ARE LOOKING TO PARLIAMENT IN THE COAL CRISIS

Country Eager for Statement
by Lloyd George

He is to Speak in Commons
Today—Water Checked in Some Mines, Gains in Others, Fire in One—Possible Spread of Strike.

London, April 4.—The coal strike situation continued the foremost topic of discussion throughout all sections of Great Britain today, with labor, commerce, trade and finance deeply agitated over the serious condition into which the community has been plunged by the shut-down of the collieries.

Everyone was awaiting, however, an expected statement by Lloyd George in the House of Commons late this afternoon, which was hoped would have a clarifying influence. He arrived during the morning from Chequers Court his country residence and presided at a cabinet meeting at which the coal situation was considered.

The government's position it was anticipated would be clearly defined in the premier's statement, a day set aside for discussion of the situation probably tomorrow.

At The Mines.

So far as the colliery districts were concerned the best news was that the rush of water into many of the pits was being stayed, the management with the help of volunteers manning the pumps. In the other mines, with volunteers available, the waters were gradually gaining on the workings.

In Skewen colliery, in Wales, a fire was reported burning which it was feared would destroy the workings.

The authorities at London were proceeding today with their arrangements for the provisioning of the people of the country if the meetings called for Tuesday and Wednesday resulted in the railwaymen and transport workers deciding to throw in their lot with the miners and join them in striking.

Announcements that additional big industrial workers were preparing to suspend their double shifts, preparatory to total closing with the damping down of the furnaces, came during the morning. In line with other measures restrictive of ordinary activities because of the strikes the races scheduled to be held at Lingfield were abandoned.

No move was made by either side looking to fresh proposals for settlement, but it was considered in both labor and political circles that the situation was likely to be clarified by the sessions of the House of Commons today and tomorrow.

London, April 4.—Frank Hodges, secretary of the Miners' Federation, made an astonishing statement about the withdrawal of the pumping forces in a speech at Conisboro, in Yorkshire, yesterday. "It was a decision," he said, "what could only have been taken in the most desperate circumstances. I am not a willing party to see the mining industry physically destroyed. Who could view the prospect of a flooded mine with equanimity? Who could think calmly of the destruction of mines that will never be re-opened? No man can do it. But the decision had been arrived at and must command characteristic loyalty until it is altered, if ever it is altered."

He added: "I think, counted on starting the miners into submission. It is a question of endurance. We may go down, but if we do, the nation will be beyond the accepted view of the working classes that the government is prepared to starve sections of this community into accepting terms which are beyond acceptance, the least that keeps the working classes from revolutionary efforts will become looser."

In Parliament.

London, April 4.—Regulations to meet the emergency brought about by the strike of coal miners in Great Britain were discussed by both houses of parliament here today. Premier Lloyd George, who called a meeting of the cabinet for early today, was expected to go before the House of Commons and endorse an announcement made on Saturday by Sir Robert S. Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, that the government would refuse to yield on the point of subsidizing the miners' wages.

Members of the labor party also gathered today to discuss the situation and it seemed probable that some action would be taken which would forestall the attitude of the National Union of Railwaymen and the Transport Workers Union at their conference on Wednesday.

Indications were seen today that it was probable the two great unions would support the miners in their demands. It was pointed out that resolutions to that effect were passed by a score of London and provincial meetings of the railway workers' organization on Sunday, although the vote was not in all cases unanimous.

A feeling is growing, says the Daily Graphic, that the negotiations on the proposed new wage scale broke down too abruptly and that an attempt may be made by the House of Commons to bring the parties together once more.

Large police reserves were taken to the Bow Hill and Kelly collieries in Fife-shire last night to protect furnace men against 2,000 strikers who had compelled them to abandon work.

CAPRONI'S GREAT
AIRSHIP BURNED

Milan, April 4.—The giant hydro-aeroplane of Gianni Caproni, which it had been hoped would be able to accomplish the trans-Atlantic flight, but which fell into Lake Maggiore during a recent trial flight, has been burned.

WANT PLEBISCITE
ON ONE-MAN CAR

Bill for Legislature But Government Wants City's Approval—F. A. Campbell Explains Labor's Plans—Tenders for Painting Ferry—Public Works Reports.

Fred. A. Campbell, president of the local Trades and Labor Council, and lobbyist at Fredericton for the New Brunswick Federation of Labor, appeared before the common council in committee this morning to ask that the city approve the holding of a plebiscite on the question of the operation of the one-man car here. He said that a bill was to be presented in the legislature at this session providing for the ballot, but the government first wanted the approval of the city council.

Mr. Campbell said that if the people decided in favor of the one-man car of any description, organized labor would do its best to carry out the wishes of the people. He said that a questionnaire had been submitted to some 10,000 business men and others in the city, and only eighteen had been returned signed in favor of the Birney safety one-man car.

He said that St. John had a higher street car fare than any place in Canada and that we had a worse system than in any place except Montreal. He understood that there were one-man cars being built for the city.

Replying to the mayor, he said that the operation staff would be reduced about one-third by the introduction of the one-man car. He said that if the government did not protect the workmen of the country they would have to get out and protect themselves.

Dr. Frink asked if the Public Utilities Commission did not have jurisdiction over this matter. He said that the commission ordered a change in the cars used on the west side.

Mr. Bullock said that he understood that the city's ultimatum to the power company was: "The Birney safety car or no one-man car."

Commissioner Jones said that if the commission had no jurisdiction in the matter he favored a plebiscite.

Replying to Commissioner Thornton, Mr. Campbell said that there were about twelve cars in the city that were fit for operation. He said that the power company was protected by the government to the extent of fourteen per cent on their invested capital. It was now up to the people to decide what protection they would have for themselves. He said he thought it was rather strange that the government should refer the matter to taking action before taking action, until he met F. R. Taylor in Fredericton; then he understood why the "buck was passed" to the council.

On motion the matter was referred to the mayor to take up with the N. B. Power Company to ascertain what their plans were.

Geo. H. Tippet applied for purchase of a lot in Manawagonish road adjoining two lots which he had already purchased at a cost of $200. On motion the lot was ordered sold.

TOBACCONISTS AT WAR AND SMOKES CHEAP

Prices Cut in Toronto, Especially in the Charge for Cigarettes.

Toronto, April 4.—A war is on among the big tobaccoists of this city and "smokes" are unusually cheap at present, especially cigarettes.

Thirty five cents cigarettes have been reduced to 28 cents; 25 cents brands to 19 cents; 18 cent varieties to 14 and so on.

Tobacco has followed much the line of reduction as have also to some extent cigars and smoker accessories.

REV. R. J. COLPITTS
DEAD IN HAMPTON

Editor of Maritime Baptist Passed Away Today After a Brief Illness.

Rev. R. J. Colpitts, editor of the Maritime Baptist, died at his home in Hampton this afternoon, after a brief illness from pneumonia and pleurisy. He was ill a week and early this morning he was reported to be resting comfortably and hopes were held out for his recovery; but he took a bad turn a little before noon.

Rev. Mr. Colpitts was one of the prominent Baptist ministers in the province and was well known and highly respected, and the news of his sudden death will be learned with sincere regret by a large circle of friends and associates.

Mr. Colpitts was forty-seven years of age and was a native of Elgin, Albert County. When a young man he graduated from the Provincial Normal School and in 1902 graduated from Acadia University. He went to Rochester, N. Y., where he graduated in theology in 1905 and came to his native province to take up the work of the ministry here.

He was pastor of several churches in New Brunswick, including charges at Point de Bute, Dawson and Keswick Ridge, but his ministerial career for the most part was in the Maritime provinces. He was also a prominent member of the home mission board. He has made his home at Hampton for the last two years and was in comparatively good health until a week ago, when he contracted pleurisy and pneumonia which was the cause of his death at two o'clock this afternoon.

Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Lavinia Moore of Rochester, N. Y., he leaves five children, two sisters, Mrs. R. A. Smith of Elgin, Mrs. N. W. Eveleigh of Sussex; five brothers, J. Herrett, Sherman L. and Titus of Forest Glen; Warren H. and Henry W. of Sussex.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "what is a slower than a funeral procession?"

That's a queer question to ask," said Hiram. "I guess I'll let you answer it yourself."

"Fehill," said the reporter, suggests a funeral, and I went out there yesterday, though not to a funeral. It took me much longer to get across the marsh, and chilled me through, until I could get another strap on which to ride to town again. It took me two hours and ninety minutes to get across the marsh, and chilled me through, until I could get another strap on which to ride to town again. It took me two hours and ninety minutes to get across the marsh, and chilled me through, until I could get another strap on which to ride to town again.

"Well," said the reporter, "a man who went out there once by the next time I just naturally want to get the next time in a hurry, and get some action for his money. I suppose to look into the matter, I'll give you a question, 'like a conundrum. What's the difference between the street cars and a funeral? One is a dead service and the other is a service for the dead."

"Hiram," said the reporter, "I thank you."

EXPECT CHARLES TO GO TO SPAIN

One Report Says Ex-Emperor Seriously Ill

Think He Will Leave Hungary for Switzerland Today—"Little Entente" Threatens Action if He is Not Out by Thursday.

London, April 4.—Despatches from Vienna by way of Berlin to the London Times report that ex-Emperor Charles is seriously ill, that his throat is inflamed and his fever high, caused by over-exertion at receptions.

The train which is to convey Charles to Switzerland is ready at the south station in Vienna to start for Steinamanger when necessary. Three Entente officers and three Socialist deputies are to proceed on this train, but so far there is no sign of its leaving.

A Vienna despatch to the Central News states that the Swiss legation at the Austrian capital has announced that Charles will return to Switzerland today.

Berne, April 4.—Switzerland will be only a way station on the return journey of former Emperor Charles, it is said semi-officially here. Permission for him to re-enter this country is said to have been given only for the purpose of securing peace for Hungary and Austria. It is a general supposition that Charles will join his family at Prangins and take his wife and family to Spain.

Paris, April 4.—Resolutions demanding the arrest of Count Andrássy, a supporter of former Emperor Charles, and General Lehan, governor of West Hungary, have been adopted by the Hungarian National Assembly, which is reported to newspapers here.

A Prague despatch to the Petit Parisien states that Dr. Edward Benes, foreign minister to Czechoslovakia, has declared that if Charles does not leave Hungary before April 7 the "little entente" comprising Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugoslavia, will intervene.

A Vienna despatch says the Hungarian government has fixed April 20 as the date upon which a king will be elected.

Budapest, April 4.—Former Emperor Charles told the members of his suite at Steinamanger today that he was unwilling to leave Hungary. If he could not remain as king, he would settle in the country as a private citizen, he declared.

Austria, April 4.—The Austrian cabinet has notified the Hungarian government that unless an early hour is set for the certain departure of ex-Emperor Charles, the Austrian government will cancel his safe conduct. This notification has evoked a promise from Hungary that Charles will leave that country within forty-eight hours from Sunday night.

BRITAIN GREATER
BY $400,000,000

Washington, April 4.—Great Britain's drink bill increased by more than $400,000,000 last year as compared with 1919, says a report to the department of commerce from the United States consul at Edinburgh, Scotland.

The amount spent on intoxicating liquors in the United Kingdom in 1920, the consul says, is estimated at $2,285,795,000 as against $1,878,469,000 in 1919. The total, however, is about 24 per cent less than before the war.

STILL MAN FIGHTS
COURT DECISION

Opposes Barring of Letters in Divorce Action, Also $90,000 Yearly Alimony.

White Plains, N. Y., April 4.—Counsel for James A. Stillman, New York banker, today began their fight against the decision of Supreme Court Judge Morschauer barring from the divorce proceedings brought by Mr. Stillman certain letters said to have been written by and to his wife. These included the so-called "confession letters" that Mrs. Stillman is said to have written her husband and letters alleged to have been written her by Fred Benvais, a Canadian guide.

The banker's attorneys also opposed an order served on them by the court last Saturday seeking to make effective immediately the court's award of $90,000 alimony a year, with counsel fees and expenses.

GREEK PRINCE IS REPORTED SLAIN

Turks Say Brother of Constantine Killed in Battle Near Brusa.

London, April 4.—Prince Andrew of Greece, brother of King Constantine, has died from wounds received in fighting near Brusa, says a Constantinian despatch to the Evening News, quoting a Turkish announcement. The Turks also assert that General Wischopolous, who was in command of the Greek attack against the Turkish Nationalists on the Brusa front has been killed in action.

Prince Andrew of Greece was the third son of the late King George of Greece. He was born in Athens on Jan. 29, 1892, and served in the Greek army during the Balkan war of 1912. Following the return of Constantine to the throne, Prince Andrew was appointed a general in the Greek army and late last month was said to be in command of a division at the front. He was married to Princess Alice of Battenberg on October 7, 1908.

TWO SHOT BY BOOTLEGGERS

Canadian Customs Officials Reported Wounded at Valleyfield, Quebec.

Malone, N. Y., April 4.—Captain Benjamin Lafave and Mr. Boreault, Canadian custom officers, were shot and seriously wounded at Valleyfield, Que., on Saturday night while endeavoring to capture a bootlegger seeking to cross the United States border line, according to a report reaching here last night. Effort to communicate with Canadian customs headquarters for confirmation of the report were unsuccessful.

Canadian customs officers and United States prohibition enforcement agents have been waging an active campaign of late in this vicinity against bootleggers. This has led to many serious clashes. On last Friday night, Jos. Charbaut, a Valleyfield garage man, who was shot and seriously wounded by four men said to be United States bootleggers, was being attempted to take an automobile held on police order. The assailants escaped after wounding Charbaut three times. It is thought that while endeavoring to intercept members of the band who attacked Charbaut the Canadian officers were wounded.

Your heart will go out to the man who with Fate, friends and the world, except his dog, against him, beats his way back and up to the high places of life.

THE TIME TO ADVERTISE.
Maritime Merchants it is quite a common practice to reduce the advertising appropriation when trade quietens down or to eliminate advertising entirely. This is the first step to business suicide; no greater mistake could be made. Experts in advertising who have given the closest possible study to this question are a unit on this. They advise no curtailment of the publicity campaign when business is slow. Just the opposite. They hold that this is just the time to make still further efforts. And where this plan has been followed, success has always crowned the efforts of the advertiser.

Testing Sentiment About Running Sussex Express on Daylight Time.

A new method of deciding whether or not the Sussex express will run on the daylight schedule was introduced this morning on the train by the management of the C. N. R., and each passenger who uses a commutation ticket was given a slip of paper on which were written the words, "Are you in favor of light time?" C. N. R. Policeman William Roberts, of the information department, distributed these tickets and, after the answers to the question were written, collected them and will forward them to headquarters. It was said that a large majority were in favor of the daylight schedule.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Frank Hoare, a well known and respected farmer of East Mountain, near Truro, was attacked in his stable on Friday night by a person as yet unknown, and dealt severe blows on the head. The Truro police have the matter in hand. Mr. Hoare went to Truro on Saturday and had his wounds attended to. He says he does not know of an enemy he has.

In the Massachusetts senate charges have been made of alleged corruption in the passage of the Boston Elevated and Eastern Massachusetts railway public control acts by the legislature of 1918. An order has been adopted providing for a thorough investigation. The name of Hon. Edwin T. McKnight, a native of Kings county, N. B., is mentioned as the conduit through which members were able to make their investments, and that he was able to get sufficient votes to make himself president of the senate in 1919.

In St. Luke's Methodist church, Chatham, yesterday, a bronze tablet was unveiled to the memory of twelve members of the church who lost their lives in the war, and to the fifty-six who returned. The tablet was erected by the Ladies Aid Society and the address was delivered by Rev. J. J. Pinkerton.

THE TIME TO ADVERTISE.
Maritime Merchants it is quite a common practice to reduce the advertising appropriation when trade quietens down or to eliminate advertising entirely. This is the first step to business suicide; no greater mistake could be made. Experts in advertising who have given the closest possible study to this question are a unit on this. They advise no curtailment of the publicity campaign when business is slow. Just the opposite. They hold that this is just the time to make still further efforts. And where this plan has been followed, success has always crowned the efforts of the advertiser.

ORDER FOR MILLION EGGS.
Valparaiso, Chile, March 4—(Associated Press, By Mail)—Officers of the supply ships which accompanied the United States Pacific fleet on its recent South American cruise struck a staggering blow to the pride of local merchants when 1,000,000 eggs were ordered for the 15,000 bluejackets on the return voyage to American waters. Egg laying is not at high tide in these latitudes at this season and it is doubtful whether the Valparaiso merchants were able to fill one-third of the big order.

IMPORTANT RULING IN N. B. MURDER CASE

Ottawa Paper's Comment on
to Supreme Court.

(Ottawa Journal). Newman Clark was, on the 8th day of December, 1920, at Andover, New Brunswick, found guilty of the murder of one Phoebe Bell, the offence having been committed on the 25th March, 1920. The defence sat up by the accused at the trial was that of insanity. Mr. Justice Chandler, the trial judge, charged the jury that the defence of insanity having been set up, this defence must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt." In charging the jury that insanity must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt," the learned trial judge followed the decision of the Court of Appeal of New Brunswick in a case of the King vs. Kierstead decided in 1916 wherein it was laid down by that court that insanity must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt."

In a case of the King vs. Anderson decided by the Supreme Court of Alberta in 1914 it was laid down that it is a misdirection in a murder trial where the defence of insanity is set up to charge the jury that insanity must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt." In this case the court drew a distinction between proof "to the satisfaction of the jury" and proof "to the satisfaction of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt." The court in this case recognized the existence of two degrees of proof; the first being proof to the satisfaction of the jury, and the second, and stronger, being proof to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt."

The court of Appeal for Alberta in this Anderson case laid down the principle that in a murder trial where the defence of insanity is set up it is merely necessary to prove the insanity to the simple degree of proof, namely, to the satisfaction of the jury, and that proof is not required to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt." The court consequently laid down the principle that it is a misdirection in such a case to charge the jury that insanity must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt."

The Anderson case decided by the Supreme Court of Alberta was apparently not considered by the Supreme Court of New Brunswick in connection with the Kierstead case. When the present Clark case came on for trial there existed this conflict of jurisprudence and counsel for Clark applied to the trial judge to reserve a case for the opinion of the Court of Appeal as to whether or not, having in mind the Anderson case, the trial judge had made a misdirection in charging the jury that insanity in the present case should be established to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt." The trial judge refused the application for the reserve case on the ground that he was bound by the decision of the Kierstead case. From the trial judge's order refusing the reserve case, counsel for Clark appealed to the Supreme Court for New Brunswick, which court unanimously dismissed the appeal and affirmed the conviction.

Prior to 1920 no appeal could lie to the Supreme Court of Canada from a conviction of a provincial appellate court. By an amendment to the Criminal Code passed in 1920 an appeal now lies to the Supreme Court of Canada from a conviction of a provincial appellate court in a criminal case where there is a conflict of jurisprudence between such provincial appellate court and a court of appeal of another province.

Upon the basis of this amendment, counsel for Clark appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada from the decision of the Court of Appeal for New Brunswick, upon the ground that the judgment of the Court of Appeal for New Brunswick was in conflict with the Anderson case. Judgment has now been rendered by the Supreme Court of Canada granting Clark's appeal, setting aside his conviction, and directing a new trial. This judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada confirms the judgment of the Court of Appeal for Alberta in the Anderson case, and now lays it down as law that it is a misdirection for the judge to charge the jury that insanity must be proved to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt." As a consequence, in the future in such cases the jury be charged that insanity need only be proved to the satisfaction of the jury, and that it is not necessary that the insanity need be proved to the greater degree, namely, to the satisfaction of the jury "beyond a reasonable doubt."

LIBERAL CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY POLAND

Warsaw—The adoption of the Polish constitution last week places the reborn nation on a more stable political foundation than at any time since its re-establishment two and one-half years ago.

The chief points that have been at issue in the discussion over the constitution were the method of selecting the president and the establishment of a second parliamentary body.

As finally adopted there will be a senate and a chamber of deputies, and election of the president will be entrusted to the national assembly, composed of the full membership of both the houses of parliament, who may elect the chief executive for a term of seven years by majority vote.

The constitution provides for free, compulsory education in district and municipal schools. Every citizen has the right to the use of his own language, and assurance is given the free development of the minority nationalities living in Poland. The different nationalities are permitted to have their schools and teach their own language under government supervision, and with partial support by the state.

Land reforms provided for restrict the individual ownership of large tracts, and all classes receive equal rights in this respect.

The care of orphans by the state is provided for and night work by women and by children under fifteen years of age is prohibited.

Fur seal hunting in the summer time off the coast of Washington is restricted to the Quillayute, Ozette and Makah tribes of Indians, whose rights are guaranteed by a treaty signed ten years ago by the United States, Great Britain, Russia and Japan.

HALIFAX MERCHANT ON TRADE OUTLOOK

"I am not at all pessimistic about the trade situation," said H. G. Bauld to the Maritime Merchant. "I am expecting a quiet year as compared with the three which have preceded it, but so far as the grocery trade is concerned, I think we shall have enough to do to keep us busy and though we may not make any great amount of money, I believe that if we keep active in pushing for business, we shall come out all right. And why shouldn't we? This country cannot be seriously hurt by a few months of hard times. The people generally are too well to do. Most of them have made money since the war began and the majority have saved at least a little of what they have earned. I hear people talk about the low price of fish being the ruin of Lunenburg. Why, bless my heart, the people of Lunenburg could afford to give a two years' catch for nothing and still be the best-off people of any country in Canada in proportion to population. Of course there are some bad spots throughout the country, and losses by traders will have to be made. It is true too that with values of food-stuffs declining, it is harder for the jobber to make profits. But just the same, I think there is no reason for pessimism and I am not going to take that side for quite a long while yet. I have gone through a good many periods of bad times, and I have observed that the fellow who easily becomes despondent is usually one of the first fellows to be hit by the bad times himself. There is no denying that the present situation should be taken seriously, but it must be taken cheerfully and hopefully. We are watching our purchases, our sales and our collections as closely as we can, but still we are working every possible avenue that indicates a prospect for business. Our expenses are heavy and we must have a sufficient turnover to meet them. While inclined to be cautious about commitments, therefore, we are nevertheless pushing ahead just the same almost as we are doing in normal times."

of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission by Walter Jackson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., consultant on electric railway and motor bus services. He placed the cost per day of a five-ton truck doing 100 miles per day, including all the costs, investments, amortization, etc., at $60, and said the cost of a ninety-mile round trip on the Toronto-Hamilton highway would be more than this, rather than less. The cost of a seat mile on a motor bus, he said, was practically double that of a tram car seat mile.

THE BRITISH CRISIS.
The seriousness of the strike situation in Great Britain is manifest to all observers. If the railway and dock workers go out, a crisis of unparalleled gravity in British industrial affairs will be reached. The number of unemployed in the country was enormous before the miners went out. That there is an ugly feeling among the strikers appears from the statement credited to the secretary of the Miners' Federation and published today. He practically hints at revolution if the miners do not gain their point, and intimates that the destruction of the mines may be a part of the deliberate policy of the men. It is hardly to be believed that such utterances will gain any sympathy from the public. One of Saturday's cables said, on the contrary, that public sentiment was not with the strikers. A Welsh miner who was in St. John recently said that miners' pay ranged from forty to sixty dollars per week. If that be so, they certainly were not starving, and the government's protest against placing further tax burdens on the people for their benefit when so many men were unable to get any employment at all would seem to have a good deal of force. The government is facing a very serious problem, and can only rely upon public sentiment to meet the situation. Labor immensely strengthened its position during the war period, and if the people at large feel that it has gone too far in the present instance the strike will fail. The assertion of the secretary of the Miners' Federation that the miners go down the nation is deemed foolish and malicious exaggeration. The British parliament met today in emergency session to discuss the strike situation.

THE UNIVERSITY.
The legislature is expected to deal generously with the University of New Brunswick. It is a vital part of the provincial system of education. It is undenominational and has a long record of splendid work. It has always been to some extent handicapped by lack of financial support, but from its walls have gone forth many men who have made their mark in provincial and imperial affairs. It is not at all in the same position as a denominational college, which makes its appeal on denominational grounds for support. The educational system of the province, without a university at the top, would be lacking in one of the great essentials. The members of the legislature will not be influenced by arguments which would seek to place the provincial university on the same denominational basis as the public funds of the province. The University must be strengthened to do its work more and more effectively. Speaking in Ottawa last week Sir George Foster, a brilliant graduate, said:—"But for me there is but one alma mater, the little university that resides near the city of Fredericton in New Brunswick. I stand for the small university. They do something for a man that the big universities do not."

VOCAATIONAL TRAINING.
The Ontario government gives very liberal assistance to technical or vocational training. At a recent meeting of the Ottawa Collegiate Institute the chairman praised the government which had given the Institute a grant of $25,000 for technical advancement, made up as follows: Building, $9,175.40; equipment, $7,901.11; salaries, $8,233.66. Next fall the Ontario act requiring all children in the larger centres to remain at school until they are sixteen years of age, will come into effect, and is expected to add very materially to the school attendance. The Ottawa Collegiate Institute expects an increase of at least one hundred pupils. Touching the matter of education, the recent meeting of the Manitoba Education Association in Winnipeg was marked by a strong address by Col. Gill, director of the continuation schools of Milwaukee, on the importance of paying greater attention to vocational training. The secretary of the Manitoba Labor Bureau, spoke on the same subject, and urged "more school houses and fewer jails, more libraries and smaller arsenals, more constant work and less crime, more justice and less revenge." They have in Winnipeg a junior branch of the federal department of labor, which co-operates with the public school board and the employers of labor to fit boys and girls leaving school into whatever branch of work they seem best fitted for, without loss of time, linking them up at the same time with vocational evening classes. Half the cost of this service is paid by the federal government. Its work is similar to that of the Vocational Guidance Association of New York.

An American writer says: "There should be more liberal treatment of the men who are undergoing vocational training in an attempt to make themselves self-supporting. There has been much stupid red tape thrown about the present system, with the result that men who require such training and are anxious to take it have not been afforded the necessary financial support while undergoing it and have thus been obliged to give it up."

LIGHTER VEIN.
A man went into a drugstore recently. He was a man who does not mind a joke against himself, but though he was well known to the druggist, the latter refused to supply him with some poison. "Rubbish!" remonstrated the customer. "You know me well!" "Sorry sir," persisted the druggist, "but I cannot give you poison without a prescription." "Why," said the customer, "do I look like a man who would kill himself?" "I don't know," said the druggist, "but if I looked like you, I should be tempted!"

There was a man who did not approve of foreign missions. One Sunday at church a collector approached him and held out the alms box. "I never give to missions," whispered the man. "Then take something out of the box," whispered the collector, "the money is for the heathen."

It was the final examination, and a budding philosopher concluded his essay on "Mother Earth" with this startling statement: "The earth revolves on its own axis 24 hours in 24 hours. This rapid motion through space causes its sides to perspire; this is called dew."

Early Training Counts.
The detail had just arrived near the front lines when the captain looked around and noticed a private, hatless and coatless. "Where's the rest of your uniform?" he demanded. "Back where we came from." "Go back and get it." The private vanished and later reappeared correctly uniformed, but without his hat. "Where's your gun?" "Left it back where we came from." "Listen! Followed the captain. "You're a fine soldier. What were you in civilian life?" "Plumber's assistant"—The American Legion Weekly.

DENY STORY
Evidence About Motor Trucks to Ontario's Public Works Department.
Hamilton, Ont., April 4.—L. C. Parkin, a Dundas garage man, who sold twelve motor trucks to Hon. E. C. Biggs, minister of public works, for $117,600, in an interview here denied the story of a proposed "gift" to the minister, referred to by Roy Reynolds, in his evidence before the public accounts committee of the legislature last Friday.

Mr. Parkin denied the whole story and said he made no gift of money. Hon. Mr. Biggs is an automobile or money. He declared that Hon. Mr. Biggs had acted quite legitimately throughout. He said he could testify before the public accounts committee on Wednesday.

DOMINION TAXATION.
St. John Interests Not in Love With Turnover Tax—Board of Trade Committee Report.
The following report on dominion business taxation will be submitted to the conference of manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, which is to be held in the Board of Trade rooms next week, and to which a general invitation has been extended by the Board of Trade. The committee on the subject of dominion taxation, presided in its report that in co-operation with a committee from the Retail Merchants' Association, they have given the matter careful study.

It was the opinion of the joint committee that while the turnover tax has been applied to manufactured mercantile commodities would prove unsatisfactory because of the difficulties in the way of its application to the smaller commodities which would be unable in many lines of goods to uniformly and equitably apply the tax percentage and administrative cost of such a form of taxation would be very great and would not produce the required financial returns.

OTTAWA JEWS WELCOME PARTY OF IMMIGRANTS FROM LAND OF SICKNESS AND STARVATION.
(Ottawa Citizen.)
Hundreds of Jews assembled at the Union Depot last night to welcome the return home of Samuel Saslove, 222 First street, after an absence of eight months searching for his mother and other relatives there. The demonstration afforded the long lost relatives and countrymen was at times touching, and many were the pitiable and harrowing experiences unfolded by Mr. Saslove and his party of about sixty-five immigrants, which arrived at Halifax on Friday from Antwerp, Belgium. Probably one of the oldest members of the party was Mr. Saslove's grandmother, who is seventy-eight years old. The relatives of Mr. Saslove number seven, including a cousin, Miss Poly Mochulsky, who is a university graduate at the age of nineteen. Brothers, sisters, cousins and orphaned nieces were also in the party.

LOOTING GRAIN BARGES AT AUSTRIAN CAPITAL.
Vienna, March 15.—(Associated Press by Mail)—Wholesale looting of grain barges bound from Yugoslavia to Vienna has led to more than 100 arrests. According to the newspapers the sailors have an arrangement with the illicit dealers. They sound the siren to indicate what kind of cargo they carry, the smugglers put off Henry Leno, 227 1/2, they want, which is re-sold through the left hand trade at an advance. More than fifty cubits of foodstuffs is reported to have been thus looted.

MILITIA MADE FINE SHOWING

Annual Church Parade Yesterday to Trinity Church and Cathedral.

Members of the various militia units stationed in the city attended divine service in a body yesterday morning, the Protestants at Trinity church and the Catholics at the Cathedral. They were in command of Brigadier General A. H. Macdonell and the martial music was furnished by the bands of the 3rd N. B. Heavy Brigade and the St. John Fusiliers. About 400 was the total muster, and they made an exceptionally fine turnout. The parade was witnessed by a large number of citizens.

The band of the 3rd Heavy Brigade was in the van. Next came the Headquarters Staff of Military District No. 7, under command of Colonel A. H. H. Powell with Colonel H. C. Sparling, Major W. C. Lawson, Major Thomas Pugh, Major W. H. Dobbie and Captain V. W. S. Herron. The officers and men of the 3rd Heavy Brigade followed under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. Harrison. Marching behind their own band and in command of Lieutenant-Colonel A. McMillan, came the St. John Fusiliers, and the No. 7 Detachment of Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, under command of Captain John Larkin brought up the rear.

In Trinity church the soldiers filled the two blocks of pews on the centre aisle and, although extra seats were brought in, many of the congregation stood throughout the impressive service. Some of the beautiful Easter music was repeated by the choir. Special hymns sung were "Fight the Good Fight" and "Onward Christian Soldiers." During the taking of the offertory the anthem "I will sing of Thy Power," was rendered by the choir with Miss Louise Knight as soloist. Following the anthem while the congregation stood a short period of deep reverent silence was observed in honor of those who fell in the great war. The National Anthem was sung afterwards.

Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong, who conducted the service, took for the text of his sermon, the twenty-eighth verse of the fourth chapter of St. Mark: "The earth beareth fruit of herself." He spoke of the Easter message, not only the message of the resurrection to life immortal but the message of the ultimate triumph of righteousness. Christ, he said, sowed the seed of brotherliness and the harvest was a certainty. The hallowed fruit of those who slept in Flanders Fields, with

SPECIAL SERVICES WERE SUCCESSFUL

Forty-seven Added to Membership of Coburg Street Church as Result of Efforts of Evangelist Cole.

Evangelist W. C. Cole concluded his very successful services in the Coburg street church last night. During the month in which he has conducted evangelistic services, forty-seven new members were received into the church.

In the afternoon, yesterday, twenty-nine of the new members received copies of the new testament from the pastor, Rev. F. J. M. Appelman, and a large delegation from the Douglas Avenue Christian church attended the service. Mr. Cole spoke on "Christian Perseverance." The McKeehan male quartette sang and the children's choir of thirty-five voices led the congregational singing with splendid effect. Mrs. Cole was the soloist.

The great closing evangelistic service was held in the evening when nine joined the church by confession of faith. Mr. Cole's subject in the evening was "What will you do with Jesus, the Christ?" Mrs. Cole sang as a solo, "Only a Step to the Grave." H. McKeehan, of the Douglas Avenue church, also sang a solo, and little Evelyn Arthur sang "Rock of Ages," standing before a large cross which was brilliantly illuminated with electric lights. "I broke out all over my body in large red blotches, which after a little while came into large sores, and I went to two hospitals and to two or three doctors, but they became worse instead of better, so I tried your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and an hour after I had taken the first dose I was covered with the sores, but only scars now can be seen, so you will understand how grateful I am and why I bless the day that I tried it. You must make what use you think fit of this, as it may bring relief to some other poor soul."

Sufferers from Red Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Itching Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Bolls, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Itch, should realize that lesions and ailments can but give temporary relief—to be sure of complete and lasting benefit, the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, the true cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and expels the impurities, that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

Newburgh, N. Y.—"My trouble was a weak back and I could not walk two blocks without being tired out. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a newspaper and decided to give it a trial. Now I can do my own work and walk with ease. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house. It certainly is my best friend and I could not keep house without it. I have recommended it to many and always shall. You may use this letter if you wish."—Mrs. EDWARD PITTS, 2 High St., Newburgh, N. Y.

It has been said that "backache is an invention of the Evil One to try women's souls," but even so, it is more often a symptom of a female trouble which sooner or later declares itself. Day after day it drags a woman down and night after night prevents restful sleep. Such woman should follow Mrs. Pitts' advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It contains no narcotic or harmful drugs.

Declares She Would Like to Put a Bottle of Tanlac in the Hands of Every Sick Man, Woman and Child in This Country—Never Saw Its Equal.

"I am sixty-seven years of age, but in all my experience I have never known a medicine like Tanlac. Think of it! At my age to gain twenty-five pounds in weight, but that is just what I have done," said Mrs. Emma Reifenstein, of No. 337 Webster Avenue, Syracuse, N. Y. "If I had it in my power," she continued, "I would put a bottle of Tanlac in the home of every sick man, woman and child in this country, for I know what this wonderful medicine would do for them. For almost two years I was almost a nervous wreck. I did not dare to leave the house or even go to town unless my husband went with me. I was afraid to even cross the street and had a feeling of dread all the time. "My stomach was weak and easily upset. For days at a time I would go without solid food. I could not rest at night to do any good and felt tired and worn out all of the time. Some days I could hardly drag myself across the room and was so weak and miserable I was ready to give up. "My health is fine now and I eat anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion. I have never slept better than I do now. My recovery is the talk of our neighborhood, as it was generally believed I could not last but a few weeks longer. This grand medicine has brought me health and happiness and I just can't say enough in its praise." Mr. J. Reifenstein, in commenting on his wife's statement, said: "Yes, her recovery has been a happy surprise to us all. A few weeks ago I had no idea she would be able to pull through, but now she is in better health than I have ever seen her and the credit is due to Tanlac. We have been married fifty-two years and I don't believe I have ever seen her looking any better."

attended the evening meeting and the united congregations filled the church to the last seat. Mr. and Mrs. Cole are returning to their home in Kansas and will leave many firm friends behind them in St. John.

MINNEDOSA'S LAST TRIP FROM ST. JOHN

The C. P. O. S. liner Minnedosa sailed on Saturday evening about 7 o'clock for Liverpool on her last trip of the season from this port. She carried 275 cabin and 350 steerage passengers, in addition to 3,000 tons of general cargo and a quantity of royal mail. This liner carried several maritime province passengers this trip. Among these were: Mrs. J. Cain, William Payzant and Mrs. W. L. Payzant, Miss E. V. Ryan, Mrs. T. N. Vincent and Miss H. E. Vincent, all of this city; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. PILES ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery. Ninety per cent. are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition. Piles are classed under three headings, namely, itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is beyond description. Ointments and suppositories may help and relieve for a while, but to get rid of them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be quickly removed. Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of the bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles. They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not grip, weaken or sicken. Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all druggists or dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

After The "Flu" Four Children Had Whooping Cough

Whooping Cough, although a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and yearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children. Whooping Cough starts with sneezing, watering of the eyes, irritation of the throat, feverishness and cough. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It helps to clear the clogged-up passages of the mucous and pleural membranes, and in this way brings the "whoop" which brings the so-called "relief" of their nasty cough. It is sought for relief and health, and soon the lungs are clear. Mrs. J. M. Rouse, Imperial (Saskatchewan)—"After the 'flu,' last fall, four children took whooping cough. I was in charge of construction work on two or three bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup they were relieved of their nasty cough. It is especially good remedy for children, as so nice they take it readily, and for more. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

OTTAWA WAS FLOOR OF THE SEA

Mermaids Combed Their Tresses in Cliff Around Lovers' Walk.

(Ottawa Citizen)
"Ottawa Three Times Submerged and How We Know It." The Capital three times the floor of the sea! The roof of this phenomenon was tabulated in a pictorial form in a lecture by Dr. M. J. Wilson, in the Victoria Museum, Saturday morning, before 700 children. Ideas of ground formation around Ottawa, of sea-shells, clamshells and many kinds of shells, all exclusively of the sea and strangers to the inland waters, were shown to be conclusive proof of the early marine intrusions. The imaginations of the enthralled children were indled by the vision if their homes soiled with water, as they would have been had they then existed. Fossils in the strata which had retained the mark of the fish, and stretches of the Capital surrounding fastlands were produced as evidence.
What interested the assembled kiddies even more were the movies which followed, and from their rapturous applause it was suspected that these were the real

"drawing card." The St. Maurice, as it came sweeping majestically from the hinterlands of Quebec, the towns of Three Rivers, Grand'Mere and Shawigan were shown in their natural and human activity. The hydro-electric power of Shawigan, with its present dynamic force and future possibilities, was revealed, and the Three Rivers' harbor, the capacity of which is not taxed by "housing" the largest ocean-going vessel, and on which huge expenditures have been made were seen to be national assets of no mean quality.

CRAMMED WITH FACTS; NOT TRAINED TO THINK

Ontario Inspector Is Disgusted With Present School System.
Toronto, April 4.—Keen criticism of the educational system that still prevails in this province was voiced by Inspector I. Day of Ottawa, in speaking to the inspectors' section of the Ontario Educational Association.
"Our children are still being crammed with facts instead of being trained to think and act independently," he said. "The very faculties that should be fostered are often neglected. Too much attention is given to examinations."
Then he took a hefty swing at the low salaries standard of teachers and the tendency to employ young girls as teachers.
"We shall do better when the tenure of the teacher in the schools is increased, when the salary is sufficient to induce the proper kind of teacher to remain in school. What better than we are receiving can we expect when so many of our schools are in the hands of young girls still in their teens?"

WANTS TO ABOLISH THE CADET MOVEMENT

One Manitoba School Principal Calls It "Militarism."

Winnipeg, April 4.—Corporal punishment as a part of school discipline was argued at a meeting of intermediate and high school principals attending the 16th annual convention of the Manitoba Educational Association. The subject led to discussion of the use of force in general, and of physical development through the cadet movement. E. S. Lawrence of Birtle, Man., said that every boy and girl should learn to shoot, advocating pool and billiards, under proper supervision, as training for eye and hand, but said that "as long as we have these damnable pool rooms the discipline of our schools will suffer."
T. J. Watts of St. James spoke strongly against corporal punishment and the cadet movement describing the movement as a form of militarism, training boys and girls to kill. "Murder, legalized or not, is the same," he said.
Speaking of moving pictures, Mr. Lawrence said that the "abominable murder pictures" were doing more damage than any other factor to the morale and discipline of the province.

THE DIAMOND TRADE

Johannesburg, March 4.—(Associated Press by Mail)—A falling off in demand for diamonds makes prospects for the diamond industry much less satisfactory for 1921 than has been the case of recent years, according to Sir Thomas Cullinan. He told the Premier Diamond Company's stockholders that only one shift of workmen were engaged at the mines.

ABOUT WOMEN

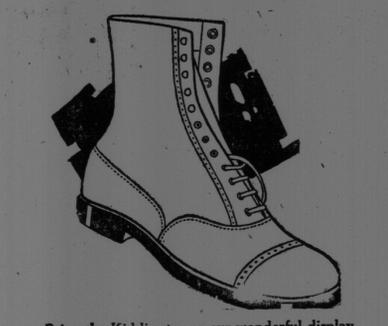

(International Woman Suffrage Alliance News Service)
Mrs. Anna Wickell, a prominent Swedish feminist and vice-president of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, has been appointed a member of the permanent mandates commission of the League of Nations. The social, moral and industrial welfare of women and children in the mandated areas is a charge laid on every mandatory power, and feminists throughout the world will rejoice that such a woman as Mrs. Wickell is a member of the mandates commission.
Contrary to the first reports received, the Swedish civil service bill giving equal entry and equal pay with men has not yet been passed.
There has been a determined and organized campaign in Great Britain against woman jurors in cases where the offence is one affecting the relation between the sexes, such as divorce, incest, and criminal assault upon young girls. Every woman knows that it is in these cases that the woman juror is most necessary. Mr. Bonar Law happily has refused to grant facilities for any legislation limiting the empannelment of woman jurors, and the National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship is promoting a bill to make it impossible for judges to exclude the service of women jurors in any cases in which women and children are concerned.

The legislative council of Burma has passed a unanimous resolution that any scheme of reform shall include woman suffrage. The government of Burma bill is now before the House of Lords (Great Britain). The women of Burma have from time immemorial held a position of social, moral and economic parity in advance of the women of western nations. They have always had the municipal vote on the same terms as men. British feminists are urging the British parliament to incorporate a woman suffrage amendment to the government of Burma bill.
Danish women M. P.'s and various large organized bodies of women workers have opposed the ratification by the Danish Folketing of the Washington Labor Convention proposals, which would impose restrictive legislation on women in industry.
Three alderwomen have been elected to the municipal council of Toronto.
A mothers' pension law and a minimum wage law have been passed by the Ontario legislature.
Canadian feminists are working hard in Ontario for a woman judge for the women's court and for the women to serve on juries.
The Canadian criminal code has been amended, and there is now legal redress for seduction of girls up to eighteen years.
A government bill has been introduced in Germany making all adult women eligible as jurors in cases where women and children are the accused parties. The German women's organizations demand that women jurors should serve in every case, particularly in cases dealing with sexual offences against women or children.
A maternity protection bill has been passed by the U. S. A. senate and reported favorably by committee to the house.
In Michigan, U. S. A., the right of women to serve as jurors has been upheld.
Vermont legislature, U. S. A., has ratified the woman suffrage federal amendment.
Mrs. Cowan has defeated the attorney-general in West Australia, and is the first woman member of parliament in Australia.

 The secretary of the board of trade advises The Times that the purpose of calling the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers together tonight is to give an opportunity to all business interests to express themselves on the business tax. DIED IN WYOMING
 Richard J. Daley Was Born in St. John But Went West in 1871.
 The following account of the death of Richard J. Daley, a native of this city, was published in the Rawlins Republican, Rawlins, Wyoming, on Thursday, March 3, 1921:
 On February 24 the whole community was shocked at the news that Richard J. Daley had passed away. He was taken ill on the day after Christmas, and after some weeks was taken to Denver, Colorado, for an operation. He entered the hospital on February 5, but the long period of suffering had been too great a strain and he passed away soon afterwards. The body was brought to Rawlins where it lay in state with a Knight Templar guard of honor in the Masonic temple until it was taken to his home. The funeral service was conducted on the following Sunday afternoon in the Masonic temple. The Episcopal services were read by Rev. F. P. Philbrook and the choir of St. Thomas' church chanted the burial Psalms and sang two hymns. Interment was in the family lot. Dean Philbrook committed the body and the members of the local Masonic order conducted a short service, six Knight Templars in uniform forming a guard of honor.
 Mr. Daley was born in St. John, N. B., on August 27, 1852, but came to Rawlins in 1871 and soon afterwards was united in marriage with Catherine B. Jordan. Four children were born to them, two of whom survive—W. Earl Daley and Mrs. Irene Riford.
 In 1884 Mr. Daley moved his family to Buffalo, Wyoming, where they resided until 1897 when he returned to Rawlins and had made his home there ever since. He was a member of the Masonic order of Rawlins and was a past grand patron of the Order of the Eastern Star in Wyoming. He was a devout and faithful communicant of the Church of England, and was prominent in the local parish, being a member of the vestry and for many years was a junior and then senior warden of St. Thomas' church. He leaves, besides his wife, one son and two daughters; two brothers, William Daley of this city and John Daley of Digby, N. S., and one sister, Mrs. E. H. Smoek, of Los Angeles, California. The late Mrs. William J. Kirkpatrick and the late Mrs. John Sullivan, of St. John, N. B., were also sisters.

WANT PLEBISCITE ON ONE-MAN CAR

 Recently published concerning the report of Mr. Monstarrat that he made no report to Hon. Mr. Carvell that from an engineering standpoint the C. P. R. bridge could not be raised. The mayor said he had not.
 Mr. Bullock said that it had been rumored that the C. P. R. intended to retain the old bridge even after the new one had been completed. He took the matter up and found there was no grounds for the report.
 Replying to a question from Commissioner Thornton, Dr. Frink reported that he had taken up the matter of the removal of the poles from Douglas avenue with the companies concerned. The N. B. Telephone Company replied that they had only two or three poles there which they would be glad to remove, and the Western Union Telegraph Company said that had the matter been referred to them earlier some action might have been taken, but since their business had been closed for the year.
 Commissioner Bullock referred to several holes in the avenue due to the digging of cuts made for the service pipes. Dr. Frink said he had reported this matter to the water department. Mr. Jones said some of the holes were filled on Saturday and the rest would be attended to before the contractor left the job.
 The mayor spoke of the fact that the recent storm had torn a lot of paper from the billboards in the city and it was scattered over the streets. As these boards are in his own department, he said he would look into the matter.
 The 1920 reports of the commissioner of public works, the road engineer and the street superintendent were presented by Commissioner Frink and referred to the mayor to decide on their publication in the annual reports. The report of the commissioner is published elsewhere in this issue. The following are extracts from the road engineer's report:

 The bottle was found floating in the waters of the Atlantic about three miles northwest of Brier Island, off the coast of Nova Scotia.
 There is no record of this vessel in either Lloyd's or the maritime register.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.
 In the case of Wetmore vs. Gilbert, this morning before Chief Justice Hazen, judgment was given for the plaintiff for $169, made up of $100 return of deposit and $69 solicitor's fees on searching the title to the property in question. This was an action for specific performance on an agreement to sell a certain property and in the alternative for damages. At the trial it developed there was a life interest in the property outstanding for and John Daley of Digby, N. S., and one which was unobtainable, so the claim for specific performance was abandoned and the matter came to a question of damages. H. A. Porter appeared for the plaintiff and K. A. Wilson for the defendant.

Just a Moment of Your Time Mr. Property Holder

With present day high cost of construction you cannot afford to allow that building of yours to deteriorate by neglecting to equip it with the necessary gutters and conductors to shield it from the spring rains. When the roof is not properly protected with FLASHING GRAVEL STRIP GUTTERS AND CONDUCTORS, the water is certain to work its way through into the interior between the joist and long before it may be seen on the inside of the building, it is rapidly decaying the most essential parts of the structure.
 At no period in your time has the cost of such repairs been so low as they are today, when measured by present day replacement values, and by actual saving from further deterioration.
 Immediately is the time to have this work looked after before the heavy spring rains set in, and before any further extensive damage has been done.
 We manufacture all our own materials for this class of work and will be pleased to show you samples of same before it is made up. If you think your property requires such repairs, we will gladly submit estimates on cost of same. Phone us NOW—MAIN 1546—and we will go over the building with you.

We Can't too often Re-iterate the Value of Reed Furniture

Ever notice how light and airy a room furnished in Reed appears?
 You seem to automatically release your whole system and become inoculated with the lightness and airiness of your surroundings.
 Reed Furniture is by no means a summer furniture wholly—it is an all year round idea and as an odd piece proposition or even as a whole room scheme it has few equals.
 We mention Reed now because we are happily supplied with the line—in popular choices of color and design.
 May we show it?

GYPSUM
Wide Range of Uses—Building Trades Are Large Consumers.
Gypsum, or hydrated sulphate of calcium, is one of the important non-metallic minerals of Canada. It is found in all the provinces, with the exception of Prince Edward Island, in one or more of its three forms, selenite, a crystallized variety; satin spar, a fibrous variety, consisting of long silky crystals, and alabaster, a fine grained white variety. Gypsum occurs in beds of great thickness, and is usually mined by the open quarry method, after which it is crushed to the degree of fineness necessary for the product for which it is required. The principal uses of gypsum are as wall plaster and in the manufacture of plaster of Paris. For these products gypsum, after being finely powdered, is calcined, or heated to drive off the moisture. It possesses the valuable property, however, of being able to absorb moisture again. This permits of its being spread or moulded when in a wet state and of quickly hardening. As plaster of Paris is used for a variety of purposes, such as a plaster finish coat for moulding and patterns and for casts of art objects, in the making of cold water paints it carries the body that carries the color; it also forms the base for putty, green and other insecticides. For fireproofing safes, etc., calcined gypsum is used between the metal walls. Moulds for casting rabbit metal, for making rubber stamps, hat blocks, etc., are made of gypsum, while the finest grade of plaster of Paris is used for surgical casts for plate work. It is occasionally used as a filler in the manufacture of textiles and paper, and in asbestos wallboard and pipe and boiler covering. In the making of portland cement gypsum is used as an ingredient for the purpose of regulating the period of setting. As a fertilizer, gypsum has long been used, either alone when it is known as land plaster, or as an ingredient of many artificial fertilizers. It has the property of liberating plant food in the soil. New uses are constantly being found for this adaptable mineral, and the revival of the building industry will no doubt result in an increased production. In 1920 429,144 tons were mined, of a value of $1,875,596.

A RIFT IN THE CLOUDS.

(Canadian Finance). Events in recent years have proven that we place far too much faith in the belief that it is impossible to fool all the people all the time. An eminent student of public affairs has asserted that 90 per cent of the people are being fooled all the time upon matters which are of great importance to them. In these days of intensive and extensive propaganda it is a wise man who knows whether his opinions are really his own, or whether they have been injected into his mind by some designing individual or group of individuals through the medium of clever and penetrating propaganda. We have heard so much of class warfare, particularly from men who have succeeded by various means, sensational and otherwise, in attracting public attention that many of us are at times tempted to believe that the war of class against class will continue and increase in ferocity. We unconsciously accept such a suggestion, notwithstanding the fact that our own common sense tells us that co-operation must be the ideal of the peoples of the world and that warfare is nothing more nor less than a process of destruction. To destroy can never be the real work of real men; our task is to build, not to destroy ourselves we must be builders, not destroyers.

A little incident which occurred recently in London reveals the fact that true labor and true capital is not so far apart as some would have us believe. Will Crooks, a man who has fought for many years unceasingly and courageously for the British worker was recently compelled by ill-health to resign his seat in the British House of Commons and thus terminate his public career as a representative of labor. The men who know him, rich men, poor men, capitalists and labor men, joined hands and commenced a "Will Crooks Memorial Fund" to collect funds to free the declining years of Mr. and Mrs. Crooks from financial anxiety. The success of this campaign for funds is a foregone conclusion.

This incident is a rift in the clouds and there are many other such rifts if we would but look for them. This one event is of more significance than all the irresponsible declarations of class warfare. Perhaps it will serve as an example for the broad minded people of Canada and also serve to offset the damaging propaganda of the extremists in the ranks of both capital and labor whose dearest wish is to create a class struggle in this country. Real labor men can depend on receiving support from all classes.

$10,000 FOR TRAPPINGS OF ROOM KAISER USED. Chicago, April 2.—When the Kaiser and his throne severed relations following the late unpleasantness in Europe, the Grand Duke of Hesse found himself short of cash, but had on hand a sumptuously equipped castle. The royal bedroom, where Kaiser Wilhelm always slept when visiting the Grand Duke, was the most prized possession. After vain efforts to raise cash on his prize bedroom suite an anonymous American finally took a chance on making a profit, bought the entire furnishings of the royal room and shipped them to America. The crates arrived several weeks ago and today the contents were it was a strange collection. The bed needed only wheels and a roof to be one of those fussy, paneled cages in which circuses conceal the Behemoth. There was a wardrobe of oak almost big enough to house a family. Venetian glass chandeliers, like something off a wedding cake; a brown marble washstand with fantastic legs and wood-work enough for a beer garden—all these were offered for sale, with the Kaiser's recent presence as an inducement. The auction proved disappointing. So the seller then tried to get something to throw their trench shoes at every morning and curio collectors were on hand, but they seemed shy on cash. Finally the auctioneer offered the outfit piecemeal and after much urging a total of $10,000 was secured. That sum, it is said, barely covers the original price, plus the cost of transportation and commissions.

IRISH COMMENT ON NEW VICEROY. (Canadian Press Despatch). Dublin, April 3.—The Freeman's Journal, commenting today on the appointment of Lord Edmund Talbot as lord lieutenant and governor general of Ireland in succession to Viscount French, says it is to be claimed as a recommendation that Lord Talbot is a Roman Catholic. The newspaper adds: "But it is an insult to Irish intelligence to think that fact will ensure a welcome from CHILDREN WRECK THEATRE. Berlin, April 4.—The modern child had its innings in a theatre at Halle. A fairy play was being produced and the theatre was packed with "kiddies." They considered the piece silly and the scenery and dresses inadequate. They demanded their money back. By the time the police arrived the children had broken up most of the seats.

MILLIONS FOR TEAMSTER. Cheyenne, Wyo., April 4.—L. C. Leshar, a teamster who ran away from his California home many years ago, has been informed that his father has died and willed him $2,000,000. He will keep his card in the teamsters' union and street a home for broken down laborers

The Atlantic Sugar Refineries, which were hard hit by the drop in prices, have resumed work on the refining of the raw product which they had in stock. The York and Cornwall Cotton Mills have been operating on reduced time lately, but they hope soon to get back to full time. This company have now in course of erection a large power plant alongside the Courtney Bay mill. The Maritime Mill Works have reopened, as have also the ace plant of the Campbell & Fowler Company. The pulp mill of the Bathurst Pulp & Paper Company has resumed work with a reduction of 20 per cent in wages for the present. The demand for pulp is not very great as yet, however. The Clark Bros. Paper Mills Co., which has taken over the former Ford plant building at this city, expect to begin the manufacture of fibre shipping cases in about a fortnight. The paper board will be manufactured outside St. John for the present, but it is the intention of the company to begin the construction of a paper board mill early in the season. The pulp will be supplied by the Clarke Bros' mill at Bear River, N. S. The Wonder-Mist Manufacturing Company of Melrose, Mass., of which Herbert Dickinson is the representative, propose establishing a plant in this city for the manufacture of this well known compound. Mr. Dickinson is a live wire, and there is no doubt that the company will get satisfactory results.

EARNINGS—PURPOSE OF ISSUE—MANAGEMENT. Detailed statement on page 3, indicates earnings of over $7.00 per share on the Common Stock, the conservatism of which can be judged best by the fact that other hotels in the United Chain are paying from 10% to 25% on their Common Stock. To meet the urgent demand on the part of the residents, transportation and other business interests of Montreal, commercial travellers and tourists, it is proposed to construct upon the most desirable site in the city, a modern fire proof hotel of 1,036 rooms. This hotel—the Mount Royal—will be operated as a link in the chain of twenty hotels in Canada and the United States which are managed by the United Hotels Company of America. The personnel of the local Board of Directors together with the fact that "The Mount Royal" will be operated by the United Hotels Company of America insures its success. Interim certificate will be issued by the Montreal Trust Company pending delivery of definitive Debentures. Application will be made to list the Preferred and Common Shares on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES. (Board of Trade Journal). New Brunswick is standing up well under the readjustment situation, although the province has not escaped the pinch that the rest of the world is getting. Manufacturers and business people are striving to get back to sound footing, and where labor shows a disposition to co-operate results are being secured. Absolute success can only be obtained where employers and employees work closely together, each showing a willingness to concede a point where necessary.

MARGARET ANGLIN'S JOAN.
(J. Ranken Trowse in New York Evening Post).

Margaret Anglin appeared yesterday afternoon in "The Trial of Joan of Arc," by Emile Moreau, at a benefit performance for Mr. Hoover's Relief Funds under the supervision of the Knights of Columbus, in the Century Theatre. This play, in which Sarah Barnhardt created the title character some years ago in Paris, was produced here yesterday for the first time, though Miss Anglin last appeared in it in California. It was a beautiful and moving performance, admirably staged, and attracted a vast crowd of Easter spectators.

Miss Anglin's fine interpretation of Joan through the terrible ordeal of her trial and punishment is likely to prove a notable feature of her artistic record. She was supported by a competent cast. The performance, like so many of its incidental kind, was extremely long, so that many of the really enthusiastic audience were compelled to leave before the beginning of the last act. The musical setting from Tchaikovsky's opera, "The Maid of Orleans," added appreciably to the atmosphere of the play. It is understood that Miss Anglin contemplates a reproduction of it in the near future for very nature of it, except. It is unnecessary, perhaps, to add that the many admirers of Miss Anglin, one of the few really fine actresses of the day, have a treat in store for them.

PLAYGROUND DEMOCRACY.
(Concord Monitor).

No community would question its responsibility for fire and police protection for its citizens, schools for its children, paved streets and other things which are a necessary part of a town's progress. Communities in the past have failed to recognize a similar responsibility for play and play places for their boys and girls. This attitude is changing rapidly today. A year book recently compiled by the Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America states that 465 cities report playground and recreational centres with paid leaders. Many other cities have increased their budgets or made large appropriations for the extension of such courses, and we know that some day Vancouver would wake up to the necessity of doing so. The prevention of juvenile delinquency is another. There is a fourth aim which perhaps includes all the others and yet is new as a recognized purpose for supervised play. The Survey for February 29th states it thus: "The well supervised playground provides a little democracy where the child may develop initiative, learn to mix with his fellows, develop qualities of leadership and discipline, brush off anti-social habits, and adapt himself to his surroundings and his fellows as a preparation for the larger playground of competition and of life." So regarded, the playground becomes as important as the public school and a necessary complement of it.

MAKING WAY FOR CITY EXPANSION

Interesting Details in Commissioner Frink's Report

Prospects for Townsite on the Rifle Range and Millidgeville Avenue Properties—New Asphalt Plant and Site Proposed—Criticism of Park Work.

The following is the report of Dr. J. H. Frink, commissioner of public works, which was presented at this morning's committee meeting of the common council.

St. John, N. B., March 22, 1923.

To His Worship the Mayor and Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen—I beg to submit my first annual report as commissioner of public works. Also attached to this report will be that of the engineer, Mr. Hatfield, and the street superintendent, Mr. Price. The reports of these gentlemen contain a great deal of detail matter which is of considerable value and it will be unnecessary for me to recapitulate the amount of work done and the condition of the different plants, etc., etc., but I will confine myself to matters which have a somewhat different bearing.

The work of this department is comprised under the following heads: Streets and roadways, parks and playgrounds, and during the year these have received considerable attention, and I trust with some degree of satisfaction to the citizens.

Permanent construction was undertaken on city road last year and completed the first week in November. This is a part of the policy to connect up existing paved streets and make a continuous pavement eventually from the One Mile House to the Suspension Bridge. The addition of Douglas street to the paved area, which will be undertaken this year, will complete the link excepting that portion from Haymarket Square to the One Mile House.

An exceptionally large programme was submitted to the council, and met not only with their approval but with the approval of a large number of citizens and public bodies who are working along with the betterment of the city; but owing to the financial and commercial markets this programme no doubt will have to be considerably cut down for this year. The high rate of interest on the bonds which are issued to meet the cost of this work, together with the sinking fund attached, in some cases amounting to four per cent per annum, in addition to a six per cent rate for the bonds, in some cases brings the rate of interest up to ten and even eleven per cent, which is a considerable rate. It is remembered that within a comparatively few years money in any quantity was readily obtainable in St. John at 3 1/2 and four per cent interest. It is a great deal of caution should be exercised in committing the city to large capital expenditures with their obligations for an extended period of years.

It was contemplated to take up the question of paving Brussels street, a very important and much traveled thoroughfare, and I will at an early date submit for your approval plans and specifications for paving this street this year.

Looking Towards Expansion.

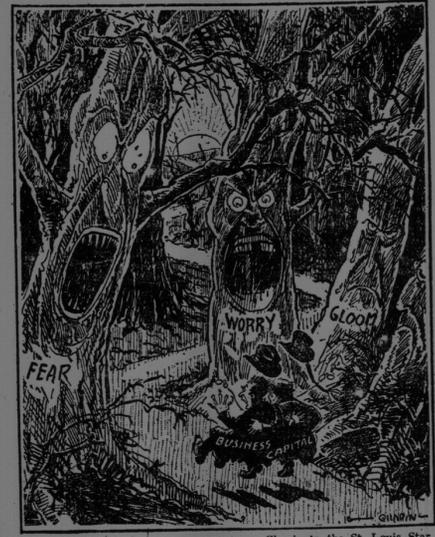

It has been a part of my policy since accepting office as commissioner to develop areas capable of being built upon, easily accessible and suitable for residential districts or for commercial establishments, and I have devoted considerable energy to the development of that area which opens the only avenue for easy and profitable construction—bearing in mind all the time the necessity of creating opportunities to obtain additional taxable values upon which our existence as a city depends. Early in the year advances were made to the Dominion government for the purchase of that piece of property in Lansdowne ward known as the "rifle range," which piece of property is the key to profitable development in the northern area of the city and particularly in Stanley ward.

The rifle range was acquired by expropriation in 1902 by the Dominion government at an expense approximately of $180,000, and comprises about forty acres, being 4,700 feet in length, and 820 feet wide. The common council, by resolution, authorized my commissioner to negotiate with the department of militia and defence at a cost to the city of $20,000. This offer the department of militia and defence declined for this property. It is my intention to renew negotiations and if possible obtain the parcel of land. If acquired, it will not only open up a large area for development, but will provide ample room for an avenue sixty-six feet in width from the rear of St. Luke's church to the crown files, the range as straight as the stretch to Millidgeville avenue, and, if necessary or expedient, by a longer stretch to the Sandy Point road at or near Pedersen's. This is a remarkably easy proposition from a constructional point of view. Opportunity again opens for an additional roadway through a ravine northwest of the Purdy lime quarries. The claim that the City of Saint John has no opportunity for expansion, except by proceeding within the county is utterly shattered, as there is ample room and excellent facilities for the establishment of a city much greater in area than now occupied by the city as it is.

To proceed with this plan or policy of development it was essential that the area known as the Shamrock Grounds should be secured. Negotiations to that end were successfully concluded at a very moderate cost, and on this property was found a large reef of rock of the highest quality for road metal. A quarry has been established here and is now in operation, which will serve not only as a source of supply for macadam streets and roads, but will provide a source of supply for the base of the avenue which it is hoped to construct in the immediate future. Suitable and economical acquisition of this ground is fully justified. The purchase by the city of an area from Messrs. Armstrong & Bruce for recreation purposes reinforces the argument for the possession of the rifle range.

Trench Itch Ointment 50c and $1.50 All Druggists

DON'T STOP; YOU'RE ALMOST OUT OF THE WOODS

Authority having been issued by common council for a survey on Millidgeville avenue, in order to reduce the curves, and ease out the sinuous track which served as a road from the Hopewell Shamrock grounds, the survey has resulted in an estimate of cost which was made for this work and approved by council. The work is now being proceeded with and when completed, during this summer, will enable the N. B. Power Co. to extend a street railway service to Millidgeville and the power company has in no uncertain way expressed its desire to make the extension, and when made it will prove without possible doubt a profitable venture for the company and a definite advance for the city.

Steam rail can easily enter this area by tunnel by an extension of Murray street at a moderate grade to the Shamrock grounds. This would enable the rail connection for any industries which might be established in this area—and the rail extension made right to the St. John River. This is an easy proposition and it will take some argument to impudently claim that it is unsound and impracticable. I have outlined a plan or policy of development. It has got beyond the stage of talk and the steam has been turned on.

Sidewalks. These, with the exception of a few thousand feet, are entirely of asphalt construction. A considerable amount of money is judiciously spent in their construction and a like amount expended in the maintenance of them. In many cases positively wasted. There appears to be neither justification nor sense in maintaining a sidewalk eighteen to twenty feet in width on a King street east, where a five or six foot walk is ample. The same applies to many comparatively narrow residential streets, where a five or six foot walk is kept and maintained.

The policy of your commissioner will be to reduce these wherever possible, and on comparative level areas to have new construction made with concrete flags where new construction is demanded. There can be no doubt under our climatic conditions that on streets where feet are marked, asphalt makes the best and safest sidewalk, but there is no reason why the sidewalk should be laid down with the building erected and carried to the gutter.

Asphalt Manufacturing. A plant has been erected and placed in operation at the easterly end of Broad street. Considering the opportunities and capacity of the plant established in 1912 sufficient output has been obtained to meet the requirements of the city in general for repair and construction works but it cannot be economically operated under the existing conditions, and as asphalt will and does enter largely into street surface and sidewalk construction, the conditions must be faced and met with the installation of a modern asphalt mixing plant, the estimated cost of which is $25,000, and with such a plant suitable receptacles must be provided for the purchase and storage of asphalt in bulk. The wisdom of this course has been strongly presented during the past few months and it was shown that in a purchase of 275 tons of asphalt at an approximate cost of $12,000 in packages and delivered in tanks at a reduction of $3,500. There is not much room for argument here.

There is also maintained in the same building machine and repair shop for the various machines, rollers, motor trucks and various forms of repair in metal work. The workmanship of the men employed is superior, but they are badly handicapped on account of lack of room and facilities.

Pictureque Incinerator. There is also maintained much too close to these buildings a weird collection of tin boxes, pieces of boiler plate and a general array of backyard bric-a-brac, known as the "incinerator." The less said about it the better—and it is the plain duty of the city to install an incinerator of a modern type and that quickly to effectually neutralize and destroy one of the greatest sources of infection which the citizens have winked at so long and so persistently.

Applications have been made from time to time by private corporations to obtain this site for industrial purposes, but without avail. This property, in my opinion, has but one thing to commend it for the purposes of a public works plant, and that is the railway siding, whereby material transported by rail can be economically handled. It is situated at this point. It is situated at the extreme southeasterly part of the city and the cost of transportation from these works to the various points in the city—north and west—is very great, and the same applies to lost time in manual labor, and I believe it would be good policy to abandon this site for one more centrally located, and yet if it is the opinion of the council that it should remain as at present located, then there should be no delay in making the plant and works an effective unit; as it stands it is creditable and decidedly unprofitable, and I trust the council will decide this question by resolution at a very early date.

CHINA'S FIGHT AGAINST FAMINE

President Starts Fund With $100,000 Gift

Civil Servants Give Twenty Per Cent of Salaries—Build Road to Give Employment—Tag Days.

Peking, March 4.—(Associated Press correspondence.)—Never have the Chinese people and their government made greater efforts to meet a national disaster than they are now making to feed the hungry of the famine-stricken districts, say observers here.

When relief measures began, President Hsu-Shih-chang gave the first big impetus to Chinese relief measures with a contribution of $100,000 and he has given $30,000 to the national relief drive which has raised several hundred thousand dollars. The president's wife is a contributor to many funds.

Chinese students and numerous organizations of farmers, business men or workers in various industries have contributed their efforts to aid this drive.

Chinese civil employees are giving twenty per cent of their salaries. Taxes on railway tickets yield a large sum monthly, all devoted to famine relief. The government is now collecting $750,000 monthly by means of a surtax.

Chinese provincial and city governments in the region south of the famine area are providing work for the starving. The central government is building a highway eighty miles long in Shantung, all of which in that district are given employment.

Towns and villages in every part of Manchuria have organized relief committees, and a fund of $200,000 has been raised by the residents. An entire district in the famine area has been taken over by the Manchurians for care until the next harvest.

A loan of $4,000,000 for relief work has been floated by four Chinese banks. Merchants in Shanghai raised nearly $5,000,000, and Chinese outside of the country have sent thousands of contributions.

One rich Chinese merchant in Shanghai has already given $500,000. A large landowner in the famine district has mortgaged his entire property and borrowed all he can on notes, thus keeping alive a whole township.

The Chinese government is guaranteeing free transportation of supplies and relief workers, with priority for all grain shipments for the famine sufferers.

"Tag days" in this city, Hankow, Shanghai, Canton, Tientsin and Fuchow have produced funds. In Peking 400,000 persons volunteered more than $400,000.

Efforts have not stopped at organized movements. Personal sacrifice is general. Young girls have handed in their own hair in agreement to deny themselves certain food. Students at one of the large universities asked that all meat be taken from their meals and the money saved devoted to relief work. New Year feasts were abandoned in many parts of the republic. Vegetables and cotton are planted, instead of the usual rare flowers and plants.

WORLD'S GREATEST TRADE PROJECT

British Food Ministry During and Since the War Had Turnover of Billion Pounds Sterling.

London, March 18.—(Associated Press by Mail)—The British Food Ministry during and since the war has had a turnover of more than 2,000,000,000 and the ministry's net profit on it amounted to less than one tenth of one per cent. These facts are announced by the Food Controller, Mr. McCurdy, in a valdictory address recently, in which he said that for the last six months he had been engaged in liquidating this, as he described it, the "world's greatest trade corporation."

Mr. McCurdy said that the Ministry's operation had cost the taxpayers nothing and that the successive food ministers had substantially avoided making a profit at the expense of the consumer.

The Controller said that it had become possible to wind up the affairs of the Food Ministry because of the welcome break in the world's prices of food.

In removing control and restrictions, he said to the people, he said, he had every evidence that food prices would continue to fall in Great Britain during the current month, and that many more times were in store for the much harassed housewife.

A NEW MAGAZINE. Maritime Merchant: The maritime provinces are to have a new magazine, a quarterly, which is to be called the "Dalhousie Review." It will be published in the Atlantic Monthly of Boston and its promoters hope that what this remarkably influential periodical is in New England, so will the "Dalhousie Review" become in these Canadian provinces by the sea. Two Halifax men are mainly responsible for the launching of the new magazine. One is Professor H. L. Stewart of Dalhousie University; the other Dugald Macgillivray of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. And with the help of all good citizens their new undertaking will be sure, will be crowned with success. The Maritime Merchant extends its best wishes to the new venture which will understand and be formally launched in the course of the next month.

WILL FORM CLUB. Plans are now in progress for the local speed skaters to form a skating club at Lily Lake. It is the intention, with the assistance of Joseph Tebo, to erect a clubhouse at the lake so that the local skaters will have the proper facilities for training next season if the proposed arena does not materialize. If the citizens will back up the project it is expected to build the clubhouse within the next two months. It is probable that a tag day will be held for the purpose of raising the necessary funds.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Morrisburg, Ont., April 3.—Daniel Donahue, aged twenty-seven, son of R. J. Donahue, president of the National Bank of Ogdensburg (N.Y.), shot himself this morning in a room of the St. Lawrence hotel here. The bullet entered his body just above the heart. His father and brother were sent for and were at the young man's bedside when he died a few hours after the affair had taken place. Donahue came to Morrisburg last Thursday with the Ogdensburg orchestra to attend a dance and had been about town since. He had entered the hotel, the hotel clerk and told that his father had telephoned to have him come home at once. Shortly after the delivery of the message a revolver shot was heard.

SIR GEORGE STANDS BY THE U. OF N. B.

Ottawa, April 3.—Speeches by Sir George Foster and others featured the banquet given last night in the House of Commons restaurant by the Ottawa branch of the McGill University graduates.

Sir George Foster said: "I take off my hat to McGill. It is a large and, I believe, a respectable institution. (Laughter.) But for me there is but one alma mater, the little university that resides near the city of Fredericton in New Brunswick. In the early days not a single stick flouted itself in my alma mater. I stand for the small university. Did you something for a man that the big universities do not?"

As these thefts have extended over a long period it is possible that many more may be implicated before the investigation being conducted by Detective Reynolds is concluded.

Mosher, grand president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, has issued a statement in which he maintains that the attempt to fix the blame upon labor for the huge deficit in the operation of government railways has signally failed.

SCORES WINNING GOAL AFTER 28-MILE WALK

Girl Hockey Player of Cochrane Is No Waiting.

Cochrane, April 4.—It takes more than a missed train to daunt the spirits of the athletic ladies of this town. The members of Cochrane ladies' hockey team went to Troquois Falls to play with their sister towns but the captain arrived too late to accompany the other members of the party. Nothing daunted, the young lady walked to Porcupine Junction, a distance of twenty-eight miles, got a train, and arrived at the falls and helped her team to win by scoring the only goal of the game.

U.S. Steel Co. To Cut Wages

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Gary, Ind., April 3.—A twenty per cent reduction of wages and the eight-hour day will be put into effect by the United States Steel Corporation about the middle of this month, according to unofficial notices from the local offices of his corporation.

About thirty thousand men are employed in the company's plants when they are running full time, but it is not known just how many men are at work just now. Installation of the eight-hour-day would mean that ten thousand additional men would be required to run the plants at full speed.

The Soul of the Advertisement

Granted an arresting headline, the art of writing a retail advertisement is just the ability to say one's say intelligently, in logical order, and, above all, naturally.

No "literary gift"—no flowery language—is necessary. The best copy is the earnest, over-the-counter talk you would give to a customer.

In other words, put yourself—your soul—into your writing.

Grammar is useful, but not indispensable. It doesn't make or break the advertisement. It is your own earnestness and conviction that makes people believe and respond to what you say.

You will find, as you devote more attention to your advertising, that it will return you dividends of pleasure as well as of profit. As time passes, customers will notice an omission and speak to you about it. This experience is not imaginary. It is a fact—as many merchants and publishers will testify.

One of the most enjoyable things you can do is to spend an hour or so a few evenings a week thinking out a well-balanced daily newspaper advertising campaign for your store and your merchandise. And, having thought it out, carry it through regardless of other people's opinions or whims.

You have three of the best trading months ahead. Do, then, as we suggest, and watch results.
