HOGS are down to $8.50 this week. Did you get your fortune told at the Fair?

We had a big business Fair day.—SWIFT, SONS & Co.
It is difficult to lay around and make money unless you are a hen.

ROBT. CARROLL and family have moved into their house on Erie street.

Quite a number of people from Watford attended the Alvinston fair on Friday and report it an excellent fair.

We have still a lot of unpaid accounts and must ask for settlement not later than Oct. 20th.—THE HOWDEN EST.

MR. AND MRS. WM. MCKERCHER have moved into the residence they purchased from Allan Sharp on Front St.

THE Walkerville Gazette, a weekly established a few months ago by the Morrey Pub. Co. has suspended publication.

The mild weather has started the usual second growth of vegetation and several clusters of well-ripened raspberries have been exhibited.

OUR October carpet sale should interest you. Pick out one of those rugs and save money.—SWIFTS.

THOS. OAKES, of Watford, was operated on at St. Joseph's Hospital, London, on Monday for hernia, Dr. Kelly, of Watford, performing the operation.

GORDON HOLLINGSWORTH has removed his butcher shop to the building he purchased on the west side of Main St., formerly occupied by Aziz.

HAPPY THOUGHT ranges and Radiant Home baseburners are leaders in their classes. Call and talk it over.—THE HOWDEN EST.

WHAT some Yankees don't know about Canada, is sometimes amusing. The other day we received a letter in Chicago addressed "Watford, Ontario, Prince Edward Island."

AT the Methodist Parsonage, on Oct. 15th, another Tea will be given by the Ladies Aid. Hours from 5 to 7 o'clock that date. Bring your friends along. Everybody welcome. Admission 15c.—Sec.

LITTLE Mary Connolly celebrated her first birthday in Canada on Saturday by entertaining sixteen of the young acquaintances she has made since coming from the land of the Rising Sun.

VISITORS Fair day were delighted with our stock.—SWIFT, SONS & Co.

THAT the fowl's egg is nearly as readily a medium as infected milk for conveying the tuberculous bacillus to the human system, is the statement of Dr. R. Mayotte, Assistant Food Inspector, at Montreal.

THE next sittings of the Supreme Court of Ontario for the County of Lambton will be held at the court house, Sarnia, on Tuesday, the 14th day of October, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon.

"HOOKING" melons is a pastime that is favored by boys about this time of the year. Some of our lads are chuckling to themselves over some "whoppers" they recently landed. Beware, boys, there will likely be some precautions if pilfering is not stopped.

LAMPS, fancy china and cut glass at prices suitable for wedding gifts, etc.—THE N. B. HOWDEN EST.

THE directors of the Lambton Farmers Mutual Insurance Co. met in Watford on Saturday afternoon. Among other business transacted they paid the claim of Mrs. Mary Jane McIntyre, of Plympton, $1575.00, for loss of barn and contents, and also settled several smaller claims.

THE Guide-Advocate is in a position to supply church officials with collection envelopes of all kinds. Duplex envelopes printed in one or two colors, with date, with church calendar, or in any other form. Call and see samples and let us fill your next order.

OUR dress goods surprised fair visitors.—SWIFTS.

HOSPITAL DONATION DAY.—The Women's Hospital Auxiliary of the Charlotte Eleanor Engleheart Hospital, Petrolia, are asking the people of the surrounding country for a Thank Offering for the hospital on Saturday, Oct. 18th. Donations to consist of dry groceries, vegetables, fruits, butter, eggs, meats, etc. Parcels to be addressed to C. E. B. HOSPITAL, Petrolia.

REV. JOHN MCNDAY, of Grace Episcopal church, Port Huron, has taboos the tango in his congregation and threatened to deal summarily with any of his young parishioners that attempt it. "I do not like to see our young girls lurching, swinging, swooping and clinging as seems to be required by the latest crazes." said the pastor in his official edict issued last week.

THAT Vegreville, Alta., is the centre of the best gas producing region in northern Alberta, is the opinion of Clapp & Huntley, the gas experts who have been investigating conditions in that province. The Board of Trade of Vegreville, of which Dr. H. S. Monkman, formerly of Watford, is President, will urge the Council to purchase lands and bore for gas.

GRAND display of ladies' suits, coats and furs Saturday.—SWIFTS.

MR. R. W. HUME, Kingscourt, handed in some fine ripe second growth raspberries Wednesday.

THE public school is closed today and the teachers have all gone to Petrolia to attend the annual session of the Teachers' Institute.

REV. S. P. IRWIN preached harvest thanksgiving sermons in Kerwood and Adelaide last Sunday. Rev. H. R. Diehl took Mr. Irwin's appointments.

WASHING machines, wringers, carpet sweepers, dustless mops, self wringing mops, liquid veneer and everything to make the house work easier.—THE HOWDEN EST.

DAUGHTERS of the Empire, next regular meeting at Sunnyside Farm, home of Mrs. Geo. Baird, on Tuesday, October 14. Quotations on Thanksgiving. Bus will leave Methodist church at 2 p.m.

THE delegates to the District Epworth League Convention held in Petrolia last week will give a report of that convention in the Watford League in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

MISS ELIZABETH E. ROBERTS, a former resident of Watford, and known to many here, died in Port Huron on Tuesday last. The funeral was held from the G. T. R. station, Watford, on Wednesday afternoon at the Watford cemetery. Deceased was a sister to Mr. Daniel Roberts of Watford.

ORDER your fall suit and overcoat. Our tailoring department is very busy.—SWIFTS.

THE two concerts given on Fair night under the auspices of the Watford Concert Band were well attended and much enjoyed. Both halls had capacity houses and the programs presented were good, and well received. Receipts about $300, which, after expenses are deducted, will go towards purchasing new uniforms for the band boys.

THERE was an exciting runaway on Main street Wednesday noon when a horse belonging to Chas. Tanner, of Enniskillen, came down through the crowd at a brisk pace. When in front of Harper Bros, the buggy ran into a telephone post and was badly demolished. The horse, freed of the rig, fell on turning the postoffice corner and was soon captured.

HEAVY gauge german aluminum kitchen ware just received at remarkably low prices. See this practically everlasting line before buying any more granite ware.—THE N. B. HOWDEN EST.

FROM time to time we have to decline obituary verses that are sent to us for insertion. For various reasons they are not a form of contribution that is encouraged by most newspapers, however much the editor might sympathize with the bereaved. Some publishers will not insert them at all. Others charge the advertising rate of ten cents a line, (which is nearly prohibitive), and we belong to the latter class.

THAT a stop should be put to the practice of small boys coasting along the sidewalks on little express wagons is emphasized by the fact that a man was knocked down in Woodstock by such a dangerous combination, and the man died from a fractured skull. Considering the speed a small boy can attain with a little wagon on a sidewalk, it is a source of wonder that accidents are not more frequent.

RAYO lamps and perfection oil heaters at right prices.—THE HOWDEN EST.

ADVICES from Ottawa state that arrangements are being made through the Bell Telephone to give weather forecasts to subscribers of rural exchanges for the benefit of farmers. The meteorological department at Toronto will furnish the forecasts to the telephone company, which will wire them by 10 a.m. to all agents so that they then will be available for rural subscribers. There will be no additional charge and the operators will be given instructions to furnish the information.

A CONVERTED cowboy is reported to have given this idea of what religion is: "Lots of folks would really like to do right, think that servin' the Lord means shoutin' themselves hoarse, praisin' His name. Now, I'll tell you how I look at it: I'm workin' here for Jim. Now, if I'd sit around the house here, tellin' what a good fellow Jim is, and singin' songs to him and gettin' up in the middle of the night to serenade him, I'd get fired, mighty blame quick. But when I buckle on my chaps and bustle among the hills and see that Jim's herd is all right and not sufferin' for feed, or water, or bein' run off the range and branded by cattle thieves, then I'm servin' Jim as he wants to be served."

THE Regina Standard of Sept. 24th, says—"Russell Willoughby, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Willoughby of 2319 Cornwall street, had his right arm broken and received a serious fracture of the wrist in attempting to crank his father's automobile Sunday night. Dr. Jordan Field was immediately summoned, and dressed the broken arm. Young Willoughby, who is 13 years of age, went out to the car about eight o'clock last night, and proceeded to crank the car for his father, who was standing on the steps. The spark had been advanced, and when the lad tried to turn the engine over, the crank handle came back with sudden force, and hit him on the arm, breaking it in two places and fracturing his wrist. The remarkable thing about the accident is that the brave little fellow did not cry out with pain at any time of the event, not even when his arm was set by Dr. Field."

Watford Tax Rate

Collector Cameron is now on his round. The rate of 25 7/10 mills to be collected this year is made up as follows: County Rate, 21 1/10 mills. Village Rate, 9 mills. Sidewalk Debiture Rate 8/10 mills. Wire Co. Debiture Rate 1 8/10 mills. Public School Maintenance Rate 7 7/10 Public School Debiture Rate 1 5/10. High School Maintenance Rate 3 mills.

30 Days' Campaign

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, are making an urgent appeal to their present subscribers to send in renewed subscriptions during October and relieve the enormous rush at the close of the year. It is a reasonable request from a newspaper in such great demand, and subscribers have nothing to lose by complying. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is looking for a bigger season than ever before. It is indeed a big dollar's worth.

PERSONAL

Mr. J. E. Brown is home from New Ontario.

Dr. Reid, Wyoming, is home from the Old Land.

Mr. Joseph Mitchell left on Tuesday for a trip West.

Mr. Will Alexander, Lapier, Mich., was here this week.

Mr. W. T. Bell, Port Stanley, was a Watford visitor this week.

R. L. Watson, London, visited friends and relatives here this week.

Mr. David Dennis, Windsor, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Harper.

H. E. Hume, Ottawa, of the Civil Service, is visiting at his home here.

Mrs. W. R. Davis, Mitchell, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. K. Matthews.

Mrs. W. K. Cook, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLeay.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Parker returned from the West last week much pleased with their visit.

Mrs. Vicary and Mrs. Chas. Vicary, St. Thomas, were the guests of Mrs. T. Harris this week.

Miss Annie M. Tanner left Monday to take a commercial specialist course at Toronto University.

Mrs. Ben Parker, who has been visiting in this district, returned to her home in Edmonton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kelly returned Wednesday from a few weeks' visit with relatives near Lansing, Mich.

Miss Kate Saunders, nurse in training at St. Clemens, Mich., spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with relatives here.

W. Lamb and J. Saunders returned from New Ontario Tuesday. They found the conditions there different from what they expected.

Mr. George N. Savage, of Lincoln, England, was a visitor at the Watford Fair this week. Mr. Savage is a member of the British Passenger Agents' Association and is on a visit to Canada with a view of ascertaining at first hand the requirements of this country regarding immigration. He finds the demand for nearly all classes of labor very great, and that there is also room in the towns and cities for many skilled artisans. He is highly pleased with the business outlook in Canada.

BROOKE

Dr. and Mrs. Gubbins, Battlecreek, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. John Rose, London, attended the funeral of the late Dr. Annett on Monday last.

A meeting to reorganize the East Brooke Farmers' Club will be held on Tuesday, 14th Oct., at 8 o'clock, in the school house of S. S. No. 10, to elect officers and for other business.

Word has been received of the death of Mr. Archie McAlpine, of Oak River, Man. Deceased was born in Brooke township, and was the son of Malcolm McAlpine. He learned the blacksmith business with Mr. George Johns, Bothwell.

Mr. Alexander McGregor, an old and much respected resident of the township for many years, passed away on Monday last in his 76th year. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at the Alvinston cemetery. Obituary notice later.

The regular monthly meeting of the church Women's Guild of Christ church, Sutorville, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Lucas. There were ten members present and five visitors. The next meeting will be held the first Tuesday in November at the home of Mrs. David Whitehead.

EAST LAMBTON FAIR

KEEPS HIGH STANDARD

Fair at Watford a Big Success

Good Exhibits in All Departments. Fine Speeding Events. Biggest Crowd on Record

"Bigger and Better than ever" has always been the slogan of the East Lambton Fair, and each year it proves true. The fair this year surpassed that of any previous year in every particular. Never before in the history of the East Lambton Agricultural Society has there gathered such a large number of superb horses and fine cattle as was to be seen in the stock rings on Wednesday, and the quality of the farm produce in the tents was as good as seen at any show this year. In the grain tent abundance and quality were in evidence; field roots were also good, but the garden vegetables display was somewhat small. In the main building the display of ladies work was undoubtedly the best and largest ever exhibited here. The dairy display was somewhat small as butter-making seems to be a decaying art since the creamery has become popular. The art display was large and fully up to previous years. Outside the poultry entries were numerous, many fine birds being shown, and the sheep and hog pens were well filled with fine specimens.

THE RACES

In the open trot there were five entries:—Red Smith, (Barrett), Peach Bars, (Boskenbury), Capt. Mack (Starkey), Topsy L. (Kettle), and Montolette (Currie). The result:—Montolette 1st, Peach Bars 2nd, Capt. Mack 3rd.

There were six entries in the 2.50 trot or pace, namely, Maggie Bond (Barrett), Bill Poster (Hall), Queenie (Wright), Little Maud (Kettle), Bonny May (Currie) and Jenny H. (Hoskin). Result:—Maggie Bond 1st, Little Maud 2nd, Bonny May 3rd.

Judges—Dr. Cairns, Forest; Dr. Hume, Arkona; Dr. Gilroy, Alvinston.

NOTES

Entries 2400.
It was an ideal day.
The directors were kept very busy all day.

The refreshment booths did a rushing business.
Sarnia and London both sent large delegations.

The prize list will appear in full in next week's paper.
Did you ever see a finer lot of ladies' work at any fair here or elsewhere?

The Lambton Branch of the Department of Agriculture had a fine display.
The merry-go-round was kept going all day and the little ones had a big time.

There were a lot of new exhibitors and the contest in some classes was very keen.
A small piece of ladies' work lost in the hall. Finder please leave with the Secretary.

Secretary Kenward was kept very busy all day. He was ably assisted by H. K. Laird.

The Sarnia Kilties Band livened things up in great shape. The skirl of the pipes was inspiring.
President Farrell presided over the platform entertainment with his usual tact and urbanity.

The special prizes were nearly all competed for. This is an attraction that was greatly missed last year.
The prize for the oldest married couple on the ground went to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Forbes, of Sarnia.

Some visitors were here from a long distance, several from Michigan, Toronto and other far away places.
The day was an ideal one. Although it broke dull the clouds soon rolled away and brightness and warmth reigned supreme.

Owing to the fair falling on the day before printing day, the Guide-Advocate is compelled to condense the report somewhat.
The Watford Concert Band gave a plentiful supply of choice music and were complimented on all sides for their efficiency.

Geo. McIntosh, of the Forest Standard, and Alex. Wanless, of the Sarnia Observer, represented their respective papers at the Fair.
The Women's Institute served lunch in a tent and received liberal patronage. Their rest room was a great boom to tired mothers.

The decorations by the business men were very creditable. Flags were floating everywhere, barring the public school and municipal building.
The graceful dancing of the little Misses McGregor and Joyce, of Sarnia, was much admired. They were quite at home in Scotch or Irish dances.

The directors will meet on Saturday, Oct. 18th, to examine the prize list and make necessary changes, after which the prizes will be paid by the Treasurer.

Madam Mary, the Egyptian Queen, revealed the past, present and future to some of the young people. One of the secrets she discloses is "How to raise a large family."

President Farrell in a neat speech thanked the exhibitors, especially the ladies, for the interest taken in the fair and stated that next year a tasty luncheon would be provided on the first day of the fair for all lady exhibitors.

One of the most interesting displays was the exhibit of the Watford public school children which occupied the best part of a large tent. A passing notice of this would be unjust, so next week we intend giving an extended report.

There was lots of fun for the boys on the midway, and some of them won quite a lot of "Sheeny jewelry" and "three-for-fives." The try your strength machine was kept going steadily, and the roasted peanut and "hot dog" booths did a rushing business.

Swift, Sons & Co.'s and P. Dodds & Son's specials, for youngest baby on the ground were carried off by H. Doman's baby, two months old, and Swift's special for youngest child saying "Swifts for clothing" went to the two-year-old daughter of T. Leach, Warwick.

The baby show was as usual quite an attraction. There were three prizes for the best looking baby under one year, ten entries made. The first prize went to H. Kerton, Kingscourt, 2nd J. W. Smith, Warwick; 3rd, Thos. Evans, Arkona. Three of the Kilties Band acted as judges and found the task quite a difficult one.

The advertising space in the main building was not as well taken up this year as formerly. Swift, Sons & Co. had a fine display of coats, furs &c.; T. Dodds & Son a display of Chi-Namel paints and varnishes; J. McKercher, harness; and the musical instrument displays. Upstairs P. Dodds & Son had a display of fine shoes.

All day long there was a crowd around the large section of the hall reserved by Harper Bros. for their display of Mason & Rich musical instruments. Interested inquirers were seeking information about the merits of the instruments manufactured by this old and well-known firm, and they went away fully satisfied that the firm's claim that they manufactured "a piano with a soul" was fully sustained.

WARWICK.

Mr. F. L. Kadey, of the Merchants Bank, Kincardine, spent a few days this week at his home on the fourth line.

The next meeting of the St. Mary's Branch will meet at Mrs. Jan. McCallands, 2nd line, on Thursday, October 16.

George Richardson, second line north, has a sow that give birth to thirteen pigs last spring and raised them all. The other day twelve of them, under six months, sold for the nice sum of $228.00.

Strathroy Age.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson, who recently moved here from Warwick township and have been living on Metcalfe St., will shortly take up their abode in the fine old "Black" home on Quality Hill, which he recently purchased from his brother-in-law, John L. Sullivan, of Adelaide, at a consideration of about $1,600.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williamson on Wednesday at high noon, when their only daughter, Mabel Blanche, was united in marriage with Mr. Fred L. Kingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kingston, fourth line west. The young bride looked charming in pink satin veiled in net and pearl trimming and carried a bouquet of carnations. The going away gown was navy blue with hat to match. The young couple were unattended. The bridal party motored to Watford and took the train for a short wedding tour and will reside in Walkerville. The bride was given away by her father. The Rev. Mr. Forster was the officiating minister.

Andrew Thompson, Jr., lot 15, con. 2, N. E. R., son of the late Wm. Thompson, Jr., was found drowned in a cistern in his barn on Monday morning. He left the house early in the morning, saying that he was going to bring in the cows. When he did not return at breakfast time search was made and after some time his body was located as stated. The tank contained about four feet of water. He had been dead several hours when found. Up to the time of his death he was apparently in good health. Drs. Copeland and Huffman, of Arkona, were called, and after investigating the facts thoroughly decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Deceased was in his 33rd year. Besides his wife he leaves two little children, his mother and two brothers, Daniel, of Warwick, and Dr. Hamlet, at Shelburne, near Toronto. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at Bethel cemetery and was largely attended.

The funeral took place Monday from the family residence, in Strathroy at Olive Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, who died on Friday evening after a lingering illness. Miss Richardson leaves two sisters, Fahey and Kathleen, and two brothers, George and Robert, of the firm of Richardson Bros., of the Strathroy Dispatch.

WOMAN A GREAT SUFFERER

Tells How She Was Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Tilbury, Ont.—"I could praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all around the world because it has done so much for me. For two years I was so run down that I was unable to do my work. I had female weakness and dreadful periodic pains, constipation and backache, but now I am well of all these things. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Liver Pills and Sanative Wash. I give you permission to publish this letter to help others."—Mrs. WILLIAM MARCHAND, Box 464, Tilbury, Ontario, Can.

Chicago, Ill.—"I take pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with such awful periodic pains, and had a displacement, and received no benefit from the doctors. I was advised to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am now as well as ever."—Mrs. WILLIAM TULLY, 2062 Ogden Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Davidson Leader:—If your neighbor is prosperous, let him prosper. Don't grunt, growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come. No one man is the whole show. If you see that the town is moving along nicely, feel good about it. Help things along, shove a little. Try to get some of the benefit yourself. Don't stand around like a chilly old cadaver. Don't waste your time feeling sore because some fellow has a little more sand and sense than you have. Do a little hustling yourself. Don't be a knocker.

Speaking of the tobacco habit and some persons do, you know, make others speak of it a lot—it has been estimated that 1,000,000,000 persons in the world use tobacco in one form or another; that there are over 5,000,000 persons in the world engaged in the cultivation, manufacture and sale of tobacco, and that five great nations draw taxation revenues from tobacco annually exceeding $275,000,000. These statistics give us some idea of the size of the world's tobacco habit, don't they? And if every tobacco is interested and should know of the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray. The new Vaginal Spray. Best—most comfortable. It cleanses instantly. Ask your druggist for it.

user were to suddenly, simultaneously abandon the habit what a financial cataclysm would likely result, wouldn't there? But let's not be in haste to conjure alarming visions—for the use of tobacco they tell us, is increasing, rather than diminishing—in spite of the high cost of living.

A great deal has been written and spoken about the high cost of living, and many remedies have been offered, but when all the evidence is in it resolves itself into a question of getting what one pays for. How many merchants live up to their obligations under the law regarding the selling of the common necessities of life such as potatoes and other vegetables, which the Weights and Measures Act definitely declare must be by certain measures, in which the bushel shall be determined by weighing unless a bushel by measure is specially agreed upon. In many cases baskets of peaches, potatoes, carrots, beets or other table supplies do not contain a bushel, or proper proportion of a bushel by weight, and the only defence the middleman has to offer for short measure is that he bought them that way, which excuse is not valid in law. The buying and selling of table supplies affects everyone so vitally that the matter of full weight and measure as between buyer and seller should be closely regulated in every municipality.

Act Well Your Part

Our happiness in this life depends not so much on circumstances and surroundings as in our determined efforts to do our best in all conditions in which we are placed. Our common heritage is more or less allied to sorrows and pain, but we have within ourselves the antidote—the sunshine of the heart that will alleviate, if not remove many of our troubles. But we persistently reject the means of happiness that lie within our reach, by ignoring present small pleasures in hopes of enjoying greater ones in the future good time coming, which always keeps just ahead, and is unobtainable. We cultivate little cares till they sometimes attain enormous growth by constantly dwelling on them and dolefully rehearsing them to our friends when we should do our best to rise above them. In the most difficult and trying conditions there will often be a brighter side.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Habit of Home

If we lived the life we should live it would be a well-balanced intermixture of all things that are desirable; pleasure and duty, gravity and laughter, society and solitude. Unfortunately no one of us lives the life he should, says the Youth's Companion. Instead, we are creatures of habit, some habit usually pushed to excess even in the best of us. If we read, we read when we should be working or sleeping. If we play games, it is the same. And the automobile habit, in its extreme form, threatens to become with many people a mania sorely detrimental to housekeeping and to children, to the purse and to the brain.

Of all habits, there is none sweeter than the habit of home, and none that seems at present less likely to encroach unduly on her time. Going is so easy. A thousand vehicles convey you. Bargain sales tempt you; this woman must be coaxed; another has a pattern that you must copy now. You can stay at home at any time. Yet if you sit down for a moment and think, you will see how much of it is only habit. When you are going, going, going, you want to go, and an accident of illness or weather that thwarts you seems like a great misfortune. You turn to home pursuits with a feeling of rebellion, or, at least, of dull disappointment. But when you have stayed-at-home a week, you taste the charm of it, the daily employments come to have their interest, and even their freshness, and you are really reluctant to turn away from them.

One of the wisest of books, the "Imitation of Christ," sums it all up in one sentence so simple that a high-school freshman can translate it, yet so beautiful that even a great poet could not convey its meaning adequately. Thomas a Kempis is speaking of his monk's cell, but his words apply even more truly to a woman's nursery and to her fireside: "Cella continuata dulcescit male custodia taedium generat." If you stay at home, you love home; but gadding makes even home unlovely.

Prophetic Hindsight

An English correspondent points out to the Saturday Evening Post how every recent war, except that between the United States and Spain, has completely confounded expert military opinion; that China would overwhelm poor little Japan was a foregone conclusion; that the deluded Boers could make even a respectable stand against mighty England was out of the question; that Japan again invited destruction by attacking Russia was as demonstrable as that two and two make four. No one was more surprised than the experts when Turkey crumpled up like an empty sack before the Balkan States. That conflict revised opinion of Bulgaria's prowess to a great height; and opinion had scarcely got itself adjusted to this new and surprising view when in a single fortnight Bulgaria's military power exploded like a punctured toy balloon.

The trouble is, of course, that expert military opinion is built on paper with a leadpencil and battles are fought otherwise. It is a paper-and-pencil war that has been devastating Europe for the last ten years. England wins a campaign by ordering four new dreadnoughts. Germany counters brilliantly by adding fifty new regiments of foot. France achieves an Austerlitz by extending the term of military service from two years to three.

Taxpayers, money flows prodigally as water; but whether any nation is more likely to win an actual and decisive victory no finite mind can tell.

A CORRECTOR OF PULMONARY TROUBLES—Many testimonials could be presented showing the great efficacy of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in curing disorders of the respiratory processes, but the best testimonial is experience and the Oil is recommended to all who suffer from these disorders with the certainty that they will find relief. It will allay inflammation in the bronchial tubes as no other preparation can.
Parkhill waterworks system is now in operation, the mains filled and everything in working order. The engine is a 15 horse-power oil engine, made by the Muncie Engine Co., of Muncie, Indiana. The fuel is a low grade of kerosene. The engine runs very smoothly and steady with a good reserve of power. The combustion chamber is cooled by water taken directly from the main. The pump is a novelty in construction; it has two chamber strokes of about 18 inches each, pumping a hundred and fifty gallons a minute.

ZAM-BUK

"MRS. A. SAICH, of Cannington Manor, Sask., Writes:—'My brother suffered severely from eczema. The sores were very extensive, and burned like coals into his flesh. Zam-Buk took out all the fire, and quickly gave him ease. Within three weeks of commencing with Zam-Buk treatment, every sore had been cured.'"

This is but one of the many letters we are constantly receiving from people who have proved the healing powers of Zam-Buk. For eczema, piles, sores, burns, cuts and all skin troubles there is nothing like this wonderful balm. No skin disease should be considered incurable until Zam-Buk has been tried.

EAVETROUGHING AND REPAIRING ON SHORT NOTICE

Did You and How?

Written for the Guide-Advocate by Mrs. Jennie Miller.
Did you tackle that trouble that came your way, with a resolute heart and cheerful? Or did you hide your face from the light of day, with a craven heart and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce, or a trouble is just what you make it; And it isn't the fact that you're licked that counts, But only—just how did you take it?
You are beaten to earth? Well, what's that? Come up with a smiling face; It's nothing against you to fall down flat, But to lie there—that's the disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why the higher you be proud of your blackened eye; bounce; It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts, It's how did you fight—and why?
And though you are done to the death, what then? If you battled the best you could; If you played your part in the world of men, Why the Critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce And whether he's slow or spry, It isn't the fact that you're dead that counts, But only—how did you die?
Victoria, B.C., Sept. 11th, 1913.

The indications of worms are restlessness, grinding of the teeth, picking of the nose, extreme peevishness, often convulsions. Under these conditions the best remedy that can be got is Miller's Worm Powders. They will attack the worms as soon as administered and will grind them to atoms that pass away in the evacuations. The little sufferer will be immediately eased and a return of the attack will not be likely.
One of the greatest drawbacks to the storing of ice is the lack of suitable material cannot always be got, but the chaff of oats, wheat, barley, and especially flax makes a very satisfactory substitute. It should be collected at threshing time and stored where it will keep dry until it is needed. In packing ice, take care to fill all crevices.

PREVENTION AND CURE OF MILK FEVER

If a cow is in good physical condition and fresh it is well not to feed very much of any grain, but give a liberal amount of succulent feed, such as silage and alfalfa and all the good hay, preferably of the legume class, that she will consume without waste. If there are no succulent feeds we believe it well to feed about one pound of oilmeal daily together with some other feed like bran or ground oats. We suggest the oilmeal because of its tendency to keep the bowels of the animal in good condition, but the succulent feed will do that if it is obtainable, says Hoard's Dairyman.

The time has come when we need pay but little attention to the feeding of the cow so far as milk fever is concerned.

King Beda, the pure bred Guernsey bull which heads the Guernsey herd of the Delaware Agricultural college, has attracted a great deal of attention. He is a half brother of one of the most noted bulls of the breed in the United States. As his portrait shows, he is an excellent individual. This bull has but two daughters in milk, and these have been officially tested for a year, beginning at two and a half years old. They have averaged 11,000 pounds of milk and over 630 pounds of butter each.

spring months. The grubs when ripe may be extracted by squeezing the warbles between the thumbs. All extracted grubs should be destroyed.

Cow Physic.

Epsom salts (sulphate of magnesium) is the favorite physic for a cow, and the average dose is one pound. Salt commonly is added at the rate of half to one cupful to increase the effectiveness of the salts. It is better to give a full dose of this physic than to give it in small quantities right along. Where an alternative is needed other drugs are used. A cow needs at least one ounce common salt every day to keep her in good health.

MUSICAL MOUNTAINS.

Deep Gullies That Enact the Role of Organ Pipes.

Rather uncanny it would be to walk unsuspectingly along some quiet valley path and suddenly hear, from some mountain or cliff overhead, weird, strange sounds that resemble both the tone of a human voice and the note of a stringed instrument. Yet there are certain parts of the world which boast mountains and hills and cliffs that make these queer noises. In the Pyrenees, for instance, there are points which seem to throw out wild musical notes when the wind is blowing from certain directions. The natives, of course, are terribly superstitious regarding them. They imagine they possess superhuman powers and that they are listening to the voices of the gods when they hear them.

The scientific explanation of the phenomenon is simple enough. If it is a cliff from which noises emerge the face can be seen to be crossed with deep gullies. These might be compared, in the purpose they serve, to the pipes of an organ. On certain occasions a layer of air seems to get caught between the cliff and the trees which border it, closing up the opening so that when the wind blows into the gullies music comes forth. So pronounced and continued are the sounds in some of the parts that two of the cliffs have been named "snoozers." It is interesting to note from this how man makes use of the principles adopted through the ages by nature in the creating of his musical instruments.—San Francisco Chronicle.

CHARMS AS CURES.

Curious Remedies That Were Once Popular in England.

Many and varied are the charms that man has used for the cure of diseases. In Northamptonshire, England, a few hairs from a sick child's head are rolled in a piece of meat and given to a dog in the belief that the disease becomes thereby transferred to the animal. In Cornwall the child is fed with the bread and butter of a family whose heads bear the names of John and Joan. Gypsies swear by roast dormouse as a cure for whooping cough, and in Lancashire it is believed that no child will contract that disease who has ridden upon a bear.

Another "cure" was a snake slung round the neck for goller. This was an old Sussex charm.—The Rev. Coker Egerton, in "Sussex Folk and Sussex Ways," tells the story from personal observation. "I have known a person," he wrote, "who went a long distance to have a live snake applied to the throat for goller, and I have known of a servant girl who tried the virtue of a dead one for the same ailment. It was discovered, and being obliged to throw it away, she said she would go somewhere to get a 'dead man's hand' put to her neck."

Earthworms have been used by Nottingham people for rheumatism. It was necessary to put the worms into a bottle and upon them pour a quantity of powdered quicklime. The resultant compound, well rubbed into the affected parts was guaranteed by the prescriber to be a certain cure for rheumatism.

Fork and Cake.

A correspondent points a curious antipodean fashion. In New Zealand ladies eat cake with a fork, and the reason is the shortage of domestic servants. You don't see the connection? Well, the New Zealand lady so often has to do her own housework that it is the fashion at afternoon teas to keep gloves on—in mercy to possible roughened hands—whence the fork of the cake.—London Chronicle.

Modest Child.

Dodds—McLaren carried, that the principal be authorized to procure the necessary supplies for primary class, asked for.

The secretary presented his report of the insurance on the High and Public School buildings and furniture. The principals of the schools were appointed to examine as to the value of the school equipments and report on the same at next meeting of the Board. Board adjourned. D. WATT, Secretary.

STRANGLER WITH ASTHMA is the only expression that seems to convey what is endured from an attack of this trouble. The relief from Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is beyond measure. Where all was suffering there comes comfort and rest. Breathing becomes normal and the bronchial tubes completely clear. This unequalled remedy is worth many times its price to all who use it.

SCHOOL GARDENS

The school garden is an innovation that is being warmly endorsed by all who have had any experience in the matter. It is claimed that when the system has been thoroughly tried it creates stronger bonds of union between the school and the home. Up in the Carrot River District in Saskatchewan, they have an enthusiastic School Garden Association of which Mr. A. R. Brown, formerly of Watford, is the business manager, and Mr. A. D. M. Hone, also an old Watford boy, is a prominent member of the committee. A School Garden Exhibition was held at Kinistino, Sask., recently, and the Representative, the local paper of that place, has this to say about the matter:—"The school gardens exhibition held in the rink was a delight and a surprise to all, and unstinted praise is due the manager of the movement, Mr. A. R. Brown, Principal of the Birch Hills school, who was ably seconded in the work by the Secretary, Miss Granbo, of Golden Rod, S. D. The exhibit was really wonderful, and went to show what can really be done by energetic effort. Vegetables of almost every variety, grain, grasses, weeds, writing, drawing, etc., etc., were exhibited in profusion, and we have seen agricultural fairs where the exhibits were not nearly so meritorious."

Mr. Brown in a letter to the editor of the Guide-Advocate, says:—"It must be a phase of educational work is progressing in Watford's vicinity. My own experience is that it has a most vitalizing effect upon the school work. The children become brighter and more efficient both physically and mentally; not only that, but the school becomes the beauty spot of the district—a point of attraction for all—both residents and strangers. Not a single district here, having begun the work, has been willing to relinquish it."

Guide-Advocate
HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS

WATFORD, OCTOBER 10, 1913.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Orillia Packet.—Borrowing money at thirty years is an expensive method of financing public affairs. The issue of $32,000 in debentures for the construction of the two schools built this summer brought in about $28,500 in actual cash, but the town will pay in principal and interest $80,000 before they are redeemed.

Melfort Moon (Ind).—Be a climber. Say "I am going to get there" and you will. You'll not live forever. Get somewhere with yourself and your surroundings before the final trumpet blast sounds. When you have climbed an inch, pull up the ladder, start one inch higher and climb again. With a scaling ladder six feet long a mountaineer might climb a cliff five thousand feet high. He needs only courage, determination and energy to do it. He climbs up six feet, gets a footing, places his ladder higher, climbs again, and thus rises steadily. Don't sit on the ladder and try to go up backwards. Face the task like a man and look ever upward.

There are some things that must be done in a hurry or not at all. Catching a flea is one of the best examples apropos of this. But as a rule it is safe to say the man or woman who works deliberately accomplishes the most. The deliberate worker is the thoughtful worker with whom the habit of system has become a second nature. Any one may cultivate it who will take the trouble to try; and the most unsystematic, spasmodic worker will realize with amazement how easy it is to get through with an allotted task in half the time it formerly required, by planning it all out before entering the office, workshop or kitchen.

To us busy people it is difficult to realize that summer has drawn to a close; how very short it has seemed. Is it true that we must now seriously consider the great problem of preparing for a Canadian winter. We love our balmy summers and we are sorry to see them pass but what is there to dread about our snappy sparkling Canadian winters? They are also beautiful. They usher in the Christmas season that gladdens the hearts of so many. They stimulate good health and vigor in our people and they give mother earth a rest and help to prepare her soils to produce abundantly the next year.

A Talk on Success

Jones sadly said to his helpmate, "I guess I'm not exactly a howling success. Though I keep toiling and plugging away down at the boiler-works day after day, sticking to business and going like Ned, I am but little, if any, ahead. When on each payday they pass me my cash, what with the prices of canned goods and hash, what with the money for clothing and rent, I've got a place for most every red cent. Often I wish I was old John D. Blank, having a billion of bones in the bank—then we could each have an automobile; we could have chicken instead of canned veal; you could dress up in the latest French gowns; I could set fire to my old hand-me-downs; we could move far from our tumble abode, here in the middle of Poverty Road; we could chin up to the proud and the great. Anyone short on mazuma, I guess hasn't much chance to be called a success." "Billy, you hum-mix," his partner came back, "your train of thought sure is on the wrong track; all these fine things do not matter two hoots—many who win 'em are pretty tough brutes; you're a success to the youngsters and me—we wouldn't trade you for any John D."

Increasing The Profits of Dairying

By following a system of intelligent breeding, selection, care and feeding, many farmers in Canada have increased the annual production of their milking herds by at least 2,000 lbs. of milk per cow. If this were accomplished in all dairy herds in Canada the yearly revenue from them would be increased by about $30,000,000 without adding to the size of the herds. Even with greatly improved feeding, this desirable result could not be obtained unless a well organized system of cow testing is followed. Such an improvement is based on a study of the individual cow in the herd, the retention of only the good animals and the following of a system of generous feeding of economically produced foods.

While it is practicable for individual farmers to test their own cows it is infinitely easier and cheaper for them if some form of co-operation is adopted. This is clearly brought out in bulletin No. 33 of the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner's Branch entitled, "Cow Testing with Some Notes on the Sampling and Testing of Milk". This work, which is published for free distribution by the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, explains clearly how cow testing associations are formed and worked as well as the benefits these are to those who take advantage of them.

Swift, Sons & Co. - Direct Importers

This is not the only store that sells crockery and glassware in this state, but it the only one that sells reliable crockery and glassware.

It may be news to you that a cup and saucer made of the same material, and finished in the same way, may have two grades—"firsts" and "seconds." This is caused in the making, firing and handling of the cup and saucer. The cups and saucers that come out of the process best are "firsts" and the next are "seconds." It is the same with glassware. We carry the best only.

But when we offer you the best crockery and glassware at this store, it is the best. Inspect our stock, compare our prices with those of any other store—then look at the quality.

Death of Ivan Annett, M.D., at London

Ivan E. Annett, M.D., passed away on Saturday morning, Oct. 4th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, London, in his 25th year. He had been afflicted with kidney trouble for some time and about three weeks ago had a critical operation performed by Dr. Wishart. For some time he appeared to improve but last week uremia set in, from which he succumbed as stated.

Dr. Annett was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Annett, of the 12th con. of Brooke. He was a student of the Watford High School, and graduated from the Western University, London, in 1911. For some time he was house surgeon at St. Joseph's hospital. A few months ago he decided to locate in Windsor, and at the time of his death was rapidly building up a lucrative practice in that city. He was a very popular young man and had many warm friends among both young and old, and his death at such an early age brought a bright life to a sudden close just at the threshold of what promised to be a most successful career. He is survived by his parents, one sister, Mrs. Ed. Carroll, of Brooke, and three brothers, George, Calvin and Leonard at home. Deceased was an adherent of the Brooke Methodist church, and also a member of Havelock Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Watford.

The funeral on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence, lot 14, con. 12, Brooke, was largely attended, some 100 persons, miles to be present. It testified to the popularity of the young man and to the deep sympathy felt for the parents and family in their affliction. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. S. V. R. Pentland, pastor of the Brooke Methodist Church; Rev. H. E. Currie, pastor of the Watford Methodist church, and Rev. S. P. Irwin, rector of St. James church, and the latter committed the remains to their last resting place. After the church service the impressive funeral ceremony of the Masonic order was conducted by the brethren of Havelock Lodge, Watford. Interment was made in St. James Church cemetery, 6th line, the pall bearers being ten schoolmates of deceased, namely, Alex. Kelly, James Kelly, Thos. Higgins, W. Corestine, F. Copeland, G. Sutton, R. Kearney, Jas. Steadman, Wm. Kelly and G. Griffith.

Fire of unknown origin, Thursday, completely destroyed the barns of Fred Dew, of the 14th concession of Bosanquet township, entailing a heavy loss. Mr. Dew was to have threshed Friday, and all his season's crops, together with a fine horse and separator, the property of Harry Ford, were burned. Mr. Dew also lost many of his own implements.

Toronto.
Toronto, Oct. 7.—Receipts at the Union stockyards to-day were 72 cars, with 1,402 cattle, 122 calves, 606 hogs and 406 sheep and lambs. There were lighter receipts of fresh stock for to-day's market, but with a good quantity held over from yesterday there was a fairly liberal offering. Buyers, however, who held back yesterday, thinking that the advanced prices would not hold, were perhaps a little disappointed to find themselves no better off to-day for prices were holding steady to firm at the advance, and, quality considered, in some cases perhaps a fraction or two higher.

There were fewer top notchers on the market such as yesterday's eight centers, but the general run of fair to choice butcher cattle sold steady, with an active market.

There was a light run of sheep and lambs and the latter averaged 10c higher owing to the greater proportion of wethers over the buck lambs.

Hogs steady and unchanged at $8.50, f.o.b., and $8.85, fed and watered.

Heavy feeding steers are quoting higher.

The Emerald Eye

It Proves Too Much of a Temptation

By CLARISSA MACKIE

In the Shanghai club the electric fans were humming slowly, and Chinese boys stepped silently to and fro with trays of cooling drinks.

Frank Oakley moved indolently in his long wicker chair as another man sank into the seat beside him.

"Hello, Oakley," said the newcomer pleasantly, at the same time lifting a beckoning finger to a passing servant.

"Ah, Langham! How are you? Thought you were in Hongkong?" Frank sat up in his chair and scanned the other's dark, blunt featured face.

"Was," said the other tersely.

"What's the trouble now? Must be something up or you wouldn't be here. You seem to camp on the trail of old man trouble," grinned Frank, pushing his cigar case across the table.

"Something is up. Can you spare time to be in on it? I've got to have an assistant."

"It happens to be my dull time. Count on me. What is it this time?"

"Oh, these rascally natives can't keep their hands off the temple treasures."

"Certainly, now or tomorrow morning?"

"Suppose we go now. We might want to go south tomorrow."

They arose and left the club, taking jinkishas to the gate of the old walled city, crowding on the outskirts of the newer modern city.

"Your clew?" asked Oakley as they went down the narrow, crooked, ill-paved streets.

"A Chinese named Sun Yat said that Lin Wah, the missing servant, was seen to offer the emerald eye to a dealer in the gold beaters' street."

"I know three goldsmiths in that street. It is this turn to the right," said Oakley, leading the way.

The first goldsmith professed ignorance of the emerald eye; the second one had seen it, but disparaged its value, and the third said it had been offered him by a Cantonese two days before and that the man had been seen running out of the city.

"I said to the south," was Oakley's comment.

"My impression is that it's nearer," said Langham, doggedly, and something in his tone told the truth of the situation to Frank Oakley.

"Out with the whole thing, Langham," he said shortly. "What is it? Are you trailing me, or what?"

"Well, you were there, you know."

"Did Mrs. Desbrow"—Oakley choked on the words.

Langham shrugged his perfectly fitted shoulders. "No, indeed, old chap. She wouldn't listen to a word against you. But the house boy?"

Oakley laughed scornfully. "The house boy! Do you mean to say that you are holding the word of a Chinaman against mine, Langham?"

"He said he saw you," retorted the other shortly.

"Saw his grandmother!" was Oakley's cheerful reply. "You take my advice, Langham. If Mr. Desbrow got that emerald from one of the temples in south China it stands to reason that the worshippers will try to get it back."

"Those old things mean more to the native Chinese than they do to the decadent mandarins. They will fight for the emerald, and they will steal it again and again until it finally remains where it originally belonged—only they will leave a trail of blood in its wake."

"Very well," said the other sharply. "Go ahead and I will follow."

"Find out for me where the temple is located and the name of the mandarin. Tomorrow morning we start."

Rheumatism can be cured—is being cured every day—by GIN PILLS. Here is the best kind of proof.

CODRIN, N.S.

"I have been troubled with Rheumatism so bad that I could not work. A doctor tended me and told me to go to the hospital but all to no good until a friend told me to try GIN PILLS. I did so and after taking a few boxes, I am perfectly well." D. J. LAWLER.

"It is my impression," he said at last, "that if you were advised to come to Shanghai the emerald has gone in the opposite direction."

"Why?" asked the other skeptically.

"Oh, just knowledge of the Asiatic character," returned Oakley vaguely, and Langham was the more convinced that the American was concerned in the gem robbery. He determined to permit the younger man to lead in the search for the stolen gem, but he determined to control the situation himself.

"Then you won't come into the old city with me?" he asked after a painful silence.

"Certainly, now or tomorrow morning?"

"Suppose we go now. We might want to go south tomorrow."

They arose and left the club, taking jinkishas to the gate of the old walled city, crowding on the outskirts of the newer modern city.

"Your clew?" asked Oakley as they went down the narrow, crooked, ill-paved streets.

The Progress of #### Dairying in Canada.

Conditions affecting the marketing end of the dairy industry in Canada have undergone rapid changes during recent years. In the past it has been the custom to estimate the growth of the industry on the export trade. This however has become an entirely unreliable guide because Canada no longer has butter to spare but on the other hand finds it necessary to import from other countries. Cheese exports too have greatly decreased. These facts were brought to the attention of the Select Standing Committee on Agriculture and Colonization during the past session of Parliament by Mr. J. A. Riddick, Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner, who showed very clearly that the industry is not losing ground but is making steady progress. It was brought out that the Canadian people are consuming relatively more milk and milk products than heretofore and that an increasing quantity of milk is being manufactured into condensed milk, casein and other products. During the course of Mr. Riddick's evidence he gave out a great deal of interesting information concerning the tendency of the industry. This has now been printed in a pamphlet of fourteen pages for free distribution to all who apply for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

No Need to "Hold the Phone."

(Chambers' Journal.)
There is a sound magnifying trumpet of flat shape, behind which is a small attachment intended to support the telephone receiver. When it becomes necessary to hold the line, either when calling up or replying, instead of the person standing with the receiver glued to his ear, he places the receiver upon the time saver, bringing the earpiece into position with the sound magnifier. He is then at liberty to resume his duties until such time as the person required at the opposite end utters his instrument. This is notified by the speech transmitter being magnified by the time saving device so as to be perfectly audible at a distance. The receiver may then either be withdrawn and held to the ear in the usual way, or left in connection with the magnifier, hearing being quite as simple and easy as under normal conditions. Another advantage of the invention is that the user's two hands are left free to carry out any other requisite task, such as the turning up of documents, making references, writing down messages or instructions from dictation, and so on.

A Missouri Pacific agent in Arkansas tells the following: "A man presented himself at the ticket window and asked the fare to Atkins, Ark. I told him it was $3.00. He said he had only a $2.00 bill, but could easily raise the other dollar. When he returned with the three dollars and asked how he got the other dollar, he said, 'I went to the pawn-brokers and pawned the $2.00 bill for $1.50. Then I sold the pawn ticket for $1.50. While you are making out the ticket kindly tell me who is out the dollar?' The agent afterward said that he had wrestled with the 47th problem of Euclid dragged through quadratics in algebra, worked on 'How old is Ann?' but the question was too much for him.—Ex.

He Has Never Smoked Another

"What I admire most in a man," said Johnson, "is the power of self-denial. Now, take smoking," he continued, "lazily filling his pipe and gazing round at the rest of the party gazing in front of the fire. 'It's a useless habit, and yet not one of you men could give it up. You haven't got the strength of mind.' At this there arose a storm of dissent. One man had left it off once for a whole twelve-month, and only resumed it under medical advice. Another had gone without tobacco for two years, and would back himself to do the same again if the bet was big enough; and so on, until a Yankee who was present broke in. "I knew a feller down in Nebraska," he remarked, "who smoked ten ounces of tobacco every day for twenty-seven years, and then giv it up at a minute's notice, and never touched it again." "Fact, I do assure ye," he resumed, as a murmur of unbelief arose. "He was jest lightin' his pipe, when something cum to him, and from that day to this he's never smoked another." "Marvellous instance of will-power," said one. "Extraordinary strength of mind," exclaimed another. "What determination," cried a third. And then the Yankee spoke again, gazing meditatively into the fire the while. "Yes, it were strange," he said. "Friend of mine, too, so I know it's true. He were sittin' on top of a barrel of blasting powder at the time, an' the head of his match dropped through the bung-hole!"

CHOP STUFF.

The Maylors, Forest, have purchased the bankrupt stock of the W. J. English firm. Albert Hetherington, 9th con., Gosfield, grew a tomato which weighed 2 1/2 pounds. Kingsville tax collector gets $100.00 a year. The tax rate of that village is 30 mills. A committee from the Glencoe Industrial Association met Hon. Adam Beck by appointment at London in regard to prospects of hydro-electric power for Glencoe. Mr. Beck stated that just as soon as Glencoe passes the necessary by-law and applies for the power, the commission are prepared to give it.

WATER FOR HEALTH.

Drink at Least Three Pints a Day to Keep in Good Condition.

"It's queer," said a medical man to the writer, "how few people drink the amount of water they should to insure good health. You should take at least three pints daily."

"In the first place, you lose by perspiration and evaporation in the breath about two pints a day of the water you take into the system, and about another pint goes to help keep the blood in order and the skin glands and joints, etc., sufficiently moist. Milk is not of much use to replace this, as it is mainly a food. Tea and coffee are not advisable drinks, because they contain a nerve destroying drug (caffeine). Cocoa, again, is more of a food than a drink, and alcohol—well, the less said about that the better."

"The only drinks we have left, then, are mineral waters and plain water. Too much mineral water is not good; but plain water contains no harmful drugs or minerals and, moreover, is nature's own product. If you drink sufficient of it the skin will be kept clear of pimples, rashes and sores, the blood will be purer and nature will see to it that sufficient water is mingled with it so that it circulates normally and not sluggishly because it is thick with impurities."

"Take a half pint glass of water at a time. One in the morning on rising, one after breakfast, one after dinner, one during the afternoon, one after tea and one before retiring—total, three pints."—London Answers.

RAILWAY TRAVEL IN SYRIA.

They Have a Free and Easy System on Some of the Roads.

They have a curious way of managing some railways in Syria. Wary of much riding, a party of travelers on their way to Beirut resolved one day to go by train. They arrived at a primitive station, but could find no station master.

Presently, however, one of the camp followers arrived, looked about and, spying a small red flag lying on the platform, made off with it along the line. When a train came in the man waved his flag, the engine driver pulled up, and the travelers got in.

Later, while the train was puffing on its way, the guard came along the footboard and issued the tickets, carefully noting down the names, nationality and occupations of the passengers. Two stations farther on they got out, and here there was not only a station-master, but a porter, and the latter stayed with them all day in an orchard till the camp arrived, meanwhile feeding them with honey from the comb.

Where else, one wonders, could such a charming railway system be found?—Wide World Magazine.

Sunday Theatricals.

Sunday theatricals had a rough time of it at one period of England's history. On Sunday, Sept. 27, 1631, Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" was privately performed in the bishop of Lincoln's house in London. The Puritans had the affair inquired into, and there is a suspicion of humor in the punishment awarded to the performer of Bottom, the weaver—"We do order that Mr. Wilson, as he was a special plotter and contriver of this business and did in such a brutish manner act the same with an ass' head, shall upon Tuesday next from 6 o'clock in the morning till 6 o'clock at night sit in the porter's lodge at my lord bishop's house with his feet in the stocks and attired with an ass' head and a bottle of hay before him and this subscription on his breast:

"Good people, I have played the beast And brought ill things to pass. I was a man, but thus have made Myself a silly ass."

Borneo's Tobacco Fields.

Tobacco is the chief product in North Borneo, and as land produces but one crop of tobacco in seven to nine years new fields must be cleared every year. After the jungle is cut and burned an army of Chinese coolies is turned on the land with hoes to dig it and prepare it for planting. No plows are used. The young tobacco plants are set out by hand and kept clean with hoes. It is necessary for a tobacco planter to possess thousands of acres of uncultivated land in reserve and to employ 500 to 1,000 coolies.

While returning from London one day last week on the evening train, George Mitchell sold a bottle of whiskey which he had purchased in the city, to a well-known resident of our town for one dollar. The purchaser, who never indulges in the strong stuff, bought the liquor supply to keep Mitchell, who had already had several drinks to the good, from indulging any more. The case was reported to Chief Wilson and shortly afterwards Mitchell appeared before P. M. Noble charged with the illegal sale of liquor. He acknowledged his guilt and was fined $100 and costs. The innocent purchaser of the whiskey, feeling that he was as much to blame as Mitchell, contributed $50.00 towards payment of the fine.—Strathroy Dispatch.

A quiet wedding took place at the parsonage, Wilkesport, on Saturday, Sept. 29, when Mr. Wesley N. Swain, of Fort Huron, was united in wedlock to Miss Lucy E. Davis, of Bradshaw. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Mead, of Watford.

Constipation

is an enemy within the camp. It will undermine the strongest constitution and ruin the most vigorous health. It leads to indigestion, biliousness, impure blood, bad complexion, sick headaches, and is one of the most frequent causes of appendicitis. To neglect it is slow suicide. ### ARE YOU DOING RIGHT OR WRONG

ARE you putting off getting glasses because you can't afford it and must do without them, or because you can't afford it and ARE doing without them?

No person can suffer with eye strain without worrying more or less about their eyes. Now it is a well-known fact that worrying does not bring relief, that is the wrong way to do. Take our advice—come here, let us examine your eyes and supply you with just the right glasses to entirely relieve your trouble. Your time will be well spent, your eyes will be well cared for here.

CARL CLASS
 JEWELER, ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

Twining—Cornell
 (Winnipeg Free Press Sept. 23.)

Ruby, of Smith's Falls, Ontario, was gowned in champagne bengaline, veiled with Limerick lace. Her hat, a Gainsborough of black velvet. Miss Irene Cornell wore a pretty frock of pale blue nylon and black satin hat. Mrs. W. G. Mulock, cousin of the groom, was becomingly attired in a gown of white crepe de chine and black velvet hat. Miss Winnifred Cox wore a gown of white satin and chignon and black hat, and Miss Violet Cox, of white satin and shawl lace, with black velvet hat. At the conclusion of the wedding service a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, 254 Nassau street. Sweet peas and roses were effectively arranged in the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Twining left on the 8 o'clock train for points east the bride wearing a handsome muff and stole of black fox, the gift of the groom.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 25th, nearly one hundred guests, friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. McKercher, of con. 12, Ennisville, assembled at their home to bid them farewell in their old home and wish them God-speed in their new one. Mr. McKercher has bought a home in Watford, having rented his farm, and will reside there. A programme was given of songs and recitations introduced by Rev. N. A. Campbell, pastor of St. Andrews, of which Mr. and Mrs. McKercher have been members for many years. The esteem in which they are held by their neighbors was attested by the presentation of a beautiful china cabinet in rich quartered oak, a splendid piece of furniture. An address was read by Wm. Dobbin, while the presentation was made by J. J. Hall. Mr. McKercher made a suitable reply. The removal of Mr. and Mrs. McKercher adds another evidence of the scarcity of farm help. They will be much missed in the church and in the community of which they have been so long faithful and earnest members.

Following is the address:—
 DEAR MR. AND MRS. MCKERCHER: We, your sincere friends, have gathered in your home this evening, without your consent, so we beg to apologize for intruding, nevertheless when you consider the spirit of the motive you will please excuse our intrusion. We have learned with regret that you have decided to sever your connections from amongst us, which takes two links out of the chain that binds us together as friends. You have been amongst us for 20 years or thereabouts, coming when this was called a wilderness of huge elm trees, which marks the place of your now comfortable home, we term you as pioneers of En-nisville township, who have with your constant effort hewn out a home in the bush. We can fully realize what you had to endure, still those were the happy days of recollection to refer back to in absence had to replace. We will miss you as a neighbor where you performed all the duties of kindness and generosity, and we feel that where you are going you will again make many friends. Now as a token of our remembrance of you, we are offering you a small acceptance this combination cabinet and may you always remember the spirit of the gifters through this day chain that is now severed may again be united in that great home in heaven where friends part no more.

Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors: John Hall, Edgar Penley, David Moore, Wm. Kettle, Wm. Dobbin

COMMUNICATIONS.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.]

DEAR MR. EDITOR—The conduct of certain individuals last Sabbath reveals that they are either evilly inclined or desperately ignorant of the Sabbath law, or both. One is rather surprised to see four young men in an orchard close to Watford, spend most of the afternoon playing cards, while others are engaged in hunting in the woods. About a mile and a half east of Watford cemetery several shots were heard during the afternoon. How we reached an age when quiet, law-abiding citizens on their way from church are forced to witness such violations of the Lord's Day Act of our land? No sir! These things together with our Sabbath labour supposed to be going on behind closed doors in Watford, must cease at once, otherwise the guilty parties will be given the limit of the law. This is the last note of warning.—ON-SERVER.

E. L. and S. S. Convention of the Samia District

The annual convention of the Epworth Leagues and Sunday schools of Samia District held in Parker street Methodist church, Samia, last Thursday and Friday, was a decided success. The addresses were most inspiring and helpful to all who attended. The instruction received from the discussions will benefit greatly the Epworth Leagues and Sunday School workers throughout the District. The many delegates returned to their homes with great hopes for the success of their work for the coming year. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows:—
 Chairman of District—Rev. W. H. Graham, Samia.
 Sunday School Secretary—Rev. A. J. Thomas, Forest.
 Epworth League President—Rev. A. Sinclair, Samia.
 1st Vice-President—Miss Donaldson, Forest.
 2nd Vice-President—Mrs. (Rev.) F. S. Ockell, Bridgen.
 3rd Vice-President—Miss Nichol, Wyoming.
 4th Vice-President—Mrs. Henry, Wilkesport.
 5th Vice-President—Miss Jackson, Oban.
 Secretary—Mrs. John Rice, Samia.
 Treasurer—Miss Pearl Dillabaugh, Samia.
 Conference Representative—Rev. C. R. Durant, Corunna.
 Wm. Southern, of Samia, was appointed by the convention to canvass the Leagues of the district for subscriptions for the Epworth Era.

GOOD BLOOD THE SECRET OF HEALTH

To be Healthy You Must Keep the Blood Rich, Red and Pure

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in any disease caused by thin or impure blood, and the list of such diseases is astonishingly large. Anaemia literally means a condition in which the blood is thin and watery. Chlorosis is a form of anaemia most common to growing girls. In rheumatism the blood becomes thin more rapidly than in any other disease. After an attack of a gripe or acute fevers the blood is always thin and impure, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the tonic to use during convalescence. When the blood is poor and thin the stomach suffers. The food ferments, gas and certain acids form and the trouble is pronounced indigestion or dyspepsia. The nerves receive from the blood all of their nourishment to keep up their energy and repair waste or damage, some forms of paralysis are caused by thin blood. The progress of locomotor ataxia is stopped in many cases when the blood is made pure, rich and red. This is only a partial list of the troubles having their origin in impure, watery blood, and all can be cured by supplying the blood with its missing constituents.

It was exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. Their chief mission is to make rich, red blood, and this good blood reaches every organ and every nerve in the human body, thus driving out disease and bringing renewed health and strength to thousands of weak, dependent people.

Ask your neighbors. There is not an inhabitant corner in Canada where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not restored some sufferer, and all over this country there are grateful people who do not hesitate to say they owe health—in some cases life itself—to this great medicine. If you are ailing begin to cure yourself to-day by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all dealers in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. From Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

How They Kiss

The Samia girl bows her stately head, And she fixes her stylish lip. In a firm hard way, and lets them go In spasmodic little snips.

The Wyoming girl says never a word, And you'd think she was rather tame With her practical views of the matter in hand, But she gets there just the same.

The Alvinston girl, the pride of the south In her clinging and soulful way, Absorbs it all with yearning yearn As big as a bale of hay.

The Forest girl gets a grip on herself, And she carefully takes off her hat; Then she grabs up the prize in a frightened way, Like a terrier shaking a rat.

The Petrolia girl rolls up her eyes, Puts her chewing gum out of the way Ah there! Stay there! Just my size, And the band begins to play.

The Stratroy girl removeth her specs, And freezeth her face with a smile; Then she sticks out her lips like an open book, And chews a pea-nut meanwhile.

The Watford girl, so gentle and sweet, Lets her lips meet the coming kiss With a rapturous warmth, and the youthful souls Float away on a sea of bliss.

Miracle Wheat

Los Angeles, Cal.
 This wheat was planted one grain to the hill and the hills nine inches apart. The soil was a black adobe. No fertilizer was used, and only once was the crop irrigated, and that after a prolonged dry spell.

The maximum number of stalks from one seed was 118, averaging about fifty. The height of the stalks was from six to over seven feet. The wheat heads were about five inches long, and each struck contained four grains.

The maximum number of grains to the head was ninety, averaging about sixty. The quality of the wheat has been pronounced by experts to be very superior. The yield was at the rate of 152 bushels to the acre. By actual weight the increase was 3336 fold.
