JOURNAL. BAY CONCEPTION AND

Vol III.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1836.

No. 127.

HARBER GRACE, Conception Bay, Newfoundland :- Printed and Published by JOHN THOMAS BURTON at his Office, opposite Messrs. W. DIXON, & Co's.

ON MANURES.

ful Farmer, at least, that scarcity of manure laceous properties may be ascertained by the is one of the chief drawbacks on our Agri- sight and feeling, by the aid of water or of culture, every practical farmer should there- glass Sand subsides or settles quicker than fore employ that degree of intelligence with clay in a liquid ; and, will' scratch glass, which he may be endowed, in finding out which clay will not ways and means of increasing this indispensable article. This too is the proper season of collecting materials for composing-such country are precisely those which are best as peat moss, swamp mud, all vegetable and adapted to furnish the proper sustenance to animal matter, sea mud intermixed with its animal population, and to satisfy its meshells, coal and wood ashes, refuse lime, &c The time has not yet arrived when our farmers can afford lime as a manure; but we believe it is not far distant. If we had an Agricultural Society, its first object should | sand marls most abound in the neighbourbe to get a lime work set a going, at which | hood of clays. And in addition to the valime might be got as cheap as in Britain or riety of fossil substances which are calcuthe United States; this would have an in- lated to increase fertility, every thing that stantaneous and lasting effect on our agricul- grows upon the earth, every particle of aniture, as that fossil seems well calculated to mal and vegetable matter, is reduced to air promote the fertility of our soil. As lime and water by the chemical operations of nais yet beyond the reach of most of our far- ture, and in these forms become the food mers, except such as are fortunate enough to of new plants, to nourish animals. It is a have it on their lands, we would recon mend a search to be made for marl, which no doubt exists in large quantities in this section of the Province, and is an excellent substitute for lime. We give below some extracts on its properties .- Ed Pictou Ree, Oct. 19. Marl consists of calcareous matter, clav, and sand, or some two of these earths, lof which lime or chalk is always one in warious proportions. The blue clay Marl is free from san l. Clay marl is also sometimes of a yellowish white, yellowish gray, or a brown or red cast. The shell marl seldom contains clay. In schistus or stone marl, sometimes sand and sometimes clay preponderates-generally the former. The sand marl, whether shell or schistus, should be applied to clays, and clay marls to sands. In both cases they correct the defects of the soil, by rendering it in the first less, less adhesive; and, in the latter, less open and po-

| and even of good vinegar, will cause an ef- | protection of her husband, who, it appears, | fervescence. This is the operation of the It being abundantly evident, to every skil- acid upon the lime. Its silicious and argil-

> It is a remarkable fact in the economy of nature, that the indigenous plants of every dicinal wants. So in regard to our soils; every district generally affords the means of producing fertility. Hence the clay marls the office with her face covered with blood. generally underlay sands; and shell and ing with the punishment he deserved, when ments. the merciful wife wiped her pretty blue eves with her white muslin handkerchief, and be-

was sure he would not do it again. The husband on being asked if he would | indictable. behave better in future, growled assent, and the parties left the office. They, however, had scarcely been gone a quarter of an hour when the forgiving wife came running into The hard hearted rascal had been punishing her for daring to take him before the authorities. Another warrant was made out for his apprehension, and a lecture given to the woman on the evils of misplaced mercy .-N. Y. Paper.

The following is said to be an extract from | fused to pass this indictment. This is prethe Journal of Elizabeth Woodville, kept cisely the same way in which I was treated previous to her first marriage with Lord at the Old Bailey, when I wanted to prefer Grey. She was afterward Queen to Edward my bill. The man there was like the one the Third :-

The Chairman said the Court could not had given her STRIKING demonstrations of then decide the question; they could not his superiority. A warrant was granted, go into the case until the indictments had and the ill tempered spouse brought up to been before the Grand Jury. The applicant account for his deeds. He was about meet- must submit it to the Clerk of the Indict-

The Clerk of the Indictments repeated that he had looked over the indictment, and sought the magistrate to release him, as she had refused to pass it, because, as the charge was laid, in his opinion the offence was not

The Chairman said the Court at that moment was not prepared to give instructions as to how indictments were to be drawn.

Mr. Flood-The case has been before Mr. Justice Bosanquet, and he has decided that it is an indictable one.

Chairman-(to the applicant)-What is it you wish to do? is it to hear our opinion? Mr. Flood (with much vehemence)-I want, Sir, to hand this indictment to you to read, and then to say whether it is not correctly drawn up. It is at the instigation of MANNERS OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY .- his Majesty's Ministers that this man has re-rous. The earths are not the food of plants .-The constitute the stomach, analogous to the stomach of animats, in which vegetable and animal matter is received, digested, and with the aid of the leaves (lungs) assimilated to animal chyle and blood .- The best soil for this digestive process is that in which the three above named earths are suitably blended.

A sandy or gravelly soil is called hungry, because it digests rapidly, and dissipates the food committed to its bosom. Hence, green crops, or frequent manurings, are necessary to continue it healthy and productive. Such soils are defective in clay and calcareous matter. Their texture may therefore be imimproved, and their fertility increased, by the application of clay marl; or, what is the same, by clay and lime separately; though these materials are found most pure and best soil. From eight to one hundred loads has been said that per acre have been applied in one or two dressings; and their beneficial effects have been known to continue thirty years. All the sand soils of Norfolk, England, have been marled (claved) Calcareous matter, combined with sulphuric acid (oil of vitriol) | both young men and maidens tie knots with is usefully applied to soils in the form of gypsum, or Plaster of Paris; as is also condition with most of our sands.

unfriendly to the finer grasses as well as grains. Its texture is too compact to perperature too cold to carry on the digestive lime, or silicious marl, loosen its texture, render it permeable to heat, &c., and powerfully assist to concoct the fond of vegetables.

1.1

on

truth calculated to teach humility, that the animal, the vegetable, and the putrid mass of dung, are found on chemical analysis to be very nearly alike, and that in the natural order of things, they constantly nourish, feed and produce one another.

CURE FOR THE LAZY FEVER-The following amusing extract is taken from an old book on Physic, entitled "The Breviary of Health," by Andrew Boorde, Phisyche Doc toure, an Englishman, anno 1557.

"The 151 chapitre doth show of an evyll fever, the which doth combat young persons named the fever burden (lazy fever.)-Among all the fevers, I had almost forgotten the fever burden with which many younge men, younge women, and maydens and other younge persons bee sore infected now-a-days The cause of infirmitee : This fever doth come naturally, or eis by evyl! or slouthful rothy-caught Thump (the httle pony) mytringing up. If it do come by nature, then self, and rode a matter of six miles without the fever is incurable, for it can never get saddle or bridle. Ten-went to dinner. out of the fleshe that is bred in the bone .---If it come by slouthful brynging up, it may all desirous of walking into the fields-John he helpen by diligent labour. A remedy : There is nothing for the fever burden, as is unquentum baculinum; that is take a stick, down by accidental fire. John Grey proor wand of a yard of lengthe and more, and posed a subscription among the company, let it be as great as a man's fynger, and with and gave no less a sum than tour pounds it anount the back and shoulders well, morn ing and evening, and do this 21 days; and if this fever wyl not be helpen in that tyme, let them be aware of wagginge on the gallows : and whyles they do take theyr medycine, lubberwort in their pottage."

POLICE.

" Hail, wedded love !'

From the number of matrimonial squabbles daily brought before the magistrate for abjudication, it is evident that were a church blended in the substance of marl. The erected for the purpose of unmarrying, the quantity should be proportioned to the na- service must go by steam, or the work would tural deficiency of these materials in the not be done in a century. With truth it

" Marriage is like a rabble rout,

Those who are out wish they were in, and those Who are in wish they were out."

their tongues which they cannot untie with their teeth, and then come fighting, tears. powdered limestone and chalk, both calce- and applications to the magistrate. The rous. I am induced to believe that neither gay vision of the bridegroom soon vanishes, (Before F. Const, Esgr., and several wheat nor sainfoin grass will thrive in a soil and he at length discovers that his wife is destitute of calcareous matter, which is the init a real angel. He finds that the rainbow of happiness cannot exist without a cloud, A stiff, moist clay, is called cold, and is and that his matrimonial sky must be darkened by many a tempest. On the other hand, the blushing bride discovers too late mit the rocts to extend freely, and its tem- that the fair promises of her husband were orly made to be broken, and that his love process sufficiently rapid for the plants soon cools down to zero. Thus the fair the former said that the latter had presented which grow upon its surface. Sand and flower of her happiness is no sooner blown an indictment to him which it was impossi- and others, for certain misdemeanours to be than blasted, and she is like

"A soft silken primrose, fading timelessly,"

Yesterday a pretty young damsel, named | was not an indictable one. Marl may be known by the most ordinary Harrison, lately married, came weeping and Mr. Flood-It is drawn according to the observer. The application of mineral acid, sobbing into the Police office, to seek the rules laid down in Chitty.

fore. Made a poultice for Rachel, and gave laid down, and with the law. Robbin a pens; to get something from the apothecary. Six o'clock .- The buttock of have the opinion of the Court as to the nabeef too much boiled, and beer a little of ture of the offence,-that is one thing; but, the stalest. Mem .- To talk with the cook under all the circumstances, I advise you to about the first fault, and mend the second | seek the assistance of a Learned Gentleman myself, by tapping a fresh barrel directly .-Seven- Went to walk with the lady (my mother) in the court-yard : fed twenty-five men and women; chid Rogers severely for expressing some ill-will at attending us with the broken meat. Eight-went into the paddock behind the house, with my maid Do-Eleven-rose from the table, the company Grey would lift me over every style. Three -poor Farmer Robinson's house burnt with this benevolent intention. Mem .-Never saw him look so comely as at that moment. Four .- Went to prayers. Six .-Fed the hogs and poultry. Seven-Supper on the table : delayed till that hour on account of Farmer Robinson's misfortunes. Nine-The company fast asleep. These late hours very disagreeable."

FODDERING THE WRONG BEAST .- A few days since a strong and active young man drove with great rapidity to a public house in the vicinity of this city. Having many miles to proceed, he left his jaded horse at the door, entered the bar room, took a glass of brandy, then jumped into the vehicle, and drove off. "Ile'd better have given his horse two quarts of oats," said the barkeeper. "The young man had probably forgotten," said a bystander, "That it was the horse and not himself, that performed the labor of travelling." "He has fodder ed the wrong animal," said another.

WESTMINSTER QUARTER SESSIONS.

Justices.)

THE KING'S MINISTERS IMPEACHED.

This was an indictment against Lord Morpeth and others for conspiracy, &c.

The Clerk of the indictments, accompanied by a gentleman, who stated his name to be Flood, appeared before the Court, when half of the King at the prosecution of John ble for him to pass, and hand to the Grand set forth by indictments by said Grand Gury, on the ground that in the form in Jury." which it was drawn, the offence it charged here; he was acting under the directions

"Monday morning-Rose at four o'clock | and influence of the Government. There is and helped Catharine to milk the cows, Ra. a conspiracy against my obtaining justice, chel, (the other darry maid,) having scalded but I must and will get it. This indictment her hand in so bad a manner the night 'e- is drawn in perfect accordance with the rules

> Chairman (interrupting)-If you wish to at the bar.

Mr. Prendergast said he would be happy to render any assistance.

Mr. Flood-Very well.

Mr. Prendergast-But will you be governed or guided by my opinion?

Mr. Flood-No; I will not. I will not be biassed by any man in the country. The indictment is drawn according to law.

Mr. Prendergast proceeded to read the indictment, which, as was stated, charged Lord Viscount Morpeth that he, being his Majesty's Secretary of State for Ireland, did, on the 10th Aug. last, with force and arms, at the House of Commons, in the parish of St. Margaret, in the liberty of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church, &c., then and there wilfully and maliciously instigate abet, and encourage a person, whose name and residence are unknown, to menace and threaten personal violence to John Flood late of Callan, gentleman, &c. The Indictment went on at great length to recapitulate and set forth in various forms the offence charged, and further stated that the violence alluded to was committed on the evening in question. It next went to charge Lords Melbourne, Hatherton, and Duacannon, and Mr Spring Rice, with unlawfully conspiring to aid and abet the said Lord Morpeth, &c. (laughter.) Mr Prenderghast having read through the indictment handed it back to Mr Flood, who quitted the Court for the purpose of again endeavouring to get it before the Grand Jury.

It may be remembered that Mr Flood is the person, who about two Sessions ago, was taken into custody in the House of Commons for throwing papers amongst the Members.

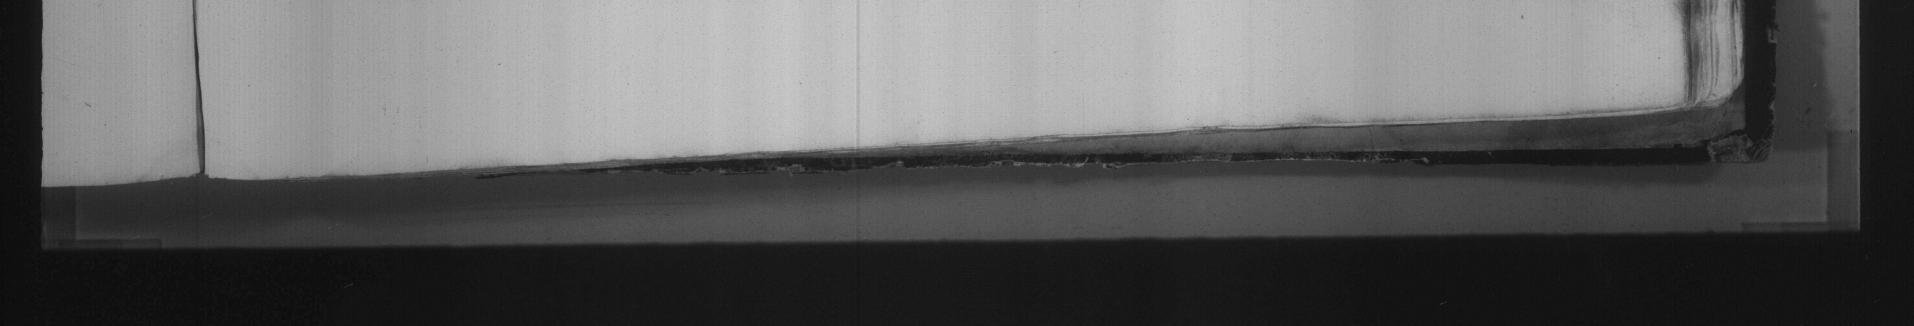

The subjoined is a copy of a letter sent to Mi Lee, the High Constable of Westminster :--

"13, Queen-street, Golden-square, Uct. 12, 1836.

"Sir .-- You will please to notice Constable Timbrell and the door keepers and messengers of the House of Commons to be in attendance before the Grand Jury of Westminster, on to-morrow, the 13th October, and until discharged to give evidence on be-Flood, gentleman, against Lord Morpeth

This letter caused much laughter.

We have been favoured with the perusal of commercial advices from New York, which reached Dublin this day, and which announce that flour had risen to ten dollars per barrel, and wheat in proportion It-was thought that a supply from Europe of not, less 1.200,000 quarters would be required to supply the wants of the American market .--We need not point out the importance of this hopes rested in it by the nation. The peointelligence, nor the effect it must have upon the exchanges and the value of gold .- Dub. note of the 27th ult., and a declaration eniin Evening Mail.

PADDY AND THE BANK .- Dennis O'Flaherty, an Irich hodman, was placed at the har and confronted with Parrick Doyle, one of Dan's finest pisatiry, who had been raping the counthry. The latter, who had assnued the office of prosecutor, was diagant. In attired to a splendid fance diese, consisting of a pair of brognes but much unlike a small cock-boat: here without fort, so that the flesh-colour might be exhibited; a pair of unnigationables in the last stage of dechine, and suspended in the usual vulgar way from the shoulders, but clashed firmly to the waist, by a sugar, where a book of home sustain thereby must be comparatively in manufacture, mines a vis, of south ; a party i considerable." coloured coat, with as many patches as ihere are days in the year, something butween the togs and the modern datamihed cut of the west end, and a tile through which the hair flowed in all its native exuberance, completed this very becoming costume. The prosecutor sine life in " tured the bench that he bud not the sources of the prisoner was the person which in them.

Magas rate- in all you lise them ? Ochl place ver benor's lordship, sure I was going home to her own consthry, and door wid me, conveigled me out of my hard hearned mone

Magistrate- How did he do that? Sure, ver honor, I was telling him of my good luck, and I showed me five savrins, and ses he to me, sur, arrah! now Paddy, and snae thav'nt I got five savrins myself and would'nt it be the best way for you- to give me yours, and I'll send Kitty wid 'em to the savin's back to-morrow. Well, sur, I gev oim my savrins and he counted them over and over agin, and then ses he, now tions of France with Saitzerland, we receive Paddy I'il keep these safe for you; and you shall never spend them at all, boy. Well, Magistrate-What have the pres to do with your sovereigns; they did nt swallow | them I hope?

THE STAR, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30

The Helvetie still persists in its opinion | that the Diet will not consent to give France the required satisfaction. "The Federal Representative Assembly," it says, "now on the point of meeting, will not degrade itself to such a decree, and thus betray the ple expect a firm and dignified reply to the ergetically expressive of the sense of our outraged dignity and of a conviction that our rights have been shamefully violated.

"We have been menaced with a hermetical blockade, the execution of which has even already commenced. Well, carry your threats of a blockade into effect : they create little alarm in the country. We shall not be the first to get tired of it. When you | have broken off all intercourse with us, we then shall see if French trade does not suffer more than ours. We shall have recourse to reprisals, and France will be obliged to do without our products, as we can de without theirs. The injury we shall Luiz de Vasconcellos e Souza,

(EXTRACT OF A PRIVATE LETTER)

BASLE, Oct. 6.

It is hardly possible to give you an idea of the impression which the late note of the brench cabinet has produced upon the public mind of Switzerland All parties, conservatives as well as radicals, have been unanimous in receiving tuis most extraordinary piece of diplomatic insolence with the ntmost indignation Certainly for the last five Dennis there, that comes from the same years, Switzerland has committed a great many political faults, bas been wofully misgoverned by our radicals, but nevertheless she has not deserved such insulting language such outrageous treatment, from any power, and least of all from France, whose government, according to the public avowals of its ministers themselves, created that very state of things in our country, of which the self same government now so bitterly complain, and against which it is waging deadly warfare. Though the note in question announces only a cessation of the diplomatic relaed to-day from at least half-a-dozen of Swiss sur, sure he has two pigs in the cellar wid the whole line of a refrontiers, from Geneva to Del, the intercourse between the two countries was stronged on the 2nd instant, o course by an order of the French Gournment. Up to the present a. Soul the real from Basle to St. Louis is still other, but we understand that on Mindax next the "blocus hermitique" 6 [4] Thiese will falle $1. carried into execution; and this only roles to l Prisoner-Och, sur, I never thought he Franca as feet bet he shut up. Ev n the poor women of Neurloss' a French villag which supplies Basle with vegetables, with be prevented from causic z their cabbage and potatoes to our town. Under these cir. | ward. cumstances, the directory could not help Lut convoking an extraordinary diet which will meet on the 17th instant. Although nothing can vet be predicted as to the measures which will be adopted by this body, it is generally expected that they will not yield to the demands of France, but at the same time call upon Great Britain for a mediation, The council of state of the cauton of my own money turns up agen in the name Aurich have already drawn up instructions of fortune. and Berne is about to follow the example set by Zurich. These two cautous, the most influential ones in Switzerland, will no doubt be imitated by the majority of the your Majesty, as the supreme chief of the nation, this their protest against the illegal decree countersigned by one of your ministers; hoping that your Majesty will make such a use of it, that the Portuguese, as well as the foreign nations, may have means of knowing that the peers of the kingdom neither promote nor approve revolutions, and that honour and an oath are not vain names to them.

Beg the honour of kissing your Majesty's hands, the peers of the kingdom :--Duke of Palmella, President, Francisco Manoel Trigozo, Viscount de Banho. Bartholomeo de Gam oa Liz, Count de Farrobo, Duke of Terceira, Count Villa Real. Francisco Simoens Margiochi, Francisco Luiz de Sonza Barradas. Mangel de Magedo Pereira Continho. Court Sabagal, Count de Sampaio, Sebastiao Xavier Botello. Count Lavradio, Viscount de Laborim. Polycarpo Jose Machado, Count Linhares, Jose Francisco Braamcamp, Baron de Rendriffe, Viscount Sierra de Pillar, of Arganil. Agostinho Jose Freire, Manoe, Gonçalves de Mirandi, Marquis de Sampaio, Viscount Porto Covo de Bandeira, Count de Mello.

Lisbon, September 18.

N.B.-The total number of peers is 41: of these, two have never taken their seats, and many were absent from Lisbon when this protest was signed and presented to the Queen.

SPAIN.

dation of carrying before the presence of solid that there was every reason for believing that he intended permanently to establish himself at St Sebastian and Passages .-I was confirmed in this belief from his care to avoid risking a general action. Desirous of ascertaining how far my suspicions were correct, I caused to be constructed four batteries on the heights of Amezagana, and another on that of Choritopui, commanding the village of Alza; and notwithstatiding the difficulties of the ground, I succeeded in placing in these batteries one piece of 32, three of 18, and one of 6. This morning, at break of day, I ordered the fire to be opened along the whole line against the houses occupied by the enemy, and at the same time against the village of Alza. Two houses were taken by my men. The enemy now employed their whole force-opened their patteries- the action became general and lasted the whole of the day, the firing only cearing at six o'clock in the evening. "E-aas contening himself with acting on the defensive, although provided with an mamen e artillery, confirmed my opinion as to his elumate view. " My brave troops advanced as far as the chaussee of Passages, and completely drove the enemy from their parapets. The enemy's cavalry, although in number 100, made three charges, but were vigorously repulsed, and with loss The artillery of the line, those of the steam-boats and Santa Clara, kent up a horrible fire : but neither the fire, Francisco, Bishop of Coimbra, and Count | nor the immense force of the enemy, considerably superior to ours, damped the ardor of my brave Guipazeonians, who fought for twelve hours without repose, although having passed the previous night under arms. The enemy must now be compelled to acknowledge the superiority of the brave defenders of legitimacy; their loss must be immense, not less than 600 men, hors de combat-mine is twenty killed, and about 100 wonaded.

"The whole of my troops performed their duty admirably, and are worthy of the bounty of his Majesty, but particula ly the second Commandaut General Don Pedro Jose Iturriza; the Brigadier Chief of the Staff, Don Carlos Vargas, who, although wounded on the 27th of last month, still was determined this day to present himself before the eneury; Colone! Don Autonio Arjona; the The government has received a conrier | Commander of the Acidlery, Don Adolfo with news of Villareal having retired, whose | Save; Licutenants Don Miguel Vial, and passing the Euro I announced to you last | Juan Bautisie Lopez: Major Francisco Herright and the day before. This event is moso; and the Lieutenant Colonel Don Masupposed to have taken place in consequence [nuel Ibero, who with his company, dislodged,

No sur, but he ses he's lost the savrius yer honor's lordship, and I think he ought to sell the two pigs and pay me the money. Magistrate-Well, prisoner, what have to say for yourself?

was going to bring me here, to swear agin me, the boy that's from the very same door wid me. Sure, ver honor. I had his money to put into the savin's bank, and I get it to Kitty Baannagan, that's my wife, sur, to take it there, and sure she came home, sur, and said she had lost it.

Magistrate- A very likely thing, sir, that your wife would be so careless as to lose ten pounds.

Prisoner-Why to be sure, sur, lit may be found agen, and I've no dejection, snr, 10 sell my pigs and pay Paddy, and wait till of fortune.

The Magistrate enquired if the complainant was satisfied with that promise, and being answered in the affirmative, the prisoner was dismissed.

(From London Papers, Oct. 7-15.) SWITZERLAND.

OPINIONS OF THE SWISS JOURNALS.

of France, and to place their hope in the they will doubtless receive from Providence.

Our private correspondence from Switzerland represents the people, lately so peaceable, so exasperated in the extreme, and ready to adopt measures of reprival against French trade. The merchants of Geneva, St. Gall, Zurich, &c., mmediately countermanded the extensive orders they had given for the end of the year. Lyons, and the country along the whole frontier begin to feel the effects of the initian created in Saitzerland by the stupid measures notified to the Federal government. Zvan The Genevese, whose moderate opinions are well known; have joined the cadicals in condemn ing the pretensions of the cabinet of the cabinet of the Tuileries. The council of Geneva was unanimous in that respect, and the cantons are determined in making every sacrifice to defend their independence."

What shall be the conduct of the Diet convoked for the 17th instant ? What satisfaction can'it give to France without disho- | in any of the constitutional articles. nauring itself?. On the other hand, if, emf the French Cabiner, what is to happon ?- | spised.

e National.

PORTUGAL.

states.

PROTEST OF THE PEERS OF PORTUGAL.

MADAME,-The peers of the kingdom of The Eidginosse, the Republican, and Portugal, undersigned, could not help read Constitutionel Suisse, exhort their fellow- | ing with great surprise and regret the decree countrymen to resist the imperious demands | signed by your Majesty on the 10th of this month, by which your Majesty acknowledggoodness of their cause, and in the support | es as the public law of the realm, the political constitution published in September, 1822.

> The constitutional charter of this monarchy, granted by a Portuguese Sovereign, the august father of your Majesty, and a first and second time defended by the Portuguese army with feats of the greatest constancy and bravery against military forces by far superior in numbers, though inferior in gallantry, and who had dared to fight against it, could not be revoked or annihilated in a moment of hallucination, by a fraction of the said arm ;; when this said army, accord ing to the constitution now proclaimed by it, and according to the public law of every civilized nation, is essentially obedient, and can never be assembled to deliberate on and carry resolutions.

Madame, by the constitutional charter, part of the national representation belongs to the peers of the kingdom : it also belongs. to them to watch over the keeping of the constitution; and without the approbation of their champer no alteration can be made

These are, indeed, great prerogatives, and boldened by the consciousness of its rights, | important duties, which their honour, the and desirous to conform to the wish of the | sanctity of an oath, and long sufferings supnation. it rejects the ridiculous pretensions ported by them, cannot permit to be de-

It is then, on this, that they lay the foun !

(Private Correspondence of the Herald,

MADRID, OCTORER 2.

of orders from Don Carlos, and not of any like enemp from a part of the line. defeat.

The Partymese Legion of Leon had reclived orders to needpo the pass of Pajares, i a the southern femtiers of Asturias and cattern borders of Leon, under the suppoattion that the Carlist force was moving for-

Gomez is said to have entered the Bastan. to advance towards Andujar, and to intend to return from thence by way of Toledo to threaten the capital from the south-west, whilst Bodil imagines to cover it from the east ; but it is false that the Queen intends to leave Madrid for Badajos, which, though a fortified town, has not a dozen cannon. mounted : and to beg artillery, or even shelter, from the Portuguese frontier fortress of Elvas, which is in high order, is a thing the Castilian pride would hardly submit to. In case of such an extremity, of which there is no danger at present, her Majesty would rather go to Cindad Rodrigo, where 1000 Carlist prisoners are now lodged. Gen. Evariste San Miguel is said to have laid seige to Cantableja, the depot where the Carlists keep their prisoners, but official accounts since received state that they left it for Beceite.

The Que n regent, whom the French 1apers state to be a prisoner in her palace. drives out daily, without any escort. Returning the other evening from the Prado, she met a priest carr ing the railacum, or consecrated host, to a dving sinner. Her-Majesty alighted from her carrige, and gave the use of it to the priest in the calle de Bo la, to transport him the more speedily and respectably on his holy errand, waiting with her lady of honour its return in a neighboring shop of sempstress. But considerable delay occurring, and the constitutional Queen being tired of waiting, she proceeded on foot to the palace, a good distance, followed by a large crowd, delighted at this proof of Chris ina's amiable confidence in the population of Madrid, though teeming with proselyting serieauts, contains no Fieschis or Alibauds.

Senor Aguilar, the Spanish Ambassador to London, has not vet set out on his journey, though he received 11,000 dollars eight days ago for that purpose; but Mendez Vigo has at last gone to Badajos.

AINHOA, OCT. 6.

Late last night I received the following official report of the affair before St. Sebastian on the 1st.

FROM GENERAL GUIBELAIDE TO THE MINISTER OF WAR.

marked that the adventurer Evans seriously the sluice des Isabelles is of the greatest im occupied himself in throwing up works so I portance.

God protect your Excellency.

" BARTOLOME GUIBSLAIDE. " Head-quarters, Hernani, Oct. 1. "To the Minister of War."

On the 3d, at eight o'clock in the morning Don Carlos left Nurvaja and proceeded to Fort Guebara, and after having inspected with great attention the whole of the works, he continued his route to Maretta, where he dised. At the Venta of Arlaban Don Carlos, accompanied by Gen. Villareal, passed on review the division commanded by Gen. Goni. He was received with the greatest enthusiasm by the troops, who, as he passed down the ranks, cried out " Viva el Rey ! "Vive Carlos, V !" The same evening he reached Escorriga, near Montdragon. Here he remained the whole of the 4th, and t was expected at Durango on the 5th.

From the 1st to the 15th of September' 149 privates and one heutenant deserted from the Christinos and joined the ranks of Don Carlos.

A despatch received from General Castelian, dated the 29th, states that General Mina has been given over by his medical attendants. General Serrana has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the troops in Catalonia.

A letter from Maorid of the 1st, gives as positive that Gomez was in the possession of be high road from the capital to Cadizthat his force alone consistes of 8,000 infan try, and 1000 cavalry, and that he had intercepted the Audalusian mail of the 28th and 29th.

It is said that Evans is determined in again getting possession of the heights of Amezagna, lost by him in his disastrous reconnoisance on Fontarabia.

The Belgian papers in the Opposition interest take some notice of the rumoured invasion of their territory. A letter from Ghent says :-- "There is a great movement among the troops in that part of Flanders which is still occupied by the Datch, and from the measures of our enemies, we expect a speedy attack on the sluice called Des Isabelles, the only position on the Scheldt which we have preserved in that country .--A land-owner who resides near the point which seems to be threatened, has just sent an express to the general commanding in that province, to inform him of what is passing in Dutch Flanders. Will this information be regarded? Is it remembered what passed in 1831, on the surprise of the sluice Cropitatendam, in circumstances precisely "EXCELLENT SIR,-For a long time I re- [similar to the present? The possession of

thre

15.

of th

read

the

tot

11(1)

bar

tho

Η.,

fact

as star

101 2

wie

1111 nte

de

 αw

thtes

1 *)

8.(-)

1.12

192 sel

nt i in

Fi

1 ..

111

1 - 11

Ch

and una are.

Ma

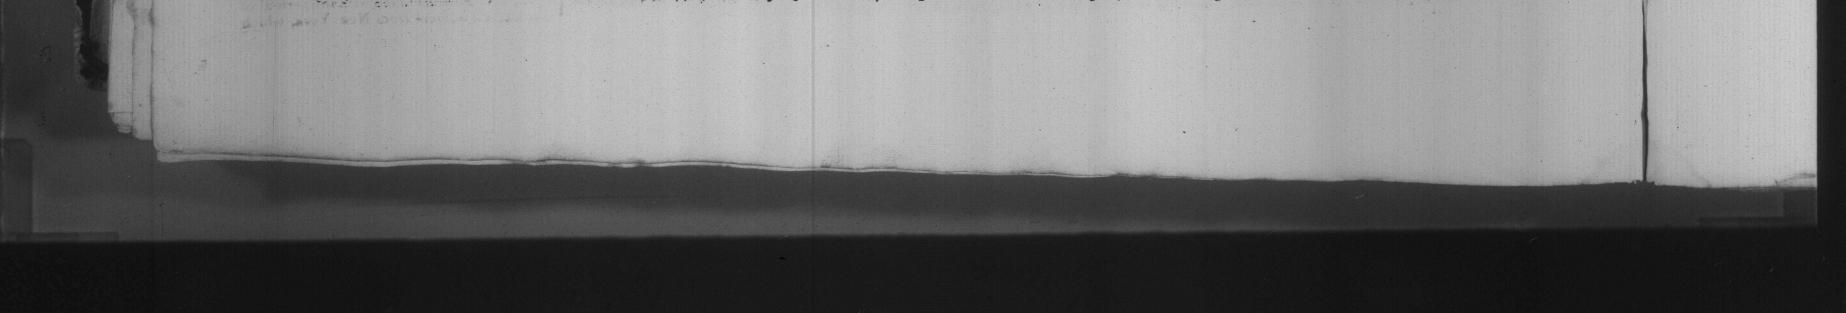

COL

1118

$0

of.

10

EXPEDITION TO THE TAGUS .-- Orders have been received at Woolwich for one Major three Captains, six Lieutenants, 15 Serjeant 15 corporals, 9 drummers, and 200 private of the Royal Marines, to hold themselves i readiness to embark on board a steamer the dock-yard, and to proceed from then to the squadron at Plymouth. This addit on to the number of Marines already en barked will make them amount to about our thousand strong. Major John Wright, K H., who many years gave such general sat: faction to the corps in the situation he her as Assistant Adjutat-General, is, we unde: stand to take the command A detachmen of 200 men of the Royal Marines left Wool wich vesterday morning, to embark for Po tugal. Ammunition, &c., will be immediately set out to the Queen's aid.

eliev-

stab.

es.-

care

rous

were four

and nding

ading

eded

ning.

be

the

the

Two

nemv

ened

neral

iiring

cung

th an on as s the frove

nys

made sed.

line,

ara.

fire,

1151-rdor

for

JAV-

ms.

ac-

de-

be

de bout.

heir

un-

se-

058 staff.

Jed

the

the 11:20

893

10 cted

rks,

e he

Car-

ssed fien.

atest

issed

ey !"

t he

Here

was.

hber'

erted

ks of istel-

Mina

itten-

Inted

Cata-

es as

m of 1Z--- ufan

in-28th

d in is of s ren ini in-

from ment

nders

and

. ...

d Des

cheldt

rv .----

point sent ng in

s Das-

orma-

what sluice

cisely

on of est im

of 32.

THE QUEEN - We feel that we should ! deficient to the duty and lovalty which y owne and most sincerely entertain too are the person and virtue of our Illustrious Fe testant Queen, did we not on this occasion in an especial manner, record our graten: sense of that beneficent kindness which ha prompted her Majesty to identify her Roya name, her interest, and the best wishes o. "er heart, with the success of our protestan. schools. We are not the mere penegvrists of rank and station, even the most elevated of the French has been the unceasing persein this land, for the mere sake of panegyric. | outor of the Press, ever sur ce the Press had Entertaining a becoming share of veneration towards the Queon of England in her elevat- throne; but he only arms public opinion ed station, we vet view pre-eminently the more exalted situation sile fills without os tentation as the "nursing mon "" of our Church in "this our day and generate", and tender to her Majesty accordingly the pape of a free people. Attached to that auciunaffected homage of respect, certain, as we are, that it will be most gratifying to her Majesty when she, learns that her munificent condescension and example has been mainly instrumental in realizing the object so long sought for with regard to the sum necessary for the completion of the school | ancestral institutions for new-fangled foreign of St. John the Baptist, at Toxteth Park .- | schemes of Government, look on this pic-It is not merely the intrinsic value of the lare, and on that .- Morning Herald. present of own work, made by a Queen of England, to this object, although that present alone produced one hundred pounds, FORD. - On Wednesday, the 5th inst., at 4 at it is the happy association of her name o'clock, died, after a severe illness of three Diverpool Standard. bodies of military and police, he sees, or rotation for this office. fancies he sees, in "young France" that invested him with the regal purple, an enemy, requires perpetual vigilance to guard. It is in Bermondsey-street. They are intended a fact no less remarkable than true, that of to support the iron bridge, which we hear is all the Sovereigns of Europe, the "Citizen | on the road from the foundry. The whole King" is the one that is most afraid to trust of the rails from the Deptford station to the his life among the people ! Philip that of William IV. The former, Nevember. suspicious of every subject that approaches him-living in continuel alarm of plots for his destruction, concealing himself in the recesses of his palace, or, when he does go abroad, changing place with the suddenness and surprise of one who would elude some meditated blow; the latter performing the functions of a King with the frankness, the kindliness, and affability of the father and friend of his people-apprehensive of un plots, disturbed by no dread of ambushed enemies, haunted by no apparatious of airdrawn daggers, wanting no guard, except for ornament, requiring no triple row of bayonots to hedge in his sovereighty from the sudden or the premeditated explosions o " patriotie" violence-he can say, with confidence, like his ibustrious predece sir, Ei zabeth, pointing to the asses bed people. " B. hold the guards of the crown of England !" Now William IV. is a hereditary King, and Louis Philip is a Sovereign who has no claim to the ceptre which he wields by birthright, but has been called to the throne by what our Republican philosophers consider a high title-the popular will which destroyed the hereditary Peerage of France. and William IV, is called on by desperate and profistate politicises to destroy the hereditary Peerage of England; but he knowthat Peerage to be not merely an ornament to the fabric of the Constitution-not merely a bulwark to the throne, but a protection to the people themselves, who, deprived of that protection, would soon, as in the gloomy days of the long Parliament, groan under the iren tyranny of rapacious and blood-thirst democrats, from whose grinding persecution they would be glad to escape, as they were formerly, to the shelter of a military despotism, relieved by somewhat of the lustre of loftier intellect and more elevated ambition. The sneers of the "philosophers" whe deal out their trite and comn on-place sar assembly some remarkable information as to John Stuart, Campbell, Portugal. casins against hegeditary Kings and heredi. I the affair of Conseil, and some voted for Obarlotte, Furneaux, Falmouth: ...

THE STAR, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30.

them.

vrv legislators cannot apply to Louis Philip | energetic measures against the French Go. d his Chamber of Peers-the one being " elected Monarch, the other having only a "a interest in their titles and honors. Yet be one fears that every collection of the peole conceals the lair of the regicide, preparto make his tiger spring, and the other e the pliant instruments of any tyrant proet of the Ministers of the Crown from the ockery of judicial proceedings by the aboinable proces monstre of the Docurinaire abinet to the making of Fueschi laws to the tinguish those liberties that survived the dinances of Charles X.

The recent visit of the King of the French Complegue is stated in some of the rench Papers to have been undertaken for he purpose of demonstrating that the King ned show himself in public, and in the esence of a large portion of the army .--Vaat a position must a Citizen King be in make such an externiegt recessary !-ave, then, these exchaptes of the guilloude , thich Louis Pailip exerticed & insupe dile an aversion when h first came to the brone, her wholly without effect or, raer, have they not multiplied to his alarmd vision, the images of terror which they were intended to suppress ? Our gracious vereign, William IV., does not brast of his cleaners, but he practises it The King been instrumental in raising buy to the ith stronger will and greater power to crehe those vexations of which his sensitive anity is so apprehensive. William IV. fears not the fullest expression of the opinient and inestimable Constitution which is the palladium of the people's rights and hcerties, he doubts not the love and gratitude of an enlightened nation. Let the pseudoreformers, and those who put thich in them -who would have us exchange our own

DEATH OF THE VICE CHANCELLOR OF OX-

vernment The MONITEUR's news of the defeat of the Carlist brigade of Ortafa, in Catalonia, is confirmed ; that General has been killed, as well as his son and about 100 men. Gen. Maroto, who had sought a refuge in the French territory, was apprehendled at Lyna on the night of the 5th, and conducted, with the Intendente, Labadero, two colonels, three lieut -colonels, a captain and nine men, who accompanied him to Mount-Louis. where the French authorities, imprisoned

THE STAR.

WEDNESDAY, November 30, 1836

and a series of the second By the arrival of the Brig CORNHILL from LE st Carbonear, we have been favoured with Lawrpool dates of the 15th ult. By the arrival of the INTREPID last night from Liverpool, we have kindly favoured with papers 3 days later, from which we have taken copious extracts.

SHIP NEWS.

Custom-House, Port of Harbor Grace. ENTERED.

Nov. 25 -Brig Louisa & Frederick, Stevenson, Hampling, 100 bls. pork, 220 firkins batter, 400 bls. flour, 620 bags bread, 10 bls peas, 10 bls. oatmeal, 20 westphalia, hams, I cask vinegar, 66 coils cordage.

CLEARED. Nov. 28 .- Brig Caroline, Coombs, Spain or Portugal, 2500 qtls. fish.

Custom-House, Port of Carbonear.

ENTERED Nov. 19 -- Brig Mary, Martin, Hamburg & St. John's, 420 bags bread, 92 bls. flour, 82 bls. pork, 150 fickins Lutter, 20 keys peas, 20 sacks oats, 1 bale cansas, 5 coils cordage, 4 bls. pitch, 4 bls.

On Sale

FOR SALE

BY THE SUBSCRIBERS, THE CARTO OF

The Brig LANA & Friderick, Coptain STEVENSON, FROM HANDLES,

100 Barrels Prime PORK 220 Fickins BUTTER 400 Barrels FLOUR 620 Bags BREAD

10 Barrels PEAS

10 Barrels OATMEAL 20 Westphalta HAMS 1 Cask VINEGAR

66 Coils CORDAGE

THOS. RIDLEY & Co. Harbor Grace. Nov. 30, 1835.

THOMAS RIDLEY & Co ARE LANDING Ex Brig Maria, from Liverpool,

AND WILL SELL LOW FOR CASH OR PRODUCE,

THEIR FALL SUPPLY OF

MANUFACTURED GOODS

(Extensive and well assorted to suit the Season, 1

With a large stock of IRON MONGARY Bar and Bolt Iron, Steel Cabin Stoves, Sneet Copper Sheet Lead, Nails, Grind Stones

Linseed Oil, Pitch and Tar 50 Barieis Prime Pork Loaf Sugar, Bottled London Porter

Mould and Dept Canales, Pepper 80 Tons best Household Coals, &c. &c.

ALSO ON SALE.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE ON ENGLAND.

Harbour Grace.

G. W. GILL

and her influence with that object to which I weeks, the Rev. George Rowley, D. D., we attach west and nierited importance .- Master of the University College, and Vice-Chancellor of this University. He was elected Head of this College in 1821, and The ambition that led Louis Philip to co- took the degree of D. D. June 15, in the vet the "throne of the barricades," does same year. Was appointed Vice-Chancellor not appear to be productive to him of much just before Michaelmas term, 1822, and as happiness. If he had not more enjoyment the office is usually held for four years, that of private life than a crown seems to bring | period would have expired at the end of the to his troubled spirit, his domestic gcds present week. With the exception of Dr. must, indeed, have been of malignant as- Richards, who died in 1803, there has not pect. Afraid to show himself to the people, occurred a death of a Vice-Chancellor here of whom he used to be represented as the for upwards of 50 years. Dr. Gilbert, Prinidol, except under the protection of strong cipal of Brazennos College, stands next in

LONDON AND GREENWICH RAILWAY against whose machinations for his ruin it | Twelve massy iron columns are now erected London end are laid, and every preparation What a contrast is the position of Louis is making for the grand opening on the 1st

> Mr. O'Connell tells the people of Kilkenny that if they differ from him he is ready to resign his seat; inferring, that "if they condemn him he must be in the wrong."-What humbug is this! Why Mr. O'Connell is condemned by hundreds of constituencies, as well informed, and as fit to judge of his conduct as the people of Kilkenny, and still he thinks himself right.

We understand the Conservatives of West Kent have it in contemplation to give a din- Schr. Harriet Elizabeth, Cooper, Cape Brener to So William Geary, Bud. 1 is expected to take place at Maidstone, in the American Schr. Neptune, Raymond, Boston, magnificent market term, which has been recently built by subscripte a, and which is Dive, Roche, Liverpool, coal. capable as we are informed, of accommon 19 -Brig Maria Louisa, Henley, Hamburg dating a thousand persons.

The Gazette & . Jugsbourg contains the following letter from Rowe, dated Sept. 15, Schr Margaret, Wainright, Trinidad and 1836 :--

The latest accounts from Aucona state 23 .- Brig Sir J. T. Duckworth, Spencer, that the cholera has considerably subsided in that town, and as the malady has not ex- Schr. Dart, Sanders, P. E. Island, potatoes, tended itself to the neighbouring country, we hope that it will soon cease its ravages al- Catherine Ann, M'Donald, P. E. Island, ogether. The conduct shown by the French o that town was most praiseworthy. Several of the troops of the garrison offered to attend the sick : and although several of them were attacked by the complaint, it did | Lady Turner, George, Cadiz, salt. not at all dissuade their comrades from conimming their laudable office.

INTELLIGENCE RECEIVED BY EX TRAORDINARY EXPRESS.

From Swi zerland we learn that the grand council of Berne has, after a debate of eleven | Pillnead, ----, Waterford & Cork. bours, and by a majority of 183 to 80, in- 21.-Albion, Forest, Novascotia. structed the deputies to the extraordinary Eliza, Hally, Boston. diet to vote for such conciliatory measures | Margaret, Wanright, West Indies. is may put an end to the discussion with Cordelia, Jones, Boston. France. Several of the members gave the 22 .- President, Odell, Novascotia.

tar. I case glassware

23 -- Brig Cornhill, Meadus, Poole, 23 bales woollens, 38 packages tanned leather. 11 casks tinware, 12 grinding stones, 20 boxes candles, 87 coils cordage, 100 bdls. rushes, 1 roll sheet lead. 36 bdls. oakum, 70 kegs gunpowder, 50 bdls. hoops, 65 cheese, and sundries.

Brig Eggardon Castle, Warland, Lisbon, 190 tons salt, 4 gr.-casks wine, 1 box raisins, 3 boxes oranges, 7 doz. mats. 24.-Brig Triumvirate, Green, Liverpool, 13 casks hardware, 20 boxes currants.

79 bags nails, 10 bags pepper, 1 cask olive oil, 1 hhd. brandy, 1 hhd. geneva. 4 bags coffee, 31 chests tea, 62 bls. tar. 1 hhd. loaf sugar, 150 tons coal, 39 packages painters' colors, 2 bls. raisins, 47 bls. pitch. 40 kegs gunpowder, 3 casks leatherware, 122 boxes soap, 7 crates earthenware, 4 hampers cheese, 25 boxes candles, 1 ind. fine salt, 1 bal. steel, 8 tons wrot. & cast iron, and sundries.

Schooner Agenoria, Hanrahan, Sydney, 65 tons coal.

Custom-House, Port of St. John's. ENTERED. Nov. 16 - Brig Dirk, Hattarick, Salmon,

P. E Island, oats, potatoes 17 - Schr. Marv, Auderson, P. E. Island, potatnes. 18 - Brig Enphemia, Cambeli, Copenhagen, bread, pork.

Ann Johnston, Corbin, Lisbon, salt. ion, coal pitch, tar. via Harimr Grace, bread, butter. 21.-Gull, Lamzed, Oporto, salt.

Nimrod, Barron, Viana, salt. Bermuda.

Grenada, rum. cats.

potatoes. Brilliant, Young, Bermuda, rum. Brig Avalon, Ritchie, Liverpool, coal, salt, gunpowder. LOADING.

Nov. 16 - Funchal, Picken. Demerara. 17 .- Salima, Hayes, West Indies. Phœnix, Mortinier, England. 19 .- Blandford, Hutchings, Cork. Dingwell, Graham, Portugal.

HAS JUST RECEIVED, Per Lark from Liverpool, PART OF HIS FALL SUPPLY OF MANCHESTER GOODS.

Which having been relected by hunself, he recomends as being of the best quality. Carbonear.

TO BE SOLD OR LET. SEVENTEEN YEARS UNEXPIRED LEASEHOLD.

Of thuse desirable MERCANTILE PREMISES, situate at CARBONEAR, and lately in the occupation of MR. WILLIAM BENNETT, consisting of a DWELLING HOUSE, SHOP. COUNT-ING HOUSE, Four STORES, a commodious WHARF, and Two OIL VATS sufficient to contain about 8000 Seals.

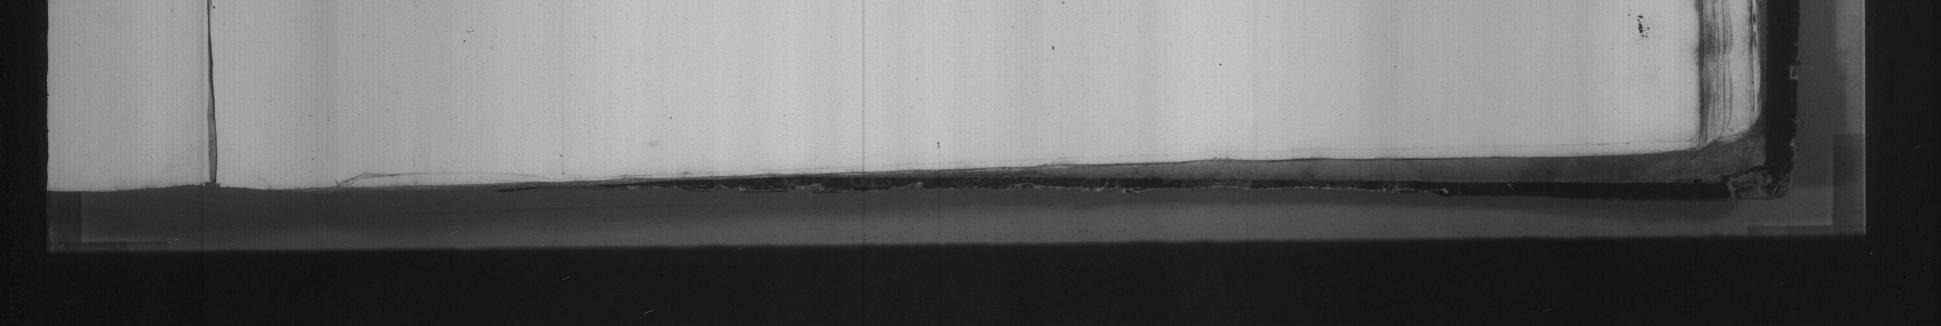

For particulars, apply to BULLEY, JOB &Co. John's, Jane 28, 1836.

No'ices

T IST OF LETTERS REMAINING IN THE POST OFFICE, ST. JOHN'S Which mill not be forwarded untill the POSTAGE is paid. HARBOR GRACE. Thomas Foley-care Patrick Morris, Esq , St John's. John Cartey-care Thos. Foley, Harbour Grace. From John Jewel, seaman on board H.M.S. Talevara, To James Jewell at Mr Soper's Harbour Grace. Mr Joseph Woods. Thomas Murphy-care of Wm. Bailie. Thos Hyde, Bay-de-Verds-care of C. F. Bennett, St. John's. Patrick Strapp, Harbour Main-care Pat. Welsh, St. John's. Thos. O'Hara. Miss Ann Maria Ford, Cubits. CARBONBAR W. Bennett, junr.,-care Gosse, Pack, and Fryer. Thos. Lock-care John White, South eide. Wm. Bemister, merchant. Joseph Peters, a paper. S. SOLOMAN P. M. St. John's, Nov. 23, 1836. Will not be accountable for any DEBTS contracted by the crew of the Brig COLUMBIA under my command. ROBERT BINCE.

Harbor Grace, November 16, 2836.

POETRY

GERMAN I PIGRAMS.

The Germans possess a great number and variety of short epigrammatic composit. ons, from which an interesting Authology might be wreathed.

Is it a wonder-with his pelf, That Ton: his friends remember not? For friends are easily forgot By him who can forget himself. Wechkerlin.

THE CHANGED LAIS. O Venus ! whelm'd in sorrow o'er. My broken glass 1 bring to thee; For what I was it shows no more, And what I am I dare not see.

Wechkerlin. EPITAPH. Here lies, thank God, a woman who Quarrell'd and storm'd her whole life through; Tread gently o'er her mouldering fort, Or else you'll rouse another storm.

Wechkerlin.

Who noble is may hold in scorn The man who is but noble born.-Zeiler.

TO A SCOUNDREL. Witness against thee !- wheresoe er thou goest Thou bearest thy accuser, as thou knowest. Zeiler.

PRUDENCE.

Seamen on the surge who ride Court the wind and court the tide, Force alone no victory brings ;-They who aim at noblest things, Should aspire to wisdom's light; Wisdom's mightier far than might.

Zinkgreff. HONOURABLE SERVICE. If one have served thee, tell the deed to many; Has thou served many, tell it not to any.

And his first sleep became his last repose. Besser.

COUNSEL.

Friend ! do not crouch to those above. Friend! do not tread on those below : Love those-they're worthy love, Love these-and thou wilt make them so. Wernicke.

Ere yet her child has drawn its earliest breath. A mother's love begins-it glows till death : Lives before life-dies not with death-but seems

The very substance of immortal dreams. Wernicke.

Bliss is like woman-both alike we see, Immutable in mutability.-Wernicke.

EPITAPH.

What thou art reading o'er my bones, I've often read on other stones; And others soon shall read of thee, What thou art reading now of me.-Fleming

FLOWERS OF RHETORIC.

The following patriotic speech was delivered on the frontier, at a meeting called for the purpose of taking into consideration the expediency of getting up an expedition against the hostile Indians.

Friends and Feller Citizen Sodgers. We are met here for the purpose of excussing the subject of the hospitalities lately convicted against onr peaceful and blooming frontiers. by the condacious red skins. 1 say we are met here to instigate whether we will sit still in our shantees, and see the spoiler whet his deadly and bloody and murderous knife against the hearts of our friends and feller squatters, them are fearless spirits that are gor e forth with a bold heart and a strong arm, to dig ditches and drain the swamps of the West ! and whom we look upon imphatically and tetotally as the pianoes of a new world! I say, whether we will sit in our shantees, and see their corn fields ravished, their wives inviolated before their very eyes, and their smiling prattling infants used up in the most barberacious manner, or whe-With a cold damp floor and a mouldering ther we will march at once upon this second champaigne, and by our timely valerosity, save them from a state of total defunction, and at the same time extinguishing ourselves in etarnel fame! Ah! my feller citizen sodgers ! I fully propriate the symptomizeing' feelings of your hearts. I need but remind you of your duties toward your suffering and distressful and conflicted brethren ! Their woes cry aloud for address. and are heard, perhaps, even now, in the intricacy of our firesides and chimbly corners ! Behold they lay down at night with a blooming cheek and a ruby lip. And oh ! my feller sodgers, must I revulge the cruel, the dreadful, the fatal catastrophe ? they woke up ere morning in death ! but I cannot dwell upon this horrible, this appalling, this dreadful subject, feller citizen sodgers, whose horrors runs firnenst the very grain, as I may say, without, I say without (stranger will you hand me a gourd of water with a leetle sprinkle of the crittur in it) without feeling indisquinchible thirst for (a leetle more of the crittur if you please, stranger, jist a sprinkle) that wengeance which all the Gods of war Wulcan and Plato, and Wesuvius, claim as their high presogatives, but which I would shower, feller citizen sodgers, which I would shower in beans of wrath upon them | than wrong, because we have a right ere inlegal exconstitutional, and inci- to resent injuries, but it is ridiculous vilized savages, which sculks among to be angry at a jest. our bottoms by day and by night, sallies forth to kill and murder our familics and to rob our potatoe patch- ly wounding a stranger with an axe, es! Yes, gentlemen and feller alleging as a reason, that he didn't sodgers ! my soul rises spontenati- know but the stranger was a robber. Dazzled and charm'd, he called that soman ously, as I contaminate the glorious He didn't know adds Prentice, so he the Office of this Paper. event that must extinguish our names | AXED him.

time shall be no more! Our success in this expedition is sartin-it is a mere sarcumstance. The pianos will be aroused, and we will all light on um and tetotally obflisticate them off the face of the yearth ! I know you are all the raal grit. 1 myself boat, and will lead you where a good chunk of a fight is sartin to be ht advance we will away to the field of glory--the field of garnish and of blood ! Yes, my friends and feller sodgers, we'll meet the enemy in their own diggings, and the way we'll use um up 'll be a sin to Crocket.

MARRYING EXTRAORDINARY. Loud and vehement have often been the vituperations heaped upon the fair sex for changeableness and ficleness; however unjust such charges in the abstract may be, we regret that an unprecedented instance of female frailty has occurred this week in the immediate vicinity of Sheffield .---About twelvemonths ago, the landlord of a public house just outsi le of the town was committed to the dust, and his all but inconsolable widow behaved with becoming grief, and attired herself in "weeds" for the proper time. Her age, we understand, may be about forty ; well, on

Notices

Conception Bay Packets

St John's and Harbor Grace Packet

THE EXPRESS Packet being now completed, having undergone such alterations and improvements in her accom modations, and otherwise, as the safety, com am particularly a caution, a raal snag fort and convenience of Passengers can pos subly require or experience suggest, a careful and experienced Master having also been aginst, I will flank you in a solemn Trips across the BAY, leaving Harbour engaged, will forthwith resume her usual column, and receding by a retrogade Grace on MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, and FRIDAY Mornings at 9 o'Clock, and Portugal Cove on the following days.

FARES.

Ordinary Passengers7s. 6d. Servants & Children5s. Single Letters 6d. Double Do..... 18. and Packages in proportion.

All Letters and Packages will be carefuly attended to; but no accounts can be kept for Postages or Passages, nor will the Proprietors be responsible for any Specie or other Monies sent by this conveyance.

> ANDREW DRYSDALE. Agent, HARBOUR GRACE PERCHARD & ROAG, Agents, ST. JOHN'S. Harbour Grace, May 4, 1835.

NORA CREINA Packet-Boat between Carbonear and AMES DOYLE in returning his best a) thanks to the Public for the patronage and support he has uniformly received, begs to solicit a continuance of the same fa-

The Mara CREINA will, until further noice, start from Carboncar on the morning of Mexnay. WEDRESDAY and FRIDAY, posi-Tuesday morning, she consented to myelv at 9 o'creek; and the Packet Man will leave St. John's on the Mornings of TUESDAY, THURSDAY, and SATURDAY, at 9 o'clock in order that the Boat may sail from in the hearts of our countrymen, till

Opitz. EPITAPH ON A MISER. Here lies old father Gripe, who never cried, " Jam satis,' 'Tould wake him did he know you read his tomb-stone gratis. Opitz.

I never dine at home, said Harry Skinner; True ! when you dine not out, you get no dinner.

Opitz.

Better to sit in Freedom's hall, wall. Than to bend the neck, and to bow the knee, In the proudest place of slavery. Olearius.

When o'er thee all the crowded storms of woe Roll darkling-mourn not ! heaven hath ordered so That Life's swift stream through dreary chores should flow.

Olearius. One Arab's steed's worth more than all

An over crowded donkey stall.

O lovely May ! thou art a kiss From heaven to earth, of nuptial bliss ; A kiss that hails a blushing bride, Who soon shall feel a mother's pride. Logan.

In praise of truth and honesty, Men's busy tongues are never still, 'Tis well-for both are fled from earth, De mortuis nisi bonum nil-Logan.

Thou addest daily to thy store thy gains, Will a gold fleece give a sheep more brains? Paullin.

APPEARANCE.

Appearance may deceive thee-understand A pure white glove may hide a filthy hand. G. Gryphius.

The world is but an opera show. We come, look round, and then we go. C. Gryphius.

Tis hard indeed to make a pother, That Eve poct Adam overthrew, For what he did to please the mother, We daily for the daughters do.-Besser

ADAM'S SLEEP.

He laid him down and slept-and from his side A woman in her magic beauty rose, her deceased husband's, who is 18 years of age, and "they twain," the Cove at 12 o'clock on each of those were accordingly made "one flesh." | days. Strange, however, to relate, the lady somehow or other, became dissatisfied with her choice, and another swain on the following day found favour in her eyes. They spent the whyle of the night in conversation by the fire side, to the no small discomfiture of the youthful bridegroom, and suffice it to say, they were married by license at Rotherham on the Thursday morning, and returned to the public house on the same day. Considerable altercation as might be expected, ensued, in become the wife of an apprentice of body and the contents of the house, and the dispute ended in the younger of the two being left in possession of the tap. What may be the ultimate adjudication of this nice affair, we pretend not to predict. WOMAN AND WEDLOCK .--- The longer a woman remains single, the more apprehensive she will be of entering into the state of wedlock. At seventeen or eighteen, a girl will plunge into it oftener without fear or wit; and at twenty she will begin to think ; at twenty-four, weigh and discriminate; at twenty-eight, will he afraid of ventoring ; at thirty will turn about and look down the hill she ascended, and sometimes repent that she has attained that summit,

There is no virtue that adds so nobeauty, as that which exhibits itself in watching the tranquility of an aged parent .--- There are no tears that give June 4, 1836. so noble a lustre to the cheek of innocence, as the tears of filial sorrow

Railery is more insupportable

Prentice, says a Mr Fentley has been indicted in Alabama for severe-

TERMS.

idies & Gentlemen				73.	6d
her Persons,	. from	58.	to	3	6d
ngle Letters					•••••••
ouble do.				1	0
nd PACKAGES	in proport	ion.

N.B.-JAMES DOYLE will hold himself accountale for all LETTERS and PACKAGES given him.

Carboner, June, 1836.

THE ST. PATBLOR

EDMOND PHELAN, begs most repsectfully to acquaint the Public, that the has purchased a new and commodious Boat which at a considerble expence, he has fitwhich both parties disputed the right ted out, to ply between CARONEAR of the other to the possession of the and PORTUGAL COVE, as a PACKET-BOAT; having two Cabins, (part of the after cabin adapted for Ladies, with two sleeping berths separated from the rest). The forecabin is conveniently fitted up for Gentlemen with sleeping-berths, which will he trusts give every satisfaction. He now begs to solicit the patronage of this respec. sable community; and he assures them it shall be his utmost endeavour to give them svery gratification possible.

The St. PATRICK will leave CARBONEAR for the Cove, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at 9 o'Clock in the Mornings and the Cove at 12 o'Clock, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, the Packet-Man leaving ST. JOHN'S at 8 o'lock on those-Mornings. TERMS.

After Cabin Passengers 7s. 6d. Fore ditto, ditto, 5s. Letters, Single Double, Do. 18. Parcels in proportion to their size or veight.

The owner will not be accountable for ny Specie.

N.B.-Letters for SI. John's, &c., &c. received at his House in Carbonear, and in ble a charm to the finest traits of St John's for Carbonear, &c. at Mr Patrictk Kieltv's (Newfoundland Tavern) and at Mr John Cruet's.

Carbonear,

TO BE LET

On a Building Lease, for a Term of Years.

PIECE of GROUND, situated on the North side of the Street, bounded on the EAST by the House of the late Captain STARB, and on the est by the Subscriber's.

> MARY TAYLOR. Widow

Carbonear, Feb. 9, 1836.

LANKS of various kinds for Sale at Harbor Grace.

