Reeve and Ald. McKay, the minutes of the public meeting held recently in regard to the purchase of Brantford and Cocksbutt roads, also resolution of citizens passed favoring purchase of above were authorized to be recorded in the minutes.

The auditors' report on books and vouchers of clerk and treasurer was read, showing to be O.K. and kept in splendid condition.

It was decided to do away with the assistance of the Fuel Controller, on account of milder weather, and as the coal shortage had been much improved around town.

The Mayor paid a tribute to Chairman McCammon and ex-Chairman Walker, of the fuel committee, and also Mr. John Thompson, the fuel controller, for the splendid work done during the coal shortage in town.

On motion of Ald. McCammon and Reeve Pitts, power was given the mayor and clerk to sign necessary papers in connection with the leasing of the hall by Messrs. Wheeler and son. The council then adjourned.

Last night's storm was certainly one of the worst in history of Paris and the heavy torrents of rain soon turned the streets into river, while the water from the hills poured down in a perfect torrent.

Many cellars were badly flooded and few escaped without some water in. The corporation men and a number of firemen were working for several hours to relieve the situation.

In Upper Town a family by the name of Dowling had to be taken away from their home in a dray, from the windows at Paris Station all the low lying districts were inundated and much damage done.

A very sudden death occurred Saturday morning, one mile south of Falkland, on Mr. J. Cassidy's bush. Mr. Stacey Miller, a man 64 years of age, went with his son and a neighbor to get wood for their home. While his son was loading the sleigh, Miller undertook to help on the cross cut saw, but the third or fourth stroke he fell over unconscious and died within a few minutes.

When th

The Jackson-Corbett Bout Failure of Peter to Defeat Gentle- man Jim, Who Was Then Inex- perienced, Cost Him Much Prestige

Numerous old-time ring followers insist that Peter Jackson was the greatest of the negro heavyweights. Some even go so far as to say that the Australian was the greatest fighter that ever lived. An examination of the old files containing accounts of Jackson's battles, however, does not sustain the theory that Jackson was the greatest ever, although there is no doubt that he possessed far more science than was generally seen in his day.

Jackson and Jack Johnson often have been compared and they probably were about even up in ability, but neither was anything like as effective a fighting machine as Sam Langford. Johnson was not a great knockout, although he could hit fairly hard upon occasion, but he undoubtedly was more effective than Jackson.

Jackson's famous sixty-one round draw battle with Jim Corbett, which was fought in the California A. C. on May 21, 1891, affords a good line on his ability. That was a year before Corbett won the championship from John H. Sullivan and he was not nearly as good a man as he was at New Orleans. At the time of his match with Jackson, Corbett had met only two good men and he lacked experience. He had knocked out Joe Choyinski and had outpointed Jake Kilrain in a six-round affair, but despite these promising performances he was still a mere novice.

Jackson was an experienced campaigner and had reached the top of his career by the time his fight with Corbett took place. Perhaps the negro had begun to slip a trifle, as he was ever careless of his condition. Still, the fact that he could go sixty-one rounds proves that he was far from a physical wreck, while his failure to score over his inexperienced opponent indicates that he was nothing like as great a fighter as Bob Fitzsimmons, who stopped Corbett in fourteen rounds when the latter was at his best.

Jackson Lost Prestige
The Corbett-Jackson battle was called "no contest" by referee Cook because the men had fought themselves out and neither cared to lead at the other. For the first thirty rounds the men had put up the most scientific exhibition ever seen in the ring up to that day, but in the second half of the encounter there was hardly any fighting done. The result was looked upon as a victory for Corbett, as it placed the young Californian on the list of winners and gave him the right to challenge Sullivan for the title. For Jackson it was regarded as a great setback and it cost him much prestige. Ring followers figured that if he could not beat a comparative novice like Corbett, he was an overrated fighter and not worthy of further consideration as a championship contender. Jackson sealed 138 pounds and Corbett 183, so that the negro had an advantage of fifteen pounds, and the fact that even with that advantage he was barely able to stand off his young opponent caused most of the blame for the unsatisfactory ending of the battle to rest on Jackson's shoulders.

After the bout both men offered explanations. Jackson's alibi was as follows:
"After the twenty-fifth round my left shoulder weakened and then gave out so I had to use my right after that, and I found that I could not give a good blow with it, and that's what broke me up. You see, I caught a cold in my shoulder about a week ago and it troubled me all through the fight. If it hadn't been for that I would have rushed Corbett, as I was fresher than he was."
Corbett's excuse was that his left arm had been bruised so badly by blocking Jackson's right hand body blows that it was useless to him after the twenty-seventh round.
Rumors Influence Betting
Despite Corbett's inexperience, the advance betting on the fight was at even money, a fact which indicates that ring followers of that time did not think so much of Jackson. However, there is no doubt that the price was affected by rumors that Jackson had neglected his training and was not in the best of shape. It was even said that he had fallen out of a carriage and sprained his ankle. Evidently these stories were set afloat to influence the betting odds, as Jackson showed up at the ringside looking as good as he ever did in his life and the odds promptly shifted from even money to 10 to 7 in his favor. The story that Jackson was suffering from a lame ankle and could not move from one spot is often repeated to this day, but the accounts of the battle published in the papers make no mention of the alleged lameness. On the contrary, the round by round description of the battle tells of Jackson chasing the nimble-footed Corbett all over the ring, but always failing to corner him.

So far as footwork was concerned Jackson and Johnson were very much alike. Both stood flatfooted and did not move around any more than was necessary. Jackson, like Johnson, was a very cool and careful ring general. He always took his time and could not be hustled. But Jackson did make a move, his muscles acted with catlike speed. Jackson's long suit was his straight hitting and his pet wallop was a straight right that he landed over the heart. He seldom used a jab or a winging blow, but followed his left jab to the face with his straight right to the heart in one, two fashion. His blows did not carry tremendous steam, but they were timed perfectly and placed exactly on the mark at which they were directed.

Corbett Changes Style
Corbett's style was exactly opposite to that of his dusky opponent. Footwork was his long suit and he used every inch of the ring while in action. He did very little straight hitting, but depended almost altogether on swinging blows. As a rule Corbett worked his left jab overtime, but he could not use it against Jackson, because the latter had such a tremendous advantage in the matter of reach.

Corbett's plan of battle was to slip Jackson's straight leads, letting them slide over his shoulder, and then to counter with hooks and swings. During the first half of the battle Jackson forced the fight, trying his hardest to corner Corbett and land his one, two punch. Because the men had fought themselves out and neither cared to lead away when it looked as though Jackson had him pinned in a corner. It was not all sprinting on Corbett's part, however. At times he took his turn at forcing the pace and whenever he started a rally his superior speed was too much for the black and he had the better of the going. The thirtieth round was the decisive one. In that session the men engaged in a slugfest, during which Jackson emerged with two broken ribs. Corbett's efforts had sapped his strength and during the rest of the bout there was no more action. The men merely walked around sparring and, as neither would lead, the referee wisely called the fight off.

BRYAN LIKELY TO COME DESPITE ALL Grape Juice William Slated To Speak in Toronto To-morrow

By Courier Lensed Wire
Toronto, Feb. 26.—It is not likely that the Dominion Alliance will do anything to prevent the appearance of William Jennings Bryan at the Masses for all prohibition conference, where he is billed to speak on Thursday evening.

Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary of the Alliance, said today:
"Mr. Bryan is not being brought here by anybody. He is sent here as fraternal representative of the prohibitionists of the United States appointed and accredited by them. He is not being paid a fee by the Canadian organization. We are under no expense on his account. Mr. Bryan is behind President Wilson in prosecuting the war and offered his services in any capacity. It would be churlish on the part of the citizens of Toronto to refuse a courteous hearing to Mr. Bryan." The executive of the Alliance meets this afternoon to discuss the situation.

PRUNE APPLE TREES ON Milder Days All of This Work Should be Done Before Spring Opens

Neglect to prune trees regularly, that is, at least each year, results in big branches having to be removed when work is again undertaken. As very general neglect of this important practice has been reported in the past year, all fruit growers should endeavor to make up for their omissions where they have occurred. In the case of the apple tree winter conditions present an opportunity to get ahead with the work while a certain amount of labor is procurable that would be otherwise engaged during the growing season.

Young trees of all sorts and all trees of tender fruits should be left until the approach of spring, but the more hardy apples can be attended to at any time during the winter except when the weather is very severe. It is generally believed, and no doubt rightly, that winter pruning produces wood, while summer pruning produces fruit, but summer pruning to increase fruit bearing is seldom necessary if the winter work is done regularly and thoroughly.

The supervision of the owner of an orchard is necessary if pruning is to be a success, as it is important that the bearing habit of the different trees be known before thinning out the heavy branches takes place. Properly disposed prunings of these branches will give thinning of the fruit to some extent, and it is important that the work be done thoroughly at this time when help for thinning in summer is so scarce. Too severe pruning, with a view to shaping up a long-neglected tree, must also be avoided in all it will be found that a man with a proper knowledge of the business on the ground will do more good by directing two or three willing but ignorant workers, than if he himself try to hasten progress by going and doing some hand-work himself and neglecting to watch his assistants closely. If only two men are engaged, the experienced one should work on the same trees as the amateur, so as to be able to watch him closely.

The main object of pruning is to produce a large crop of good quality fruit, well colored, and to give this and it is first necessary to have a well-balanced tree, so thinned out in the head that plenty of light and air can enter to ripen the fruit and keep it in healthy condition. Many objects are the keepings of the growth down to a level at which the fruit can be harvested easily and the tree will not be excessive use of pumping power. Tapping back the leading branch tends to make the lower branches more vigorous and to spread the top so that it will take full advantage of such spaces as there is to spare in the orchard.

All dead branches in the tree should be removed, and no twig should be allowed to touch, and one side of the tree is beginning to outgrow the other it should be headed back. Cuts should be made just ahead of a bud pointing in the direction that growth is desired. The tools necessary to meet the various conditions of size of wood and its distance from each are a pair of hand shears, a pair of long-handled shears and a good sharp medium-set saw. Where many young trees are to be pruned a first-rate pruning knife will be

POPULAR SALESMAN IS CONSTIPATE

Travelling Man's Customers All Notice His Great Improvement

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with Tanlac is the large number of travelling salesmen throughout the United States and Canada who have testified to the benefits they have derived from its use. Among the latest of these well known "Knights of the Grip" to realize the powers of the "medicine is William Goulding, who represents the Ontario Cap Company and resides at 175 Macdonald Ave., Toronto. Mr. Goulding has been selling goods out of Toronto for the past thirty years, and is undoubtedly one of the most popular commercial travelers in Canada. His statement regarding the value of Tanlac in his case, follows:

"I have been bothered more or less with my stomach for a long time, due no doubt to my habit of eating in a hurry and failure to properly masticate my food, but during the past two years the trouble seemed to be getting the best of me. My appetite was very bad, I never relished anything to eat and was distressed a great deal of the time by the gas on my stomach and often had dizzy spells. My nerves became so shattered that I couldn't rest, well, and I had that down and out feeling all the time. I was really in very bad condition and got to where I just had to stop and try to regain my health."

"So last April I went down to Galt on a visit to my sister to doctor up and try to recuperate, and it was while there that I began taking Tanlac. She insisted so strongly on me trying it that I got a bottle, and it's a fact, when I finished the first bottle I felt much better and noticed an improvement in my general condition. I have taken six or seven bottles in all, and I think it simply remarkable the way it has helped me. I have never found anything in all my travels to do me so much good. Why, I felt better than I have in years. I'm never bothered any more with indigestion and my tired, fagged-out feelings are gone. Tanlac seems to have rid me entirely of stomach trouble and put my nerves in good shape. My appetite is fine, I sleep fine and many of my customers on the road congratulated me on how much better I'm looking. I'm more energetic and have more strength. In my opinion, Tanlac is the best medicine out and I will unhesitatingly recommend it to anyone."

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Milton H. Robertson & Co., Ltd., in Paris by Apps Ltd., in Mt. Vernon by A. Yoemann, in Midway by William Peddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

MINERS RETURN TO WORK

APPOINTMENTS MADE

By Courier Lensed Wire
Washington, Feb. 25.—The Earl of Reading, the British high commissioner and minister extraordinary, has announced the following appointments:
Sir Hardman Lever, K.C.B., financial secretary to the treasury, to be assistant commissioner in matters relating to finance; Sir Henry Balfour Balfour, K.C.B., to be assistant commissioner in other matters, with the personal rank of minister plenipotentiary; Sir Robert Crawford, K.C.M., to be commercial commissioner.

Sir Richard Crawford who holds the rank of minister plenipotentiary has been connected with the embassy for some time as commercial adviser. Sir Hardman Lever also is well known in Washington, having accompanied Foreign Secretary Balfour here last spring in the capacity of the financial expert.

Regular Inspection Must be Deferred

So many skilled telephone workers have gone overseas that we have found it impossible for the present to keep up the practice of making a regular inspection of all subscribers' telephones.

It is important, in the interests of your service, that such defects as broken mouth-pieces, frayed cords, etc., be reported to us promptly.

We therefore ask that subscribers promptly notify the "Trouble Department" (no number necessary) of any such defect in their telephone equipment so that we may remedy it promptly and protect the service.

Your kind co-operation will be appreciated.

CARRYING WATER TO THE TRENCHES

Modern Gunga Dins Give Great Aid and Run Grave Danger

One of the jobs of soldiers during a hot battle which requires more than ordinary courage is carrying water from the rear to the men in the first line trenches. Water is constantly served to the men, whose throats become parched by the fumes of bursting shells. The tide of the battle may sometimes depend upon the water carriers.

Unnumbered obstacles must be overcome by the soldiers assigned to this task. Whenever possible they walk through the communicating trenches, but often they are compelled to go into the open, stumbling over their fallen comrades, floundering through the enemy's barrage and running the enemy's barrage fire as well as their own.

A vivid description of the work of a water carrier and the dangers that beset him is given by Victor Grayson, formerly a member of the British Parliament and now serving in the British army. The story was written by Grayson to a friend in England.

"I found myself one of a party detailed to carry up rations to the front line trenches through a 'queer barrage,' he writes. 'We all knew that the boys up the line were to hop over at daybreak following morning, but we were not aware until our sergeant-major told us that they had been without rations for twelve hours.'

"As much as the mud would permit our pace was speeded up, and we were soon in the line upon the duck boards (board walks laid in the mud), myself and my immediate companions each laden with two petrol cans of water.

"The front line was about two miles away. For the most part of the journey a bright moon made the travelling comparatively easy. But suddenly the duck boards ended, the moon completely disappeared and the resulting darkness acted like a signal to the opposing shells to 'open up.' The air was torn with the howls and shrieks of shells.

"It seems inconceivable, even in retrospect, that one should laugh in the midst of such horrors. But when I saw my pal in front dart away from a menacing shell burst on the right straight into the arms, so to speak, of a muddy shell hole on the left, I laughed till a stitch came into my side.

"When we reached the support trenches a halt was called and not a moment too soon for a rest. My water cans had become amazingly heavy, and all of us were panting as we crouched beside our comrades who were resting in the support trench reserve. I had recently suffered from a cold, and I heartily wished that my journey might soon end. And after five minutes we started over again, and the sergeant-major set a pace that I knew I could not sustain.

"Gradually I felt myself falling behind, and every fresh effort to catch up with my party only served to increase my exhaustion and limit my breath. At last, with a feeling of utter desolation, I fell beside my cans. The trench revealed to me that I should soon lose contact with my hurrying comrades, and the mad music of the hurdling shells stimulated me to a fresh effort.

"A great weariness seized me, and in spite of the noise and uncanny surroundings I could have gone to sleep. A chagrined dread of falling in my task nerved me, however, to a final effort. I found my way through the stark sentinel trees, and, though wandering blindly, with no further sense of direction, I finally heard voices, down into a communicating trench, and the sergeant-major set a pace that I knew I could not sustain.

"Get down quick, digger," cried an officer, "never mind your cans."

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

"But those cans had become a precious part of myself, and, gripping them affectionately, I slithered into the trench and comparative safety. The experience had been thrilling and unforgettable, but there was water for sixteen men. And the sight of the boys eagerly filling their water bottles made everything wonderfully worth while.

"My comrades of the ration party had duly delivered their burdens and returned, so that my journey back to the dugout had to be accomplished alone.

"After half an hour of well nigh hopeless wandering, a shrieking shell exploded so close to me that the concussion lifted my steel helmet from my head and almost blew me off my feet. At the same moment I tripped over something and fell between two dead soldiers.

"An inscrutable Providence rather than any conscious effort on my part brought me to my dark, but welcome dugout. My comrades were hugely relieved at the sight of me, for they had counted me among the fallen."

IS ACTING PREMIER By Courier Leased Wire. Peking, Feb. 27.—Chin Nuan Hsiang, minister of the interior, has been appointed acting premier in place of Wang Chin Chen, who has been granted a leave of absence. Wang is said to favor a temporizing attitude toward the southerners and is not in sympathy with the president's announced military policy against the rebels.

WILLARD WILLING Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 27.—Jesse Willard, heavyweight champion when informed that Fred Fulton had knocked out Frank Moran, said he would meet Fulton for the championship if Fulton is willing to make reasonable terms. Willard added that he would be willing for the fight to take place as soon as arrangements could be completed.

THAMES LOWER London, Ont., Feb. 27.—The water in the Thames, which rose nearly fifteen feet last night, where the big ice jam still hold at Komoka, is to-day receding. Several farmers left their homes last night, but returned to-day.

MISS' AND SMALL WOMAN'S DRESS.

By Anabel Worthington.

Developed in blue serge or gabardine and trimmed with either bright red or French blue, this simple frock will be as pretty as any girl could wish. The Russian side closing is a popular feature and the square neck and broad collar effect is sure to be becoming. The long, one seam sleeves are finished with gauntlet cuffs, which flare out from the hands. The two gored skirt is gathered all around to the slightly raised waist line. A leather belt makes an attractive finish at the waist line. Big pockets with fancy laps are stitched over the hips. The miss' and small woman's dress pattern No. 570 is cut in three sizes—16, 18 and 20 years. Width at lower edge of skirt is 2 yards. As on the figure, the 16 year size requires 4 yards 3/4 inch or 2 1/2 yards 5/4 inch material with 3/4 yard 3/8 inch contrasting goods.

To obtain this pattern send 15c to The Courier, Brantford. Any 2 Patterns for 25c.

SIDE TALKS

THE FUN OF BEING SICK

Say what you will there is a certain amount of fun in being sick.

Not of course when you are in pain.

And not when you have been ill long enough to be wild to be up again.

One of the keenest disappointments of my life was when after a two weeks' sickness the doctor put off my getting up for one more eternal day.

You Must Have Been Hungry For Best

The fun of being sick comes when you feel just weak enough to enjoy the relaxation of being in bed.

To make your appreciation of the sensation keener you should have been fighting against getting in for some time and your body must have been fairly hungry for rest.

Then you should have a sunny room, plenty to read, and a mind free from any pressing obligations. It is wise when after a two weeks' sickness the doctor put off my getting up for one more eternal day.

Like an Ocean Voyage

I think there is something in common between such convalescence and an ocean voyage, the same feeling of being completely isolated from the exertions and complications of daily life, the same dreaminess, the same sense of limitless time.

To my mind the ideal convalescence is the after an illness not serious enough to have made one feel too miserably, but serious enough to have made one's family anxious.

It takes a crisis like these to bring out all that latent goodness which most of us are inclined to keep so very latent.

And what a warmth and glow it does bring to one to be the object of it all! Tenderness is the sunshine of love and is as soothing and healing to the hearts on which it falls as real sunshine to the body.

Heights of Unselfish Loving

Such experiences are bitter indeed to those who must feel the anxiety, and yet I think that through them we sometimes climb for a moment to exalted heights of unselfish loving that we would never otherwise reach, and come for an instant nearer to piercing the infinite isolation in which each soul really lives: than at any other time.

No one wants illness to come into one's family. Nothing changes the face of life more quickly, makes the heart so more miserably laden than the knowledge that serious illness threatens a loved one. And yet there are compensations. Do not forget them.

MONTREAL BONDS ARE OFFERED

Nearly $7,000,000 In Debentures to be Placed on Sale

Montreal, Feb. 27.—(Special)—The Bank of Montreal, Fiscal Agent of the City of Montreal, is authorized to offer for sale $7,000,000 Five Year 6 per cent. Refunding Gold Bonds of the City of Montreal, dated December 1st, 1917, due December 1st, 1922.

The issue is made to refund a like amount of Montreal Three Year 6 per cent. Notes, the original issue having been for public works, in anticipation of a permanent loan.

The offering will attract immediate attention in Canadian Bond circles, as it is the largest municipal offering placed on the Canadian markets since the Minister of Finance made it necessary to obtain approval from the Department for any further issues in Canada.

The issue is being made at par without accrued interest and a full half year's interest will be paid June 1st, 1918. As the subscriber does not pay for his bonds until April 8th, the net yield is about 6 1/2 per cent.

The Bonds are issued in coupon form in denominations of $100, $500 and $1000.

PRODUCE PULP AND PAPER By Courier Leased Wire.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—In discussing the outlook of the pulp and paper industry in Canada, the Canadian Bank of Commerce urges that nothing be done to obstruct the growth of an industry which is able to contribute so substantially to Canada's export business.

"If the extraordinary demand is to be met," the bank states, "more plants will be essential, yet very little is being built. The cost of new plants would be now about double what it would have been in previous times, and prices for the chief paper products are regarded as inadequate to provide interest upon the necessary capital and a sufficient amount of depreciation so that the fixed charges may be normal after the war."

WILKINSON GOES UP. The Cleveland American League baseball team to-day announced the purchase from the Newark International League club of Roy Wilkinson, a right hand pitcher and Gustave Getz, an infielder. Wilkinson is well known to Canadian League fans, having been for several years with St. Thomas.

Rippling Rhymes

If Uncle Sam appoints a man to work out conservation, I'll follow that appointee's plan, and try to save the nation. Perhaps the rules he may lay down will seem like gentle kidding, but I'll be first man in our town to jump and do his bidding. I'll do what that official says, and blithely too, because if he insists I'll wear a frog and eat my Sunday dinner. If he declares that eating fowl three days a week is useless, I'll cut out chicken, duck and owl, and make the three days gooseless. No doubt there'll be some family rules, by rushed officials handed, each rule is sprung before it cools, and jars us when it's landed. And centralizations will arise, confusion worse confounded, but we'll obey if we are wise, as soon as they're pronounced. It is not ours to reason why the loyal man is whyless: but it's ours to cut out, on days appointed, please. Some family rules may seem absurd, it leaves me dazed and frozen, but he who makes it is a bird; or he would not be chosen. He knows much better where we're at, than I, so weak and stiddy; at his behest I cut out fat, and eat an apple and a nut. At his behest I sell my shoes, and barefoot gladly wander, and hope my trials may amuse the soldier boys out yonder.

FEAR STRIKE IN B.C. (Victoria, Feb. 27.—A strike in the shipyards of British Columbia, involving more than 3,000 men, is now regarded as inevitable.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—"I don't think there will be any strikes," said Hon. T. W. Crutcher, minister of labor, to-day when shown a dispatch from Vancouver, B.C., saying that a strike in the British Columbia shipyards now appeared inevitable. The minister would add nothing to this remark, merely saying that he hoped to give out a statement later on.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH. Talk Easy To Your Otolaryngologist. You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sneezing, no more itching, no more watery, mucous discharges or dizziness, no more gings for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of this Cream. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils; let it penetrate through every air passage of the head, soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

BRANTFORD

Has done well in rallying to the colors in the great conflict in which we are engaged; also in backing up the boys who are fighting our battles, by paying to all the calls made necessary by this awful war. There is still a duty of supreme importance to the allied cause at this time and that is for those of us at home to practise

The Disciplinarian A Company Commander's Story

(By Capt. H. B. C. Pollard.)

"What was left of the company," said the captain, "lay out in the darkness in front of the German trenches at Passchendaele. We had, of course, no regular line of trenches, but were just taking what advantage we could of the line of shell craters. It was one of these steady thrusting operations, you know. Periods of intensive bombardment, then a short push for objectives less than a mile away.

"Our brigade had been fairly fortunate for it was already our third day in the affair. Casualties were beginning to tell, and an unfortunate burst of fire from a German heavy battery had rather reduced the company I commanded. Sitting there in the mud and darkness at the end of an utterly miserable day was no joke, as anyone who knows the Ypres salient will testify, but, as it happened, communications were good, and we had plenty of food and ammunition brought up. Finally I got a message from the C.O. telling us the time and objectives of the morning attack.

"I got messages through in the dark, and gathered all the non-commissioned officers of my company, and as we were so short of men nobody was to fall out even for a moment to attend to casualties. We had not a man to spare. If anyone stopped the barrage lifted, I was particularly careful upon this point, and told them that it did not matter who fell—myself or anyone else—no one was to take any notice, and
