A VISIT TO HILLSBORO.

Our visit to Albert county and to the N. B. Eastern Association was of a very enjoyable character. Hillsboro and Starry, which form a continuous village, are situated on the western side of the Petticoat, some fifteen to seventeen miles below Moncton.

The homes of Hillsboro present many evidences of thrift, comfort and taste. There is evidently little poverty among the people, and as a class they appear to be more than ordinarily intelligent and well-informed.

We reached Hillsboro a day or two before the assembling of the association, and were most hospitably entertained at the pleasant home of Pastor Camp. Bro. Camp has grown in many respects since we knew him as a fellow-student at Newton, but he has not lost any of his geniality or regard for old acquaintances. Though among the younger men in age, he is now the senior pastor in Albert county and in the association.

BAPTISTS AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

In the course of some remarks in a recent issue concerning public school and Normal school work in Nova Scotia, we intimated that in New Brunswick, as in the sister province, Baptists have been honorably connected with the work.

The excellent sermon which appears on our second page this week was preached by Rev. W. H. Robinson before the N. S. Western Association. Bro. Robinson has been out of health for a time, and is at present without a regular charge, but as soon as he is able to resume pastoral duties some church, we are sure, will be wanting his services.

Minor Matters in Convention.

When we meet in Convention our time, thought and energy are of course given almost wholly to the many questions connected with our great denominational enterprises.

When I had the honor to occupy the position of president of the Convention, (in 1888-9), it was my intention, previous to the opening of the meeting in Fredericton, to waive the prescriptive right of the chair to name the committee, and call upon the body to appoint them, thus introducing, as I hoped, a preferable practice.

Notes.

"Our institutions ought no more to need to ask for funds for their working than our children ought to ask us for food and clothing." - Rev. F. Edwards, in Missionary Review.

Two thoughts are presented here that have a natural relation to each other and are closely related to denominational work. Our churches are bound together in an organization called into existence to promote certain objects which are believed to be vitally connected with the very existence of a church.

The people quickly recognize merit, and this is the reason the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are continually increasing. Try it.

solemn council to deliberate on these great matters and define the right course of action. We believe that the Spirit directs the servants of Christ, if they seek to be guided by Him.

Grande Ligne Mission.

As we look back for two years and see what has been accomplished on this one of the most difficult mission grounds, we have abundant reason to be devoutly thankful for the past as well as to be very hopeful regarding the future.

I regret to say that our finances at the present moment are of a discouraging state. About $2,500 will be needed to pay all our indebtedness up to the 1st October, or the close of our present year.

Below is a list of all the subscriptions received from the Maritime Provinces this year. Table with columns for date, church name, and amount.

A few small amounts have also been received as a special offering for the Maskinonge church. A. A. AYER.

Well, at Chicacoole a number of these Mahometans are visiting the mission house enquiring about Jesus Christ. They seem really to be in earnest.

Sights and Sounds in India.

For Boys and Girls in Canada.

Dear Girls and Boys.—Think of sending seven miles for a drink of water! Here is a man with a stout Indian bow balanced on his shoulder, but there are no arrows to be seen.

Seven miles to the north-north-east in the village of which I wrote you in my last letter—Polepilly. In that village is the weather-beaten mansion in which a royal family used to dwell, descended from the petty kings of old.

I cannot tell you much about the tour yet, except that Miss Gray has written to Mrs. Morse how the people crowd around the house to see who she is, and why she has come, while some ask to hear the gospel.

This village seems to be a place that invites special attention just now. Our hearts are trembling with hope.

all such agitations are encouraging. An old heathen temple will crumble, tremble and totter in many places before the whole rain falls.

Regina, N. W. T.

CHARGE IN THE PASTORATE. The pastor resigned April 1st to take effect July 1st. His object in so doing is to spend three months in evangelistic work among the churches, and then (D. V.) to proceed to McMaster University in the fall to enter upon a further course of study.

A REVIEW.

Since I began labors here two years ago, lots have been secured and paid for, a neat house of worship has been built, a church organized, into which have been received twenty-five by baptism, twenty by experience, and seventeen by letter—total, sixty-two; present membership, fifty-four. Besides the regular work performed in the town, four out-stations have been opened up in as many different directions, from five to twenty-five miles from town.

The trials and triumphs of the Regina mission have been many, but God has been presiding over all, and through His help and that of friends in the east, and hard work here, it has been established. It now remains for the members of the church to be loyal to Jesus Christ and move forward.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

[All names of churches, ministers, and congregations contributing to the fund.]

SALUBURY, N. B.—Last month we received seven members into the church at Allison—three by letter and four by baptism. The congregations are good all over the field, and some are inquiring the way. Brethren, pray for us.

NORTON, N. B.—The Lord is greatly blessing us on this field. Sabbath, July 28, four candidates were baptized in the presence of a large congregation and received the hand of fellowship at the close of the morning service.

LINDEN.—We have witnessed the power of truth in leading some to confess Christ as their personal Saviour. Last Sabbath (23rd) I baptized at North Bay, Mrs. Anthony Boyce and Miss Jessie Boyce. This is new ground for Baptists, but is worked by Linden church.

NEW GERMANY.—On Sunday afternoon, July 23, we baptized at Chesley's Corner, Riverside, in the presence of a large crowd of witnesses, the following persons: Mrs. J. E. McLellan, Mrs. John Jefferson, Jr., Twining Taylor, Jr., Zilpha Conrad, Ernie DeLong. Fourteen in all have been baptized at this section of the church since April.

ALBERT ST., WOODSTOCK.—Some time ago the church received word from Bro. Chute that Bro. A. F. Baker would come to this church for three months, and if things at the end of that time were satisfactory would accept a call.

CAPE TORMENTINE.—I have about completed a year of labor with this church, and as a whole it has been very successful one.

ORDINATION.—A meeting to consider the advisability of setting apart to the work of the gospel, minister Ben. J. B. Champion, was called to order by pointing Rev. J. A. Gordon, chairman, and Rev. N. A. MacNeill secretary.

The churches of Halifax continue to show spiritual life. At the Tabernacle eight or ten young people quite lately rose for prayer. Mr. Chute baptized one last Sunday evening.

PASTORAL. Pastor A. J. Kempton, of Carleton, is having a short vacation, during which he expects to visit Chicago and the World's Fair.

Rev. G. O. Gates, president of the Maritime Christian Endeavor Union, will be one of the speakers at the convention in Halifax this week.

We are pleased to learn that the latest reports from Rev. J. C. Deane are most favorable as to his health. He is expected home from Ontario this week.

Rev. A. B. McDonald, we regret to learn, suffered quite serious injury a few weeks ago by being thrown from his carriage. We are pleased to learn that he is able to be out again.

Rev. M. Gross and S. H. Cornwall of Surrey, Albert Co., were in St. John last week in attendance upon the annual session of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

Bro. A. T. Kempton has supplied the pulpit of Main Street most acceptably while the church was waiting the coming of its new pastor, and has had the happiness of seeing several young people come into the church under his ministry.

I. E. Bill, Jr., son of Rev. I. E. Bill, of Liverpool, N. S., and grandson of the late Rev. Dr. Bill, preached for Pastor Kempton at the Carleton church on Sunday morning. Mr. Bill is said to possess excellent ability as a speaker.

As previously noted, Rev. H. N. Barry finds his health so restored as to admit of his entering again upon pastoral duties. He has accepted the call of the church at Chester and is just entering upon his labors there.

Rev. G. M. W. Carey and Rev. J. A. Gordon are expected to enter upon their work here in connection with the pastorate of the Brussels Street and Main Street churches, respectively, on Sunday next.

It will be seen by reference to our Denominational News column that Rev. W. W. Weeks, of Brookville, Ont., has accepted the call of the Moncton church. Bro. Weeks is by birth a Maritime man.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Maritime Baptist Publishing Company, Ltd., will be held in St. Martins on Saturday, August 19, 1893.

MARTHA.

"It was such a pretty wedding!" It was Mrs. Jackson who said it first...

From the very beginning Martha had determined that her table should always be spotless and well served.

"Oh, papa, papa!" shrieked two young boys, as Jack came home a few nights after Aunt Mary's arrival...

"Yes, truly," added Beasy. "You'll see it will just look as good as ever. But do let us play, so Maggie can get the house all nice for mamma."

"It will be months before she will be herself again," said the doctor, "and she must have a nurse to attend to her."

"Oh, papa, papa!" shrieked two young boys, as Jack came home a few nights after Aunt Mary's arrival...

"We're having just a beautiful time," said Beasy, holding up a dirt-piece carefully shaped on a broken plate.

"Now, boys, you mustn't mess up the yard by soiling Jack's shoes as he goes to the yard who sat contentedly whittling with sticks and chips strewn around."

to think of the flesh and blood and soul folks pay out for fripperies, tucks and frills and fine things, that look fine and take so much time to do, but don't last...

"Why, my mamma always dusts the parlor every day, and lots of other rooms besides," expostulated Beasy...

"How shall we ever thank you for all you have done for us?" said Martha, affectionately, as they sat chatting.

"I dare say you do," "The Careful Mother," "The Intelligent Housewife," and so on, gets a deal of advice lately," said Aunt Mary, dryly.

"It's all truth, I tell you, and you'll find it out if you think awhile."

"I have thought for many hours in this long illness. I see some of my mistakes, and for the rest my life I shall try to be less of a Martha troubled with much serving, and pattern myself after Mary—Aunt Mary—for the sake of Jack and our children."

"Danger." With the present enlargement of woman's activities is much that is admirable and full of the inspirations of hope for the future...

Nervous exhaustion, insomnia, alcoholism, and the opium habit are symptoms of a serious disease. They mean that nature is exhausted, either by the demands of real work or those of unreal and conventional recreations.
