RAINS CHECK ONTARIO AND QUEBEC FIRES

Mercury in Montreal Yesterday Was Only Half Degree Below Record for City.

TWENTY DAYS OF BLISTERING HEAT

Thunderstorm Brings Thermometer Down Twenty-Two Degrees in Evening.

Toronto, July 8.—A severe electrical storm accompanied by heavy rain, struck the city this afternoon, making the first break in the prolonged heat wave that has for more than a week caused much suffering and was the cause of a number of deaths. Heavy rains were reported from Hamilton, Brantford and the surrounding districts. Lightning struck the Victoria Avenue sub-station in Hamilton, causing a fire which did $100,000 damage.

Montreal A Record.

Montreal, July 8.—It was stated at the McGill observatory tonight that the heat wave here today reached a climax within half a degree of the record of that institution, with an absolute maximum of 95.3 degrees, the previous record being 93 degrees. As a record for longevity the present wave of heat exceeds by many days all others recorded in this city, having lasted now for twenty days against the usual duration of a week or ten days.

Average temperatures for the past 15 days have been 75 degrees with an average daily maximum of 83 degrees and minimum of 67 degrees and on seven different days the heat has been above 90 degrees.

The hot spell was broken this evening by a thunderstorm which gave a little rain and produced a drop in temperature by 22 degrees from the high of the day. While still hot and humid, the weather conditions here are accordingly now more bearable.

Score of Prostrations.

New York, July 8.—Continued heat, which sent many New Yorkers through the streets today in their shirt sleeves, prostrated a score and caused one woman to attempt suicide by jumping off the sea wall at the Battery. She was fished out and sent, temporarily deranged, to a hospital in one of the many ambulances constantly in reserve.

The mercury crept up to 79 at 3 p.m. The maximum humidity was 98 at 9 a.m. The weather bureau would promise little relief in the next 24 hours, saying any thunder storm which might crackle around the city would bring only temporary relief.

Astral Fire Ball.

Saskatoon Sask. July 8.—Following a terrible hail, rain and electrical storm, which swept the Canora, Saskatchewan district today an astral phenomenon in the shape of a comet tore through a clear sky in a rain of sparks and exploded leaving a small cloud in the sky.

In a letter to Earl Midleton, one of the Southern Unionists, who attended today's conference with Irish Republicans, Prime Minister Lloyd George said:

"The government fully realizes it would be impossible to conduct negotiations with any hope of achieving satisfactory results if there is bloodshed and violence in Ireland. It would disturb the atmosphere and make the attainment of peace difficult."

"As soon as we hear Mr. De Valera prepared to enter into conference with the British Government and to give instructions to those under his control to cease from all acts of violence we should give instructions to the troops and police to suspend active operations against those who are engaged in this unfortunate conflict."

London, July 8.—Eamon De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, has written to the Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, accepting the latter's invitation to participate in a conference in London with representatives of Northern Ireland and the British Government on the Irish situation, it was announced here tonight. The letter of Mr. De Valera reads:

"Sir:—The desire you express on the part of the British Government to end the centuries of conflict between the people of these two islands and to establish relations of neighborly harmony is the genuine desire of the people of Ireland."

"I have conferred with my colleagues and secured the views of representatives of the minority of our nation in regard to the invitation you have sent me. In reply I desire to say I am ready to meet and discuss with you on what basis such a conference as that proposed can reasonably hope to achieve the object desired."

Referring to the expression of the views at the previous meeting of the Republican-Unionist conference that negotiations were impossible without a cessation of bloodshed, the Irish Bulletin says that a letter from Mr. De Valera to Earl Midleton was read at today's session, in which the would disturb the atmosphere and make the attainment of peace difficult.

Miss Benner said she attended Mr. Kaber also at a hospital, where he had been operated on to ascertain whether he was suffering from cancer. He did not have cancer, she said.

Special to The Standard
Toronto, July 8.—His neck dislocated as a result of diving in shallow water, Harold James Munro, aged 19, of 94 Delaware Avenue, died in the General Hospital. He received his injury on Tuesday night while bathing in the lake at the Parkdale Canoe Club. Although he retained consciousness almost until the end, his case from the first was considered hopeless.

Munro, according to eye-witnesses, slipped on the last step of a running dive from one of the tapers, lost his balance, plunged clear to the bottom in three and a half feet of water, striking his head with terrific force. When he failed to come to the surface, Duncan Munro, the well-known Argonaut half-back and Granite Hokey Club star, but no relation to the deceased, went to the rescue, and with the assistance of Douglas McVitie, carried young Munro to the clubhouse. Although conscious, Munro could move neither arms nor legs. Rear-Commodore Arthur Scott had the injured youth removed to the General Hospital, and Dr. R. Robertson was called.

Some years ago, Jimmie Main, the Balm Beach paddler, met a similar accident while diving in the lake at Balm Beach. Main survives, but is still crippled as a result.

EMPIRE READY TO CONFER ON NAVY HOLIDAY

Explains Statement from Washington That America Had Not Been Invited Yet.

AMBASSADORS AT LONDON CONSULTED

Dominions' Premiers Ardent Advocates of the League of Nations.

(By GRATTAN O'LEARY)

Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.
London, July 8.—The Washington state department's denial that a formal communication had been received from the British government requesting the holding of a disarmament conference is explained by the fact that the request was made through an official note but through an interview between Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary and the American and Japanese ambassadors in London.

How It Happened.
Briefly summarized what took place is this: A day or two after the dominion premiers had strongly urged that steps towards the calling of a conference be taken, Lord Curzon called upon Colonel George Harvey and also the Japanese ambassador and asked that they convey to their respective governments the desire of the British government for such a gathering. In his speech in the House of Commons yesterday, Premier David Lloyd George had this in mind, but unfortunately used language which gave the impression that the request for a conference had been forwarded in official notes to both Washington and Tokio. Hence the denial from Washington today.

Situation Unchanged.
The confusion that has arisen, while regrettable, does not alter the situation, and the feeling in official conference circles here is that the empire's desire for a disarmament conference has been made perfectly plain. The next move must come from Washington.

The prime ministers' conference closed its week's labors today with a double sitting. At the morning session the delegates from India made a statement in connection with the position of British Indians domiciled in British dominions and colonies, and while not urging that the existing rules governing the admission of his countrymen into the dominions be changed, he made a strong plea for the heightening of the status of those already admitted. A special committee of the conference will take the question into consideration.

The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion of the League of Nations. Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, Lord Curzon, Premier Meisen and Premier Stauts took part, and there was strong appreciation voiced of the value of the League and of its claims to the support of the whole empire as a step forward in the regulation of international affairs.

With less than twelve days left in which to conclude its work, the conference next week is expected to plunge into such questions as naval defence, and resumption of the discussion on the signing of the preparatory to taking steps for the main constitutional conference.

CHANGED HIS MIND ABOUT TAKING LIFE.

Jumped from Boat to Commit Suicide, Saw Plank and Decided to Live.

LANDED ON SHORE AT LONG BEACH.

Bathers Alarmed When He Appeared—Told Several Conflicting Stories to Police.

Long Beach, N. Y., July 8.—Bathers this morning thought someone had invented a deep sea diver when they saw a full clothed man wading outside a plank, drifting toward shore. A curious crowd waited until the man "tossed" them many of the bathers displayed real alarm and some fled.

All kept at a safe distance as the man waded and his clothes and began to walk about the beach until Policemen Cornelius Monahan questioned him. Pale beneath a heavy tan, his eyes sunken and staring vacantly, the stranger made no response to Monahan's questions, and when asked to write his name scribbled "Mack Scott American." Monahan provided a meal and dry clothes and took his charge to Lynbrook, where Justice of the Peace Neu attempted to identify the man. The stranger plausibly was a forger and judged Neu and several local linguists failed to hit upon the right tongue. Three American penes in the man's pockets were the only other clues. Dr. Arthur Jacobs examined him and pronounced him exhausted, but otherwise healthy and sane. When the Rev. J. W. McKenna, of Lynbrook, entered Judge Neu's courtroom the man burst into tears.

Jumped From Boat.

Then Gas Sabo, speaking German, found that the man's name was Nicholas Bolt, or Most, and that he had relatives at 273 Tenth Street, New York. After a rest of several hours "Most" replied incoherently to questions in English.

Later, when his mind apparently had become clearer, he informed Constable William Stronach that he had not given his right name. Then he told several conflicting stories, but he explained that he had jumped from a boat or pier in New York harbor, intending to commit suicide, but changed his mind when a plank floated by. He got astride this plank and floated through the night.

SCOUT CONCERT AT EAST ST. JOHN

Last evening the East St. John Scouts held a concert in the Keith Avenue Hall, the proceeds to go towards sending them to camp at Grand Lake. This branch of the Scouts was organized four months ago under C. A. Lawson, and last evening, before a large and appreciative audience, these boys showed what remarkable progress had been made since their organization. A very excellent program was prepared for the concert, as follows:

Rally and Scouts' Yell, Scoutmaster Lawson; Scout games, all Scouts; knot-tying, Pat White; songs, Miss North Magee; boxing the compass, Scout Chandler; composition of flag, Scout Chandler; recitation, E. V. Reid; signalling, St. John Scouts; "The Flag," Wolf Cub Levison; bridge building, City Scouts; Scout drill, East St. John Scouts; around the campfire, all Scouts.

The Rev. G. M. Henry, pastor of the church at East St. John, addressed the boys, as did M. V. Riddell, the Scout organizer from Ottawa. There were eleven East St. John Scouts in the concert and six from the city troops. Refreshments were served and the boys voted the evening a huge success.

ESSEX MOTOR CARS

ESSEX

How to Choose a Motor Car

Do you choose an automobile merely by its looks? Appearances alone often determine the choice. But the way to judge an automobile is by what it and rival cars are doing after a year's hard service. So the showroom view and the demonstration we can give you can not reveal the long endurance you get in the Essex. But from scores of owners you will learn what Essex means in reliable service, in low operating cost in freedom from repairs. Our demonstration will show performance of a character no similarly priced car will undertake. It is fine to know that one drives a car that need not give way to any other on any stretch of open road or hill. It is fine to know you have as sturdy and as good a performer as those who are driving cars costing twice the Essex price. But the greater delight grows as month after month you learn Essex reliability. All its advantages cannot be seen in the new car. Many devices which provide for longer wear or for taking up wear at no expense are not conspicuous. The Essex clutch, as an example, so completely performs its function, owners are hardly conscious that the car has such a unit. There are many types of clutches. In a new car they operate equally well. But time reveals the difference and justifies the greater cost put into the Essex in design and workmanship. Throughout the Essex are found just such items that assure a longer, more satisfactory service. So when owners tell you of two year old cars and of twenty or thirty thousand miles of service be not surprised. It is not that they have an unusually good Essex, but that every Essex is so different from other cars of its class that it rightfully holds its exclusive title as "the moderate priced, economical light weight car with costly car performance and reliability."

Would any similarly priced car be as desirable after a year's service?

FAVORITE OF 15 CARS

Have driven 9,000 miles to date and instead of depreciating in efficiency my Essex has increased daily. It is the greatest of 15 makes I have driven. My next car will be an Essex. And so will the next.

I average in summer driving 19 miles and in winter 15 miles per gallon.

I do not know what tire trouble is.

"I feel naturally smart from puberty, but still I feel I owe a duty to the people. I know many who suffer for relief, and so I feel I would be wrong if I did not tell my experience with Tanlac," said Mrs. John McLeod, Market Place, West, St. John, N. B.

"I had been in a weak, run-down condition for some time and, make matters worse, about two months ago I caught a severe cold. Rheumatism then developed in my hips and limbs and I became so stiff I couldn't bend over at all. Ever since my body ached and I was weak it was just out of the question for me to try to do any of my household work. What discouraged me was that I couldn't find anything that helped me and was getting worse all the time.

"Today, thanks to Tanlac, I am like a different person, haven't a pain or ache of any kind and feel well and strong as I ever did in my life. Only a grand medicine could make as big a change in a person. Tanlac has in me."

FIRE SITUATION SERIOUS ONE IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Two Thousand Men Fighting the Various Forest Fires.

NORTHERN COUNTIES ARE FREE SO FAR

Rain Badly Needed to Put Out Conflagrations Which Are Raging.

Fredericton, N. B., July 8.—Official reports of the forest fires in New Brunswick indicate a sudden change to a serious situation today, with about a dozen fires of importance in various parts of the province.

The Department of Lands and Mines gave out a list of fires, some of which were supposed to be under control, soon after they originated several days ago, but which are still burning, and Chief Forester G. H. Prince gave warning that extensive conflagrations would result if heavy winds should spring up, unless the utmost care was taken by the people throughout the province.

Two Thousand Men Engaged.
Mr. Prince estimated the number of men engaged in fighting eighteen fires that had been reported at more than 2,000, and said the Crown lands licensees, mill owners and lumbermen were co-operating with the forest service in fighting the fire, practically all of which were traceable to fishermen or careless smokers.

Strange to relate, no new fires were reported to the Department of Lands and Mines yesterday, the trouble is that because of the parched condition of the country it has been absolutely impossible to check the light fires which were believed by the district rangers to be under control soon after they had been discovered. None of the fires can be actually put out until rain comes.

The Serious One.
The fires listed as serious today were located as follows:—
Lake Stream, near Alward on the Transcontinental division of the C. N. R.

McLeod Brook, in the Salmon River district of Queens County.
Kilburn Lake, near Deer Lake on the Shogomoc division of the C. P. R.

Rogersville, in Northumberland Co.

Northern Counties Free.
These fires are all in the central and southern portions of the province and the northern counties still remain exempt from any extensive fires. Near Metapedia, in Restigouche county, close to Quebec border, a fire which destroyed a small saw mill spread to the woods, but is reported to have been checked before doing any damage to standing timber, and further particulars are not available.

In Quebec Province.
Quebec, July 8.—Forest fires are raging in virtually every bush section of the province, according to officials of the department of lands and forests. Some of the blazes, however, have lost their menace, as they are recurring in areas which have already been almost entirely laid waste by previous outbreaks. Official denial is given to the reports that villages and towns have been seriously damaged by flames and the statement is made that the fires are located almost entirely in bush districts where no villages exist.

Despite this denial, however, the

COMPLETE THE CENSUS TAKING AT GAGETOWN

Closing Exercises of School Proved Interesting to Many Visitors.

BAPTIST LADIES HELD ENTERTAINMENT

Over Two Hundred Dollars Raised for the Painting Fund of the Church.

Special to The Standard.
Gagetown, N. B., July 8.—The closing of the Gagetown schools were held on Thursday morning in the Grammar School building, when a good number of visitors were present. The closing of the primary department, which has been conducted most satisfactorily during the past year by Miss Zaida Wood, was held during the first hour of the morning, and parents and visitors greatly enjoyed the programme of recitations, songs and dialogues carried out by the children.

The pupils leading their grades in the primary department were: Grade VI, Gladys Vall; Grade V, Raymond Johnson; Grade IV, Walker Belyea; Grade III, Patricia Jenkins; Grade II, Daisy McKay; Grade I, Mary Reid.

Although the primary department has six grades and over fifty pupils, progress has been very marked and it is hoped that Miss Wood will return next year.

Following the closing of the primary department, the visitors entered the advanced department, where Miss Anna Jackson, B. A., principal of the school, carried out an interesting programme, as follows: Recitation, Lucretia Brooks; "The Song of the War," Thelma McCready; physical drill to Victrola music; flag singing on the British Empire, with singing of O Canada, followed by recitation of the Lord's Prayer.

The district covered "The Song of the Christmas Carol," Alton Dingee. The programme came to an interesting, although unanticipated close, as far as the advanced department, when Raymond Short came forward and presented to Miss Jackson a silver scallop dish on behalf of the pupils, accompanied by an appropriate address, to which Miss Jackson fittingly replied. Miss Jackson, who has been principal of the Grammar School during the past two years, will not return next year. The pupils leading in the advanced grades were: Grade XI, Thelma McCready; Grade IX, Raymond Short; Grade VIII, Lucile Bridges; Grade VII, Alton Dingee.

Census Completed.
The census of the Parish of Gagetown was completed last week by the enumerator, H. H. Gilbert, and showed the population of the parish to be 970. The district covered took in Upper Gagetown, Lower Gagetown, Lewfield and a small part of Summerhill.

Pupils from outside points taking the High School entrance examinations were: Llewellyn Wason, Young's Cove; Marion Bell, Hamstead; Geo and Nettie Coy, Upper Gagetown. There were also four candidates from Gagetown school. Lucile Bridges, of Gagetown, led all the candidates.

Successful Supper.
The supper and entertainment given by the Baptist Churches at Upper Gagetown on Dominion Day proved most successful, about $240 being cleared for their painting fund. The crowd was a large one, and cars of all sizes were parked in front of the grounds, people coming from all points along the river as far as Fredericton. The supper tables, which were prettily decorated, were laden with good things; while ice cream and other refreshments were sold on the grounds. Archery, rifle shooting and other sports occupied the afternoon and in the evening a pleasing programme of music and readings was carried out. The committee in charge were: Managing committee, A. L. Hoben, Thos. P. Burpee, Harley Merrithew, Mrs. F. Mont Belyea; advertising, Mrs. Frank Estabrooks, Arthur Hoben, Mrs. F. Mont Belyea; tickets, Harvey Chase, Geo. C. Currier; supper, Miss Amasa Cox, Mrs. Geo. C. Currier, Mrs. Bradford Currier, Miss Sarah Hoben, Mrs. Harley Merrithew, Mrs. George Chase, Mrs. John Clowes, Miss Beale Estabrooks, Mrs. Fred Hoben; refreshments, Enoch Hoben, H. Adley Estabrooks, A. L. Hoben, F. Mont Belyea; sports, George Chase, Harley Merrithew, Frank Estabrooks, Amasa Cox; entertainers, Mrs. John Clowes, Jr., Mrs. B. Thompson, Miss Frances Coy, Arthur Hoben; chairman of programme, Charles Cooper; building, Bradford Currier, James McDorric.

officials admit that the situation is one of great peril and that furthermore official reports are not entirely comprehensive as communication has been interrupted with certain districts. Many points report dense black clouds overhead and owing to the extreme heat the smoke is floating close to the ground. Special precautions are being taken along railways to check any possible fires which might result from engine sparks or embers.

40,000 Pounds of Wool Were Graded

New Brunswick Sheep Breeders Send Clip to Fredericton to be Graded and Sold.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., July 8.—Nearly 40,000 pounds of wool have been received into the wool warehouse at Fredericton during the past month, to be graded and sold co-operatively. This contribution was made by 231 patrons of the N. B. Sheep Breeders' Association, under whose auspices the work was done this year. The provincial and Dominion Departments of Agriculture lent much valuable assistance. The former department had charge of the collecting and grading of the wool, and is doing the clerical work in connection with it. The grader was supplied by the Live Stock Branch of the Federal department. Mr. J. D. Thompson, of the above branch began grading on June 28th and finished early this week. On concluding here, he went to Truro, N. S., to grade this year's wool clip in that province.

New Scheme For Civil Service Use

Designed to Permit Placing of Men to Better Advantage Thru Employment Offices.

Ottawa, July 8.—In order to expedite the assignment of temporary civil service employees for work that is not of a technical or fiduciary nature the Civil Service Commission has arranged to utilize the Government Employment Services throughout Canada. This will be done through the local provincial employment offices throughout the Dominion but does not apply to temporary positions in Ottawa. Under this scheme the employment offices superintendents will act as agents of the Civil Service Commission and it is anticipated that the step will help about assignments for temporary help with much less delay than formerly. The offices in the Maritime Provinces in which this system has been installed are at Moncton, N. B., Halifax, Sydney, New Glasgow and Amherst, N. S.

Marguerite Goes Shopping

It is not easy to stay indoors these sunny days when all outdoors are trying to come out, come out, and enjoy warm air, sunshine, leafy trees and blossoms in garden and field. However, we can't all immediately leave our business as soon as summer comes and his us to the country. Let us be thankful that vacation is approaching.

While planning for holidays it seemed opportune that I should see in the window of Messrs. W. H. Thorne and Company such nice leather bags and cases to hold all sorts of things when travelling. One particularly neat little case was made in leather to contain three bottles of a convenient size for medicine. The province can now boast of ten new life members and returns are still coming in. A great deal of permanent organizing work has been done in the campaign, whose results are very satisfactory to the society. The enrollment is now being prepared under county classifications by Miss Marion Magee. Every member in the province will have the pleasure of seeing names enrolled at the depot, as well as in the head office in Toronto.

The most important event of the month was the preparation and sending out of Public Health Graduate Nurses. Each nurse has gone to the depot by the ladies of the sewing committee under Miss Allison; the surgical committee under Miss Raddock and Mrs. Fred Harding, and the district committees under Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Marr. These kits contain surgical and medical supplies and also emergency supplies.

Success Attended Red Cross Drive

Results of Membership Campaign and Work of Public Health Nurses Heard.

Books of the Membership Campaign and news of the arrival of Public Health Nurses were received at the regular meeting of the N. B. Division of the Red Cross held at the depot yesterday afternoon. Hon. R. T. Hayes, M.L.A. present, was in the chair.

Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, secretary, in her report stated the following facts: In some parts of the province the results of the Membership Campaign have surpassed expectations. The province can now boast of ten new life members and returns are still coming in.

The sewing committee has been meeting from time to time and have sent out parcels to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and other provinces. The committee has received a letter from the Canadian Mothers' Book from the Department at Ottawa, and a set of Baby Charts; also a good supply of socks from the former Red Cross Branch at Hampton and a donation of $5 from the Women's Institute of Queenstown, per Miss Davis.

In response to an appeal for a family of eight children burnt out, with no mother to supply with new clothing, Mrs. E. T. Storey, convener of the packing committee, packed a bale containing forty-seven articles of bedding and clothing. These were sent to the northern part of the province.

Committee Reports For the Bulletin Committee, Mrs. James F. Robertson reported that the Bulletin will be out next week, and praised Miss Jarvis' enterprise in getting the Bulletin out.

Mrs. Duddy, in connection with the Hospital Committee, stated that drives are being supplied for the soldiers regularly twice a week.

Mrs. Kuhring told of assistance given by Lieut. Brown, of Quaco, Mrs. H. H. Tibbets, Mrs. Baird and others.

Peggy Joyce Gets $1,350 Alimony Each Month—Court Award

Also Given $40,000 Expenses in Connection With Marriage Annulment.

Chicago July 8.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce was awarded $1,350 a month alimony, $27,500 for suit expenses to-day by Judge Sabbath on her cross bill for separate maintenance, filed in reply to the suit of James Stanley Joyce for an annulment of their marriage.

Attorneys representing Joyce had tried to prevent payment of any alimony to Peggy on the grounds that she had been married to Joyce in concubinage with a conspiracy with other persons to rob Joyce of his millions of inherited wealth. Judge Sabbath ruled that the fact that marital relations had existed between Joyce and his wife warranted the court granting temporary alimony.

Attorneys for Joyce filed an appeal bond of $25,000 to take Judge Sabbath's ruling to a higher court. The province, health and Red Cross sides to be shown. This was referred to C. B. Allan and Mrs. Kuhring, with power to act.

Mrs. Kuhring moved the following resolutions, which were passed: "That this meeting desire to express their hearty thanks to all workers throughout the province who have carried forward the membership enrollment campaign and to express appreciation of the results of their efforts now being received at the provincial depot. I beg also to move that, in those centres where a branch of the Red Cross is not in existence, the present campaign committee, under the convener of the present organizing agent, be asked to remain in connection with the Provincial Red Cross as a consultative and emergency committee, to advise and take necessary action in any emergency that may arise.

Mrs. Kuhring visited fifteen places and arranged for other centres to be addressed. Her work was splendidly supported in all places. Letters were read from the St. John Ambulance Association, acknowledging donation of $100 for the V. A. D.; from W. B. Evans, Minto, regarding arrangements for welcoming the Public Health Nurse; from Miss L. Snowball, Newcastle, telling of meeting a nurse, Miss Armstrong, on her way to Bay du Vin, and from Miss Armstrong telling of her welcome at Bay du Vin.

A letter was read from St. Stephen regarding the results of the campaign there. A deputation will be sent from the Provincial Red Cross to confer with the St. Stephen committee.

A letter was read from Dr. G. W. Balfour of Fredericton, offering support to the Public Health Nurses. Miss Marven, of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, expressed thanks for garments for soldiers' families.

A WARNING UNHEEDED—AND THE CONSEQUENCES

That impeccable body, the Department of Public Health of New Brunswick, appears at last to have awakened to the fact that the water supply of the City of St. John is not all that it should be by any means. The result is that notice is now issued urging all persons to boil all such water as may be required for drinking purposes before using it. That the water from Loch Lomond is polluted and therefore not really fit for drinking purposes has been no secret for some time; but no steps have ever been taken to remedy this condition of affairs, which to say the least, is serious enough to warrant attention.

In this connection we quote from some remarks of Mr. T. B. Carson, until lately one of the County's representatives in the Legislature, made during the session of 1920. They can be found on page 158 of the official report for that year. Mr. Carson said: "There never was an Act upon the statute books which met with so little favor as the Public Health Act. It might do for New York or some other big city, but New Brunswick was not rich enough, if the Minister of Health wished to get some real information, let him go out on the Ben Lomond road. Good water, he had always understood, was the basis of good health, and the water supply of the City of St. John came from that district. The hon. Minister could learn that St. John water was taking the drainage from barns and privies, and when the Minister of Public Works had sent a road crew to work on that section. That was all right, but the road crew located its lavatory right near the outlet of the St. John city water system. He had informed the Chairman of the Board of Health of the fact, and that official had said: 'My good man, we have had tests of that water made.' His reply to him had been: 'Well, my good man, that is what happened.' If the officials of the Board of Health wanted to find out what conditions were, let them use their eyes and their smellers. Some time when an epidemic occurred, the people of St. John might wake up to what they were drinking, and when an epidemic did occur, it would take the Department of Health about three months to find out what happened, unless some old farmer would come along and tell them."

When the Provincial Elections took place last October, Mr. Carson, who gave this warning, was turned down by the electors in favor of a Doctor of Medicine who knows—or should know—a good deal more about water in its relation to health than Mr. Carson does. But we are not aware that Dr. Carson has ever troubled himself about the condition of the city's water supply, or taken any steps to see that it was safe for use. Mr. Carson knew of the conditions existing and he took enough interest in his fellow citizens' welfare to call attention to the danger. As for the Department of Public Health one would not expect to expect very much from it on such a trivial matter as that of water supply. A "Well Baby Clinic" and the treatment of certain diseases, appears to be the limit of its activities. The question now is: What woke it up about the water supply? Was it the fact that men had got into the habit of bathing in Loch Lomond?

THE "NOXIOUS WEED"

Now and again we hear of no doubt well-meaning, but at the same time sadly misguided people, who desire to prohibit the use of tobacco. Having robbed the poor man of his beer, they now want to make his life more miserable by taking away his tobacco also. It is claimed as a "dirty, vulgar habit." When it comes to chewing tobacco, we agree with this conclusion, though we see little difference between chewing tobacco and gum. There does not appear to be anything either dirty or vulgar about smoking.

However, tobacco is not altogether without influential friends just the same. The Patent Periodical, a magazine edited by the celebrated Pasteur Institute in Paris, has taken up the campaign in aid of Lady Nicotine. This "first aid" to the re-establishment of a reputation which has been attacked by anti-tobaccoists, will bring relief to others who looked with consternation upon her impelled position. According to the learned review, tobacco smoke is highly antiseptic and kills in a few moments, the primal bacteria of cholera, diphtheria and cerebro-spinal meningitis. If the curative power of the weed is so general in the above named field, then surely there must be a widespread misconception as to its right of survival.

Many investigations have been made to prove the well effects of the use of tobacco, but like most other things, there is no ginsaying the fact that tobacco is harmful only in its abuse. The investigations have usually been carried out with the idea of finding the harms resultant from overuse of its weed, and the facts thus gathered have been turned against it.

Except from a philosophic-humorous point of view little has been written about the good influences; of the relaxation of the lifting of nervous tension, of the gathering-together element which abounds over a quiet pipe.

In these days of whirlwind living there is no doubt that many a life has been lengthened, many a hasty word held back, many a temper left unruffled, under the quieting influence of smoking and reflection.

Don't let us be anxious to begin campaigns against the Lady Nicotine if she can kill deadly disease germs and relax overstimulated brains and nerves.

"There's nothing good or bad but some kind of thinking makes it so, still a fundamental truth."

THE SUMMER CAMPS

The camping season is now in full swing, and in all this Dominion there are no better opportunities for enjoying the out-door life than are to be found in New Brunswick, Lake, River, woods, all combine to provide the most enjoyable features for a holiday, when boys and girls, young men and young women, tired of school or business, can get such a change in mode of living for a few weeks as will store up health and vigor to enable them to tackle again a little later on the various duties which their positions in life demand of them.

There is hardly any part of the province in which a summer camp of some sort cannot be found. Those who have visited them can realize the advantages that are offered to the young people who, through the long year, are confined in the big cities to their studies and business, and to such recreational opportunities as a city can offer. Every day now sees them going to the various camps, and while they are most of them a healthy lot, yet when they return later we will note such a change in them, that they will hardly seem like the same young people. Brown and hearty, hard of muscle and strong of limb, from the canoeing, the baseball practice, the swimming, combined with the long tramps through the woods, these young people will be good to look upon, and the vigor and strength gained from a few weeks in the open country will keep them fit throughout the year.

Was it Mark Twain, or was it some other humorist, who once remarked that "if so be that a man don't 'trot' this ever horn, then that same horn 'don't ever get tooted' or words to that effect? The point, however, is that if St. John doesn't appreciate the prowess of its citizens, then no one else is very likely to do so. Hilton Belves and the other young gentlemen who also competed in the boat races recently held on the Charles River, have shown very conclusively that New Brunswick can still produce athletes who can hold their own with the best, and their home-coming today should be marked by such manifestations of the city's appreciation as their victories deserve. We have, unfortunately, sadly too few opportunities such as today will afford our citizens, whether the exertions which most forms of athletic exercises call for are too strenuous for the majority of our young men to care to undertake in these times, we cannot say, but the fact remains that they do not anyway. The children's games of rounders and nine pins appear to be the only forms of athletics that are considered worth while in this locality.

Chief of Police Smith is to be congratulated upon the excellent arrangements made for handling the street parade last evening. Wherever there was any possibility of his men being needed, there they were to be found. The fact that the parade was conducted in an orderly manner is beside the question; the thing was to be prepared for any eventuality which might arise, and the police were equal to the occasion. Chief Smith is entitled to the fullest measure of credit for his part in affairs.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Great Knowledge.
 Great lore is the child of great knowledge; the more exact the knowledge the greater the love.—Leonardo.

England's Need.
 A Sunday paper is of opinion that what England wants is a Gladstone. But a study of the press as a whole convinces that what is really needed is a fast bowler who can bat a bit, or better still, bowl a bit.—Punch.

British Co-operative Society.
 The callousness of commerce made us fall back upon co-operative ideals and principles, and the co-operative system of commerce remains a better system in principle and practice than any other system yet established.—Sir Thomas Allen, Director C. W. S.

A Monster British Casting.
 One of the largest, if not quite the largest, steel ingot mould ever made was recently cast in Great Britain. It is over 15 feet long and its diameter is over 9 feet. This mould which will be used for the casting of steel was huge that it was almost too large to be conveyed on the railway and great ingenuity was exercised in arranging it for transport. It was carried on a huge steel girder which rested on two wheeled trucks, between which the mould hung. The weight of this record casting was 7½ tons.—Industrial Publicity Bulletin (London).

How Trade and Industry is Controlled.

The Bank of England has cut the discount rate to six per cent. . . . When capital is available at low rates the opportunity is given to start new industrial and commercial enterprises, and to re-start and extend those already established. The unemployment figures show that stimulus to development along that line has been badly needed. It has looked, in fact, as though the British capitalist had followed the lead of the wage-earners and gone on strike. If he is getting better able and more willing to "loosen up" trade should soon begin to liven up.—Edmundon Bulletin.

A BIT OF VERSE

A Man.
 If you can keep your head when all about you
 Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
 If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
 But make allowance for their doubting too;
 If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
 Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
 Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
 And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
 If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
 If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
 And treat those two imposters just the same;
 If you can hear the truth when it is spoken
 And twist by the knaves to make a trap for fools,
 Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
 And stand amid the wreckage of your own work-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
 And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
 And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
 And never breathe a word about your losses;
 If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
 To serve your turn long after they are gone,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Except the Will, which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
 Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
 If all men count with you, but none too much;
 If you can fill the unforgetting minute
 With the seconds' worth of distance run,
 Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
 And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!
 —By Rudyard Kipling.

Who Said Anything About Dogs, Anyhow?
 The common belief is that the Airedale is Scotch, but the Washington Star says the dog is of Irish and English origin, being a cross between the other hound and the Irish setter. This being the case, in Ireland just now the Airedale might not be favored by either the Sinn Feiners or the forces of the Crown.—Exchange.

Partly Explained.
 Husband—I'd like to know what's the matter with this carving knife, I sharpened it yesterday.
 Wife—It should be all right, George just used it to sharpen his lead pencil, and Annie opened a few systems with it, and Willie had it to cut a nail out of his shoe. No one else has touched it.

Every One for Himself.
 We must bear each other's burdens, but when an open garbage wagon goes down the street it is up to everybody within offensive range to hold his own nose.—Luke McKeloe.

Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE

My sister Gladis was up in her room looking at some of the paintings and things she did in Art School, and I said, Hey Gladis, do a drawing of me, will you Gladis, want you Gladis?

O I guess you'll do to practice on, said Gladis. Properly meaning my looks wasn't anything wonderful to draw and she got out a pencil and a pad of drawing paper and I sat down in a chair and she started to draw me, and after about a minute I said, Can I come over and look at it, Gladis?

Cursey not, keep still, I've barely started, said Gladis. And she kept on drawing me by putting some lines on the paper and then looking up at me and then drawing some more lines and then looking up at me again as if she wanted to make sure I hadn't changed any since the last time she looked, me thinking, G. I know what, I'll surprise her the next time she looks up.

And I quick turned around in the chair so when Gladis looked up again she saw my back view, saying, If you expect me to draw you kindly remain in one position please.

Which position? I said, and Gladis said, Turn around the way you were immediately. Which I did, saying, Can I come over and look at it now, Gladis?

No you can't, and now for mercy sakes keep still, you're about as much fun to draw as a flea, said Gladis. And she kept on drawing me, and the next time she looked down at the paper again I quick got off the chair and the next time she looked up to see my face she saw it upside down on account of me standing on the floor on my hands, saying, Hello Gladis, can you see me all right?

And I quick got off my hands to keep from falling off, saying, Can I look at it now, Gladis?

Neither now or at any future time, said Gladis. And she took the page off the pad and tore it up, including my picture on it, my saying, O well, I bet it didn't look much like me anyway.

And I went out to see if any of the fellows was out, which about 4 was.

Will Prevent Much Sickness These enervating days are fraught with danger to people whose systems are poorly sustained. This leads the makers of Hood's Sarsaparilla to say, in the interest of the less robust, that the full effect of this good old family medicine justifies calling it, not only a blood purifier but also a tonic. It is sustaining. It gives strength, aids digestion, promotes refreshing sleep, and will prevent much sickness at this time of year.

Phil Dacey Wins Pictorial Wheel

Entered the Lists on June 9 and Had Won His Bicycle by July 6.

Philip Dacey has won the first Pictorial Bicycle. This establishes a rather remarkable record, for Phil started selling Pictorial Reviews on June 8th, and by July 6th he had sold three hundred and seven copies which entitled him to the finest bicycle ever imported into New Brunswick. The Pictorial Review which the Pictorial Review is giving away to any boy or girl who can sell three hundred copies of the magazine before October 15th, is in a class by itself, and is only to be compared to those other bicycles of Canadian manufacture which retail at from seventy-five to ninety dollars.

This wheel retails at sixty-five dollars in the United States and is second only to the Ranger bicycles which are built largely for racing purposes. All the boys and girls who are working for these wheels were under the impression that Albert Frazier would be the first winner, but Albert was not, and finally Phil got ahead of him during his absence.

Others Can Win.

This does not, however, mean that everyone else is shut out, for there will be a bicycle and fifteen dollars in cash exactly like Phil Dacey has, one for every boy and girl who meets the conditions. And these conditions are very simple. Sell three hundred magazines and get the bike. There are no strings attached, and this is being learned by several who have started work only within the past few days.

Stanley Hamilton, of Gilbert's Lane, is one of the newcomers who, beginning on Wednesday of this week, had sold twenty-eight copies up till Friday afternoon, and is thus starting in at a clip which will give him a bicycle by next month. There are several others who starting quite recently have announced their determination of winning in quick order, and who will undoubtedly be the possessors of bicycles before many weeks go by.

Nearing the Goal.

Among the bunch of original workers Gordon Elkin has two hundred and twenty copies to his credit in six weeks work. Harold Parker has one hundred and forty-three. Roland Thorburn, of McAdam, will have three hundred as soon as he has sold the few remaining copies which he has on hand, and he will get the bicycle whenever the report to this effect has been received from him; Paul Gillman of St. Stephen, has one hundred and twenty-five for less than one month's work while Doris Corbett, among the girls, has two hundred and twenty-one to her credit, with an excellent chance of finishing before the end of the present month. Besides these are bicycles for every one who can sell the magazines. The one exhibition wheel which Phil Dacey has won and is to receive today is only the first of an unlimited number which will be brought here to supply the needs of every successful competitor. Four others will be received next week, and as many more as are required. Never was such a chance given to the boys and girls of the Maritime Provinces.

WHEN DOES BRONCHIAL TROUBLE BEGIN TO GET SERIOUS?

First it was a little throat tickle, then a cough which grows severe, then a neglected cough travels down the lungs, and it's mighty hard to treat. The first of an unlimited number which will be brought here to supply the needs of every successful competitor. Four others will be received next week, and as many more as are required. Never was such a chance given to the boys and girls of the Maritime Provinces.

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance

Take Organic Iron; not metallic iron. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables, or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extracts of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption, and assimilation by the blood, while metallic iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not irritate the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enliven your system. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

United Fruit Co. Steamer Ashore

Stranded During a Heavy Fog, off Highland Light—Expected to Float at High Tide.

Truro, Mass., July 8.—The United Fruit Co. steamer Mayari went ashore in a fog off Highland Light today. The stranded first before low tide and sent word ashore by wireless that it was expected to float when the water rose. The Mayari was bound from Havana, Cuba, for Boston with sugar. She at the Highland Light coast guard was attracted to the steamer's plight by whistling and Captain William Page and his crew went out to her in their surf boat. A few minutes later the fog lifted momentarily and the steamer could be made out faintly from the shore. She appeared to be resting easily on a sand bar. The sea was calm and there appeared to be little immediate danger. The steamer struck near the spot where the British ship Jason was lost in 1893 with all hands.

French Indignant Over Hun Trials

Paris, July 8.—The French Government has informed its allies that it has withdrawn the French mission appointed to follow the trials in Leipzig of Germans accused of violating the rules of civilized warfare. An exchange of views has been going on between the Allied governments as to the attitude to be taken in view of the verdicts rendered in the case thus far decided. The French are particularly indignant because of the acquittal Wednesday of Lieut. Gen. Stenger, who was charged with ordering his troops to kill French wounded and prisoners and the hostile attitude of the Allied Missions. The newspapers comment bitterly on the result of the trials, some of them suggesting that since there is no justice to be obtained in Leipzig the French troops will remain on the Rhine.

It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. TIMELY GARDEN PRACTICE

By HENRY J. MOORE.

As the writer journeys from place to place, he is struck with the beauty of many flower gardens, at the same time the thought comes to him that there is a more careful selection made of the subjects contained therein, and only the seeds of the best varieties obtainable acquired, greater beauty would be possible.

Saving Pure Seeds

Now is the time to protect the flowers of desirable plants so that the seeds may be pure. This is a simple operation, and often entails only covering the flowers with small cheesecloth bags.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

Let usc. It is not too late to transplant lettuce, either the head or the cos varieties. Plant the former nine to twelve inches apart and the latter six inches. Early planted cos lettuce may now have attained a height of six inches. If so, tie the leaves fairly close together by a band of string around them. Later it may be necessary to tie them again near the top; so tied they will quickly blanch, and the centre leaves will be crisp and palatable.

Tomatoes

Where it is intended that these be tied to stakes or are already tied, the blanching should now be removed. This thinning out of the growths will facilitate the setting and ripening of the fruits. Tomatoes which were planted very early will now have one or more trusses of fruit. You may in training have reserved only one stem, or perhaps two. The growths should be removed from the axils of the leaves without injuring in any way the large leaves at this time. Later it may be necessary to remove some of the foliage, but not now. As soon as the early tomatoes so trained produce four or five trusses of fruit, and are about four feet high, the points of the leading growths should be pinched out. This will favor the maturity of the fruit.

One hundred dollars will be added to what the war already has cost every family in the United States, according to the New York Evening Post's figures, if Congress appropriates two billions for the 4,800,000 men and women who saw service either at home or abroad in the World War.

In an interesting article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST, dated July 9th, the five forms of payment of the proposed soldiers' bonus is shown, and also the drift of public opinion for and against the payment, as revealed in the newspaper press of the country.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, July 8.—Thunderstorms have occurred today in many parts of Ontario and Quebec, while in the Maritime Provinces the weather has been fair and rather cool, and in the Western Provinces fair and warm.

AROUND THE CITY

HOT WAVE AT CAPITAL A traveller returning from Fredericton last evening reported the capital to be suffering from an oppressive heat wave. The thermometer registered 102 degrees on the inside of one building, he reported.

TRUE TO TRAINING "Speed," the brindle pup, showed up true to his old war day training, when he met the Street Railway men's parade at the foot of Mill street last night, and promptly marshaled the crowd up the street.

BREAK IN WATER MAIN A break in the water main on Prince William street at the junction with Church street, seems to have occurred. Water was working up through the street yesterday and more freely during the night.

MAINE TEAM HERE The Commercial will play the Woodland, Me., baseball team here in a special game on the East End grounds this afternoon at a quarter to three. This will be the first contest of a local team this year with players from across the border.

SEND BELVEA TO BUFFALO. The first step in the sending of Hilton Belyea, to Buffalo, where it is expected he will win more laurels, was taken yesterday morning, when at a meeting of citizens it was decided to call a public meeting on Monday night to meet in the Pythian Casino, Union street, at 8.30, where all interested are invited to come and express their views on the best way to get the necessary money to properly equip Mr. Belyea for the trip.

RECEPTION PLANS COMPLETED. Mayor Schofield announced yesterday afternoon that the plans for the civic reception to Hilton Belyea had been completed. When the boat docks, which will be some time between nine and twelve this morning, the Martello Band will play selections while the hero is landing. They will then lead a procession to City Hall, where the Mayor will deliver an address and make the presentation on behalf of the city.

SHIPMENTS MUCH LESS. The export of lumber and lumber products to the United States from the St. John consular district for the three months ending June 30th, 1921, as reported by Consul Culver, were: Laths ..... $122,816.88 Lumber ..... $39,230.41 Pine boards ..... $9,019.40 Pulp wood ..... 45,869.85 Shingles ..... 5,587.83 Service piling ..... 3,332.60 Wood pulp ..... 7,872.90 Cedar poles ..... 6,009.90

MAKE FERRY OIL BURNER. A favorable opinion of the possibility of remodeling the ferry steamers Laddow and Governor Carleton to make them oil burners has been presented to Commodore Bullock by George Waring, superintendent of the ferry department. The commissioner said yesterday that the introduction of oil fuel in the ferries would reduce the fuel bill between 25 and 50 per cent, which would offset the cost of conversion within two years and effect a big saving thereafter. He said that the oil would also reduce the smoke and dirt nuisance and, being more flexible, would allow of better and safer navigation of the vessels. This would no doubt, he said, obviate considerable damage to the boats and floats. Another saving would be in the cost of coal cartage, as the oil would be delivered in pipes to the steamer berths. The matter will likely come before the Council soon.

SUES TO RECOVER FOR HIS SERVICES. The case of Dr. Kelly vs. John McGoldrick was heard before Judge Armstrong in the county court yesterday. The suit arose over fees due plaintiff for professional services. The defence was that there was neglect and improper treatment on the part of the plaintiff. Dr. Kelly, who later attended Mr. McGoldrick, was called as a witness in the morning, and the defendant and Thomas Kilien testified in the afternoon. The case was postponed to Thursday at 10 o'clock noon, when Dr. Kelly will complete his evidence. G. H. V. Belyea, K.C., for plaintiff; L. A. Coulter for the defendant. The amount sued for is $28.

Measures Taken To Safeguard Water

Board of Health Acts for Preservation of Purity of Water for City Users.

The condition of the city's water supply, which is used on the eastern side of the harbor, was considered at a special meeting of the Board of Health held yesterday morning. Dr. Abramson, the city's bacteriologist, reported an alarming bacteria count in the samples of water tested by him during the past week.

It was decided to take active steps to prevent further pollution of the city's water supply. Commissioner Jones of the Water and Sewerage Dept., offered to co-operate with the board by posting up signs at all approaches to the water-shed warning trespassers of the heavy penalties attached to any person or persons found polluting the supply.

Passed Resolution. Many of the board were of the opinion that summer cottagers, bathers and fishermen might be responsible for the impurities prevailing, and the following resolution was accordingly passed: Resolved: That in view of the danger of pollution of the city water supply, the St. John sub-district Board of Health hereby prohibit and forbid boating, fishing, bathing or other amusements of any nature in or near Lake Latimer, Spruce Lake, Ludgate Lake, or any other lake or stream from which the City of St. John obtains its water supply. And further resolved that the commissioner of water and sewerage be requested to post notices, carry out patrols and take such other steps as may be deemed necessary to assist in carrying out the above resolution.

Dr. Abramson placed on exhibition several glass slides, the results of his tests during the week of July 28, which showed a bacteria count so far in excess of the normal tests as to be regarded dangerous. The doctor stated that he could not give a definite opinion as to whether or not the low state of all water bodies due to hot weather had any bearing upon the impurity of water as disclosed. He said the city had been fortunate in the past, but recommended a modern filtration plant, if absolute safety was to be assured.

Dr. Warwick, the district medical officer, recommended the chlorinating of the water supply as a precautionary measure. Those present were: John Kelly, chairman; Dr. Warwick, sub-district health officer; Dr. C. M. Pratt, inspector of contagious diseases; Commissioner Jones, Mrs. R. J. Hooper, Geo. Blake, W. H. Golding, Dr. Abramson, T. M. Burns, secretary.

Every precaution was taken by the city authorities to quell any disturbances that might occur. Early in the evening the police were dispatched to the residences of these policemen who had gone off duty to warn them that they were to respond to an emergency call and headed by Chief Smith and Inspector Caples they all marched to the power house where they lined up across Smythe street retaining their positions until after the parade had passed by. The detectives and a squad of policemen in plain clothes were assigned to mingle within the crowd so that any ring leader who had started a trouble would have had short shift.

Police Numerous. Street car service will be resumed the first of next week. Motormen yesterday evening were at the barns yesterday testing out the various routes and will be prepared to go out on the runs about Monday. The eastern suburbs will be taken care of, also the King and Britain and Haymarket routes. The service on the west side will not be started until after the week.

Twelve men will be on the Douglas Avenue work today, and crews will be ready on Monday to tackle the Brussels street track laying.

Country Streams And Wells Drying Up Pastures Without Water and Farmers Forced to Haul Supply Many Miles.

St. John citizens may feel hurt that they are obliged to boil water for drinking purposes. They would worry their heads out to find out why compared with dwellers in country districts, and, in fact, in some sizable towns, where they are obliged to haul water many miles, in some instances, for the ordinary household purposes.

Wells Gone Dry. The long continued drought has worked hardships especially in the country districts according to reports brought to the Standard yesterday. Wells and brooks have gone dry, and the larger streams that have always been dependable, are sluggish in their flow. Pastures are without their supply of water for the stock summering there. Reports reach the Standard that many brooks and small streams flowing through pasture lands in Sarny county have gone completely dry, a situation never before occurring in these particular water courses.

River Far Below Average. Water has to be hauled from large streams, and the river to keep the stock supplied, as well as the homes. Some idea of the general condition existing as to water supply may be obtained from the knowledge that the waters of the St. John are four feet below the average low mark for summer.

It is a serious situation when the "pump goes dry," and that is what many a farmer is up against today.

CASE HEARD. In the supreme court yesterday before Chief Justice McKeown, the matter of H. W. Robertson vs. Police Magistrate was taken up. This was an application to oust the jurisdiction of the magistrate on the grounds that an attorney of the supreme court should be sued in the supreme court and not in the city court. The chief justice decided to refer the matter to the court for a decisive and final answer to the question. H. W. Robertson appeared on his own behalf; D. LeBlair appeared for the police magistrate.

William Allen Comes To Front. Passes Out "Dodgers" Full of Meaning for Somebody Who Understands Them. About every house in the city yesterday received the following "dodger": ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN? THEN THIS IS FOR YOU. Doubt or Satan in disguise aims to destroy two great principles of Christianity.

(TURN OVER) TWO GREAT PRINCIPLES. First—Servants be obedient, unto them that are your masters, Eph. VI. 5. Second—Let every soul be subject unto higher powers . . . and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation, Romans XIII-12.

Christian, it is better to obey God than man, namely, unionism. Issued by W. Allen, distributor of true truths and Bible truths, 331 Union street, St. John.

Mr. William Allen, given as director and distributor of the above piece of literature, was a former seaman worker in the Salvation Army, who devotes much of his spare time in preaching the Gospel of religion. He takes advantage of every opportunity to do some preaching, and on church days was engaged in passing out Biblical truths and haranguing the crowds.

In his spare moments he is employed as janitor of the Bank of Montreal building.

Street Car Men Again On Parade

Travelled the Main Thoroughfares to Band Music Accompanied by Cheers of Kids.

Headed by the Martello Band, and displaying several new banners the men of the Street Car and Electrical Workers' Union marched through the main thoroughfares of the city last evening in their second parade since their break with the New Brunswick Power Co. As in their first parade, the marchers observed commendable order and no outward incident occurred along the entire line of march.

Large crowds collected along the route, and long before the men arrived, that part of Charlotte street bordering on King Square, was crowded with curious sightseers. When the parade arrived there was much cheering and eager glances, but no other demonstration; there were no insults, and soon the parade marked the men's appearance the preceding night was also lacking.

The parade came up Sydney, down the seniors to Charlotte, along Charlotte to Union, to Brunswick and City road. The crowd broke off at King, however, and hurried down to the Power Company's offices on Mill street for it was there that all felt that any break that might occur would take place.

Crowds Gather. Mill street was lined with the crowd and the sight of a large squad of policemen along the company's plant increased the eager expectation. The sound of a band playing in the distance led many to think the parade was returning, but instead, it kept along Paradise row to Main street and on out to Indian town. A half an hour later there came the sound of much cheering above which floated the music of the band, and the parade, led by a motley crowd of kids, banging tin pans and cheering lustily, headed up Dock to Mill street.

The parade had gained in size, and in some sections the hangers-on who had joined in the march crowded the street from curb to curb. The motormen themselves maintained a staid and sober mien, and marched past the Power house without so much as a sideways glance. Their rear was brought up by a file and drum band which had joined them somewhere along the route, but although the players blew their flutes with all their might, the drums alone could be heard over the shrill cheering of the youngsters, and the prolonged hooping of the feet of jineys which skirted along one side of the street.

The hand played the marchers to Prince William street, where they marched off to one side and played the union men into their quarters on Church street. Then they and the large crowd who had gathered in their wake dispersed.

Car Service Monday. Street car service will be resumed the first of next week. Motormen yesterday evening were at the barns yesterday testing out the various routes and will be prepared to go out on the runs about Monday. The eastern suburbs will be taken care of, also the King and Britain and Haymarket routes. The service on the west side will not be started until after the week.

Twelve men will be on the Douglas Avenue work today, and crews will be ready on Monday to tackle the Brussels street track laying.

Country Streams And Wells Drying Up Pastures Without Water and Farmers Forced to Haul Supply Many Miles.

Compromise Offer Rejected By Co'y

Power Co. Refuses to Recognize Present Union of Old Employees.

The compromise offer of Local Union 608 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway and Electric Workers made with the hope of reaching an amicable settlement of differences with the New Brunswick Power Co., was rejected by the latter and the deadlock existing between the warring factions has resolved itself into a light to the finish. Manager Thomson, of the Power Co., absolutely refused to recognize the present union, one of the compromise propositions, a position which he took at the very outset of the dispute between the company and the former employees.

Mayor Schofield and Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter have acted as intermediators in an effort to bring the two factions together on a common ground upon which an agreement satisfactory to all, might be arrived at. They were working unselfishly and for the public good. Their efforts were futile. They were in conference with the men Thursday and again Friday, talking to Manager Thomson the men's compromise proposal and returning to them the manager's answer yesterday.

Offer the Old Agreement. Manager Thomson said last night that the so-called compromise offer of the men was a certain demand for wages, a duplication of the old working agreement and the taking back to their former jobs the men now out. This, he said, was impossible. "I made the men a fair, decent proposition which they have wittingly to reject. I made them the best proposition that could possibly be made under conditions controlling the company and I could not do more," he said.

Stands By Statement. He further stated that his position in the dispute was fully set forth in his statement given to the public in Wednesday morning's papers. He has had no occasion to change his mind since then. He further expressed his appreciation of the interest taken in the matter by Mayor Schofield and the Hon. Dr. Baxter, their motives were the best, but it was quite impossible to acquiesce in their petition on the men's behalf, he said.

The question is closed in so far as the company is concerned," he said, "and the men whom we have taken on are fixtures with the N. B. Power Company. There is an opportunity for about sixty more men to secure employment with the company. Former employees, should they desire work, will have their applications considered along with others."

Car Service Monday. Street car service will be resumed the first of next week. Motormen yesterday evening were at the barns yesterday testing out the various routes and will be prepared to go out on the runs about Monday. The eastern suburbs will be taken care of, also the King and Britain and Haymarket routes. The service on the west side will not be started until after the week.
