The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

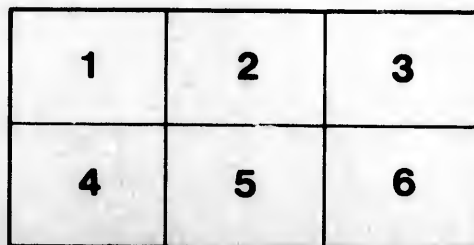

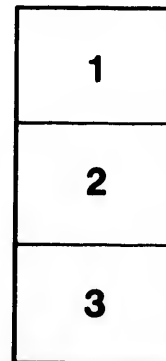

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

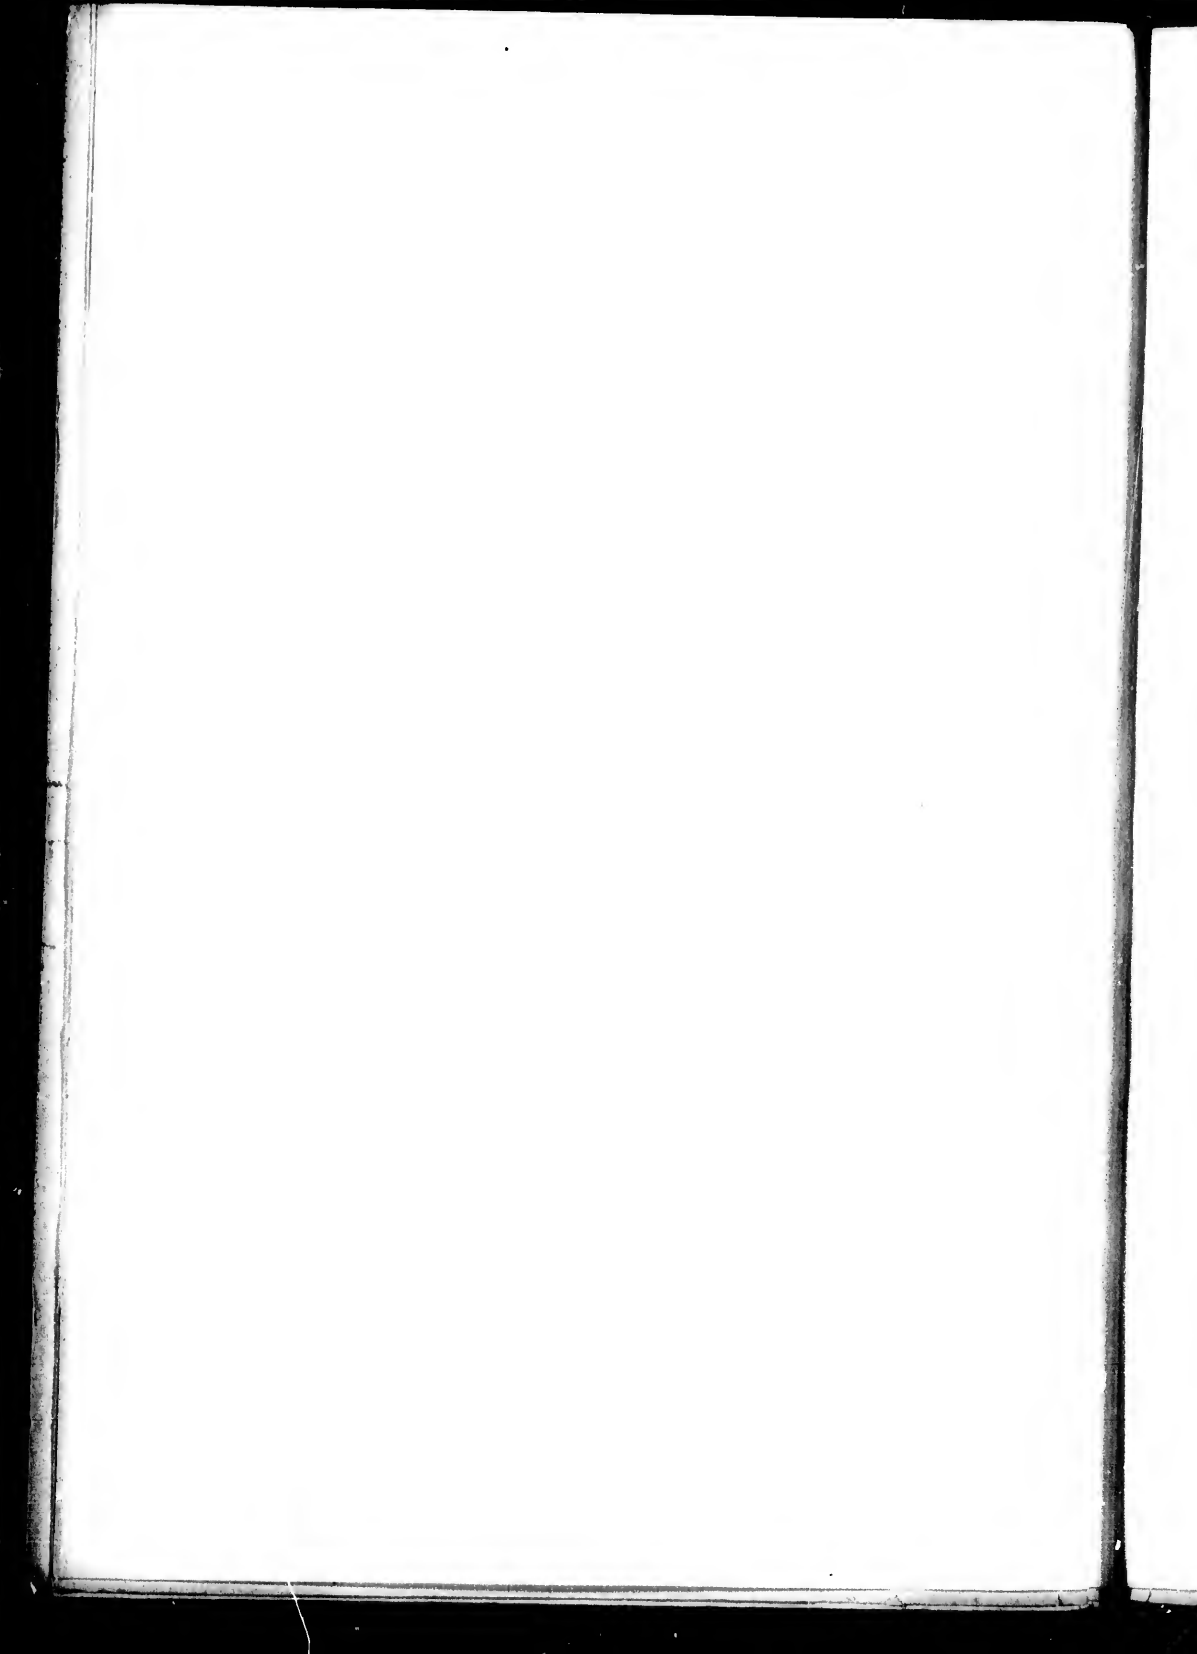

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Table, 1 leaf. J.C.B. 57300

A work of the greatest rarity, and the first great poem written in South America, by a native poet: on the same subject and in continuation of Ercilla's celebrated epic, "La Araucana," compared with which it is rather dull. It opens with the departure of D. G. H. de Mendoza for Chili, and concludes with the great naval combat of Callas between D. Beltram de Castro and the English Admiral Hawkins. Drake and his followers are called pirates. Its historical value is greater than its literary merit; and the student must refer to the stanzas of "Arauco Domado" (fortunately unembellished by a brilliant imagination) for many details of the conquest and settlement of Chili, not to be found in Ovalle or elsewhere. A second part, which the author promised at the end of this work, never appeared. See Ticknor's "History of Spanish Literature," ii. 465.

Ordre et Progrez du Triomphant et Magnifique Advènement du Roy [Henry II.] et de la Roynne de France en leur bonne ville de Rouen. Rouen. 1551. 4to. 57538

One of the many entertainments given by the city of Rouen, at the entry of Henry II. and Catharine of Medici, was a show of three hundred American Indians, representing them in their sports, pastimes, fights, and mode of living, in a place got up in imitation of the localities and general appearance of their native land. To make the show approach reality as near as possible, fifty wild Indians had been actually imported from Brasil.

The first and most rare edition of one of the most celebrated geographical works of the sixteenth century, of which there have been many subsequent editions, and in which the number of maps has been much increased. Stevens remarks: "A thorough study of Ortelius is of the last importance to the student of the geography of the western hemisphere. He was a bibliographer, a cartographer, and an antiquarian, as well as a good mathematician and geographer, and what is of infinite importance to us now, he gave his authorities. Many of the rampant errors that disturb and puzzle us can be freed and slayed by the help of Ortelius. It was Ortelius' famous list of authorities that first gave to Humboldt the hint that Hylacomilus and Waldseemuller were one and the same person, the key to his investigations upon the St. Dié fraternity, and the Vespucci voyages."

First edition, in Dutch. Though the first Latin edition bears the date of 1570, and may have seen the light before this, yet there are evidences that this Dutch edition was the one in which the work was composed. The maps are each the same.

ORTEL. Theatrum Orbis Terrarum. Theatrum oder Schawplatz des erdbodems, warin di Landtafell der gantzen weldt zu sehen ist, ihietz mitt vielen neuwen Landtafflen gemehret. [n. p.] 1573. The rarest issue of the atlas of Ortelius. The map of the New Wor'd is singularly correct and full of detail.

ORTEL. Theatrum oder Schawbuch des Erdtkreys ... Antorff. 1580. Folio. Portrait and 93 sheets of Maps. 57707

In this second German issue the text is entirely re-written, and the barbarous language of the edition of 1572 is changed. Twenty-four additional maps are added, of which two have a special value for the American collector.

From the constant use made of this excellent work by Irving, Prescott, Ticknor and Bancroft, it is manifest that it should hold high rank among books relating to America, especially as much that we know of Columbus and his sons Diego and Ferdinand, his brother Bartholomew, Las Casas, Cortes, and many others, is found only in this volume.

The writer, a native of Boston, was one of the first and most influential of the controversialists on the popular side. This piece was read in ms. to the Massachusetts House of Representatives, and was published with their knowledge though not by their orders. The Instructions of May, 1764, in the Appendix, were drawn by Samuel Adams. See Kennedy's "Memoirs of the Life of Wirt," II. 49. An excessively rare production of Ricardo's Mexican press. In the archbishop's licence, he is said to be allowed to print the works there mentioned (nearly all of which are Latin classics) "para la frecuencia y continuacion de los Estudios de los Collegios adjacentes y annexos à la dicha Compañia (de Jesus) y de los de mas estudiantes desta ciudad."

OVIDIUS. Ovid's | Metamorphosis | English'd, | Mythologiz'd, | And Represented in Figures. | An Essay to the Translation | of Virgil's Æneis. | By G. S. | Imprinted at Oxford, | By John Lichfield, | An. Dom. MDCXXXII. Folio, Frontispiece, engraved and printed Titles, pp. (16), 550. 16 Plates. BA., c. 57984

The first translation of a classic into the English language made on this continent. The translator was George Sandys, who was Secretary to the Colony of Virginia at that time. See the dedication. Also on large paper. The translator is better known as a traveler than as a poet. See Wood's "Athenæ," ii. 46, Brydges' "Censura Liter.," v. 231, and Fry's "Bibliog. Mem.," 14. The first edition is dated 1626. The third edition, London: Imprinted by R. B. for Andrew Hebb ... MDCCXXXVIII. 18mo, pp. (4), 316, (10). Other editions, 1640, 1673, 1678, and 1682.

"Entirely different from the 'Natural Hystoria de las Indias,' No. 57987, supra. "This first part contains nineteen books, and, we think, a portion of the fiftieth (on shipwrecks). These nineteen and a half books were republished at Salamanca, in 1547. In 1557, the twentieth book, which is the first of the second part, was printed separately. No other portion of this work appeared in print until 1851." For further particulars consult [Harrisse], No. 207.

Extremely rare. Comprises the first ten books of Oviedo. It differs from the previous number only in having the translator's name on the title. Ternaux, No. 47, places this under 1536.

[OVIEDO.] L'Histoire de la | Terre Nevve dv | Perù en l'Inde Occidentale, qui | est la principale mine d'or du monde, naguères descou- | uerte, & conquise, & | nommée la nou- | uelle Castille, | Traduictte de l'Italian en François. | ... | On les vend à Paris au Palais en la Galerie | par ou on va à la Chancellerie en la | boutique de Vincent Sertenas. | 1545. | Avec Privilege. | [Colophon:] Imprimé à paris par Pierre Gaul- | tier, pour Jehan Barbé & Vincent Sertenas. | 1545. | Sm. 4to, (4) and (49) leaves. J.C.B. 57994

The last two lines of leaf Bij read: "L'auteur est Gonzalo Ferdinando del Ouiedo natif de Madril q̄ a faict l'histoire generale, dõt est extrait ce sun.maire." Corrected title of our No. 32018. The translation is said to be by Jacques Gohory. See [Harris], No. 264.

"The work of Oviedo, who resided more than twenty years in America, is the fountain head whence most succeeding writers have drawn their accounts of the early occurrences in the New World."—RICH. "Among the persons who early came to America, and have left important records of their adventures and times, one of the most considerable was Gonzalo F. de Oviedo."—TICKNOR'S Hist. Spanish Lit., i. 561. "With all his obvious defects, Oviedo showed an enlightened curiosity, and a shrewd spirit of observation, which place him far above the ordinary range of chroniclers."—PRXCOTT'S Hist. of the Conquest of Mexico, ii. 293, note. Las Casas remarks: "Oviedo should have written at the head of his history: This book was written by a conqueror, robber and murderer of the Indians, whole populations of whom he consigned to the mines, where they perished."—Gen. Hist. de las Indias, ms. cap. xliii. See also our Vol. i., No. 1565.

The second part is said to have been destroyed by the aristocratic families of Venezuela on account of its containing the history of their beginnings, which were in many cases anything but aristocratic. This story, however, appears rather improbable.

PAGAN (Blaise François de). Relation Historique et Geographique, de la grande Riviere des Amazones dans l'Amérique | Par Le Comte de Pagan. | Extraicte de diuers Auteurs, & reduitte en | meilleure forme. | Avec la Carte ... | A Paris: Chez Cardin Bessongne ... | M. DC. LVI. 8vo, pp. (10), 190. Map. 58141

Several chapters of this curious work are devoted to descriptions of the aborigines of the valley of the Amazon; and those treating of the advantages of commerce with them, suggest an odd comparison with the works of our own day, written two centuries later, which do but little more than repeat the same statements. It is composed principally from that of Acuna.

PAGAN. An Historical & Geographical Description of the Great Country & River of the Amazones in America. Drawn out of Divers Authors, and reduced into a better forme; with a Mapp of the River, and of its Provinces, being that place which Sr Walter Rawleigh intended to conquer and plant, when he made his Voyage to Guiana. Written in French by the Count of Pagan, and dedicated to Cardinal Mazarine, in order to a Conquest by the Cardinals motion to be undertaken. And now translated into English by William Hamilton ... London: Printed for John Starkey at the Miter in Fleet-Street near Temple-Barre. 1661. 8vo, pp. (30), 153, (6). Map. H. 58142

The map is usually missing.

"With these 'Additions,' Paine had nothing to do. The pamphlet was made up by Robert Bell, the original publisher, after his quarrel with Paine, to be bound with the third edition of 'Common Sense,' with Paine's own Additions and 'Appendix.' The publication was a device to help the sale of Bell's edition against the one printed about the same time by W. and T. Bradford, who had become Paine's publishers."—J. H. TRUMBULL. "Mr. Paine complains of Washington for not having interfered for his liberation, when a prisoner in France, in the time of Robespierre; accuses him of wanting gratitude and humanity, and attacks his military skill, which he pronounces inferior to that of Generals Gates and Green."—Monthly Review, xxii. 216.

Mr. Paine was no admirer of Washington and thus addresses him: "Elevated to the chair of the presidency, you assumed the merit of everything to yourself; and the natural ingratitude of your constitution began to appear. You commenced your presidential career by encouraging and swallowing the grossest adulation; and you travelled America from one end to the other to put yourself in the way of receiving it. You have as many addresses in your chest as James the Second. As to what were your views, for you are not great enough to have ambition, though you are little enough to have vanity, they cannot be inferred from expressions of your own; but the partizans of your politics have divulged the secret."

"Palafox was a second Las Casas in representing to the Spanish Government the wretched condition of the Americans, and in advocating its amelioration. His zeal and humanity were most conspicuous in this exposition addressed to the King, in which he has described with much ingenuousness the good dispositions of the natives. The work has thence acquired the title of the 'Virtudes del Indio.' But so true has it always been that Veritas odium parit, that secrecy was necessary in printing the book without any title-page, date, or place of publication; and it has become one of the scarcest works relating to the affairs of America." See Brunet, iv. 313. Ternaux dates it 1650. See Stevens's "Historical Nuggets," No. 2084.

With the Substance of their Conferences on that Occasion. London: Printed ... by S. Clark. MDCLXI. 18mo, pp. 21.

"His speeches are models of good sense and religious conviction; but the most remarkable of all the addresses by American Indians, was made by him to the Governor, who offered him a considerable, and to the chief very valuable amount of goods, as a present. The dignified and noble reply, in which he declined to receive them, on the ground that his visit was entirely for religious instruction, and therefore of too sacred a character to admit of the gross indulgence of personal desires, is worthy of a place on the same page with the most renowned sayings of the heroes of antiquity. The book is rare."—FIELD.

A very rare and curious newspaper, published during the war, and consisting mainly of satirical attacks upon the Brazilians and their allies, which are written and illustrated with much ability notwithstanding the rudeness of the cuts. Specimens of the native tongue occur in every number. This journal shows clearly the strong national feeling of the Paraguayans and their unshaken attachment to Lopez at that time.

PARKER (T.) The Copy of a Letter Written by Mr. Thomas Parker, Pastor of the Church of Newbury in New-England, to His Sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Avery, Sometimes of Newbury in the County of Berks, Touching Sundry Opinions by her Professed and Maintained.—Novemb. 22, 1649. Imprimatur John Downname. London: Printed by John Field. 1650. 4to, pp. (4), 20. 58769

Extremely rare. It seems to have escaped the search of even Mr. Sibley, who puts Woodbridge's tract on "Justification by Faith," 1652, as first in the brief list of his publications, and remarks that that "is probably the second work printed by any Harvard graduate." This little tract refutes some heretical opinions maintained by his "very loving sister" in reference to which, Cotton, Wilson, and Noyes also corresponded with her.

This first report was made by Commissioner Ellsworth; from 1837 to 1840 inclusive, these reports formed an appendix to the President's message; after this date they were published separately. To the report for 1843 was appended a list of the claims of the patents issued, which was published in the form of an appendix until 1849-50, when it was embodied in the report. By an act of Congress, March 3, 1849, the commissioner was required to add to his report the Agricultural Department. Previous to 1849-50 the Mechanical and Agricultural Departments of the report were published in one volume; since that time the volumes have appeared annually. The report for 1853 was the first in which the patents issued were illustrated by cuts.

Es Autor de una y otra el R. P. Fr. Pedro Pablo Patiño. Mexico. 1801. 8vo, pp. 16, 138.

A very important work as regards the ecclesiastical history of Mexico. "One of the notable Saints of Mexico, not so much for miraculous origin like that of Guadalupe, but for its preservation, being painted on a wall of adobe or clay. The manuscript documents accompanying show that although its origin is claimed to have been in 1695, it attracted the attention of the Archbishop and the Inquisition in 1745, and here is the original order to stop such worship, to close the doors and windows of the oratorio where it was, and to cover the image. It was also ordered to discontinue the collection of money, and to deliver up the whole property existing. Like the Guadalupe apparition the antiquity of origin is shown by these papers to have been a later idea. But by efforts here shown the image triumphed, and we have the order of the Virey, Feb. 18, 1770, to collect money, and the plan of the Contador, Sept. 4, 1785, to give greater splendor to the worship of this 'Imagen Portentosa.'"—STEVENS'S Biblioteca Historica.

PATTIE (J. O.) The Personal Narrative of James O. Pattie, of Kentucky, during an Expedition from St. Louis, through the Vast Regions between that Place and the Pacific Ocean, and thence back through the City of Mexico to Vera Cruz, during Journeys of Six Years; in which he and his Father, who accompanied him, suffered unheard of Hardships and Dangers, had various Conflicts with the Indians, and were made Captives, in which Captivity his Father died: together with a Description of the Country, and the various Nations through which they passed. Edited by Timothy Flint. Cincinnati: E. H. Flint. 1833. 8vo, pp. 300. 5 Plates. BA. 59150

"Possesses more than the ordinary interest and value, which attaches to the stories of adventurers. He crossed the continent of America on a route which his party were the first to pursue. He encountered tribes of Indians who then saw a white man for the first time, and his narrative has the merit of being given in a candid, unexaggerated style, which impresses us with its veracity."—FIELD.

The second volume was published in 1769; and the third, being a defense of the two first, against the Abbé Pernetty, in 1770. Vol. III. has in addition to the above title: "Nouvelle édition augmentée d'une Dissertation Critique par Dom Pernetty; & de la Défense de l'Auteur des Recherches contre cette Dissertation." The author endeavors to show the inferior character of everything American, especially the inhabitants, and his work evoked considerable controversy. It contains a very curious account of the "Hermaphrodites de la Floride," and the custom of "Circconcision" and "Infibulation."

Nicholas Ferrar was Deputy Governor of the Virginia Company while the Earl of Southampton was Governor. He was also one of the managers or council of the company, the third associate being Sir Edward Sandys. Ferrar too, was for a time king's counsel for the company. He was born in 1592 and died in 1637. He is noticed in Wood's "Athenæ Oxoniensis" and by Chalmers.

This volume contains many documents and facts pertaining to Virginia no where else to be met with, and is, to the American historian, of the highest value. It contains the only authentic account we have of the royal high-handed dissolution of the Virginia Company through the intrigues of Gondimar, compiled from materials which are now believed to be lost. This work was reprinted with additions from a ms. in the Lambeth library in Wordsworth's "Ecclesiastical Biography." New Edition, abridged, London, 1833, fcap 8vo.

PEIRCE [James]. A Tractate on Church Music; being an Extract from the Reverend and Learned Mr. Peirce's Vindication of the Dissenters. ... London. MDCCLXXXVI. 8vo, pp. 31.

"Inscribed to the reverend Doctor Chauncy and the reverend Mr. John Clark, the Ministers; and to the several members of the First Congregational Dissenting Church in Boston in America." "The interest of this tract is considerably enhanced by a knowledge of the circumstances which called it forth. It is well known that Mr. Tho. Brande Hollis, one of the benefactors of Harvard College, had acquired widespread reputation for wealth and liberality, and was not unfrequently subjected to calls for considerable sums of money for objects in which he had either no sympathy, or did not feel that he should be bled. Among these applications was one from Dr. Charles Chauncy and the pillars of the First Congregational Church of Boston for £500, to buy an Organ. Instead of granting this extraordinary request from a well-to-do Society, Mr. Brande Hollis caused, it is said, 500 copies of this Tractate to be printed and sent over to the Members of the Society, endeavoring thereby to inculcate in them that modesty and simplicity in their public worship, which they seemed for the moment to be outgrowing."—STEVENS.

Sm. 8vo, pp. 67. L. 59561

A catechism for the use of the Quiripi Indians of New Haven Colony, in English and Indian (interlinear). The only known copy with this, the original title, is in the Lenox Library. Another copy, in the British Museum, reads, after "Abraham Peirson," ] "Pastor of the Church at Branford. [Examined and approved by that] Experienced Gentleman (in the In- [dian language) Captain [John Scot." ] and, in the imprint, "Cambridge: Printed for Samuel Green." This alteration was made after the publication of the book, and probably in England. These are the only copies known to be preserved. The first sheet of the catechism was reprinted in London, in 1659, at the end of "A Further Account of the Progresse," etc. See our Vol. vi., No. 22149. The whole was reprinted, with an introduction, by J. Hammond Trumbull, in an edition of one hundred copies, Hartford, 1873. It should be noted that the author wrote his name Pierson, though it is Peirson on the title-page.

PENHALLOW (S.) The | History | of the | Wars of New-England, | With the Eastern Indians. | Or, A | Narrative | Of their continued Perfidy and Cruelty, | from the 10th of August, 1703. | To the Peace renewed 13th of July, 1713. | And from the 25th of
July, 1722. | To their Submission 15th December, 1725. | Which was Ratified August 5th, 1726. | By Samuel Penhallow, Esqr. | ... |
Boston: Printed by T. Fleet, for S. Gerrish ... 1726. Sm. 8vo, pp. (2), iv, (2), 134, (1). c., w. 59654

This work, in any condition, ranks among the rarest of New England imprints, while a perfect copy with good margin, is very difficult to obtain. The author was born in Cornwall, England, July, 1665, and arrived in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, July, 1686. He held many important offices of public trust with great honor, being Chief Justice of the Province, at the period of his death, in December, 1726, at the age of sixty-one. His work on the Indian wars is esteemed as the highest authority on that subject. His design in emigrating was to serve the corporation for the propagation of the gospel among the Indians, as a missionary, after he had made himself acquainted with their language. Whether he ever really performed that service is uncertain.

Penn's part was reprinted, London: ... T. Sowle ... 1699. 8vo. Both parts reprinted, with other pieces, by the same authors, entitled: The Christian Quaker, and his Divine Testimony stated and vindicated, by William Penn & George Whitehead. ... Philadelphia: Printed ... by Joseph Rakestraw. 1824. 8vo.

PENN. A Collection of the Works of William Penn. ... To which is prefixed A Journal of His Life. With many Original Letters and Papers Not before Published. ... London: ... The Assigns of J. Sowle ... . 1726. 2 vols., folio, pp. (8), 911; (4), 916, 18. B., J.C.B., C., P. 59690

The catalogue of the library of Congress gives a copious list of contents of these volumes.

PENN. A Defence of a Paper, Entituled, Gospel-Truths, against the Exceptions of the Bishop of Cork's Testimony. By W. Penn. London: ... T. Sowle ... . 1698. Sm. 8vo, pp. (6). 119. c. + The Second Edition. [n. p.:] Printed in the Year, 1698. Sm. 8vo. 59691

Also on large paper. A curious little volume.

[PENN.] The Description of the Province of West-Jersey, in America: as also Proposals to such who desire to have any Propriety therein. [n. p. about 1676.] Folio, 1 leaf. 59692

[PENN.] England's Present Interest discover'd with Honour to the Prince, and Safety to the People. In Answer to this one Question; What is most Fit, Easie and Safe at this Juncture of Affairs to be done, for Composing, at least Quieting of Differences; Allaying the Heat of contrary Interests, & making them Subservient to the Interest of the Government, and Consistent with the Prosperity of the Kingdom? Presented and submitted to the Consideration of Superiours. ... [n. p.:] Printed in the Year, 1675. Small 4to, pp. (4), 62. c. + [Second Edition. Ibid.] H. + [n. p. n. d.] 4to. + London: ... T. Sowle ... . 1698. 12mo. 59693

It appears that two editions were printed in 1675. The second may be known by having Penn's name on the title-page, also by having the errata in the first edition corrected in the second. Also reprinted anonymously, entitled: England's True Interest considered, with Honour to the Prince and Safety to the People. The Fifth Edition. London: ... E. Baldwin ... . 1702. 12mo.

PENN. Exposition Succincte de l'Origine et des Progrès du Peuple qu'on appelle les Quakers ou les Trembleurs: ... Par Guillaume Penn. in London, 1683. Folio, pp. 10, Lot Holders, (4). Plan of Philadelphia. B. 59712*

One of the first printed accounts of Philadelphia by the founder of the colony, and is of the highest interest to a Pennsylvania collector. There were two editions. In the second, "Proprietary" is corrected to "Proprietary," and the signature varies from "Your Kind Cordial Friend," in the first, to "Your Kind and Cordial Friend" in the second. The plan and list of lot holders are usually deficient. For a Dutch version, see "Missive," No. 59716, infra.

An improved title of our No. 36981, Vol. ix. The first work of the first printer of Philadelphia and New York, and of superlative rarity. An address "To the Reader," by the Editor, dated "Philadelphia, the 3d of the 10th Month (December) Anno 1685," occupies the second and half the third page, and is followed by one from "The Printer to the Readers," subscribed by "W. Bradford, Philadelphia, the 28th, 10th Month." It begins: "Hereby understand that after great Charge and Trouble, I have brought the great Art and Mystery of Printing into this part of America, believing it may be of great service to you in several respects," etc.

This cause was of great consequence, not only on account of the property depending on its decision, but because the following questions were determined upon solemn argument. First, that the owners of letters of marque are responsible for injuries committed on the high seas, by the commanders of vessels sent out by them. Secondly, that in cases of capture from enemies, persons in other vessels acquire no rights, merely by seeing the capture made. Thirdly, that the judge of admiralty may legally take cognizance in similar cases, and that the appeal in such cases to a higher court is irregular.

Numb. 1. The Universal Instructor in all Arts and Sciences: and Pennsylvania Gazette. To be continued Weekly. Decemb. 24. 1728. Philadelphia: Printed by Samuel Keimer ... . Folio, pp. (4). 60754

Keimer's prospectus, dated October 1, 1728, promises "that each Person who preserves these Papers, will possess the richest Mine of useful Knowledge (of the Kind ever before discover'd, except of late in Europe." Keimer in No. xiii. states that he printed two hundred and fifty copies, while Franklin says he had never more than ninety subscribers. With the 39th number Keimer's connection with the paper ceased, and No. 40 appeared as "The Pennsylvania Gazette. Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick. From Thursday, September 25, to Thursday, October 2, 1729." Philadelphia: Printed by B. Franklin and H. Meredith ... . With No. 44 the paper became bi-weekly, appearing Mondays and Thursdays. At No. 56 it became weekly, appearing Tuesdays to No. 66, continuing bi-weekly to No. 70, when it settled down to a weekly, appearing on Thursday, with occasional exceptions, until July 29, 1772, when the day was changed to Wednesday. The imprint was changed in No. 180 to Philadelphia: Printed by B. Franklin, at the New-Printing-Office near the Market. It remained the same until Oct. 6, 1737 (No. 460), when Post-Master was added after Franklin. The paper continued a small folio, generally four pages, until Oct. 6, 1739, when it was reduced to small quarto, double columns, the date transferred to the top of the page in the left corner, and a cut of the provincial arms, which was retained until No. 2533, was added. The sheet was enlarged in February, 1741-2, to three columns, and further enlarged in 1749, to the size it ever after maintained. In January, 1747, D. Hall's name was added to the imprint, and remained until October 31, 1765, thence to February 13, 1766, there is no imprint. From this last date till May 1, 1766, it was Printed by David Hall; from May 8, 1766, to Dec. 23, 1772, it was Printed by D. Hall and W. Sellers, and afterward Hall & Sellers. The paper was suspended from November 27, 1776 (No. 2501), to February 5, 1777 (No. 2502), and the regular issue ceased with September 10, 1777 (No. 2533), which was not resumed till January 5, 1779 (No. 2534), when it appeared as "The Pennsylvania Gazette and Weekly Advertiser." In the interim some twenty-five issues, of various sizes and irregular dates, were printed at York, Pa. The publication was continued with some interruptions until 1830.

A Perfect Description of | Virginia : | Being, | A full and true Relation of the present State | of the Plantation, their Health, Peace, and Plenty : the number | of people, with their abundance of Cattell, Fowl, Fish, &c. with severall | sorts of rich and good Commodities, which may there be had, either | Naturally, or by Art and Labour. Which we are fain to | procure from Spain, France, Denmark, Swedeland, Germany, | Poland, yea, from the East-Indies. There | having been nothing related of the | true estate of this Planta- | tion these 25 years. | Being sent from Virginia, at the request of a Gentleman of worthy note, who desired to know the true State of Virginia as it now stands. | Also, | A Narration of the Countrey, within a few | dayes journey of Virginia, West and by South, where people come | to trade: being related to the Governour, Sir William Berckley, | who is to go himselfe to discover it with 30 horse, and 50 foot, | and other things needfull for his enterprize. | With the manner how the Emperor Nichotawance | came to Sir William Berckley, attended with five petty Kings, | to doe Homage, and bring Tribute to King Charles. With his solemne Protestation, that the Sun and Moon should lose | their Lights, before he (or his people in that Country), should prove disloyall, but ever to keepe Faith | and Allegiance to King Charles. | London, Printed for Richard Wode- noth, at the Star under Peters | Church in Cornhill. 1649. | 4to, pp. (4), 19. 60918

The "Metallic Tractors," which were invented by Dr. Elisha Perkins of Connecticut, gained an extensive notoriety in 1796, and many cures were attributed to them. The doctor's son, Benjamin Douglas Perkins, went to London, where he established a Perkinsian institute, and published several pamphlets and books concerning them. The "tractors," however, were attacked and ridiculed by the medical profession, and in a few years lost their reputation. For an amusing account of them see [Fessenden's] "Terrible Tractoration," our vol. vi. 24218. See also Thacher's "Am. Medical Biography," p. 422.

The first edition is very rare. The so-called second edition differs only in the substitution of a new title-page. Reprinted again as follows:

PETERS. The Rev. Samuel Peters' LL.D. General History of Connecticut, from its first settlement under George Fenwick to its latest period of amity with Great Britain prior to the Revolution; including a Description of the Country, and many curious and interesting Anecdotes. With an appendix, pointing out the causes of the Rebellion in America; together with the particular part taken by the people of Connecticut in its promotion. By a Gentleman of the Province. London: 1781. To which are added, Additions to Appendix, Notes, and Extracts from Letters, verifying many important Statements made by the Author. By Samuel Jarvis M<sup>c</sup>Cormick. New York: D. Appleton and Company. 1877. 12mo, pp. 285. 61210

Dr. Peters, the "Parson Peters" of Trumbull's M<sup>c</sup>Fingal, was born at Hebron, Connecticut, in 1735; graduated at Yale College in 1759, and took charge of the Episcopal church at his native place in 1762. On the breaking out of the American Revolution in 1774, he made himself particularly obnoxious by his prominence and activity as a royalist. He was mobbed and obliged to flee to England, where he remained until 1805, when he returned to America. He died at New York in 1826, and his remains were removed to Hebron for burial. His History of Connecticut, which is a remarkable tissue of misstatements and exaggerations, is very severe in its reflections upon the inhabitants of that State, to whom he attributes some fictitious "Blue Laws." It also contains a curious account of "boundling," and a description of a midnight invasion of Windham by frogs, and the consequent terror and flight of the inhabitants. Speaking of the upper Cohoes Falls, he says: "Here water is consolidated, without frost, by pressure, by swiftness, between the pinching, sturdy rocks, to such a degree of induration, that no iron crow can be forced into it: here iron, lead, and cork, have one common weight." Dr. Peters also wrote a brief History of Hebron. "That most unscrupulous and malicious of lying narratives, Peters' history of Connecticut."—Dr. L. BACON. "The Lying History."—Anal. Mag. iv. 49. "That mass of folly and falsehood commonly called Peters's History of Connecticut."—Dr. DWIGHT. See Professor Kingsley's "Historical Discourse," 38; "Monthly Review," LXVI. 250; Duyckinck, 1.; Dwight's "Travels," iii. 495; Palfrey's "New England," 11.

PETERS. A History of the Rev. Hugh Peters, A.M. ... By the Rev. Samuel Peters, LL.D. New York: The Author. 1807. 12mo, pp. vi, 155. Portrait. BA., c. 61211

The appendix contains much interesting matter relating to "William Peters of Boston, in N. E., 1634, and of his Children and Descendants." For two pamphlets, which have been attributed to Samuel Peters, see Viator (J.), pseudon.

PETERS. A Sermon, preached at Charlotte Chapel, Pimlico, the 25th of March, 1787, on the death of Thomas Moffatt, M.D. Late of New London, in Connecticut ... . By Samuel Peters, A.M. London: D. & D. Bond. 1787. 4to, pp. 28. + [Ibid.] 1788. 4to. 61212

Dedicated to General Gage, as a mark of the author's gratitude to him "for his generous support of the Pious, the Loyal, and Brave." Dr. Moffatt was a reputable physician of New London, and held the office of Controller of the Customs at the beginning of the Revolution, when, says his reverend eulogist "the Libertines 'gnashed on him with their teeth,' as the Cyrenians did on Stephen, because he was loyal to his King, ... and like the deaf Adder, they 'stopped their Ears, ran upon him, and cast him out of the City'" (p. 24).—J.
