Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of nedicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the fungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family; and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery ever the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral has a lawys relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitie is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Code, no better remedy can Bronchitie is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. For a Coust and Could, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influence, when it affects the throat or

For Influence, when it allects the threat of lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectored on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

New York Sun for 1872. TO ALL WHO CAN READ. The New York Weekly Sun Doubled in Size without Increase in Price.

With the beginning of 1872, THE WERKLY Sun has been doubled in size. It now contains eight pages instead of four, making it equal in dimensions to any other weekly secular journal published in this country. At the same time its price has not been increased. It will be furnished to subscribers at the uniform rate of one dollar a year for each copy. To this rate no exception will be made and no reduction will be possible, either to clubs or agents. Every subscriber who sends a dollar will receive a copy for a year.

While THE WEEKLY Sun thus furnishes as much reading matter as other papers published at double or treble the price, it will contain new features which will add greatly to its interest and value as a family newspaper. Its inde-pendence of opinion, and its unqualified hostility to Tweedism and Grantism, and every form of public robbery, bribery, and corruption, will be maintained, while in point of political news its readers may rely upon always receiving the most accurate, as well as the freshest, intelligence that can possibly be obtained. The ligence that can possibly to devote additional enlargement enables us also to devote additional space to valuable agricultural intelligence, and to print interesting stories and romands. More ensively than hitherto. For miscellan reading, presenting the quaint and hums aspects of life, and for useful information pecting not only what takes place in this ppolis and this country, but in all other mi of the world, we now have ample room.

In its new form THE WEEKLY SUN is the cheapest paper of its class in the United States: and we appeal to such of our readers as approve its ideas and objects, and find it interesting and valuable, not only to renew their own subscripvaluable, not only to renew their own subscriptions, but to recommend the paper to their friends and neighbors.
