hurch of England Impossib Without Royal Supremacy.

The November number of the North American Review contains two article upon the conflict which for some timhas caused briter dissension and divition in the Church of England. The Earl of Portsmouth sives a most interesting account of the origin of the Royal Supremacy and of the purpose which it is intended to serve. The earl kays stress upon the influence o the Royal Supremacy:

The Archbishop at Whitby.

Whitby, Ont., Nov. 5.—Archbishop O'Connor was presented with an address in St. John's church here this atternoon, at the vonclusion of the confirmation service. His Grace was born in Pickerlog Thownship, and this, his first visit to the church neasers the place of his mativity, was taken advantage of by the Soparate School Board and the cobgregation to address the distinguished prelate. Ex-Mayor J. H. Long read the address. The Archbishop replied in feeling terms to the kindly references to hinself.

Mgr. Bourget's Centennial.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—Archbishop Bruchest has issued a pastoral to the clergy and calthful which is to be read in the churches to-morrow in connection with the centennial of the late Mgr. Bourget, second Pishop of Montreal, born on October 30, 1739, at Point Livis.

The detter is written in the pure and riche style which characterises all the productions emanating from the pen of His Grac, and és an écoquent tribute to the worth and memory of he who was known in his time among his people as "The Holy Bishor."

Mgr. Bruchesi declares that from the first moment of his accession to the secession to the secession to the sec of Acontreal we has felt the desire of "endering a public homage of veneration to the principal arrisen of the Ullis Orace states that he has headed the list of subscriptions to the fund which is being cased to place a status by Herb rt upon the frontlepose of the Cathedry, the foundations of which were tail by the foundations of which were tail by the foundations of which were tail by the foundations of the secretary of the secretary of the property of the fund, and to thus honor the vertable creator of the present diocese of Montreal.
