DRESS AND MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End. To the Ladies: (dw)

We have during the past two years contemplated the establishment of a Dress Making Department, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge, has, up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so. (dw)

We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured the services of Miss Morrison, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect. (dw)

Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and fitter in one of the leading Fashionable Dress-making Establishments in the City of Toronto. (dw)

Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities. (dw)

Orders for these departments will be received on and after Monday next, the 4th of May. (dw)

A. O. BUCHAM, Fashionable West End Dress, Mantle and Millinery Establishment. (dw)

Guelph Evening Mercury TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 20, 1873 (dw)

T. J. Day desires us to say that he has on hand a new stock of Morocco wallets, purses and books for holding bills; and is willing to sell them at low prices. (dw)

PROMOTION.—Ensign James Colcleugh, V. B., Mount Fergus, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant of No. 5 Company, 30th (Wellington) Battalion of Rifles, vice Robert Smith, who has left the knits of the company. (dw)

W. G. & B. RAILWAY.—We learn from the Spectator that Col. McEiverson, of Hamilton, and Dr. Hamilton, of Hamilton, left for Durham last Saturday to take part in the campaign for the Durham extension of the W. G. & B. Railway. Mr. Adam Brown and other gentlemen were expected to follow on Monday. (dw)

THE SETTLER.—This is the name of a new paper published at Parry Sound by Mr. D. F. McDonald, well known in Guelph and Pasinich, especially the latter where he resided for some time. The Settler presents a good appearance being well printed and abounding in choice selections and local news. We congratulate the Editor upon the apparent success of his enterprise and sincerely hope that increased success will attend his efforts. We are happy to number the Settler among our exchanges. (dw)

GUELPH MANUFACTURES ABROAD.—We noticed yesterday a very handsome and beautifully finished top buggy, at Mr. Robert Parker's carriage shop, which he was shipping for our old townsman, Mr. John Davidson, who is now carrying on business in Milwaukee. Both the workmanship and finish reflect the highest credit on the maker, and will compare favorably with any work turned out in the west. The fact that Guelph sends such kind of work to the States shows the estimation in which our manufactures are held abroad. (dw)

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Another example of the injuries result of the too frequent reckless use of firearms, occurred near Pasinich. Lake on the 11th inst., which might have proved fatal to Mr. John Curry, a builder and contractor in the neighborhood. A man named Wm. Paddock, recently from Buffalo, was standing on a verandah, in company with Mr. Curry, and remarked that he came over to secure the services of some girls for a boarding-house in Buffalo, upon which Mr. Curry humorously said he had better not try to induce any of the girls in that neighborhood to go, at the same time taking a cartridge from his pocket. Paddock immediately drew a pistol and discharged its contents into Mr. Curry's breast. The cartridge from the pistol fortunately struck the breast bone in an oblique direction going almost through it. Had it struck horizontally it would have resulted fatally, as it entered in the region of the heart. Dr. McIntyre, of Hespeler, was immediately sent for, and he, after working about two hours, with considerable difficulty succeeded in extracting the cartridge, and under his skillful treatment Mr. Curry is now rapidly recovering. Paddock seemed very sorry, declaring it to be altogether an accident, and said that he would pay the Dr.'s expenses, but as he deannounced immediately afterward, and is known to be a man of bad character, it is now the general opinion that he should have been arrested and the matter investigated. (dw)

POLICE COURT. Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M. Tuesday, May 20. Nancy Dolan was arrested by the Chief Constable for Vagrancy. Committed for two months at hard labour. (dw)

Lawrence McGarrell was charged by James Farrell with assault and battery. Fined $1 and costs. (dw)

Lawrence McGarrell was charged by Honora Farrell with using insulting language towards her. Case dismissed. (dw)

PRESENTATION TO THE REV. DR. PUNSHON.—The Rev. Dr. Punshon was presented on Monday evening, in the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, on behalf of the Wesleyan Methodists of Canada, on the occasion of his return to England, with an address and with a beautiful initial basket made of seven different Canadian woods, and containing a certificate of deposit in his favour for something over $4,000. (dw)

THIS MORNING'S DESPACHES

Railway Business Exchange. Mourning for James Fisk. Legislature and Erie Report. Billiard Match. (dw)

New York, May 20.—A railway business exchange was organized and opened here yesterday. (dw)

Several Erie Railway locomotives were in mourning for James Fisk yesterday. One engineer says he will keep the mourning adornments on the locomotive until Stokes is hanged. (dw)

A London special reports much satisfaction expressed in financial circles over the Legislature and the Erie report, which is calculated to diminish the distrust heretofore felt in American railway legislation. (dw)

Albert Garner has already challenged Maurice Daley to play a match game of billiards for the championship and diamond one. (dw)

New York, May 19.—Arrived steamship City of Antwerp from Liverpool. (dw)

Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway. Special to the Evening Mercury. Durham, May 20.—Influential meetings were held in Egremont yesterday—at Taylor's Corners in the morning, and at Allan's School House in the evening. The speakers were Col. McGivern and Adam Brown, Esq., of Hamilton, and Messrs. Geo. Jackson, J. H. Hunter and Alan Cochrane of Durham. Over 200 ratapayers were present in the evening. There was great enthusiasm in favor of the By-Law. (dw)

There was strong opposition from Mr. Forest, owing to the extension being located to Durham. The leading men of Mount Forest regret that they did not take steps earlier to secure the extension. The Durham extension is admitted to be of immense advantage to the County of Grey, and will secure to the Railway Company a very large and valuable traffic, giving them a controlling influence over the business. (dw)

Cricket Match. The match yesterday afternoon was rather a one-sided affair. The Benedicts, besides playing well, were favoured by a considerable amount of good luck from the very commencement. Mr. Rogerson's 35 was the largest score of the day, and contributed greatly in securing the conquest for the married men. Amongst the players on the single men's side Mr. Oliver becomes particularly conspicuous by his absence, as one of his usual 20's would have put a different appearance on matters. Messrs. Maddock and Henry played well for the single men, and the fielding of Mr. Charles Sharpe on the other side was deserving of particular notice, as through his unlooked for agility some of the single men were obliged to surrender the willow. The result is hardly to be wondered at, the substantial and burly frames of the married men were of themselves sufficient to overcome the slimmer disciples of Lilly White. The Benedicts made 88 in their first innings, to the Bachelors 31. In the second innings the Bachelors made 69, but the Benedicts had not time to play their second innings. The following is the score of the first innings on both sides:— (dw)

ABOUT HOUSE.—We clip the following from the Ottawa Times:—"A Ministerial journal of no mean repute:—" We take the liberty of correcting the Mail in a matter that ought to be regarded as private. It may have been well enough for the Mail to attack the private character of the member for centre Toronto, though we hardly think it was; but when it attacks Mr. Young, of this city, and describes him as being in anybody's 'power,' we think it is time to protest against such journalism. If newspapers are to deal in private character it will be hard indeed to say where they shall stop. As to Mr. Young, who is a respectable business man of this city, we believe that he is under nobody's thumb; and as to his being in 'the power' of Mr. Wilkes, the thing is utter nonsense. Political exigencies should never necessitate the trading of private character, and for anything that we know to the contrary, both Mr. Wilkes and Mr. Young deserve to be spoken of as gentlemen. (dw)

THE OTTAWA RIVER IS HIGHER than ever known before. The Chaudiere Falls are level with the rest of the river. The lumber yards are flooded, and if the water does not recede millions worth of sawn lumber will be floated off. (dw)

Death of Sir George E. Cartier.

Special to Evening Mercury per Montreal Line. Ottawa, May 20, 2 p.m. A cable telegram to-day says Sir Geo. E. Cartier died in England at two o'clock this morning. (dw)

Local and Other Items. The funeral of Mr. John Shelden on Monday was very largely attended. LADY DUFFERIN on Saturday presented the Governor-General with a Canadian daughter. Mr. Buckingham, editor and proprietor of the Stratford Beacon, has left for a summer trip in Europe. Two houses were burned in the village of Middleton, near Bradford, on Sunday night. CINCINNATI is raising money for the family of the late Capt. Hall of the Polar Arctic expedition. The total number of immigrants that have arrived this spring in Montreal was 6,327. (dw)

INOERSOLL intends to have a cricket match, a game of lacrosse and athletic sports on the Queen's Birthday. This is ununusual loyalty. The Police Commissioners of St. Catharines on Saturday decided to recommend the Council to increase the pay of the force to $1.50 per day. The Rev. Dr. Punshon preached his farewell sermon in Coburg on Sunday. He preached his first sermon in America in the same place five years ago. CRICKET.—Hamilton has had its "first match of the season." A game was played on Saturday between the Bankers and the City, and resulted in a decided victory for the latter. Score 50 to 89. Wm. Smith, Provincial officer, is in Ingersoll, making arrangements to carry out the statute requiring hotels and grocers to sell no spirits, etc., from 7 p.m. on Saturday, to 5 a.m. on Monday. The imports at Montreal for April of this and last year were as follows:— (dw)

Item	1872	1873
Dutiable Goods	$1,111,075	$1,426,929
Free Goods	385,252	452,977
Total	$1,496,327	$1,879,906

Decrease, $383,579. Last Saturday night a saloon keeper named Fallis, on King Street, Toronto, was stabbed in a fight. He had with him a rough named Mike Murphy—a fighting Mike—who is said to have a doubtful record in Montreal. Murphy is still at large. (dw)

GOOD STOCK.—Four cattle sold by Adam Wright, of Beverly, at the Galt fair in March, were delivered in Hamilton on Wednesday. They consisted of two oxen and two steers, and they weighed a total of about 6,700 lbs., which, at 54 cents, netted $401.82. The steers were particularly handsome. (dw)

NEW DEPOT.—It is said that the Canada Southern Railway Co., contemplate erecting a new and substantial freight and passenger depot in place of the old shed now used for that purpose, above the Clifton House, at Niagara Falls. They also intend opening a carriage road, leading therefrom to the river bank. (dw)

SUNDAY IN TORONTO.—A despatch to the Hamilton Times says:—"On Sunday Toronto Harbor was dotted over with sail and row boats, filled with pleasure-seekers, and the two bay steamers 'Boquet' and 'Prince of Wales' made half-hourly trips to the island, doing a most lucrative business. Thousands of people visited the Queen's Park during the day, but particularly in the afternoon. Three individuals were preaching, one of whom was a newly arrived atheist, and defended the views of the most notorious infidels in the past. He was not unfrequently taken to task by individuals who formed the small audience he addressed. (dw)

BASE BALL NOTES. The Champions have announced a special meeting for to-morrow night. The Athletics of Brooklyn played the 2nd game of their championship series with the Boston on Saturday in Boston, and defeated them by a score of 12 to 11. The first of a series of championship games between the Athletics of Philadelphia and the Mutuals of New York was played in Philadelphia last Saturday afternoon. There were about 1500 spectators on the ground. The pitching of McBride of the Athletics was very effective. Egger being the only man of the Mutuals to make a base hit. The Athletics scored 12; none of the Mutuals reaching the home plate. (dw)

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY AGAIN.—Senator Macpherson seems determined to probe the Pacific Railway scheme to the bottom. He has given notice of another motion of enquiry of the Government whether they have taken any steps to correct the misstatements made in the prospectus of the Company, issued in London, in April, with regard to the amount of stock subscribed by the several Provinces, besides other matters connected with the scheme of equal interest to the people. (dw)

STILL ANOTHER.—Another daring burglary has been committed in Montreal. Mr. St. Marie's clothing store, on St. Catharine Street, was broken open on Sunday night, and five hundred dollars worth of goods taken out. The thieves left after daylight. No policeman has been on that beat for the last eighteen days. (dw)

A drunken man named Waddell, fell out of the second story window of the Imperial Hotel, Montreal, on Sunday night, and was taken up a corpse. It is alleged by his friends that he was thrown out. An inquest will be held. (dw)

MATRIMONIAL.—It is no good nowadays for a man to offer his hand, if there's nothing in it. (dw)

Town Council. The regular meeting of the Town Council was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening. Members present:—His Worship the Mayor, and Messrs. Howard, Kennedy, Herriman, McLagan, Crowe, Elliott, Massie, Horsman, Coffee, Bell, Chadwick, Richard Mitchell, Hoag and Holiday. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. (dw)

Petitions were presented by— Mr. Horsman from C. Woodburn, praying for certain improvements on Elizabeth Street. (dw)

Mr. Chadwick from the St. Joseph's Committee praying that they may be allowed the use of the Exhibition grounds and buildings for the purpose of holding a picnic on the 21st June in aid of St. Joseph's Hospital. (dw)

Mr. Crowe from Wesley Marston, praying for permission to build a frontage to his house which will encroach a little on the street. (dw)

Mr. Bell from Wm. Arnott, and 16 others, for the use of the Exhibition grounds and buildings in which to hold an Orange Celebration on the 12th July. (dw)

Mr. Kennedy from R. Taylor, requesting the privilege of erecting an ornamental iron fence in front of his residence on Waterloo Road, which will encroach on the road. (dw)

Mr. Herriman from John Waldrick, praying to be exempted from statute labor. (dw)

Mr. Richard Mitchell from Thomas Hewer and others, praying for the establishment of a fish market. (dw)

Petitions of R. Taylor, W. Marston and C. Woodburn referred to Road and Bridge Committee. (dw)

The Petition of Thos. Hewer and others referred to the Market Committee. (dw)

The petition of John Waldrick referred to the Finance Committee. (dw)

Moved by Mr. Chadwick, seconded by Mr. Bell, that the prayer of the St. Joseph Committee be granted. (dw)

Moved by Mr. Bell, seconded by Mr. Chadwick, that the prayer of John Arnott and other be granted upon the usual terms.—Carried. (dw)

Mr. Massie said he would not oppose the motion but they were beginning to feel the effect of granting the privilege once. (dw)

Mr. Elliott asked leave to read a petition which had just been put into his hands. Permission having been granted, he read a petition from E. Harvey and others, complaining of the state of the drains on the west side of Wyndham Street, and praying that the defects may be remedied. Referred to Road and Bridge Committee. (dw)

The Mayor then read the report of the Police Commissioners, which was in effect that they had appointed two policemen to undertake day and night duty alternately, and act in connection with the Chief Constable. On motion the Council went into committee of the whole on the Report. Mr. Horsman in the chair. After a great deal of discussion Mr. Mitchell moved, seconded by Mr. Massie, that the Report be received. (dw)

Mr. Elliott moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Herriman, that this Council is of opinion that in order to make the force efficient three policemen are required and that this Council hereby recommends the Commissioners to appoint another man.—Lost. (dw)

Mr. Chadwick moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Herriman, and received the Report as adopted in Committee. (dw)

The Finance Committee presented their fourth report. It is recommended that a petition be forwarded to the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, asking permission to issue debentures for $20,000 to redeem the debentures of the Town maturing this year and that the debentures of Preston and Guelph Township held by the Corporation be appropriated towards the payment of the floating debt. A petition as above was also submitted. They also recommended that the petition of the family of the late Robt. Wilson be granted, but could not recommend that the Police Magistrate be authorized to order any books for his own benefit or use at the expense of this Corporation. (dw)

The fifth report of the Road and Bridge Committee was presented and showed that the estimated expenditure on Roads and Bridges for the current year was $4,750, and requested that $300 be placed at their disposal for the prosecution of work until the Finance Committee reported. (dw)

The Market House Committee reported that the estimated expenditure of the present year for the Market would be $1,258. Estimated receipts $1,390. That they had not prepared the plans for the Lockup as it was not advisable to do so until the Police Commissioners under the new Act had reported, and that the small office adjoining the Clerk's office be furnished for a Committee Room. (dw)

The Report of Fire and Water Committee recommended that two tanks be placed in the vicinity of Hatch's Block. Their estimated expenditure for the present year was placed at $2,275.20 including a debt of $187.20 contracted last year. They asked for an appropriation of $2,078.20, having already had $300 placed to their credit. (dw)

The Railway Committee asked that $500 be placed to their credit to meet expenses for the current year. (dw)

The Relief Committee presented their third report, showing that they have received from the Council grants amounting to $600 and will require $600 more. They have relieved 98 applicants up to the present time, viz: 59 Roman Catholics, amount paid $213.25, 14 Episcopals, $36.35, 6 Presbyterians, $22.15, 10 Wesleyan Methodists $28.40, 1 Primitive Methodist, $12, 1 Baptist, $2.25, 1 Congregationalist, $2.25. There are 3 persons at the hospital and one at Mr. Warner's. They also recommended the erection of a County Poor House. (dw)

The Printing Committee presented their first report requesting an appropriation of $150 to meet expenses for the current year.— (dw)

The Central Exhibition Committee presented their first report recommending that a driving road be graded round the entire ground; that trees be planted adjoining the London road; that the road be made perfectly sound; that the necessary repairs be made on the main building; that the Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governor be invited to attend the next show; that the railway committee be instructed to make arrangements with the several Railway Companies for reduced fares to and from the next exhibition; and that by-law be introduced for the purpose of regulating the management of the Central Exhibit on grounds.

The Tree Planting Committee reported that they had done the greater part of the work already authorized by the Council, and would require an appropriation of $500.

The Council went into Committee of the whole on the report of the Finance Committee, and passed three clauses, on the 1st. Mr. Chadwick moved, seconded by Mr. Hefferman, That it be altered so as to read: "That the petition of the Police Magistrate for a lock of Russell on 'Grimes' be granted, and that the same be purchased for his use.—Lost.

The clause passed. Committee rose. Council resumed and passed the report as adopted in Committee.

Guelph Evening Mercury

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 20, 1873

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, May 19th.

Mr. Penner moved for a Committee to make enquiry into matters affecting the public health.

Mr. Anglin asked Sir John Macdonald if he was prepared to state the course the Government would take with reference to the resolution of the House in regard to the New Brunswick School Act.

Sir John Macdonald replied in effect that His Excellency, having already received from the Imperial Government, through its law officers, an expression of opinion that the Act of the New Brunswick Legislature was within the competence of the Local Government, felt bound to submit the matter for their consideration again before taking action; meantime the Government would ask the House to appropriate a sum of money to pay the expenses of those who were desirous of obtaining the opinion of the English Privy Council as to the constitutionality of the Statute which were proposed.

Mr. Ferguson moved for certain returns of Indian land sales, and in doing so complained of the difficulty of obtaining any information, even on the simplest matter from that Department.

Mr. Mackenzie moved for Mr. Murdoch's report of the Pacific Survey at Thunder Bay.

Mr. Langevin said there was no written report, but he gave certain verbal explanations.

Mr. Ruffin Stephens moved the adoption of the report of the Printing Committee, recommending an increase of five per cent as well as prospective, in payments to the contractor for parliamentary printing.

Mr. James Young (Watersloo) moved an amendment to a resolution approving the establishment of a precedent for violating the terms of a contract, showing that whereas the tender of Hunter, Ross & Co., which was rejected, was but $1,775 per annum higher than Taylor's, the demand now made was practically an increase of $8,000 a year for four years, or $32,000 more than he would have received if the House had sanctioned his monstrous claim for double payment for completion.

Mr. Mills said he held in his hand a cheque from Messrs. Hunter, Ross & Co., offering to take the printing and binding of Mr. Taylor's hands at any moment, if they could have the contract at the present rate for five years, and give the most ample security for the performance of their contract. He was prepared to allow Mr. Taylor to contract at the present rate if he choose, or if not then to relieve him of it, and either let it to Messrs Hunter, Ross & Co., or put it to fresh tender.

Mr. Mackenzie explained the position of the Ontario Government with respect to Messrs Hunter, Ross & Co's tender.

Mr. White (Hastings), did not see how he could vote to give $32,000 to Mr. Taylor when Messrs Hunter, Ross & Co., would take the contract at the present rates and give the best security in the country.

Sir John Macdonald believed they would come in the end to put the whole Government printing into the hands of a Government officer.

Mr. Daily moved an amendment to Mr. Young's amendment; that the rates payable to the printer be increased to the amount reported by the Queen's printer as being paid by the printing trade generally, namely 27 per cent.

A division was then taken on Mr. Daily's amendment, with the following result:—Yeas, 70; nays, 70.

The result was received with great cheering and laughter on both sides. On the names being called over it appeared that Mr. Bowell had not voted. He gave his vote with the yeas, and then Mr. Daily's amendment was carried by a majority of one.

Mr. Young then moved that instead of the present arrangement being retroactive from 1871, it should only take effect from the commencement of the present session. This was finally agreed to.

At a quarter past midnight, in the teeth of Mr. Mackenzie's protest, the House went into Committee on the resolutions for the readjustment of the public debt.

A sharp discussion followed, and at 2:35 the resolutions were carried and a bill introduced founded thereon.

The House adjourned at 2:40 a. m. after a vigorous protest from Mr. Cannon at the noise and disorder of the Ministerial supporters on the back benches, while millions of money was being recklessly voted away.

In a Scottish church, recently, after the publication of the laws of marriage by the Registrar, a grave, in a stonemason's voice, fell between a certain couple. On the wedding for explanation, I have heard, pointed to the laws, and the Registrar was made to admit that the laws were not in force at the time of the marriage, and the couple were allowed to marry.

CHAPTER XX.
ARRIVAL AT DODDEN.
That night's ride was a long and dreary one, across a portion of the Yorkshire wolds, over wild, bleak heaths, through deep and desolate solitudes, where isolated houses stood miles and miles apart, along partially deserted roads, where the wheels sometimes sunk in ruts, and at other times bumped against large stones. To Annabel it was intensely lonesome to be carried thus into the wild, her only companion a man whom she had now come thoroughly to fear, and dislike, amid the darkness of night, the hour waxing late, and no prospect of the journey terminating. The situation was alarming beyond description, and as such she felt it.

Between her and Dick perfect silence had been maintained from the time they left the safe side, though often she longed to break it by asking if their journey was nearing its termination. But his manner had been so gruff and rude all that day that she shrank from holding intercourse with him, and devoutly wished that their arrival at a place of human habitation would put an end to a position which had become so dreadful. She had made up her mind, should they come to a village or an inn, to take a bolder course with Dick, to insist on knowing more precisely what was the object of all their singular proceedings, and to put an end to a situation which was neither seemly nor proper. Annabel could not help bitterly blaming Mrs. Langton in placing her in such a disagreeable and improper predicament, and so soon as it was safe for her to do so she determined to terminate it, even though she should have to perform the rest of her journey on her own resources.

The hope to reach Rockstone soon had begun to fade in her heart, for the desolate and solitary region in which they were born no resemblance to the fertile and beautiful country by which that estate was surrounded. They must therefore be still a long distance from it and the hour was wearing on to midnight.

With anxious eyes Annabel scanned the scene in front, in the hope of beholding a light to give token that they were approaching some human dwelling. But vainly did she gaze on all sides in this search. Universal darkness lay on the shrouded landscape, and overhead beamed the stars in peaceful but distant stillness.

Once they came upon a beaten road more like a highway than the paths they were traversing, and as they turned into it Annabel's hope rose high, for she deemed that ere long it would lead to town or village. But scarcely had they kept it for a hundred yards when the horse's head was suddenly turned to the left, and again they struck into a broken and grass-grown bye-path, which led them further and further into solitude.

Annabel's heart died within her, and she could remain silent no longer. "Dick," she burst forth, "I can bear this suspense no longer. Do tell me where we are going?"

"You will see in a little now," responded Dick, "for we haven't far to go."

"But we cannot be near Rockstone?" "Well, no, we are not."

"Then we are not going there to-night?" "No, we cannot make the distance. The horse is a good one, but he has had a long ride of it, and needs a rest. So do you and I for that matter, and we shall have it now before half an hour is over."

"At an inn!" cried Annabel eagerly. "Well, summit of that sort," answered Dick with an inward chuckle, and they again retraced their steps.

The half hour had nearly expired when they descended into a hollow, the brow of which they had been skirting for some time, and crossed a narrow bridge over a stream. On the other side was a long dense wood, by the side of which they continued their way, the hollow lying close upon their left.

"How well I know every turn and corner of the old place," muttered Dick to himself. "It's many a year since I saw it, but it ain't a bit altered. Blow me, if ever I expected to be near it again. I hope as how Hayes has sent in plenty of stores, for I'll be hanged if it won't take it all to keep me in such a desert. I thought it had enough before I saw the world, but now it's ten times worse, and it will take all the fire I am to have for the job to stand it. Then there's the revenge—that counts, for something, and that's what I ain't likely to forget so long as those stinging twinges shoot through my arm. Curse that young prig—I shall pay him off now."

Such were Dick's silent and concealed thoughts as they drove along the side of the wood and turned sharply round a corner, where a clump of trees seemed to have detached themselves from the main portion of the plantation, and to have driven hither in their isolation for they had reached a larger growth, and spread their dark branches abroad with wider sweep.

From the faint track another track equally faint diverged, and into this latter the horse was turned, when they were in less than a minute driven within a clump of trees, and then it was that Annabel saw that the latter surrounded a large unlighted building, of irregular shape, encircled by a high wall. This seemed to be the place where their journey was to end for the present, and where Annabel in her weariness felt glad that it was so, a strange feeling of dread also overcame her at sight of the gloomy pile, so like a prison—dark, silent, and solitary.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—On Sunday morning an attempt was made by a man representing himself as being from Rochester, to carry off a watch and some money lying on a table in the Arley's Arms Hotel, St. Catharines. The would-be thief and another man had called and ordered breakfast at the hotel, and while it was being prepared, he entered a room adjoining the dining-room, where the articles were lying on the table, and while in the act of putting them in his pocket, was observed, and seized, and the valuables taken from him.

MANY persons use the phrase, "He is a brick," without the least idea that it is supposed to be of classic origin. It is said that King Agesilaus, being asked by an Ambassador from Sparta, why they had no walls for Sparta, replied, "We have." Retorting to his marshalled army, he said, "There are the walls of Sparta; every man you see is a brick."

"MARTHA, does thee love me?" asked a Quaker youth of one at whose shrine his heart's fondest feelings had been offered. "Why, Seth," answered she, "we are commanded to love one another, are we not?" "Ah, Martha, has that then regard thee with that feeling the word calls for?" "I hardly know what to tell thee, Seth. I have tried to love my lover on all I have, but I have something thought, perhaps, that thee was getting more than thy share."
