MR. DUGUD SAYS IT IS NOT TRUE

The Government's Ice Breaker Expert Is Angry At A MONTREAL REPORTER Who Credited Him With Tall Statement About Ice in the Straits--P. E. Island Sunday School Association--Boston Police Officer Becomes Insane.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Oct. 18.—(Special)—The 17th annual convocation of the P. E. Island Sunday School Convention was held yesterday at Summerside with a good attendance. Addresses were delivered by W. C. Pearce, member of the International Association of Chicago, Rev. R. G. Stratton, S. F. Woodroffe and others. The executive reported the work last year to be the best in the history of the association, which was largely due to the energy and financial ability of Rev. A. D. Archibald, field secretary, who, unfortunately, returns this year. The normal work was exceptionally successful. The credit roll has grown in favor, but the home department needs stimulating. The treasurer reported the receipt of $1,500 and a balance on hand of $184. Rev. R. G. White is the president for next year.

Charles Duguid, the expert from England who has been sent by the dominion government in connection with building of the new ice breaker for our winter service, repudiated an interview alleged to have taken place with him and published in a Montreal paper, wherein he is made to state that he was surprised to learn that there is six feet of solid ice in the straits to contend with. He says he has given out no such statement to the press. Policeman Joseph D. McDonald, Station 3, Boston, a native of Sicily, P. E. Island, has been suspended from duty under a charge and has been committed to the city's institution for the mildly insane.

While McDonald has shown no mental disorder when on duty at his home he has been subjected to occasional violent outbreaks, and has repeatedly threatened to kill himself and his wife and several other persons. McDonald always seemed to be the most good-headed of officers. He was frank, open-hearted and of the kindest disposition. Last Saturday he was placed under arrest for threatening his wife and also for using threatening language to Police Captain Peabody. He was released later and summoned to appear again to answer a charge of drunkenness, insubordination, absence from duty, and two other offenses. When rebuked for his irrational acts he said he did not know why he did them only that he had done them. He has now been pronounced insane. McDonald recently distinguished himself by "breaking up" a gang of counterfeiter's before the west end of Boston. Some weeks before this he earned the public commendation by stopping a runaway horse on a Bow Street.

A CHATHAM MAN'S SAD EXPERIENCE How E. A. Strang Was Made a Victim of the McCurdys.

(Chatham Week.) E. A. Strang, of this town, takes a strong interest in the relations respecting President McCurdy and the Mutual Life of New York. About fifteen years ago he bought a $5,000 ten-year endowment policy in the Mutual Life, and paid $1,182 for it. He was promised big profits in dividends and interest. At the end of ten years he was paid only $3,405, and his protests and requests for more assurance were all referred to Mr. McCurdy and turned down by him. Mr. McCurdy was drawing $100,000 a year salary, besides profits on his own side lines, and his son, now-in-law and a notorious gambler, was an officer or agent of the company at the time that Mr. Strang was deceived in the way we have described.

FAIR OF NATIONS WILL BE FORMALLY OPENED TO PUBLIC TONIGHT

Something About the Bewildering Beauties Which Await the Visitor to St. Andrew's Rink--Promises to be the Greatest Affair of the Kind Ever Held in St. John.

After weeks of planning and hard work the ladies of the various churches in their Dutch costumes they will no doubt present a very picturesque appearance. Indeed, suggests all that is cold, and the ladies of St. Andrew's rink, which has been made gorgeous with flags and bunting and lined with tastefully arranged booths, will be thrown open to the public. The formal opening takes place at 8 o'clock but at four o'clock the rink will be opened to the public. The ladies invited with the understanding have been indefatigable in their efforts to make the "Fair" a success, and while all have done their utmost, yet the bulk of the work and responsibility naturally falls to the president Mrs. (Mayor) W. W. White and therefore a large part of the prize is due her for the energetic way in which she has superintended this event.

On the left of the entrance is the Japanese booth, representing a Japanese tea house and garden. A tempting array of wares from the land of "the rising sun" is shown in infinite variety. Under the big umbrellas in the garden of the tea house Japanese green tea can be obtained with studied dates and other delicacies. Geisha will be in attendance. On the right of the entrance is a representation of "Blarney" Castle with the historic stone. Fancy work and aprons are on sale. The booth is artistically decorated with shamrocks and Irish flags. England is represented by a handsome drawing room where visitors may rest during the afternoon or evening. The ladies in charge will endeavor to entertain all who may visit this booth. The "Domestic Science" booth follows. Here ancient and modern cookery are explained in a most interesting manner. The Dutch booth is very quaint and amusing and the whole affair carries out an excellent representation of a house in Holland. When the ladies are paraded in their Dutch costumes they will no doubt present a very picturesque appearance.

forgetting a rock reminding the Puritan landing at Plymouth in 1620, may be seen. Silhouettes of visitors will be taken "while you wait" by Puritan maids. The Indian wigs, beards of candy, Indian goods, etc., will be on sale. An array of costly dresses that will be sure to bring expressions of admiration from all who see them, is shown here. The ladies of St. Andrew's and St. Stephen's churches have combined to represent Scotland in the next booth. The interestingly placed the head of a giant and festooned with plaids. A large thistle surmounts the archway, flanked by the royal coat of arms and St. Andrew's crozier. Fancy goods of all descriptions will be on sale, and oca, tea, oatcakes, scones and shortbread will be served.

New Brunswick has its place on the right of the entrance, and is one of the most interesting booths in the building. The froth of this booth presents a handsome appearance. In the centre among the greenery is placed the head of a giant and festooned with plaids. A large thistle surmounts the archway, flanked by the royal coat of arms and St. Andrew's crozier. Fancy goods of all descriptions will be on sale, and oca, tea, oatcakes, scones and shortbread will be served.

PROPRIETORS OF LINE STORES SENT TO PRISON

Charges of Smuggling from New Brunswick into Maine Investigated by Authorities--Sentences Meted Out With No Lenient Hand. (Bangor Commercial.) Proprietors of line stores on the boundary between Maine and New Brunswick must have been rudely shocked by the sentence imposed on Melbourn Williams of Eton and Holman McMullen of Bridgewater in the United States district court at Portland on Monday. Both men received sentences of one year and one day in the state prison at Thomaston on indictments charging violation of the federal statute against depositing and keeping goods in a store situated on the boundary line with intent to defraud the first time in years. They were further sentenced to pay a fine of $200 each. The merchandise alleged to have been kept consisted in both cases of various liquors. Williams and McMullen passed through Bangor Saturday in charge of Deputy U. S. Marshal Haskell on their way to Portland, where they answered to indictments found by the grand jury. They were taken on capias on Friday of last week. The sentence imposed by Judge Hale on Monday is undoubtedly in the line of the increased activity on the part of the customs officials in an attempt to do away with the line stores. Treasury department officials have been urgent in their demands that the business be broken up and the deputy collectors have been doing good work along this line. It is said to have been a number of years since a sentence to state prison has been made by the court in a border store case. There was a similar case of the kind at the June term of the United States district court in this city but the respondent, keeper of a somewhat notorious line store in the vicinity of Houlton, was let off much easier than were Williams and McMullen. Frank McNalley, the third member of the trio carried through Bangor by Deputy Haskell, was convicted of smuggling four quarts of whiskey across the border and for this he was sentenced to serve thirty days in the Cumberland county jail. Dudley and Stuart Lee, of Danforth, who were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Hasty last week and taken to Portland, pleaded guilty to smuggling houses across the border and were sentenced to pay fines of $100 and costs, which they paid. The houses were sold at public auction on Saturday.

BACK FROM THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lively who have been out through western Canada on a trip returned home today. Mr. Lively expressed himself as being very much pleased with the trip. He says he had no idea of the magnitude of the country or of the grandness of the mountains. He says there is a lot of work out through the west for anyone who has a trade and his advice to all young men would be to go west. Mr. and Mrs. Lively visited Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Banff and other places in the Rocky Mountains. Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and the fair at Portland, Oregon. Returning from Portland, they came through the Crow's Nest Pass. Mr. Lively speaks of the west as the greatest country in the world.

TO HOLD A CONFERENCE

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 18.—(Special)—Premier Gouin passed through here today en route to Toronto and Winnipeg, where he will consult with Premiers Whitney and Robt. Borden in reference to the C.P.R. matter, especially the increase of provincial subsidies. After his return he will visit the maritime provinces on a similar mission.

DOES NOT KNOW WHERE FATHER IS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Frank B. Jordan, son of Thomas D. Jordan, formerly controller of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was the first witness before the legislative insurance investigating committee today. He is in the first instance and real estate business in this city. From him an effort was made to obtain information as to his father's whereabouts. Mr. Jordan, however, declined to answer the question Mr. Jordan, Sr., as to the whereabouts of his father, will not appear in court. Mr. Jordan said he had not seen his father since Sept. 4, did not know where he was. He had made no effort to learn where his father is. Answering Chairman Armstrong the witness said he knew of no one who could tell where his father is at present. He did not know whether his father and mother were living or dead.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Sheraton Bolster, the 13 year old son of John Bolster, painter, had an experience yesterday which came close to costing him the use of one eye or might have resulted in the loss of life. While playing with some boys in a yard off York street, he was struck over the left eye with a B. B. shot from an air gun, discharged by one of the young fellows who said that he could not see Bolster. The shot entered the young fellow's forehead and was later removed by a doctor who was called in—Fredericton Glen.

DEER HUNTERS LUCKY

The game shipments up to Monday day promised to make the day's total of game shipped the target of any day of the season so far, 29 deer being brought down by the morning and noon trains. Saturday's shipments are high for the season as far, 67 deer being brought down on that day. The recent rain greatly improved matters for the hunters though the rain was not half as much as was expected to meet the hunting conditions of the best. No moose have been reported as being killed yet, but it is much too early for this considering that the season opened this morning—Bangor Commercial.

THEY GET SLIGHT INCREASE

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 18.—(Special)—C. P. R. carmen's wages, which have been in negotiation with the company for some time, were left for their homes today. The company has decided to increase the wages of the men on an effort to increase cost of living expenses. A lively scrap is said to have taken place between two street railway men on Doug last evening. The man who was injured has a swollen eye and is being treated at the hospital. It seems that they got into an argument about their wages and for a while matters were interesting.

UNFAIR CRITICISM

A somewhat stupid criticism was in a scornful manner if ever there were a word which built a ferry steamer and then built a harbor for the steamer. This is a silly question. It implies that St. John alone is as done in other places. Such a contention is absurd. It is the great merit of the St. John city fathers that they don't do as is done in other places. With regard to building a harbor for the ferry steamer, it may be stated that just as soon as the civic duties has been inserted new teeth in the mouth of the

THE MAYOR'S ROBE

The mayor and aldermen will have their fortunes told at the grey tent at the Fair of Nations this evening. The ambulance will be in attendance, as some shocks are expected.

With regard to the statement that the Ludlow has not yet got her certificate, it is well known that a certificate is a small matter. It is ridiculous to suppose that so small a thing would interfere with the plans of the ferry committee. The Ludlow will be on the route before Christmas.

could find the spot, we should be in a fair way towards finding what the secret was which the old Musgrave thought it necessary to embody in so curious a fashion. There were two guides given us to start with, an oak tree and an elm. As to the oak tree there could be no question at all. Right in front of the house, upon the left hand side of the drive, there stood a patriarch among oaks, one of the most magnificent trees that I have ever seen.

House Work

Need Not Wear Her Out

The drudgery of house work seems never ending to tired-out, dispirited women who suffer from female complaints and irregularities. Inflammation and ulceration of the womb and ovaries cause fearful bearing down pains which are aggravated by much standing on the feet, and lifting necessary in house work.

Richard A. McCurdy has two children—Robert, the son at home, and Gertrude, who eloped with Louis A. Thebaud twenty years ago and was forgiven. New York society scarcely knows them by sight, despite a fancy home in Fifth avenue, near Washington square.

Marsh, brother-in-law of President McCurdy, as Medical Director of the Mutual Life, worries along on a salary said to be only $20,000 a year, but it may be larger. THE FAIR OF NATIONS

A most general and generous patronage should be extended to the Fair of Nations, not only because it is in aid of the Y. M. C. A., but because the ladies have given so generously of their time and talent to convert St. Andrew's Rink into a fair-land for the benefit of the association.

to cause Abah to his face and say: "Thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord." We do not question the motives of Elijah, or even of St. Paul, who spoke the same unpleasant words a thousand years later; but both men were be-lighted.

The Times commends the Fair of Nations to the good-will and generous patronage of its readers. To none should it appeal so strongly as to the young men, for it is the welfare of the young men of this and succeeding generations the kind-hearted ladies have had in mind while they have been laboring so earnestly to provide an attractive entertainment.

THE INTERCOLONIAL

The Toronto Globe makes this significant statement in an editorial on the Intercolonial problem: "It follows that competent and business-like management of the Intercolonial cannot be secured unless executive authority is vested in one man of first-rate ability, large experience, and proved administrative power.

MCCURDY PHILANTHROPY

In connection with the story, on an other page of today's Times, of the rise of the McCurdy family on stepping stones of widows and orphans to the highest things of modern philanthropy, as by them interpreted, it is well to remember the words of President McCurdy:—"The Mutual Life Insurance Company was organized upon the theory that it was a great beneficent missionary institution."

Perhaps no finer commentary upon the McCurdy philanthropy as a fine art has been written than the following ironical article from the New York Evening Post: "The twentieth century has very properly been called the age of philanthropy. Even before President McCurdy, men lived who were generous, who did good according to their feeble lights, but for us has been the glory of exalting philanthropy to its true place as a fine art.

IN THE WEST ALSO

At the teachers' convention in Winnipeg last week, manual training was declared an essential by Prof. Osborne of Wesley College, who said that "while too great a variety of subjects should not be studied, manual training should never be omitted because it was intimately related to the executive capacity, and, as it was workers that were needed."

"He contrasted the commercial progress of Germany, which had only made start in comparatively recent times, with the condition of affairs in England, where, in spite of every advantage at the beginning, industries were being lost. The reason of this, he said, was not to be found in tariffs, but in education, simple and solely. Whilst Germany had placed education on the highest possible level and had provided technical education in every district according to its commercial possibilities, England had neglected to adapt education to the industrial needs of the nation. John Bull was, however, waking up in the matter of education, as well as in some other things, and when he did wake up he generally saw pretty clearly and pretty far."

The convention adopted a resolution approving the principle of school consolidation as in the interests of education in Manitoba.

Admiral Togo has gone to Ise Temple and worshipped at the shrine of his ancestors. A despatch says: "It is believed that his act will furnish a leading example in national religious education, and that ancestral worship will be given fresh stimulation, especially in the army and navy. Admiral Togo has shown his implicit faith in what he said in his report of the great naval battle when he attributed the Japanese victory to the protection of the spirits of Imperial ancestors."

Race prejudice enters into the schools in Kansas. The State Supreme Court has just issued a writ of alternative mandamus against the board of education of Kansas City (Mo.), returnable Nov. 7, requiring said board to show cause why colored pupils should not be allowed to attend school at the same hours and in the same buildings as the white pupils.

MEN OF ST. JOHN

DR. A. A. STOCKTON, M. P. Alfred A. Stockton, Ph. D., D. C. L., LL.D., K. C., M. P., was born at St. John, Kings county (N. B.), on Nov. 2, 1842, and is of English and Loyalist descent. He was educated at Mount Allison Academy and University, graduating B.A. in 1864, and receiving the M.A. degree in 1867; and at Victoria University, Coburg, where he received the degree of LL.D. The degree of Ph.D. was received on examination in 1883, from Illinois Wesleyan University. He is a D.C.L. of Mount Allison and of King's College, Windsor. He was for some years an examiner for degrees at Mount Allison, in political economy and constitutional history, and in law at Victoria University. Upon the establishment in this city of the St. John law school in connection with King's College, Dr. Stockton was appointed lecturer in admiralty and shipping and in constitutional history and law, which appointment he still holds. He was also for some years a member of the board of regents of Mount Allison and secretary of the board.

Dr. Stockton studied law with his uncle, C. W. Stockton, and was afterwards a member of the firm of A. A. and R. O. Stockton, which was dissolved in 1887. He then practised under his own name until November, 1904, when he admitted J. Milton Price to a partnership. The firm now being known as Stockton & Price.

In 1887 he edited with extensive notes, "Bertrams Reports of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick," and in 1884 published a work on the Admiralty Law; and in 1888 a work on the Monroe Doctrine and other topics. At present he is bringing out a history of the "Judges of New Brunswick and their times," from the organization of the province to the present time.

In 1887 he was appointed a member of the commission to report upon the amendment of the "Law and Practice and Constitution of the Courts of the Province." Dr. Stockton always took an active interest in political affairs, and in 1888 was elected a member of the N. B. legislature. He was continuously one of the members for St. John until 1899. In 1900 he unsuccessfully contested the constituency for a seat in parliament, but was elected at the general elections in 1904. In every political campaign during the period of his public life Dr. Stockton has taken an active part, and throughout the province he has the reputation of a brilliant campaign speaker, strong in attack, ready and witty in retort, and never disturbed by interruption of any sort. His clear, resonant voice, ringing through every part of the large auditorium, at once commands attention, and his fine gift of eloquent expression has long stamped him as one of the most effective public speakers in the province. Dr. Stockton has always taken an active interest in educational matters, and in former years a frequent contributor to the press. He was one of the editors of the old Maritime Monthly, and a corresponding editor of Le Reveu, a legal publication issued for some years in Montreal, whose chief editor was the venerable Sir Girouard, now of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Dr. Stockton was a captain in the militia at the time of confederation. He has been a life-long advocate of temperance. He is a past president of the N.B. Historical Society, St. John Law Society and Barristers' Society. He has long been the legal adviser and prosecuting counsel of the S.P.C.A., and was for a number of years registrar of the Vice-Admiralty court. He is a Freemason, and in religion an active member of the Methodist church.

On Sept. 5th, 1871, Dr. Stockton was married to Amelia E., second daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Picken of St. John, who was far over a quarter of a century at the head of the Mount Allison educational institutions.

During his long career at the bar Dr. Stockton appeared in many celebrated cases, including the litigation in connection with the Maritime Bank, popularly known as a "cause celebre," under the name of the Maritime Bank Case. In this case he journeyed to England, and appeared before the privy council, having associated with him the present Lord Chief Justice of England, Lord Alverstone, then Sir Richard Webster. It may be interesting to note that the opposing counsel were the Hon. A. G. Blair and counsel were the Hon. Sir Horace Davey, one of the most eminent jurists in Britain. Among other important cases were the Bay will case and the Bishop Sweeney will case, both of which were carried to the Supreme Court of Canada at Ottawa, and were finally decided in favor of Dr. Stockton's contention.

In the larger field of politics at Ottawa Dr. Stockton ranks among the ablest speakers of the house of commons, and his speech on the autonomy bill delivered last session was described as one of the ablest speeches in opposition to the bill.

Dr. Stockton is a man of remarkable energy, and although he has not enjoyed the best of health during the last two years, he is still an active figure in public life.

MAN CAUGHT HERE IS WANTED IN HALIFAX George Innes Arrested by Detective Killen for Theft in Sister City.

On the arrival of the Halifax express yesterday afternoon George Innes, an Englishman, was arrested by Detective Killen. During the afternoon Chief Clark received a telegram from Chief of Police O'Sullivan, requesting that a watch be kept here for John Innes, alias Smith, who was reported to have stolen $60 from a man at Halifax. Innes did not deny his identity, and when searched the sum of $37.08 was found on his person. He said that it was his intention to obtain work in this city and that his name was not John but George Innes. It is alleged that the prisoner stole the money from a shipmate on a fishing schooner at Halifax. Chief Clark wired Halifax police headquarters that their man had been captured.

MR. McCURDY ON THE STAND Turns Out Now That Mutual Had a Press Agent Who Was Well Paid.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18—Richard A. McCurdy president of the Mutual Life was the star witness at yesterday's session of the insurance investigation. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting answers from him. It was shown that $200 was paid to Joseph Howard, Jr. in 1904 and a similar amount in May 1903. Mr. Howard had sent news matters favorable to the Mutual to the press of the country and it was for this service the payments were made. It was also shown that the dividends on policies had been reduced although the business and assets of the company had greatly increased. Letters from policyholders were read by Mr. Hughes showing that one $3000 policy which in 1876 drew a dividend of $35.70 drew but $3 in 1904. In reply to all questions along this line Mr. McCurdy said he could not give any information. Mr. McCurdy protested against the news being read by Mr. Hughes showing that he said, had not practically become an inquisition.

Equity Court Case Involving Ownership of an Up-river Farm, Heard Yesterday Afternoon.

The case of Beverly W. Evans against his wife, Sarah E. Evans, was heard before Mr. Justice Barker yesterday afternoon in the equity court. In his parties have figured in the police court recently, where the wife sued her husband for lack of support. It is now being argued in the equity court that the land was originally owned by James Vincent, brother of Mrs. Evans. He mortgaged it in 1861 to John S. Murray of Cole's Island for $200. There was an agreement made, the plaintiff alleges, between himself and Mr. Vincent that he should pay off the mortgage and get a deed of the land in his own name. The money was paid in installments, and the money that his wife paid on the instalment plan was, he says, paid by his authority and earned by him. Mrs. Evans says the money was hers. Husband and wife have been separated for the past two years.

CHILDREN HAVE NO PEERS What a London Paper Says of Pollard's Lilliputians.

It was creditable to the Gastro-gonomers of London that they attended the performance of the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company in good sized numbers last night. It will be more creditable to the theatregoers who attended that they give the necessary "boosting" to the attraction because no week-end aggregation ever deserved it as these children do. The Pollards do not set to any more "ay-what-I-tell-you" recitative style which most abominable children suffer from. There is the spirit of the humour out of the pathos in them, and they put their little souls into every breath of the work. Jimmy Powers or Arthur Dunn never did better work in the part of "Flipper" than does Teddy McManus, aged 10. This is a big statement, but it is one that would not be safe to say unless it were correct. "The Runaway Girl" was splendidly presented last evening. Splendidly describes the presentation, and yet seems to fall short. Three children, whose combined ages make some young comedians look gray, are the top-notches in musical work in London this season—Free Press, London, Oct.

TALL CORN OIL IN KANSAS Kansas is proud of its corn crop. The complete emptiness of the stomach during sleep adds greatly to the amount of emaciation, sleeplessness and general weakness so often met with. DARKEST RUSSIA

Harkins Company to Present a Strong Bill Here Tomorrow Night.

Local patrons of the drama are anxiously awaiting the opening of the Harkins Company at the Opera House tomorrow evening. The old favorites will, of course, receive a warm welcome, and no doubt before the curtain falls on the last act, there will be several new favorites among the new members of the company. The bill chosen for the opening is "Darkest Russia."

The secret edifice was beautifully decorated for the occasion and special seats were reserved for relatives and guests. Shortly before three o'clock the choir entered the church and took up a position in the centre aisle near the front, and on the arrival of the bridal party pro- ceeded to the chancel, rendering the "Voice that Breathed of Eden."

The bride was given away by her father, the groom was escorted by Mr. F. J. Poirer, and the bride attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Madge Robertson.

After the ceremony luncheon was served in the parlour of the bride's residence. The happy couple will leave for their honeymoon at the Carlton Hotel on Saturday morning.

MORE OCTOBER BRIDES

Lord-Walker

An event which for some time has been looked forward to with interest in St. John social circles took place in St. Paul's (Valley) church at three o'clock this afternoon when Miss Jessie Walker, third daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker, was married to Calvin Lord, of Brookline, Mass., by the pastor, Rev. A. G. Hamilton-Dieter, assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. Millidge Walker, of Florida.

The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated for the occasion and special seats were reserved for relatives and guests. Shortly before three o'clock the choir entered the church and took up a position in the centre aisle near the front, and on the arrival of the bridal party pro- ceeded to the chancel, rendering the "Voice that Breathed of Eden."

The bride was given away by her father, the groom was escorted by Mr. F. J. Poirer, and the bride attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Madge Robertson.

The wedding took place at six o'clock this morning, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church. The bride was unattended and wore a navy blue tailor-made travelling suit.

At the conclusion of the ceremony which was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, a wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple left for Fredericton accompanied by relatives. After spending a few hours at the capital Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will proceed to Winnipeg and Vancouver and from thence to Hong Kong where they will spend a fortnight before taking their journey to Oahu where they will reside the groom being a member of the firm of Hamilton & Borner, of that city. The bride is very popular and is accompanied by a large number of wedding gifts and while her many friends regret her departure from the city they see unanimous in wishing her every hap- piness in her wedded life.

The drawing-room in which the wed- ding took place was tastefully decorated with flowers and ferns and the dining- room presented a pretty appearance with accessories of novanberries, etc.

Ryan-Jennings

FREDERICTON, Oct. 18.—Special. — Arthur J. Ryan, the well-known druggist, was married at St. Dunstan's church at five o'clock this morning to Miss Margaret Jennings, niece of Wm. Jennings. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intim- ate friends and relatives being present at the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Lizzie Morgan of St. John and bridesmaid and Arthur Rowan supported the groom. Rev. Pa- ther Hannan was the officiating clergy- man.

The bride wore a grey homespun travel- ling suit with a red velvet hat and the bridesmaid's costume was of blue broad- cloth with hat to match. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. After luncheon at the bride's home the happy couple left by the 6.30 train on a trip to Boston and New York. The bride's pres- ents were very numerous and included a beautiful sofa, the gift of the groom's friends.

POLICE COURT

Victims of an Abnormal Thirst Quickly Disposed of by the Magistrate.

In the police court this morning, Mag- istrate Ritchie presiding, George Bell, Wm. Boygan, and John McGill were fined $4 each for drunkenness, George Adams, for the same offence, was fined $2. The prisoner lives with his wife on the north side of King square. On investi- gation of the case, it was ascertained that the influence of liquor, it is alleged, endeavored to choke his better half.

John Watta, a pugilistic fame, visited the north side of King square last night about 11.40 o'clock, and as a result was also invited to spend the night in a cell at the police station. Watta was charged with taking the Lord's name in vain and pleaded not guilty.

Police Constable Perry said that last night, at the hour mentioned, his attention was attracted by loud talk on the north side of King square. On investi- gating he ascertained that some four or five men, among whom was Watta, were endeavoring to get a teamster to take them out the road. The driver did not wish to go as they had no money. Officer Perry ordered Watta along and he used abusive language and he galled him. The pugilist did not take kindly to his adversary, and forthwith attempted to put his muscles into play. It is, however, a strange hold and Watta went to the pavement. His prisoner then went quietly with him. This morning Watta said that the driver was only in fun and often drove him to his home, where he intended going last night. Officer Perry said that the driver was away from a bar-room at closing time, and that the scraper had been imbibing. Magistrate Ritchie fined the prisoner $8.

The Campbell steamer Aruo, Captain Ingersoll, has about made her repairs, and today she is at Walker's slip. She has received extensive repairs to her hull and is newly painted.

SOLD 360 BLANKETS

Advertised Them Last Night and They Were Sold at 9.15 This Morning.

There are still some business men who doubt the value of advertising. But a firm on King street told in yesterday's papers about 360 blankets they would put on sale this morning. At 9.15 this morning the blankets were all sold.

The fact proves two things. It proves the value of advertising in general, and also the importance of up-to-date adver- tising. The readers of the papers were told all about the goods and on Monday morn- ing they merely had to examine them and learn if they were as represented.
