The Convention Offering for the year just closed, amounted to $265.04, being $84.96 less than what was required of us, and $23.59 less than our contribution last year. Either Denominational interests must decrease, or some other church will have to bear our burdens. This year we should give heartily and not keep in the rear.

The Quarterly Meeting of the Women's Missionary Aid Societies of Halifax and Dartmouth will be held in the North Baptist Church, Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 9th, at 3.30 o'clock.

W. M. A. S. is pleased to announce that they have another Life Member this time in the Foreign Mission Department. The honor has been conferred upon Mrs. Watson Eaton. Her deep interest in this part of the Lord's vineyard is well known. We hope that our sister may long be spared to share in the joy of our work. The second opening of the mite boxes revealed the fact that they contained $23.25. They have been a success this year, so are still to be found in the homes of our members gathering mites for Missions. The following delegates were appointed to attend the W. B. M. U. Convention at Truro Aug. 17 and 18:—Mrs. J. McPherson, Miss Ida Wiswell, Miss Ella McCarthy, Miss Mabel H. Parsons. The Treasurer's statement for the Convention year is:—Foreign Missions, $115.08; Home Missions, $31.45—total, $146.53.

Deacon William W. Pickings is comparatively young in years, but with a large and varied experience. He joined us by letter from Truro 16 years ago. He was baptized at Lower Stewiacke, by Pastor Alfred Chipman, in 1869. Being a good singer and effective speaker, he and his family proved a valuable addition to our church and school. Through all the years our genial gentle brother, having won our hearts, has had our sympathy and good wishes. For ten years he was Church clerk. As a leader in Prayer Meeting, he has few superiors. He is a dealer in milk, etc., and to many homes comes as a welcome visitor.
