In this connection I think it right to state that the regular and punctual service of these steamers has done much to promote a strong community of interest between the West Indies and Canada, and the growing trade which is being done each year in sugar, and which has been increased solely by the facilities of shipment afforded by these boats, bids for a very important branch of trade. Imports of Canadian products are also a means for the West Indies, and the demand for certain goods is a daily increasing."

ODDS ON THE BIG FIGHT. Plenty of Fitzsimmons Money in Sight in New York at 10 to 11 - Corbett a Hot Favorite in Britain.

Previous to the Hot Springs Affair Corbett was a 2 to 1 favorite over Fitzsimmons, and Corbett cash went begging at those odds in New York. For the present engagement there has been some change of front, by the betting fraternity.

The odds have shifted in favor of Fitzsimmons. For some time past the figures on the market have been 10 to 1, but they have now jumped to 10 to 5.

Ten to night on Corbett are the ruling odds in Chicago, and there is plenty of Corbett money to be had at that price, and so far very few bets have been made, and none only for small amounts.

BRIDGE, Ont., Feb. 19. - 10:50 p.m. (Special.) - The Great Hammond-Tough murder trial is ended for the present, and the jury, surrounded by a throng of "Tough-Hammond" is unseated. The jury has just returned to the court, after being out nearly five hours, and announce that they cannot agree on a verdict. The jury room at 9:45, and a few minutes after took his seat on the bench. The sheriff came up from the jury room and whispered something to His Lordship. This followed a wait of a few minutes. The jury then returned. The room was as still as death.

Then a noise on the stairs was heard. The jury entered, the foreman leading the clerk a piece of paper. The jury was written several questions for the admission of the Constable William Widdie.

Lordship briefly explained the matter, saying that he had called that this evidence should be taken, and that the prisoner had made the statement voluntarily.

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. Mr. Johnston's Address Was on the Line of the Suicide Theory.

BRIDGE, Ont., Feb. 19. (Special.) - The court room has been packed to-day, and many were unable to gain admittance. A peculiar feature of the trial has been the presence of the "Tough-Hammond" crowd, which has been in the court since the trial began.

THE PRISONER, on being brought in after the verdict, looked pale, and while waiting for the jury to return, he was seen to look at the jury with a nervous expression.

GAS VERSUS ELECTRICITY.

Hamilton Public Library Board Has a Warm Discussion Over the Merits of the Light.

Hamilton, Feb. 19. (Special)—A special meeting of the building committee of the Public Library Board was held this evening to decide whether the Public Library should be lit by gas or electricity.

The Hamilton Electric Light Company offered to do the lighting for $200 and the Auer Gas Light Company for $300 per annum.

The chairman of the committee, Mr. Keenick, was in favor of giving the Auer Company a trial, Mr. Keenick, who is a strong man on statistics, read letters from the libraries of Toronto, Syracuse, Buffalo and Chicago, to the effect that gas is better.

Mr. F. W. Fearman, in utter contradiction to his name, earnestly took the other side and called for economy.

The electric light did not properly light up the library, nor the streets.

Dr. Lytle, who is looked at askance by his clerical brethren for his views on evolution, in dealing with the question, huddled over with his ministers, he said, were not supposed to be business men, but they had common sense.

THE SCORE WAS 6 TO 1

Toronto Team Showed Good Defence, But Were Weak on Goal.

At Half Time the score was 3 to 0—Peck Morrison Made the Only Successful Shot for Varsity—Two Thousand Enthusiastic Spectators at the Game—Percy Brown a Great Referee.

Queen's will again be champions. At the Caledonian rink last night before 2000 enthusiastic spectators they defeated Varsity by 6 goals to 1. At half time the score was 3 to 0. It looked as if Varsity would not score, and several wagers were made that way.

The score was one-sided, which does not indicate the character of the game. At times Varsity made some brilliant plays, but their forwards lost many chances while, on the other hand, everyone of Queen's players was in his place and ready to play. The feeling of the crowd was that the score would have been a great deal larger. The feeling of the crowd was that the score would have been a great deal larger.

MR. RHODES AGAIN TESTIFIES

Before the Commission for Transvaal Troubles.

THE HALL WAS CROWDED

And a Great Deal of Interest Was Shown by the Spectators.

The Ex-Premier of Cape Colony Did Not Tell the High Commissioner That He Was Actively Engaged in Promoting an Insurrection—The Object of the Hearing Was to Obtain a Vote as to Whether the People Favored a Union of the White & South Africa—Other Cable News.

London, Feb. 19.—The South African committee, appointed by the House of Commons, to enquire into the troubles in the Transvaal, and particularly the raid made by Dr. Jameson and his followers into the Boer territory, resumed its sittings in Westminster Hall to-day, after a two-days' recess. The hall was crowded with distinguished spectators. Mr. Cecil Rhodes, formerly Premier of the Cape Colony, who was under examination by the committee at the time of the adjournment on Tuesday, was again called to the witness stand. Mr. Rhodes was examined as to the cypher despatches which passed between him and the members of the South African States and others prior to the Jameson raid, and were later exhibited as evidence at the trial of the members of the Johannesburg Reform Committee at Pretoria.

In the course of the examination Mr. Rhodes the chairman of the committee referred to the British High Commissioner, Sir Hercules Robinson, (now Lord Rosmead), who he said that he had advised the Commissioner that if any rising should occur in the Transvaal, he would better mediate between the revolting party and President Kruger, with a view to the settlement of the civil rights. Witness had gathered from what the Commissioner said that he intended to act as mediator, in accordance with his suggestion, and therefore gave his personal pledge to the committee that he would do so. The Commissioner would go to that place if Rhodes admitted in answer to a direct question that he had not told the High Commissioner in promoting an insurrection, the object of the rising, Mr. Rhodes admitted that he had endeavored to ascertain whether the people were in favor of a union of the whole of South Africa, or whether the administration of local affairs should be left to the Transvaal Government. Mr. Rhodes said: "You may be sure that I was not going to risk my position by changing President Kruger for President Rhodes."

THE HAMILTON ART SCHOOL

Is Doing Practical Work for Youngsters.

DIFFERENT LINES TAUGHT.

Description of the Place by The World's Correspondent.

Paintings Done by Novices Which Would Be Credit to Mature Artists—Life-Size Figures in the "Cass" Room—Pen and Ink Sketches for Books—Architectural and Mechanical Drawings—Stained Glass Designs—General News From the Ambitious City.

Hamilton, Feb. 19.—(Special.)—Of the many public institutions of which Hamilton is justly proud, there is none doing a better or more practical work than the Art School. The school occupies two of the western stories in the Public Library Building, and the sister story accordingly work-hand in hand in their elevating labor for the World all through the place. The principal's cozy room is a gallery in itself, and is with the work of the school's best students. Here, also, are the sketches of the school's best students. Here, also, are the sketches of the school's best students. Here, also, are the sketches of the school's best students.

THE GAST ROOM.

Leaving this room by its eastern door the principal leads the way to the "Cass" room, roomy and well lighted, where look you will, the eye falls on life-sized figures in wax, the Shave of Michael Angelo, and exquisite sketches of the school's best students. A class was engaged here in pen and ink drawing for book illustrations, the work being supervised by one of our Russell, son of Dr. Russell of the Asylum.

PANCY SUBJECTS.

In the adjoining room a class of young ladies were drawing from fancy subjects, grouped to suit the idea of the most aesthetic. The room is a masterpiece contains the work of Miss Martine and a drawing of the Herald artist, who at it is doing, as the principal remarked, a good deal of work. The next door through open reveals the lecture room, where daily faces a beautiful array of scenery, and where the walls are covered with framed sketches of every kind. "These scenes," remarked Mr. Ireland, "are an excellent illustration of the combination of the seats used in five countries and they give seven positions of the drawing board." Then, attracted to the colors on the wall, The World was shown some designs for curtains, excellent results, and its up-to-date character is shown by the fact that the pupils are taught to measure according to the metric system as well as by the less rational system now in vogue in this country. The designs shown in stained glass, designs, wood carvings, metal drawings, and in clay modeling, were of the men of the Beamsville Terra Cotta Works are employed copying casts and making original drawings. Here, too, are a lot of G.T.R. machinery models for the exercise of the talents of the school. The school has now 200 pupils, and its admirable training is evidenced by the fact that the Hamilton Art School captures one-half of the prizes offered annually in the province. Hamilton students, in endeavoring it, have certainly not thrown their money away.

THE CANAL SCHEME.

The committee of the Council of the Board of Trade on the Canadian Bay Canal scheme met yesterday, but failed to accomplish anything.

The Company has a lease of 74 acres in the oil belt, and a contract has been let for sinking the first well. The Company's property comprises the east half of the farm owned by Mr. George Swallow, facing on the river. Various companies are drilling on each side of the Company's lot, and splendid wells have been struck. The most valuable property so far discovered is that of Messrs. Carmen and Fairbank, who are shipping 150 barrels of oil daily from a few wells. One of their wells has pumped 50 barrels a day continuously since it was drilled in August last. On the lot immediately west of the Company's property the Cleveland Oil Co. have sunk two wells, which together average 15 barrels daily. Mr. Ramsey, representing the Olean (N.Y.) Oil Co., is drilling on the lot immediately east of the Company's. On the lot next further east Mr. J. R. Minhinick, London, has struck a good well and has let the contract for sinking five more on the same lot. The Swallow farm is in the centre of the oil belt. There is great activity in the district. Some 40 rigs are engaged drilling for oil, and all the desirable property has been secured by Canadian and American oil operators. In Petrolia it pays to operate a well pumping one-third of a barrel a day. Experts are agreed that the Bothwell oil field will be a permanent one. The Company has 7000 shares in the Treasury. The proceeds of these shares will be used for sinking wells and buying new leases. One-half of these shares, 3500, are now offered to the public at par. For full particulars apply to S. J. SHARP, Banker and Broker, 78 Yonge Street, Toronto.

The use of plan of formation is to organize at the end first and then the British Columbia end. In this case the exactly opposite course has been followed, viz, the organization has been perfected at the British Columbia end, the plans are formed, the western directors and manager fixed upon, and a Board in the east composed of representative men have then agreed to contribute their support.

Our British Columbia Executive see and properly appreciate the immensity of the opportunity and our shareholders can rest assured that they will leave no stone unturned to advance their interest. LARGE EXPERIENCE AND SHREWED INTELLIGENCE COUNT AT THIS CRISIS as they will probably never occur again. M. J. A. Smith, the Honorary Secretary of the Rossland Board of Trade, a gentleman of large experience in mining matters, and who is himself largely interested financially and otherwise in the district, has consented to take charge as Western Manager, and will have associated with him on the Executive among others Mr. Robert Scott, well known in Ontario as the President of the Victoria Wheel Works, Galt, but who has latterly acquired large financial interests in Rossland, and has thoroughly identified himself with the present and future of the town.

Of course, there is no particular object served in prophesying as to the future. Results are the final test. We can only say that we think we are going in at the right time. In the right plan, and that the management are the right kind of men to carry the corporation's affairs to a successful conclusion. Our plan is fully endorsed by the principal mining authorities and journals of British Columbia, and we see no reason why it should not be endorsed by the public.
