A Lass From the Country.

Dear Miss Grey—I am a constant reader of your column, and find it very interesting and would be very thankful if you will answer a few questions for me:

1. I am 17 years old and am 5 feet 6 inches tall. How long should my dresses be?
2. I weigh 105 pounds. Am I well proportioned?
3. I have dark hair and a fair complexion. What are my colors?
4. I have a fellow the same same age as I am. Do you think me too young?
5. How long can I be out at night?
6. I am going away for a week for my holidays. What dresses do you advise me to take along?
7. What are the meanings of the following names: Josephine, Harry, Edna, Annie, Louise, Arthur, Belle, Peter, Francis, Laura, Emma, Fred, Lena?

Thanking you in advance, I am,
A FARMER GIRL.

Ans.—1. To your ankles.

2. For your age and height you should weigh about 110 pounds.

3. Red, brown, green, violet, mauve and navy.

4. You are too young to have any particular "fellow," but not too young to have many boy friends.

5. Ten at the latest, unless accompanied by some older than yourself.

6. This depends on where you are going. If preparing for a summer resort you will need more clothes. A middie, a fancy blouse and dark skirt, and a couple of light dresses.

7. Josephine, sportive; Harry, head of house; Edward, guardian of happiness; Annie, grace; Louise, bold; Arthur, right; Belle, beauty; Peter a rock; Francis, free; Laura, a laurel; Emma, industrious; Fred, abounding; Lena, of noble birth.

Dear Miss Grey—I spilled ink on a linen blouse, and I cannot seem to get it out. Will you tell me how to overcome the stain?

Will the light coats be fashionable for fall wear?

3. I am dark complexioned, and have blue eyes. What are my colors?

Are long skirts stylish this season?

How long I have not bothered you too much.

BETSY ANNE.

Ans.—1. Apply salts of lemon to the stain, allowing it to remain for a while, rinse thoroughly, and the ink will fade completely. If not successful, repeat the process again.

2. The shawl and cloak coats are very fashionable just now, and are being shown in all the drygoods stores.

3. Red, brown, violet, mauve, green.

4. No, they are not being worn as long. About two inches from the ground.

From an A-list.

Dear Miss Grey—Could you, through your most helpful column, give me the address of a firm in Toronto who deals in hand-painted satin cushion tops?

Also do you know of an art store in Toronto where one could obtain painter's canvases? If you could give me this information you would greatly oblige.

THE ARTIST.

Ans.—I cannot tell you of a place in

Planning the Caring of the Home Garden

It may seem rather odd of place to talk of next winter's window garden at this season, but there are good reasons for doing so. Few plants can be grown to a size that will entitle them to a place in the window garden in six weeks' or two months' time, but this is as long as the plants you buy in the fall have to get ready for winter work unless you invest in large plants, as comparatively few persons do. This being the case, it is wisdom on the part of the flower lover to begin to get ready for the winter window garden now. Decide on what you want, order it at once, and give it all the rest of the season to grow in, and when winter comes it will find you put off the purchase of plants of flowering size, from which you will begin to get returns early in the season. But if you put off the purchase of plants until fall is upon you, you will have a lot of small, undeveloped specimens on your hands, from which you can expect little or nothing in the way of flowers during the summer. It may be "come, mon," like the geranium, but that does not detract from its beauty. It is not an easy matter to find a more cheerful plant.

If you want a hanging plant that will give you flowers for months in succession, you will be delighted with the ox-eye daisy. Put at least half a dozen of the little tuber-like roots in a six-inch pot. Soon there will be sent up a profusion of flowers, the color of which will be followed by a greater profusion of charming little flowers that will make you think of arbutus and hepatica and other woodland blossoms. To daisy be "come, mon," like the geranium, but that does not detract from its beauty. It is not an easy matter to find a more cheerful plant.

So if you contemplate having a window of plants next winter, buy them now and when winter comes it will find them ready for active service. You can not afford to depend on plants bought late in the fall.

Some Appetizing Recipes

Plain Paste for Pies.

[By Alice E. Whitaker.]

This paste is good for a chicken pie or for plain fruit pies. Allow one-half cup of lard and one-half cup of butter to each three cups of flour. Sift with the flour a level teaspoonful of baking powder. Work the lard into the flour and moisten to a stiff dough with ice cold water. Roll out and dot with the butter cut in small pieces or roll the butter out flat on a floured board and put it in the centre of the dough and fold over sideways and then lengthwise. Pat ends, roll out again, fold and repeat. This will distribute the butter well through the paste and in flakes, which in baking will rise and make the crust light. Keep pastry well chilled while making.

Western Muffins.

Mix together two and a half cups of flour, one and a half cups of corn meal, three heaping teaspoonfuls of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt. Work in one tablespoonful of butter or lard, beat and add one cup of milk and beat the whole quickly into a firm batter. The muffin rings should not as a rule be more than half filled. The griddle should be hot and well greased before the muffins are put on. You can rise to the top the muffins are usually ready to turn.

Ham and Eggs.

Many have eaten eggs as a standard dish for breakfast, with great frequency. For warm weather there is no objection to ham and eggs, and for a handy labor and heat saver we find cold boiled ham one of the greatest conveniences as a summer meal. We will, because of this fact, buy enough ham, knuckle (at proper price) preferred, to have some boiled ham and other convenient dishes and lunch dishes. We will have the slices cut from the knuckle by the market man and the rest can be kept in a tight paper bag until we decide to boil it, say about next Tuesday for dinner.

Orange Filling.

Put one-quarter cup of butter and one cup of granulated sugar in a saucepan and melt. Stir and add the yolks of three eggs, beaten together well, and the stiffly beaten white of one egg, the juice of two oranges and the grated yellow rind of one. Stir constantly until cook about six minutes. The mixture should be quite thick. Cool and spread between layers of cake. The two remaining whites may be used for an icing to be flavored with orange.

Good Blueberry Pudding.

Mix and sift two cupfuls of pastry flour, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Work in two tablespoonfuls of butter, using the tip of the fingers, and add one cupful of milk, gradually; then add one cupful of blueberries rolled in one tablespoonful of flour. Turn into a buttered mold, not having mold more than two-thirds full, and adjust buttered cover. Place mold on a trivet in kettle containing boiling water, allowing water to come half way up around mold. Cover closely and steam one and one-half hours, adding more water as needed. Never allow the water to reach a lower temperature than the boiling point. Serve with hard sauce.

Baked Bananas.

To bake bananas, take off the skin, beginning always at the tip, not the stem end, with a blunt knife scrape the banana to get off the outer tough membrane, and lay the fruit in a baking pan; sift sugar over, half an inch of bananas, dot each with butter and put a little cold water in the pan; bake when done lift out to a light brown; a little more water to make sugary gravy, which is to cook down and be poured over the fruit.

Can-Heating Hint.

In heating a can of beans on the stove it exploded, contrary to directions on can, which says to always heat by opening or puncturing the can in centre on top with can opener, allowing steam to escape sufficient to prevent explosion. This works to perfection. All sorts of canned vegetables are better heated in the can, then serving with a good sauce poured over contents when ready to serve.

The task of keeping the stove clean will be greatly lightened if all grease spots are rubbed off with a newspaper while the range is still hot.

To stop a door hinge from creaking, rub it with a lead pencil.

When fannels have become hard and shrunken, they may be restored to their former softness by soaking them in gasoline.

A few shreds of candied lemon peel will give a delicious flavor to bread pudding.

Mrs. Philips Pops the Question

[BY OLIVE.]

Mr. Philips is a chap who usually gets the best of an argument, but Mrs. Philips tells a good one on her husband that is worth repeating.

The other evening while she was engaged in finishing up a new cushion—of those delicate affairs of pale shades—with masculine abruptness he put the question: "Is that cushion for use?"

Mrs. Philips regarded her husband, needle poised, and answered, "Well, no; it is for ornament." "The man of the house, watching the nimble fingers of his wife as they flew to and fro fashioning the last petal of an American beauty rose, then he plied his second question, "What use is a cushion you can't use?"

Mrs. Philips glanced up quickly from her work, "I suppose to make my parlor attractive," she answered.

Mr. Philips subsided into the depths of his easy chair, and selected with some care the latest book of fiction from the table, and apparently became interested in its contents.

About half an hour later the American Beauty was finished, and Mrs. Philips, holding it up to the critical eye of her husband asked, "Won't you acknowledge that this is the prettiest cushion you ever saw?"

"No," grunted the man in the chair. "I can't for the life of me see beauty in a thing that is not practical." He wandered for a moment upon the rose, muttering, "You don't see me have anything that is just ornamental; I like durability every time."

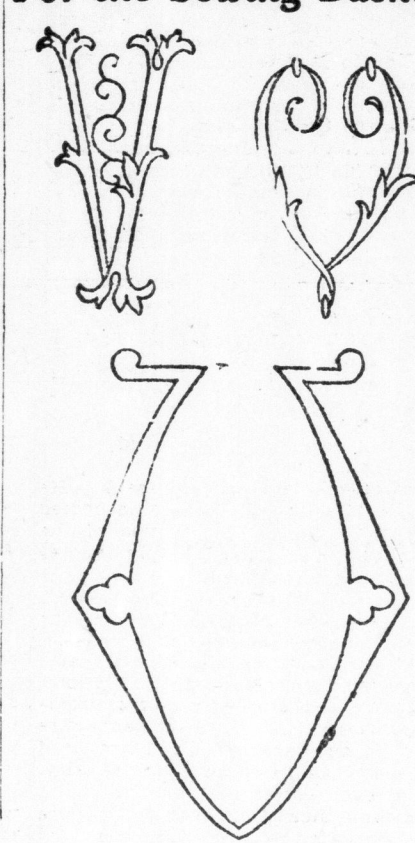

Mrs. Philips said nothing; but an observer could see that she was thinking, and thinking hard. Now and then her mouth twitched mischievously as she wished to say something, but she dared not do so. Looking at her husband and straightening her face, and with all seriousness she asked, "Why do you wear a moustache, Henry?"

When you come to think of it, you know it is only ornamental, and as for use, well, dear, tell me just what use it is to you anyway?"

Philips looked at the demure face of his wife across the table from him. He scratched his head, but could find no answer for this clever question. He coughed, stammered, and finally blurted out, "Let's say quits, and let it go at that," and added, "That is a pretty cushion."

Then Mr. Philips left hurriedly for his sanctuary—the "den."

Blarritz People Overwhelm Germans With Kindness On Arrival.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Sept. 1.—A Havas dispatch from Blarritz says that the arrival of a company of 123 wounded soldiers and twelve officers today gave rise to a general manifestation of sympathy on the part of the foreign colony, in which the British and Spanish took conspicuous part. They loaded the soldiers with flowers, cigarettes, cigars and other presents of all kinds. Automobiles were placed at their disposal and refreshments were served in the saloons of the Casino, where hospital wards, with all possible comforts, were arranged. The soldiers displayed great emotion at their reception.

NORTH POLE CLAIMS YET ANOTHER VICTIM

Leader of Expedition of 1912 Dies On Way—Survivors Return.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 1.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company reports that surviving members of the Arctic expedition, headed by Lieut. Sedoff, which left for the north in 1912, have arrived at Archangel.

The survivors stated that Lieut. Sedoff died in a vain attempt to reach the North Pole. The expedition wintered in 1912 and 1913 in newly-discovered territory, and later Sedoff proceeded to Franz Josef Land, whence he started for the pole accompanied by two sailors. The leader fell ill on the way and died.

NEW NAME CHOSEN FOR ST. PETERSBURG

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 1.—10 a. m.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from St. Petersburg says that the imperial order of the city of St. Petersburg, capital of the Russian Empire since 1712, will henceforth be known as Petrograd. This change eliminates the Teuton construction in the name by which the chief city of Russia has been known since it was founded by Peter the Great in 1703.

A NEW COMET.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 1.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Sofia says that a new comet has been observed with the naked eye from the observatory at Plevna. It was located in the constellation of Gemini.

CANADIANS MAY NOT SEE ACTION FOR SOME TIME

Part of Force to Garrison

PART TO REMAIN AT HOME
Statement of Minister of Militia to the Officers.

[Canadian Press.]

VALCARTIER, Que., Aug. 31.—From his charger, Col. Hughes, minister of militia, addressed about 1,000 officers of the mobilization camp this afternoon. The officers formed three sides of a hollow square northwest of the headquarters, and from an elevated position the minister told them of some of the plans of the Government in connection with the first contingent and another contingent that may be formed.

He said that there were now over 23,000 soldiers encamped, and only about 22,000 would comprise the first division. If they could not go at once they must not be altogether disappointed. There would be use for them and they would all have their chance some time.

Looking for Officers.
"It is necessary that we secure competent officers," said Col. Hughes. "Many have applied to me for commissions, but I have refused even some of my personal friends. I want men for action. Action—that is the word. I want cool-headed men, because it is a terrible responsibility. I want men who can make quick decisions, whether they are in charge of a battery or a battalion."

He stated that the Canadian force would be used to garrison Bermuda and other places and other regiments would be used in Canada as a protective force here. 29,000 of the Best.

Col. Williams, camp commandant, had been authorized to raise sixteen battalions instead of twelve, because of the great number of volunteers. He said that the present 20,000 men in camp were the best ever gathered in Canada. They had to get down to serious business and learn to shoot straight. "I can excuse a man for almost anything if he can pick his man," said the colonel. "Incompetent officers are worse than baggage, because they must be fed."

Everyone a Volunteer.
Following his speech, the officers gave three cheers for the Minister of Militia and three more for the camp commandant. The minister said to newspapermen that he had not asked a man to join the force. "I have not asked a man to go. I have not asked a Roman Catholic, an Orangeman, a priest or a parson. Everybody has come voluntarily."

The arrivals in camp today were as follows: Sixth Regiment, Vancouver, 352; Sixth Field Company, engineers, Vancouver, 134; Ninth-tenth Company, C.A.S.C., 104; One Hundred and Third Regiment, Calgary, 515; other Calgary men, 10. Five hundred Edmonton men arrived late tonight and will remain in the cars until tomorrow morning.

THE LOCAL MARKET

Considering the inclemency of the weather, the market this morning was a good sized one. Although there was not a very heavy demand for vegetables, the rain scaring away the housewives, the prices remained the same on Saturday. The grocers seemed to be doing most of the buying.

A few eggs in the dairy hall brought 25 cents a dozen, while fifteen or twenty pounds of butter sold at 32 cents a pound.

One load of old oats went at $1.65. A few bushels of wheat sold at $1.09, an advance of a cent a bushel.

Hay dropped 1 cent per ton. The buyers do not like buying on a wet day, which probably accounts for the drop. Ten loads were offered for sale.

FARMERS SATISFIED WITH GRAIN YIELD
Recent Showers Have Helped the Beans Around
Brucefield.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRUCEFIELD, Aug. 31.—Grain harvesting operations are almost at a close in this community. According to reports from this district, all the farmers are highly delighted with the crop as a whole. Those who have already threshed are well satisfied with the yield.

The recent showers have proven very helpful to the bean crop, especially those sown late in the season. Much of the earlier bean crop is ready for cutting, and several farmers have already cut a portion of their crop.

RUSSIANS IN POSITION TO WIN DECISIVE VICTORIES

Austrians Cut Off From Railway Connection With the For tresses, and Iron Ring Closes Round Lemberg—
Enemy's Loss Tens of Thousands.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Sept. 1.—5.10 a.m.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg gives the following comment on the Russian operations against the Austrians:

"The Russian operations against the Austrians are considered by recognized military writers to have reached the stage when decisive victories may be within reach. The capture of the railway centre, 40 miles south of Lemberg, involves the rupture of railway communication with the Austrian fortresses on the Danister and in Bukovina. Thus the southern part of Galicia, the Austrians are severed from the remaining portions of Galicia, except by a circuitous route across the Carpathians. As a result the iron ring is closing around Lemberg."

"According to the Russo-Slovo, the losses suffered by the Austrians in their desperate attempt to strike at the vital of the Russian position in Poland aggregate tens of thousands of men, including the Sixth Austrian corps, which, in its retreat between the Western Bug and the Wiepiz Rivers, was almost annihilated."

EAST PRUSSIAN REFUGEES ARE FLEEING IN TERROR

Pouring Into Berlin and Frankfurt, Say Cossacks Are in the Danzig District—Destruction of Louvain
Causes Indignation.

GENEVA, Switzerland (Via Paris), Aug. 31.—9.30 p.m.—News reaching here from Berlin and Frankfurt, where refugees continue to arrive from East Prussia, is to the effect that the terror of the refugees is spreading to the towns along the railroad line and that a great exodus from them is expected shortly.

Refugees arriving here from Danzig say the advance guard of the Russian Cossacks has been seen in that neighborhood. The destruction of Louvain, Belgium, has created much indignation among the Americans in Switzerland, many of whom know the city well. It is reported here that there were several Americans as well as English and Swiss victims in Louvain.

STEFANSSON GOES AFTER NEW LANDS NO SCHOOL CLASSES FOR R. C. CHILDREN

Over 8,000 Left Out in Ottawa
As Result of Sectional Quarrel.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Sept. 1.—Over eight thousand Roman Catholic children, pupils of the local separate schools, were left out of the streets when the classes which they were to have attended failed to reopen this morning. This is the outcome of the battle between the English and French sections of the board, and from present indications it is doubtful if the classes will be resumed for some time.

When the French section, which is in the majority, dismissed last year's teachers at the beginning of the summer vacation, it left the schools without any instructors, and though during the holiday season the board made an effort to replace them at lower salaries, it was unable to do so. The English trustees who visited the schools this morning took a count of all the pupils present at the English schools, and will report to the educational department.

The Immediate Closing of the Great Hoosier $1 Summer Sale

IT IS ONLY FAIR to tell you that your last chance to buy a NEW HOOSIER on the Club Plan this season cannot possibly extend beyond this week. It may end tomorrow. We regret that we cannot supply an additional lot of cabinets for this sale so that the opportunity might be held open for your later decision. The enormous demand makes it impossible to get an extra allotment for anybody. THIS HOT SUMMER YOU WILL NEED A Hoosier every day to save hours out of your kitchen. There is no good reason why you should wait. See the new Hoosier tomorrow.

THE HOOSIER MFG. CO., New Castle, Ind.

Read about these conveniences that made the HOOSIER necessary to over 700,000 women.

- (1) Mrs. Christine Frederick's famous "Housekeepers' Food Guide"—on the upper left door—answers the eternal problem: "What shall we have for dinner?"
- (2) The Cook-book Holder on the middle upper door holds your cook book securely when not in use. When you are cooking, simply open up the book to the proper page behind the holder. It is on a level with your eye, always clean, never in the way.
- (3) The Hoosier Metal Flour Bin holds fifty pounds. It is low and easy to fill. The sliding glass front enables you to clean the entire bin easily. The inside is entirely of metal, with no corners to hold flour. First flour is in always out first.
- (4) The New Shaker Flour Sifter is the most wonderful of all the new Hoosier inventions. It is the only flour sifter ever made on a kitchen cabinet that shakes flour through instead of grinding it through. It cannot wear out and cannot grind through any grit or foreign substance that might be in the flour.

There are 40 special conveniences in the NEW HOOSIER—17 are entirely NEW.

Tomorrow, Only $1 Puts This NEW HOOSIER in Your Home—Don't Wait!

The mid-summer sale terms are:
1. You may choose any of the new Hoosiers—"White Beauty," or "Oak Interior" at slightly less price.
2. $1 puts your Hoosier in your home at once.
3. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
4. The low cash price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.
5. No interest—no extra fees.
6. This sale is under direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
7. Sale is strictly limited to our small summer allotment of new Hoosiers.
8. Your money back if you are not delighted with your Hoosier.

This is your opportunity—if you act quickly—to own this wonderful Hoosier on the most liberal terms ever offered. You may search the whole world and find nothing that will save you so much labor in your kitchen as this new Hoosier.

White Beauty is a wonder of convenience. It combines three roomy cupboards, a large work table and package pantry in one spot so you can sit down at work and save miles of steps.

You have before you for 400 articles, all at your fingers' ends. You save every one of the weary hours other women spend in their kitchens.

This new Hoosier on these terms is the greatest kitchen cabinet bargain you have ever seen. The few we have will be sold in no time at all. Only those women who grasp this opportunity tomorrow can be sure of getting one of these cabinets on the liberal Hoosier plan.
