WARM WELCOME TO THEIR HOME

The Congregation of First Church Extend Hearty Greeting to Mr. and Mrs. MacGillivray.

Delightful Impromptu Home-Coming Festival at the Church last Evening.

The lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church was thronged last evening to greet the home-coming of the popular and esteemed young pastor, Rev. A. H. MacGillivray, and Mrs. MacGillivray. Graceful decorations of flowers and foliage delighted the eye and the happy spirit of hearty and spontaneous sociability and true and loyal allegiance characterized the occasion. It was a memorable and distinctly enjoyable evening.

Lieut.-Colonel J. B. Rankin, K. C., presided and warmly extended the welcome of the church to Mrs. MacGillivray, taking occasion to give expression to the high regard and esteem in which the pastor was held by the congregation.

Interpersed with a very pleasant season of happy informal social intercourse were the following exquisite vocal numbers, to which Musical Director E. B. Sturges contributed the accompaniments—

"Sing me to Sleep," by Mrs. Milton Bogart.

"The Promise of Life," by C. H. Gunn.

"Fairies' Lullaby," by Mrs. Spencer Stone.

"Sleep little Babe of Mine," by Miss Edna M. Martin.

At the conclusion of a splendid luncheon provided by the ladies, Col. Rankin made a few humorous remarks. He said that all would agree that the best thing that had ever happened to the church was the coming of the young pastor, who had been a teacher who set a very enviable example to all the young people of the city and the young people of the city could not do better than carefully observe his example. Col. Rankin then called upon Rev. Mr. MacGillivray.

This was done at the latter's request. Mr. MacGillivray, who was received with round upon round of hearty applause, said that it might seem strange for him to ask for a place on a programme when he had just arrived, but he felt that he had no choice but to do so. He felt, however, that he could not let the opportunity pass of thanking the congregation for all their kindnesses which he had appreciated since coming, but never so fully as this evening. It was a rare occurrence when Mr. MacGillivray was reported to feel nervous upon the public platform or in an athletic game but he acknowledged feeling a little nervous in his present position.

Mr. MacGillivray had begun to feel a little nervous first a week ago last Saturday when two ladies of the congregation had called to sympathize with him. He desired, however, to thank the congregation of the First Church, not merely for the reception, but also for the kind expressions of love towards the one who had come to labor with them. It was impossible for him to tell how much he appreciated the spirit which this reception manifested, on the part of the congregation. He trusted that these cordial relations would be deepened and trusted that the gathering would prove beneficial along these lines. It was difficult to remember names and faces. If any present met Mrs. MacGillivray and she failed to recognize them they should not fail to speak to her. As an illustration, of how easy it is to make mistakes, Mr. MacGillivray told the story of how Ald. Archie McCoy was taken for a minister, a rather amusing incident of a pleasant evening. The pastor of the First Presbyterian Church had been telling Mrs. MacGillivray that the Rev. Mr. McQuarrie had preached for him on Sunday. The lady didn't quite catch the name and when the minister was introduced later in the evening, Mrs. MacGillivray thanked him for preaching so capably on Sunday.—Laughter.

The pastor again thanked the congregation for their kindness and the warmth of their reception.

The gathering then broke up with many good wishes for the pastor and Mrs. MacGillivray.

EVADING THE LAW

The fishery inspector from Sarnia, seized the fishing outfit of Louis Lorenson, of Mitchell's Bay. At the time, Lorenson had two boats, one and four Indians in tow of his naptha launch. He was apparently going to fish for carp. It has been reported that the boats and nets seized have since been returned as Lorenson had not done any fishing. There is an idea prevalent that the law can be evaded by the Indians. It is said that the fishermen get the Indians to fish for them and then they secure the catch. Mr. Bastide says that the Indians have no more right than the white man. So far only two licenses for catching carp have been issued and they are held by between St. Luke's Bay and the mouth of the river. The other fishermen are getting anxious to get to work and the Indian scheme for evading the law has been evoked, it is said.

COUNTY COUNCIL NOW IN SESSION

The Summer Sitzings of the Kent Parliament Now Going On.

Col. J. B. Rankin K. C. Asks for a 99 Year Lease of Part of the Registry Office Grounds for the New Armories.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

The County Council resumed after dinner. Several deputations were heard. Reeve Clayton, of Raleigh and Reeve Campbell, of Tilbury East, asked assistance for improving the town line between Raleigh and Tilbury townships. Mr. Campbell also asked assistance towards the building of a bridge over Jeannette's Creek.

Reeve Purser, of Dover, was heard to a grant to assist Dover to build a bridge over Bear Creek, Dover Tp.

Colonel J. B. Rankin, K. C., addressed the Council and asked that a 99 year lease of a portion of the Registry office grounds be granted to the Government so that the armories might be erected partly on the county property. This would ensure a better foundation. The present drill shed encroached slightly on the county's land.

J. N. McCoy, chairman of the House of Refuge committee, reported that there were under crop this year on the farm, nine acres of oats and barley, 12 acres of corn, 10 acres of hay, two acres of potatoes, and that four acres had been cultivated for beans. There were at present on hand 299 bushels wheat, 40 bushels corn, 130 bushels beans, 4 bushels potatoes. Since January, 1904, $382.73 worth of live stock had been sold from the farm.

The committee recommended that enough be added to the $25 on hand to purchase a wooden leg for Lawrence Badgely.

The report was adopted on motion of Mr. McCoy, seconded by Mr. Somers.

S. P. Sturges, chairman of the special committee appointed at the January sessions to co-operate with municipalities in reference to certain amendments to the County Councils Act made in 1903, reported that they had met about 200 other delegates at the Rossin House, Toronto. Delegates were appointed to interview the Premier and other members of the Government. Mr. Ross gave us to understand that legislation would be introduced to amend the Act of 1903 to leave the County Councils Act as it was before, and, if any change was made in the future, it would be by a vote of the electors of the county.

On motion of Mr. Sturges the report was adopted.

The committee appointed to deal with the monies alleged to have been irregularly paid to the late treasurer of the county, A. L. Shambell, reported that with John A. Walker, the county's solicitor, Mr. Robinson had waited upon J. E. Thomas and had demanded the $7,056.49 alleged to have been wrongfully paid out, and the manager had refused payment of the same. The committee were also informed that the General Manager did not consider the bank liable and Blake, Lash & Cassels would accept service of a writ. The opinions of M. Wilton, K. C., and A. B. Aylesworth, K. C., had also been obtained by the committee and they agreed with Mr. Walker. The committee had instructed the county solicitor, J. A. Walker, to commence proceedings and to make service of the writ on Messrs. Blake, Lash & Cassels.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, seconded by Mr. Grant, the report was adopted by the Council.

It was moved by Mr. Chinick, seconded by Mr. Ross, that a grant of $1,000 be made to the township of Raleigh and the township of Tilbury East for the purpose of improving the townline between the two municipalities.—Referred to Roads and Bridges.

It was moved by Mr. Sturges, seconded by Mr. French, that the county pay to the township of Camden the amount of taxes and interest due said municipalities, as per report of special committee.—Referred to Finance.

It was moved by Mr. Grant, seconded by Mr. McCoy, that whereas A. L. Shambell, late county treasurer, failed to collect arrears of taxes on pt. lot 1, Con. 2, Tp. of Chatham, amounting to $8.06; lot 6, Con. 5, Tp. Dover, $20.50, and lot 10, Con. 11, Dover Tp. $15, and thereby lost the same, be it resolved, that the county treasurer be instructed to pay to the treasurer of the above mentioned townships the amount set opposite their respective lots.—Referred to Finance.

It was moved by Mr. Ross, seconded by Mr. McCoy, that this Council grant the sum of $300 to assist in building protecting approaches for the Wallaceburg bridge.—Referred to Finance.

It was moved by Mr. Ross, seconded by Mr. McCoy, that this Council grant the village of Tilbury the sum of $150 to assist in road-making on the main street leading into the village from Tilbury East, Raleigh and Romney.—Referred to Finance.

AN EVENING WITH MUSIC

A Delightful Artistic Program Provided by the Ladies of Ursuline Academy.

Accomplished Young Ladies Contribute a Series of Exquisite Numbers.

A fashionable and appreciative audience gathered at the Music Hall at The Pines last evening to attend the Academy. The evening was cool and delightful after the refreshing shower, and within the hall, the bright lights, graceful decorations of palms and flowers, and the artistic arrangement of stage furniture made a very pretty scene.

The opening duet, "Eine Nordlandfahrt" was played in a brilliant and captivating manner by Miss Anna Carson and Miss Maybelle Parker. Miss Laura McDonald, in her rendition of Godard's "Chromatic Valse," showed clear technique and graceful style, which auger well for her rapid advance in artistic execution.

Miss Maybelle Parker's first number, MacDowell's "Hexentanz," was remarkable for lightness, grace and delicacy, while in "Prestissimo," from Beethoven's Sonata, Opus 2, No. 1, power and brilliancy were combined with clearness of expression to produce a most exquisite effect from this spirited movement.

Miss Edythe Hall did some finely expressive melody work in the Liebling "Serenade" and "Valse Lente," by Schutt.

Miss Jessie Wilson gave a very tasteful rendering of Meyer-Helmund's "Mazurka."

Miss Della Brucer's songs were very much enjoyed. Her voice is gaining greatly in power and intonation, and her "Creole Love Song" was one of the favorite numbers on the program.

Two delightful vocal solos were contributed by Miss Carrie Trankka, who possesses a sweet and clear, though slender, soprano.

The song, "Happy Days," by Miss Olive Mather, was most sympathetically rendered, and the charming violin obligato was very expressively played by Miss Florence Surby, reflecting perfectly the mood of the song, and uniting with it to produce a lovely effect.

The closing number consisted of the Allegro and Andante from Mendelssohn Concerto, Op. 25, played by Miss Anna Carson, with orchestral accompaniment on second piano, by Miss Mabelle Edmondson. This difficult selection is one which makes heavy demands upon the executive powers and interpretative ability of the most practised musician, and the manner in which it was executed by these two young players was nearer perfection than one could look for from students. The first movement was given with fiery brilliancy and vigor, and at a tempo which might tax the ability of more mature performers. The Andante movement, exerts in strong expression and emotional passages, and was rendered with great breadth of feeling and warmth of soul. Both players deserve exceptional praise for their excellent interpretation of this splendid are creation. Miss Carson, who is in her graduating year, gives promise of maturing into a true artist and of reaching the highest place in her chosen art.

The accompanists of the vocal numbers were the Misses Carson, Hall and McDonald, who all performed their parts in a highly artistic manner.

If an almost strained attention, generous applause and frequent recalls are a fair criterion of merit, the young performers of last evening must feel well pleased with the success of their renditions.

Among those present were: Rev. Mr. Cobbedick and Mrs. Cobbedick, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, and Noble Gardner, Dr. and Mrs. Hall and Mr. Fred Hall, Mr. Matthew Wilson, K. C., Mrs. Wm. McKeough, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Drader, Dr. Carson, Dr. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Blonde, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Thibodeau, Dr. and Mrs. Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. D. J. McDonald, Mr. Shannon, Miss Lucy McKellar, Miss Edna Martin, and the Misses Hillman, Mrs. W. E. Risip, Mrs. Sulman, Central and McKeough school staff.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10.

MILITIA APPOINTMENT.

There appear to be prospects of a pretty row between Lord Dundonald and the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. Sidney Fisher. In the course of a recent banquet speech Lord Dundonald stated that a list of officers of the Scottish Light Dragoons, the new cavalry regiment of the eastern townships, was sent by him (the G. O. C.) to council for approval. Among the names was that of Dr. Pickell, mayor of Sweetburg and warden of Missisquoi county. When the list was returned, Dr. Pickell's name was struck out, and initiated by the Minister of Agriculture. Lord Dundonald added that "his (Dr. Pickell's) political color was not, however, that of the Minister of Agriculture, and consequently he was not considered fit to serve his King in the military force of Canada. If the Hon. Sidney Fisher had been as well versed in soldiering as in agriculture, he would have better understood the responsibilities of officers, and this would not have happened." Mr. Fisher has declined to discuss the matter, so that the only light so far is that which has come from the G. O. C. If his charge be well founded, and a competent officer was really rejected simply because of his politics, it is a matter worthy of some serious attention. There may be room for differences of opinion on broad grounds of policy with reference to militia matters; but surely there is no excuse for the introduction of the narrowest and most mischievous features of party politics. Besides, under our system the Minister of Agriculture was scarcely the man to interfere. He might more properly have confined himself to the affairs of his own department.

A real live bull-fight was announced to take place at the St. Louis fair on Sunday. Over 7,000 people put up a good dollar apiece to see the fun, and when the authorities stepped in and prevented the show there was much disappointment. The mob showed its resentment by organizing a riot and burning the building in which the fight was to have taken place. It seems only the other day that the Americans were hurling indignation denunciations at the barbarism of Spain's effete and antiquated civilization, as indicated by her national sport; but it is evident that there are a good many enjoying the higher civilization of the republic who lack only the opportunity to appreciate a bull-fight as much as any Spaniard.

Sir William Mulock, Postmaster General in the Laurier Ministry, has put it on record as a Reform principle that a young woman who gets married has committed an offence deserving of censure and dismissal. A return was asked for in the House relating to the recent dismissal of Miss Barton, Postmistress at Irena, Dundas County, and in response there came down this curt memorandum from the Postmaster General:

"Name of office, Irena, County of Dundas. Cause of vacancy, marriage of Miss Mina Barton. Name of person appointed, J. J. Cooper."

In these days when there is so much talk of race suicide, one would have supposed that the action of Miss Mina Barton in getting married would have been commended; that the Postmaster General would have sent her a wedding present and his best wishes instead of "bouncing" her from her position. But perhaps Miss Barton's offence is not in reality so much that she got married as that she was a Tory, and that Mr. Cooper was a Grit and wanted the office.

A TARDY ACTION.

Attorney-General Gibson is to be congratulated upon having recognized, after many months, that the periodical invasion of Fort Erie by the Buffalo gang of pug and sports is scandalous. The other evening he sent the chief of the provincial detective force to see what was being done, and as a result of the visit the Attorney-General has decided that there will be no more breaches of the law.

GOLD LINING TO THE CLOUDS.

Brockville Recorder.

Stop complaining. True, the ground is pretty well soaked with water, but think of the coming hay crop. Lowland is not in good shape, but it will be all right for a late crop, and do not forget that the pastures are just loading the milk wagons and cheese vats. The power that rules the elements makes no mistakes and the crops will come out all right.

RUSSIA AND ENGLAND.

St. Petersburg: Novosti.

Why do we not like the English? Because we do not know them. The ignorance of the Russian publicists who rail against England is striking. They are not confused, because they know that the more they attack England the more they are favored by a section of their readers. What did they not say against England on the subject of mediation? And, after all, the rumor was false. Are these gentlemen confused? No. They continue their newspaper war against England, forgetting that the interests of Russia are thereby damaged. These eternal misunderstandings with England weaken our forces and undoubtedly prevent our pacific development in Asia. If they say there can never be any Anglo-Russian agreement with regard to Asia they lie. France, by her arrangement with Great Britain on the subject of Egypt, Morocco, and other countries, showed that all artificial misunderstandings are easily withdrawn if the governments interested discuss them dispassionately, and with a sincere wish to grant mutual concessions.

MILITARY SPIRIT IN CANADA.

Correspondence in New York Sun.

Here are some of the things I have observed as an American citizen temporarily staying in Montreal, Canada:

"First, I have just witnessed the 'church parade' of the military of the single city of Montreal. For twenty minutes by my watch companies of soldiers in lines that reached from curb to curb, in close column, have swept by from the magnificent and shakoed Royal Scots to tiny little cadets. They were all a finely set up, business-like looking set. I cannot even except the pocket editions. 'Secondly, I am staying near the 'Champ de Mars' of Montreal. On the evening of every week-day, without exception, I see or hear some one of these military organizations drilling. And it is no half-hearted drill. They do things with a snap until they are dismissed. 'Again, the organization of military bodies extends throughout the schools. This is no uncommon thing in the 'States' but I have never seen it carried quite so far. For instance last Saturday I had the discomfort of witnessing an 'inspection' drill of one of these cadet bodies. In marching, company, battalion and regimental movements, they were very good; no better, probably than cadet regiments in the States, but they did not stop there. They had a splendid physical set-up drill, with rifles as well as without. And, shades of Moses, they did guard mount and extended order! Moreover they knew what they are doing. There were no slips or fuses. They

Six Doctors Failed to Cure Him.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM WAS THE TROUBLE.

Burdock Blood Bitters

DID MORE THAN SIX DOCTORS COULD DO.

Mrs. Theo. Newell, Argyle Sound, N.S., expresses her opinion of this wonderful blood remedy in the following letter:

"It is with the greatest gratitude that I can testify to the wonderful curative powers of Burdock Blood Bitters. For years my husband suffered terribly with Erysipelas and Salt Rheum. He was so bad at times that he could not sleep on account of the itching and burning. He had been under the care of six different doctors, but they failed to do him any good. I had read different times of the wonderful cures being made by Burdock Blood Bitters, so advised him to give it a trial. He did so, and after taking five bottles was cured without a doubt. I would strongly advise any person troubled with blood disorders to give B.B.B. a fair trial for I am sure it will cure them."

did it just as calmly and easily as old Leather Stocking peeled potatoes in the air with the bullets from his rifle—some of them, too, duplicates of Tom Thumb in his younger days. This was one ordinary every-day school. There are others.

"Lastly, I have never seen anything in the States which equals the quiet, matter of fact, congenial military spirit which seems to pervade the people of Montreal.

"Moral—We of the United States might well have more of this same spirit, and, I think, even better citizens! And, O Fourth of July Orator, don't boast too much about the Canadians ever daily coming beneath our flag. They have a flag of their own that they seem to like, and, from what I have seen, they also seem to be able to take care of it."

Failures are often God's fitting for future successes.

THE STORY OF LIFE.

Making the best of life is getting the best health you can out of it—good digestion is the key. What you eat may or may not do you good. It depends upon how it is handled by the digestive apparatus of the stomach. If it is deranged, the blood, instead of taking new life and strength to the various organs of the body, takes poison which clogs the kidney, irritates the nerves, distresses the heart, causing headache, sleeplessness, weary, dull feeling, backache, rheumatism, neuralgia—makes the complexion sallow—causes biliousness and constipation. The great new discovery ANTI-PILL has a marvellous influence in correcting a crippled or rebellious stomach, and the results that follow—ANTI-PILL is the most perfect help to have when you feel wrong, out of sorts, sick or getting sick. It brightens you up—makes you feel better. 50 cents per bottle at druggists or Wilson-Fyle Co., Niagara Falls, Ont.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Has Cured More Women Than Any Other Medicine in the World.

Its annual sales are greater than those of any other medicine exclusively for women. It holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills. This fact is attested by hundreds of thousands of letters from grateful women which are on file in the Pinkham laboratory, and which are constantly being published.

Merit alone can produce such results. Good advertising serves to call attention for a time, but merit alone can stand the test of time.

The ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

All sick women should note these facts, and placing all possible prejudices aside, should realize the truthfulness of these statements, and that a cure for their troubles actually exists.

Wise is the woman who has faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for health and happiness is sure to follow its use.

—YOU CAN GET HELPFUL ADVICE FREE—

If there is anything about your illness you do not understand, Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., will be glad to receive a letter from you telling her all the details. She will send you promptly a reply which may save you years of suffering and pain. She has helped thousands of women. For all this she will not charge you a cent; besides, she will keep your letter strictly confidential. Write her to-day; don't wait.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

We have just put in, at great expense, a WONDERFUL MACHINE, heated by steam, work only passing through the rollers once; the result—Work is ELASTIC, WILL NOT BREAK, and will last much longer than when ironed by the old method, heated by gas, which has to pass through the rollers eight times.

P.S.—We have also added a newly invented machine to iron the edges of Collars and Cuffs.

STANDING BY THEIR GENERAL

Military Men Highly Incensed by Conduct of Meddling Minister.

The Text of Lord Dundonald's Address and How it was Received.

Montreal, June 9.—The speech delivered by Lord Dundonald at the recent military dinner in Montreal, in which he strongly criticised Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, for his action in connection with militia appointments, the story of which was told in the Mail and Empire, has created a tremendous sensation in militia circles, and the end of the matter is not yet, as it will no doubt be brought up in Parliament. Lord Dundonald's course in condemning political partisanship in connection with militia appointments is universally applauded by militia officers in Montreal, who are determined to stand by him, and declare that if he goes they will go too. It is now generally believed that Lord Dundonald made the speech in question with the full intention of directing public opinion to a grave abuse, an opinion which a perusal of the speech indicates.

The following is a verbatim report of Lord Dundonald's remarks on the occasion in question, taken by a Gazette shorthand representative, who was the only newspaper man present at the dinner, and is now, for the first time, published. Lord Dundonald said:

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, to any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they can not cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it will readily be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing their offer on curative means having an unparalleled record. No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out," as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-renowned remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such remarkable curative properties as would warrant its makers in publishing such a marvelous offer as is above made in the utmost good faith. I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your Favorite Prescription," says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired." "If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets." WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, proprietors, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

LORD DUNDONALD'S SPEECH.

"When a nation is at war and when national danger stares that nation in the face, it entrusts the promotion and selection for the advancement to the general whom it entrusts to lead it. Political intrigue, intrigue for personal advancement, other than that desired by military efficiency, is dormant in times of national terror (hear, hear). But when peace comes and all is quiet and the vigilance of a nation for its national interests is at rest, political wiles and political schemes then begin to weave their nets, the nation no longer at that time being watchful. But I care not, gentlemen, who the man is, whether he advances one man or realizes another on account of the political color of his party. I say that the man, whoever that man may be, is not a friend of his country.—Applause.

"Recently, gentlemen, a gross instance of political interference has occurred. I sent a list of officers of the 13th Light Dragoons to the Gazette, the 13th commanded by the efficient gentleman whom I see here now. I sent a list of these officers to the Gazette. I was instructed to receive the list back, with the name of one officer scratched out, and initiated by the Minister of agriculture, Mr. Sydney Fisher. That gentleman was a man I considered well equipped to serve the King in the 13th Scottish Regiment.—Applause. Dr. Pickell, Mayor of Sweetburg, chosen of the people of the champions of Mississquoi. What better man to serve the King? (Hear, hear).

MR. FISHER'S LACK OF ETIQUETTE.

"I feel certain that had Mr. Fisher's life led him to soldiery instead of to agriculture he would feel annoyed perhaps on personal grounds on the extraordinary lack of etiquette involved in scratching the name of a gentleman put forward by a man whose business is to find efficient officers for the militia—applause—but on personal grounds, gentlemen, I don't in the least mind. Lack of etiquette affects one little. I have been two years in Ottawa, gentlemen. Laughter. It is not on personal grounds that I inform you of this, but it is on national grounds. (Hear, hear). I feel, gentlemen, anxious, profoundly anxious, that the militia of Canada may be kept free from party politics." (Hear, hear, and loud applause).

The report was not published in the Gazette at the special request of a very large number of the local militia officers, who believed that following precedent its publication would mean that Lord Dundonald would be forced to resign, but the story having become public the militia officers are determined to stand by Lord Dundonald and expect that the officers of other Canadian corps will do likewise.

WILL MAKE IT UNPLEASANT.

Mr. Fisher on this supporters apparently intend to try and make it unpleasant for Lord Dundonald. Mr. Fisher's personal organ, the Herald, says editorially to-night: "Those who know Mr. Fisher will await with every confidence his reply to the charges made against him. A reply he will doubtless take an early opportunity to make, for no member of a Canadian cabinet could be expected to tolerate such conduct in a subordinate without making, at the earliest opportune moment, such protest as the occasion undoubtedly calls for. Until Hon. Mr. Fisher has been heard, it would be unavailing to discuss the merits of the quarrel Lord Dundonald has chosen to pick with him. But whatever the grounds of the dispute, it is clear that the present officer commanding the militia has not profited by the experience of certain of his predecessors. Whatsoever his contentions, he seems to have been overruled by the cabinet. It was a flagrant violation of his duty for him to appeal, as he did by his speech of Saturday to his inferiors. Such conduct, in England, would cost any servant of the Government his position as soon as it became known. It was wholly inexcusable, and, much as the Canadian people will regret that Lord Dundonald should lay himself open to it, it is difficult to see how he, whose business it is to teach our militia the duty of subordination to their superiors, can escape the natural penalty for insubordination. It is generally known here that Lord Dundonald had prepared his speech, and expected that it would be published. Consequently, it is not at all probable that the general will take backwater."

GREATEST STREET DISPLAY

Ringling Brothers' Magnificent Parade—One of Novel and Costly Grandeur.

The Ringling Brothers, five of them, who have made a name in the amusement field that stands for all that is new, novel, strictly modern and far-reaching in magnitude, present this season the most attractive and colossal free street parade ever attempted in the history of circuses. Since last season the parade has been enlarged and improved upon with all the care and pride that is evident in the numerous other departments of Ringling Brothers' enormous tented amusement enterprise. There is something in this pageant to interest and hold the attention of every spectator. For the student of natural history the wonders of the animal world are brought together in living, breathing reality. The lover of fine stock has here 650 magnificent thoroughbred horses upon which to feast his eyes; the admirer of physical perfection is regaled with the sight of hundreds of the world's greatest acrobats, equilibrists, gymnasts and riders; the artistic sense is gratified in the opulent splendor of massive, beautifully carved floats, representing the known countries of the globe. Men and women, in the picturesque garb of the various nations, form resplendent allegorical tableaux. Each float is accompanied by a detachment of the soldiery of the country represented and the picture is further enlivened and made more realistic by bands composed of German, Russian, French, Scottish, Indian and Persian musicians. The representative float of the United States is superb in red, white and blue effects, surrounded by an escort of Rough Riders and preceded by Ringling Brothers' famous cavalry band, mounted on handsome white horses. The parade is in thirty sections, and each one is a superb attraction in itself, with its hundreds of proudly stepping horses with waving plumes and trappings of gold and silver; its gorgeously costumed knights and ladies, heralds and courtiers; its brilliantly uniformed soldiers; its numerous bands of music, and its 68-stop triple strength pipe organ, built on a monster van and drawn by ten horses. Its great herds of 40 elephants and 20 camels; its children's section, in which miniature Shetland ponies draw pretty little animal and picture wagons, and its scores of beautifully carved and ornamented dens and cages of openly exhibited rare wild beasts, form a picture that in wealth of display and beauty of coloring has never been equaled. The opening performance in the big tent begins at 2 o'clock and at 8, but the doors will be open an hour earlier, in order that visitors have ample time to inspect the immense menagerie, which contains numerous rare and costly animal attractions, including a pair of stately giraffes, the only living survivors of their kind; "Baby Boo," the first baby elephant successfully bred and reared in America, and the only rhinoceros in captivity. The performance includes hundreds of new and novel acts, enlisting the services of 375 high class artists, 40 clowns and hundreds of auxiliaries, and the regal spectacular production of Jerusalem and the Crusades, in which 1,200 characters are shown. Ringling's World's Greatest shows exhibit in Chatham one day only, Saturday, June 11.

Council resumed Friday morning with all the members present and the Warden in the chair.

John Reycraft, Chairman of the County Property Committee, reported that only some incidental repairs were made since last meeting amounting to $31.66 that your committee recommended the advisability of a better system of heating at the Registry office, that specifications be prepared and tenders asked for doing the work.

The report was adopted.

John Grant reported, re the ferry at Prairie Siding that the grant for this purpose had been properly expended. The report was adopted.

It was moved by Mr. French, seconded by Mr. Grant, that the communication from W. W. Taylor, re Wm. Oake estate in the township of Dover, be left with the Warden, he to have power to settle according to conditions as may be found in treasurer's books, as regards arrears of taxes and deed for redemption of land.

It was moved by Mr. French, seconded by Mr. Grant, that whereas the townships of Raleigh and Tilbury have appealed for a grant to assist in repairing the towline between the said township, north of C. P. R., be it resolved that the County of Kent grant to said township the sum of $500 upon condition that the above mentioned townships each supplement the said grant and that Mr. Chinnick and Mr. Ross be a committee to act in conjunction with the Commissioner appointed by the townships to expend the same and that the said grant be paid upon certificate of the Commissioner when the work is completed.

—Referred to Finance.

Council then adjourned.

THE BIG SHOW

Two performances will be given here to-morrow by the World's Greatest Shows—and the Ringling Brothers have really gained the right to use that title—at 2 and 8 p. m. The doors open at 1 and 7 p. m. for an hour's view of the menagerie, which comprises the largest and most complete travelling zoological collection. A baby camel, born two weeks ago at Boston, Mass., will be one of the curiosities.

The sensational act of Ringling's program this year, which has been widely advertised, is Crazo's daring bicycle jump of 52 feet in midair, and is termed by the circus management, "Leaping the Gap." As for the balance of the program, it is made up of the usual high priced features to be found always neath the Ringling's tents, but this year boasts of more novelties than ever before. For the accommodation of ladies and children and others who desire to avoid the usual crushing at the ticket wagons, a down-town sale of tickets will be held at the Central Drug Store, admission tickets and numbered reserved seats will be sold at the same prices as will be charged on the grounds.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids or separate tenders (marked tender) will be received at the Merchants' Bank of Canada, Chatham, Ont., until Wednesday, June 18th for the masonry work, carpenter work, iron and steel work, painting, glazing, heating, plumbing, etc., required in the erection and completion of a stone and pressed brick block addition Bank Building, on the corner of King and Fifth Streets, in the City of Chatham. Plan and specifications may be seen at the office of the undersigned Architect. Lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

IN SIGHT OF SETTLEMENT

Mayor McKeough and Warden Sifton Held a Conference To-day.

It Now Looks as if the Differences Between the County and City
 Would be Amiable Settled.

Owing to the absence of Chairman Marshall, of the civic Finance Committee, to-day and his expected absence to-morrow, his worship Mayor McKeough was unable to arrange a meeting of the Finance committee to hold a final consultation with the Property committee of the County Council this week.

In consequence Mayor McKeough and Warden Sifton held a consultation this morning at ten o'clock and discussed the Mayor's proposal to give the use of the Police Court in case they wished to give a room in Harrison Hall to Referee Rankin. The Warden was of opinion that the County would not entertain the suggestion.

After further discussion as to the proposed amount the city should pay the County as its share of the administration accounts, the Mayor offered to compromise by agreeing to $2,200 instead of $2,130 he agreed to a settlement of $2,200 will include rental of Registry Office and all matters which had not been agreed upon.

The Warden decided to submit the settlement proposed to his committee and report to the Council, which he did, and informed the Mayor that they would accept the offer. This will put an amicable finish to the little difference which the City and County has had.

A WARM WELCOME

A special service was held at the Salvation Army last night, it being the welcome of the officers for Chatham Corps and District. Addresses were given by the local officers of the Corps in which they agreed to a hearty welcome to Adjutant and Mrs. Bloss, who have come from Guelph here. Both Adjutant and Mrs. Bloss are officers or many years' service in the Army, they having pioneered the Army's work in the Kootenay Country of British Columbia and in the Yukon. The Yukon also being stationed in Montana, Idaho and Washington of the Western States, as well as Montreal, Peterboro, Ottawa, Kingston, and the Army Headquarters in Toronto.

In addition to Chatham being the District Headquarters, it is at present also the Provincial Headquarters for the Western Ontario Division of the Army of which Adjutant Bloss has assumed temporary command in the absence of Brigadier Hargrave, who is at present on the way to the great International Congress being held in London, England, at which there will be one hundred thousand delegates from all parts of the world. Three hundred Canadian Salvationists left Montreal last night for the Congress, accompanied by two brass bands. Special services will be conducted by Adjutant Bloss on Sunday in the Barracks here assisted by Lieut. Maizey, of London.

W. K. A. SOCIETY

The West Kent Agricultural Society held a meeting last evening with the following present—President Austin, J. Dowling, Fred Dolsen, John Cotton, A. D. Westman, James Chinnick and Geo. W. Cowan.

The ground committee were given power to have all buildings white-washed.

The following schedule for the trials of speed was decided upon—
 Wednesday, September 28, Farmers' race, 2.18 trot; 2.20 pace; and 2.30 trot or 2.35 pace.
 Thursday, Sept. 29—2.50 trot or pace; 2.25 trot or 2.30 pace.

Good purses are offered for all of the races and it is expected that the competition will be spirited.

Chas. Lynn, trainer of the Tecumsehs, had his team in pretty good shape for to-day's game with the Elburg and went out with the bunch.

It is well to remember that all the good excursions have already been invented.

MADE YOUNG AGAIN

Writing The Planet from Toronto yesterday, Edwin Bell, L.L.B., says—
Toronto, June 8, 1904.
346 Jarvis St.

My Dear Sir,—

If the edition is not exhausted, kindly send me a few more copies of The Souvenir Planet for which I enclose the price. Some Chatham old boys resident here who were unable to attend the Re-union have seen my copy and they want a copy for themselves, recalling as it does so much of the past life of the town. You have doubtless had many nice things said about the Souvenir Edition and I need not mention all the compliments I have heard for you. One boy, on rather man—but we are all boys now—said he laughed till he cried over the memories called up by the old familiar scenes and faces. He was especially amused and delighted with Ed. Sandy's racy budget of recollections, and the pictures of "Old Figs," and "Old Bots," two celebrated characters whom he knew, and threw stones at, and was chased by, in the good old days long ago. I think you must have had similar experiences yourself.

The Re-union was worthy of The Planet's special edition and in spite of the unfavorable weather of the first two or three days was a great success if I may judge from my own experience and what I heard other old boys say while I was there. I met Mr. Willie Martin, a brother of Mr. Warren, who was in Chatham 27 years ago and I introduced him to Judge Dowling, with whom I was talking at the time. "Judge," he said, placing his hand in a friendly way on the judge's shoulder, "let me congratulate you on coming among the warmest hearted people on the face of the earth." This is typical of what I heard on all sides and I think expresses the feeling of all the old boys who attended the Re-union. Our reception was as hearty and warm as only Chatham people know how to make it. With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

EDWIN BELL.

If Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Won't Cure the Spring Fever Victim he Has Something Worse Than a Bad Stomach.

With the warm days comes that disinclination to eat and that dreary far away feeling that is commonly known as spring fever.

And the victim of spring fever is a general nuisance. He's dissatisfied with himself, dissatisfied with everyone else and he leaves an air of dissatisfaction wherever he goes.

Do you know what's the matter with him? His stomach is out of order!

That stomach has been overworked and needs a rest.

How do you prove this? Give the spring fever victim a treatment of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure him. If they don't he is troubled with something worse than a bad stomach. For no bad stomach is so bad that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will not cure it.

DREAM OF A DOG

Do you know, Bill, that I had the strangest dream last night, remarked a well known city sport to a friend on King Street last night. I had been out pretty late with some jolly companions, and we finished up on Welsh rarebits. On retiring, I no sooner fell asleep than it seemed as if my pet bull pup was sitting by my bed talking to me. "Say," said the bull pup, "I want to take me for walks in more peaceful localities after this. When you take me out with you I find myself up against all kinds of dangerous excitement, although you may be enjoying yourself fine. At first I may be trotting behind you, thinking of the nice ladies who are going to pet me. Then all of a sudden I see Jones' dog coming towards us. Now, I don't know whether he is going to sniff me and pass by or whether he wants to get up a fight. After saying howdy to him and brushing by, I see a small boy with a rock in his hands, and it makes me feel creepy till we get safely past. Then some one aims a kick at me and I've got to side-step that. All of a sudden I catch sight of a big St. Bernard coming down the line with a fierce look in his eye. It's up to me to do something in a hurry, or there'll be something doing, so I pretend there is something very special to investigate in a nearby backyard, and so I side over that danger. But all of those dangers are easy, compared with when some nice kind lady comes along with a big Danish hound, and begins to pet me. Then that green-eyed monster, jealously gets busy and the Dane starts to get mad. 'You had better evaporate quick or there'll be trouble,' says the Dane to me, so I break away from the kind lady and lay down by your feet, while the Dane is being jostled along by you. Now, all I ask is that you will take me out walking on quiet streets where there's no dogs, and don't let people with big bloodthirsty dogs pet me. Solong"—and the bull pup ran out of my room. Then I woke up. Think it over, Bill.

DIRTY STAGE MIRROR.

Chicago Tribune.

Whenever a looking-glass appears in a scene in a play above a fireplace, in a sideboard or a cabinet, one is almost sure to hear somebody ask his or her neighbor why the glass has been smeared with whitening or soap or something that dulls its surface completely. All sorts of reasons are hazarded or suggested.

Sometimes it is stated that it is done for luck, at others that they did not intend to leave it dirty. The real explanation is, however, a simple one. The glass is dirtied to prevent the illusion of the scene being destroyed, as it certainly would be if the audience saw in it the reflection of themselves, or, worse still, the reflection of the people in the wings carrying on the business of the stage.

Turn Time Backward. Be Young Again.

At last there is hope for the army of young, old, middle-aged men who either through early overwork, late excesses or exposure find themselves lacking in virile power. How many of you are now reaping the harvest of your folly? At last you see faces to face with the realization that nature cannot be deceived, neither does it forget the wrong done it, whether through ignorance or otherwise. The punishment always corresponds with the deed of those committed. Do not, however, despair, as there is a cure, thanks to Dr. Goldberger, the noted specialist, who can give you what is rightfully yours—manhood. If you are not what you should be, if you have stricture, gonorrhea, sexual weakness, varicocele, lost manhood, blood poison, hydrocele, amputation of parts, impotency, rheumatism, bladder or kidney trouble, heart disease, nervous debility, etc., write at once to Dr. Goldberger, and he will send you his method of curing these diseases free of charge. The doctor has received fourteen diplomas, certificates and licenses from colleges and state boards of medical examiners, which should convince you as to his standing and abilities. His acceptance of a case for treatment is equivalent to a cure, as he never accepts an incurable one. He is a specialist, and should you decide to doctor with him you may

Pay When You Are Cured.

The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured he will send you a bill for the amount of the cure. It is the best insurance of every man who suffers in this way to let the doctor at once and confidentially lay your case before him. He sends the method, as well as his receipt on the subject, containing the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him at once to Dr. Goldberger, 22 Woodward Ave., Room 200, Detroit, Mich., and it will all immediately be sent you. Free, in a plain, sealed package.

OF THE

think of what you must have been through! I thought you had some kind of a yacht. I had no idea it would be like this." And as she spoke Moran came suddenly upon the group from behind the foremast and paused in abrupt surprise, her thumbs in her belt.

She still wore men's clothes and was booted to the knee. The heavy blue woolen shirt was open at the throat, the sleeves rolled halfway up her large white arms. In her belt she carried her haphazard Scandinavian dirk. She was hatless as ever, and her heavy, fragrant cables of rye hued hair fell over her shoulders and breast to far below her belt.

Miss Herrick started sharply, and Moran turned an inquiring glance upon Wilbur. Wilbur took his resolution in both hands.

"Miss Herrick," he said, "this is Moran—Moran Sterners."

Moran took a step forward, holding out her hand. Josie, all bewildered, put her tight gloved fingers into the calloused palm, looking up nervously into Moran's face.

"I'm sure," she said feebly, almost breathlessly—"I'm sure I'm very pleased to meet Miss Sterners."

It was long before the picture left Wilbur's imagination. Josie Herrick, petite, gownned in white, crisp from her maid's grooming, and Moran, sea rover and daughter of a hundred vikings, towering above her, booted and belted, gravely clasping Josie's hand in her own huge fist.

CHAPTER: XIII.

SAN FRANCISCO once more! For two days the Bertha Miller had been beating up the coast, fighting her way against northerly winds, butting into head seas.

The warmth, the stillness, the placid, drowsing quiet of Magdalena bay, steaming under the golden eye of a tropic heaven, the white, baked beach, the bay heads, straited with the mirage in the morning, the coruscating sunset, the enchanted mystery of the purple night, with its sheen of stars

Doan's Kidney Pills

FINALLY MADE A COMPLETE CURE.

Mr. Jacob Jamieson, Jamieson Bros., the well-known Contractors and Builders, Welland, Ont., tells of how he was cured: "For fourteen years I was afflicted with kidney trouble which increased in severity last five years. My most serious attack was four years ago, when I was completely incapacitated. I had terrible pains across my back, floating specks before my eyes and was in almost constant torment. I could not sit or stand with ease and was a wreck in health, having no appetite and lost greatly in flesh. I had taken medicine from five different doctors and also numerous other preparations to no purpose. I finally began to take Doan's Kidney Pills and before I had taken five boxes the trouble left me and I now feel better than I have for twenty years. Those who know me know how I was afflicted and say it is almost impossible to believe that I have been cured, yet they know it is so. I have passed the meridian of life but I feel that I have taken on the rosy hue of boyhood."

and riding moon, were now replaced by the hale and vigorous snorting of the trades, the roll of breakers to landward and the unremitting gallop of the unnumbered multitudes of gray green seas careering silently past the schooner, their crests occasionally hissing into brusque eruptions of white froth or smiting broad on under her counter, showering her decks with a spout of icy spray. It was cold. At times thick fogs cloaked all the world of water. To the east a procession of bleak hills defied slowly southward. Lighthouses were passed; streamers of smoke on the western horizon marked the passage of steamships, and once they met and passed close by a huge Cape Horn, a great deep sea tramp, all sails set and drawing, rolling slowly and leisurely in seas that made the schooner dance.

At last the Farallones loomed over the ocean's edge to the north; then came the whistling buoy, the Seal rocks, the Heads, Point Reyes, the Golden Gate flanked with the old red Presidio, Lime point with its watching cannon, and by noon of a gray and boisterous day, under a lusty wind and a slant of rain, just five months after her departure, the Bertha Miller let go her anchor in San Francisco bay some few hundred yards off the lifeboat station.

In this berth the schooner was still three or four miles from the city and the water front. But Moran detested any nearer approach to civilization.

and Wilbur himself was willing to avoid, at least for one day, the publicity which he believed the Bertha's reappearance was sure to attract. He remembered, too, that the little boat carried with her a fortune of $100,000 and decided that until it could be safely landed and stored it was not desirable that its existence should be known along "the front."

For days, weeks even, Wilbur had looked eagerly forward to this return to his home. He had seen himself again in his former haunts, in his club and in the houses along Pacific avenue where he had received, but no sooner had the anchor chain ceased rattling in the Bertha's hawse pipe than a strange revulsion came upon him. The new man that seemed to have so suddenly sprung to life within him, the Wilbur who was the mate of the Bertha Miller, the Wilbur who belonged to Moran, believed that he could see nothing to be desired in city life. For him was the unsteady deck of a schooner, and the great winds and the tremendous wheel of the ocean's rim, and the horizon that ever defied his following prow; so he told himself, so he believed. What attractions could the city offer him, what amusements, what excitements? He had been flung off the smoothly spinning circumference of well ordered life out into the void.

He had known romance and the spell of the great, simple and primitive emotions; he had sat down to eat with buccaners; he had seen the fierce, quick leap of unleashed passions and had felt death sweep close at his nose and pass like a swift spurt of cold air. City life, his old life, had no charm for him now. Wilbur honestly believed that he was changed to his heart's core. He thought that, like Moran, he was henceforth to be a sailor of the sea, a rover, and he saw the rest of his existence passed with her aboard their faithful little schooner. They would have the whole round world as their playground; they held the earth and the great seas in fief; there was no one to let or to hinder. They two belonged to each other. Once outside the Heads again and they swept the land of cities and of little things behind them, and they were left alone once more, alone in the great world of romance.

About an hour after her arrival off the station, while Heang and the hands were turling the jib and foremast and getting the dory over the side, Moran remarked to Wilbur:

"It's good we came in when we did, mate. The glass is going down fast, and the wind's breezing up from the west. We're going to have a blow. The tide will be going out in a little while, and we never could have come in against wind and tide."

"Moran," said Wilbur, "I'm going ashore—into the station here. There's a telephone line there. See the wires? I can't so much as turn my hand over before I have some shore going clothes. What do you suppose they would do to me if I appeared on Kearney street in this outfit? I'll ring up the whole-sale chemists in town and have an agent come out here and talk business to us about our ambergis. We've got to pay the men their prize money. Then as soon as we get our own money in hand we can talk about overhauling and outfitting the Bertha."

Moran refused to accompany him ashore and into the lifeboat station. Roofed houses were an object of suspicion to her. Already she had begun to be uneasy at the distant sight of the city of San Francisco, Nob. Telegraph Russian and Rincon hills, all swarming with buildings and grooved with streets. Even the landlocked harbor fretted her. Wilbur could see she felt imprisoned, confined. When he had pointed out the Palace hotel to her—a vast gray cube in the distance, overtopping the surrounding roofs—she had sworn under her breath:

"And people can live there! Good heavens! Why not rabbit burrows and be done with it? Mate, how soon can we be out to sea again? I hate this place."

Wilbur found the captain of the lifeboat station in the act of sitting down to a dinner of boiled beef and cabbage. He was a strongly built, well looking man, with the air more of a soldier than a sailor. He had already been studying the schooner through his front window and had recognized her and at once asked Wilbur news of Captain

Vin St Michel

It's a builder of strength and vigor. A maker of pure, rich blood. An appetizer and digestant. A developer of sturdy health.

How much easier it is to take Vin St. Michel and KEEP WELL—than to try to win back health after sickness.

Vin St. Michel is France's gift to Canada. It is a famous old Tonic Wine, rich in iron and phosphorous, and remarkable for its power to keep the whole system in perfect condition.

I certify having been completely cured by the Vin St. Michel. I was excessively weak and without energy. When working, I would feel very weary and generally exhausted. I gave up taking all other remedies and used only Vin St. Michel. It was not long, a few days only, till I felt considerably better and to-day I can affirm that I am perfectly well, it is exclusively due to the three bottles of Vin St. Michel I have taken.

Kitchell. Wilbur told him as much of his story as was necessary, but from the captain's talk he gathered that the news of his return had long since been wired from Coronado and that it would be impossible to avoid a nine days' notoriety. The captain of the station (his name was Hodgson) made Wilbur royally welcome, insisted upon his dining with him and himself called up the chemists as soon as the meal was over.

It was he who offered the only plausible solution of the mystery of the lifting and shaking of the schooner and the wrecking of the junk. Though Wilbur was not satisfied with Hodgson's explanation, it was the only one he ever heard.

When he had spoken of the matter, Hodgson had nodded his head. "Sulphur bottoms," he said.

"Sulphur bottoms?"

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Him a New Man.

Richard Quirk, Doctored for a Dozen Years and Thought His Case Incurable—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Fortune Harbor, Nfld., June 5.—(Special).—Scores of people in this neighborhood are living proofs that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all Kidney ailments from Backache to Bright's Disease. Among the most remarkable cures is that of Mr. Richard Quirk, and he gives the story of it to the public as follows:

"I suffered for over twenty years from Lumbago and Kidney Disease and at intervals was totally unable to work. After ten or twelve years of doctors treatment, I had made up my mind that my complaint was incurable. Reading of cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills tempted me to try them. I did so with little faith, but to my great surprise I had not taken more than half a box before I felt relief and after the use of seven or eight boxes, I was fully cured and a new man."

"Yes, Dodd's Kidney Pills cured my Lumbago and Kidney Disease, and the best of it is I have stayed cured."

Sheer Waste.

Wife—John, is there any poison in the house? Husband—Yes. But why do you ask? Wife—I want to sprinkle some on this piece of angel cake and put it where the mice will get it. Wouldn't that kill them? Husband—Sure; but it isn't necessary to waste the poison.

A GOOD COMPLEXION.

Is a joy to every woman's heart and man is vain enough not to desire it. Beautiful complexion means pure blood, or in other words a healthy body. Tens of thousands of women take Ferrozone because it's a splendid blood builder, keeps the system in perfect order and helps the complexion wonderfully. "I consider Ferrozone the best remedy to give you a clear, ruddy complexion I know of," writes Miss Ada E. Brandon, of Pembroke. "My skin used to be sallow, but after taking a few boxes of Ferrozone a rosy tint was noticeable on my cheeks. I can recommend Ferrozone as a tonic also." For good health and beauty use only Ferrozone. Price 50c. at druggists.

Unlucky.

The burglar noiselessly opened the jewel case and examined the contents. "Ah," he said to himself, "made ought to have known better than to invest anything in opals. They are unlucky." And he transferred them to his pocket and quietly climbed out of the window again.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists. Price 75c. per bottle.

"Excuse me," said the great detective, "but which one of the three did the clock strike?"

IF YOU HAVE A BAD COLD..

If you are sneezing and suffering from a "stuffed-up" head and running eyes the best plan is to get a fragrant, healing Catarrh Remedy, the quickest and surest cure for cold in the head, coughs and catarrh ever discovered. This great healing agent is carried by the air you breathe all through the passages of the nose, throat and lungs. It soothes the irritated membranes, kills catarrhal germs, instantly stops the cough and sneezing. It's the antiseptic vapor of Catarrh Remedy that does the curing. A trial proves that a cold can be killed in a few minutes by Catarrh Remedy. Money back if it fails. Complete outfit $1.00; small size 25c.

The Danger In It.

"See here!" cried the victim, after the accident. "I thought you said it was perfectly safe to go up in that old elevator?"

"So it was safe to go up," replied the elevator man. "The dangerous part of it was the coming down."

NOTHING LIKE EXPERIENCE.

"One truth learned by actual experience does more good than ten experiences one hears about." Tell a man that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus, and he will most likely forget it before the end of the day. Let him have a severe attack of that disease, feel that he is about to die, use this remedy, and learn from his own experience how quickly it gives relief, and he will remember it all his life. LACROSSE

THE DETROIT OPENER.

Manager Babcock, of the Chatham league team, was in this city yesterday, and completed all arrangements for the match with the D. A. C. which will be decided at the Woodward avenue grounds on Saturday of next week, June 18. This will be the opening home game for the D. A. C. boys, and special efforts will be made to draw a big crowd. It will be the first game in which the team will use its full playing strength. Several of the regulars were absent at St. Thomas, and one or two were out in the earlier games.

It is probable that the game at Chicago will be on June 19. The Buffalo date has not yet been clinched, though the Detroiters have accepted the terms offered. An answer is expected at any time.—Detroit Free Press.

The Tecumseh go to Wallaceburg this afternoon at three o'clock to play their first league game.

The following players will compose the Chatham team:
Goal—Robinson.
Point—McKinnon.
Cover point—Pickering.
First defence—Elliott.
Second defence—Hayden.
Third defence—Wilson.
Centre—Rowe.
Third home—Grace.
Second home—Quensel.

No, sir, I should never ask a woman with brains to marry me. Well, really, I don't believe it would be worth your while.

THE SATELLITE

Circus to-morrow—rain sure.

Here's success to the lacrosse club at Wallaceburg.

When it comes to fishing, John Dittmar has them all scraped.

Yes, the parade is a mile long and money is all that stands between you and the big show.

You never miss the rain till the sun comes out, but these days you never have a chance to miss it.

Don't miss the parade in the morning. If you do, the pick pocket will probably miss you in the crowd.

Perhaps it was the long face that Ald. McCoig sometimes puts on that won out for him.

I can't see how the citizens can hope to improve the minds of the other residents when they themselves indulge in so much light talk. Still an improvement in the service would be much appreciated.

It was the clerical cut of Archie McCoig's Prince Albert, his serene ministerial countenance, his pastoral manner and his divine appearance that made him a minister.

John Dittmar—I haf trouble myself yesterday last evening. I catch seven pounds weights. I cut his head off, take him home and kill him with a baseball club. Then I scrape him but der is no die to der wish. Vy its heart beat for one hour and tree-quarters after der fish was dead mit and baseball club. I had heard tough those fish was but I defer expected to see un live so long dead.

WHAT IS A BLUSH?

According to a Southern medical journal, this is an accurate definition of a "blush." "A blush is a temporary erythema and calorific effluence of the physiognomy, etiologized by one perceptiveness of the sensorium when in a predicament of unequilibrium from a sense of shame, anger or other cause, eventuating in a paresis of the vaso-motor filaments of the facial capillaries, whereby, being divested of their elasticity, they are suffused with a radiance emanating from an intimidated preacordia." It makes one blush to read it.

ORDINARY CORN SALVES CONTAIN ACIDS.

But the old reliable Putnam's Corn Extractor is entirely vegetable in composition and does not eat or burn the flesh. It gradually lifts the corn, causes no pain, and cures permanently. Price 25c. at all druggists. Use only "Putnam's."

WATER BOARD

Commissioners Hold Businesslike Session and Deal With Many Matters.

The Water Commissioners met last night at nine o'clock and had a short business-like session.

The statement of the audit from the city auditors was received.

Mrs. Cartwright was allowed a rebate on her water rate.

The Lake Erie Coal Co. wrote asking for a settlement of their account, amounting to about $1,200.00.

The Superintendent was instructed to figure out the allowance due to the Board on coal on hand when the new contract was made and a cheque be sent for the balance.

The Chaplin Wheel Works wrote stating the account of $83.14 sent in for putting down their extension of main was not correct, as part of it was on the street. The Superintendent was instructed to make a settlement.

Chairman Dr. J. L. Bray read the report of the inspector of boilers, which was very satisfactory.

A petition was read from Alfred street asking for an extension to cost $47.65, with a revenue of $9. Granted.

Another petition was read from Arnold street for an extension to cost $46.66, with a revenue of $6. Granted.

Chas. Vanetten, Lorne avenue, was allowed a rebate of $3.44.

Secretary-Treasurer Weir brought up several small matters where people complained of not using their lawn services and wanted rebates.

Dr. Bray said he didn't think a man should pay for anything he did not get.

Mr. Weir—The reason I brought the matter up was because it was one of the things mentioned in the special audit, which, said the Secretary, seemed to be the sole arbitrator.

Dr. Bray—Don't pay any attention to the audit at all.

The accounts of Geo. Stephens & Co. for $83.30 and $206.92 were left over.

Patrick Flannery was appointed collector at a salary.

Mr. Sheldon—These accounts of the Dowdley and Chaplin factories must be collected at once. We won't have any more fooling.

Dr. Bray—Yes, that's right. We have never received a cent from either of them. They must settle at once or we will take the matter into court.

The following accounts were passed:

Lethbridge Bros., $2.
G. S. Hayward, $11.0.
J. & J. Oldershaw, $21.50.
J. C. Wanless, $2.
S. Hadley Co., $46.50.
Park Bros., $93.43.
A. H. Patterson, $24.20.
Geo. Cowan, $2.
