

THE SUN
Life Assurance Company
OF CANADA.

Mr. R. JUNKIN, General Agent, Brockville, Ont., July 29th, 1888.

Dear Sir, - It is with pleasure that I acknowledge the receipt of $20.00, the amount due me on the policy of Policy No. 1234 in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, upon the life of my late husband, John Frederick Clow, who died on the 24th of July last. The Company, of which you are the General Agent here, are deserving of great praise for such promptness in settling my claim in so short a time. Allow me to thank you for your kindness and courtesy in this matter. Your insurance Company is a safe and commendable one indeed.

Yours truly,
R. JUNKIN, A. JAMES,
General Agent, Brockville, Ont. Agent at Farmersville.

$1-Farmersville Reporter.-$1

THE REPORTER, now in its fifth year of publication, is the only paper of the rural population of Leeds County. When first started it was only a little sheet, 12 by 17 inches, with a circulation of only three hundred. Since then it has been twice enlarged, until now it is a well-ventilated sheet, with a circulation of nearly eight hundred. The leading pages are devoted entirely to reading matter, while the two outside pages are filled with local news and live advertisements.

UNIONVILLE FAIR NOTES.
The Popular Farmers' Exhibition to be held September 19, 20 and 21. Since the publication of the list of special prizes in our last issue, Mr. E. G. Hervey has subscribed $25, to be offered as follows:
For the best single horse, in harness (male or gelding), $10.
For the best Jersey cow or heifer (registered), $10.
For the best crock or tub of butter (not less than 20 pounds), $5.
In the way of special attractions, the fair will this year be of more than usual interest. The Directors have arranged for a lacrosse match on the second day, and a baseball match and a tug of war on the third day. A local committee is arranging for a programme of trials of speed, for which prizes amounting in the aggregate to $100 will be offered. For particulars refer to the Advance Courier or the large posters.

The running arrangements made by the B. & W. are very satisfactory. Special excursion trains will be run on the second and third days, as follows: Leaving Westport at 8 a.m., calling at all stations and flag stations, and arriving at Unionville at 10:30 a.m. Return tickets will be issued at the following rates:—From Westport, $1.20; Newboro, $1.05; Singleton, 85c.; Elgin and Phillipsville, 70c.; Delhi, 60c.; Lyndhurst, 50c.; Farmersville, 30c. A special train will leave Brockville at 1 p.m. sharp; returning, leave Unionville at 5 p.m. Fare for round trip, 40c. Stock and goods of all kinds, intended for exhibition, will be carried at regular rates and returned free, if not sold. "Shutes" for loading cattle will be created at Unionville and at other points along the line.

In order to accommodate exhibitors who wish to send goods per railway the first day, but do not wish to go themselves until later, the managers of the fair will receive exhibits as sent and place them in their proper places in the exhibition. Such exhibits may be addressed "Superintendent of Fair Grounds, Unionville."
Several improvements have been made at the grounds during the past year, including the erection of a new carriage annex, 32 x 60 feet, and the complete remodelling of the poultry annex.

A number of the leading manufacturers in the country have secured spaces for large and interesting displays of their productions. Mr. R. G. Hervey will exhibit (not for competition) several of the animals in his celebrated herd of Jerseys, some of which are worth $2,000 each. An exhibit of great interest will be that of the Domestic Sewing Machine Co., whose agent will show a number of machines operated by electric motive power.

THE POET'S DREAM.
(By Eng. the Farmersville Boy.)
A worn-out post pulled all day,
For words to plead to great and gay,
And sought with all his power to gain These pleasing words, his rest he vain.
Long had he written verses short,
To please the folks of every sort.
In hope to gain their approbation—May be a small consolation—Till, wearied with conflicting thought,
And restless with restlessness sought,
From his bed he rose, and said:
"Till, between midnight and day, In quietude I lie,
When I a dream brought to my sight An eagle, with a scroll in flight, Said, smiling, said: "I am your muse; My words are yours, and yours are mine; Leave off your rhyming; do not try
To please the folks of every sort;
They read your verses with a laugh,
And think you mean to make a name;
You cannot show (right well you know)
Of any other talent good.
For if you cannot aught would know it, How can you, then, at all expect Aught of the kind to come to light?
Much loss the laurel is a waste;
Small poets thus are always met;
And never prize till they are dead;
For all mankind are seeking rest, Then, like the rest, take care of your
She said, and vanished from his sight.
He woke and lo! 'twas broad day-light."

A Unique Fish Story.
A very neat fish story comes from Bath. It is related by the Kingston Wily, James Young, which engaged in raising sunken timber from the bottom of the bay on Thursday last, found secured pinned to one of the logs thus raised a large pike weighing 12 1/2 pounds. The fish had run with such force against a large pointed silver attached to the log, that it had penetrated his body and held him prisoner. The fish was dead, but evidently had been so but for a very short time, as his flesh was hard and quite fresh. The strangest part of the whole affair was revealed on opening the pike, when, in addition to what is usually found in a fish, there tumbled out a four ounce coin silver watch, three rolling spoons, a pair of silver spectacles, and a white porcelain door knob. It is supposed that the pike had picked this hardware from the bottom, intending to use it as ballast in heavy weather.

The heavy showers of the past week have rendered the street leading to the station almost impassable, especially for heavy loads. The road will have to be graded and macadamized and the sooner the better. We think Mr. Hervey should assist in making the road passable from Harvey Cameron's corner to the station, as that is a new street opened especially for the benefit of the railway.

A young mother should not be too ambitious to correct her children. She should begin at the bottom.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Many of the country papers of this Province omit the publication of a number during the dog days, in order that the stars may enjoy a short outing, and that readers of such papers caught up with. We believe our readers know how faithful have been our endeavors to give them an interesting paper each week during the past year, will bear with us if we follow the general custom and suspend publication during some measure, the Resurrection of September 1st will have a longer supplement, to which a lengthy instalment of the story "Shirley Ross" will be given.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Farmersville schools open on Monday next.
Miss Jennie Ritter, of this place, is visiting at Syracuse, N. Y.
Miss Florence Haines, of Ingersoll, is visiting at Mrs. Loverin's.
No Reporter next week. See notice at the head of this column.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, of Detroit, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chamberlain's.
Miss Emma Church, of Brockville, is visiting friends in Farmersville last week.

Mrs. DAVIS, of Belleville, who formerly resided here, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Holt.
Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell arrived home last week from their wedding tour in the west.

Miss Annie Wilson, of Brim Hill, N.Y., was among the visitors in Farmersville during the past few days.
Owing to sickness the Rev. Mr.
Munro was unable to conduct services in the Baptist church last Sunday evening.

Remember the Plum Hollow harvest dinner, at the Baptist Church here, on the 29th inst. Dinner will be served at 11.30 a.m.

The Rev. Jas. Fuller occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at Parkdale on Sunday last, and will fill the same pulpit next Sunday.

The Rev. A. B. McDonald, B.A., of Ingersoll, will preach the annual missionary sermon in the Baptist Church next Sunday (28th), at 7 p.m.

The Dominion Express Company this week commences to carry on business on the B. & W. This will be a great convenience to the public.

When you are looking at a picture you give it the advantage of a good light. Be as courteous to your fellow creatures as you are to a picture.

Mr. G. W. Bishop, tailor, King street, Brockville, will have a new advertisement in our next issue. Mr.
Bishop claims to have one of the best cutters in Canada.

Rev. Mr. Chelam, of Brockville, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, and we believe, will preach in the same church next Sunday evening.

If you want to know all about the Unionville and other fall fairs of the county, send to this office for a free copy of the Advance Courier, which was issued yesterday. It is a little sheet brimful of interesting matter, presented in attractive form.

A strange occurrence took place at the house of Mr. Jos. Morris, on the Charleston road, last Thursday. A chimney attached to an unit lamp, standing on a sidewalk, suddenly broke into 1,825 fragments, which varied from the size of a wheat grain to a ten-cent piece.

We have received a letter from the Rev. G. Rogers, in reply to Mr. Nash's recent communication. Mr. C. Stowell, of Addison, has also sent a letter upon the same subject, taking Mr.
Nash's side of the controversy. As we have been given to understand that the whole question has been or is to be referred to arbitration, we think it best not to publish these letters at present.

The vacancies in the teaching staff of our schools had not been filled up to the time of going to press. It is probable, however, that a Mr. Kenedy, of Essex Centre, will be principal of the high school, and Mr. John Stirling, of Peterboro, head master of the public and model school, negotiations with these gentlemen being now in progress. LATER.—Both sent telegrams this evening announcing that they could not come.

The Educational Department refused to release Mr. T.M. Porter from his engagement in the Provincial Model School, and the headmasters of our Public and Model School in their fore, without an incumbent. During his connection with our schools Mr.
Porter earned a widespread reputation as an energetic and successful teacher and trainer of teachers just underlying upon their professional work.
It is with unfeigned regret that we announce Mr. Porter's intended removal to Toronto, which will inflict a severe loss upon the educational interests of the village.

Brookville B. D. Agricultural Society.
The Unionville Fair has become one of the most popular agricultural institutions of Eastern Ontario, and is at present so firmly established in the good opinions of the people that its continued success is a foregone conclusion. An average of five thousand people visit the fair annually, who come not only from the outlying districts, but from far distant cities and towns as well. The Unionville Fair has become so popular that many look forward to it with as much interest as they would to a family re-union, knowing that they will be sure to meet friends and acquaintances from all parts of the country.

Eighteen years ago the fair was first held on the Unionville property. The beginning was small indeed, for the assets were less than one hundred dollars in funds, and the Society had no buildings or other property. Slowly but surely the managers were able to win into public favor, and by careful judicious management have secured such a hold upon the confidence of the agriculturists of this and surrounding counties, that it is a common thing to hear from the lips of visitors at the fair, the expression "Unionville beats them all!"

The grounds, which are over twelve acres in extent, are ample for the accommodation of a large crowd of visitors and a large number of exhibits. The buildings are commodious and are arranged so as to give every exhibitor a good place to show the products of his farm or workshop. The cattle pens are the best to be found outside the large city buildings, while the sheep, swine and poultry buildings are models of neatness and convenience.

COUNTY NEWS.

Brookville Dairyman's Board of Trade.
Business very dull all day.

ELGIN.
SATURDAY, Aug. 18.—The long wished for rain has come at last, but is almost too late to do much good.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Young, of Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. W. Brown.
The only daughter of Mr. J. E.
Randolph, is very sick with typhoid fever. There is very little hope of her recovery.

SEELY'S BAY.
SATURDAY, Aug. 18.—The greater part of the harvesting in this locality is done.
Dr. Bowen is putting up a large frame barn at the rear of his house.
Seely's Bay will maintain her reputation for pugilistic demonstrations. A prominent merchant and a farmer had a bout at fistions on Tuesday last.
The farmer succeeded in proving himself second best.

Mr. Metcalf, proprietor of the Queen's hotel, is putting up a new frame kitchen.

ELISE MILLS.
MONDAY, Aug. 20.—Nine of our young men and women went from Brockville and return, by train, last Saturday.

The heavy rains of last week, although coming too late to do grain crops any good, will be of great benefit in starting the grass and making the soil for plowing for fall grain.

Our trustees advertised once in the Globe for a second class teacher and received 15 applications for the situation. Mr. D. A. Van Zandt, of London, Essex Co., has been chosen for teacher, but has not yet arrived. Miss Jennie Gibson takes the Wittenton school for the remainder of this year.

MALLORYTOWN.
MONDAY, Aug. 20.—The new Presbyterian church is going up rapidly.
The quarterly services in the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. W.
Pearson and the Rev. J. Richards, was largely attended.

There will be a fruit social, under the auspices of the Malloortown Methodist choir, on the church lawn on Friday evening, August 31st. The programme will consist of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, short addresses, &c.

Miss Addie, of Malloortown, and Chapman have returned from Michigan, where they have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Earl.

A lacrosse match between the Young Canadians of Brockville and the Juniators of Malloortown took place on Thursday last. The Young Canadians took three straight games.

ADDISON.
MONDAY, Aug. 20.—The late heavy showers are the topic of the day, and farmers are becoming anxious about the crops yet unharvested. Some have spring and early grain, and report very favorably of returns.

The Rev. Mr. Sanderson and family, together with relatives from Ottawa and Ingersoll, have returned from Charleston. Mr. Sanderson resumed his ordinary employments, feeling recreated after a two week's holiday.

What will be done when those of our young people go west to camp?
The question leaves them to camp?
The front, as was clearly proven at the late examinations. Wm. Lewis took a nonprofessional second class certificate, while Mort. Taplin maintained first class honors. Wm. Lewis, for Toronto University, and Mort. for Mc-Gill, Montreal. We wish them success in the future, and take this opportunity of congratulating them upon their past.

Addison, although somewhat of a standstill for years past, is rapidly becoming a flourishing village, thanks to our energetic men. For instance, Mr.
C. Stowell, with a heart as big as some men's bodies, and will no doubt be the front and build a fine cheese factory at the east end of the town, on Mr. C. W. Lewis' farm. The factory will not only be a credit to the building and the village, but will bring in Mr. Arnold and E. Wilton were the builders, and have done their work creditably and quickly. The factory will be ready to start at full blast in the spring, and according to popular opinion will not doubt be the largest in this part of the county.
Mr. Wing gave the plan of the building, and no means have been spared to make it an A. No. 1 factory.

Mr. H. B. Brown, formerly of Brockville, and now of Malloortown, has bought property at the east end, formerly owned by Mr. John Baker. Mr. Brown is a very industrious man, as is exhibited by improvements he is making in his property. He is agent for machinery, including the Maxwell binder, and is meeting with marked success.

Messrs. Jas. Hall and son have been very successful in selling the Brandford Binder, which according to popular opinion cannot be beaten.

Mr. E. Stowell purchased from Mr.
Berney, of Farmersville, a Massey binder, which is giving satisfaction.
It does clean work and is no horse killer.

Messrs. D. Mullen and sons and Mr.
B. Loverin purchased Brandford binders.

Mr. Jas. Gilholly has resumed shop-making in the old shop, now owned by James in a fine workman, and if careful will be successful.

Trade has been good, according to reports from droveteer Moffatt, and we think it would be better still if those who run to Brockville every day or two with a few dozen eggs would consider the injustice they thus inflict upon local enterprise.

Dear Sirs This.
The following was received by Mr.
Lamb in the ordinary course of business:—

"ELEN BUREL, August 18, 1888.
"—Sir, please send me two dozen of Labbe's Cure for Cough, and one dozen of your great medicine. Yours respectfully,
"C. J. GILROY."
