YOUTH SLAIN; POLICEMAN HELD

Boy Dies of Wounds in Free For All Party Fight

New York Officer, Charged With Shooting, Denies Firing Fatal Shot

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—A celebration at the Fontaine Club, East Fordham road, the Bronx, ended at 2:30 a.m. in a free-for-all fight in which an 18-year-old boy was shot and killed.

The prisoner, Patrolman James J. McCabe, 30 years old, of the Bronx Park Station, denied firing the shot. His revolver was lost in the fight.

The slain youth was Ward Tierney, who lived with his parents at 1111 Wadsworth Avenue. The police found him lying in the club after they arrested Patrolman McCabe, who was in civilian's clothes, while he was being pummeled in the street outside.

McCabe's story was that he left the club just before the fight started. When he was on the sidewalk, he said, he heard a shot fired in the club. He immediately after he saw a man run out. He grabbed the man and asked what had happened.

"Someone is shot!" came the reply, according to McCabe. He started with the man to a police box across the street. As he did so, he said, two other men came running out of the club. He said he fired a bullet in the air when they refused to back.

McCabe then started back to the club with the man he had seized. Just then, he added, the crowd of pan-stricken revellers came rushing to the street. He said he halted the crowd with his revolver and announced his identity.

Matthew Tierney then struck him and he said he grabbed Tierney, losing the first man he had seized. The crowd then trampled upon him.

While he and Matthew Tierney were rolling on the sidewalk, Patrolmen Quigley and Schepard of the Bronx Park Station arrived in response to McCabe's call. They did not recognize him, and struck him several blows before they saw he was a policeman.

Therefore the Alliance would call upon the Government to make good its pledge made to the people of this province that the law against intoxicating liquor would be rigidly enforced."

WHEELER ELECTED MAYOR OF MONCTON

Defeats Leonard C. Jones by Majority of 514—Other Results

MONCTON, Jan. 4.—Ambrose Wheeler was elected Mayor of Moncton in today's contest, having a majority of 514 over Leonard C. Jones.

Wheeler at the police station explained "I will sell the truth; you will find what you want in that packet." He produced a packet containing a book of Canadian Pacific Steamship tickets to class tickets, a large number blank, but with the counterfoils filled in.

He said: "I took them from the cashier of the office in Bristol." He had in his possession bills in the name of Alexander A. Wilson, St. John's, N. B., which were printed in the name of Wheeler through a registry office, and actually parted with his money.

In order to obtain this money Jones had to pay a loan from a moneylender and sold up his home. He was now without a home and owed money.

Wheeler had been in the habit of using the writing room and stationery of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Peel stated that Weatherup was alleged to have committed bigamy at Bristol and that charge would be proceeded with later.

Weatherup pleaded for leniency, as he had no previous record.

"These frauds have been so deliberate that I cannot treat you as a first offender," said Mr. Stuart Deacon, the stipendiary magistrate.

Piercing Cold is Difficult to Resist With Thin Blood and Failing Strength

Father John's Medicine Builds New Strength—Nourishes the Weak, Enfeebled System.

As lakes and rivers put on their overcoats of ice, and piercing winds howl round the home, the old folks feel their vitality is lowered; often, they are troubled with a distressing cough which they are unable to throw off, in their weakened condition.

Father John's Medicine was originally written by a practicing physician for just such a condition as this—to relieve a stubborn cough and to heal the throat and lungs—and to supply ample nourishment to build up weak, ailing people.

Sixteen-Year-Old Oversight Corrected

GAPETOWN, Jan. 5.—Omission to give the printer his orders, and the fact that the error has not been noticed until now, has resulted in the Royal Arms appearing on the Union "Official Gazette" instead of the Union coat-of-arms, during the 16 years since the printer, Alexander A. Wilson, land agent, Saint John, N. B., Canada, stated that a further copy was required.

Weatherup gave Hill forms to fill up, and later showed him a letter purporting to come from Alexander A. Wilson, land agent, Saint John, N. B., Canada, stating that a further copy was required.

The detective pointed out that Weatherup had spelled Saint John in the contract as "St. John's," and that he had confused it with St. John's, Newfoundland.

A BAD SITUATION.

Rioting and looting of a most serious character was resumed early this morning in the Cape Breton colliery district and continued for some hours.

The situation is a most serious one, and the Premier of Nova Scotia appears to be convinced of the existence of extensive want and suffering.

Of course, lawlessness is no cure for want, and neither want nor lawlessness can be permitted to continue.

Mr. Secretary Hoover, who has charge of Great Britain with profiteering in connection with crude rubber, has drawn the fire of the London Times.

At all events, Sir Andrew Duncan and his associates were fully apprised of the whole situation, which, basically, is in no way altered by the latest outbursts.

With blinking eye and shaking head, This haughty owl most proudly said: "That stupid bird on yonder tree should borrow sweeter notes from me!"

THE WAVE MOVES ONWARD BUT THE WATER DOES NOT.

IS HUMANKIND progressing? We don't know.

The airplane, the radio, the X-ray, aren't exclusive evidence that the affirmative is true.

Emerson observed that a singular equality may be seen between the great men of the first and of the last ages.

YOU may maintain that the evolution of humanity has been an unbroken progress toward the perfection; You may maintain that there has never been progress at all, and that man remains the same poor creature he ever was;

Or you may believe that men were best in primal simplicity. In all or any of these views written history will support you.

(History will supply you with abundant illustrations of anything you wish to believe.)

EMERSON contended that Society never advances.

"It recedes as fast on one side as it gains on the other.

"Its progress is only apparent, like the workers of a treadmill.

"It undergoes continual changes; it is barbarous, it is civilized, it is christianized, it is rich, it is scientific; but this change is not amelioration.

Poems That Live

THE MAID OF NEIDPATH

Earl March look'd on his dying child, And, smit with grief to view her— The youth, he cried, whom I exiled Shall be restored to woo her.

But ah! so pale, he knew her not, Though her smile on him dwelled— And am I then forgot—forgot? It broke the heart of Ellen.

In vain he weeps, in vain he sighs, Her cheek is cold as ashes; Nor love's own kiss shall make those eyes To lift their silken lashes. —Thomas Campbell.

The miners are not in as strong a position to present their case as they were the day they went out on strike.

CANADA AT CHICAGO

(Saskatoon Western Producer)

Canada is supposed—by those who do not know—to be an inferior region for the raising of stock, but the performances in Canadian livestock at the International Show quite conclusively disposed of that idea. Altogether, the Chicago show proves beyond question that for the growings of grain and the raising of cattle, Canada has the better half of the North American Continent. A great deal of credit is due to the Canadian exhibitors who annually prove to the world that Canada produces an excellent Canada—is first-class farming territory.

IMMIGRATION AND PROSPERITY.

(Ottawa Journal)

We must keep our people at home. We must develop our resources here, manufacture our raw material here, thus providing employment for Canadian people, purchasing power for Canadian merchants, traffic for Canadian railways, markets for Canadian farmers, freight for Canadian ports. When we do these things, then immigration, as always in world history, will come where prosperity abounds. But there is no hope of such things from this Government. Hope is prohibited, not by its character and present dilapidated position, but by the very essence of the policies that it has been pursuing.

Who's Who

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

WHEN Karl Manne George Siegbahn of Sweden was in high school, he was rated as an ordinary student. Now, at 39, he is the winner of the Nobel prize in physics, the only prize to be given out in 1926.

Even in physics, a favorite subject, his grade at the school in Hudikvalv, in northern Sweden, was not high. Yet he is one of the youngest men to receive a Nobel prize in any line.

He originally intended to follow a military career, but finally decided to study physics at the University of Lund, in southern Sweden, instead of going to the military academy. At 26 Siegbahn won his doctor's degree in physics and was appointed an instructor. Four years later he became assistant professor there after having refused a full professorship at the German University of Prague the year previous. At 37 he became head of the physics department of the old University of Upsala, the highest academic honor in Sweden.

Professor Siegbahn was given the prize for research work in the X-ray field and the inner structure of the atom.

U. W. GERARD AS ADDRESSED AS "SIR JAMES"

Former U. S. Envoy Pays Tribute to Canadian Expeditionary Force

SAYS ENGLAND TOO LENIENT WITH REDS

Favors Nomination of Catholic U. S. President to Wipe Out Intolerance

Canadian Press. MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—A unique feature of the proceedings at the Canadian Club luncheon here yesterday, when James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany, addressed the gathering, was the reference to the distinguished speaker in terms of English knighthood. He was addressed by the chairman, R. P. Jelliff as "Sir James."

LAUDS CANADIANS

Opening his remarks, Mr. Gerard paid tribute to members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Early in the war, he had the opportunity of seeing in some of the prison camps in Germany representatives of Canadian regiments who had stood perhaps the most critical days of conflict when poison gas was used first.

"You in Canada will find that in a few years you will have gold mines developed that will make you one of the richest and greatest gold-producing countries in the world," the speaker said. As regards the United States absorbing all the gold, Mr. Gerard said, with a touch of humor, that the United States would be in great danger by so doing. All the other nations might then get together and decide that in future silver would be the standard. The gold of the United States would then only be good for jewelry and for filling teeth.

ENGLAND AND COMMUNISM

Coming down to a serious discussion of Britain's ills, the speaker offered the following opinion: "Great Britain has been unfortunate in that it has allowed too much liberty to the Communists, and the Soviets, and the agitator. Why, there are British members sitting in parliament that won't allow to come into the United States. You can go too far in concessions to Communism and free speech."

U. S. PROBLEMS

Coming nearer home, Mr. Gerard said that one of the problems of the United States was intolerance. There was a recrudescence of intolerance. It was based on envy. The Catholic and Jew were driven out by the Ku Klux Klan when the latter could do it. They were envious of the other's success.

SIR JOHN MARTIN HARVEY

In a short talk, Sir John Martin Harvey said he would like to find out why trade unionism encouraged men to work in the United States, and discouraged work in England. He agreed that the present system in England set a premium on inefficiency. Tribute was paid to Mr. Gerard for his stand and work in the early days of the war.

ACADIA PLAYERS PLEASE AUDIENCE

Present "The Goose Hangs High," in Good Style, in Opera House

The performance of the Acadia Players at the Opera House last night was indeed a display of finished acting. The well-known three-act comedy drama, "The Goose Hangs High," was the vehicle chosen by the company for their display of talent and was very ably presented. The direction was under Miss Olaf M. Thebeaut, and proved to have been placed in very capable hands. Almost a capacity audience enjoyed the play immensely. Judged by the volume of the applause and the rapt attention given to the lines, pleased expressions were apparent on all sides. Miss Olive Archibald, in the character of Eunice Ingals, the mother of three modern children, showed herself an artist of no mean ability. Gertrude Perry, as Julia Murdoch, while cast for a minor part, put all the while she had into it and really lived the role above herself. Miss Helen Simms as Mrs. Bradley, gave a demonstration of real character-acting, which is all too rare in amateurs. Her portrayal of the grandmother was a splendid bit of work.

SPLENDID ACTING

Miss Mary Bishop, in the part of Lois Ingals, a most modern college girl, carried her difficult role with ease. She was most realistic in demonstrating the delightfulness of the type. Miss Marguerite Milner, who took the part of Dagmar Kimberley, showed real talent and ability in her interpretation of the role. Charles Allaby, who played Bernard Ingals, the lead, was very good and played the role in a most convincing manner. Bradley Ingals, the brother of Lois, was played by Harold Sippell, and the manner in which he put over his lines was the high point of the show. His was the leading comedy part, and a great deal of the success of the performance was due to the droll manner in which he acted his part. Carl Messenger carried a difficult part, Leo Day, in a very capable manner and was a huge success. Others who took part were James Baker, John Woodworth, Vincent White and Theodore Taylor, and the splendid support which they gave the principals did much to make the play the success it was. It was difficult to realize, while viewing the performance, that the Acadia Players are an amateur organization.

$4,500,000 Given To State Since 1914

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The large sum of over $4,500,000 has been given to the state since 1914. This fact was revealed in the House of Commons when a question was asked for information regarding the gifts of the Italian people to Mussolini's appeal for free contributions towards Italy's American debt. Ronald McNeill, Financial Secretary of the Treasury, replying said the cash, including dividends relinquished, since the year 1914, amounted to this amount.

The Father and Husband Who is Only a Bill-payer in His Own House—Is the Bachelor of Fifty Too Old to Marry a Girl of Twenty-five?—Should a Girl Make All the Dates With a Man?

DEAR MISS DIX—Nineteen years ago I married. A daughter was born a year later. For eighteen years my only privilege has been to provide for the two ladies, and have their company for dinner in the evening. Right after I get up to my room...

ANSWER:—Should think you would be perplexed, but that most of all you would be perplexed at your own conduct in letting your wife and daughter make you the family goat.

According to your own story, you are nothing in your own house but an unconsidered billpayer, a slave who toils to support a couple of selfish and indolent women in luxury. You go off to your room of an evening while they entertain their friends in the parlor. You have no authority in the house you support.

No wonder your wife doesn't think it is worth while to try to please you. There isn't a woman in the world who has any respect for the husband she sneaks.

Let me tell you, my friend, that we women are still very primitive creatures, and caveman stuff still goes with us. We still like a masterful man, and the best-loved husbands are those who keep their wives on their tiptoes trying to please them.

So my advice to you is to brace up your courage, and have a grand fight with the wife that you have, and win back the throne from which she has ousted you. It is never too late to mend, and you may yet have a happy home if you will force your wife and daughter to respect you. But begin by making them get up and give you your breakfast.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a bachelor, 50 years old, well off and able to take care of a wife comfortably. I am lonesome and would like to get married, but the ladies for whom I fancy are around 26 years old. Are they too young for me?

ANSWER:—Twenty-five years is a pretty wide and dangerous chasm between a man's and a woman's age, but, of course, it is one that can be bridged over if the man happens to be young for his age, and the woman old for hers.

Age can't always be gauged by the number of one's birthdays. There are men who were old in the crowd and others who will be jollybays and cake-eaters at 80. There are women who were born old maids, and others who are flappers to the end of their lives.

If you still enjoy young things, and are pliable and adaptable, and enjoy running around, you can safely pick out a wife of 25. But if you are one of the old bachelors who has acquired "ways" and jazz begun to have twinges of rheumatism in your knees, and at a woman with short skirts that you wouldn't let your wife dress that way; if you are fussy about your eating and most particularly if it upsets you if the maid doesn't put your hair brushes back on the dresser in the exact spot you placed them why, then, you will make the mistake of your life in marrying a 25-year-old woman. You are too old for her.

You see the great trouble in marrying a girl who is young enough to be your daughter is that you won't want to do the same things. You can't look at life from the same standpoint, and you don't have the same ideas, because you haven't been brought up in the same school of thought. You have had your fling, and you want to settle down. She hasn't had hers, and she wants to do all the things that you have done, and have a gotten tired of doing.

There won't be many subjects you can discuss without getting into a fight, because the standards of taste and conduct, of morals and manners, have all changed in the last few years, and many of the things that you horrify you will seem perfectly all right to her.

But worst of all, you won't be able to say "do you remember" about bustles and puffed sleeves and side-bag buggies and Anna Held, and a million things that are of interest to you. Perhaps the reason you find it so hard to talk to girls is just because you belong to one age, and they belong to another, and you haven't anything in common.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been going with a young man for some time, and he claims to love me, yet he will not come to see me unless I telephone him and ask him to come. In other words, he won't make a date. He makes me make them all, yet he comes to see me every night. Do you think it right for a girl to have to ask a man to come to see her all the time.

ANSWER:—The young man shows that he has little respect for you and small knowledge of the usages of good society. It ministers to his vanity to force you to do all the running, so he is willing to humiliate you by forcing you to do the courting. Brace up, and refuse to do it. Tell him that if he won't come to see you of his own accord, he can stay away, and that there are plenty of other men who are ready to make dates with you.

Fashion Fancies

The shops all began showing Southern wear fashions earlier than ever this season. These are interesting both to the woman who goes South and the woman who stays at home. The latter often gets ideas this early in the season for her early summer wardrobe.

Above is shown a frock of the type which is smart at the moment, and will be equally as good for summer.

The material is tub silk in a soft pink shade, bordering on rose color. The trimming is of a deeper rose berry tone. It is simply bands of material, with appliques on the pockets.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE TRICKS OF ONE BAD GOBLIN. There was one bad little goblin who was especially bad. His name was Tweekanose. When the Twins and Inch o' Pie chased all the goblins away and took the candy-cane and sugar-plums back to the children they belonged to, he said he didn't care! He was sick of candy anyway! And then, mind you, he looked about him to see just what mischief he could get into next! First he went to Johnny Jones' house and hammered tacks into the wheels of Johnny's new express wagon, so the wheels wouldn't go round. Then he went to Timothy Thomas' house and put water into Timothy's drum so that it was quite all of a week drying out again. Then he went around to Mrs. Smith's house and tore the leaves off the calendar up to June. And Mrs. Smith never noticed it and got all mixed up in her days, and went to church on Thursday and washed on Friday and the neighbors had to put her right again. But Tweekanose went merrily on his way, having the time of his life, the rascal! You'd be surprised to know what things he did. If I counted from now until Christmas I couldn't tell you everything. But I can remember a few of them and here they are. The wagon and the drum and the calendar were just a beginning. There was the toy piano that Santa Claus had left Peggy Porterfield. What do you suppose Tweekanose did to that? Why he got inside and changed the notes around, and it almost caused Peggy a spanking. Because Peggy had started to take music lessons and had learned to play "Chop Sticks." The next morning after Tweekanose had changed her piano around, Peggy couldn't play a thing. Chop Sticks sounded like splinters and firewood, and Peter Peter Pumpkin Eater sounded like mince-meat. Poor Peggy! It was perfectly dreadful! The harder she tried the worse things sounded, and finally she shut up her little piano with a bang, and almost smashed the whole business. And Tweekanose! Mind you, as soon as he finished one kind of mischief he forgot all about it, and was off with a hop, skip and jump to look for something else to ruin. Santa Claus had brought Sally Sloan a nice new black-board to hang on the wall—chalk and erasers and everything! But Tweekanose did not sneak in when she'd gone to bed and smear glue all over it. And the glue dried like glass and it was so slippery you could have skated on it. As for making a mark on it with chalk, you might as well have tried to write on a China plate. And then when he got through with that, he hopped over two roofs and a

With The Women of Today

THE opposition of her own father was practically all that Miss Dales, councilwoman of Dunstable, England, had when she was nominated for the post of Mayor. She was elected in spite of her father's objections, however, and is now the first woman Mayor of Dunstable. However, her father, Alderman Dales, himself an ex-Mayor, was not opposed to a woman as Mayor nor did he doubt his daughter's ability. It was merely, he explained, fatherly concern for her health. He thought his daughter already had too much public and private work and that the "increased" responsibilities might be too much for her.

Miss Dales, however, contended that she was quite strong enough to bear the burden, and she is not altogether without experience, for between 1919-1920 she acted as Mayoress for her father, during his last term of office. "I have been busy with town affairs officially for the last six years," she said, "and there are many problems a woman can handle better than a man. I shall be the first woman Mayor of Dunstable, but I am looking forward to the office with pleasure, and a determination to show that a woman can be as good a Mayor as a Mayoress."

JAP DRAWINGS ARE SENT TO RED CROSS

Portfolio by Juniors Second of Kind to Come to Canada—Belgium Sends One

Another very interesting portfolio which was recently come to hand is one which was made by the Red Cross Juniors in Peru, in Belgium and will be sent to a Junior Red Cross branch in a French-speaking district in Upper Caracut.

Two portfolios which have been sent in by Junior Red Cross branches in the province comprise two very favorable ones which have come from distant lands. The Tobique Valley Club Junior Red Cross branch at Riley Brook has sent a very fine portfolio which is to go to a Junior Red Cross branch in Australia. A large number of excellent pictures countrywide at Riley Brook, scenes in local industries and some splendid trophies captured by big game hunters and fishermen in Riley Brook district. 104 Years Old—Takes Fifth Husband

But sometimes it's a habit. Consider, for example the case of Mrs. Clara Alice Hamrick, who at the age of 104 has just taken her fifth husband.

The husband, who signs his name just "L. Hamrick," is only 76. But this is his fifth marriage, too.

"Getting a husband is the easiest problem I ever solved," says Mrs. Hamrick. "I hope I can live another century. If I do, and Mr. Hamrick doesn't, I will immediately seek out another husband. And if I die first I want—and expect—him to marry again."

A FRONTIER WOMAN. Mrs. Hamrick is a product of frontier days, and proud of it. She lives in a three-room house on the edge of all her own work as cheerfully as a woman half her age.

She was born in Tennessee and was only 28 when she married. The second one came along 12 years later, the third and fourth a decade after that, and the fourth a scant twenty years ago. He has been dead four years.

Hamrick, the present incumbent, tells of his courtship with gusto. "I was picking cotton on Salt Creek and some of the boys told me about Mrs. Welfelt" (Mrs. Hamrick's name when she met her) he says.

"They said she had plenty to keep her and that she was on the carpet. I immediately became interested. It happened that I was visiting a friend who lived near her when she came over for a visit. I looked at her and she looked at me—then we both laughed. It was love at first sight. And it was only a few days until she set the date for the wedding.

Divine Providence had a hand in bringing them together, Hamrick asserts.

FIXED FOR LIFE. "She has plenty to keep us," he says. "On the other hand I had nothing. I will take care of her and she will take care of me. We will both have a comfortable home and be company to each other."

Mrs. Hamrick plumes herself on her vamping abilities. "I have never yet failed to get a man I went out after," she remarks. "I spot 'em, then get 'em into the house—and well, I just don't lose 'em."

Although Mrs. Hamrick can neither read nor write, she has composed a number of verses. When she was asked for her own work she said she had composed by herself without assistance: "God made the forehead of a temple with thought; The devil made hands; To send it to naught."

During the evening several enjoyable vocal selections were given by a quartette composed of A. G. Brown, H. W. Bromfield, F. G. Jones and M. C. MoLean.

LOYALIST CHAPTER. Loyalist chapter of the I. O. O. F., at its meeting last night at the residence of Mrs. Geoffrey Stead, Princess street, voted to send two libraries to schools in the province. The schools will be chosen later. Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, regent, presided. Mrs. Clifford McAvity was elected new member. Those Reports were given of the sending of Christmas boxes to soldiers' families. The sum of $5 was voted to be given to Rev. J. V. Young to be used for the poor of the city. Father Young had given the chapter the use of the Mission church school house for holding charitable institutions. The aims and objects of the order were read and nomination papers for the election of officers were filled out.

Robert Carson, Jr., has returned to Fredericton to resume his studies at the U. N. B. after spending the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson Carson, 90 Lansdowne avenue.

Mr. Ernest Taylor, Wright street, left on Saturday night for Baltimore, Md., where he has accepted the position of outside superintendent for the Gill Lumber Co. Mr. Taylor was formerly engaged as foreman for J. A. Likely & Sons. Mrs. Taylor will remain in Saint John till Feb. 1.

Miss G. Anne M. Stewart, who has been receiving treatment at the General Public Hospital at Saint John, has returned to her home in St. George.

Miss Helen Rigby, who spent a few days at her home in St. Andrews, returned to Saint John on Saturday.

Wife and Daughter of Dukes England's Richest Women. LONDON, Jan. 4.—The new Duchess of Montrose, whose husband, the Marquis of Graham, succeeds to the dukedom on the death of his father, is generally believed to be the richest woman in Great Britain. Her father, the late Duke of Hamilton, left her $800,000 outright, with $35,000 a year in addition, and all his lands, except those which were entailed with the titles. These included Arran, the wildest and most picturesque island on the Clyde, and the Easton Park estate in Suffolk, the rentals from which amount to $135,000 a year. The duchess was Lady Mary Douglas Hamilton before her marriage to the marquis in 1906. Had she been a boy she would have been the holder of 10 British and two Scottish titles, including that of duke, the land's premier duke; but, as it is, she is the possessor of an enormous fortune, and is now the wife as well as the daughter of dukes.

BRIDE AND GROOM HAVE CLOSE SHAVE. Forged to Page Registrar at Football Game to Complete Ceremony. SWINDON, Jan. 5.—"Wanted, H. Kirby, Registrar; Wedding Warnings." A board bearing this appeal was carried round the Swindon football ground just after the start of a cup-tie match. It was nearing 2.50, so that only half an hour remained, 8 o'clock being the "closing time" for weddings. The board was sent round as a last hope by friends of a couple who were being married in a chapel where, it is not being licensed for weddings, the presence of a registrar was required. Fortunately Mr. Kirby was present on the grand stand. Hurrying to the chapel he arrived in time to end the difficulties of the bride and bridegroom.

FEATHER BEDS AND BIRDS CAUSE ASTHMA. LONDON, Jan. 5.—Asthma may be caused by having a canary or a parrot in one's room; by having a cat, or by sleeping on a feather bed. This is the opinion of a Hazyree street asthma specialist, who says that he frequently advises people suffering from asthma not to go to the zoo or circus.

HAD HAPPY TIME. Three Hundred Children Guests of Salvation Army—Santa's Visit Enjoyed. Three hundred radiantly happy children, dressed in Christmas party gowns, were the guests of the Salvation Army last evening for the children in the homes to which the Army had sent baskets at Christmas. The children were entertained in needy circumstances. An entertaining programme was given and Santa Claus appeared. He arrived in a packing case as an express parcel and the children gave him wonderful reception. He distributed 200 articles of warm clothing, stockings, mittens, mufflers, caps and other leading specialists in materials used by dentists.

BAND SUPPLIES MUSIC. Major Thomas Burton, divisional commander, presided, and the programme included selections by the band of No. 1 Corps; dialogue by the young people of No. 2 Corps; drill by the nurses of the Evangeline Hospital; dialogue by three little girls of the Carleton Corps; instrumental duet, Lieut. Sharp and Lieut. Powell; vocal duet by Capt. Coley and Ensign Mosher. Mrs. T. A. Burton supervised the arrangements for the entertainment and Mrs. Frederick Robinson, of the Carleton Corps, had charge of the trimming of the tree.

WOMAN SUFFERING FROM GAS EFFECTS. TORONTO, Jan. 4.—Found unconscious in her room in a Jarvis street rooming house Saturday, Mrs. Louis Russell, aged 80, is now in hospital suffering from the effects of gas which was escaping from an open pipe. In a letter found in her room Mrs. Russell said good-bye to her husband, stating that she thought she had done her part, but that he was not willing to meet her half way. It contained the passage: "May God forgive me for taking the little life—and mine own."

NURSING ATTRACTS FEWER. LONDON, Jan. 5.—Hospital nursing is ceasing to attract the type of girl best suited to it. Old-fashioned hospitals have no lack of probationers, but new country institutions are short-staffed and girls are no longer eager to train there. The main reason, according to Mrs. W. Paul, of the Professional Union of Nurses, is that the age at which a girl can begin her probationership is too high. No girl can become a probationer before she is nineteen, and most matrons think that is too young. Many girls who leave school at 13 cannot afford to wait two years doing nothing.

Her Heart Palpitated She Had Fainting Spells. Mrs. J. Wilson, Fort George, N.S., writes:—"I suffered from palpitating of the heart and fainting spells, and at times, I could not be left alone. My trouble was caused from overwork and worry, having been left alone with a large family. I had tried everything, without any relief, but I know, today, that I would have been a nervous wreck but for your wonderful MILBURN'S HEART NERVE PILLS."

MARRIAGES BY MARKS. LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Registrar-General reports that out of the total of the 164,852 marriages solemnized during 1924, 954 men and 1,061 women signed the marriage register by mark. The number of divorces was 2,982 as against 3,667 in 1923 and 2,888 in 1922.

The Fragrance and Forgetfulness of Ceylon—SUNBEAM TEA. TORONTO, Jan. 4.—Found unconscious in her room in a Jarvis street rooming house Saturday, Mrs. Louis Russell, aged 80, is now in hospital suffering from the effects of gas which was escaping from an open pipe. In a letter found in her room Mrs. Russell said good-bye to her husband, stating that she thought she had done her part, but that he was not willing to meet her half way. NEW YORK, Jan. 5—Helen Wills, California girl, plans daily practice in anticipation of one or more engagements with Suzanne Lenglen. Miss Wills sails for Europe tomorrow, hoping that Miss Lenglen will recover quickly from an illness which yesterday caused postponement of matches in a tournament at Cannes. The Californian goes abroad primarily to study art, but will include in tennis "intensity" and "extensiveness," she said. Miss Wills' visit to Europe is very likely to bring Miss Lenglen to the Nationals in the United States, next summer, in the opinion of tennis observers. 1-5

BANK SWINDLE UNCOVERED IN PORTUGAL

$5,000,000 in Spurious Notes Circulated by New Institution

NATIONAL BANK IS TO REDEEM PAPER

Many Arrests Made—Directors Paid Big Bribes to Carry Out Scheme

OPORTO, Portugal, Jan. 4

—One of the most astounding swindles perpetrated within recent years, and estimated to involve more than $5,000,000, has been brought to light by the Lisbon newspaper O Seculo.

Early this year a new bank was formed under the title of the "Angola and Metropole."

During August two of its directors visited London, and are supposed to have brought away four large trunks containing Portuguese notes which, it is said, were printed in London.

Experts now declare that these notes are false, having a small comma after a certain word which appears on them. This comma is not printed in the genuine notes.

ON FALSE PASSPORTS

Apparently enormous quantities of notes were smuggled into the country by the directors, one of whom is believed to be Dutch, while the other is stated to be Senor Jose Bandeira. They travelled under false diplomatic passports and consequently their luggage was immune from examination.

Their object was to pass as many notes as possible in exchange for real values, such as precious stones, jewelry, silver, and shares. They also took part in the financing of companies. The money and goods obtained were sent out of the country and converted into foreign capital.

RUN ON BANK

Judging by the terrific run on the Bank of Oporto, which followed the exposure, the sum involved must be enormous. During two days, in Lisbon and Oporto alone, $1,600,000 has been received in false notes, and genuine ones have been paid out to their holders.

The police have so far found in the sales of the 1923-24 collection period for more than $250,000, as well as genuine securities valued at about $100,000. Queues of people stretch along many streets waiting to change their notes. The Bank of Portugal states that it will change every note for whatever sum.

Various trading houses had been employed passing the false notes. Many arrests have been made.

During the police inquiries the directors of the new bank confessed that in only a month more their scheme would have been completed.

Gigantic Ice Rink Planned For London

LONDON, Jan. 5—An ice rink, 170 feet long and 100 feet wide, is to be erected in London on a site in Grosvenor road. The project is to cost $125,000, and among those invited to be members of the committee are Lord Jellicoe and Viscount Doneraile. Extensive and luxurious lounges, tea rooms, restaurant, an American bar and dressing rooms are to be built, and there will be an orchestra in attendance for those skaters who wish to dance.

The rink will be as large as any in the world, and will be ready for the holding of the world's skating championship competitors to be held next year.

Had 43 Bolls And Carbuncles At One Time

Mr. Clard Melanson, Castledorf, Ont., writes:—"In regard to your remedy I have to say that B.B.B. was the only medicine I could get to relieve me of my boils and carbuncles."

I had forty-three at one time, and my doctor told me to take

Burdock BLOOD BITTERS

The first bottle I took gave me such great results that I took three more, and after I had used them I was completely relieved of my boils and carbuncles."

How To Get The Best Results From Your Want Ad.

The small cost of a "Want Ad." is a secondary consideration. The object is results.

Therefore, never compare here and there to save an odd cent or two. By doing so the value of the entire ad. may be destroyed.

When writing your "Want Ad." put yourself in the place of the reader, and answer the questions you yourself would naturally ask.

If you have a flat to rent, the home seeker wants to know more than a plain statement of the fact. He wants to know how many rooms there are; if there is hot water; bath; electric lights; garage, etc.; and the amount of the rent.

Your flat may be a $60 a month home, but if you don't say so in your ad, the $60 a month tenant may not reply, thinking perhaps it is a $15 a month flat.

To rent a room quickly to the right kind of a roomer, give all particulars. Show that you are anxious to make the roomer comfortable for a reasonable rental.

If you wish to sell anything, do not omit the good selling points. It is far more economical to spend an extra few cents and make the sale, rather than to save a few cents in the cost of the ad. and make no sale.

To make doubly sure of the right party seeing your "Want Ad." it is a good plan to use both "The Telegraph-Journal" and the "Times-Star."

A special rate covers both morning and evening papers. The rate for your "Want Ad." in the "Times-Star" is two cents per word per day, but you can have your advertisement appear in both papers for the combined rate of three cents per word per day.

Toronto, Ontario.—"I work in a factory and I would have to get away from my work every time I was sick. The dragging-down pains and cramps were very bad, but my back was terrible. It hurt so that I couldn't lie down with it. I heard some of the girls talking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me to try it. I have taken about a dozen bottles of it and it has done me a lot of good. I never have any pains or sore back now, and have not been off from work a day since I have taken it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound when I have the opportunity."—Miss ROLLO, 21 Howie Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

"The Advice of a Friend"
Hanover, Ontario.—"I was terribly pained and a few days I almost fainted. I used to do housework until a few months ago and sometimes I had to leave my work and go to bed. I am now a mender in the knitting mill. I suffered five or six years from painful periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by the advice of a friend. I got relief almost immediately, and I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. You may use this testimonial if you like, if it will help others."—Miss J. PEARSON, Victoria Street, Hanover, Ontario.

FELL FROM TOP OF BOX CAR

Sustains painful injury but gets quick relief

Men who handle big hazardous jobs demand quick, effective help for sprains, strains, lame backs and bruises. A freight brakeman on the Chicago and Northwestern Railway fell off the top of a box car on his left arm spraining it and tearing the ligaments loose.

"I suffered great pain," he writes. "Then I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and it relieved the pain right away. I have now no pain to speak of at all. The swelling has nearly all gone down." (Name and address given on request.)

What is the magic of this amazingly effective remedy? Sloan's sends an increased supply of healing blood right to the spot that hurts. That's what conquers the pain. No need to rub. Sloan does the whole job. Just pat it on. Quickly and surely, it kills pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, drives out stiffness from lame muscles. Get a bottle. All druggists—35 cents.

MARSHAL FENG OUT AS PEKING RULER

PEKING, Jan. 4—Marshal Feng Yuhsiang, whose control of Peking and most of Chihli province was established by his recent military victories, today issued a circular telegram announcing that he is giving up public life and going abroad shortly.

Marshal Feng's telegram urged his military followers to give their support to the chief executive Yuan Ching-ai, in working for the betterment of the country.

No explanation is given of Marshal Feng's apparent decision to retire from active politics.

SETTLERS PAY MORE

OTTAWA, Jan. 4—In the two months of the 1923-24 collection period settlers, under the Soldier Settlement Board, have made payments amounting to $2,139,002, which is 36 per cent. of the amount, according to a statement made today by Major John Barnett, chairman of the Board. This is $300,000 in excess of the amount paid in by December 31, 1924.

Run on Bank

Judging by the terrific run on the Bank of Oporto, which followed the exposure, the sum involved must be enormous. During two days, in Lisbon and Oporto alone, $1,600,000 has been received in false notes, and genuine ones have been paid out to their holders.

The Quest of Youth The question has been asked why young Canadians look outside their own borders for their heroes in industry and commerce THIS is due, perhaps, to the prominence given in magazines from other lands to "stories of successful men," while men who have built vast Canadian enterprises often remain in the background rather than pass under the spotlight of publicity. Canada has progressed farther in the development of electricity than most nations. Do Canadians fully appreciate what this means? Canada's great water powers are her natural heritage. And she is fortunate in having had men with the vision and capacity to direct their development for the use of municipalities, industries and homes. She is doubly fortunate in having had, at the same time, men with the foresight and ability to organize the electrical industry, to manufacture and distribute the millions of pieces of equipment through which electricity has been made the servant of the Canadian people. This is a story that Canadians should know One of Canada's great electrical organizations, Northern Electric Company, Limited, takes pride and pleasure in the duty of telling it. Through advertisements in the public press of Canada, Northern Electric is informing the country of the important part that the electrical industry plays in the national life. The success this company has achieved has come through service—honest, painstaking service, and this is assurance to young men of their own success in the electrical field in Canada. In the electrical industry thousands of young Canadians are, today, laying the cornerstones of permanent prosperity. It is an industry with unlimited opportunities, of golden promise. The growth, the expansion, the enterprises which follow this one branch alone of Canadian activity, is proof in itself that the future of the youth of this country lies within our own gates. Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

THE BRITISH film industry which has been complaining about the way the people flocked to see the American-made films is due for a revival if "Steve" Donoghue knows anything about it.

"PIE" TRAYNOR, star third baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is to undergo an operation for nose trouble this week at Pittsburgh.

PRESIDENT BAN JOHNSON of the American League announces that the attendance at games in 1925 was only 63,000 short of that registered in 1924, which was the best year, as far as gate receipts are concerned.

THAT should be a hectic battle in Sussex tomorrow night with Moncton as guests. The Dalry boys lost in Moncton, 5 to 3, one of the adverse goals being booted in by a Sussex player.

A FAN writes in to say: "Any idea that Charlie Gorman's victory at Newburgh was a hollow one over slight opposition was dispelled with the arrival of copies of the entry lists of the Middle Atlantic meet.

RADIO STATION AT MONCTON TO TELL OF MEET

Local Skating Executive to Meet Daily at Noon Now

ENTRY BLANKS for the Madison Square Garden meet on January 14 and January 18 under the auspices of the Middle Atlantic Skating Association have been received here and show that in addition to the three-mile event carried over from Thunburg, world's and Olympic champion, Charlie Gorman, Joe Moore and possible Charlie Jewtraw, there will be open events as well. Women's races also are carded.

ON RADIO TONIGHT Through the courtesy of CNRA, Moncton, the story of the big world's meet here will be broadcast tonight from here. This will give details of the meet here and wind up with an invitation to all who possibly can to come to Saint John for the carnival week. A meeting of the skating association executive will be held last evening in their headquarters.

TICKETS READY SHORTLY. It was also reported that the work on the grandstand at the lake was progressing well and that the tickets for the stand and the general admission tickets were now being printed and would be available by the end of this week or next Monday at the latest. It is hoped by those who are giving so much time and thought to the preparations to make this meet the outstanding success in winter sport of the year that there will be an early and city-wide response to the invitation to buy. They want the visitors to get even a greater sight than that which made Saint John famous at the two meets already held on the lake.

ONLY THREE WEEKS AWAY. The first day of the contests is only three weeks away and naturally there is much yet to do, but those in charge are bending every effort to have the smallest detail perfected in the three days of sport will measure up to the high expectations. To make this assured there will be a meeting at 12 o'clock every day, beginning tomorrow, until the time of the meet. The executive and the chairman of all committees will gather for reports and advancement of the many phases of the meet. The executive is well pleased with the way all plans are working out and see for Saint John a wonderful sport event when Gorman, Moore, Jewtraw, Bialis and other flyers of Canada and the United States match their speeding blades against those of the doughty Finns.

BRUINS EXPECTED TO WIN TONIGHT

Ottawa Faces Montreal Maroons While St. Pats Tackle Canadiens

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—Teams of the National Hockey League tonight start the second trial of the long season's campaign with interest in the race at a tense point among the supporters of pro hockey and with prospects of surprises coming as the teams battle to enter the first division and hold their berths intact. Three games are on the card for tonight, all clubs but New York being engaged, and each contest being fraught with importance with the teams all jockeying for improved positions. While much interest will centre in the clash at Ottawa tonight, between the Senators and the Maroons, present league leaders, local followers of the sport will be witnessing at the arena, a clash between two teams who are going a terrific clip at present to climb from lower positions to contending spots in the race. Canadiens will be at home to the Toronto St. Pats. Canadiens will likely be without Billy Boucher again tonight as President Calder has made no step towards reinstating the suspended player. Montreal Maroons will trot out a newcomer by the name of Bernard Brophy, last season with the Port Pit team of Pittsburgh, in the United States Amateur Hockey Association and previous to that with Queens University squad, when they face Ottawa at the capital tonight. Pittsburgh plays at Boston. The Bruins, with Cleghorn back on the defence and the teams well rested after a strenuous start in which they played under severe handicaps, is expected to finish with the best in the league, and tonight should tell just about where they are heading for.

INVESTIGATION IS COMPLETED IN LANE'S CASE

Transfer From Halifax Was in Order, Says Stirling

THE investigation by amateur authorities into the transfer of Temple Lane from Halifax to Saint John has been completed, and the transfer, according to advice from Secretary J. G. Quigley, is a bona fide one. W. E. Stirling, vice-president for New Brunswick, announced today that after going into the matter carefully to see if there had been any violation of the five-months' residence clause he had been instructed from the Halifax end that it was proper and that Lane could be granted a card and allowed to play on the Saint John team. This will be welcome news to Saint John fans, as Lane has made a big hit with them by his dazzling work. Last night he starred for Saint John at Moncton, where the local boys lost, 5 to 3. Minus the services of Halliway, the Saint John team had little hope of winning, but they nevertheless put up a hard fight and lost out by the same score that Sussex did in the first game of the year. Tomorrow night, at Sussex, Moncton are guests, and a win for Sussex would put Saint John back into the lead. A win for Moncton would put it right up to the locals to win against Sussex here on Friday, so much interest is being manifested in the outcome of the Sussex game. At Moncton, last night, the locals gave Moncton plenty to think about, and it was not until the closing stages that a decision was made. Lane drew first blood, and Cole evaded it up, while Gould made it 2 to 1. In the second period, Kiley put Saint John even, and then Cole and Kevin scored for Moncton. In the final period each team got one, Lane for Saint John and A. Bastarache for Moncton. "Brat" Gilbert and Doudreaux showed up well along with Lane and Kiley for the locals.

Timothy Breen pleaded guilty to having liquor on premises other than his private dwelling and was fined $200.

ALL BY HIMSELF
The hotel rooms under the guardroom at the Central Police Station were not overcrowded last night. Only one man was in court this morning on a charge of drunkenness. He paid $5 for the privilege of sleeping in the care of the officers of the law.

GETTING 1926 PLATES
The demand for 1926 automobile licenses was far in excess of the demand at this time in 1925, it was said this morning by the provincial tax inspector, G. L. Ingraham, and the staff were busy getting out the necessary plates. He said that under the act every driver of an automobile with a 1925 tag was breaking the law and liable to punishment. He urged that all who purposed driving their cars through the winter months send in their applications at once for the 1926 plates.

WAS HOME FOR HOLIDAYS
Miss Zena M. Ricker, formerly of this city, but now of Montreal, spent the Christmas holidays, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Montague Ricker, City Road. During her stay in the city, Miss Ricker entertained at a small bridge. The following guests were present, the Misses Ethel and Gladys Parke, Miss Edith Swatka, Miss Miriam Mahoney, Miss Audrey Purchase, Miss Gemma Tracey, and Miss Georgie O. Barker. Miss Ricker has returned to her duties in Montreal.

HEARTILY WELCOMED.
The arrival of the Cunard Line steamship Yellavia here from London brought back to this port her commander, Captain E. T. C. Fear, who has not been running to Saint John since he came here more than 12 years ago on the steamship Royal Edward on which he was chief officer at the time. Captain Fear said that at the time he was coming here on the Royal Edward that liner along with the Royal George was running in the winter from Saint John to Avonmouth. The captain is renewing old acquaintances during his present visit here and is being warmly welcomed.

TALKS OF HOCKEY
Holly Lounsbury, of Moncton, formerly a prominent provincial hockeyist, passed through the city at noon today on a return from Boston. He saw the Boston Bruins and New York's international league team play a few nights ago, and is of the opinion that barring the "heavy" or interference style of game characteristic of professional hockey, any of the better New Brunswick teams could give the big city aggregations a hard tussle. Red Stewart, New Amherst boy who is on the Boston team, is a great favorite and is already an international figure.

BONDS ARE BOUND TO KEEP THE PEACE

Give Bonds Before Magistrate Henderson—Moses McNulty Complainant

John E. Bond, 47, James Bond, 23, and Edward Bond were bound over to keep the peace for 12 months in a collective amount of $1,500, in the Police Court this morning. The occurrence happened outside his jurisdiction.

As McNulty did not wish the accused fined but asked that they be bound over to keep the peace. His Honor then bound them over in sums of $400 each and in addition John Bond had to supply other security for $200 and take an additional sum of $200 himself. Archibald McLean, 84-year-old foster-father of John Bond, stood security for the other bond.

POTATO SHIPMENTS GOOD THIS SEASON

Cuban Sailings Pass Mark of Last Year at This Date

The potato trade to Cuba has been larger this season than last, according to information received this morning. Up to today, including the Viborg, sailing this afternoon, there have been 26 freighters this season to Cuba with potatoes, and this is two more than for the same period last year. However, the total number of sailings of potato vessels from Saint John to date is one behind last year, owing to the fact that up to this time three vessels had taken full cargoes of potatoes to England last year, but this market has since been cut off by an embargo. Taking the shipments thus far it is estimated that approximately 500,000 bushels have gone to Cuba.

A local shipping man this morning said that the prospects looked good, as the market in Cuba was fairly strong at present. He said that two more vessels were in port to load potatoes for Cuba this week and several more were expected during the next two or three weeks.

RADIO TROUBLE MAY BE CUT OUT

Latest Type of Transmitter Being Installed at Red Head Station

Hoped Soon That Interference With Reception of Programs in Homes Will Pass

A new radio transmitter of the very latest type is to be installed at the Government direction finding station at Red Head it was announced this morning at the local office of the Marine and Fisheries Department. It is added that it is expected the equipment will do away with the interference which has hindered reception by local radio enthusiasts in their homes whenever the powerful Red Head station was sending.

THE LATEST WORD.
The new transmitter will bring the Government station here up to the latest word in modern wireless equipment. It was said it would do away with many cases where local radio fans have been unable to enjoy a program because the local station was busy with communications with steamships out at sea.

Local enthusiasts have been putting up a little complaint, a citizen said, about these interruptions as they realized it was doing work of vital importance to the port but they would be delighted to learn, he said, that their enjoyment would no longer be interfered with from this source.

H. A. Coode, director of the wireless branch of the Marine and Fisheries Department, of Ottawa, is in the city in connection with the work of installation of the new equipment.

FALSE PRETENSE CHARGE IS FACED

Louis Garson in Police Court on Complaint of Myer Budovitch

Louis Garson, 22, was arrested last night charged with obtaining money by false pretences from Myer Budovitch on Aug. 17, 1925. He was allowed out on bail by Magistrate Henderson this morning and ordered to appear in the Police Court at 10.30 a. m. on Friday. The charge stated that Garson had wired to Budovitch for money which he said was due to cover a bill of lading for goods shipped to the complainant. The goods, it is said, were not shipped. There were two occasions, making $150 in all.

W. M. Ryan appeared for accused and advanced the argument that the information did not contain sufficient evidence to prove the charge.

Jas. B. Dever, counsel for Budovitch, asked for a delay to enable him to become acquainted with the case. Mr. Ryan applied for bail and this was granted. Willard Urdang and Mrs. James J. Coleman, father of the accused, were sureties for each and Garson was his own surety for $1,000 for his appearance in court on Friday. It was wrongly published that Morris Jacobson was the one from whom it was alleged the money was obtained.
