Major of the French-English schools was ultra vix. Mr. Lamarche quoted from the New York Times an article in which Hon. T. Chase Casgrain was reported as saying that regulation 17 violated "both constitutional and treaty."
The postmaster-general interrupted to say that he was not giving a legal opinion of his own but stating the position taken by the French Canadian of Ontario in the interview in the New York paper.

end so the division outlined was arranged.

The American Ammunition Company was afterwards formed, and Caldwell took 80 per cent and O. R. Flint & Co. of New York, 20 per cent of the stock. Youkum wanted to get in the company, too, but Caldwell refused to let him (Youkum) that he had already got the big share of the commission and should stay out. However, Youkum got one per cent out of Flint.

The balance of Caldwell's evidence, under direct examination, dealt mainly with the difficulties with which his company has been beset. There was trouble with the sub-contractors, but apart from that a nucleus has been on their track. Though they have plant and experts and have followed the advice of the war office, they have been unable to deliver the goods. Out of twenty lots of time fuses only two passed, the rejections numbering 42,000.

The generally pious atmosphere of the Meredith-Duff commission was disturbed by a startling incident this morning. For some days it has been evident that a storm has been near the surface. Little by little the tension has increased and today with a clearness there was no mistaking, Commissioner Duff expressed his mind. There had been an altercation between Frank Carvell, M. P., and Wallace Nesbitt, one of the counsel retained by Sir Sam Hughes.

"Mr. Nesbitt's observation," sharply observed Commissioner Duff, "is one that ought not to have been made. If that sort of thing is to continue I shall not sit any longer."

BRITISH SEE SOME LIVELY FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT; ULSTER VOLUNTEERS IN BODY NOT WILLING TO DISARM

FRENCH FOLLOW UP COUNTER ATTACKS

Sudden Drive on Heights of Meuse Overwhelms Considerable Section of Enemy

Assaults by Enemy Fail to Win Ground Around Dead Man's Hill and on Belgian Line—Russians Occupy Important Town, Capturing Much War Material.

London, May 15.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says that a large German fleet which has left Kiel for Riga includes the new battleship Hindenburg and several other battleships of the largest type.

BRITISH SUBMARINES ON JOB.

Copenhagen, via London, May 16, 2:07 a.m.—A despatch to the Aftenbladet from Gothenburg, Sweden, says that a large German fleet, which was outside of Gothenburg Saturday with the object of capturing a British steamer about to sail for England, was forced to retire Sunday by the appearance of British submarines. The British steamer then sailed.

The German warships, however, the despatch adds, captured four Swedish steamers and took them to German harbors.

Paris, May 15, 11:05 p.m.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads:

"In Champagne a bombardment carried out this morning by the enemy in the region called Le Mesnil-Les-Maisons De Champagne was followed by several simultaneous attacks by small detachments at divers points on this front. All these attacks, arrested by our curtain of fire, or repulsed by counter-attacks were fruitless.

"In the region of Verdun there was an intermittent bombardment of our first and second lines west of the Meuse.

"On the heights of the Meuse a sudden attack, for which preparations had been made by our artillery, was entirely successful. Our patrols cleared the enemy trenches on a front of about 200 metres, and brought back prisoners.

"Our artillery shelled enemy detachments on the road between Bussy and Pannes, southwest of Thiaucourt."

"The Belgian communications which attempted to gain a footing in the sector of Dixmude. A German party trench along the Yser, north of that town, was immediately driven back."

London, May 15, 11:50 p.m.—The following official communication is issued tonight:

"Yesterday evening and during the night there was considerable activity on our front between Loos and Bethune and La Bassée canal. Immediately near the former place the enemy bombarded heavily a small section of our trenches, and a raiding party succeeded in entering them, but only for a few minutes.

"Nearville, further north, we subjected the German positions near the Hohenzollern road to a heavy attack. Further north still, just south of the canal, the enemy exploded a mine twenty-five yards in front of one trench and seized the crater. After a sharp bombardment with trench mortars, our infantry secured the tip of the crater, capturing one prisoner and finding several dead Germans in the crater.

"Today both sides exploded mines northwest of Hulluch, but no infantry fighting took place. We carried out a successful bombardment of the enemy's positions opposite Faquisart. Our artillery alienated enemy trench mortars in the neighborhood of St. Etel."

LIBERAL SWEEP IN QUEBEC ASSURED ON NOMINATION DAY BY MANY ACCLAMATIONS

Twenty-two Supporters of Gouin Government Elected on Nomination Day Including Two Members of Cabinet—Many Retirements at Eleventh Hour.

Montreal, May 15.—The surprise in the nominations for the Quebec legislature today was in the large number of wealthy, hour retirements from the provincial contests, and the consequent election by acclamation of at least twenty-two Liberals. So far as heard from tonight only three Conservatives have been returned without a fight at the polls next Monday. The premier, Sir Louis Gouin, and the provincial treasurer, Walter G. Mitchell, go back to the house without the trouble of putting in a final week of electioneering, but the other members of the government have not been so fortunate. Colonel Smart's election in Westmount was conceded from the first, he being at the front, but the election of Arthur Sauve, another Conservative, was one of the biggest surprises of the day. Up to the last moment it was thought he would have been opposed by Dr. Paget.

Following are the twenty-two Liberals elected by acclamation: Hon. Sir Louis Gouin, premier, Port Neuf county; Hon. Walter G. Mitchell, provincial treasurer, Richmond; W. S. Bullock, Shefford; W. P. Vilas, Bromé; J. F. Gosselin, Missisquoi; J. A. Benoit, Iberville; J. N. Francoueur, Lotbinière; Arthur Godbout, Beauce; P. A. Gendron, Ottawa; Andrew Philips, Huntingdon; J. E. Robert, Rivière; Dr. E. M. Desautels, Chambly; Fabien Bugeaud, Bonaventure; George Delisle, St. Maurice; R. K. Leprieux, Mégantic; C. E. Therrien, Ste-Anne; Arthur Tasban, Nicolet; H. A. Fortin, Labelle; H. Filon, Valcartier; Walter Reed, L'Assomption; E. Ouellette, Yamaska; Severin Letourneau, Hochelaga.

The three Conservatives elected without a contest are: C. E. Gault, St. George; Montreal; Lévesque, Col. C. A. Smart, Westmount; Arthur Sauve, Two Mountains.

BENNETT BOLTS ON C. N. R. GRANT

Western Conservative Member Declares This Road Should Go Into Receivership—Hon. Dr. Pugsley's Motion Ruled Out of Order and Aid is Voted—Plea for Permanent Solution of Problem.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Ottawa, May 15.—The common spent the greater part of today's sitting surveying the railway problem of Canada. The problem was temporarily shelved by putting through without amendment the railway aid loans brought down in the estimates of $23,000,000 for Canadian Northern and the G. T. P. There was no amendment because the government had by introducing the legislation in the form of supplementary estimates, precluded the moving of any amendment. This was made clear at the opening of today's debate when the deputy speaker ruled out of order an amendment proposed by Hon. Dr. Pugsley providing for a five year option on the Canadian Northern system at such a price as the governor-in-council deemed reasonable under existing circumstances.

Under the rules of the house the only recourse of the opposition in the case of estimates, is to move either to strike out entirely, or to reduce the amount. Consequently, as Hon. George P. Graham pointed out it was futile for the opposition to debate the legislation at all since there was no hope of getting before the house any of the restrictive condition in regard to the loans which might otherwise have been offered.

Both sides of the house agreed as to the bad financial mess confronting the country through railway overbuilding incurred from the short-sighted optimism of the past, which had "dashed away and spent the money" without due regard to a day of reckoning or to probable traffic returns to meet interest charges. Both sides agreed that the impending necessity of nationalization, especially of the two insolvent systems of the C. N. R. and the Grand Trunk Pacific. Both sides agreed that the problem while being temporarily solved through the demand loans of $23,000,000 to tide the two companies over the ensuing year, must be met with a permanent solution in the near future; and that as a means of getting requisite data and authoritative advice the proposed commission of the best available experts on the continent was a belated step in the right direction.

There was little recrimination as to which party was responsible for the present situation. There was, however, a difference of opinion as to the conditions on which the $23,000,000 loan of the Canadian Northern should be granted. The Liberal speakers, supported by R. B. Bennett, urged that the granting of further millions to MacKenzie & Mann, leaving them still practically in full control of the road and its finances, was unwise and would not commend the confidence of the people. A receivership at once or else adequate action by the government to step in and control the road, pending the outcome of the coming inquiry, so as to safeguard the country's interest in the road, was strongly urged.

There was some severe criticism, especially from Mr. Bennett, of the management of the road by the two railway knights, Mr. Pardee and Hon. George P. Graham thought "the government should step in and take over enough stock to secure complete control of the company, pending either nationalization or reorganization." Mr. Pardee was not afraid of a receivership at once, since it was admitted that the road was insolvent, and that it was the country's credit which was now keeping it going, and the taxpayers who were taking all the risk. Some striking figures were given by R. B. Bennett as to railway overbuilding in Canada and as to the seriousness of the financial problems confronting the two railways to which the coup

U. S. To Take Firm Stand Against British Seizure of Mails

Washington, May 15.—The American government is preparing a protest, characterized by officials as "very rigorous," against the interference with mails to and from the United States by Great Britain.

A note, to be sent forward in the near future, will take the position that the United States can no longer countenance seizure and detention of mails to and from the United States, particularly those concerning neutrals.

ALL EYES NOW ON WESTMORLAND

Chance for Electors to Express Their Opinion of Graft

MORE EVIDENCE OF MISMANAGEMENT

All Friends in Westmorland of Good Government Expected to Fight Hard for the Interests of the Province in Coming Campaign.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Fredrick, May 15.—Some echoes of the Mahoney appointment as minister of public works are beginning to reach the capital, and from the standpoint of the government party they are not reassuring. There is much disappointment on the North Shore, where it was expected the portfolio would go to Arthur Collingsworth, who has been a member of the cabinet since the appointment, and it was understood that T. W. Burns, of Bathurst, was approached, as well as his friends, to see if Westmorland would accept the offer. The efforts of Westmorland friends of P. G. Mahoney dashed their hopes to the ground, and there is much soreness in consequence.

Now the statement is made that D. A. Stewart, of Restigouche, will be given the portfolio and that Dr. Frank Smith, of Carleton, of patriotic potato fame, the member who the Gleaner said "had done the party enough harm," will be made president of the council.

Vague stories are afloat as to the personnel of the Nova Scotia Construction Company with reference to the Valley railway contract. They are disquieting to say the least, and the fact that the final settlement of the contract is delayed lends some color to them.

All eyes on Westmorland. All eyes are upon the electors of Westmorland county and how they will regard the grave exposures of graft and mismanagement of provincial affairs. More evidence of this is coming to light every day, and the campaign in Westmorland will surely make the people acquainted with many things that have not yet been made known. The energies of every friend of good government in Westmorland county should be bent to the task of showing the government that they cannot rule and ruin the province without a protest. It has been felt here ever since 1912 that the lack of a fighting opposition on the floors of the legislature has made it possible for graft to reign as it has.

If the people of Westmorland think there should not be an active English representative to assist those hard working and loyal Acadians, Dugal and Pelletier, on the floors of the house, and to protect the interests of all the people of

CASEMENT HOOTED OUT OF IRISH CAMP

Prisoners in Germany Risked Punishment to Repel Offers to Serve Against Britain

Knight, Who Once Thanked King for Honor Bestowed Upon Him, Side by Side in Bow Street Dock with Private Soldier and Alleged Confederate—Casement Interested and Attentive.

London, May 15, 8:20 p.m.—The writing of a new chapter of the history of the Sinn Féin rebellion was begun today, when Sir Roger Casement, knighted in 1911 for services to the British government, and Daniel Julian Bailey, an Irish private soldier, one of his companions on the ill-fated submarine trip from Germany to Ireland, were placed in the dock of the Bow Street police court for preliminary examination on the charge of high treason.

While considerable testimony introduced by the crown tended to incriminate Bailey, the main attack of the prosecution was directed against Casement, in an endeavor to snare him in a net of evidence which would establish, without question, the leading part he is claimed to have played in the conspiracy, whose ramifications extended even to America.

Casement himself was the centre of all eyes during the day. It was evident that no ordinary prisoner was before the bar for, despite the unkempt condition of his clothing, he made a striking figure, with neatly trimmed beard and hair brushed well back from a high forehead, underneath which were the deep-set eyes of the dreamer.

Casement bustled himself taking notes, indicating that he intended to have a hand in the conduct of his defence. He was always self-possessed, and as the case wore on, began to display considerable self-assurance.

Arrangement by Attorney-General.

The testimony today developed few thrills, the prosecution devoting its attention to showing how Casement carried on the alleged recruiting for his Irish brigade in Germany. The most dramatic part of the whole proceedings was the address delivered by the attorney-general, Sir Frederick E. Smith, who outlined Sir Roger Casement's former services to his country, told of the honor bestowed upon the prisoner by his king, and then shifted abruptly to the details of the conspiracy hatched in Germany.

It was during his address that the attorney-general introduced a letter written by Casement thanking Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary for foreign affairs, for the knighthood conferred upon him in recognition of his Putnam services. In this letter Casement said: "I am indeed grateful to you for this singular assurance of your personal interest. I am very deeply sensible of the honor done me by my majesty, and would be that my humble duty may be presented to his majesty when you can do me the honor of conveying to him my deep appreciation of the honor that he has been so graciously pleased to confer upon me."

Green Flag of Ireland. The attorney-general introduced another striking feature, when he read his speech to produce in court the flag which it is asserted Casement and his companion brought from Germany to Ireland. This was the emblem of the revolt—a green flag with a yellow castle upon it, and under the castle the motto: "Urbs antiqua fuit stultique asperiora belli."

Casement's attorneys made little attempt at cross-examination today, but several times questioned the witnesses as to what Casement wanted them to do. The Irish brigade for the point of the question seemed to be to show that the freedom of Ireland was the only thing involved, and that the brigade was not to attempt to assist Germany.

Further testimony will be introduced by the crown tomorrow.

Morning Session. The few spectators who were permitted to enter the famous old police court were considerably surprised when a second prisoner was placed beside Casement in the dock. This man was Daniel Julian Bailey, a private soldier whose home is at Westmoleby, a village near London. He was arrested near Tralee on April 21.

In the formal charge Casement is described as of no occupation and no fixed abode. The charge against both defendants reads:

"For that they did, between the first day of November 1914, and on divers occasions between that day and the 21st day of April, 1916, unlawfully, maliciously and traitorously commit high treason, within and without the realm of England in contempt of our sovereign lord, the King, and his laws, to the evil example of others in like case, and contrary to the duty and allegiance of the said defendants."

Casement is reported to have made a long statement to the authorities and it is believed that this statement will considerably shorten the hearing before the magistrate. The police court hearing is merely a preliminary to the real trial which will take place later before a panel of the judges of the High Court of Justice.

Attorney General Sir Frederick E. Smith, A. P. Bodkin and Travers Humphreys appeared for the prosecution and Prof. J. H. Morgan and Arthur Jones for the defendant, Sir John Dickinson presided.

Soon after the magistrate had taken his seat, Casement and his fellow prisoner were shown into the dock. Casement's appearance was vastly different from that of the man who gained fame in 1912 by his exposure of the cruelties practised on natives in Putnam by a British rubber company. He sat in the dock, resting his chin on his hand, and occasionally looking towards the magistrate.

ULSTER STANDS BY GUNS, REFUSING ANY COMPROMISE

Plan for Executive Council and Disarmament Coldly Received at Belfast on Occasion of Premier's Visit.

Belfast, May 16.—Stubborn disinclination to accept anything in the way of a government which might imply the future subjection of Ulster to home rule was evident today on the occasion of Premier Asquith's visit to Belfast, which lasted only a few hours. So far as can be learned the premier's conference with a large body of representative Ulstermen was disappointing.

It is understood that the question of the general disarmament of forces in Ireland not authorized by the government was discussed, and, although those present were pledged to secrecy, it is rumored that cold water had been thrown on the proposal. The discussion was very full and frank, but it is asserted that the result was unsatisfactory.

Sir Edward Carson's telegram to the Ulster Unionist Council, to the effect that he had no knowledge of rumors respecting the government of Ireland, did not bring about an alleviation of the situation. Belfast itself does not show any signs of accepting the compromise, which it is understood Mr. Redmond is ready to offer. Ulster's capital was almost entirely unaffected by the recent rebellion, and the martial law has not been enforced.

In the province, they will vote for Mahoney; but if they want fair play for themselves and protection against a repetition of such outrageous acts as have been perpetrated within the last four years, they will vote solidly for an opposition candidate.

Wounded Canadians Are Exemplary Patients—A New Brunswick Parson's Six Fighting Sons—Visiting Wounded from New Brunswick—People Calm When Zeppelins Come.

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir—Those of your readers who are good enough to be interested in my fortunes and my work will have been surprised to hear of my transfer from the 30th Canadian Battalion to the 11th Canadian Special Hospital at Ramsgate.

The Sunday before I arrived Ramsgate I was bombed by hostile aeroplanes, and I was quite easy when I was in the room which had been destroyed by the bomb which had struck the hospital on that occasion.

I reasoned that bombs like lightning were likely to strike the same spot twice. The little journey between Ramsgate and Hythe necessitated always a stop at Canterbury for 26 or 28 minutes, so I was able to make three times to go over to the beautiful cathedral town of Canterbury.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, May 13—The arrival of two lawyers from St. Stephen on Wednesday added considerable interest to the postponed trial. The action was brought by the late Miss Abia Page against a citizen who has in his possession five young foxes.

The defendant claimed to have taken the foxes from a den under the ruins of an old barn.

The town hall was crowded with witnesses for the defense and the public generally. The case was withdrawn by the plaintiff in the defendant's lawyer's contention that the foxes were not his.

Many complaints are being made regarding the noise and dust which is being raised by the trucks and cars in the vicinity of the spot where the den is located.

MONCTON VISITED BY $125,000 FIRE

Sumner and Reed Companies Suffer Heavy Losses

INSURANCE ABOUT 75 PER CENT.

Blaze Started in Alley and Wiped Out Large Hardware and Wholesale Grocers' Warehouses—Firemen Work for 12 Hours.

Moncton, May 14—From the standpoint of property loss Moncton was this morning visited by the most disastrous fire since the million dollar conflagration that wiped out the greater portion of the I. C. R. shops in 1906, and apart from the I. C. R. fire this morning's fire caused the greatest property loss in the history of the city.

As a result of the conflagration several large warehouses full of goods and owned by the two leading wholesale firms in the city were wiped out and loss is placed at $125,000 with insurance about seventy-five per cent of the loss.

The warehouses burned were owned by Sumner & Co., wholesale grocers, and hardware merchants, and the Reed Company, wholesale grocers, and were situated on the river front along the wharf track. The buildings were located between Mechanic and Duke streets.

The fire broke out about 4 o'clock this morning and as near as can be ascertained started in a very narrow alleyway between the Sumner and Reed buildings, and was well started in both warehouses when discovered.

Although the fire department made a quick response considering the hour it was apparent when they arrived that the wooden structures with all contents were doomed by the fighting. The Reed Company's brick building containing office and warehouse, immediately adjoining the burned wooden structure, was saved.

The firemen worked for nearly twelve hours steadily before the fire in the burning embers was completely extinguished. The Sumner wooden warehouses consisted of four or five buildings adjoining each other, the largest of which were 140x44 and 50x32 feet in size, all the buildings stocked full of all kinds of hardware. The buildings were valued at $125,000 with insurance and the stock which, as stated is a total loss, was valued at $85,000, covered by insurance to the extent of about seventy-five per cent.

Sumner Company's loss over and above insurance will be considerable. The goods in stock today could not be replaced today for $30,000 more than the amount of the value at which they had been placed.

The Reed Company lost three wooden buildings—the largest being 75x30 and 100x25. The Reed Company's loss in loss in buildings and stock at $22,000 with insurance of about ninety per cent of loss.

The insurance losses are divided among a number of companies.

MAIL ROBBERY AT NEWCASTLE

Fragments of Letters Found Under Sproul's Barn by Small Boys.

(North Shore Leader, May 12.)

That there was a robbery of mail from Newcastle consigned to southern parts of the province became known by the post office authorities here on Monday.

The facts show that on Thursday night of last week some packages of letters were taken from a mail bag at the station shortly after midnight.

The letters bore the Newcastle stamp dated May 4, and had been placed by the post office staff here into the south mail bag.

The Newcastle Postmaster Troy had of the affair was on Monday when it was reported to him that a number of school boys saw letters which were torn open under the Sproul barn, near Harkness Academy. Postmaster Troy immediately took the matter in hand and on visiting the barn, gathered up the pieces of letters and put them together as best he could and forwarded them to the P. O. inspector, informing him of the matter.

Some of the letters found had contained money orders, which are missing, and were addressed to Fredericton. It is thought that the thief must have ripped the bag open and stole the letters without being noticed.

The matter is now being investigated by the postal authorities. The I. C. R. management should have a permanent policeman stationed to look after the hoodlums who gather at the station on the arrival of trains.

RECRUITING FLUX NEEDED IMMEDIATELY IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Local Recruiting Office Smashed All Low Records Last Week—Splendid Example of Former St. John Boy Who Returned From Saskatchewan to Join Siege Battery.

Only seven recruits last week at the German street recruiting office is the total given by the records. Three days during the week not a single man was secured, two days one recruit each, while Wednesday was the only day that gave anything like a normal total, five being secured then. Although seven is the perfect number, it is not by any means a perfect total when recruiting is being considered and last week's total is by long odds the lowest in several months in this city.

Outlook Lowering.

If last week's results here can be taken as a criterion of the results throughout the other portions of the province, then we tremble to think of the result. Although the west is keeping up the recruiting pace in spite of renewed agricultural activities there it cannot carry the burden for the whole dominion, and if the west continues to give the bulk of the recruits there is a measure of consolation in the poetic prophecy: "For East is East and West is West, and near the twin shall meet," for unless conditions change materially in the near future we shall feel ashamed to meet our brothers of the west country.

Pro and Con. The results of recruiting in western Canada are strong arguments against conscription, while in eastern Canada are equally strong in its favor. It would appear that the splendid recruiting results in western Canada are due to the great part to its type of citizen. When the west is young and springing into importance it began to be recruited with its spirit of patriotism, makes this very attractive to them and with all respect to the west it is strongly evident that this has been a big factor in the splendid recruiting results in that portion of the dominion.

A Good Example. A splendid showing of patriotism was demonstrated recently when there arrived in the city from Saskatchewan a heavy young man who declared his intention of enlisting in the No. 7 Overseas Siege Battery.

Several years ago his father kept a drug store in Charlottetown and later moved with his family to Red Head, where he took up farming and finally met his death by falling off a load of hay. The father had three sons and they went to different parts of the province to seek their fortunes. This young man went to Saskatchewan where he entered a bank and had by close application to work secured a splendid position. First a brother enlisted for overseas service and later his friends began to put on the khaki and finally he decided to give everything up and come back to St. John and enlist.

Obstacles by the Way. Not long after he made up his mind he purchased a ticket home. Few recruits have encountered so many difficulties as he did on the way. When but a short distance on his journey he lost the ticket and had to purchase another from Montreal to St. John, but even this did not dampen his ardour. Finally he arrived in the city, was examined and accepted for the Siege Battery. His next difficulty was when he discovered that the quartermaster's stores had only two suits of khaki left, one too small and the other too large, as a trial party. He however, had received too many bumps to allow this to bother him, so he got a tailor and had the big uniform cut down until it fitted him. This is the type of young men who have made the name of Canada loud large before the eyes of the whole world.

This young man is glad to be back once more in his native city, but is doubly happy that he is a member of an overseas unit.

Moncton Recruits for 145th. A Moncton despatch says that the following men were recently taken on to the strength of the 145th Westmorland and Kent battalions: M. C. Deacon, Tower Hill, Composite regiment; B. P. Sawyer, St. Stephen, 118th battalion; F. G. Hickling, Woodland, 7th Siege Battery; R. B. Frye, St. Stephen, 118th battalions; Ernest Sprague, Milltown, 68th battery.

Fredericton Recruits. Recruiting is continuing the even tenor of its way at Fredericton and the latest recruits reported there are: Havelock Kelley of Stanley; James Foster and Charles L. Duplessis, of Fredericton; Capt. A. L. McDonald, of Ottawa, is at present recruiting there for the 4th Pioneer Battalion and expects to get good results at the capital city.

Resigns Pastor for Khaki. Capt. (Rev.) G. A. Lawson, of Moncton, has resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist church there in order to become chaplain to the 145th Westmorland and Kent Battalion now being mobilized at Moncton.

Rev. Mr. Lawson went to the Moncton churches there a half year ago and from West End Baptist church, Halifax, and has been most successful in his work there. The burning of the old church buildings and the erection of the present handsome and modern edifice imposed heavy burdens upon the pastor and congregation, but the present healthy condition of the church is a tribute to the energy and indomitable courage of pastor and people. Last year, it may be stated, was one of the most successful years in the history of the church.

No. 4 Pioneer Battalion. Within a week the 500 men already recruited for the 4th Pioneer overseas battalion will be in camp at St. Andrews, according to announcement made Saturday by Colonel Paul Weatherhead, the commanding officer, who was in the city. The battalion will likely be at St. Andrews in a month.

The advance party will arrive in St. Andrews on Wednesday of this week and as soon as the preparations are completed, the others from various depots throughout the dominion will follow promptly.

Officers for this unit have been chosen with particular care in view of the exacting nature of the work. Every officer is either an engineer, many of them with considerable military experience, or a contractor accustomed to construction work. So far as possible the men are being selected also with a view to their special qualifications.

The complete list of officers for the battalion, announced now for the first time, is as follows: Commanding officer—Lieut. Colonel Paul Weatherhead. Second in command—Major A. E. Myatt. Adjutant—Captain Jennings. Quartermaster—Captain A. R. Auger. Paymaster—Captain F. V. Lamb. Medical officer—Captain Dumbell. Day sergeant—Lieut. Day. Company commanders—Captains McNeill, Captain Pardee, Captain Mucklestone and Captain A. L. McDougall. Second in command—Captain Dyke. Greenlees, Maguire and Pense. Subalterns—Lieutenants Wade, Poyer, McDonald, Bolger, Solloway, Webber, Montanher, Gray, Chisholm, Fraser, Plomondon, Coutlee, Marshall, Goodchild and Tracey.

1st Regt. Did Good Work. That the 1st regiment holds a proud and unique position in this war so far as supplying officers to overseas units is that it has 22 officers that unit have gone overseas, and 21 others are at present preparing to go. It is also stated that every officer in the regiment has applied for overseas appointment. Besides this the regiment has assisted in recruiting between 1,500 and 1,600 men for overseas in its district. One officer, Lieut. Charles M. Lawson, of the 26th battalion has already given his life in this struggle.

The annual meeting of the regiment was held in Fredericton on Friday evening. Lieut. Leon Thurett was appointed adjutant of the regiment, Lieut. Roland J. Murray secretary-treasurer. The regimental committee was elected as follows: Lieut. Col. Gray, Capt. Hunter, P. Ryder and Lieut. John Yates. The financial statement showed the regiment to be in a flourishing condition, the bank balance at present being over $100.

With the 59th Battery. Bugles and drums have already been ordered for the 59th Howitzer Battery stationed at Fredericton, and the men are now busily engaged getting material together for a bugle band. The battery is anxiously awaiting the arrival of the instruments, and the men are counting the days to the initial appearance of the new musical organization.

Private Gilbert Wounded. Word has been received in the city that Pte. Stanley A. Gilbert, of "A" Squadron of Canadian Mounted Rifles, under Major Mackham, has been slightly wounded. As yet the authorities have not been able to discover Pte. Gilbert's former address in this city.

Made Brigade Commander. Lieut. Colonel A. H. Macdonell, D.S.O., has been appointed to the command of the 5th Brigade in France, of which brigade the 26th battalion is a unit. Colonel Macdonell has a host of friends in St. John and throughout the province, who will be glad to hear of his new appointment. He was in command of a New Brunswick unit in the South African war, where he won the D.S.O. Up until recently he was in command of the R. C. B. at the front.

Colonel McAvity Ill. It has been learned from recent advices from London that Lieut. Colonel J. L. McAvity of the 26th battalion, may not be able to return to his command for some time owing to ill health.

Secures Captaincy. Lieut. Knowlton of the 26th battalion, has been given his captaincy, according to recent despatch received from the front. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

N.C.O.'s Who Qualified. The following is a list of the N.C.O.'s who recently qualified at the Royal School of Infantry at Halifax: Sergeants W. Macleod, 104th; S. R. Hunter, 104th; J. O. Donnell, 118th; R. McGrath, 122nd; and H. S. Nixon, 140th.

Newcastle, May 10.—D. T. Johnstone, Newcastle, has been appointed secretary-treasurer of the pilotage commission, succeeding Byron N. Call, of Newcastle, who resigned because of ill health.

Miss Bell, of Taymouth, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Everett Vye.

To save knife polish, the knives and forks are first washed with cold water, immediately after dinner they will not be stained, and they will require little cleaning.

APPEAL FROM CHAPLAIN HOOPER FOR FUNDS TO COMFORT OUR WOUNDED

Read the Chaplain's Appeal and Send What You Can—Fund Will Be Cabled at End of Ten Days—If Your Boy Isn't Wounded Somebody Else's Boy Is, and This Money Will Help Him.

An appeal from Capt. the Rev. B. B. Hooper for funds with which to give solace and comfort to our wounded in the hospitals where he is on duty is published herewith. Simply but eloquently enough it speaks for itself. These stricken down fellows engaged in the grim work we sent them to do. Now money is needed to give them a bit of comfort as they lie helpless. Shall we hesitate? This fund is to be open only ten days. Make cheques payable to C. W. Hallamore, who has consented to act as treasurer of the fund. The Telegraph and the Times will receive and acknowledge subscriptions and cable the total to Chaplain Hooper. His appeal follows here:

My work as chaplain attached to the Granville Canadian Special Hospital at Ramsgate is now in full swing. Besides the 700 patients at the Granville and the Chatham House in Ramsgate, both under the same Canadian administration, there are many Canadian patients in many other hospitals within a seven or eight mile radius; for example, at Margate, Westgate, Minister, and here at Broadstairs, and even as far as Deal on the one hand and Heron Bay on the other. Whether I shall be able to attend to so many hospitals need not be seen, but my intention is to look after all Canadian sick and wounded within reasonable distance, who have no Canadian chaplain. And the places I have mentioned are without Canadian chaplains. I have many hundreds under my care. I deal with all men alike. It matters nothing whether they come from the west or from the east, or what their religious denomination may be. To me they are men from Canada, splendid fellows, fighting men who have suffered in the path of duty. To them I try to be a chaplain in every deed and that means a father, a helper, a friend. Men in hospital have an allowance of five shillings a week, stamps, tobacco, and an occasional addition to the very plain hospital fare, quickly exhaust these five shillings.

I am asking those who have the comfort and welfare of suffering Canadian soldiers at heart to supply me with a little more money. Last summer through the kind medium of The Globe I received from people in St. John £107. I have done an immense amount of good with that generous gift. It is now gone. Hundreds of your lads have benefited by it. Now I need more.

I am asking the editors of The Telegraph and The Evening Times to help my request before the public for a few days. At the end of ten days the contribution will be closed and the editors will cable me the amount received. You have to trust me to administer your gift wisely. You have to be content to allow me to appear as benefactor to our lads in your stead. I can only promise to use my best care and judgment. IF YOU COULD SEE THE MEN AS I GO AMONG THEM DAY BY DAY YOU WOULD GIVE EVERY CENT YOU COULD SPARE, FOR YOU WOULD RECOGNIZE THE GOOD BEING DONE AND THE SOLACE AND COMFORT BEING GIVEN TO THE GALLANT MEN FROM CANADA?

Awaiting in confidence the result of my request, I am, Yours faithfully, E. B. HOOPER, Rector of St. Paul's Church, St. John, and Chaplain of Granville Canadian Hospital.

STEAMER LEAVING HERE IN EXCITING SUBMARINE CHASE

An exciting chase by a German submarine was experienced by the steamer Duendes on her last run from St. John to Plymouth. Despatches relate that in a two and a half hour chase by the submarine forty-one shells were fired, and the crew of the Duendes covered themselves with glory.

Captain Christensen, who manoeuvred his boat out of shell fire, and Chief Engineer William Cameron, who, with the loyal support of his juniors and firemen, remained until the last moment on the deck, were the heroes of the fight. The Duendes was loaded deep with 6,000 tons of ammunition, made in Canada. She was not far from the English coast when the U boat fired at her. When she arrived at Plymouth from St. John an admiral was on the galley.

Str. Eretria, Battle Liner, Goes Down

P. W. Thomson, of William Thomson & Company, received late Saturday the following message from the British admiralty: "Your steamer, Eretria reported sunk by mine in Bay of Biscay. Crew saved."

Probably no one, not even the owners themselves, heard with more regret news that the Battle Liner Eretria had been mined than Captain A. J. Mulcahey. When the vessel was launched at Glasgow in 1901, Captain Mulcahey assumed command of her and he continued as her master until his retirement from the marine service in 1909. Captain Mulcahey associated with the Eretria during the most pleasant days of his career on the sea, and, as he expressed it himself, he was "heartily sorry that she had been sunk."

For years she had been a regular trader here during the summer months and last summer she made a voyage to the port. Her last trip was from Tampa, Fla. She sailed from there on April 19 with a cargo for the United Kingdom.

Speaking to The Telegraph yesterday about the sinking of the ship, Captain Mulcahey related her history. It was launched at Glasgow, Scotland, on May 16, 1901, at 8.30 in the evening when she was launched at Glasgow, Scotland. Captain Mulcahey was aboard her then and she took immediate command. The maiden voyage was to St. John and the of the Thomson boats," concluded Captain G. N. Kennedy, and Mrs. Iain Mulcahey.

Kennedy was passengers with him on that trip. In St. John Captain Mulcahey was met by his wife, and she and their son, Drew, accompanied him on the vessel on many trips. In 1909 Captain Mulcahey relinquished his command to look after the company's vessels at Hamburg, and then, too, he retired from active sea life.

During his period in command of the vessel she was a trader in the Far East during the Russian-Japanese war and she also traveled to South Africa during the war there.

Yes, the Eretria was one of the best of the Thomson boats," concluded Captain G. N. Kennedy, and Mrs. Iain Mulcahey.

PAYMENTS TO PATRIOTIC FUND SHOULD BE KEPT UP

Taxation Proposals Do Not Relieve Those Staying at Home From Responsibility—St. John Paying More Than Twice Amount Received Each Month.

With the exception of the month of January the receipts of the patriotic fund last month were the lowest of the year. President C. B. Allan told The Telegraph yesterday that in some quarters the people are allowing subscriptions to fall into arrears and that some even have stopped paying into the fund.

One reason advanced for this is a feeling that the taxation proposals would make contribution too heavy to carry, but as was pointed out by Mr. Allan, the plan to collect money for the fund from taxation would mean to the mind of small income only a temporary arrangement as each district supposed to look after its own, so that, in the future, the amounts thus drawn from the central fund will have to be replaced.

The discrepancy between the amount received each month and the amount paid out is made up from the central fund, but this is only a temporary arrangement as each district supposed to look after its own, so that, in the future, the amounts thus drawn from the central fund will have to be replaced.

The city of St. John, Mr. Allan says, is keeping up its end well. There is, however, a big discrepancy between the amounts received and the amounts paid out. While the average receipts per month at the local office amount to a little over $6,000 the amounts paid out are in the neighborhood of $14,000.

stitute the taxpayers of the country for the Canadian Northern railway as liable for the $140,000,000 of unguaranteed securities issued by the company.

Mr. Bennett thought that no business man would be scared by the idea of a receivership which would simply save something out of the road for them who built it. Since, however, it was agreed that parliament should assist the companies in order to maintain the credit of the country, Mr. Bennett held that it should be the duty of parliament to demand loans in order that the government might take any action which might at any time seem necessary; secondly, the business minister should be made responsible for the distribution of the money lent; thirdly, the operating revenues of the C. N. R. should not be left in the charge of MacKenzie and Mann; and fourthly, Bennett went on to argue that the Canadian Northern was expanding on expensive passenger services in eastern Canada, money which should be employed in the construction of profitable freight traffic in the west.

Mr. Bennett then emphasized the importance of placing directors to represent the government on the board of the C. N. R. who would not be dummies, but men who would see that the money lent would be used to supply facilities to the west, and that no new work would be commenced which would commit the system to a larger expenditure. The commission he said, to study the whole railway situation should be appointed before the end of the month and must consist of members unaffiliated by local considerations. Mr. Bennett did not think such a commission could be formed in the Calgary member continued that he had 2,000 miles of railway in Canada which was of the most important character.

Mr. Bennett advocated a special session of parliament to deal with the matter and determine once and for all what should be the policy of the government in respect to the railway. He thought that the party caucus was an insufficient link between the cabinet and the private members of the house, and that the members should be strengthened and magnify the power of the cabinet.

The Canadian Northern Railway owed its existence to the ambition of two men, said Mr. Bennett. To take an opinion to buy the road and to pay the two men a single dollar would meet with the approval of the public. Mr. Bennett said that the railway was a failure because of the dictation of the Liberal party, he continued, would have to accept the whole responsibility for the failure of the railway.

The National Transcontinental Railway, the government section of the G. T. R. had been built largely for political reasons, he said. He pointed out an absence of all business consideration and judgment.

Mr. Bennett could not understand why the railway was not permitted to be run by the G. T. P. and the Canadian Northern to build transcontinental systems. "Had I been dictator," said Mr. Bennett, "I would have ordered the construction of the Canadian Northern east of the Great Lakes."

He also pointed out that the C. N. R. line in British Columbia possessed a quality to make a railway acceptable except traffic.

The member for Calgary said that the country was confronted with an appalling situation. The Canadian Northern was heavily in debt and the G. T. P. was practically insolvent. In his opinion, the country should allow the two roads to pass into the hands of receivers. A receivership was the only way to squeeze the water out of the swollen situation.

The member for St. John said that the country should be allowed to take over the railway. He pointed out that the railway was a failure because of the dictation of the Liberal party, he continued, would have to accept the whole responsibility for the failure of the railway.

CANADA'S EXPERTS PASSED OVER BY SHELL COMMITTEE

General Benson and Col. Lafferty Give Evidence at Inquiry

Master-General of Ordnance Newly Consulted Concerning Prices—Nothing Heard of Proposal to Pay Surplus Profits to Patriotic Fund.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Ottawa, May 15—Canada's official munitions experts fared about as badly on the shell committee as Canada's manufacturers fared from it. Two of them gave evidence before Sir William Meredith and Hon. Justice Duff today. General Benson, master-general of ordnance who confessed to believing at the time of his appointment that the purpose of the committee was to procure munitions in Canada, stated frankly that he could not remember the question of contracts with the manufacturing members of the committee being discussed at any meeting. He had no recollection of any meeting having been consulted on prices at all. Matters, he said, were largely left in the hands of General Bertram and Colonel Lafferty, superintendent of the dominion arsenal, who, before the appearance of the subcommittee, was nominated technical advisor to the shell committee. Colonel Lafferty swore he was aware of the situation and was willing to turn his hand at making fuses but, after the advent of Carnegie, he was not called upon to do so. He was not called upon to do so in the price of a single article of ammunition or of a component part. Colonel Lafferty also told F. B. Carvell, M.P., that he had never heard of the proposal that General Bertram outlined in his evidence to turn all surplus profits over to the patriotic fund.

General Legie, commanding the Toronto district, is in camp conducting an investigation. The new arrivals who started the uprising had already given considerable trouble at Petawawa, refusing to go to work and to return to the guards. There were no casualties among the soldiers.

Cochrane, Ont., May 15—One man dead, nine seriously wounded, several fatally, and four injured, is the result of an outbreak instigated by 300 Austrian prisoners, who arrived at Kapuskasing prison camp, sixty miles west of here, on the Transcontinental Railway from Petawawa on Wednesday last under guard of 800 soldiers. The outbreak, which the 900 other inmates of the camp participated in, occurred on Friday, and the riot lasted several hours, the soldiers using their bayonets as well as firing on the prisoners.

WHEN AUSTRIANS MUTINIED IN CAMP

One Killed and Several Fatally Wounded in Clash at Lake Kapuskasing.

According to testimony given this afternoon by Daniel O'Brien, an Irish prisoner, who was at Limburg during Casement's visit, and who afterwards was confined in the prison, he said that he had been in the camp at Limburg during the outbreak. Some members of a Munster regiment struck Sir Roger, and several prisoners, including O'Brien, were punished for it. The witnesses testified, their ratings being cut down.

Several other witnesses were brought forward by the prosecution during the afternoon. The testimony was corroborative of that which had been given relative to the activities of Casement in Germany.

The court room was as crowded at the afternoon session as was during the morning. Almost as soon as adjournment was taken for lunch a new line of men, including O'Brien, entered the building, and waited patiently in the hope of gaining entrance. When Sir Roger took his place in the dock it was evident that the camp had been a success.

The case of old, whose large amount of self-esteem was a marked feature, was reported by his officers. He was not damped even by his wrinkled slacks suit, which looks as though he had slept in it in the tower, or by the uniform of a British soldier. He was one of his class as provided for prisoners of the camp. He was a man of the type of the camp. He was a man of the type of the camp.

White most of the testimony of the witness concerned Casement, an occasional question was put by the prosecution for the purpose of linking Bailey with the revolutionary movement. Witnesses answering the questions, they said, at Limburg, they said that they had seen Bailey at the camp. Bailey was in the dock like a stone man, his eyes never changing his rigid position.

Michael O'Connor testified in referring to an address made by Casement to Irish prisoners at Limburg, that the prisoner said to the prisoners: "You are all followers of that recruiting man for the British army, Johnny Redmond." An English witness named Wilson, who belonged to the Dublin Pipers, said Casement told them: "Take no notice of your uncrowned king, John Redmond."

His arrest was declared to be considered one of the most important made by the British authorities.

Lieutenant Murray MacLaren has arrived in London from No. 1 General Hospital to take up his duties as D. D. M. G. S. second in command to Major General Jones. Lieutenant Colonel Lorne Drum, who has vacated the last named post, will go to Bramshott as A.D.M.S. of the training division, as
