champion who said he had enlisted with the 1st Battalion, the Buffs, in England he with others had been drafted to the Princess Pats in the early part of 1915. He had spent three winters in the trenches and was one of the few men, who in the first year of the war, had been promoted from the ranks. Lieut. McCoc was greeted with prolonged applause upon rising and addressed the meeting in part as follows:—

The speaker made it clear at the outset that he did not wish to present his personal opinions to his audience but to give them the facts within his own personal knowledge. Any statement that he made, would be of his own knowledge and he could back it up with facts.

He said, "You are told in these frantic exhortations that the emergency grants and that immediate reinforcements are urgently necessary; that, withholding of 100,000 men may cause the collapse of the British Empire. I shall content myself with stating you the facts, the conclusion I leave to you, resting confidently on your reasoned judgment." The speaker then explained the composition and sub-divisions of a Military Establishment on the Western Front more than three Canadian Divisions had been put into the line. The maximum strength of Canadian Expeditionary forces in France had been increased by a force division in the field. He was not aware of any change in the composition of two years of war or was justified in making this remarkable increase, (even having in view the ease of maintaining the additional fighting strength) and he was sure he would make almost wholly known to the people in Canada and it must be to the benefit of the people of Canada to be consulted. In addition to this the fifth Canadian Division had been established in England where it now never having crossed to France.

The fifth Brigade did not go to France.

Lieut. McCord—Well my friends did not say the 5th Brigade I said 5th Division.

The voice—Tell the truth.

Lieut. McCord—I am telling truth and that is what hurts you.

Were these startling increases (Francis) the doubling of our soldiers after the war was two years (ah) warranted and above all else they were referred to the people? were they the results of the 17 Years' message of Sir Robert Borden which emanated from him with consultation with his responsible advisers? Was his representation of the people the same as this "Conciliatory Bill"? He wished to make it clear that nevertheless he knew that the Liberal party in all sections of Canada would see to it that this fourth man having been placed in the position never be withdrawn for no reinforcements.

STRENGTHENED BY WHICH AND

But he made the statement there were thousands upon thou-

Over 150,000 men, yet they will tell you that you are the only people in the world who are calling to you from the trenches, "Come over and help us!" The speaker asked, "Do you believe it? (Cries of No! No!) "well, ladies and gentlemen if you do not believe that the cause of the world is just, that it can not presently be maintained by fighting strength because there are no reinforcements in sight if you do not believe that this condition exists, then I ask you to give your aid to the cause of the world by this fall appeal, which is made to the cause — an appeal which is wicked because it is untrue, an appeal which is dangerous because it is uncan- dian — an Un-British, an Un-Canadian appeal. It is an appeal to the religion against a religion and one religion against another — our beloved Canada which above all else should be preserving a united front so long as the

We must not wait and appeal to every one of you, French Canadian or English-speaking, Protestant or Catholic, to sacrifice what of your preferences on the altar of your country and to rise up to the defence of whatever they may be. there was a matter of three or four inches, and the Germans had to take out of their wounded man away. Ebbe looked out, but could not see any of our own fellows. Knowing we were close off, I decided to wait until night, and then make our way back to our own lines.

Hid Maps and Papers.

"I gave my map and some papers to Ebbe and told him to tear them to pieces and throw them away so they could not be found. He hid part of them under his shoes and some under the stones behind some bricks, and put the rest in the bung-hole of a beer barrel which was in the cellar. As soon as it got dark we left the house and started crawling back to our trench. I thought our men would be holding. I crawled up to the trench and got into the parados. A flare went up and I saw the trench was full of about thirty men. We went back to our trench and were standing to. We heard of turning the trench back a little and then I suddenly made our way back to our trench and we had started from.

The trench was too wide "to sit across, and if we jumped we would make too much noise.

back till we came to a lot of dead trees. I searched these for awhile, and then returned and at the same time the others did. We found to find one full water bottle, but we were not able to get any more. "We went back to the cellar and found a sleep, and next day ate some beef and drank a little water. I was very tired, and when I was getting up, I saw the men from the heavy machine gunners to be on the roof of the house, and we went in, and kept it up for a while. We could hear the aeroplane overhead. The shoot round the aeroplane." "We did not go out that night, but we turned on our artillery put on heavy barrage and we thought for a moment we were going to be killed but was only a faint barrage. Our heavies started in, again in the afternoon and began to make them hum around where we were. They made several direct hits on our batteries, and we were killed. We had run out of water again and finished the tin of bully,

We decided to go out and make a hole in the time along what had once been a dirt road with piles of bricks on each side. After going along a ways, we came to a house with a porch and a hole in the wall. One of the walls made by a shell was there. It was just enough to allow us to go through, when a party came along from the other side and then down the road. We just came to it.

"It was rather a close shave, for we had been half a minute later and we would have been run right to the ground. We got away to a flank, owing them to brick piles. After giving them time to get well back, we went back to the rear by a roundabout way."

"We were very lucky. We had no more water, but most of the men had been buried by the shells. We were out of luck. We found out that we were in a garden and we took the shells along, thinking they would allow us to get through."

"The next morning our artillery again laid down a heavy barrage for a short time after we heard some call out, 'anybody down there?' I thought they were kidding. They said 'come out, you thinking Canadians were the wily Hun, which we 'tout sure.' We had a little difficulty at first in getting them to understand we were Canadians owing to smoke, and mist, and the fact that we had not a wash or hairbrush. I said, 'I'm like German.' 'We soon convinced them we were Canadians, and went down-street with them and they gave us some cigarettes. As soon as it had gone down a bit we made our way back to the advance battalion headquarters."

where we were given a cup of tea something to eat."

Mr. F. M. Anderson was in splendid form and held the attention of the audience for a long time. He spoke about the high cost of living, conscription etc. Borden was to blame for the conduct of the nation's affairs in 1911. They preached that Catholics should not participate in European wars. He had given the nationalists positions in his government. What can be expected now? Not one of Quebec but all the provinces were disposed to any two faced policy. He lifted his arms and said, "I am a Canadian. He had given the nationalists Canada on a proper footing of equality. He would be returned to power on the 11th inst.

During Mr. Anderson's speech a person called out "fire" and the general assembly was forced to adjourn. This was avoided by the withdrawal of the people on the stage who left the restored order. Those who left the

Mr. A. T. LeBlanc, M. P. P., followed Mr. Anderson speaking in English and French, and in forcible accents. We all want to win the war. Mr. Borden has been in power ever since the war started said the speaker and he only since the war started. He said the only thing to do was to win the war. We want to be busy with working out policies to enrich the millionaires. He spoke about circles that were being organized to help the war effort. The party was the same old cry of the Tories. In 1911 the Tories had to take that cry and after the election they were Sir Robert Borden had spoken of reciprocity should exist between Canada and the United States. Mr. LeBlanc thanked the people of Dalhousie for having supported him during the election and he said that he had a duty towards all. The National Association was sung by the large audience. Cheers were given for the King, Mr. Borden and the Chairman.

THE BRAVE WOMEN OF GREAT BRITAIN

(From Life)

How far are removed from the days when Kingsley sang, "For men must work, while women must weep," even a superficial glance, such as this must needs be, at what women are doing in Great Britain and France today will show.

"Are we down-hearted? No! Is their battle cry, too, and they 'carry on' as bravely as any warrior of the mail. 'Carry on' is the password. The soldier writes home to his wife, 'Carry on!' The wife writes back, 'Carry on!' Out of all Britain, out of all France, out of the dominions and colonies, men must die in their thousands. They know it, their women know it, but out of the depths of their souls they cry, 'Carry on!' It is their answer to hymns of hate. It says nothing against the enemy, nothing even of England or France; it's the hymn of the individual; it expresses all the impenetrable egoism—all the inextinguishable humor all the personal elevation above sacrifice, pain and loss all the utter mystical reliance on sheer character, that supreme eidolon of the English and French, to smash the infamous thing—that Britain and France have bred in their children.

In 1914, before the war, there were fewer than two hundred thousand women workers (mostly in textile factories) in Great Britain. There are now, 1917, over eight hundred thousand making munitions alone; over two hundred thousand in engineering and chemical works and other branches of metal trades; over one hundred thousand employed on the land, besides thousands of others at work as mechanics, drivers of motors, ambulances, street cars and omnibuses, cabs in every kind of work on the railways, as letter carriers and as clerks in banks and offices of every description. Their numbers have not been reckoned, perhaps never will be, and the end is not yet. The call comes, and they respond to the tune of eighteen thousand a week. As was said of them by the superintendent of one of the largest munition factories, "They're saving the country. They don't mind what they do. Hours? They work ten and a half or, with overtime, twelve hours a day, seven days a week. The government insists on two Sundays, or at least one off a month. But the women resent it. 'We're not tired,' they say. And look at them—they're not tired. I call for a bit of extra work—they stay and get it done, and pour out of the works, singing and laughing. In one factory, near here, for nearly a year the women have never had a holiday. They won't take one. 'What will our men at the front do if we go holiday-making!'

At first men were provided to lift the heavy shell in and out of the machines, but the women thrust them aside in five minutes. And these women are from all classes. Girls who never before lifted a finger, even to help themselves, work side by side with the maids who formerly dressed them and tied their shoes, and with women from the fields and the factories, all quite happily and without friction, "on their honor." They may not be as strong as the men, but what they lack in strength they make up in spirit.

Dr. Addison, minister of munitions, was able to announce to the House of Commons on June 24, 1917, that "Sixty to eighty per cent of the machine work on shells, fuses and trench-warfare supplies is now performed by women." They have been trained in aeroplane manufacture, gun work, and in almost every other branch of manufacture." He informed the house also of the financial recognition this devotion was receiving: the average rate of wages of women on time rate, working forty-eight hours per week, had been more than doubled since the beginning of the war, and the minimum wage almost equalled that average. They are not only working in the factories, they help build them. Doing the heaviest sort of laborers' work, excavating, brick-laying and carpentering, they stick at nothing, these splendid women.

So it is with the women and girls who have come forward to answer the demand for labor on the land. Much has been done at the farm level, but credit of a very high degree must be given to the deliberately nurtured girl who voluntarily rises before sunrise and works after sunset at laborious and distasteful tasks, cleaning, grubbing, perhaps, or handling that "fearful wildfowl," the horse, about which she only knows that "one end bites and the other kicks, and that she is equally afraid of both," or bending painfully over the plough stilt. She too, is doing her bit; all honor to her! Then again, take the women who stand hour after hour, for long hours, taking fares on trams and buses, wet through often; or run the lifts which serve the underground trains in the London subways; or handle the luggage, and open and shut railway carriage door—no light task on an English train rapidly moving out of a station. And all so bravely and cheerfully. A girl working a London underground railway lift asked by a soldier, "How many hours do they make you work?" refusing to be patronized, retorted gaily, "How many hours do they make you work in the trenches?" The soldier waited till she had opened the gate, pressed out toward his train, and then, turning back, shouted, "But ours is pleasure!" The girl looked after him, beaming, slammed her gate shut, and as she started up again chuckled, "That's a good one!" That's the spirit that is invincible. It has been well said of them: "The women of England go about their warring chuckling, as the men do, and would thank no one to point out that the chuckle drowns the sob." It is the Happiness of Dedication.

THE TANKS ON THEIR DAY OUT.

(From the New York Herald.)

The roll of the British tanks has been played out. Our artillery mows them down. The original terror inspired by their appearance has vanished. The English have their troubles in finding crews for them.—Berlin Tageblatt.

Just one week after that was written the tanks struck the Hindenburg system of defence where it was believed to be strongest and lumbered through. It would be a clear case of "to laugh" were it not that neither the proud boaster of the Tageblatt nor any other German could be expected to take it as a laughing matter. The fighting tank has proved its worth far beyond general expectation. As is told in the cable despatches, many of his fellow officers felt that General Byng was taking a long chance in sending his apparently unwieldy machine against positions which the Germans had been more than a year in preparing but he took the chance—and won. Despatches to London newspapers assert that the magnitude of his success has been understated in the official reports. That is not unlikely. Experience has shown that the British "official" always is conservative; that it claims nothing that has not been first verified by reports of commanders in direct touch with operations at the front.

SEND MITTENS TO 26th.

Touching the matter of an appeal for mittens for the 26th Battalion, made in a letter dated Oct. 20th by Lieut. G. B. Hallett, M. C., to Mrs. B. A. Puddington of Grand Falls, A. W. McMackin informs the Times that on the date mentioned 1,000 pairs of mule-hide mittens, wool lined, approved by Major MacArthur, were on the way to the 26th Battalion. They were sent by the Knights of Pythias of St. John, in response to an appeal from Major Pringle. Mr. McMackin was chairman of the K. or P. committee, and they consulted Major MacArthur before selecting the mittens.—St. John Times.

"Hundreds of Dollars in Actual Profit"

More than one farmer has told us—since he got a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," that the advice it gave him netted him hundreds of dollars in actual profit.

Get the book—it's free—and by reading it you will see the profit there is in building improvements of CONCRETE according to its plain, simple directions. For instance, there's a page devoted to Watering Troughs—showing how to build the sanitary kind that will not rot, rust or leak. Several pages devoted to Concrete Silos. Others telling how to build concrete foundations for barns. All these are improvements a farm needs—its value will go up considerably if you use concrete in the building of them. And you'll be able to "work" your farm with less effort and on a more profitable basis if your buildings and utilities are of the modern Concrete type. This book gives all the directions you'll need.

Remember—Concrete improvements are fire-proof, rot-proof, vermin-proof and indestructible.

involved in grading the bad road. Whether you are driving or making you can travel over a two-mile stretch of concrete quicker than over a one-mile section of old-style road.

Permanent Highways of Concrete will enable us to greatly reduce the cost of building farm roads. All our country's business will be speeded up and economized by replacing the old-style rut-dug roads with roads of concrete. You use Concrete on your farm to reduce the cost of farm up-keep—because Concrete eliminates "ruts." For the same reason, boost for concrete as a road material—it is just as effective in reducing road up-keep costs as in effecting economy on the farm.

THE COST OF MAKING NEWSPAPERS

(From the New York Commerce and Finance.)

The cost of producing newspapers has increased tremendously in the last two years. Print paper has been advanced in price so much that it has occasioned governmental inquiry. Ink has gone way up. Many newspapers in varied parts of the country have been hit so hard that they had to suspend publication. In some cities newspapers have raised the price to two cents, and there has been some at which they were sold from one cent to two cents, and there has been some increase in advertising rates, but there probably has not been a time in the last half century when the newspaper industry of the nation was in so bad a state financially as to-day. Few newspapers are making money. The vast majority are suffering heavy losses. And this at a time of colossal circulation, unprecedented advertising and the greatest general prosperity the country has known.

There is one newspaper in New York which, on the basis of its present circulation and the contract it has entered into for newsprint for 1917, will pay $680,000 more for print paper than it did in 1916. And yet it clings to its one-cent price. There is another paper which at one time earned nearly $1,000,000 a year which is said to have had a deficit in 1916 of $165,000. A newspaper outside New York which has a circulation in excess of 400,000 is paying $1,200,000 a year more for paper than in normal times.

DANGER OF GASOLINE IN PRIVATE GARAGES

The increasing use of the automobile has caused many out-buildings to be converted into private garages. This conversion in many cases, carries with it the storage of more or less gasoline. It almost all municipal regulations this storage is held to be objectionable. It is highly dangerous, and constitutes a risk, not only to the garage itself, but to adjoining property.

Gasoline will give off 130 times its bulk in vapour, and, when vaporized, will convert 1,500 times its volume of air into an explosive mixture, which will ignite from a blaze or spark. Five gallons of gasoline will generate 8,000 cubic feet of gas, or enough to fill a room 20 by 40 feet and 10 feet high. When ignited, it immediately expands to 4,000 times that space. In a built-up area, this would cause a most destructive explosion, with probable loss of life. The temptation to keep a rather large supply of gasoline on hand is great, and garages should, therefore, be inspected by local fire departments for dangerous conditions.

BY JOVE!

said a well educated man the other day when he was asked this question: "Why, when you have a cold, a cough or bronchitis (trouble, you will note, of throat and chest) do you persist in pouring cough syrups, lung tonics and the like into your stomach, which is perfectly sound?"

Ever think of it? The stomach and the lungs are not connected, otherwise food swallowed would choke you. Lung and throat troubles were never yet cured by doing the stomach. To cure coughs, colds and bronchitis, you must breathe the cure. Peps provide the rational treatment for these ailments. Peps are tablets made up of pine extracts and medicinal turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing. Try a 50c. box of Peps for your cold, your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All druggists and stores or Peps Co., Toronto, will supply.

CARE OF ROOTS IN STORAGE

(Experimental Farms Note.)

A great many tons of mangels, turnips and carrots are lost annually by neglect after being placed in storage. Everything may be done to insure a full crop and to harvest it at the proper time in good condition, yet, if not properly looked after during the winter months, a high percentage of this crop may become a total loss. Such loss can be prevented only by prompt attention to the details of storage requirements.

If a cellar is to be used for storage it must be thoroughly cleaned, the ventilators put in good working order and thorough draining and protection from frost assured some time before it is filled. Usually in filling cellars it is customary to dump the roots down through a trap door in the floor above, or roll them in over a shoot from windows at the ground level. No matter how much care is exercised in the performance of either of these operations, there is bound to be accumulations of broken and bruised roots and earth at the end of the shoots or beneath the trap doors. Unless frozen, the broken and badly bruised roots, in such a mixture, will invariably rot and by so doing generate heat that will help to spread the infection to the surrounding sound roots. It is therefore obvious that accumulations of this nature should be thoroughly cleaned out as soon as possible after the harvest has been completed, and the damaged roots fed before they have had a chance to decay.

Frequently, during the winter months, rotting will start among apparently sound roots, usually as the result of an unsound root becoming buried among the others. Infection spreads rapidly among roots in storage, and all such infected areas should be thoroughly cleaned out whenever detected.

All classes of roots lose a certain amount of moisture soon after harvest by evaporation or, as it is commonly called, sweating. If an adequate circulation of air among the roots has not been provided for, this moisture will condense and wet places will be formed which will favour the growth of moulds, and other plant life, which may directly or indirectly, cause rotting. It is, therefore, imperative that during the first few weeks of storage, and in fact whenever the outside weather permits, thorough ventilation be maintained.

The temperature in the cellar should be such that the root will neither grow to any appreciable extent, nor yet freeze. From freezing to 40 F may be considered as the extreme range. It is an excellent plan to hang a thermometer in a convenient place in the cellar and consult it daily. If the temperature is above say 38 F the ventilators should be opened and when it drops sufficiently, closed. When the warmer weather of spring

EXPORT OF FISH TO UNITED STATES.

Change in Regulations Announced

Mr. S. Moffat, collector of customs, received notification from Ottawa of a change in the regulations permitting the export of salted and smoked fish to the United States under collector's order. The instructions received were:

OTTAWA, Nov. 28th. Collector of Customs, Campbellton: Collectors of customs are now authorized to issue licenses permitting the export of dried, cured, prepared, salted or smoked fish for consumption in the United States. Please advise exporters.

JOHN McDUGALL.

This order, opening the way for a resumption of the salted and cured fish trade between the United States, will be heard of with satisfaction by the fishing interests.

and early summer has set in it is advisable to keep the ventilators closed during the day and open during the night, so as to admit only cool air, thus keeping the cellar cool as long as possible.

If the roots are to be pitted outside it is essential that thorough drainage is assured, either by choosing a location on sloping or sandy land, or by providing artificial drainage.

After the roots have been piled, and the ventilators inserted the pile should be covered only with straw to a depth of about eight inches. Later in the season, when cooler weather has set in, about 4 inches of earth should be placed over the straw. Still later, when this earth has become frozen to a depth of about two inches, another covering of straw and earth should be made. When cold weather has finally set in the ventilators should be plugged with straw.

If the pit has been properly constructed and covered correctly there is little danger of the roots rotting. As a precaution, however, it is advisable to hang a thermometer in every second ventilator and to consult it occasionally, if the temperature in the pit gets higher than 45 F it is evident that heating is taking place, and the pit should be opened up and the infected area thoroughly cleaned out.

In the spring the layers of covering should be gradually removed, the ventilators opened and, generally speaking, the protection modified to suit the rising temperature.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

That Canada as a whole is ready and willing to do her part to help win the war was clearly demonstrated by the magnificent amount subscribed for the Victory Loan, the amount being well over 400,000,000. To achieve such a result all parties, races and creeds set aside their differences and worked together for the success of the loan.

The Montreal Herald (Unionist) says:

It is to be hoped that this achievement will shame those political opportunists who have been preaching that Canadians are divided into two classes—patriots and traitors; win-the-war advocates and slackers. The Canadian people are loyal and there would be no talk of their being divided into two camps over the war today were it not that some see political advantages in promoting racial strife. This loan is a fresh evidence of the attitude of the Canadian people as a whole on the war, and a new demonstration to the enemy that although there may be difference of opinion among us as to methods, there is none as to the goal to be reached.

DEER GAME PROTECTION.

The need for good, live game warden is more necessary in this district during the close season than at any other season of the year if our big game animals are to be protected. The Graphic has been given some idea of the slaughter of moose and deer in former winters.

Last winter one lumber camp sold six moose and thirty-seven deer hides to a Campbellton dealer. This jobber depended entirely upon big game for his fresh meat.

In a district which embraces about half the county of Restigouche one hundred and four moose were killed last year, all but nine were killed illegally.

From the above report it will be seen that if our big game are to be saved from extermination some different measures will have to be taken. In former years the game warden were discharged at the end of the open season (December 1st) and no protection was given during the most essential period, when the snow is deep.

This year it is hoped the warden will be kept on all the year and we expect to announce this in a week or so. In the meantime one man is on duty, and will endeavor to see that the law is observed.

LT. MONTGOMERY NOT DEAD AS REPORTED

Many friends throughout Northern New Brunswick and Quebec were startled last Thursday to read a report in the St. John and Montreal papers that Lieut. Lorne Cuthbert Montgomery of New Richmond had died of wounds on the 19th November.

On Friday we received the cheering news from Lieut. Montgomery's home that this could not possibly be true as a cablegram had been received from him stating that he had been admitted to hospital and was getting along well. Our readers will remember that this is the fourth time Lieut. Montgomery has been wounded.

Now Mr. R. H. Montgomery writes us that the Record Office, Ottawa acknowledges the error in the previous notice and advises that Lieut. Montgomery was accepted at number fourteen General Hospital on November 19th with slight gunshot wound in the back.

All will be glad to hear that the wounds are not serious.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corns grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freemans applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the cutting, root and all, lifts out without pain. And the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freemans, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard and soft corn or callosity from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or causing any pain.

CAMPBELLTON SCOTS CELEBRATE THE DAY

Caledonian Society of Restigouche Meet St. Andrew's Day—Oyster Supper.

There was a goodly gathering of loyal Scots at the Curling Club's Banquet room last Friday to observe the "Day," the day that brings the Scots together, where ever they are found throughout the wide world. The first part of the meeting was devoted to business. Col. A. E. G. McKenzie was again elected President, M. M. Mowat, Vice Pres; H. R. Smith, Secy; Treas. Rev. Hugh Miller, Chaplain, Harry McLennan, Piper, Marshals, Chas. Alexander, Bruce McBeath; The Executive Committee, Alex. McLennan, Hugh Carr, A. D. MacKendrick, James Jardine and Harry Miller.

When through with business, an oyster supper was served by the ladies of the Tipperary Club, the proceeds to go towards the Red Cross Fund. The entertainment that followed was quite informal. Mr. Kelly filled the chair with much ability and all spent a couple of enjoyable hours. There were several speeches, songs, recitations and an excellent gramophone rendered several of Harry Lauder's choice bits.

The members unanimously agreed to devote the year's annual dues to Harry Lauder fund for disabled Scottish soldiers.

There were several guests present among them being Major McArthur of St. John, a returned officer of the old Fighting 26th. In a rattling patriotic speech he referred in glowing terms to his superior officer, Lieut. Col. McKenzie, who he compared as equal to the best, saying he had the brains and military knowledge to handle even a Division on the field, with any officer at the front.

Private Joseph Carter has returned to his family in Dalhousie, N. B. He enlisted in March of 1916 and was wounded in the back, head and arms just before Vimy. He was out with a party preparing trenches for the great push of the morrow. It was midnight in No Man's Land. The position was a very dangerous one, as the Germans had been expecting something for some time and were shelling the Canadian lines. Pieces of shrapnel wounded him in several places and he was carried to the rear. After several months in hospital he was considered fit to return to Canada.

EDITORS MAIL.

All letters addressed to the Editor must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender, not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of good faith. No notices will be taken of anonymous communications.

The Graphic does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed in this column.

To the Editor of the Graphic, Campbellton, N. B.,

Dear Sir:

Would you please spare me a small space in your paper in which I can tell the soldier's wives where they can now do their duty.

Reading the speech of Mr. Michaud in notice where he said the first man he met when he stepped off the train was his opponent and the next a returned soldier without a job.

Well what he should have met was the soldiers wives and we should have been to meet him and asked him, if we supported Sir Wilfrid Laurier, would he be man enough to stand by the soldier's wives and see that our patriotic money was not cut out altogether, till this war was brought to an end. When we gave our men to fight for our country we did not think that the government would be mean enough to try and hurt us by letting the high price carry off the few dollars we are getting, and then cut us down. But that is one point Mr. Borden missed when he gave us our vote for we can cut him down as much as he did us, on Dec. 17th.

We all want conscription, every wife and mother who has a heart for those who died to save us, but we do not all want Union Government.

Now if Mr. Stewart gets in and gets us our money back before the 17th he may have a chance, but if not, we are not at all surprised, for we learned a lesson when he was in before.

They send us "word to live cheap, we have to do that for the government must sport. We do not see any way out, only crush them as we men are crushing the Hun.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space,

I remain,

A SOLDIER'S WIFE.

Up to present writing we have added fourteen new names to our list during the past week.

SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED.

The fact that two young ladies broke through the ice at Doherty's Pond was mentioned in our issue of two weeks ago. At the time we did not understand that there was a serious side to the matter, but now we learn that but for the prompt action of Gunner Payne a returned soldier, assisted by others a fatality would have occurred as both young ladies were greatly exhausted when rescued. "CASCARETS" WORK

WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—headaches, flat gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your clogged bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—no box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

And to Cash Prizes of $1.00 Each

So that we may become better acquainted with more of our boys and girls this Christmas, we are giving you this fine Christmas Tree loaded down with beautiful and valuable presents. Ten of the presents are in sealed boxes. Nobody but Uncle Peter has seen what they contain, but on each one has been drawn a picture that tells what it is in it. No. 8 represents Boston Globe. Now can you guess what Christmas present for a boy or girl is in each of the other nine? Get some one to help you if you like, but write out yourself your answers to all of the ten pictures. On January 31, 1918, Uncle Peter, who edits our page for boys and girls, will help the answers and award the big cash prizes as above to the boys and girls complying with the conditions of the contest whose answers are all correct, best and best written. So get busy and send in an answer to-day, and this Christmas may be the happiest you have ever had.

Our "Success Club" for Boys and Girls has provided these fine prizes and hundreds of Christmas presents as well. You'll hear all about the "Success Club" when you send your answers, and if you wish you can become a member free and receive the lovely Club Emblem Pin.

Saturday's snow storm spoiled the skating on the river which the young people enjoyed most thoroughly during the past week.
School is closed for the week owing to an out-breaking of diphtheria. The only case at present being Johnnie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Connors, who is fairly on the road to recovery. Every care is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease. It is to be hoped the soft weather will not continue long enough to spoil the crossing on the ice which at present is splendid between the North and South booms.

DALHOUSIE.

Dalhousie, Dec. 4.—Mr. S. W. Dimock of Campbellton, was in town on Friday and was busy looking after his interests in connection with the "Star Theatre." In view of the prospects of an increase in the population of the shiretown of at least one hundred families next year on account of the erection of the large saw mill in our town limits by the P. Q. Lumber Company, it is Mr. Dimock's intention to build an addition to his hall here. It is very much desired on the part of the people who frequent the theatre that improvements be made and the best of order maintained. In a town like Dalhousie the moving pictures in a well ventilated and comfortable seating theatre would be well patronized.

The White party that was held in the convent hall on Thursday evening last was a great success. The proceeds exceeded the sum of $50. Several prizes were given and Mr. S. Blanchard presented them to the lucky winners. Much credit is due to the Misses Yvonne and Lucienne Samouit, Miss Marie LeBlanc and Miss Marie Louise Allain for the success of the affair.

Capt. Ambrose Landry of Carleton, who was nominated as an anti-conscriptionist in Bonaventure Co., has retired from the fight. The candidates now are Hon. Charles Marcell, Liberal; and P. Furois, Unionist.

A very enjoyable sewing party was held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Barberie on Thursday evening. Among those present were Mrs. J. C. Conacher, Mrs. P. Walsh, Mrs. LaBelle, Mrs. A. G. McKenzie, Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. H. Hubert, Mrs. C. Cool, Mrs. H. Trudelle, Mrs. L. D. Jones, Miss McMinn (Richibucto), Miss Emma Harquail, Miss Gertrude Barberie, Miss Eva Barberie.

Private Everett Harquail spent Sunday here the guest of his grand mother Mrs. Ed. Harquail. He belongs to the 9th Siege Battery and expects to sail in a few days.

Mr. Jas. Pichette of Campbellton was in town recently. He has just returned from a trip to P. E. Island.

Mr. P. M. Shannon, Campbellton was in Dalhousie on Friday last.

Mr. Allie LeBlanc, barrister of St. John, arrived on Sunday from Madawaska, where he had been working in connection with the Victory Loan. He is spending a couple of days at his home before returning to the city.

Mr. Robert St. Onge, Richardsville was a visitor to Dalhousie this week. Mr. Charles Vanstone, Chatham, is replacing Mr. Willard Baldwin in the office of "The Dalhousie Lumber Co. Ltd. The friends of Mr. Baldwin will regret to learn that he is still ill at his home in Chatham.

Miss Laura McIntyre, Campbellton, was visiting her Dalhousie friends on Monday. She was the guest of Mrs. H. Trudelle.

Mr. James McNeil who spent last winter in Dalhousie and who went west in April has returned home to spend a few weeks with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Havelock McNeil. ELECTION CARD.

To The Electors Of The Electoral District of Restigouche and Madawaska.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

On December 16th 1915, at a convention held at Saint Leonards, I had the honor of receiving the nomination as a liberal candidate for the united counties of Restigouche—Madawaska.

On the occasion I laid before you my political platform and it received your unanimous approval. Since, owing to certain circumstances, the political life of our country has been somewhat changed and the party lines have been altered. I think that it is my duty to give some explanations in regard to the stand which I take on political issues now before the country.

1. I approve of and support the political platform of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as laid down in his Manifesto to the people of Canada.

My views in regard to conscription are well known to you. I voted in the House of Commons against the conscription Bill of Sir Robert Borden and supported the resolution of Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking that the question should be decided by the people by a Referendum before it should be put into force. To-day, I maintain the same attitude which I took in Parliament, and if I am elected as your representative, I hereby undertake to vote in Parliament for a Referendum to the people of Canada on the important question of conscription.

2. I do not approve of Union Government as presently constituted as I believe that this Union has not been brought about with a view of uniting Canada, but I believe it is a Union of big interests against the laboring classes. The main object of this Union is to cover the tracks of the misdeeds and scandals of the late Tory Government since its formation on the 21st day of September 1911. You are well aware that during the last three years, the Borden Government has most obviously misadministered the public funds of the country, has burdened the poor under heavy taxes and has favored solely the Big Interests while our soldiers were offering their lives on the battle field and enduring hardships for the defence of liberty, justice and freedom. Unfortunately, the political Manifesto of Union Government does not offer any remedy for such abuses. I promise, if I am elected to support all measures tending to better the conditions in which our gallant soldiers now live, and also to establish the finances of the country on a solid basis and remove the same from the hands of a few political friends of the present Government.

3. You are all well aware that since Mrs. A. G. McKenzie went to Campbellton to-day to visit her daughter Mrs. Walter Marquis.

Miss Elsie O'Leary, Richibucto arrived here to-day to visit Mrs. W. S. Montgomery.

Private Harry Geimes is expected home tomorrow from England.

Mrs. A. R. Fraser will be at home Thursday afternoon Dec. 13th from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Hon. J. R. M. Baxter, M. P. is to speak in the Star Theatre on Friday evening the 7th inst. instead of next week as first reported.

WILL BE APPRECIATED.

Send the Graphic to absent friends. It is sure to be appreciated. $1.50 to subscribers in Canada or $2.00 in United States—C.

JEWELRY IS THE THING FOR XMAS GIFTS

the Borden Government has taken power, the cost of living has been increasing out of all proportion. This is due largely to the fact that the dollar was made up of millionaires who were more attentive to their own business than to that of the country. The C. N. R. deal is a flagrant outrage to the people, and if I am elected I hereby promise to support any measures that would help the country out of this entanglement.

5. Union Government has not the support of the people of the country and to avoid defeat they are endeavoring to prevent the people from expressing its disapproval at the next election by imposing candidates of their choice in the different constituencies of the country. The War Time Election Act is a most outrageous piece of legislation and the like cannot be found on the Statute Book of the wicked German. Hundreds, thousands of our women have been deprived of the right to say who is going to govern this country, while the franchising was granted to thousands of people who had never set a foot on the soil of our beloved Canada. The principles of constitutional Government have been forgotten and the pages of our constitution have been torn to pieces in order to prevent the people from expressing its voice. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the greatest Canadian Statesman, had always respected the voice of the people and in power as in opposition, he has always stood for the principles of Government of the People, for the people and by the people, and to-day he stands for the same principles and asks you to endorse him. I offer myself as a candidate to the electors of the united counties of Restigouche and Madawaska standing on the platform above outlined, and I am confident that I will receive the support of all who stand for justice, union and freedom.

Yours obediently,

P. MICHAUD
