ANOTHER HOMESTEAD RIOT

BETWEEN THE STRIKERS AND COLORED WORKMEN.
Fifty Shots Fired, Not One Killed—Terrible Battle With Knives—At Least Two Dozen People Were Injured With Heavy Missiles—A Number of Strikers Have Been Arrested.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 13.—The period of comparative quietness which has prevailed in Homestead since the militia left did not last, and the pent-up feelings of the strikers broke out afresh in a riot, in which at least 50 shots were fired, but miraculously no person was killed, though a score were hit by flying bullets.

A party of seven colored non-union men were on their way to the beach, when a man, supposed to be a striker, attacked them. The negroes, Charles Carroll and Fred Lewis. Lewis was knocked down. This was a signal for a large crowd to gather at the scene of trouble. Lewis' companions came to his rescue and a terrible riot broke place between the colored men on one side and the crowd, supposed to be all strikers, on the other.

The two sides fought desperately and fired their revolvers for several minutes, when the negroes made a dash through the crowd for their boarding house.

They were followed by the hoisting and Woodthirty crowd, which by this time numbered at least 2000, including the women and children. The crowd fired and threw stones at the fleeing negroes, and they in turn returned the fire with clubs, and how so many escaped instant death is a miracle.

At least two dozen people were injured by flying missiles, but as far as can be learned none were killed. The seven negroes and a number of strikers have been arrested.

Great excitement prevails here to-night and more deputies have been asked for.

FRANCE AND PORTUGAL

A Difference That May Cause Reconstruction of the Later Cabinet.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—A dispatch from Lisbon says that the Lame harrier works continue, growing out of the action of the Portuguese Government in seizing the plant belonging to M. Hensent, a French contractor. The seizure has recently been the subject of correspondence between the French and Portuguese Governments.

It is thought that the differences in the Cabinet will result in the opening of the Cortes, Ministers Bethoux, Amalari and Furtado resigning their portfolios.

The crewmen in Austria, who arrived in this city yesterday, departed to-night for St. Petersburg. He conferred for an hour this morning with the minister, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

Later he was a guest of honor at a grand banquet given at the palace, after which he attended a gala performance at the opera house.

The Toronto World.

NO. 25 YONGE STREET, TORONTO. A One Cent Morning Paper.

Other side of the sheet. The very possibility of such an annexation would have been, and is today, chargeable to Great Britain...

Further, Great Britain has never done anything to help emigrating thousands to the shores of this country. And consequently an undue majority have gone to the United States...

There is nothing that would please the Liberals so much as to see open partnership recognized in the Dominion civil service. There is one thing the Liberals have determined to do if they ever get the opportunity...

It, therefore, the Canadian civil service, which is supposed to be Conservative in the main, wishes to give the Reformers the one pretext they want should they carry the election of 1894, they can do it effectively by insisting on the claim to hold public office and to be a member of a political party...

We continue to read the news despatches and to the comments of able editors that the presidential vote just cast in the United States means sweeping tariff reductions. The election has been watched with special interest in England...

The World does not say this will not happen, but we do say: Take no great stock in all their resolutions in an act of Congress. The Americans are not the people to give their own markets to outsiders. They have made their country great, prosperous and self-sufficient by protection, embodied in tariff laws...

The World agrees with the verdict of the coroner's jury that Policeman Campbell was justified in shooting Private Trickett. And yet we do not wish in any way to encourage the constables to rely on their pistols.

The man who interferes with a policeman or his prisoner does a rash thing; if he has a grievance it is better to await another opportunity to correct it. Such correction, however, does not always come as was witnessed in a recent case in this city where a sergeant struck a reporter with a baton and the officer and some of his companions swore him clear of the charge.

Canada is indebted to Great Britain for the preservation of her autonomy up to date. There has always been an American tariff-twister in favor of annexing us to have made the act and cost of doing so popular with the masses, any time since the Civil War. There would, of course, have been fighting, but many men now now tread the peaceful paths of business would have been lying buried on battlefields from Maine to Detroit.

Reception to Female Travelers. The Central Y.W.C.T.U. intend holding their annual reception for intending members and bicycle club at Headquarters, Elm-street, to-morrow evening. Short papers will be given on the subject of the work and music will be given.

STILL HARRING ON GAMBLING.

Brother Gabraith Takes a Hand—Mr. Burton Tells of Thousands Who Never Go to Church. There seems to be a preconcerted attack by the clergy of the city upon the gambling vice. Last night Rev. Dr. Gabraith, pastor of Berkeley-street Methodist Church, dealt with the subject as a stumbling block to the progress of Christianity.

His text was Matt. xviii, 8, 9, revised version. He said that those who keep gambling houses are constantly putting stumbling blocks in the way of hundreds of young men, and that those who take the least interest in the gambling construction of a mountain over which they will ultimately find it exceedingly difficult, if not absolutely impossible, to climb to God.

Proceeding, he said that chance had no religion, and that the universe was a chaos of chance. He said that the chance of a man who believes in civilization is to go among the barbarians. There is no trusting to chance by the professional gambler. He does everything on scientific principles. The wheel of fortune is under the control of the operator, the faro box has its spring and the sleeve and the colleges are lined with horse-hair and packed to the shoulder with ace.

THE RECOVERY OF DEBT. Mr. Smith of Hobeysburg Wants Mr. Mowat to Abolish the Law. It is not the recovery of debt, but just and wrong! If one man lends money or goods to another, why should the community be called upon to compel the payment of the debt? It may be taken for granted that the residents of this village are all thoroughly respectable and abhor debt, as is the old Harry, but there is, it is painful to observe, one exception. This is the case of a certain Mr. Smith, who writes our leading articles, which his name is Smith. He is a very respectable man, and only a few days ago a bill was presented in the House of Commons, which that gentleman evaded paying. Why should the community be called upon to pay for the recovery of a debt which is not his? Why should the community be made to pay the expense of enforcing a law for the recovery of a debt which is not his? Why should the community be made to pay the expense of enforcing a law for the recovery of a debt which is not his?

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

"The Grey Mare." The laughing choruses of Bill & Raleigh's highly amusing comedy, "The Grey Mare," will be revealed for the first time to Toronto theatre-goers at the Grand Opera House to-night by Daniel Frohman's clever company. It is said that since "A Comedy of Errors" no many plots have been woven with the engaging interest of this play. It is a story of a boy who is taken for a girl and a girl who is taken for a boy. It is a story of a boy who is taken for a girl and a girl who is taken for a boy.

Over the lower part of the church was filled with students, and to them Dr. Wild addressed his remarks. He exhorted them to be honest and upright, and to shun the temptations of the world. He said that the children of the Sunday School occupied the gallery and before the benediction was pronounced they rose and sang in a touching manner the recognized hymn of all denominations, "God be with you all as you go." The congregation was even larger than usual at the evening service. He seemed to be on familiar ground when he undertook to explain "What we should do." THE RECOVERY OF DEBT. Mr. Smith of Hobeysburg Wants Mr. Mowat to Abolish the Law. It is not the recovery of debt, but just and wrong! If one man lends money or goods to another, why should the community be called upon to compel the payment of the debt? It may be taken for granted that the residents of this village are all thoroughly respectable and abhor debt, as is the old Harry, but there is, it is painful to observe, one exception. This is the case of a certain Mr. Smith, who writes our leading articles, which his name is Smith. He is a very respectable man, and only a few days ago a bill was presented in the House of Commons, which that gentleman evaded paying. Why should the community be called upon to pay for the recovery of a debt which is not his? Why should the community be made to pay the expense of enforcing a law for the recovery of a debt which is not his? Why should the community be made to pay the expense of enforcing a law for the recovery of a debt which is not his?

Over the lower part of the church was filled with students, and to them Dr. Wild addressed his remarks.

He exhorted them to be honest and upright, and to shun the temptations of the world. He said that the children of the Sunday School occupied the gallery and before the benediction was pronounced they rose and sang in a touching manner the recognized hymn of all denominations, "God be with you all as you go." The congregation was even larger than usual at the evening service.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

"The Grey Mare." The laughing choruses of Bill & Raleigh's highly amusing comedy, "The Grey Mare," will be revealed for the first time to Toronto theatre-goers at the Grand Opera House to-night by Daniel Frohman's clever company. It is said that since "A Comedy of Errors" no many plots have been woven with the engaging interest of this play. It is a story of a boy who is taken for a girl and a girl who is taken for a boy. It is a story of a boy who is taken for a girl and a girl who is taken for a boy.
