The speech of David Lloyd George at Queen's Hall, London, and the recent debate in the British House of Commons again have proved that Great Britain does not desire peace by agreement and understanding but only a conclusion of the war which means the enslavement of Germany to the arbitrary violence of our ene-

Proof of this may be seen in the fact that Sir Edward Carson, (member of the British war cabinet) recently declared in Dublin that Negotiations with Germany could begin only after the retirement of German troops beyond the Rhine. In respon to a question put by Commoner Joseph King, the spokesman of the British Government in the house of Commons, A. Bonar Law, modified this declaration by fixing the standpoint of the British Government as being that, if Germany wanted peace, she, first of all, must declare herself willing to evacuate the occupied ter-

We also captured, he says, 948 guns, 780 trench mortars and 2500 machine guns and forced the Germans to abandon 100 miles of fortified front. Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, July 29.—During the past two days the artillery action on the front has increased in volume until at times it has reached the dimensions of drumfire. The enemy's retaliation to our bombardment has been on several occasions extremely prompt and heavy. The object of his artillery has been to divert the attention of our guns. Efforts of enemy working parties to restore their defenses have been prevented by a steady trench mortar bombardment. In this, as in other branches of the artillery, there has been a remarkable development. Some of the trench mortar projectiles now in use have almost as much high explosive in them as an ordinary 15-inch howitzer shell. The destruction wrought by them in the trenches is very great.

There was another heavy projection of gas into the German trenches west of Lens yesterday, with but little retaliation. The spurt of the enemy's aerial activity on this part of the front has ceased and only a few of his planes have tried to cross our lines. This result has been brought about by hard fighting on the part of the splendid young fellows of the aerial service. One of the most successful aviators in this area is an Ontario man who has a record of 36 German machines brought down, most of them from such a height as to ensure their destruction. He has already won the Military Cross and the D. S. O.

With the British Armies in France, July 29. - Numerous raids, which torograd, in response to a request sent by him to Paris, received advice to mentions as having been conducted at various points along the front by both combatants, undoubtedly appear distant readers as inconsequential in this greatest of world wars. But these recconcitring thrusts which daily have been growing in number late, are, in truth, highly significant in themselves, for they are a surface indication of the great tension existing along these nerve centres of the

The material damage which small raiding parties inflict is of little con-sequence, comparatively speaking, to either side, but the information that these tintrepid advantures into No Take in Year Hundred and Man's Land may bring back is invaluable. Proofs of a Plot Against Peace.

London, July 29—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—The Times' revelation of German inspiration of the Austrian ultimatum to Serbia which brought about the present world war, has created a profound impression. The Times commenting editorially on the revelation, says:

"It would be hard to exaggerate its gravity. The enemy, for three years has been posing as the innocent and guiltless victim of entente perfidy. The new chancellor, Dr. Michaelis, still points to the events of July, 1914, to prove the righteousness of their cause and to whitewash his predecessor (Von, Bethmann-Hollweg). But if the meaning of the meeting of July 5, 1914, was what we are told it was, the chief military and civilian powers gathered together in a time of profound peace tranquility, under the profound peace tranquility, under the presidency of the kaiser, against the peace of Europe. In the face of this allegation, what becomes of the Ger-man case which pacifict fanatics and pacifist intriguers and pacifist paid emissaries plead in her behalf? What becomes of the pretence that Germany was ignorant of the Austrian note to Serbia, and what of her oft-repeated contention that to the last she did her utmost to avoid war? She has fastened the blame now upon Austria and now upon England. Here she appears as the centre and director of cold-blooded plot in which she and her accomplices consider weeks before and flannel trousers at exceptionally at-from death during the early morning hours of Sunday, when a seven-passenger motor car in which they were driving crashed thru a fence and went over a fifty-foot embankment. Peter Ballaugar, who was driving the car, was arrested by Detective Leavitt charged with stealing the car. Ballaugar was employed by Joseph "Chancellor Michaelis looks forward Maher, 61 York street, a liveryman, ing at the livery three days, and according to Maher, was instructed not to drive any of the cars. At 5 o'clock Sunday morning a race-track employe approached Ballaugar and asked him to drive him out to the Thorncliffe race track. Ballauzar consented and started out to the track by way of Merton street. When they reached the flying corps camp Ballaugar turned south to get onto the road leading to the track. There were no lights on this road, and instead of turning onto the Thorncliffe road the driver continued on and crashed thru the fence and went over night, a two thousand dollar bond beiding in the car jumped out of the back, and his whereabouts are unknown to the police. When the car started down the embankment it struck a tree, and Ballaugar mansged to jump clear of the car when it turned over and rolled thirty feet down the bank. The seven-passenger Packard car was badly smashed, and had to be towed back to the livery. The charge of theft was laid by Maher, and a second charge of driving; a car without a chauffeur's license will be laid against Ballaugar in court this morning.

Likewise, the armies to the north and south continue to fall back before the enemy, at a few points only, standing to offer a semblance of resistance, and then only for short per-iods of time. Wherever those of the faithful troops attempt to give battle they are harassed by numerically stronger forces of the Teutons and compelled to give ground, receiving no assistance from their recalcitrant former brothers-in-arms, whose main effort continues to be to get out of striking distance of the enemy.

Hundreds of patriotic Toronto citizens gave the 48th Highlanders detail a stirring welcome home from Chicago yesterday morning A large number of spectators lined up on the York street bridge as early as o'clock to see the train draw the depot. But it was three hours later when Colonel Darling's kilties arrived.

Owing to an arrangement with the militia department fixing the dates for Sunday trifle practice at Long Branch range the 48th J the Highlanders' regiment was prevented from taking part in the welcome home of their comrades, as yesterday was their date at the ranges, and they had to go there early in the forenoon. Immediately after detraining at 1.05

o.m. the returning Highlanders from Chicago lined up on Railway street pipe and bands. The pipe band led off with one of the stirring airs which proved so effective at New York and Chicago. As they wheeled from York to Front street a great cheer was led by a returned wounded soldier belonging to the 27th Battalion. Similar instances marked the march from the station along Front street to Yonge, and along Queen west, to the Highlanders, as previously reported in The World, were carried floating in the breeze. The colors borne were the Union Jack, Star Spangled Banner and the regimental

It is a service that leaves an unusual dividend of satisfaction.

More than 1000 business men, realizing this satisfaction and the goodwill thus betokened, have resolved to extend such tire service beneath the Goodyear emblem.

So this emblem marks hostelries of tire service along every road of the country. It reveals itself at many advantageous points—an ever-recurring beacon - light to a vast number of Canadian motorists.

And it is not by any chance or accident that this increasing number of motorists find tire satisfaction under the name Goodyear.

They belong to that class of men who bring a business instinct into tirepurchasing. They seek in the tires they buy a capacity for delivering long, loyal, economical service. They base their preference on known virtues and achievement.

Latest Activities to Be Demonstrated in Department This Year.

A MODEL KITCHEN

Many Innovations Will Be Made Showing Need of Thrift and Economy.

Another month and the Canadian National Exhibition will be with us. Always one of the chief events of the year for Canada, it is especially so for foronto, and this season, more peraps than at any previous time, it mises to be of special interest and ervice to women.

Those who have watched the growth of this truly phenomenal development have taken a just pride in its many-ided exhibits and entertainments, but in the women's section, while there is always sufficient to command admiraon for the high standards and variety of art and various crafts represented, there has been for the past few years a feeling that grows larger as year acceeds year that too little attention is given to new activities which come into the home and into women's gen-into the home and into women's general interests.

Modern science is evolving such wonderful helps for the housewife, undreamed of methods in cooking and laundry-work, such magic processes by which dust may be made to fly and evacuate the premises, and every woman in the land ought to at least know that these things are in existence. Women in the city and ecca-sionally elsewhere, are cognizant of the ways in which the old-fashioned road thru the drudgery of housecleaning and daily preparation of meals may be lightened and made merely a pleasurable pastime.
Ignorant of Devices.

Even many city women know of these modern marvels merely thru the these modern marvels merely thru the advertisements in the newspapers. They have not seen the operations of the electric-washer nor experienced the joy of the electric iron or toaster. Neither have they felt the thrill of opening the bag of the vacuum cleaner and viewing the black dust therein, imprisoned. The operations of the dictitian and the up-to-the-minute expert in domestic science are for the most part confined to school, college, or other fined to school, college, or other academic area, and thousands of our women go along in the old humdrum way without opportunity of even a suggestion in the way of

The war has been a special element calling for new activities and new interests. It has given women new lines of thought and called for the laying down to a great extent

That this should have a big place in the women's department of the 'national exhibition is felt those who look upon this yearly showing as representative of the things being done in the country, and as an object lesson in the best means of turning out the products of the home as well as those of commercial life to the best advantage, and that this is recognized by the management of the Exhibition is apparent by advance literature to hand. The prize list for women's and children's work, it is true, does not differ naterially from those of other years, but we are informed that the book fails to adequately cover some of the important things of interest to women.

Instal Modern Kitchen, There is assurance of a model kithen to be installed in the women's building, where demonstrations will be given on domestic science and the art of cooking, and that these demonstrations will emphasize the possibilities of food conservation. Gas and electrical appliances will in all probability be used. There will also be a "Don" Waste It; Can It" demionstration, and women's institute work of the Onrario Government will be exemplified. In innovation will be the replacing of some of the milk testing and cheese demonstrations, by others on the ecoical use of vegetables, cheese and milar articles in the daily diet of the dinary home. Last year some confusion and no fittle disappointment was felt on a mistake made in the jaming of the hour for judging in the paby show. The mistake will be avoided this year and Dr. Adam Wright will have charge. In addition to the cash prizes there will be gold medals for the best baby in the show and the champion twins.

The women themselves are showing unusual interest by the application of various patriotic and other organizations for booths and other privileges and the management have still further plans for doing fuller justice than or-dinarily to the things in which women are interested and which at present are among the most important forces with which the welfare of the

Help the Win-the-War Conven-

Some of the Conservative papers are a little suspicious of the Liberal editors' conference last week, more especially as there was an apparent change of tone in The Star articles and a few others subsequently. We have admired the non-partisan and neutral attitude of The Star for some time past on the win-the-war issue, and the result of that attitude has been greatly to strengthen the sentiment for a purely win-the-war policy in parliament with a union or coalition government with an extension of the life of the present house, and an immediate application of the Military Service Act

It should be obvious that partisan attacks upon the government by The Star and other Liberal organs will undo most of the good work that has at Quebec in 1908 when the present been done, will consolidate party lines King reviewed the troops and the reonce more, will defeat the object of gimental bands took up the anthem the important win-the-war conven- in turn as the then Prince of Wales tion that is to meet in Toronto very passed down the line. soon; and generally will overthrow all the aims of the broader and more in the United States, not merely for

An Advocate of Private Owner-

Queen's Quarterly for July has an tion by insisting that public ownership results are to be judged by pri- and esprit is widely recognized. by public ownership standards, is a wretched and scandalous fallure. For the aims sought, and by their own private methods, private ownership may be quite matisfactory to the shareholders. It is not the shareholding public that, are the judges in these problems, but the great public that use and pay for service. They get more accommodation and better value for their money out of public proprietorship than when the private corporation cuts the service and enlarges the tariff in the compromise that represents the maximum profit at the minimum cost. In public ownership there is no compromise necessary. Maximum service at minimum cost needs to consider nothing but fair terms. Another confusion has arisen in connection with pubhe ownership which has also handicapped the public service. It is the substitution of political ownership for public ownership. They are, of course, distinctly different policies. and show their difference chiefly in efficiency. Mr. Drummond regards political ownership as fatal, and few will disagree with him. But he declares the board of trustees proposed by the Acworth-Drayton report to be a political device, when its special intent was to make certain that the management of the unified government system would be non-poof trustees, he says, have always to be approved by the government. Now that they have learned to do this, it might be granted that they will watch each other vigilantly in running radials, or the government commission that runs the consolidated steam railways. Altogether, Mr. Drummond's article is an interesting study in special pleading, and sounds weak beside Mr. E. B. Biggar's new book.

Community Singing.

A good deal of fun has been poked at Americans over their inability to sing their national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner." Not twentyfive men in a thousand, it is said, can repeat the words of it. Canadians are in much the same plight over the words of "O Canada!" which Earl Grey has declared to be unsurpassed. No doubt he remembers the magical effect

Mr. Claude Bragdon, the wellknow architect, who addressed the Arts and Letters Club last winter, has an article in a recent issue of "The House Beautiful" describing the New York Community Chorus Song and Light Festival. A sub-title on the program was "A Free Expression of Beauty by and for the People." There has been no such spontaneous artistic outburst on the continent apparently as these festivals aroused. Mr. Harry Earnhart led both the Rochester and New York choruses, and Mr. Bragdon was responsible for the entirely novel and highly effective scheme of lighting. Mr. Barnhart's alliance with Mr. Farwell dates from before his community chorus efforts, which began in 1913, when he got leave to lead a es, such as illuminating gas somecrowd in Rochester in singing familiar songs together. There is a skin tonic and bleach that should be used frequently to keep the skin clear and smooth. It also possesses an astringent quality that will keep the flesh firm. letter by E. C. Fox, general manager of The William Davies Co., Limited, disputing the findings of Mr. O'Connor, commissioner of the high cost of living. The letter is a good defence from the company's standpoin At the end of the letter is found this statement which, coming from a com-pany whose president is a prominent bank shareholder, is very important; "At the most a great deal cannot be done in reducing food prices while currency is inflated, and until the scale of prices of all kinds of commodities declines also." In this sentence Mr. Fox has given the crux of the whole high cost living, for there is certainly an inflated currency, according to my opinion, caused by privileges given to the bank especially by an order-in-coun-cil dated the third of August, 1914. Would it not be well for the new commission to investigate Mr. Fox's the cause of "inflated currency." will be an interesting subject for the new commission as part of the company's defence.

REASON WHY DULUTH LONGS FOR REGATTAS,

Boston. July 28.—Duluth loves to stage a rowing regatta, for reasons that are economic as well as sporting. Those who came to see the national regatta which was held at Duluth last summer, left behind some $30,000. The national this year was to have been rowed at Lynn, Mass., but it was abandoned because of the war. So up bobs Duluth with a proposal to hold a big regatta for the benefit of the Red Cross. Oarsmen from all parts of the country have been invited, and the chances are that the event will be extremely important.

Most people who went out expected to see a half-mile track, but they were under a misconception, as it is a splendidly-built course of a mile. The class of horses improved as the meeting progressed, and on closing day you would hardly look on them as the merry-go-round brand.

Boost figures were given out in regard to the crowds, as the actual paid attendance on opening day was 2800, which would be about that of the final Saturday. Speculation was mild thruout the meeting, being generally of the $2 variety.

Ald. Beamish Endeavors to Get Some Definite Information.

With a view to clearing up the long several of the streets in the north end of the city, which, it was understood, was to be done some time ago, and also other important questions connected with that district. Ald. Beamish had an interview Saturday with Com-missioner Harris. Regarding the pave-ment, Mr. Harris explained that he will shortly commence operations on either Soudan avenue or Manor road, but which one will be done is as yet doubtful. Only one can be done, as there is only money for one. The alderman was also informed that the Merton street bridge, which years, will be completed this year. Mount Pleasant road thru the ceme-tery will be opened for traffic this ner. At least this was the promise made, so this will come as welcome news to the long-suffering residents in that section. Regarding the condition of North Yonge street, the commissioner held out hopes of something being done here shortly, as he stated that $5000 is to be spent on filling in the worst of the holes with crushed stone. The smallness of this sum for the amount of work that will be needed to make the road even passable was pointed out by the alderman, and the commissioner stated that he knew the sum was not very large, but hoped that a greater sum will be available. Interviewed Mayor. The alderman saw the mayor regarding the present state of the Mctropolitan question. He was informed that satisfactory progress is being made and that there may be "some thing doing" within three months. The advisability of laying the rails was questioned, but it was stated that on account of the present state of the steel market very little could be done at the present. Hope was expressed, however, that there would be some action within the course of the next few months. Ald. Beamish was also informed that the Bloor street viaduct may be completed some time in December. On account of the present agreement hetween the city and the contractors very little can be done until that time, the nissioner said, but he stated that early in December he will immediately commence operations.

More Than Fifty-Four Million Dollars' Worth Blocked Out.

Calgary, July 28.—Worth untold millions in dollars, inexhaustible deposits of manganese dioxide, which is extremely valuable as an iron toughening material and which is in great demand for war munition purposes, have been found in the Cypress Hills in zoutheast Alberta. Eight hundred thousand tons worth, approximately $54,400,000, have been blocked out by ordinary post hole augers in the last few months and the product is being sold to the British war office for $68 and $69 a ton.

Before the news of this discovery leaked out every foot of the manganese area was secured by the insiders. The deposit may, however, extend from the Cypress Hills down to the Sweet Grass Hills in Montana, and there may be some areas there open to filing. The $00,000 tons mentioned were blocked out from the surface, and this operation is simple and inexpensive, and may be continued almost indefinitely, it is stated.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Country Badly Needs Better Roads for Transportation of Crops.

On Thursday last a party started out from Toronto in a motor car intending to enjoy the cool breezes of Lake Ontario on the concrete Toronto-Hamilton road. The driver not having been there recently, the party drove out King street to the Humber with the intention of continuing along the Lake Shore road. Finding this impossible on account of the condition of the roadbed they went off to the west on Queen

At the start it was dusty, but the breeze seekers were hopeful of soon striking a good stretch. A number of automobiles and trucks passed by and evidently they were on the right road for the Credit. Interest in the road for the Credit. Interest in the fine-looking vegetable gardens and grain and hay crops occupied their attention for some time, and the occupants of the motor car did not take special notice of the condition of the road till they were half way to the Credit. Then it dawned on them that they had started out with the expectation of a drive on a good road by the lake shore. And then the road by the lake shore. And then the thought came, "What do the farmers do when they want to bring their produce to market in the city?" And what must the roads be like when it rains if this is their state in dry weather? The journey was continued at a slow speed, and with many stops to avoid the breaking of the spring, and the concrete road was reached at last. After driving past Port Credit and back again the car was still in a disreputable condition from the dust which was clinging to it. Upon the advice of friends in the car they branched off north from Port Credit in order to join the Dundas road

He instanced the case of the proposed drydock at Vancouver. A company had applied for assistance under the existing legislation two years ago, but had been unable to finance the undertaking. When legislation, increasing the amount of aid available for assistance in drydock construction was adopted, the contract for this particular drydock would be let to any company prepared to go ahead with the work.

The estimates for the national art gallery were reduced, and Mr. Rogers explained that it was intended to make no purchases this year. In view of the fact that the art gallery is now being used by parliament, he said, most of the pictures were being loaned to various art associations. ed to various art associations through the country. This was under the direction, of the art commission of which Sir Edmund Walker is chair-

Mr. Rogers was asked what had become of the statue of D'Arcy McGee. The minister said that the model had been sent by the sculptor to Belgium to be cast, shortly before the war. Before the statue could be shipped to Canada, the country was over-run by the Germans and the work of art destroyed. The sculptor had been so discouraged he had not heard from him since. He said the question of securing a new statue would be taken up later. up later.
Mr. Rogers stated that the Georgian

Bay Canal commission offices would be closed shortly. Hon Charles Mur-phy declared that the appointment of the Sandford Evans commission was to kill the project. The minister de-that new Russia no longer wouldbe willing to take part in struggle if it learned of French war aims. Wasn't it the principal object of Albert Thomas (member of the French war council), on his journey to Russia, to overcome this remorse of M. Tereschenko? The French government will not be able to deny all this, and it will be obliged to confess, altho it may do so only tacitly, that M. Briand was the objective of stormy attacks during the secret session; that Premier Ribot was oblig-ed to produce the secret treaty in response to the demand of M. Renaudel (leader of the majority So-Age 6 to 9 years; height 15.2 to 16 hands; weight, 1,200 to 1,350 pounds and 1,500 pounds, and stand 16.1 hands.

It is characteristic that Deputy ment, replied in Russia to the question whether Aisace-Lorraine was the only obstacle to peace by saying he could not answer the question in that form, and that Russian ought to take into consideration the fact that the Russian revolution and been purchased by French blood. The admission of Deputy Couchin and Moutet that' Russian representatives had agalaxed that they attached no importance to Constantiation in Russian armies also are in exception. It is characteristic that Deputy tinople throws clear light on Russian sentiment. The delegates from the Russian armies also are in agreement with this. In order to divest their ambitions on the left bank of the Rhine of a character of greed, the French minister to Russia resorted to the lawyer's trick by necessity of creating a buffer state, but the opposition speakers cried out in the din of contradictions: "It is disgraceful." I would like also to mention that Sealed tenders, marked "lenders lor Again," addressed to the undersigned, will be received at this Department until noon of Monday, August 6th, for additions and Russian generals had declared that the Russian armies never were in better condition or better equipped than then. BUYING OF NEWRAY

New Discovery Regarded as Best Yet on the Property.

Homer L. Gibson, in his market let-ter, has the following on Newray: The further opening up of a new vein on the surface has inspired some betantial buying of the stock from best that has been opened up on the property to date. Free gold occurs plentifully thru a large mass of quartz, but the actual size of the ore body has not been determined. The long crosscut on the 400-foot level is being continued, and as soon as it has reached the Hanson vein, its real objective, drifting will be carried out on one or more of the parallel veins that have been encountered in this crosscut. The work that has been accomplished on this property during the year has shown that it possesses great possibilities and in the drifting that can to date. Free gold occurs shown that it possesses great possibilities, and in the drifting that can shortly be done on the 400-foot level, it would seem that a good reserve of ore can be quickly developed.

In addition to the strike, continued drought damage re-perts tended to lift prices. Realizing of profits by holders became somewhat free at the top of the bulge. Unfounded Rumor Regarding Davidson Gold Mines, Ltd.

Standard Bank Building, Toronto

It has recently come to our notice that a report is being circulated to the effect that the Davidson Gold Mines, Limited, have not yet taken title to their properties for the reason that they have been unable to make their payments on account of the purchase price. We do not know to what extent this report may have been circulated. We do know, however, that certain individuals, for selfish reasons, assisted by certain brokerage houses who may or may not be short of the stock, have lent their support to this rumor; and in connection with the same we desire to state that the report is absolutely false and without the slightest foundation.

The Davidson Company do not owe one dollar on their properties or plant, the same having been paid for in full months ago, and an absolutely free and unencumbered title vested in the company. The company is not indebted in any way, shape, manner or form for purchase monies for any of their properties or their development.

It occurs to us that this report, reaching some of our shareholders, might cause them to sell their holdings at this time, which is probably what is desired and sought after by these interests. Consequently we wish to give the report the most emphatic denial. The Davidson Company have been attending strictly to the business of mining for the past year, employing a large force of men continuously.

terested in the matter they might write the Local Master of Titles at Halleybury, Ont., for an Abstract of Title of the company's properties. DAVIDSON GOLD MINES LIMITED.
