Stricken with almost total blindness among strangers more than 3,000 miles from home, and separated by an insurmountable barrier from relatives who are anxious to care for him, is the fate which an unkind destiny has visited upon Isaac McIlhenney, a young Irishman from Donegal, who is now being sheltered by the Y. McIlhenney is a veteran of the world war. He enlisted during the early hostilities in a battalion recruited in his native county, and accompanied it in October, 1915, to France. Woman Dies Refusing To Reveal Motive For Crime

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The N motive that led Mrs. Grace Laws to shoot Miss Mildred Hanan, daughter of the late Alfred P. Hanan, shoe manufac-turer, and then commit suicide probably never will be known. Miss Hanan died of her wounds esterday, without making further statement concerning th case, and the police announced they had abandoned efforts to clear it up. Alfred Hanan, brother of Miss Hanan, issued a asserting that jeal ousy on Mrs. Laws' part because of attentions paid Miss Hanan by John S. Borland, importer and did not cause shooting. He declared that Mrs. Laws, unbalanced by drink and drugs, shot his sister because, at his request, she had broken off a friendship with Mrs. Laws and had ordered her to leave the Hanan home, where she had lived. He asked Miss Hanan to break with her, he said, because Mrs. Laws had impressed him as irresponsible, and he suspected she had become a drug addict.

FALLING STARS ARE EXPLAINED BY ASTRONOMER

Dr. Dearness, Principal of the Local Normal School, Explains Phenomena.

FRAGMENTS OF PLANETS

Many Londoners have commented upon the number of falling stars ob-erved in the skies last night. Toronto astronomers undertake to associate the phenomena in some way with a total eclipse of the sun, which occurs next Saturday, Principal Dearness of London Saturday. Principal Dearness of London Normal School states that the falling stars have no connection with the eclipse. There are numbers of so-called falling stars at all seasons, but at some seasons and in some years they appear to increase. Lost in Space.

One theory is that they are likely to be more numerous when the earth is passing, brough the path of a comet. what are called falling stars are, of course, not really stars. They are frag-ments of matter lost in space, and when the earth speeds around in orbit, with great protecting folds of air around it, these fragments of mat-ter, some of which quite possibly have en lost or shed by comets, become heated by the sudden friction of the moving atmosphere, in which they are caught. The friction heats them to a white brilliance, and usually they shoot across the sky through the earth's outer atmosphere, at a tangent, until they are consumed or again lost in space, they come within too close a drawground, where they are sometimes found

Some of these meteors are the size of huge boulders. Their outer surface appears burned over the more volatile elements being burned out to form com-pounds with the earth's atmosphere. Final plans are being completed for a banner night in Free Masonry circles of this city, when Acacia Lodge, the Press Opinions of the Country baby member of the nine Masonic lodges of this city will be dedicated and consecrated in the Masonic Temple next Saturday evening. This lodge was formed last summer in order to relieve the other city lodges from the burden involved by so many new members joining the craft during the past few years. Officers of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario have promised to attend the ceremony of dedication and consecration next Saturday, and it is pointed out that this will be the first time in over a half century such a ritual is to be carried out in London. A meeting of members of Acacia and other blue lodge representatives will be staged in the Masonic Temple tonight for the purpose of completing final arrangements for the big night. Entertainment of grand lodge officers will take the form of a banquet, all Masons are invited to attend the ceremony of

> "Old 27," the famous Springbank liner that snorts up and down from the Byron loop on the tracks of the London street railway, is packing a wonderful and heartrending grouch these days.

> To the ordinary individual this is hard to understand, for after a long holiday in the barns this summer, "Old 27" appeared on the street recently "dolled" from wheels to pole, in a brand new coat of paint. The old grease pail had been scraped clean in order that the joints of the ancient leviathan should not groan protestingly as she took the curves on high, and all seemed as mer-

ROMANCE LIVES FOR HONOLULU

Chinese General Traces Lives of Ancestors To America and Other Climes.

Honolulu, Sept. 25. - Romance is not yet dead-not in the Pacific.

Take, for instance, the case of Wingsen Afong, who numbers among his ancestors a hero of the American revolution, noted Hawaiian warriors of long dead age, a famous Hawalian beauty and a Chinese millionaire mer-chant prince. For young Afong, a native of Hawaii, a Yale man, at present a citizen of China, is now a general in the army of the Southern Chinese Republic under Sun Yat Sen, who overthrew the Manchu dynasty, and holds ommand of the Canton arsenal, a most important post.

A dispatch from China a few days ry as the proverbial marriage bell.

However, "Old 27" is peeved, and she write with the working of the So'clock trip from Springbank.

"Yes, I know, I am painted up like a chorus girl," she confided to an Advertiser scribe. "I, don't squeak like I used to, either, but my old 'tank' isn't what it should be. My innards are on the blink and then some. Would you belink and then some. Would you beblink, and then some. Would you believe it, I am running on two machines only?"

I married a part Hawalian, part Caucasian girl, whose rare beauty was long the toast of the officers of the old Pacific fleet. She was the property of the property of the property of the property of the famous social centers of Honolulu, far famed for its boundless SEAFORTH, Sept. 23.—The annual fall fair of the Seaforth Agricultural Society came to a most successful close today. Ideal weather conditions prevailed, and there was a record attendance. One of the attractions was a rural and urban school children's parade from Victoria Park headed by the Seaforth Highlanders' band. The first and second prizes were won by the Seaforth Over Valera Rejecting Home Rule.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Several members of the British cabinet, among whom Mr. Lloyd George's reply to the latest communication of Eamonn de Valera is said to be going around, have not yet conveyed their views to the prime fair and aroused much interest.

Indoor, there was a beautiful display of flowers and ladies' work. The merchants' exhibit was also an interesting feature. The roots and vegetables were of fine quality. The fruit show this year was below the average. The school children's exhibit in a nearby tent was the largest and best at the fair and aroused much interest. fair and aroused much interest.

HAMILTON, Sept. 25.—Giving an exhibition that simply sparkled with clever plays, individual and combination. Hamilton's Plenty Cup team defeated the London Public Utilities outfit here on Saturday in the final game of the trophy, the score being 3 to 0.

This gives Hamilton a total of eight goals to London's four on the two games played Saturday's affair was not nearly as good a game as the one pived in London a week ago, but it was just as keenly contested, especially inthe first half, when the visitors were at their best.

Over 2,000 spectators crowded into the Harvester Field to see the contest.

Over 2,000 spectators crowded into the Harvester Field to see the contest.

Although defeated the Londoners proved themselves game loscrs, and they were battling as hard at the finish even when their case was a hopeless one, as they were at the beginning. The visitors got off to a grand start, and in the first thirty second of the game Coombe, the local goalle, was forced to make a quick clearance. It took the locals five minutes to get in touch with the visiting goal, where Whitworth distinguished himself by some clever work. The Londoners, however, appeared to be the more daningerous lot and were decidedly unfortunate in not scoring in the first fifteen minutes, when Coombe saved a shot from Holt, for the goalie had already stopped a fast one from Moore.

Hamilton's first goal came after 25 minutes of play. It followed a well-locals being in the lead at half time by 1 to 0.

CALGARY SQUAD LOSES TWO KILLED IN TO HAMILTON, 36 TO 9

Eastern Rugby Team Returns to Winnipeg On Tuesday.

Calgary, Sept. 25.—Canadian Press. Experience and condition were the leading factors in the Hamilton Tigers' vic-tory over Calgary in their exhibition game here on Saturday evening, the ing factors in the Hamilton Tigers' victory over Calgary in their exhibition game here on Saturday evening, the score being 36 to 9.

With but one week's practice the local eleven were in no shape to combat the Tigers, who had previously had three gruelling contests this season.

The game was exceptionally clean, there being but one penalty handed out. Hamilton, with a much heavier line, made their yards about twelve times during the struggle, while Calgary dinted the visiting line for yards five times. Elford, McKelvie and Cuzner excelled in speed and they negotiated times. Elford, McKelvie and Cu excelled in speed and they negoti some pretty runs by a "criss-cross"

There was one department of the game that the visitors had to bow to the locals in, and that was in the kicking, as McTeer had a decided edge on Crocker, but the Tigers' wings were so superior to those of the local team that McTeer did not get the support that he warranted.

The Tigers are the guests of Bert Stronach, a former Ottawa Rugby star, at Banff and Lake Louise today, and they play their next game at Winnipeg on Tuesday.

MAY LEGALLY CARRY LIQUOR IN CONTAINER

VICTORIA. B. C., Sept. 25 .- it is no unlawful for a man buying liquor from the Government, under the new moderthe Government, under the new moder-ation act, to put a portion of it in a small container for the sake of con-venience if he should wish to take a little refreshment on an outing, ac-cording to a ruling in local police court. The decision is considered of grea nteresct to many persons who have wondered what status a man with a mickey" on his hip would have under he new act, which stipulates that all liquor must have the Government's offi-cial seal, and the decision opens up a wide range of possibilities as to the Government's ability to trace liquor that was originally sold under the act prop-erly sealed and transferred to smaller containers for the owner's convenience. In his ruling the magistrate remarked that if a man bought a demijohn full of liquor from the Government it could hardly be expected that he would pack the container wherever the owner wished to take some liquor.
