The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

INTRODUCTION.

RISE OF THE FREE CHRISTIAN BAPTISTS.

This Denomination arose at nearly the same time in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and under similar circumstances, without any knowledge of each other.

In Nova Scotia we were organized into a Denomination in June, 1837, composed of Churches, some of which had been planted twenty years before this period, all of them taking the Scriptures as their only and all-sufficient rule of faith and practice, and holding the same doctrinal views. Yet as they had been planted by different Ministers, some of them were called "Free-will Baptists," and others "Christians," they felt the inconvenience of being two Societies, while they were in perfect union as regards Doctrine, Practice and Ordinances; to remedy which, in October, 1836, Elders from both Societies met in Argyle, (according to arrangements previously made,) to consult on the propriety of uniting together as one body, and after deliberate consultation, they unanimously agreed—
1st. We have perfect fellowship with each other, and are one in doctrine.
2d. That both Societies should be united into one, to be called "Free Christian Baptists;" to send to all the Elders and Churches in both Societies, to ascertain if they were agreed to the proposed union, and if they were, requested that Delegates would meet on Cape Sable Island on the 17th of June, 1837, in order to complete the organization of the United Society, in consequence of which the Delegation assembled, and the Union was consolidated.

In New Brunswick, we were organized into a Denomination at Wakefield, in the County of Carleton, in the month of October, 1832,* consisting of two ordained Elders, and six Churches, taking the name of "New Brunswick Christian Conference." In June, 1835, the No. of Elders had increased to eight, and the No. of Churches to twenty. At this time the Conference was divided into two districts, and their sittings made semi-annual.

In 1847, the Conference numbered as follows: 14 ordained Elders; 40 Churches, containing 2,000 members. At this date we unanimously agreed to take the name of "Free Christian Baptists." Our reason for doing so were, 1st, to relieve the minds of many of our brethren, who were never fully reconciled to the name of Christian only, and thereby cultivate a greater union among ourselves; and 2d, to open a door for union with our brethren in Nova Scotia, bearing that name, which union took place in

* Notwithstanding our Organization is of recent date, there were many persons in various parts of this Province whose religious tenets were nearly the same with ours, some of whom, from principle, had never united in Church Covenant with any body of people until this denomination arose.

October of this year, with consent of both parties, by the following resolution of General Conference.

Resolved unanimously, That the Free Christian Baptists in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick be embodied into one Denomination of people, with the understanding, that each Conference retain its own government, and send delegates yearly, each to the other.

At the time this union took place, there were ten ordained Elders, seventeen Churches, containing 1153 members, belonging to this connexion in Nova Scotia.

Before closing our introduction for New Brunswick, we would remark that a resolution was passed in our fourth General Conference, (1835,) that we remonstrate against Universalism, Unitarianism, Antinomianism, Infant Purity, and Annihilation, and from our rise we have believed those sentiments unscriptural.

Our united reasons for publishing the following work are, 1st, to cultivate a better understanding of Scripture, harmony in sentiment, and to prevent the introduction of erroneous principles among us. 2d. To remove the censures which evil-minded persons have cast upon us, by charging us with holding sentiments which we do not believe. 3d. To impart correct information of our views of Scripture.

CHAPTER II.

CREATION, PRIMITIVE STATE OF MAN, AND HIS FALL.

SECTION I.—CREATION.—1. Of the World. God created the world and all things that it contains, for his own pleasure and glory, and the enjoyment of his creatures a.

2. Of the Angels. The Angels were created by God b, to glorify him c, and obey his commandments d. Those who have kept their first estate* he employs in ministering blessings to the heirs of salvation e, and in executing his judgments upon the world f.

3. Of Man. God created man, consisting of a corporeal body, and a thinking, rational soul g. He was made in the similitude of God to glorify his Maker h.

* Jude 6, "And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day."

c Rev vii 11—"And all the angels stood round about; and fell before the Throne on their faces and worshipped God."

h Gen i 27—"So God created man in his own image; in the image of God created he him." 1 Cor xi 7—"Man—is the image and glory of God."

Our first parents, in their original state of probation, were perfectly righteous a; but in consequence of the first transgression, the nature of their descendants is so unholy, that none by virtue of any natural goodness can become the holy children of God b: but they are all dependant for salvation upon the redemption effected through the blood of Christ, and upon being created anew into holiness through the operation of the Spirit c; both of which are freely provided for every descendant of Adam d.

c. Rom v 18—"As by the offence of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." CHAPTER III. OF CHRIST.

SECTION I.—THE SON OF GOD possesses all Divine perfections. His Divine perfections are proved from his titles, his attributes and his works.

1. His Titles. The Bible ascribes to Christ the titles of Saviour a, Lord of Hosts b the First and the Last c God d, true God e, great God f, God over

e. 1 John v. 20—"We are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life."

NOTE. Since Jehovah requires all men to worship him, and makes it idolatry to worship any other being, it would surely be idolatry to worship Christ, if he did not possess the perfections of Jehovah. Yet Christ claimed Divine Worship, holy saints worshipped him.

NOTE.—By comparing the Scriptures quoted, it is evident that the attributes and works of God are indiscriminately ascribed to Christ, consequently a unity exists between the Father and Son, which constitutes but one being. To this SECTION II.—THE INCARNATION OF CHRIST.

The Word which in the beginning was with God, and which was God, by whom all things were made, condescended to a state of humiliation in this state, as a subject of the law, he took our infirmities b, was tempted as we are c but lived our example d, and rendered perfect obedience to the divine requirements e.

TREATISE.

2. The attributes of God are applied to the Holy Ghost : such as eternity j, omnipresence k, omniscience l, goodness m and truth n.

3. The works of God are ascribed to the Holy Ghost : creation o, inspiration p, giving of life q, and sanctification r.

4. The same acts, which, in one part of the Bible are attributed to the Holy Ghost, are in other parts said to be performed by God s.

5. The Apostles assert that the Holy Ghost is Lord and God t. From the foregoing, the conclusion is, that the Holy Ghost is in reality God, and one with the Father in all Divine perfections. It has also been shewn that Jesus Christ is God, one in essence with the Father. Then in essence these three, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost are one.

In several places Christ is called the only begotten Son of God. See also Dan 2 : 20; Ps 62 : 11; Isa 48 : 16; Eph 4 : 14; John 6 : 45; Isaiah 48 : 17.

CHAPTER V.

ATONEMENT* AND MEDIATION OF CHRIST.

1 Atonement: As sin cannot be pardoned without a sacrifice, and the blood of beasts could never actually wash-away sin, Christ gave his life a sacrifice for the sins of the world a, and thus made salvation possible for all men b:

2 Mediation of Christ: Our Lord not only died for our sins, but he arose for our justification c, and ascended to heaven d, where as mediator between God and man, he will make intercession for us till the final judgment e:

THE GOSPEL CALL.

men; and by these they receive power to repent and obey all the requirements of the Gospel. We mean only to say, that salvation for all men is possible, for though in its provision it is free and absolute, yet in its application it is expressly conditional. Salvation, then, being freely provided, and man being capable through grace, of obtaining it, if he perish whom can he blame but himself?

CHAPTER VII.

REPENTANCE.

The repentance which the gospel requires is a deep conviction, a penitential sorrow, an open confession, a decided hatred, and an entire forsaking of all sin. This repentance, God has enjoined on all men, and without it in this life, the sinner must perish eternally b

CHAPTER VIII.

FAITH.

True faith is an assent of the mind to the great and fundamental truths of revelation a; an act of the understanding in giving credit to the gospel through the influence of the Holy Spirit b, and a firm confidence and trust in the living a Heb xi 6—"He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." John v 46, 47 Heb xi 1 John xvi 27, 30 Ps cxix 66 Rom x 9

CHAPTER IX.

REGENERATION.

As God is a holy Being, and heaven a holy place, man must be regenerated before he can enter a state of happiness a. This change is a renovation of the soul by the grace and spirit of God b, whereby the penitent sinner receives new life, becomes a child of God c, and is enabled to perform spiritual service d. It is called a being born again, born of the Spirit, &c. e.

PERSEVERANCE.

As the regenerate are placed in a state of trial during this life, their future obedience is not determined a. Consequently their eternal salvation is depending on their abiding in Christ; it is therefore their duty and privilege to be steadfast in the truth, to grow in grace, persevere in holiness, and make their election sure b.

CHAPTER XL

THE CHURCH.

A Christian Church is an assembly of persons who believe in Christ and worship the true God, agreeably to his word a. In a more general sense, it signifies the whole body of real Christians throughout the world b. The church being the body of Christ c, none but the regenerate, who obey the gospel, are its real members d. Believers are received into a particular church, on their giving evidence of repentance and faith, and being baptized e.

SECTION I.—OFFICERS OF THE CHURCH.

The Officers in the primitive church were apostles, bishops, and deacons f. The apostles were the especial witnesses of the works and sayings of Christ g; and of course this office ceased when their work was accomplished. The gifts perpetuated in the church are evangelists, pastors, teachers, helps, and governments h. These, however, do not appear to be distinct officers, but they imply different kinds of duties, which are performed by bishops or elders, deacons and others.

1. Bishops are overseers i, who have the charge of souls—to instruct and rule them by the word j. They are called elders k, and they perform the duties of pastors, teachers, and evangelists l. The qualifications required in a candidate for this office, are as follows:—He must be guiltless, and the husband of but one wife: He must be watchful, prudent, and have the regular exercise of cool, dispassionate reason. His conduct and manners must be decent, orderly and grave. He must be a lover of hospitality; and of good men; ready to communicate and able to teach m. He must be temperate; not quarrelsome; nor desirous of base gain n. He must govern his family well; he must not be a novice, but experienced in the things of God, and have a character not justly liable to reproach o. He must be

To be an example to the flock in all things s. To preach the word, baptize, and administer the Lord's supper t. He should assist in ordaining elders and deacons u. and according to his ability, do the work of an evangelist and make full proof of his ministry q.

2. A Deacon is a regular or stated servant of the church. For the qualifications required in a candidate for this office, see 1 Tim. iii. 8-12. Acts vi. 1-3.

Duties of a Deacon. 1. He should attend to the temporal wants of the poor members of the church w.

2. As the design of his appointment was that the ministry might be freed from temporal care, the inference naturally follows that it is his duty to see that their wants also are supplied. 3. Their being no other officer in the church to superintend its temporal affairs, it is inferred from the nature of his office that the deacon should attend to all the concerns essential to its prosperity, which do not devolve on an Elder. 4. From the important nature of his qualifications, it has been considered his duty to take the lead of religious meetings in the absence of the minister.

SECTION II.—ORDINANCES OF THE CHURCH.

The following ordinances or institutions were appointed by Christ, and are obligatory on the church:—

1. Christian Baptism (x.) This is the immersion of believers in water y in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost z. in which are represented their death to the world, the washing of their souls from the pollutions of sin x. their resurrection to newness of life, the burial and resurrection of Christ, their resurrection at the last day b. and their engagement to serve God z.

2. The Lord's Supper is designed to commemorate the sufferings of Christ, and to represent in the use of bread and wine the communion which saints have with him and with each other d. Every true believer in Christ, being a member of his body, and a part of his visible church, has not only

SECTION III.—DUTIES OF THE CHURCH.

The duty of the Church is that obligation which the revelation of God enjoins upon it collectively, or as individuals, for the manifestation of his manifold wisdom f, the perfecting of the saints g, and the conversion of the world h. In this obligation are included the observance of the ten commandments i, entire obedience to the influences of the Spirit j, to the institutions of the gospel, and to all the instructions and precepts of the Scriptures k. Among the latter are the following particular requirements: Christian fellowship l, secret and family prayer m, domestic and social duties n, watchfulness o, administering to the necessities of the poor and afflicted p, the support of those that preach the gospel q, and the exercise of church discipline r.

DEATH.

The bodies of men, being subject to the calamities of the fall, all have died, as will be seen in Noah, Elijah, and the Saints that will be on the earth at the

THE RESURRECTION.

As the transgression of Adam secured temporal death to all his posterity, so the obedience and resurrection of Jesus Christ render it certain that the bodies of all men will be raised from the dead a. THE GENERAL JUDGMENT.

As men do not receive the due reward of all their deeds in this life, there will be a general judgment, when time and man's probation will close forever a.
