Irishmen were standing shoulder to cordingly held in the Masonic Hall shoulder in behalf of Ireland s on Saturday evening. The hall with a seating capacity of about two nce comprised English, Scotch and Orangeman. He concluded with an eloquent appeal for Union of all clases French-Canadian as well as those on behalf of Ireland and retired amid nore immediately interested. In order to make the demonstration as imposing as possible invitations were issued to a number of leading nen Irish and others. Amongst others so invited were the Honorable T.W Anglin and Mr Cos igan of your Province.

On opening the proceedings the chairman apologized for the absence of Mr Anglin and said a sympathiz ing letter had been received from him. The letter was subsequently read and its contents were in expres sion of Mr. As regret at being unable to accept the invitation as la was suffering from a severe hourseness.
