MAPS OF AMERICA, Etc.

Arrowsmith (A.). A large coloured folding map exhibiting all the recent discoveries in the interior parts of North America, inscribed to the Governor and company of adventurers in England trading into Hudson's Bay, London, Jan. 1795, with additions to 1802, mounted on four sheets, 2.00. 117

Mitchell (Jno.). A Map of the British and French Dominions in North America, with the roads, distances, limits, and extent of the settlements, inscribed to Lord Halifax, on the scale of about thirty miles to the inch, 14.50. 118

This is a very large coloured map, on one sheet, folded on linen; it is in fine condition, and of its rarity and importance there can be no question, and should have been before the Boundary Commissioners on behalf of the Dominion Government.

The printed notes and references above would make a small book, and it was executed under the direction of JOHN POWNALL, Secretary, Plantation Office, Feb. 13, 1755. 119

Colombia Prima of South America, in which it has been attempted to delineate the extent of our knowledge of that Continent, chiefly from the MSS. maps of His Excellency Chevalier Pinto, Joas Joaquim da Rocha, Joas da Costa Ferreira, and others, and digested by the eminent geographer, Louis Stanislas Darcy Dela Rochette. Lon. Published by W. Faden, 1807; this is a very large coloured, mounted, and folding map on eight sheets, finely engraved on linen, 7.00. 120

This is the only history of the English Bible, and of its progress in England and Scotland; the author traces its course under extreme difficulties from its first translation down to our own times. The characters of many of the great men of the time, such as Henry VIII, Wolsey, Warham, Tunstall, More, Cromwell, Cranmer, etc., appear under different aspects when brought into immediate contact or contrast with the printing and circulating the Scriptures.
