More Fire Losses

NEW LISKEARD, Ont., July 3.—Details of fire losses throughout the country districts come to hand very slowly. Mr. Tom. McCamus of Liskeard, had a thousand poles and posts lying west of the town. A spark fell on them and nothing could save them.

A farmer and timber jobber of the Earlton vicinity, lost every building on his place, together with a number of sleighs, his harness and other equipment, and yet declares that the fire has done his farm sufficient good to more than pay for the damage. These incidents illustrate the real situation. Earlton itself was of course hard hit. Kerr's hotel, the Methodist church, the T. & N. O. railway station, Potter's sawmill and Lafarrie's sawmill, the residence of the T. & N. O. engineer, Mr. Krie, Krie's garage and a quantity of lumber, where a big fire was reported, some poles and timber was burned. Only losses of the smaller nature have occurred in Cochrane and Porcupine. There are no fatalities reported.

KING OF GREECE SAYS THAT BULGARIANS WERE FIENDS

In a Statement to the British Public He Recounts Acts of Violence By Bulgarian Army---People Have Suffered From the Violence of An Ally---War Declared.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, July 3.—King Constantine of Greece in a statement to the British public says: "On May 20, Bulgarian troops concentrated in large numbers, delivered a sharp attack upon a Greek regiment at Anghissima. After a sanguinary fight, lasting fifteen hours, the Bulgarians seized several villages in the neighborhood of Panghian, which were occupied by the Greek army."

In spite of this agreement, the Bulgarian general staff neglected to evacuate most of the points which had promised to abandon. Besides this, Bulgarian troops on June 23 attacked the Servians at Istib. On the night of June 20, Bulgarians also attacked the Servians at Guevgelich, which they occupied on the morning of June 30. This fact left no possible doubt as to the hostile intentions of the Bulgarian general staff, which had destined to keep inactive in Salonika for as long as possible an entire division of the Greek army.

The Bulgarians thus clearly showed their intention of disregarding their solemn engagements, creating by consecutive unexpected strength a state of affairs which would allow them gradually to paralyze the Greek and Servian armies. This they in-

STRIKERS START A REAL MARCH

Forty Thousand Have Left Midlands for London City. NEW YORK, July 3.—A London cable says, Forty thousand Midland strikers commenced yesterday a march on London. The demonstrators set out from the historic bull ring in Birmingham, with England's sea hero, Nelson, looking on from a commanding statue in bronze, one of the most admired of the city's memorials. The men were divided into three contingents, and two thousand strikers gathered to cheer as the word to march was given. One of the bodies goes through Coventry and another through Warwick, and all three will go in forces at Barnet and march into the metropolis, their objective point being Trafalgar Square. Four days are to be spent in London, during which period special meetings of the strikers will be arranged by the leaders of the Labor Party in Parliament, and others.

FIGHT FOR THE MILLIONS

Goes Merrily on in Presence of Wives of British Cabinet Ministers.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, July 3.—The "fight for the millions," the suit in which the relatives of the late Sir John Murray Scott are endeavoring to have pronounced invalid, on account of alleged undue influence, the will by which he left the bulk of his fortune of $5,000,000 to Lady Sackville, was resumed to-day before an audience composed largely of women and including several wives of British Cabinet Ministers and judges, as well as other notable persons and which filled every seat in the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Court. As soon as the presiding judge, Sir Samuel Thomas Evans, had taken his seat on the bench Lady Sackville returned to the witness stand, and under direct examination by Sir Edward Carson, her counsel, took up the thread of the story of her friendship with the baronet. It was, she said, in the spring of 1900 while she and the baronet were driving together that Sir John first told her of his intention to leave her $1,000,000. He said to her that now his mother was dead, Lady Sackville had taken a great place in his life and that he was going to leave her the $1,000,000, his furniture, his houses at Bagatelle, near Paris, and at Lisbon, and in fact all except the houses in London which he had left to his sisters and brothers.

Later on, according to Lady Sackville, he said he intended to reduce her legacy to $750,000. He was going to keep back $250,000 in order to help in the keeping up of Knole Park, the Sackville seat at Seven Oaks, Kent, during his lifetime. This he did. Lady Sackville testified that she had had nothing to do with the will made by Sir John in 1900. After 1901 Sir John Scott, she said, was a frequent visitor to Knole Park, while she often went to his residence in London.

Lady Sackville swore she never saw the will and did not know it had been made until much later, when Sir John Scott spoke of revoking it. Speaking of her father who had been British Minister at Washington, Lady Sackville said he was at times frightfully depressed about the overdrafts on his account at the bank. Sir John Scott, she declared, noticing this, gave him $45,000 at different times; part of this was to pay a demand for $8,000 to the children of one of his relatives who had died and $3,000 to pay expenses at Knole Park, including the restoration of some Vanduyck pictures. Scott, she swore, told her he could not bear to see her worried, especially over money matters, adding: "Your father is a poor old man, and I shall help him."

Lady Sackville testified that on another occasion Sir John paid $15,000 into her bank in order to help her father out of his difficulties and he spent $25,000 in purchasing silver and gold plate which originally had belonged to Knole Park but had been sold by various members of the family. Sir John also occasionally gave her $250 for Christmas or birthday presents, and he some times paid her travelling expenses.

Lady Sackville added Sir John Scott had given her daughter furs which cost $15,000 and to herself an emerald bracelet which cost $25,000. This was the only piece of jewelry she had had from him.

Referring to an occasion when Sir John's doctor would not let her see him because he was ill, Lady Sackville said the doctor remarked: "Of course you want to kill him." "I did not want to kill him," added the witness earnestly. In 1909, said Lady Sackville, Sir John Scott in referring to his will said would leave a letter which his family would respect. She pleaded that such a letter was useless if his family was not going to respect his wishes. This letter was read at the beginning of the trial. Witness said that she and her family were referred to as "the locusts." She was then examined at length as to the unfriendliness of the members of the Scott family, although they were charming to her face. She said Sir John was angry about it. Lady Sackville said Sir John Scott threatened to revoke his will on the

MANY TOPICS ARE DISCUSSED BY LABOR MEN

Meeting of Trades and Labor Council Held Last Evening.

Although nothing of a very important nature was disposed of at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night, the session lasted two hours. Poor foundations in the cheaper houses, the weighing of coal, the receiving of $360 by City Clerk Leonard for registering births and deaths, the placing of gravel at the corner of Eagle avenue and Foster street and leaving it without being rolled down, the distribution of the Industrial Banner and the unsafe condition of the balcony on the floor on which Union Hall is situated were the more important matters discussed last night. President Pearce was in the chair.

New Delegates. Thomas Garrity and Thomas Cooper, two of the new delegates from the Bricklayers' Union, were present. Credentials from the following members of the Iron Moulders Union were accepted: Messrs. Foran, Pearce, Symons, Graham, McQueen and Haffey.

Poor Foundations. "The system doesn't look after anything," was one of the expressions during a discussion concerning the poor foundations in many of the houses being built. Building Inspector Bennett occupied a stellar part in two or three of the discussions. One of the delegates from the Bricklayers' Union brought up the matter of the poor foundations being put in. Many of the foundations in cheaper houses were a number of inches out of plumb. The bricklayers did not like the idea of laying brick on foundations of this kind. It was further stated that there are 9-inch brick walls being put in when a 12-inch wall should be put in. By reason of the cheap foundations, the working men, who make up the majority of the purchasers of the cheaper houses, were said to be the ones who suffered, and those who were building in the manner stated were reaping the harvest. There was no action taken.

The election of officers was laid over for two weeks. Delegate Foran believed that the names of coal dealers should be included in the report published of loads of coal weighed on the city scales. A deal whose coal was not short weight should not be classed with the dealers whose loads were under weight. As there is no municipal coal yard, he believed that every load of coal should be weighed on scales under the direction of a city employee before the load was delivered to the consumer. Under this system a ticket certifying to the correct weight of the load would be given the consumer. On muddy days the wagons became covered with mud and as they were not weighed each time, the consumer receives less coal than he should. Corresponding Secretary Symons was instructed to write the city council asking that the council see that the names are published in future.

MEN BECOMING SHORT-SIGHTED

Specialists Declare That Too Much Light is Causing Defect.

[Canadian Press Despatch] CHICAGO, July 3.—America is developing a race of short-sighted people, was the warning delivered yesterday by Dr. C. G. Feltow, of Chicago in an address before the convention of the American Homoeopathic Ophthalmological and Laryngological Society in session here. His assertions were backed up by other speakers who declared office workers use too much light. "It is astounding how many persons are short-sighted," said Dr. Feltow. "The development of short-sightedness or progressive myopia in adults is due to the manner in which they study in school. The prevention is early and frequent examination of children for eye troubles." "Most people don't need half the light they use," said Dr. N. D. Schenck of Brooklyn. "Clerks and bookkeepers will have a big burner right over the books they work on. They will tell you it is a beautiful light, but they are burning out their eyes. If we decrease the excess light we decrease the danger of near sightedness."

Paris News

Paris, July 3rd, 1913. London Asylum vs. Paris. The holiday and fine weather brought a bunch of Paris supporters, to the number of close on forty, to London on Tuesday to witness this game. Wickets were pitched at 11:30 a.m. Paris batted first, England and Thompson facing the bowling of May and Evans. England opened auspiciously for his side, putting the second ball of the interval, splendidly for four. With the addition of a single run to the score, however, Thompson was caught and bowled by Evans. The Paris batting here fell to pieces, four wickets falling in quick succession with but a few runs added; the telegraph reading after a half hour's play—25 5 0. L. Drake and A. Bee stopped the rout and batted steadily until the lunch interval, the score then being 50. Resuming after lunch Bee scored off May's bowling. In the next over Drake was well bowled by Thompson after playing steadily for 45 minutes, getting 18 runs in that time—61 6 2 8. Bee was out l.b.w. to May shortly afterwards, after scoring 24 in excellent fashion—69 7 24. With the addition of 12 runs to the score 11 of them obtained by Therman, the innings closed. The Londoners opened against the bowling of Bee and Therman. Spectacular fielding by Bee caused the downfall of three of the best bats of the London team, Evans, who scored 167 against Chatham a few weeks ago, Richardson and Thompson being the victims. With the exception of Bee the Paris trundlers were far from effective against the opposing batsmen and the Cockneys ran up the respectable total of 140 before they were all dismissed. The Paris Cricket Club. The Paris fielding was admirable on all hands, one of the resident medical officials of the asylum declaring it had seen for a number of seasons past—and that despite the heat.

To-day's Impressions To-morrow's Sales

Many a September purchase is really decided in July. Many a woman is gathering information to-day that will influence her selection of a stove two months hence. Many a man is thinking right now about the store he will patronize for his Fall suit and overcoat. Many an October piano purchase is really determined on the porch of a summer hotel or home in August. How unwise, then, to put off the Advertising of these and similar articles until the actual time of their use arrives.

One advertisement seldom makes a sale. It is the repeated impressions created by Advertising that develops purchases by a discriminating public—and these impressions are seldom built up in a day, a week or a month.

Yet some manufacturers and merchants still procrastinate until the first nip of frost is felt—and then besiege the public with belated announcements of Fall clothes, kitchen ranges, home furnishings, winter underwear, and other articles usually purchased in the Fall.

Purchased in the Fall—oh, yes—but decided upon in the Summer. Decided in favor of the goods that are continuously advertised.

It's the Advertising read in July that bears fruit in September and October. For to-day's impressions inevitably lead to to-morrow's sales.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 508 Lansden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

NORTH GREY

The indications are that Rowell and his Liberal followers are scared of losing the bye-election in North Grey. It is true that Hon. Mr. McKay's lead of 741 in that riding the last contest was abnormal, because he had been made the victim of a scandal, afterwards disproved, but the constituency has long been in the Grit column.

One of the main reasons for the Grit alarm is the treatment of McKay by his own associates. He was ousted from the Opposition leadership, when his own constituents had shown their continued faith in him, and there is small cause for wonder that many of them should feel sore over the fact.

As for Rowell, if he ever lives to become Premier of this Province, his age will make Methusalem seem like the member of a kindergarten class.

FACTORY INSPECTION.

The annual reports of the Ontario Inspectors of Factories for last year have just been issued.

The volume shows that a vast amount of excellent work has been accomplished. It is pointed out that development has been so great that many firms have outgrown both space and buildings, with the result that many new factories have been erected and more are in course of completion.

With such rapid trade expansion, and the increased use of electrical power for mechanical purposes, inspectors are daily confronted with new and perplexing problems of accident prevention, and keeping before them always the motto that "it is better to maintain a fence at the top of a precipice rather than admire the philanthropy of those who keep an ambulance at the bottom," they gather from time to time devices which are being submitted to manufacturers and workmen in order to show what can be done towards providing reasonable safe guards for dangerous machinery.

The usual complaints received were investigated, and where sustained special orders issued. Occasionally a complaint is made about something, which, while perhaps annoying, is not illegal, and on investigation proves only a temporary inconvenience caused, it may be, by structural alterations.

On the whole the administration of the Act has not been very difficult. There have been minor breaches and irregularities, caused as much by carelessness as by any very special desire to evade the law. Proceedings followed where there was wilful or determined violation.

During the past year 430 cities, towns, villages and hamlets were visited, and inspections made of industries. In Brantford the number of such establishments is given as 125.

Accidents show a rather alarming total, standing at 1502, or an increase of 417 over the previous year. However, it is pointed out that a more complete system of reporting same is now in vogue than formerly.

It is announced that so far in this Province child labor has not as yet assumed any very alarming proportions.

LLOYD GEORGE MAKES ANOTHER BLUFF

Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer is an able man, with tremendous driving force, but he is also a good deal of a bluffer.

He has shown the latter fact once more by a speech which he made in London on Dominion Day. For the purpose Sir Rufus Isaacs, also mixed up in the Marconi matter, gave him a luncheon at the National Liberal Club, and during a fiery address he said in part:

He and Sir Rufus Isaacs through the dark and dreary winter had been silent while calumny was hurled from every quarter at their heads. It was the shabbiest chapter in the history of any party. For months every dastardly and cowardly journalist of the Tory party was shooting poisoned darts, knowing their hands were tied. His hands were free now, free to shield and to smite. His declaration was received by a tumult of cheers, and the Chancellor then proceeded to give a foretaste of how he would smite, if necessary. When he heard Mr. Bonar Law saying that the Ministers ought to be expelled from office who are guilty of indiscretion, and saw the Tory party rushing back from the Ascot races to pass a solemn vote of censure upon the semblance of gambling, it gave him an unpleasant cross-channel feeling. This euphemism for a current vernacular phrase was received with shrieks of laughter by the Liberals.

All of which is so much balderdash. Lloyd George's reference to Ascot was, of course, that Tory members had rushed back from there after betting on horse races in order to censure him for another form of gambling.

The attempted analogy will not hold good for a minute. Horse racing and the placing of money on the outcome is a legal thing in all countries. Those who like that sort of gamble place their money as they choose, and either lose or win, as the case may be.

The Chancellor's gamble was a very different sort of thing. On a tip from the head of the U. S. Marconi Company he bought shares in the British Marconi end of the game, when the latter was in negotiation with the Government (of which he is a Minister) for a big deal. Suppose any Finance Minister of Canada attempted a similar thing, what would rightly be thought of him?

Yet this gentleman, who has for years thundered against the "unearned increment" of others, was trying to get some unearned increment for his own pockets, under questionable circumstances.

Then when he and Isaacs were exposed in the matter, they refused to tell the facts until they were forced to do so. He talks of having to sit silent during months of calamity, while he himself sat silent when he should have been frank. He talks of hands now free to smite when what he most needs is to have his own feelings properly smitten.

In the House he admitted at least an indiscretion, and he would stand much higher in public estimation if on the outside of that chamber he maintained a like attitude.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

As a publicity man for Canada, H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught is some goods.

A man in Newark has refused a legacy because, he says, he wants to earn all the money he gets, himself. P.S.—This is not recommended as a safe thing to try on any of the rest of us.

Speaking of puns, the following lines written by Tom Hood, in connection with the death of a sailor on board ship, in all probability take the belt:

His death, which happened in his berth, At forty-odd befell; They went and told the sexton, and The sexton tolled the bell.

Liberal papers still continue to weary their readers with articles intended to show that a contribution from Canada to the British navy would imperil our autonomy and nationality, and all the rest of it. Tommy! Such a gift would not alter our status one iota—any schoolboy knows enough for that. And, moreover, the three dreadnoughts are returnable to Canada if they are desired as a nucleus for a Dominion navy.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Holding Down Milwaukee. Hamilton Times: Milwaukee is no longer famous chiefly because of its beer. A judge in that city has announced that "any woman who wears a skirt whose hem is more than twelve inches above the ground is liable to a fine in this court."

Goats to Protect Sheep. Philadelphia North American: In order to frustrate an attack on his flock of sheep by a catamount, or panther, David Glover, of near Haneyville, has purchased two Angora goats. The pugnacity of these goats is such that no animal of prey dare attempt to dispirit a flock. The sheep raisers of that wild section have suffered severe losses to their flocks of late years since the big increase in black bears and catamount, and now with a real panther in the neighborhood, it became necessary to do something desperate. Mr. Glover hit upon the Angora goat idea, and it seems to have settled the problem. The goats are masters of all they survey, all right, even the men folk fighting shy of getting too close to the sturdy creatures. At this season of the year the sheep are on the wild ranges. Other sheep raisers are watching Mr. Glover's experiment.

Dominion Day. Ottawa Free Press: With the passing of the first half of the year, Dominion Day comes around again, and once more we are reminded how young we really are. For a people who have acquired all the essentials of nationhood and still remain under the half century mark, we are nothing less than wonderful.

Should not the national birthday receive both national and national recognition in a manner that would cause it to stand out above all other holidays of the year? We may easily agree to the broad proposition without pledging ourselves to any particular form of celebration. If we could work out some scheme through which the young people could be made acquainted with the fact that Dominion Day marks a significant point in Canadian history, it might be possible to effect not only a great but also a beneficial change in our methods of celebrating the day.

When the Dominion was born we had weak and isolated colonies on both seaboard, and a long, thinly scattered line on our southern frontier with a very long interval between Old Ontario and British Columbia—an unknown country about which the worst was prophesied. What a contrast is seen to-day! Union has not only brought strength but a development unprecedented in the comparatively short time of its progress in the history of the world.

A Good Friend.

St. Thomas Times: Canada has lost a good friend in the death of the Duke of Sutherland, who owned large tracts of land in Western Canada, and, it is said, proposed to reside in this country. He believed that Canada was the land of opportunity for the Scotch farmer. In Southern Alberta he laid out many ready-made farms with outbuildings and homes and interested tenants. He died in Scotland and brought them to Canada, where they eventually would become owners of these farms. Numbers of other farmers throughout Great Britain were also brought to Canada by the company's agents, and after being employed in improving the land and teaching Canadian methods, succeeded in acquiring similar farms. The deceased was the fourth Duke. He is succeeded by the Marquis of Stafford, who is 23 years old.

Topics Discussed By Labor Men

(Continued from Page 1) It was considered rather odd by President Pearce and several other members of the council that City Clerk Leonard received $300 a year for recording births and deaths, in addition to his salary. It was thought that this work was part of his duties.

However, the council did not decide to have Secretary Symons write the city council about the matter, or to do anything of a war-like nature.

Want Road Rolled

Delegate Garby brought up the matter of the city placing gravel at the corner of Eagle Avenue and Foster streets and not having the same rolled. Bicycle riders were required to carry bicycles over this portion of the roadway or ride on the sidewalk, and by so doing run the risk of being fined $3. He thought it was time the road roller was rolling this piece of roadway. Secretary Symons said that probably the city had more work to do than it could accomplish.

President Pearce suggested that the delegate might see one of the aldermen in Eagle Place about the matter.

Distribution of Banner. Delegate Pearce brought up the matter of the distribution of the Industrial Banner. As this is the only means of propaganda, he believed it very important that the matter be considered.

The President believed that it would be a good idea to have each union distribute the Banner to their respective unions and said that probably the unions might report to the Banner anything of interest. A motion was carried to have the Educational Committee place the matter before the several unions.

King Street Accident. Recording Secretary Tooke, as a member of the committee to look into the accident on King street, caused by the breaking of a scaffold, asked for further time to look into the matter. There was a building inspector in the city and President Pearce believed that it was up to the inspector to investigate. He thought it was the work of the committee to look into the matter of scaffolds from time to time.

The balcony at the front of the third story on which floor the Union Hall is situated, is in a very unsafe condition. Several of the delegates tested the balcony previous to the meeting and expressed the opinion that it should be put in a safe condition at once.

During the meeting, Delegate Fordan said that Fire Chief Lewis ordered a sign down, and he thought the Chief might look after it. It was not very clear to several delegates just who should look after the matter. The trustees will take the matter up.

Invitation Extended. Mr. W. F. Cockshutt wrote acknowledging the council's communication of June 21st, extending an invitation to him to address the Council on Wednesday, June 2nd, instead of sending a deputation to him as he suggested. He replied that he did not know if he would be able to accept the invitation at present as he interrelates being out of the city on about that date, and stated that he would prefer the sending of a deputation to wait upon him, instead, when he would be pleased to answer any questions he could.

Owing to Mr. Cockshutt stating that a man could live in affluence on $450, the council was especially anxious to have him address the Council. A motion was carried that the Council still extend an invitation to Mr. Cockshutt, as he had signified his intention of friendliness toward the labor movement.

A communication from the Canadian Employment Bureau, Hamilton, asking the Council to send a general report each month of the conditions in this city and vicinity, was filed. Lyons Electric Co. sent a reply to an inquiry re exhaust fan. The question of better ventilation in the hall was discussed. It was a timely subject.

The official opening of the Niagara Golf Club will take place on Friday, July 4th, with a tea and putting contest. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Coffin will be the hostesses.

Personal Notes

Mr. T. L. Wood is in Toronto today. Mr. Harry Caching of the Bank of Commerce, has returned from his holidays. Mr. Percy Verity and family enjoyed a house dance, at Chatham on the holiday, returning yesterday. Rev. G. A. Woodside left Tuesday evening for Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., and will be absent from the city four or five weeks. Rev. Mr. Woodside is taking a summer course at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Forsayth, Mrs. Duckworth (Toronto), and Mr. Curran Hunt, leave this afternoon for Port Dover, where they will be guests at a house dance, starting Colonel and Mrs. Smith as host and hostess.

The marriage of Miss Lenabelle Reavely (formerly of Brantford) to Mr. J. Arthur Jewell took place at the Pilgrim's church, West 14th St., Cleveland, Ohio, on Wednesday, July 2nd, the Rev. W. Mowbray officiating. Mr. A. Ginn and daughter Dora, of 164 Dufferin avenue, have left on an extended trip to the West, where they will visit his daughters, Mrs. C. A. Wood of Regina and Miss A. Ginn of Medicine Hat.

Among the very pretty gowns worn at the Stedman-Kippax wedding of Wednesday (which, owing to the recent illness of the bride's mother, was a very quiet affair), particularly noticed were those of Mrs. James Cockshutt, in white crepe de chene, violet trimmed and soft gray hat with plumes.

Mrs. Frank Cockshutt, who looked extremely well in a handsome white Irish lace costume, black hat and yellow plumes.

Mrs. George Drummond (Montreal), looking very pretty in her black chamereuse satin with touches of pink velvet hat to correspond.

Mrs. (Dr.) Kippax, lovely "old rose" costume, hat of the same soft shade and roses.

Mrs. W. F. Cockshutt, becoming white gown with flowered coat; white hat; Alice blue trimming.

Miss Beatrice Spidman—Pale blue Duchesse satin trimmed with pink rose buds and shadow lace; hat to correspond.

Bulgarians Are Fiends

(Continued from Page 1) tended to do by occupying strategic points of first class importance, by cutting the communications of the two armies at Gueygheli, and by interrupting the railway communication between their forces.

This attitude of the Bulgarian troops rendered it necessary for the Greek army to take measures to assure its own security. It was for this reason that on June 30 the general commanding the district of Salonika called upon the Bulgaria troops to evacuate the place within a "stated interval. This time limit was actually exceeded, but the Bulgarians refused to go. Our troops, after a short resistance, captured the Bulgarian detachment remaining in the town.

On the other hand, our troops which had been attacked since June 30 by the Bulgarians at the bridge of Goumentas, at Nigrita and at Panghalon, received to-day an order to advance.

But apart from these military considerations, the great question of humanity arises. Ever since the occupation of territories in Thrace and Macedonia, where Greeks are in the majority, by the Bulgarian army, the population has suffered the harshest treatment. Since the first attack on Panghalon on May 20, this state of affairs has become intolerable. More than 15,000 refugees, since that day, had to say, during a period of peace, have poured into the Chalcidian peninsula and into Salonika.

JUST A HINT OF DRAPERY IN THIS SKIRT

Cotton woven matelasse, though extremely fashionable just now, does not lend itself particularly well to draped effects; but this frock of pink and white matelasse is cleverly caught up toward the back, and dropped at the hip, to suggest drapery, while really there is very little. On a half-inch wide band of blue moire silk down the centre-front are dozens of tiny white ball buttons and collar and sash are of the same blue moire. A vest of handsome imitation Venise lace opens over a chemisette of shirred white net.

WESLEY EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League of Wesley church held a novel entertainment. It was birthday night and the League dropped in a penny for each birthday they had. Despite the extreme closeness of the evening there was a good attendance and a neat sum was realized for missions. The following took part in the programme: Trio, Misses Marlett, Waldron and Heath. Reading Miss Kathleen Moyer; instrumental duet, Misses Ward and Carter; solo, Mrs. L. Brown; duet, Misses Graham and Kerr; Mr. Jex of Alexandra Church gave a short talk. The programme was heartily appreciated by all. At the close light refreshments were served and the evening broke up with the singing of God Save the King.

A DAY AT REGINA WITH THE WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

We found our day at Regina more than worth while. As I said before, the hour of arrival was most horribly early, 5:45 a.m., and the town for the most part was asleep. But gradually it awakened, shops and business places opened up and we began to realize what a really live little city we had arrived at; 45,000 inhabitants we learned later. The whole place badly disabled by that dreadful cyclone of June 30th, 1912, but only to be rebuilt immediately by better residences, churches and public buildings—western spirit never daunted. Money, scarce and tied up just now, but people all through the West most hopeful—holding for the better times which they feel assured are ahead and bound to come sooner or later.

At ten o'clock, Mrs. Thomas Bennett arrived at our hotel, taking possession of us for the day—a woman of charming personality, and also a writer, lecturer and philanthropist of the west. We had met her together with other members of the C.W.P. at Edmonton, and had promised to make this stop-over on our return journey.

The first place of interest visited was the Hospital of the Gray Nuns—a branch of the one in Montreal. The Mother Superior and fourteen sisters coming from that institution; eighteen regular nurses assisting in the hospital work also; and accommodation for eighty patients. A beautifully clean, up-to-date, modern building, of red brick and pillars of concrete; wide balconies for convalescents; all the latest equipments. Their chapel for devotional services occupies the east end of the edifice.

Government House was our next stopping place, where we were most graciously received by Mrs. Brown, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan—an old Brantford Ladies' College Girl, by the way, and who has many relatives and friends in our locality. We visited their lovely conservatories just before leaving, Mrs. Brown picking and presenting each of us with corsage bouquets as a parting gift.

The barracks of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police came next—Louis Reil's place of imprisonment and subsequent hanging; the Guard House, where we watched the prisoners being transferred by a squad of soldiers; Lieut. Col. Perry, commanding officer; the residences or quarters of the officers, substantial pretty places; the whole enclosure teeming with interest. Quiet in the present day, but more than exciting in the early days of the West; the men splendid specimens of Canadian manhood; sometimes reckless, but always brave and fearless; their services now quite necessary, but not quite so strenuous—that is the only difference.

An adjournment was then made to the King's Hotel where luncheon awaited us, the journey to the city being made by radial.

A visit to the Parliament Buildings came later in the afternoon—finished barely a year ago at a cost of two million dollars—one of the beauty spots of Regina. The exterior of grey stone—the interior a wealth of imported marble—the handsomest entrance, stair-case, pillars and rotunda I have ever seen in Canada. The office of the Premier furnished in dark mission oak, furniture upholstered in brown leather, the walls being in golden brown tapestries, soft curtains of a blending shade at the windows. Next to this the Council Chamber, finished in old rose; then the office of the Lieutenant-Governor in soft green shades with mahogany furniture, all walls tapestry hung.

Afternoon tea, served at the home of our hostess was followed by a drive around the city in her son's beautiful Russell car until train time—6:50 p.m.—where we rejoined the other members of our little party who had spent the intervening time at Moosejaw and Brandon—the Toronto World correspondent (charming Miss Hart), and myself being the only members of the C.W.P.C. to visit Regina. Elaborate plans had been made to entertain those leaving Banff on their arrival at this point, but unfortunately those who were to have jaw and everything had to be called done so, missed connection at Moose-off much to everybody's regret. Winnipeg was reached at 7:45 a.m. on Thursday morning and in half an hour we were speeding on to Kenora, the glorious boat trip by the Rainy River Navigation Co., given to us through the courtesy of Mayor Graham of Port Arthur (a director), awaiting us at that point. SPORTING COMMENT

 by FREE LANCE

The ball club jumped the town last night, celebrating their departure with fireworks behind the dyke. After en- gaging for five games in a great series with the Saints, it might have been expected that the team would blow up. Having had really good pitching for several days, Clermont essayed yesterday that he could have an off-day with the whole team.

The Sox are away for a run of nine straight games. They play in Ottawa July 4, 5; in Peterboro 7, 8, 9; and in Berlin 10, 11, 12. The next series at home is with London.

Infielder Nelson, who accepted terms with the Brantford club last week, has been reported to Secretary Farrell and will be suspended. It was thought that Nelson would greatly improve the third base side of the diamond. Lines have also been out for another real good pitcher.

The Spring Meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club closed yesterday and it was a great success. The crowds in attendance were really wonderful. Canadian horses have been carrying off the honors pretty well this year.

OTTAWA, July 3.—Ottawa made it six out of seven from Berlin by taking yesterday's game by 9 to 4. Until the ninth inning Joe Lill, who showed more control than ever before, held the Dutchmen to three hits. Score:—

 Ottawa.....00200103—9

Golf Notes

The second match of the season for the Wilkes Cup took place in Buffalo on July 1st and resulted in Buffalo retaining the cup this year by a net of 15 points. The Park Club put in a very strong team of the first ten men to contest for this trophy and the result speaks for itself. However the great redeeming feature of the day's play was Mr. Stanley Shell's victory over the Buffalo crack player, Mr. F. J. Waldo, whom he beat at every stage of the game and furthermore making the best score of the day, namely 76, which, considering that Mr. Shell is more or less a stranger on this course, it is generally admitted by all to be a most excellent performance.

The report of the referee who officiated in the game between the Dufferin Rifles and Y. M. C. A. Teams was read and adopted.

It was found that Captain Fisher of the Y. M. C. A. was censured for his actions during the game. It appears that he drew the score a tie, and eight minutes to play, the referee awarded the

THE BALL CLUB AT FIRE WORKS

St. Thomas Won the Closing Game of a Great Series—Score 8-4.

Yesterday was a gay day at the ball park and the Red Sox got away with a great assortment of misplays. The game on the Brants part was a comedy of errors and the Saints scampered out with the last game of the series 8-4.

Probably the hot sun or effects of the previous strenuous games upset the Brants for they certainly played ragged ball in the first part of the game. Clermont pitched and was as wild as a hawk and seemed to have little on the ball. He was given wretched support and along with some listless playing made the game a joke compared to the others played since the Saints came here.

Buster Burrill rapped the ball over the right field fence for a trip around the bases. Cassavant was very bad at shortstop and made three costly errors. He allowed a ground ball which was coming straight at him, to go through his legs and this error cost two runs. He was sent out of the game in the seventh to allow Coose to bat as a pinch hitter and was replaced by Tesch. Coose did not come too with a hit—he fanned. Tesch figured in a double right off the reel. The crowd in the stand gave him a hearty welcome back. Spillane actually got a hit. When he came to bat in the latter part of the game a boy in the stand yelled "Here comes the home run hitter." He made a single and the audience roared. Slemin dropped a fly and Ivers let a throw get away from him. Spillane made a great stop of a ground ball hit by Ort and then threw it many feet over Ivers head.

Pittsburg Had Three Home Runs But Lost

CHICAGO, July 3.—The Cubs beat the Pirates in the last game of the series yesterday. Pittsburg made three home runs, but the hitting of Schulte and Evers in the sixth and seventh averted disaster for the locals. Wilson for Pittsburg knocked homers in the fourth and seventh, but none were on bases at the time. In the 8th Hyatt, batting for Butler slapped out a homer with one on.

BROWN AND BRADLEY RIGHT ON THE JOB

Fitzpatrick and Northern Starred at Bat—Northern's 'Timely Homer.'

TORONTO, July 3.—Three of Joe Kelley's desperate danglers "busted" from the back bench clear up into the front row at the Island Stadium yesterday. Said three are "Beater" Brown, the Bostonian; Halb, Northern, the Texarkana Terror, and Hugh Bradley, the Tireless Tenor. When that trio had done with the Buffalo Bison: the score was 4 to 1. Brown pitched the best game he has shown since joining the Leafs. Northern augmented a couple of singles with a home run in the first inning and Bradley did quite the classic first-basing that has been seen at Loj Solman's amphitheatre this season. The entire Toronto combination played great ball. The casual observer would never guess that there is nothing between the Leafs and the top of the heap but the seven teams which precede them in the standing.

New Cherries and Strawberries.
Owing to a succession of cold winds and hot spells the promise of a bumper fruit year in Kent has been dispelled. Trees which were laden with fruit are now comparatively bare. Plums and apples have been attacked by aphid wholesale. The first consignment of English cherries was sold at Covent Garden on Tuesday at an average of 9d. a pound, 5d. more than last year. Hampshire is providing an enormous yield of strawberries this year, and the first supplies were despatched to the London market on Tuesday. Warm sunshine is badly needed to improve the flavor.

Father Dies on Wedding Eve
Mr. Dan Sutcliffe, town clerk of Todmorden and County Court Registrar, who began life as an office boy with Messrs. Eastwood, solicitors, died suddenly at the age of 70, on the eve of his daughter's wedding. The ceremony was postponed. Mr. Sutcliffe succeeded Mr. T. W. Eastwood as solicitor to the local board, twenty-six years ago, and followed on as Town Clerk when Todmorden was incorporated in 1896. He leaves a widow and ten children.

Motor 'Bus Company Repair Road
It was stated at a meeting of the Ongar rural council that owing to the refusal of the council to repair damage done by motor buses on their way to Hainault Forest to the road at Lambourne, the London General Omnibus Company had sent down sacks of stones and filled up holes themselves. The council decided to do no repairs.

Religious Worker and the Sabbath
Allegations of Sunday trading by religious workers were made at the meeting of the committee of the Oldham Grocers' Association. Mr. Jackson said he could instance one case where a Sunday school superintendent opened until one o'clock on Sunday. The chairman (Mr. A. Cocker) said he hoped he could verify his statement, and Mr. Jackson said he could do so.

Nurse's Costume Found in Ditch
A solution was found on Tuesday of the problem arising from the discovery in a ditch at Weston, near Bath, of clothing belonging to Miss Kate Carr, a nurse at the Bristol Royal Infirmary. Miss Carr left her work a few weeks ago on six months' leave of absence to visit friends in Montreal, and arrived at Quebec on Tuesday on the Royal Edward. Some of Miss Carr's luggage was stolen at Avonmouth Dock, and it is believed that the things found in the ditch were thrown there by the thief.

Constable's Race to Save Life.
Constable Stanistreet related at Sale on Tuesday how near he came to drowning in an attempt to rescue a domestic servant named Alice Hughes, aged twenty-four, of Sidney-street, Salford, from the canal near Brooklands Bridge. The officer said he saw the girl, who was employed at the Grove Hotel, New Brown-street, Manchester, jump into the water. He was 200 yards away, but he raced to the spot jumped some railings, threw off his helmet and cape, and sprang into the water. Hughes struggled, and grasping him around the neck, held him under the water, and so exhausted him that he sank. Someone threw a rope to him, and the next he remembered was finding himself on the canal bank. When he charged Hughes with attempted suicide she replied, "I had a tiff with my mistress and left. I went on the canal bank, but don't remember jumping in." She also said she had had constant headaches lately, and had not been fit to go to her work. A remand was ordered.

RHEUMATISM KEPT HIM IN BED

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him
MCMILLAN'S CORNER, ONT.,

"Your remedy, 'Fruit-a-tives' is a perfect panacea for Rheumatism. For years, I suffered distressing pain from Sciatica or Sciatic Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year for days at a time. I went to different doctors who told me there was no use doing anything—it would pass away. They gave me mustard plasters and other remedies that did no good. Plasters took no effect on me—except to blister me and make raw spots. I took many advertised remedies without benefit, but fortunately, about two years ago, I got 'Fruit-a-tives' and they cured me. Since then, I take 'Fruit-a-tives' occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me of Rheumatism and they will cure anyone who takes them as directed. If this letter would be of value to you, publish it!" JOHN B. McDONALD.

Provision will be made this year for better accommodation for judging the live stock, as the management are anxious for the comfort and convenience of both exhibitors and visitors. Prize lists, entry forms and all information will be forwarded on application to the secretary, A. M. Hunt, Room 302 Dominion Savings Building, London, Ontario.

Charles Gaultier was fined 5s. and 8s. 6d. costs at West Hartlepool for cruelty to an Irish terrier. It was stated that he had admitted cutting off part of the dog's tail with a razor two months ago. Inspector Hughes, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, said it was abominable cruelty to dock a full-sized dog like that. Usually it was done when the animals were puppies. Defendant said that he did it for the dog's benefit, and said that the tail cut was all right now. He was also fined 5s. and 7s. 6d. costs for keeping the dog without a license.

NO DRINKING MAN NEED DESPAIR

The Neal Cure—Greatest of All Modern Discoveries—Offers a Means of Escape from the Curse of Drink. A cure of the Drink Habit is Guaranteed in Three Days, no Matter Whether the Patient is a Hard and Constant Drinker, Social Tippler or Goes on Occasional Sprees.

There was wandering in the streets of Toronto lately a homeless man, who at one time held a splendid position, but drink was his downfall. To-day his wife, a cultured woman, works out by the day, endeavoring to support herself and little family. Think of it, you wives and mothers, who have homes of comfort and all that makes life worth living, what it would be to you to be deprived of these and forced to face the wash tub for an existence, as this poor wife has to do today?

But this home which was made a hell on earth through strong drink—as every drunkard's is—may be made into a heaven upon earth, as many have been made, as a result of the Neal Treatment. Three days only—the wonder of it—to effect a cure and make the victim of strong drink a new man, physically, morally and mentally.

We undertake to guarantee to effect a cure of the Drink Habit in Three Days, no matter whether the patient is a hard and constant drinker, social tippler, or goes on occasional sprees. Are you interested in a poor fellow going down, down, through the curse of drink? Then bring your influence to bear on him and bring him to the Neal Institute for treatment, drunk or sober, and we will undertake to remove the awful appetite for strong drink and deliver him to you a new man.

Here is an opportunity for REFORMATION SOCIETIES for INEBRIATES or any institution for the reformation of the drunkard, to test our ability to change the hard drinker into a new man, physically and mentally, in THREE DAYS' treatment.

We invite these Societies or any institution interested in the poor drunkard and the problem of dealing with him, to send us for treatment any victim of the drink habit; it makes no difference how much enslaved, and we guarantee to effect a cure in each and every case. Can you spend your money to better advantage or in a way that will bring in greater returns than in redeeming these victims of strong drink and giving back to their families kind fathers, brothers, husbands, and to the country most desirable citizens?
