WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE BY CYCLONE More Than 200 Killed or Injured Along Coast of Chile MANY VESSELS FOUNDER

Arrivals at Valparaiso Report Drifting Buoy, Cargoes and Directs—Girl Drowns in Pail of Water—Wires Tell of Other Fatalities

Valparaiso, June 26.—The great cyclone which devastated the coast of Chile a few days ago extended from Pisagua on the north to Antofagasta to the south. Torrential rains have followed the hurricane, almost completing the disaster. It is estimated that more than 200 persons were killed or injured and immense damage has been done to property of all kinds.

Reports here say that Iquique has been inundated. Many vessels, in addition to launches and lighters have foundered. Incoming steamers report having passed buoyed wrecks, cargoes and debris.

St. Thomas, Ont., June 26.—Gladys Mansell of this city the two-year-old child of Thomas Mansell, of the Pere Marquette Railway, fell head first into a pail of water and when found by neighbors lying at the bottom of the pail and the girl could not extricate herself.

London, Ont., June 26.—Two colored lads Thomas and Earl Fountain aged sixteen and thirteen were drowned in a raft on which they were paddling. A raft on which they were paddling capsized.

Bremen, Germany, June 26.—One of the four balloons which ascended at Paris on Saturday, fell into the North Sea near the Island of Oleron of the East Frisian group yesterday. A violent storm prevailed at the time and the aerial craft was rapidly and completely destroyed.

The other three balloons made landings on the East Frisian coast. A rescue boat was sent out as soon as possible to the aid of the distressed balloon but later returned having recovered only an empty ballast bag marked "H. G. B.—70."

Phillips, Me., June 26.—As a result of a lightning strike, a house on the Maine coast of the town of Phillips, Me., was destroyed. The house was owned and occupied by "Mans Woods," a weekly publication.

WOMEN AND BABES PUT TO DEATH BY REIGN OF TERROR Fearful Conditions in Albania Under Iron Hand of the Turk—25,000 Women and Children Seeking to Keep Life by Eating Grass and Roots

Vienna, June 26.—(Canadian Press) Reliable advice from Albania say that the situation is extremely critical. Turkey has massed 20,000 troops within a day's march of the Montenegrin frontier. Chas. R. Crane, of Chicago, who has just arrived at Vienna, after traversing Albania describes the conditions as absolutely intolerable. The Turkish, he says, are devastating whole districts, killing prisoners, refugees women and children, burning houses and crops, and blowing up churches.

Mr. Crane adds that 25,000 women and children have fled to Montenegro, and are starving there, their only means of subsistence being boiled grass and roots. Reports of the pacification of Albania seem fictitious, while the news of the latest fight in Yemen, where it is said that 1,000 were killed, and 500 "mortally wounded," suggests a massacre of prisoners.

These things give immense impetus to the rebellion. The news from Albania speaks ever of the danger of intervention, and it is said that Torgut Pasha has practically entered into a war of extermination and devastation of the whole country with a view of planting Mohammedanism in the Christian tribal regions.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The present time is an anxious one for the Czar, because his friend and kinsman, King Nicholas of Montenegro, is sending former Premier Myshchikov on a personal and urgent mission to ask Russia's aid against Austrian threats. It is barely a month since the Czar is reported to have written to King Nicholas alone. His note, so far from doing good, only provoked Austria to challenge him publicly by declaring that she would be responsible for the maintenance of order in Macedonia.

CORONATION HYMN

The following appropriate hymn, composed to be sung at the special services in England, was sung as a solo in the coronation service in St. Mary's Church, yesterday by J. N. Rogers, of the Sons of England.

Thy hand hath blest us; lay it now Upon the new-anointed brow; Make Thou the living stone to read The footsteps of the royal Dead.

Set Thou, for purest, brightest gem, Emblazon'd with a People's love; Robe him in Righteousness, and shed Imperial mercy o'er his head.

Unfold his banners; let them move, Emblazon'd with a People's love; Robe him in Righteousness, and shed Imperial mercy o'er his head.

Lord, make thy people wise to see; He had plenty on hand, I suppose; She—I don't know. He was certainly out of humor.

REV. MR. GRAHAM'S FAREWELL

An Address Presented to Him—Illness of Child Prevents Him Leaving For West for Few Days

Rev. A. A. Graham in bidding farewell to the congregation of St. David's last night told them that he sincerely believed that this city was on the eve of a great industrial development. In view of this he urged them to be ready for the greater demands that would be sure to be made on them. He commended the work which they had done as well as their methods, and thanked all for the unfailing kindness which he had met with from all.

Rev. Mr. Graham expected to leave for the west tonight, but on account of the fact that one of his little girls has developed tonsillitis, he will not be able to travel for a few days. The body of the church was completely filled last night and many were seated in the gallery. The sermon was a very earnest effort and was listened to with marked attention, making a profound impression on all present.

He referred to the changes which have taken place in his life. During the six and a half years of his pastorate 200 people had joined the church on profession of faith and the present membership of the church was now 400. This meant that in twelve years the membership of a congregation practically changes. When he came to the church the debt on the congregation was $17,000, and this had been reduced to $10,000. He commended the work of the Diamond Jubilee committee to the attention of the congregation and urged in view of the great industrial development which the city would soon experience, that the debt be paid off as soon as possible so that they could meet the larger demands on them more readily.

Yesterday was patriotic day in the Sunday schools of the city and at the close of the exercises in St. David's Sunday school the superintendent, Robert Reid, presented an address to Rev. A. A. Graham, the retiring pastor. It was beautifully illuminated and was bound in maroon morocco finished in gold leaf. A gold monogram adorned the lower right hand corner and a panel of green morocco on the upper half bore the inscription, "A Token of Esteem."

It was signed by Robert Reid, Agnes Smith, Jean H. Somerville and Andrew Malcolm, Jr. Rev. Mr. Graham replied feelingly. The Presbyterian clergymen of the city gave a farewell dinner to Rev. A. A. Graham at Mrs. March's, 95 Coburg street, on Saturday night. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. I. McLean, Rev. J. McCaskill, Rev. Hibbert Read, Rev. W. M. Townsend, and Judge Forbes representing St. Andrew's church, brief speeches of regret at Mr. Graham's departure were made and the ministers individually bade him farewell.

RUNAWAY PLUCKILY STOPPED

A double seated buggy, with a lady in the back seat stood in St. Andrew's street last evening, when the horse took fright and ran away. The lady's son rushed at its head but was knocked down and run over, being bruised and considerably cut about the head. The horse turned up Sydney street at a mad gallop, the lady crying loudly for help. All attempts to stop him failed till near Princess street, when Elmer A. Belding ran out at great personal risk and by a good fortune, secured as he ran a firm grip on the reins.

Though lifted from his feet and almost thrown, he held on and finally pulled the team up in Princess street. The lady was hysterical, but was greatly relieved when her son, despite his injuries came running to meet her. His head was cut and bleeding, but his anxiety for his mother's safety made him forget his own injuries.

BORE THE SAME NAME

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans of Malden and Daughter-in-Law, of West-cry, Pass Away—Former Was, Next to Millionaire's Widow, The Nearest Kin

A Boston special to the Times says:—"Two members of the Evans' family of St. John county, were buried in Malden today. Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, aunt of the late millionaire Robert D. Evans, and next to the widow his nearest kin, died on Saturday at home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Ambrose, of Malden. She was aged 82, and a native of New Brunswick.

"By a strange coincidence her daughter-in-law also named Elizabeth Evans, died in West-cry, N. I., on the same day.

"The Malden woman took care of Robert D. Evans during his term of life. She was the widow of Richard Evans. The West-cry woman was the widow of John Evans. St. John people are interested in the Robert Evans' vast estate, depositions regarding the heirs to which were recently taken in that city."

"STEWARDESS" WAS MAN

Strange Development in Connection With Fatal Fire on Steamer in Which St. John Woman Died

The Times last week told of two deaths in a fire on board a steamer at Boston. Later it was learned that Mrs. Elizabeth McNeil, one of those who lost her life, was a St. John woman. There is another development.

A Boston despatch now says:—"Following the funeral of Harriet Kelly, 'Stewardess' of the steamer Governor Andrew, who perished when the steamer was destroyed by fire on Sunday, the discovery has been made that, although believed to be a woman for thirty years, this was a mistake. She was a man, named Harriet Kelly, a resident of Boston and Wollsey, who had been found among Miss Kelly's effects.

"Harriet lived as a trusted servant in many well known and Back Bay families, performing all the duties of a housemaid and enjoying the usual freedom of women in the household. The mother and father of this strange person are living in Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, England.

"Harriet Kelly was born in Wolverhampton and reared and educated as a girl. When twenty-three years old Harriet Kelly came to Boston as the servant of John Fleming, of Brookline. False sex was never suspected. Although many male admirers Harriet seldom accepted their advances seriously. Harriet shaved regularly, but that habit was believed to be only 'peculiarity'."
