2 Slater Shoe Pointers

SHOES FOR SHOW

Some shoes are made to look well in a show window, made to catch the eye, made for anything except fit which is forgotten.

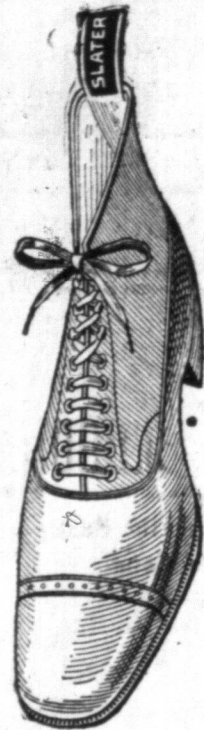

These are the shoes that when you buy them your foot pays for it.

In "Slater Shoe" manufacture, fit is the first consideration.

They are made in twelve different shapes, each one modelled after a real foot and as for appearance, you never saw an uglier pair.

It took years of foot study to attain this end, but now we have as many shapes as forms of feet.

Every pair is Goodyear welted and the makers' name and price is on each shoe, $3.50 and $5.00.

INDIVIDUALITY OF FEET

No two pairs of feet are exactly alike.

Your kindest friend could not make his shoes fit you if your feet was narrow and his wide.

"The Slater Shoe is made in so many shapes, each after Nature's form, that any man can get his exact fit, no matter what kind of feet he is addicted to.

Made by the famous Goodyear welt process, Slater method.

In "Canuck Calf" and "Kidduck," two leathers of which the tannage is controlled and colors according to fashion's latest dictates.

Every pair is branded with the makers' name and price in a slate frame, $5.00 and $3.50.

HE IS HEARD FROM

British Minister Sends Cipher
Despatch Dated Peking.

Assaults on the Legations Closed
July 16—German Officials
Also Heard From.

London, Tuesday, July 31, 4:30 a. m.—Sir Claude MacDonald's welcome despatch, dated Peking, July 21, and received in cipher, is accepted on all sides as dispelling any doubt that might still have existed regarding the genuineness of the despatches. Owing to an error in transmission the message fails to show the number of wounded. David Oliphant and Warren were two student interpreters. The message fails to mention the other legations and other matters of pressing importance to know, but it should be borne in mind that the British minister may not be aware that all his previous despatches have been suppressed. He may be under the impression that the Government is fully posted regarding all recent occurrences. Apart from this despatch there is practically no fresh news, although a special from Tientsin asserts that the British and American forces are getting ready to advance within 48 hours. Li-Hung-Chang remains at Shanghai. He says that the great heat has prevented him continuing the journey to Peking.

FROM BRITISH MINISTER
The Admiralty has made public the following despatch from Rear Admiral Bruce at Tientsin:—"Following message from Peking:—'British legation, June 29 to July 16, repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides, both rifle and artillery fire. Since July 16 an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. Chinese barricades close to ours. All women and children in the British legation. Casualties to date 62 killed, including Captain Strouts, a number of wounded in hospital, including Captain Halliday; rest of legation all well, except David Oliphant and Warren, killed, July 21.—(Signed) MacDonald."

A GERMAN DESPATCH
Berlin, July 31.—The German Consul at Tientsin has telegraphed, under date of Saturday, July 28, to the Foreign Office, as follows:—"The German secretary of legation at Peking, Herr Below, writes July 21:—Thanks for your news. July 19, the condition of things satisfactory. The remaining members of the legation are all right. The detachment of the guards lost ten killed and fourteen wounded. The houses of the legation, much damaged by cannon fire, are being repaired. The attack of the Chinese troops on us ceased July 16. Speediest possible advance of relief troops urgently necessary. The legation is all right, trustworthy report the body of Baron von Ketteler has been buried by the Chinese."

The Cordes mentioned in the above despatch is the second interpreter of the German legation. He was with Baron von Ketteler when the latter was murdered, and he was wounded. He escaped to the legation.

HE IS A PRISONER

A Toronto Man Writes That he has Been Captured by the Boers.

Toronto, Ontario, July 31.—A. Claude MacDonald, barrister, of this city, has received a letter from his brother, Capt. MacDonald, who was on the staff of the first Canadian contingent, announcing that he is a prisoner among the Boers. The latter was dated Orange Free State, June 7, and stated that the writer was returning from Cape Town to the front with a detachment of the Derbyshire when the whole lot were captured by Boer raiders. Capt. MacDonald added that he was in good health, and was being well treated by his captors.

A PATRONAGE DEAL.

Speaker Ewarture Disposes of Another Bit of Patronage.

Ottawa, July 31.—At the last session of the Ontario Legislature an amendment was slipped through adding Prescott and Russell to the list of counties exempted from the general terms of the Act which preclude the appointment of a second judge in any county under 80,000 population. This was done for the benefit of Albert Constantineau, barrister, of "Original," to whom the junior judgeship of Prescott and Russell had been promised. It is now announced that Mr. Constantineau has been given the position, although his appointment has not yet been gazetted. He was formerly of the law firm of Constantineau & Laidlaw, of this city.

BOERS COMING IN

Two Commandoes Lay Down
Their Arms to General
Hunter

Others Expected—This is the End of Resistance in the Free State.

Bloemfontein, July 31.—Gen. Hunter, having received a written unconditional surrender of all the Boers in Caledon Valley, attended to accept the surrender. Gen. Prinsloo, lately elected to the chief command, arrived, and tried to repudiate the unconditional surrender. Gen. Hunter, however, refused any concessions, except to allow the Boers to keep one riding horse. About 11 o'clock the troops were drawn up in two long lines on the hills and over the valley, and the Boers rode in between, throwing down their rifles, together with a motley collection of clothing, blankets and gear such as was found in General Cronjé's laager. The Ficksburg command was first to lay down arms, consisting of about 550 men. Then came the Ladybrand command, with about 450. Fifteen horses, traps and 50 wagons were given up. Gen. Prinsloo and Commandant Cronjé were received by Gen. Hunter at his tent, where they were well treated and accorded every courtesy. Many of the Boers have gone to Naauwpoort, and are still arriving here. The Harrismith and Vrede commandoes are yet at large, as well as some Boers who got out of the valley at night, but the prisoners say that those outside will surrender, and that this will practically end the Free State army. The Boers say they would not have surrendered had they not been surrounded. The prisoners have been placed in a laager under guard, and will be kept there until all arrive.

TO RELIEVE "B.P."
London, July 31.—The Morning Leader asserts that Lord Kitchener has been despatched from Pretoria to Krugersdorp to organize a column to relieve Gen. Buller. Powell, now besieged by Gen. Delarey at Rustenburg, in the Western Transvaal.

MARKS OF BLOOD.

They Were Found on the Banks of the Welland Canal.

After a Guard Had Exchanged Shots
With Some More Supposed Dynamiters.

Port Dalhousie, July 31. Following closely on the finding of a box of dynamite on the bank of the Cornwall canal comes what looks like another attempt on the Welland waterway. At about midnight on Saturday morning, Peter Matheson, lock-tender at lock 18, saw a man endeavoring to pass down the canal to the point where it crosses over the Grand Trunk tunnel. This spot is the most open to the designs of miscreants of any on the canal. Matheson ordered the stranger off, and his actions in response were suspicious that the man at the lock followed him until he took refuge in a quarry near by and was lost to sight. A short while after, about one o'clock, Patrolman Gunn, of the Dominion police, on duty further down at the west end, near the tunnel, saw two men coming up towards him. He called on them to halt. Instead of doing so, one of them called to his companion, "Give it to him," meaning Gunn. The officer was standing in the light, where he was an easy mark, and two shots from a revolver were fired at him in rapid reply, and the men bolted. However, as they fled he sent a well-aimed shot after them. At daylight, near the spot where the strangers were when Gunn discharged his revolver, some sparks of blood were found. A close watch was kept during the night, but no further attempt was made to reach the canal. The lock tenders and their assistants have all been sworn in as special constables, but, unfortunately, they have not been armed, and even the Dominion police only carry revolvers. It's thought here that long chances are being run in leaving unarmed men to do battle with desperadoes. Chief McKinnon favors the arming of the lock tenders with rifles, which could be kept in the lock houses for an emergency.

Richard D. Yelland, a prominent landscape artist on the Pacific coast of the United States, is dead. Elizabeth G. Shaw, a Hanstrville widow, committed suicide by cutting her throat while in a state of mental derangement.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOTERS.

A Mob Destroys the School House of the Negroes but Find Neither Arms or Ammunition.

New Orleans, July 31.—At a late hour Saturday night a mob which had evaded the militia and the citizens' police, attacked the Thamy Lafon-school house, Sixth and Rampart streets, upon the supposition that negroes had stored arms and ammunition in the building. They quickly gained possession, and fired the structure, destroying it completely. The school building was erected a few years ago by the city, and was devoted exclusively to the education of colored children. No negroes were found in the school, but a number who emerged from houses in the vicinity were pursued for quite a distance. A strong force was despatched to the scene as soon as the alarm was given, but too late to save the school house.

Troubles of a Minister.

To benefit others Rev. J. T. W. Vernon, of Hartwell, Ga., writes: "For a long time I had a running sore on my leg. Sores, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum show impure blood. Thousands have found in Electric Bitters a grand blood purifier that absolutely cures these troubles. ### THE MAN WHO WORRIED.

Chicago Times-Herald.
"O, if I might put grief away,
And bid adieu to care."
The man who worried sighed one day.
"The world would be so fair!
But peace avoids my yearning breast,
And happiness goes by—
Ah, shall I ever find the rest
I long for ere I die?"

"Why grieve?" the sage who heard replied.
"Has not your toil availed?
The ones you love are by your side,
Where have your efforts failed?
I see around you luxuries
That many a man would deem
The rich and resplendent dream."
Of such enmeshing dream.

"My efforts have been fairly paid,
My wishes are not alone
From errors I myself have made,
Or chances that are flown—
But there's my neighbor. Day by day
He mounts—his fortunes grow
He can I drive my gloom away
While he outstrips me so!"

KILLED HIMSELF

Because he Could not Kill the King of Italy.

Strange Letter Left by Anarchist Who Suicided in New York.

New York, July 31.—Ten days ago an Italian in Paterson, N. J., Carbone Speranza laid down his life and so absolved himself from his pledge to kill King Humbert, of Italy. He killed Giuseppe Pessina, and then took his own life. It was said that he held high place in the Mafia. The two men quarrelled and Speranza shot Pessina and blew out his own brains. A very strange letter was found in the murderer's pocket.

In the letter which Speranza had prepared he set forth that he was chosen by his anarchist comrades to kill the king of Italy, but that, owing to the fact that he was in this country on the date set for the attempt at assassination, he could not fulfill the obligation.

"This is not of my bidding," wrote Speranza, "but the good and brave society wills it. On Feb. 2, in Italy, it was my lot and my order to kill the king. My number came out in America, and I could not do it. They gave me liberty, but ordered that the will of the society must be obeyed. 'They have said that because I was in America, that I could do nothing, but I will show them that I do not talk only. Companions, either renounce the society or in silence obey the oath of blood.'

NOW A DAWSONITE

Former Chatham Man Who has Been Some Time in the Klondike.

Is Largely Interested in Several Filing Claims up There—What He Says.

The Toronto Globe says: Excellent reports regarding the conditions prevailing at Dawson are brought by Captain M. D. Campbell, (formerly of Chatham), who is staying at the Walker House. He arrived in Ontario a few days ago from the great mining city, where he has spent the last three years. He went to Dawson with a party from the neighborhood of Oshawa, but the others did not go into mining with him. Captain Campbell has worked hard since he went out, and has done very well. He is the owner of several claims in the Bonanza Creek district, and his present trip is to enlist the assistance of capital for the purpose of developing these properties.

In an interview Captain Campbell said: "Dawson is in fine shape now, and its prospects for the future are of the brightest description. Business is active, the population is increasing, and the city is settling down to a permanent basis more and more every day. The mining industry is, of course, predominant and the total gold output this year is estimated at $20,000,000. The best of order is maintained, both in the city and in the surrounding country, and life and property are as safe there as in Toronto. As far as I know there are no serious grievances agitating the miners. Complaints are occasionally heard, but these may be traced in nearly every instance to persons who have been disappointed in their mining ventures.

"The great drawback to the development of the country, from a Canadian point of view, is the fact that the majority of the inhabitants are aliens. There are several thousand people up there, but comparatively few of them are Canadians. It seems unfair that Americans should drain the country of many millions of dollars' worth of gold every year, while Canadians take out only a small amount. If the people of this country realize what opportunities there are for making a comfortable livelihood they would swarm into the Klondike district. Canadian capital, too, might well be employed in mining undertakings around Dawson. Any man with a fair amount of capital can double his money there, provided he is willing to work. The climate is agreeable enough during half the year, and during the other half it is tolerable. Dawson is in many respects a modern city, and the inhabitants enjoy many privileges which go to make life comfortable. There are good streets, fine lights, pure water and other conveniences common in the great cities of the present day. The outlook is magnificent, and there need be no fears as to the prosperity of Dawson."

INSPIRED BY DREAMS

TRIUMPHS OF THE BRAIN ASLEEP OVER THE BRAIN AWAKE.

Dramatic Achievements That Owe Their Being to the Mysterious Workings of the Mind Under the Subtle Influence of Slumber.

There are numerous authentic cases in which, inspired by a dream, a person has achieved in sleep something that he had utterly failed over when awake and certainly more than one where an artistic triumph has resulted. No doubt, too, there have been instances of the kind where the mystery of such an achievement has remained an irritating problem, as very nearly happened in respect to an artist whose pictures sold well and whose genius for color combinations was considered as astonishing as his output.

The painter used to tell the creepy story of how, going into his studio after breakfast, he would often stand spellbound at the fact that some supernatural "double" had been hard at work upon his canvas during the night, more than once obtaining evidence in the way of colorings that he had strained after for days in vain. Here was something to make the strongest brain reel.

As it continued at intervals after he had tried locking the studio door and placing the key under his pillow, the effect can be better imagined than described, and it was only a chance accident that at length burst the bubble. He got up one morning to find his dressing gown streaked with a dry carmine pigment, and fragments of the same material lay strewn about his easel below. Impelled by a dream, he had gone down there in the night to paint, trodden upon the pigment, and, automaton-like, picked up the pieces before retiring again. And precisely the same thing is known to have happened to a well known worker in mosaics some years ago. His mind continued to work out schemes after his body had "struck," and he would proceed to his workroom and arrange designs, the effect of which simply stupefied him next morning.

At least one enduring piece of music owes its inspiration and production to a dream in the same dramatic way. The singular distinction, in fact, is claimed for several. It occurs at the end of a famous Russian opera. For weeks the composer had struggled with his finale and had all but given it up in despair. The spirit of a certain night danced vaguely down the overworked brain, but always eluded him when he went to set it down for the orchestra.

One night, as he lay asleep, it came to him, gradually distinct. He dreamed that it was an accomplished fact on paper. Events showed that he must have gone downstairs, played it triumphantly over on his organ several times, and then written down the chords that had caused him so much anxiety. Next morning the score sheets were found neatly dotted and the finale a great success; but, although his life had heard the organ going and even remembered the tune played, the composer himself could only recollect the dream itself and was absolutely at a loss to account for the position in which he was found—fast asleep over the keys. The brain had succumbed immediately the dream inspiration had taken a practical shape.

Equally dramatic, again, is the story often told of a brilliant musician who had written a song which he could not induce any music publisher to risk publishing. The fact had preyed on his mind. One night he dreamed that he had written a pathetic letter to a popular singer, inclosing it with his scornful masterpiece, walked all the way to the vocalist's house at Hampstead and pushed his envelope through the door. He recollected little of it next morning, not having occasion to miss his manuscript, and stoutly denied his landlord's assertion that he had left his bedroom and gone for a nocturnal stroll. Shortly afterwards, however, he was astonished at receiving a check and a ticket for a concert, and then, especially when he heard his own song rendered at the concert, it all flashed back to him. He had unconsciously acted upon his dream—owed his stroke of luck purely to a somnambulist inspiration.

It goes without saying, too, that the most humorous things are occasionally done by persons who retire to rest with a fixed intention for the morrow in their minds and are discovered working out the scheme in their sleep. The writer knows a gentleman never suspected of acting upon inspirations evolved in his slumber—who had laid in a stock of paints, with which he intended to decorate his rooms after a pattern not yet decided upon. Some fantastic notion, presumably, must have presented itself as he slept. All unconsciously he proceeded downstairs in the small hours, mixed all the colors together in a bowl and started to daub the doors and walls with considerably more determination than taste. The result was a polychromatic chaos, to say nothing of a bad shock for the gentleman, who sprang out of his dream at the sound of a cry from his startled wife.

Does Away With Steeple Climbing. It has remained for a Frenchman to discover a new use for the captive balloon. M. Letorey, a French architect, has applied such a balloon to the cleaning and decorating of cupolas, high towers, roofs and monuments.

According to a French exchange, the balloon is raised or lowered from a wagon by a winch and is steadied by stays from the side of the envelope. It has two platforms, one on the top, the other underneath, which communicate by means of a ladder up a central tube. The balloon scaffold, as it is called, is claimed to be useful and safe in many operations, such as now require the services of steeple climbers. It is also adapted for a clear wireless telegraphy, as an aerial station.

What Is It?

A man who has been running a race with steam and electricity for years, finds himself suddenly stopped. It seems as if a cold hand clutched his heart. His brain whirled; he can hardly see. "What is it?" he asks himself as the attack passes.

If his question meets a right answer, he'll be told that his seizure is a warning to pay more attention to his stomach, which is already damaged by irregular meals and rich foods.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates from the blood disease breeding poisons, makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Mr. Wm. Connolly, of 333 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad that I had to lay off my other two and three days in a week. I have been treated by the best doctors in this city, but got no help. Some said I had cancer of the stomach, others catarrh, others dyspepsia. Then I wrote to you asking for the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines I have taken as directed, and I commenced to get better from the start, and have not lost a day this summer on account of my stomach. I am up-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Keep the bowels healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pellets. They don't gripe.

ALT. GETHER INCORRECT!

The Statement That There Was Indecent Haste in Filling the Tilbury Pulpit Unfounded.

An article which the Planet copied from a Detroit paper the other day relative to the vacancy in the Presbyterian pulpit in Tilbury, appears to have been sensationally exaggerated in some respects and altogether incorrect in some others. While it is true that some rather warm words were uttered at the late presbytery meeting respecting the necessity for a special meeting to deal with the Tilbury matter, none of the speakers intended to reflect either on Rev. Mr. Johnson or the Tilbury congregation. Mr. McPhail, the late pastor, has been absent for some time on leave through ill-health. As there was no chance of him resuming his labors on the close of his leave, he tendered his resignation to the Presbytery. This was considered on July 10, and the congregation voted to accept.

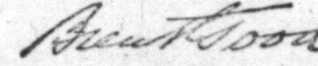

As a result a congregational meeting was held at Tilbury and Messrs. Stewart and Forbes appointed to wait on Presbytery. At the same meeting the feeling of the congregation was taken regarding a successor to Mr. McPhail. The feeling was unanimous in favor of Mr. Johnston, who is at present filling the vacancy. The reason for this test was that Mr. Johnston had a call elsewhere and the congregation wished to give him an assurance that they were all anxious that he should remain with them. On July 21 the Presbytery accepted Mr. McPhail's resignation and the pulpit was ordered to be preached vacant. The article from Detroit was altogether in error in saying a call had been extended to Mr. Johnston, and that some claimant there was undue haste. There has been no call and no haste. There has been no attempt or desire on anybody's part to supplant Mr. McPhail. The pulpit was preached vacant last Sunday, and in due course the congregation will undoubtedly give a call to Mr. Johnston, who is a clever and capable preacher, but it is not known yet whether Mr. Johnston will accept, because he has also received calls from two or three other points. It is too bad the few warm words uttered in Presbytery should have been made a foundation for a sensational report about underhand work in Tilbury. There was nothing of the kind. The matter of fact Mr. Johnston was not seeking the call at all. The congregation had to look for a successor to Mr. McPhail, whose return was out of the question, and was only natural they should turn to a pastor who had so acceptably filled their pulpit.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Another Tragedy Near the Eau——Young Man Named Coleman the Victim.

Yesterday a terrible and fatal accident happened to a young man named Coleman, a brother of Henry Coleman, whose farm adjoins the marsh near the Eau. The unfortunate victim was working a hayrack in his brother's barn. He was up some height and missed his hold. He grasped a rope in his fall but this did not hold him and he came to the floor head first. To save himself as he landed the poor fellow put out his hands, but the force of the fall was too great to be stayed so easily. With terrible effect he struck the barn floor forehead first. His nose and face were smashed and death followed from fracture of the skull. The family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

WAS IT HIGHHANDED?

The Release of a Couple of Americans Jailed from Merlin Order—
—by Government.

A very unusual incident in Canadian international affairs has just come to a head here. It appears that the authorities at the village of Merlin about a month ago arrested a man and his wife on a charge of vagrancy. They were convicted, and the man was sentenced to six months in jail, and his wife received a 90 days' sentence. Both claimed to be citizens of the United States. They were in possession of some money, and stated to the authorities that they were going to Detroit and had only stopped in Merlin on their way through. Their pleadings had no effect, and they were brought here and incarcerated in the county jail. The United States consul, Col. Chas. E. Montie, learned of the affair. Upon making an investigation he found that the parties were, as they claimed, American citizens, and he corresponded with the Washington authorities. The result of the negotiations are that Sheriff Gemmill has been instructed by the governor-general of Canada upon the representations made by the United States authorities to at once release the prisoners, whose names are given as Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giger. The man and his wife are to be at once sent to Detroit. It is not known whether any further proceedings may arise from this international affair or not.

ANARCHIST PLOT.

The Italians Believe in the Existence of One.

Five Arrests Made in Monza—Government Issues a Manifesto.

Rome, July 31.—The Tribuna says the assassination of King Humbert is believed to have been the result of a plot. A non-militant anarchist recently declared, so the Tribuna asserts, that a meeting had been held in Paris at which lots were drawn and several persons were selected to kill the King. The papers announce that King Victor Emmanuel III. will reach Brindisi to-day and will go directly to Monza. Besides Bressi, five persons have been taken into custody at Monza.

In the absence of the new king the ministry has issued in his name a manifesto to the nation, as follows: King Victor Emmanuel III., in ascending the throne, has to perform the painful duty of announcing to the country the awful calamity which has violently cut short the valuable life of King Humbert.

The nation, wounded in its sincere affection for the august dead, and in a sincere feeling of devotion and adhesion to the dynasty, while execrating the cruel crime, will be plunged into profound grief for the venerated memory of a good, brave and magnanimous king, the pride of his people, and the worthy perpetrator of the traditions of the house of Savoy, by rallying with unshaken loyalty around his august successor, Italians will prove their deeds that their institutions do not die.

The king is expected to arrive at Reggi di Calabria to-morrow. He received the news of the death of his father by telegram.

THE TRANSFER SET ASIDE.

Over eighty years old and nearly totally blind, Mary Hicks lived a lonely life in Chatham, with no one to take care of her. A domestic named Mary Johnston took compassion on the old lady and went and lived with her, cooking the meals and doing the house-work. This kindness touched the heart of the old lady, and she decided all her property in Chatham to her benefactress. Later, remorse set in and Mrs. Hicks brought an action to set aside the conveyance. At Toronto yesterday morning Chief Justice Falconbridge gave judgment, declaring the deed "void and of no effect on the ground of undue influence, want of independent and competent professional advice and absence of consideration." His Lordship also found that undue influence had been practiced.

The judgment which is by Justice Falconbridge declares the impeached conveyance void on the grounds of impropriety, want of independent and competent professional advice and absence of consideration, and directing its delivery up for cancellation. The maintenance already furnished to plaintiff and the taxes paid, and the improvements (the value of which is $32) made by defendant are to be set off against occupation of premises by defendant. Order for immediate possession of premises. Stay for one week to enable defendant to remove her things from the premises. Plaintiff did not ask for, and there is no order as to costs. C. J. O'Neill (Chatham) for plaintiff. M. Wilson, Q. C., for defendant.

ENTRIES POURING IN.

Although the lists were not sent out for the coming Caledonian Games until last Thursday, entries are pouring in so fast as to almost take Registrar Peter McKellar's breath away. "We thought we had a fine entry list last year," said Mr. McKellar, "and so we had. But it was nothing to what we are going to have this time by the looks of things."

Up to yesterday, that is in less than four days after sending out the lists, 65 entries for the various contests have been received. These come mostly from Barrie, St. Marys, Woodstock, London, St. Thomas and other eastern points. Altogether the outlook is for the finest Caledonian Games ever seen in Canada.

The Assassination of King Humbert was Decided on.

Murderer Went From There to Kill the King—A Warning From France did not Prevent the Crime.

Monza, July 31.—After the shooting of King Humbert here on Sunday night, as soon as His Majesty's attendant could realize what had happened he was placed in his carriage and driven as rapidly as possible to the palace. He was, however, beyond human aid. The assassin's name is variously given as Angelo and Gaetano Bressi. He was born in Prato, November 10, 1869, and is a weaver by trade. He comes from America, where he has resided at Paterson, N. J. He says he had no accomplice, and that he committed the crime because of his hatred of monarchical institutions. He reached Monza July 27, from Milan, where he stayed a few days.

Few additional details of the terrible tragedy are available. It happened so unexpectedly that the king was dead almost before the spectators realized what had occurred. No special precautions had been taken. Very few people were in attendance and only a small number of soldiers keeping the way for the carriage. The king, amid the cheers of the crowd, came out smiling, accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Gen. Ponzo Baglia. He had entered the carriage and was just driving off when the revolver shots were fired in quick succession. Some witnesses assert that Bressi was seen just previously waving his hands and cheering. The first shot wounded the king in the neck, the second, the fatal one, pierced his heart; and the third broke the arm of the already dying sovereign.

ROUGHLY HANDLED. The crowd was stunned by the unexpected scene, but speedily a rush was made towards the assassin. He did not attempt to escape, and was roughly treated until the carabinieri formed a cordon and secured him from the fury of the people.

An eye witness says that when the shots were fired the king fell back pressing his hand to his heart. He was immediately supported by Gen. Ponzo Baglia, who told the coachman to drive with all speed to the castle. After his exclamation, "It is nothing," he did not utter a sound. Blood gushed from his mouth. The assassin on reaching the guard room of the carabinieri, was in a pitiable condition, his hands and arms being lacerated and bloody and his clothes being torn by an angry crowd. Replying to questions he hissed through his clenched teeth:

"Tell them I come from America on purpose to kill Humbert. I have only just arrived from America and know no one. I spent a day at Bologna and then came on to Milan."

A search made at his home at Prato resulted in the finding of several compromising letters from New York. One signed by a woman was dated on June 26. In this letter the writer asks whether all is ready, and expresses a hope that he will soon return.

Bressi had been absent from Prato for six or seven years. His parents live there, and he has a brother in an Italian infantry regiment.

In reference to the finding of another revolver it is asserted that Bressi had been seen in company with another young man in the park at Monza near where the king was in the habit of riding.

After his arrest he appeared wakeful and nervous until about sunrise, but from that time he slept soundly until Monday.

The expression of the dead king's face is tranquil and even smiling. The corpse was blessed immediately after death. It will be embalmed.

It appears that when King Humbert was wounded he exclaimed, "It is nothing." The royal carriage covered the distance between the Gymnastic Society club house where the crime was committed and the royal villa, at full speed, requiring but three minutes. The king expired on the way, and although placed on a bed, was dead when the doctors arrived.

Bressi is young, tall and swarthy. It appears that he remained four days in Prato and two days in Bologna, after which he came here.

THE QUEEN'S GRIEF. When Queen Margherita arrived at the villa it was still hoped that the king would survive, and when the truth was broken to her a heartrending scene ensued. Bursting into tears she exclaimed:

"It is the greatest crime of the century. Humbert was good and faithful. No person could have loved his people more. He was one who bore with will to none." When the queen's mother arrived there was another affecting scene.

The assassin is strictly guarded in prison. He continues to preserve absolute indifference and took his meals to-day without any sign of being affected by his position. A second revolver was found on the public stand in the gymnastic grounds.

The room where the embalming is proceeding is already filled with flowers. The queen herself placed a wreath upon the bier and knelt and prayed beside the body, and in spite of the entreaties of the princes and princesses, she refused to quit the death chamber, which is in charge of Count Jurri, the late king's aide-de-camp.

WARNING WAS GIVEN. The Paris Temps says the Italian government was warned June 30 that secret anarchist societies had decided on the death of King Humbert and four other sovereigns. As a matter of fact, an anarchist was arrested June 29 at Pontafel, on the Austro-Italian frontier, who declared he had been selected to assassinate King Humbert. Increased guards were attached to King Humbert, who, however, protested and ordered them withdrawn. The Temps adds that the Pope was the first to convey condolences to the widowed queen.

As Victor Emmanuel III, who married in 1896, is childless, the heir to the throne is the king's cousin, the Duke of Aosta. The Duchess of Aosta was Princess Helen of Orleans, daughter of the late Count of Paris, and she and the Duke are generally considered the handsomest royal couple in Europe.

THE POPE INFORMED.

A special despatch from Rome says: "Mgr. Angelo di Pietro (prefect of the congregation of the council) took it upon himself to inform the Pope of the assassination of King Humbert. He entered the chamber of Leo XIII. early hour. The latter was already awake. The cardinal cautiously first stated that an attempt had been made upon the life of the king, whereupon the Pope immediately asked if the wound was dangerous. The prelate replied 'very dangerous' but his anxious air was noticed by the Pope, who at once divined the truth. His emotion was such that he was unable to speak for some time. When his distress had passed he wished to leave his bed and to celebrate mass for the repose of the King's soul. Later he summoned Cardinal Rampolla (papal secretary of state), whom he requested to send a despatch of condolences to Princess Clotilde, sister of the Queen. The audiences fixed for to-day were suspended."

A DOCTOR DROWNED.

Went Swimming off a Yacht and Lost His Life.

Montreal, July 31.—A tragic "drowning" accident, by which Dr. Edgar A. Gratton, a prominent young physician of Montreal, lost his life, occurred at Berthier, a place on the St. Lawrence, a few miles below Montreal. A yachting party, composed of ex-Mayor Beauregard, Mrs. Beauregard, Dr. Gratton, and a number of others, left on Mr. Beauregard's private yacht for a cruise down the St. Lawrence. The party anchored for the night at Berthier, and early in the morning several of the gentlemen, including Dr. Gratton, went in for a swim. While swimming around near the yacht Dr. Gratton made efforts to rescue him, but he quickly sank from view. An effort was made to recover the body, but without success.

DEADLY BLOEMFONTEIN.

Gunner Skirving Says That no Less Than 85 Canadians are Buried There

Gunner Skirving writes to his parents under date of June 24, from Bloemfontein, where he then was on the way to the front to join in pursuing the elusive Boers. He was quite well at the time and anxious to move on. In his letter he says: "We left De Aar last week and got here the day before yesterday, and things are getting worse right along, for we are in the capital of the State. Just five minutes' walk from where sixty-five Canadians are buried—having died from enteric fever and dysentery."

It is something awful to see them burying the dead. There are twenty-five hospitals here, and when a soldier dies he is wrapped in his blanket, thrown into a wagon and, with a whole lot of others, pitched into a big trench.

Thank God we are not staying here very long. I met a couple of days ago a met. Burrell, from Chatham, at Norval's Point. He was on his way here and was glad to see me. He is a doctor and reports Gorrie and Wilson ditto.

We are being supplied with fresh horses and new equipment before going any further. That is why we are waiting here. Coming from Norval's Point there were five of us detailed to go ahead with the horses and upon arriving here the station staff officer turned all our horses out of the cars to accommodate the Mounted Rifles who were going to Kroonstad; so we lost twenty-five horses, but the Dutch supply everything, so we don't care much for that.

TO EXTEND THE LEASE.

London Free Press.—There is some prospect that the question of extending the lease of the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railway Company of the London & Port Stanley Railway will come before the city council shortly. The lessees are said to be anxious to secure the right to the line for thirty years from date. This would mean an extension of sixteen years, the present lease having fourteen years yet to run. The L. E. & D. R. Co. intend to build a new extension of their line from Ridgeway to St. Thomas, and the idea of an extension of the L. & P. S. R. lease has to do with the consolidation of the bonds necessary to construct the new line.

AID. SULMAN WILL RESIGN.

"I am going to resign my seat at the council board," said Ald. G. W. Sulman, with an air of determination that left no room to doubt the alderman's intention. "There was the King of Italy assassinated. This following on the killing of the mayor of Chicago and the Empress of Austria is more than I can stand. The Board of these prominent positions before the public has its drawbacks, and the awful possibilities are actually keeping me from sleeping and I am growing thin. I am going to resign and get out of danger."

OFF THE TRACK.

This means disaster and death when applied to a fast express train. It is equally serious when it refers to people whose blood is disordered and who consequently have pimples and sores, bad stomachs, deranged kidneys, weak nerves and that tired feeling. Hood's Serravallo puts the whole back on the track by making pure, rich blood and curing these troubles.

Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c.

Sentenced to Death.

"You are in the last stage of Consumption and cannot live more than a month," were the words of doom heard by Mrs. Rosa Richardson, of Laurel Springs, N. C., from her doctors. "But she began to get Dr. King's New Discovery," writes R. L. Daughton, of that place, "and was wholly cured by it. She is now a stout, well woman. It's the supreme cure for desperate diseases of throat and lungs. Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Guaranteed bottles sold at $1. Trial bottles at A. I. McCall & Co's drug store."

TILBURY VACANCY.

A Letter From the Session and Board of Managers puts the Matter in Another Light

Some further remarks concerning the case referred to in the following letter, will be found on another page of this issue:

Tilbury, July 30.

To the Planet.—In the issue of your paper of the 27th instant there appears an article headed "Indecent Hasten," which is an unwarranted reflection upon the Rev. J. F. Johnston, as well as the Presbyterian congregation in Tilbury. In justice to Mr. Johnston and the congregation the article should be republished as it is an unmitigated falsehood so far as they are concerned, and it is but proper that the public should be placed in possession of the facts.

The article states that when Rev. Mr. McPhail returned from his holiday he found himself supplanted in the hearts of the congregation by Rev. Mr. Johnston. The fact is that on the 17th May last Mr. McPhail was granted three months' leave of absence on account of ill-health, and has never since returned to Tilbury. On the 18th of June last the Rev. Mr. McPhail placed his resignation to the hands of the congregation, this being scarcely more than a week after Mr. Johnston came to supply at Tilbury and before Mr. McPhail knew that Mr. Johnston was supplying. It could therefore hardly be said that Mr. Johnston tried to oust Mr. McPhail from his charge here, or that the congregation tried to pitchfork the former into the latter's place.

The resignation came up at Chatham Presbytery July 10th, and Tilbury congregation was cited to appear at a special meeting of the Presbytery to be held July 24th, when the resignation was accepted and leave was given the congregation to moderate in all to a minister. The whole trouble in Presbytery arose after all this was done, over a motion made to have the next meeting of the Presbytery in two weeks, and it was finally decided to have it in a month's time.

Rev. Mr. Johnston is in no way responsible for the trouble. The Rev. Mr. McPhail, and the unjust and scurrilous attack upon him is wholly without justification or excuse. Had your correspondent or informant been a little less anxious for sensation and a little more considerate of the character of a young man to whom character is everything, he would not have hurried into print until he had first ascertained at least some of the facts of which his article manifests his utter ignorance. Signed on behalf of the Session and Board of Managers, of Presbyterian Church, Tilbury.

CALL OF THE STORK.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey are Said to be Expecting it Soon.

Washington, July 31.—It is said that Admiral and Mrs. Dewey have returned to Beauvoir, and gossip is busy with the rumors for the announcement of Narragansett, where it was supposed they were to spend the season.

Before the Deweys went to Narragansett Mrs. Dewey was reported to be in bad health, which prevented her from participating in various social incidents. It was reported that she had improved, while in Narragansett, and the homecoming was a surprise. To-day Washington society is busy with a story of an expected visit of a stork to the Dewey home. Of course, the story came out in the usual way—a visit to Mrs. Dewey and the finding of her busily engaged examining fine bits of lace, little garments and "doll clothes." The friend smiled and asked if Mrs. Dewey was fond of dolls. Thereupon, the story goes, the secret was out. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey were married in November last.

The great amount of design work done at the Victoria Avenue Green House is sufficient proof of the excellence of the work. Nothing but the best at the lowest prices. Telephone 181.

FRIGHTFUL RAVAGES

Of the Cholera in Indian Famine Districts.

London, July 31.—The following despatch from the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, to the Secretary of State for India, Lord Geo. Hamilton, was received to-day:—Considerable anxiety is felt owing to the weakness of the monsoon. The situation is serious and critical in Gujarat, Baroda and Malabar West, which are not sown. No fodder whatever is available in the south-western part of the Punjab. Sown crops are in imminent danger, as rain continues to hold off. Fodder is scarce and cattle are dying in the central provinces of Thera and Hyderabad. Good crops are possible only in case the monsoon improves.

"One-quarter of the inhabitants of the central provinces are on relief. The total number receiving relief is 6,200,000, with incomplete Bombay figures." The Governor of Bombay telegraphs that there were 8,007 cholera cases in the famine district during the week ending July 21, of which 5,703 resulted fatally. In the native states there were 8,346 cases, 3,510 proving fatal. The total deaths in the famine districts of the British district were 6,755, or 4.25 per 1,000. There has been a good rain fall in North Gujarat and Kathiawar, and a favorable agricultural rainfall and encouraging prospects in the remainder of the affected tracts. The numbers on relief works are decreasing, and gratuitous relief is increasing.

E. & D. BICYCLES

The great reason for the goodness of E. & D. bearings lies in their four-point design. The load passes directly through the balls, and there is no opportunity for the balls to jam. In E. & D. four-point bearings the weight on any one point in the bearing is never more than 1-8th of the weight of the rider. In ordinary bicycles, the immense leverage between cup and cone bearings and cone onto the bearings and breaks the balls.

To show how little the wear on E. & D. four-point bearings is, we first guarantee them for three years, and, secondly, we oil them at the beginning of the season, and at the end, upon examination, the oil will be found clear.

E. & D. bearings are excellent. In all parts, the four-point system is employed. In 1900 E. & D. models, even the head bearings are equipped with four-point bearings.

The E. & D. Models are found in Road Ladies' and Men's $60 (Special, Ladies' and Men's with gear case $70). Racer, Men's only $75. and the local guarantee privilege that goes with them is worth the cost of the wheel. And we will be very glad to show you the new E. & D. with its excellent equipments.

Catalogue sent free upon application. You run no risk in buying this wheel. The thirty-seventh wheel made by this firm four years ago is in daily use in this city. The owner would not exchange it for a new wheel of any other make, as he says it is in perfect order up to date, and the easiest running wheel in the city. We cannot say anything that is a higher recommendation.
