

Can This Be Andree?

Indians Report Finding Wrecked Balloon on the Shores of Hudson's Bay.

Two Dead Men Lay Beside It and a Third Killed by Finders.

A Search Party Being Despatched From Moose Factory to Investigate.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Winnipeg, July 19.—George Renison, who has arrived at Port Arthur from Hudson's Bay, brings the report of a balloon having been wrecked and three men having lost their lives in Ungava, on the east coast of Hudson's Bay, and supposed to be the remains of the missing Andree expedition.

The story was carried by Indian hunters to Fort George, thence by the same hand to York Factory, whence in turn it was carried to Moose Factory.

Here Mr. George Renison was paying a visit to his brother, and two days after the arrival of the Indians, June 25, he left Moose Factory and has just arrived at Port Arthur.

He says the Indians, when a considerable distance north of Fort George, came upon a sight unusual to them. Two men dead and one badly injured lay beside the wreck of a balloon. They gathered around the injured man, who evidently was in great agony. The Indians could not understand the language used by the man, but by the signs he requested them to kill him, which they did on the spot where he lay.

When they arrived at Port Arthur and the incident describing the balloon and car, a thing which they had never before seen.

Mr. Renison left Moose Factory, the Hudson's Bay officials at that point were arranging to send a party of Indians to Moose Factory to investigate the wrecked balloon and bring in papers and such other articles as may be found and are capable of being transferred.

THOSE LEVEL CROSSINGS.

Grand Trunk Willing to Do Away With An Old Montreal Grievance.

Montreal, July 20.—At the conference between the Grand Trunk officials and the committee of the city council appointed to deal with the question of level crossings this afternoon, Mr. Hays, general manager of the Grand Trunk, said the company was prepared to submit within an hour a plan they had devised for doing away with level crossings at Mount Pleasant street. He also intimated that the company was seriously considering the advisability of altering its tracks to a high level system. He asked that a conference might be arranged between engineers of both corporations.

The Canners' Ultimatum.

Two Offers Made to the Striking Fishermen of the Fraser.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, July 20.—Cannery owners express amazement at the lack of action on the part of the Dominion authorities in not protecting fishermen on the Fraser river, during the present strike. It is said that a majority of the fishermen would begin fishing and accept the 20 cent rate offered, but are intimidated by threats by a small section of the cannery owners, most of whom are from the United States side. Should the strike be continued on the present lines the canneries will be compelled to close operations for the season, for the industry is under the impression that the Dominion government should see the fishing grounds and prevent violence towards all desiring to fish. They say that the government should collect nearly $20,000 in expenses, most of which has been paid this season, and should devote some of this fund to the protection of the industry. Prominent leaders in the strike are Watson, a customs official in Vancouver.

Delegates of the striking fishermen and the executive of the cannery combine held two meetings to-day, when the strike question was thoroughly gone into. The delegates represented the Westminster, North Arm, Vancouver, and Stevenson unions.

The cannery renewed their offer of 20 cents now and 15 cents later in the run was made an optional offer of 18 cents the season through. On leaving the delegates said they would again refer to the cannery's offer to the fishermen at large and give an answer to-morrow.

It Fails To Satisfy.

Conger Despatch Believed Delayed Until Massacre Accomplished.

Russians Slaughtered the Wounded at Tien Tsin to Revenge Pekin.

In Three Days' Fighting Allies Lost Over a Thousand Men.

London, July 21.—(4 a.m.)—The Conger despatch fails to carry conviction to either the British press or public. Its genuineness is not disputed, for it pointed out that the Conger message, which the ministers fruitlessly endeavor to get transmitted, from which they could easily receive a non-committal despatch to serve the required purpose. A slight rise of hope is admitted in the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Conger are known to have been on very friendly terms with the Emperor Dowager, but the despatch is genuine here is that, if the despatch is genuine, it is a lie. The Spectator says:

"It matters nothing whether the Emperor Dowager or Prince Tuan is the reigning monarch; both are devoted to the extermination of foreigners, and not one of the viceroys will dare oppose the anti-foreign policy."

"The Conger message covered the whole Empire. Men who have dared to order a Russian city upon Russian ground within a month the viceroys of the coast towns will have thrown off the mask and the only safe place for Europeans will be on a shipboard."

"Europe has a terrible task, in which hurry is out of place. Who would have dreamed six months ago that for 10,000 regulars to take Tien Tsin would be a difficult and glorious task?"

"The Halifax-McCartney consul and English secretary of the Chinese legation in London, who was interviewed yesterday, admitted that the legation was in a state of confusion, which was not yet able to disclose. He added:

"You may take it that on July 18, the date of the Conger message, all the legations and Europeans in Pekin were safe. I cannot say why the other ministers are not able to communicate with their government. There is no reason why they should not use the same channel as Mr. Conger employed."

"The Conger message was made for Mr. Conger's message, and possibly the Chinese do not realize the anxiety existing in Europe."

"The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Express, commenting upon the mystery of Count Miravie's death, suggests that the late Russian foreign minister was poisoned by the secretary of the Chinese legation."

"The St. Petersburg despatches show that the situation in Manchuria is improving. Gen. Gribski, after relieving Bogachewskich, the capital of the province, has ordered further reinforcements and bombarded the Chinese village of Sakhalin, which was set on fire. The Chinese, however, continued to receive reinforcements, and maintained such an obstinate resistance as to convince Gen. Gribski that the Chinese were occupying Aigun, where 7,000 Chinese with artillery were in possession. The Russian troops, on the other hand, were ordered to retreat. The Chinese massed their troops in large bodies at various points along the river, and they were finally overpowered. The town of Aigun was partly destroyed, and the Russian troops were driven back to the river, driving the Chinese out of it. The Russians captured 17 guns and 2,000 Chinese. The Chinese, however, were not completely routed, and they were finally overpowered. The Meeting Of Clergy

Resume of the Discussions During the Past Week.

Interesting and Instructive Papers Read—Visitors Well Pleas'd.

A very interesting and instructive gathering of the clergy of the Anglican communion of the Northwest Pacific States and British Columbia took place during last week.

On Wednesday morning the meetings began with the subject, "The Church as a Teacher," about fifty clergy being present.

In the afternoon a special car took the clergy to Esquimalt, where the Rev. C. E. Sharp took charge; much interest being shown in this subject by the clergy from the United States.

On Thursday the subject of "The Possibilities of Ritual Uniformity" was introduced by the Rev. Canon Beaudin.

On Friday the subject of "The Possibilities of Ritual Uniformity" was introduced by the Rev. Canon Beaudin.

On Saturday the subject of "The Possibilities of Ritual Uniformity" was introduced by the Rev. Canon Beaudin.

On Sunday the subject of "The Possibilities of Ritual Uniformity" was introduced by the Rev. Canon Beaudin.

The Fear of Roberts

How the Boers Fled to Kroonstad and Beyond to Escape.

The Story Told By a Special Correspondent With the Burgers.

From Daily Mail. After the Paardeberg disaster the Boers had a perfect horror of being flanked and surrounded.

At Paardeberg the Boers were getting in a panic. The night retreat had carried a major part of the Boers by these positions. Already many had fled to the north.

Return of the Bristol

Smallpox Claims a Large Number of Victims at Nome.

Discovery of Skeletons of Mammals—Tragedies of the Yukon.

After a passage of a little over nine days from St. Michael the steamer Bristol arrived off the outer wharf yesterday morning, bringing several passengers, some small consignments of Dawson gold and a budget of late news from the lower Yukon and Nome.

Advices were received by the Bristol of the finding of an ancient graveyard, where the remains of prehistoric man, mammoth skeletons with tusks that weigh as much as 240 pounds and teeth that are seven feet long and weigh ten pounds.

At the railway station the manager, a slender man with a grey beard, gave the steamer crew and his employees a warm welcome.

New Council's First Meeting

Business Dealt With at Yesterday's Meeting of the Board of Trade.

Lengthy Letter From Atlin Tells of Wants in That District.

Little business of importance was transacted yesterday morning at the first meeting of the new council of the British Columbia Board of Trade.

The first item of business taken up was in connection with the proposal to establish an assay office in Dawson.

Mr. Ward thought there was a clause in the resolution which had been passed at a previous meeting in regard to the latter point.

The chairman informed the council that he was in receipt of a telegram from the New Westminster Board of Trade asking the Victoria board to present the provincial government with a memorial offering mediation in the fishermen's strike.

Mr. Todd did not think it opportune for the board to interfere in the matter to the extent suggested.

The chairman expressed the opinion that the cannerymen could not pay 20 cents per fish.

Mr. Todd also did not think that the Board of Trade could do much towards effecting a settlement.

The chairman expressed the opinion that the cannerymen could not pay 20 cents per fish.

As showing the importance of the industry and the seriousness of the strike, Mr. Todd stated that were the cannerymen forced to close down the season's loss in the men's earnings would total over $1,000,000.

Mr. Lugin thought the question was one in which the general public might be interested, if possible, to effect a settlement of the unfortunate affair, which if a truce could not be had, would be a disastrous effect to a very considerable extent upon trade.

Mr. Todd said the cannerymen had gone to the extreme limit in their efforts to arrange a settlement of the strike.

The question was not further debated, Mr. Lugin moving a resolution, which carried, instructing the secretary to inquire of the New Westminster board of trade what particular action they wished the Victoria board to take in the matter.

The secretary read a letter from Albert Edward, the local manager of the British Columbia Electric Railway & Lighting Company, apprising the board that his company found it difficult to know just what the board wanted in asking for an extension of the tram service to the outer wharf.

The Queen Reaches Port

Brings Rich Klondikers—One Has Two Hundred Pounds of Gold.

Find at Tanana—Locomotive Derailed on White Pass Railway.

The Queen reached port this morning from Skagway with a large crowd of passengers. The greater number were excursionists, but there were a few Klondikers, including some of the richer mine owners.

Mr. Neilson has much to say of the gold district. He says the star of the Klondike is in the ascendancy.

The output of the Klondike this season probably was greater than that of last year, and the promise is that it will be still greater.

"A great deal of summer work is being done now on the creek near the reported quartz strike of Gold Run, in spite of all some may have stated.

The new strike on the American side in the Yukon basin, known as the Tanana strike, are receiving some attention in the interior and are declared to be very promising.

John A. Hoffbauer, who has returned to Dawson from the first strike to relate to the Klondike, says that the ground on the principal creeks in the district, namely, Faith, Hope, Charity, Deep and Gold, is very rich.

The amount of the capital of the company is $250,000, divided into 500 shares of $500 each.

THESE LEARNED GERMANS

It's Nothing But a Joke For Them to Print War News in Several Languages.

The Berliner Fremdenblatt, a somewhat too enterprising journal of the German capital, has started a quite a new departure in daily journalism.

This consists in publishing the most important news telegrams of the day in English and French, besides the native German, in which language the remainder of the paper is printed.

Here are some of the paper's recent efforts in translating the telegrams into English: "After a wind of this morning from Shanghai, since 3 days the telegraphic connection Peking-Tientsin and Tientsin-Shanghai is interrupted."

"LONDON, June 19. The correspondent of the 'Daily Telegraph' at Shanghai writes the following dispatch: 'The German minister Mr. von Ketteler, in a council of the Corps diplomatique has declared insufficient the Chinese proposal to let the ministers, concerning the European protection in China, as well as the ambassadorial interference of the European governments only would be able to prevent the murder of Christians, and even of the ambassadors.'"

THESE LEARNED GERMANS

It's Nothing But a Joke For Them to Print War News in Several Languages.

The Berliner Fremdenblatt, a somewhat too enterprising journal of the German capital, has started a quite a new departure in daily journalism.

This consists in publishing the most important news telegrams of the day in English and French, besides the native German, in which language the remainder of the paper is printed.

Here are some of the paper's recent efforts in translating the telegrams into English: "After a wind of this morning from Shanghai, since 3 days the telegraphic connection Peking-Tientsin and Tientsin-Shanghai is interrupted."

"LONDON, June 19. The correspondent of the 'Daily Telegraph' at Shanghai writes the following dispatch: 'The German minister Mr. von Ketteler, in a council of the Corps diplomatique has declared insufficient the Chinese proposal to let the ministers, concerning the European protection in China, as well as the ambassadorial interference of the European governments only would be able to prevent the murder of Christians, and even of the ambassadors.'"

"The output of the Klondike this season probably was greater than that of last year, and the promise is that it will be still greater."

"A great deal of summer work is being done now on the creek near the reported quartz strike of Gold Run, in spite of all some may have stated."

Discussing The Dis

Minister of Justice Views on the Mc Incident.

Liberals Drifting Still Away From Their Trade Promise.

From Our Own Correspondent. Ottawa, July 14.—(Ex-Goventor has been badly thrown political friends in Ottawa, with dismissing him from his position.)

Mr. McInnes had been governor of the province, and his final position was put up for the government of the day. Mr. Mills was ready with an answer to the constitutional aspect of the case.

Mr. Mills said a representative of a sovereign government is not bound by the law of a foreign country. The law of the land is the law of the land, and it is not for the government to be bound by the law of a foreign country.
