Important Part Miramichi Will Play After War

Now Has Upwards of one Hundred and Fifty Million Feet of Lumber for Export

The Miramichi is now preparing to do its part in the rebuilding of the ruined towns and villages of France and Belgium when the great war ceases, and a visit to the lumber yards in the vicinity of Newcastle will further convince one of the big part we will play in that matter.

For the past four years the lumbermen have kept their crews in the woods in the winter, and their mills sawing all summer, despite the fact that in that time hardly a stick has been shipped until today their is lying in the yards of the Miramichi upwards of one and one half million feet of sawn lumber ready for shipment, with no ships in sight for removal.

The market value of this lumber is approximately four and one half million dollars at the present price of thirty dollars per thousand superficial feet, and to move this amount to France would require seventy-five large steamers each carrying one thousand standards each.

With no outlook of peace at the present time, the lumber cut this year, according to well known lumbermen, will be about one half that of former years, but we are assured that as soon as the war is over the cut will double that of pre war times and with the shipping of the large amount on hand as well as the additional employment, the Miramichi, which is now enjoying prosperity, will be one of the busiest places in the whole Dominion of Canada.

War Lecture Bureau Organized Here

Mr. Frank Yeigh, Dominion organizer of the War Lecture Bureau, paid an official visit to Newcastle on Saturday morning, and addressed a very representative gathering of citizens in the Town Hall.

The work of the War Lecture Bureau, is to contract enemy propaganda in Canada, by giving short addresses at the theatres and public gatherings on topics regarding what Canada and the Allies are doing and need in the war, and spread the message of patriotism among our people.

At the close of Mr. Yeigh's address, it was unanimously decided to organize a War Lecture Bureau for Newcastle and the following Committee were chosen to supervise the work—Mayor Troy, Revs. P. W. Dixon and W. J. Bate Messrs. A. H. Cole and R. H. Lockward.

Coun. Parker and Ald. Stuart spoke at Maple Glen and Whitneyville last week.

Victorious Lads Gives Up Lives

Many Northumberland Boys Give Lives That Germany Shall Not Conquer

The sad intelligence reached the Miramichi last week, that a young man, Capt. Norman Hessler, who was well known here had given his life on the field of battle. In a letter to his friend Mr. A. Knicker, Mr. J. Hessler of West Hartlepool, Eng. the father of the young hero, tells of his death in action on May 29th and also another son, Lt. Jack Hessler who gave up his life on March 23rd both of whom were members of the Imperial forces.

Capt. Norman Hessler first came to the Miramichi in 1913 and was employed at the Rosebank Lumber Co. at Nordin. He was very popular especially among the younger set of Newcastle, and will be remembered as a very talented amateur actor, as well as the possessor of a very fine voice, and on several occasions delighted local audiences. After a short visit to England he again returned to the Miramichi and was about to engage in business here, when war broke out and like many another young hero, heard the call of the motherland and at once returned home, where he joined the Imperial forces, and after three years service offered up his life.

The many Miramichi friends will hear with deep regret the news of his death.

Mysterious Fires Do Much Damage On Monday Night

Two Barns in Congested District Ablaze at Same Time—Incendiary Suspected—Loss Considerable

Two mysterious fires, which for a time threatened the entire district were discovered about eleven thirty last night, and gave the firemen a battle royal before they were subdued.

The first fire was discovered in the barn of Clement Ryan, on Jane Street, and was in the hay loft. It had gained considerable headway, and was breaking through the roof, when discovered and an alarm rung in. While the firemen were on their way to this fire flames were seen to issue from the barn of Mr. L. Grossman, the fire in this case having started in the horse manger.

Both barns were filled with hay which made the work of the firemen doubly heavy, but by heroic efforts they were confined to the two buildings, and after a four hour fight were extinguished.

That the fires were of incendiary origin seems very probable for neither Mr. Ryan nor Mr. Grossman, had been near their barns after dark, and no lights or fires were used near the buildings during the evening.

Both buildings were badly gutted, and in addition Mr. Grossman lost a fine horse and some hens, which were unable to get out of the building due to the flames gaining such headway.

There was little, if any insurance on the damaged buildings.

Lieut. Harry Warren, a nephew of Dr. Sprout has been appointed to command one of the Siberian units.

Five girls, dressed in native Indian costume, helped to illustrate her address.

The second session opened at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 3rd. Devotional exercises were led by Mr Silas Munn.

Reports from the different churches were heard, and showed the financial receipts far in excess of any previous year. The interest is being well maintained. It is regretted, however, that three fields—Bathurst, Blackville and Whitneyville—were without pastors. Rev H E Allaby gave the Sunday School report. There are seventeen Sunday Schools in the District, eight of which report an average attendance of two-thirds of their enrollment. Four have cradle rolls and six have Home Departments. Total enrollment is 680 for the district.

Upon request for information from Mrs Mesereau of Bilsfield there followed a valuable discussion on Temperance instruction in Sunday Schools.

The afternoon session was under auspices of the Women's Aid Society, and was addressed by Mrs Havelock Coy and Rev G G Kincaid. The reports showed that all churches but one in the District had an organized and active Women's Aid Societies.

Rev Mr Kincaid emphasized the importance of sitting the Aid Societies reported an increase of membership, greater receipts, and deep interest.

The evening session opened at 7:30 with an audience that entirely filled the church.

Rev Mr Kincaid spoke on the Whiten Harvest Fields, unfolding his subject very ably under three heads: 1. The Lord of the Harvest; 2. The Harvest Field; 3. Our part in the Harvest. At the close of this part of the service, Rev H E Allaby conducted an after service of prayer and praise, in which many took part. The usual votes of thanks were adopted.

It was resolved to hold the Annual meeting with Whitneyville Church on the second Thursday of July next, with no intervening meeting.

Various other recommendations of the Executive were adopted. Mr Alex Astles of Newcastle was chosen District Delegate to the Provincial Association that meets at Marysville on the 25th instant.

The Convention was, on the whole, one of the best and most encouraging that has ever been held.

LET'S STOP CALLING GERMANY "SHE"

A new idea, which will undoubtedly be taken up by others, has been originated by R R Shuman, Chicago, Ill.

Mr Shuman writes: "To every man who loves womanhood there comes an unconscious protest every time he hears the enemy nation spoken of as 'she'."

"The Prussian nation has forfeited the right to this noble appellation and a world-wide movement to stop the practice might help to bring peace to their senses."

"Neither does the nation deserve the pronoun of manliness, but should be spoken of as 'it'—a thing unlovely—a Frankenstein—a mad gorilla."

"So let us alter our terminology: 'Call Prussia 'It''
'Call Germany 'It''
'Call Austria 'They''
'Call the Kaiser 'It''
'Call the Crown Prince 'It''

"In the case of the last two, the thought is that the Kaiser is not a man, but a title, and his son a substitute—hence the lower case 'it'."

"And if we must use a personal pronoun in speaking of the race, let it be 'the Hun—he'."

"A ship is described in the feminine because of its grace and beauty but who would speak of a cruel, ugly, sharklike German U-boat as 'she'?"

"Why, then, prostitute the feminine pronoun by lending it for a moment to the creator of a so hateful a craft?"

"This suggestion is made, not in a spirit of hatred of an unfortunate, because cruelly hypothesized, nation, but in a spirit of love for womanhood, and defense of her prerogatives."

"If all editors of all Allied nations would by common consent, adopt the neuter pronouns, as suggested, the fact could not long be kept concealed from thinking people of the enemy powers, and the note of scorn that the jarring pronouns would invariably sound, might have far-reaching reflex action on minds benumbed for generations by false teachings of school and press and pulp."

"Let's call Germany 'It'."

A CASE FOR THE FOOD CONTROLLER

Many citizens are wondering why it is that they are asked to economize in the use of sugar to the extent of one and a half pounds per month and a wheel of fortune is allowed to distribute chocolates at the rate of over a thousand pounds per day to a community which otherwise would not purchase that quantity in a year. It certainly looks like as if something was wrong somewhere.

The Editor is in receipt of a post card, taken from a German Canteen in the big drive by Pte W Earl MacDonald a former member of the Advocate Staff.

"America must be punished"

Such was the decree of Kaiser Wilhelm, furious because the allies were obtaining food and munitions of war from the United States.

Dr. Arthur N. Davis, the young American who was dentist to the German emperor from 1904 till 1918, tells of the ruler's determination to wreak vengeance upon the United States in his remarkable narrative.

London Paper On Mr. J. L. Stewart

Says He Made a Clean "Scoop" Over Other Newspaper Men

(Evening Standard London)

I wonder if a journalist well past seventy years of age has ever achieved a cleaner "scoop" over his brethren than was effected last week by Mr. J. L. Stewart, of Chatham, New Brunswick, one of the Canadian Press party who returned to London a few days ago, after visiting the Western Front.

Mr. Stewart, as I say, is one of the veterans of Canadian journalism, and moreover, had the misfortune to lose an arm in early life. He was included in the Press delegation from the Dominion at the special request of Lord Beaverbrook, who has many pleasant recollections of him in his youth. Last week the party went out to visit the Judge by General Currie, Canadian Corps Commander, who described for them himself on the spot the incidents of the great attack of Easter Monday last year. As the party was setting out it was found that Mr. Stewart was unprovided with gas mask. With many expressions of regret from his colleagues Mr. Stewart was left behind. Disappointed, but undaunted, the forsaken father of the party set things in motion for himself, the result being that while his confederates trudged through shell holes and skirted craters Mr. Stewart serenely sailed above them in a aeroplane. "Oh, yes, I put it over them," he declared with glee.

Curing Skin Troubles

So many people, both men and women, suffer from skin troubles, such as eczema, blotches, pimples and irritation that a word of advice is necessary. It is a great mistake for such sufferers and those with bad complexions to smear themselves with greasy ointments. Often they could not do anything worse, for the greasy ointments clog the pores of the troubled skin and their condition actually becomes worse.

When there are pimples or eruptions, or an irritating or itching rash, a soothing bersele solution may help to relieve the irritation, but of course that does not cure the trouble. Skin complaints come from an impure condition of the blood and will persist until the blood is thoroughly purified. It is well known that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have effected the best results in many forms of skin disorders and blemishes. This is due to the fact that these pills make new, rich blood, and that this new blood attacks the impurities that give rise to skin troubles and disperses them; so that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure skin disorders from within the system—the only sure way.

It should be added that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have a beneficial effect upon the general health. They increase the appetite and energy and cure diseases that arise from impure blood.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

New Born Infant Was Murdered

So Say Jury in Case Where Infants Body was Found In River

The finding of a child's dead body in the river at Douglastown on Thursday morning last with every suspicion of having been murdered, has aroused the whole community to a state of excitement.

The discovery was made by Messrs Alex. Hutchison, and Allan McLean, while rowing about the river near McEwen's mill, and the little body was naked, with the exception of a tie which was bound tightly across the little month, evidently to prevent its cries being heard, while some heartless person, unsuited to the life of out of this world.

The body was taken in charge by Dr. Marven, who stated that it was apparently about two hours old. He in turn notified Coroner Benson, of Chatham, who at once empanelled a jury, which investigated the case and gave the following verdict:

That the body and the evidence given showed that the child had come to its death by the hand or hands of some person or persons unknown to us and we recommend that the Attorney General further investigate.

Ambitious, unscrupulous, disdainful of his foes, furious toward America, the German Emperor's mind is laid bare by his own words.

The Kaiser revealed his real self to his American dentist, Dr. Arthur N. Davis, who has given the facts to the world in his remarkable narrative to be published in this paper.

The Halifax Herald notifies its subscribers that the price of that paper is to be advanced from five dollars to seven dollars per year. It is now being sold at three cents a copy on the street and by news-dealers, and on the railway trains five cents is charged for that paper. At three cents a copy the paper will cost its daily purchaser $9.36 per year. The Herald has taken the further step of establishing a hard and fast rule of "Pay in advance." Newspapers can no longer do business at the old rates. The increase in the price of paper, metal, ink the advance in labor and freights, the heavy toll paid for telegraphic despatches, must of necessity increase the price of all newspapers.

TELEPHONE EXTENSION NEEDED

In this age of prosperity one of the most important factors in the development of a community is the telephone, and a settlement that has not that privilege is shut off from the rest of the world by a barrier that is hard to overcome. In the vicinity of Newcastle most every section has been favored with the telephone, and that it is appreciated is borne out by the fact that Newcastle exchange has one of the largest lists of subscribers for the district of its size in Eastern Canada, but there is room for extension, and one community that is badly in need of that improvement is the prosperous districts of Chaplin Road, Trout Brook and Wayerton, where some of the best farms of the county are situated and where a large amount of business is done. This community would no doubt give the Telephone Company every encouragement and the business that would be available would more than pay for the initial expenditure in the erection of the lines. We trust that it will only be a short time before this needed improvement is made.

Now is the time to make preparations for liberal subscriptions toward the next Victory loan. The Canadian people must provide the government are advancing beyond these villages. The beaten enemy fell back rapidly along a wide front from below Arras to Rheims before fresh onslaughts of the Allies. Fierce rear-guard resistance was repeatedly crushed.

The British and French, fighting side by side from Bapaume to the Oise, drove forward for wide gains, advancing seven miles at the deepest point.

Americans have reached the rest of the heights south of the Aisne on a wide front and have wrested four villages from the foe's rear guards.

Great fires of ammunition dumps and stores are reported by observers on every indication the Germans will retire to their prepared line west of St. Quentin and LaFere.

In Flanders, the Anglo-Americans again gained on both sides of Arras: To the north they broke three German counter-attacks against their new lines, and advanced further West of La Bassée the British captured Neuve-Chappelle and pushed into the old German positions on that front.

Targanier, three miles west of LaFere, has been captured by French troops.
Harcourt has been taken by the British in their advance toward St. Quentin.

Monday

French forces have reached positions close to La Fere and occupation of the city is probable.
La Fere is one of the principal Allied objectives. It is behind the Hindenburg line, 12 miles south of St. Quentin. The town is one of the strongest points in the Hindenburg defence system and is of the highest strategic importance.

The British having taken Havrin court Wood German artillery fire, heavier than at any time within recent weeks, is reported from the line west of Rheims.

Pushing ahead on the front between Peronne and St. Quentin, British patrols have occupied the towns of Vermand, three and a half miles northeast of St. Quentin, and Vendelles.

Lumbermen's Asso. Interview Gov't

A delegation representing the recently organized Lumbermen's Association waited on the Provincial government in St. John on Wednesday. The members present included W. B. Snowball, James Robinson, Garfield White, Donald Fraser and F. C. Beatty. The lumbermen informed the government of the objects of their association and presented a copy of their by-laws. They also informed the government that they intend to appoint a permanent secretary and asked that he be recognized in matters affecting the interests of the lumbermen.

One matter which was discussed quite thoroughly was the scaling and the best methods to adopt. The lumbermen advocated an individual piece scale by competent scalers as the only means by which justice could be done to the province and the operators. If this method were adopted the operator would pay the stumpage on his entire cut and no question of "holding out" could possibly be raised. The Government promised consideration of the proposal.

Guard Baby's Health In The Summer

The summer months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of the season, which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery come on so quickly that often a little life is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on suddenly to cure them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the stomach and bowels and are absolutely safe. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BUY CAREFULLY

We respectfully put before you the advisability of anticipating your requirements, and of buying now most of the things you will need in the near future.

Prices are continually advancing. There is no prospect of an early decline. Later on you will have to pay more for the same goods—or even for merchandise not so good.

It is unwise to buy more than you need, or to buy with the purpose of hoarding. But it is the height of wisdom to take advantage of prevailing prices, and buy your present needs now, as well as to anticipate those of the early future.

of whom regard her as one of the most delightful of all cinema actresses. That she possesses an inimitable naivete with artistry of the highest order, generally is conceded.

In her new picture, "Unclaimed Goods," Miss Martin appears in a Western role, that of the daughter of a Sheriff, and she undergoes the remarkable experience of being shipped as an express package to a mining town, but when she reaches her destination, her uncle, who was to have claimed her, falls to appear. The mining town is in the hands of bandits, the leader of whom, attracted by the girl's beauty, is about to buy her at auction, when she is saved by a man she had befriended and who sacrifices his life in her behalf.

There are unusual twists in this capital photoplay which is to be presented at the Happy Hour Theatre next Friday. Miss Martin is adequately supported by Harrison Ford, Casson Ferguson, George McDaniel, Carmen Phillips and others, all well known to motion picture fans.

Agricultural Fair And Live Stock Sale

To be Held Here On October 2nd—Open To North'd County

That Newcastle is to have an Agricultural Fair and sale of County Produce and Live Stock was decided at a meeting of Agricultural Society, No 122 last week.

The Riak has been secured for the occasion, and the date has been set for Wednesday, October 2nd.

Much interest is being taken in the arrangements for the fair which promises to be a most successful one, inasmuch as there is no exhibition in the Maritime Provinces this year, with the exception of Charlottetown and St. Stephen, and few, if any Northumberland breeders are exhibiting at these shows.

The exhibits are open to the County of Northumberland, and the prize list, which will be announced shortly promises to be of a very tempting nature.

Mr W M Johnston has been selected as manager and is already at work at the Prize List, etc, and several of the local merchants have signified their intention of offering special prizes to be competed for.

Canadian Masons In England

H. S. Carmichael, Passenger and Freight Manager of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, was installed W. M. of the Canada Lodge at the installation banquet held recently in London, England, attended by the Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Clarke, Sir Gilbert Parker, General J. G. Ross and many other Canadians and English representative men interested in Canada.

The Canada Lodge No. 3527 on the Register of the United Grand Lodge of England, was founded in 1911, in order to provide a Masonic centre for Canadians resident in Great Britain and Brethren from the Dominion visiting the Old Country. The object of the founders was also to form a bond of union between the Brethren of the Dominion and the Brethren of the United Kingdom in the strong hope and confidence that Freemasonry might so even still further assist in the great work of forming these bonds of "indissoluble attachment" which shall forever unite the component parts of the British Empire. The Lodge has now 282 members, many of whom are Dominion members resident in all parts of Canada. No fewer than 150 are initiates of the Lodge, 286 members of the Lodge are on active service in H. M. Forces.

Mr. Hugh Strain Carmichael, the newly-elected W. M. of Canada Lodge, is a native of Glasgow. He has been connected with the Transatlantic steamship trade since 1888, when he joined the staff of the State Line, which in 1891 was taken over by the Allan Line. In 1895 he commenced his long connection with the Canadian Pacific Company at Glasgow, transferring to the Liverpool office in 1903, when the company established its transatlantic passenger service. In 1908 he was promoted to be general passenger agent for Great Britain and Europe. Since the establishment, in 1913-16, of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd., which manages the entire fleet of the C. P. R. and Allan Lines, Mr. Carmichael has occupied the position of passenger and freight manager, and has his headquarters at Waterloo Place, London, England.

"How foolish it was for your president to bring your country into this war! Now America must pay the bills!"

That's what the kaiser told his American dentist, Dr. Arthur N. Davis, after the United States declared war.

To Dr. Davis, the German emperor revealed his real self. He expressed his approval of the Lusitania sinking and of other acts of barbarity perpetrated by the German soldiers.

Don't fail to read, in this paper, Dr. Davis's story of

Ringworm on Child's Head

Caused Great Distress and Spread to Neck and Ears—Cure Was Speedily Effected When Right Treatment Was Recommended.

There is no disease of the skin more obstinate than ringworm, and the mother who writes this letter does so fully realizing what it will mean to other anxious mothers to know about Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This remarkable cure was brought about two years ago, and as there has been no return of the distressing disease there can be no doubt that the cure is permanent.

Mrs. D. Stebbins, Grand Bend, Ont., writes: "I am going to tell you of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment. My little girl had sores come out on her head which looked like ringworms. They were spreading fast, and I tried home treatment, but nothing helped her. I took her to the doctor, and he opened some of the sores, which were as big as the yoke of an egg. The sores he gave me to put on was very severe, and the poor child would cry for an hour or more after an application. For six weeks it continued to spread all over her head, and came down to her neck and ears. She suffered terribly. At last some kind ladies told me about Dr. Chase's Ointment, so I got a box, and the first time I put it on she was relieved of pain, and the second time the swelling was all gone. Before we had finished the first box the sores were nearly all gone. I have told all the people around here about your Ointment, and I cannot praise it too much. It is now two years since my little girl was troubled in this way, and it never came back, so you can see she is completely cured. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of others who may be suffering in a similar manner."

Joseph Brenner, J.P., endorses this statement as follows: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. D. Stebbins of Grand Bend, Ont., and believe her statement with reference to Dr. Chase's Ointment to be true and correct."

Want Government To Supply Cattle Feed

Petition of Westmorland County Farmers Being Largely Signed

A petition addressed to the Provincial Government of the Province of New Brunswick is being widely circulated and signed throughout the Parishes of Westmorland County and others of the province.

The petition concerns the farmers of the different counties and pays the local government to do something towards securing a supply of cotton seed, oil cake and other live stock feeds from outside points selling the same to the farmers at a reasonable price. The petition states that the price of the above feeds has become prohibitive and thus the raising of live stock has been made almost impossible. The action of the Ontario Government in regard to a similar problem is cited in that province the sum of one million dollars was set aside for the purpose of procuring a supply of seeds from the United States. The supply was put in the hands of one particular firm to sell to the farmers at a reasonable price. Similar action on the part of the New Brunswick is being asked by the hundreds of petitioners who have already signed the memorial.

Mr. Jacob Hans, a prosperous farmer at the Gorge was the one responsible for the getting up of the petition and the idea has gained much favor among the farmers of the various parishes. The petition is still in circulation and is being widely signed.—Times

Col. MacKenzie D. S. O., Meets Hero's Death

Fell on August 28th. Leading His Men To Victory

That the Fighting Commander of the 26th New Brunswicks own battalion, had met a soldier's death on the field of honor was the sad intelligence received here on Thursday by Mrs. Charlotte McKenzie wife of Lieut. Col. A. E. G. McKenzie, D. S. O. whose death in action is mourned all over the Province of New Brunswick, for there is hardly a home within its borders, who have not had or have now some friend or relative within the ranks of that regiment, and helped to bring glory to our Province through their many victories under the gallant leadership of Col. McKenzie.

The official telegram to the sad message that he had been killed in action on August 28th when according to despatches the Canadian, swept the enemy from Jigsaw Wood, in grand style and also cleared the enemy from (front) defended trench systems in Botry-Notre Dame and Pelves, and it was on these operations, no doubt, that Lieut. Col. MacKenzie gave up his life.

Lieut. Colonel MacKenzie, who was thirty-eight years of age was a native of Campbellton. After completing his school education, he graduated from the University of New Brunswick, receiving the degree of M. A. from that institution. He engaged in the teaching profession for several years, and was for some time Principal of Harkins Academy and it was while here he met and married Miss Charlotte Troy, daughter of Postmaster J. M. Troy. Later he studied at the St. John Law School and received the degree of B. C. L. from King's University, later being admitted to the New Brunswick bar.

Removing to Campbellton, he entered upon the practice of law there, at first in partnership with the late Judge Trueman. He was prominent in politics, taking a fitting part in the councils of the Liberal party on the North Shore and in 1912 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the local legislature. He was a prominent in the Masonic fraternity also, and was an active member of the Caledonian Society.

When he first joined the 26th battalion, November, 1914, nearly four years ago, he was a captain in the active militia. He was given the rank of major and was placed as second in command under Lieut. Colonel McAvity. He served throughout the first strenuous winter with distinction and succeeded actively to the command in April, 1916, having his appointment confirmed in September of the same year. For some time he had served as acting brigadier-general and with the advantage of a recent "refresher" course, it is believed that he was in line for further higher honors had he lived to attain them. His Distinguished Service Order decoration was awarded in January, 1917, for consistent good work in the handling of his regiment. He led in the third battle of Ypres, Courcellette, Vimy Ridge and Passchendaele, and more recently it seems at Amiens and in the heroic struggle on the Serape in which he met his death, the Canadian achievement in these two battles having been declared to be without parallel in the history of the war.

Besides his widow the late Lt. Col. MacKenzie leaves his parents Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McKenzie, of Campbellton, four brothers, three of whom are on active service and three sisters.

Newcastle Girl Admitted to N. S. Bar

Miss Frances Fish First Woman Lawyer in Nova Scotia Bar

(Halifax Chronicle)

Tomorrow will be a red letter day for the feminist movement in Eastern Canada for the first woman lawyer will be admitted to the Bar. The name of this modern Portia is Miss Lillian Frances Fish and she hails from Newcastle N. B. Her first collegiate studies were undertaken at the University of New Brunswick where she obtained the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Thence she went to the University of Chicago, securing an M. A. Three years ago she enrolled at the Dalhousie Law School, graduating last spring with a splendid record behind her. This summer she has been associated with the firm of Maclean, Paton, Birchell and Ralston. Although Miss Fish is the first woman to be admitted to the local Bar, she is not the first to actively embrace the profession of law.

What the Knights of Columbus Mean by "Everything Free" at Army Huts

What we mean by "Everything Free" in our buildings, in the camps is that we do not operate any canteens in any of our buildings, either in this country or in France. Anything we have for the soldiers of great or small value, is given without charge with the single exception of postage stamps.

In this country, in most of the camps we have boxes filled with tobacco and a supply of cigarette papers so that the soldiers "may roll their own," and there are occasional distributions of cigarettes, coffee sandwiches, etc. but these latter are as a rule only distributed in connection with some entertainment held once or twice a week.

Abroad, similar occasional distributions are made in the training camps and at the ports of entry. The only place where we attempt, or intend to attempt, to make any greater distribution is right behind the lines to the men coming out of the trenches, or in the hospitals or convalescent camps. We have purchased for such distribution abroad a large quantity of cigarettes, cigars, sweet chocolate, drinking chocolate, coffee, condensed milk, soup and bouillon cubes, chewing gum, hard candy and we are operating what are known as "Automobile soup kitchens" these last, of course, to be used just behind the lines.

We hope you get the point in the foregoing that our aim is the free distribution of what we have to supply to provide mainly for the men right at the front, not so much for the men back at the base who have access to the Army Canteens and quartermasters' stores.

Tell my friends if they want to help me, to send some Zam-Buk.

This part of a letter received from Pte. J. R. Smith of Ottawa, illustrates the soldier's need of Zam-Buk at the front. To them it is a necessity. Large quantities of Zam-Buk are bought for the army and the Canadian Y.M.C.A. keep their canteens in France supplied, but to make sure your soldier friend is not having to go without, send him a few boxes of Zam-Buk in your next parcel.

Zam-Buk is just what he needs for cuts, barbed wire scratches, burns, blisters, sore feet and gas sores. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

TO PROTECT THE BIRDS

TREATY MADE BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

The People in the Dominion Were Anxious to Have the Law Established, But Technicalities Raised Under the American Constitution Caused Delays — Everything Has Now Been Satisfactorily Arranged.

THE executive branch of the United States Government is empowered to enter into treaties with foreign nations, but the judicial branch may, in certain cases, render such treaties invalid, while, if the agreements are not satisfactory to Congress, and involve any action by that body, the legislative branch may render them nugatory. Thus, to give real strength and movement to international conventions, the three branches of the Federal Government must be in accord. An interesting illustration is afforded by the Migratory Bird Treaty recently signed by President Wilson. The treaty was agreed to some time ago, but questions arose as to the power of the Washington Government to dispose of a subject over which the states had, in the past, generally assumed and exercised jurisdiction. Canada being the first nation on the North American Continent to become involved in the present war, and realizing the vital necessity of protecting its crops, sought to enter into a treaty with the United States which would guarantee the protection of useful birds flying at intervals hither and thither between the two countries.

The Dominion Government found no difficulty in arousing interest in its purpose across the border, and it required no time for the proper authorities in these neighboring nations to agree upon the terms of a measure designed to protect birds now regarded by instructed agriculturists as of incalculable value in crop production. The treaty framed sought to shield from destruction, and perhaps from annihilation, various game birds, including water fowl, migratory insectivorous birds, including bobolinks, catbirds, chickadees, meadow larks, thrushes, wrens, and many others more or less familiar on the farms of the United States and Canada. Among the game birds, those specifically named were the auk, the grebe, the gull, the heron, the petrel, and the tern.

There already existed in the United States a migratory bird law, and several of the individual states had sought, through legislation, to safeguard certain of the feathered species. On the other hand, antipathy to certain birds, elsewhere believed to be useful, existed in some of the sovereign commonwealths. An Arkansas court, following agreement on the treaty, decided that bird control belonged to the state and not to the nation, and the point was taken to the United States Supreme Court. Interjected into the controversy also was the question whether the executive branch of the Government could make treaties of this kind without the concurrence of the Legislative branch. As an interesting example of the lengths of which contention over a matter of this kind may be carried, it is worth while to point out that there were some persons who insisted that if the executive branch could make and enforce a treaty of this character, overriding the authority of an individual state, it could also, for instance, impose a Japanese immigration treaty upon California.

It speaks eloquently for the neighborly feeling existing between the United States and Canada that the disposition on the southern side of the line, from the beginning, was to comply with the wishes of the Dominion, and to make this compliance effective, regardless of minor issues. In due course, Congress enacted laws essential to the enforcement in the United States of every provision in the convention, and the President's signature has now made the treaty wholly effective. Action might well have been more expeditious, but as a matter of fact, in the absence of a treaty, the provincial and Dominion authorities in Canada and the federal and state authorities in the United States have, especially during the last two years, been enforcing existing bird protection laws within their respective jurisdictions with intelligence and fidelity, and in the spirit behind the treaty. As a result, birds have multiplied in both countries, and, while it is not possible to give figures showing the gain, it is possible to point to harvest yields without precedent in both the Dominion and the republic.

First Soldier—I wonder if the nurse you had was the same one I had.

First Soldier—"They are all like that when you're sick."

The Kaiser As I Knew Him For Fourteen Years

By DR. ARTHUR N. DAVIS
Dentist to the German Ruler From 1904 to 1918

DR. DAVIS, a young American, born at Piqua, O., and graduate of a Chicago dental college, went to Berlin in 1904 to work with a famous dental surgeon who for years had been practitioner to the kaiser and other members of the German court. Within a short time Dr. Davis' associate committed suicide and the young American was established as the court dentist. In that capacity he became intimately acquainted with the kaiser, and the latter, in the course of dozens of friendly talks, revealed himself and his ambitions as he probably did to no other person outside his immediate circle.

Dr. Davis has written the story of his relations and interviews with the kaiser and we have arranged to print his remarkable narrative in serial form. The first installment will appear in an early issue.

This true narrative lays bare the mind of the despot who has deluged the world with blood. It shows by the emperor's own words how he has approved every act of cruelty and barbarity that the German armies have perpetrated during the war. It shows how the kaiser grew to hate and despise Americans and how he gave warning that the United States should be punished.

You Cannot Afford to Miss One Word of These Amazing Disclosures Watch for the Opening Installment

A New Meaning.

The general adoption of the English sense of the phrase "carry on" will probably put an end to the old-fashioned Yankee meaning of the same phrase. "Hy! how she carries on!" That meant, "how badly she behaves." "Did you ever see such carry on?" That was equivalent to "Did you ever see such reckless and reprehensible behavior?" Yet at the same time the phrase had a different significance all through New England. "Carrying on the farm" meant operating it. "Now that Sam Jones is dead, do you s'pose his wife'll carry on the farm?" "Laws, no, she couldn't carry on a hen-coop—his nephew John's goin' to carry it on." The English "carry on," meaning to persevere earnestly with a work, has much the same general significance, though the English use the verb intransitively, as we use it in the other and less creditable sense of "carrying on," while we use it, in this sense, transitively. The war is going to be a great mixer of the speech of the peoples who are standing shoulder to shoulder in it. The letters which the boys write home are sprinkled with French words and phrases. The French, for their part, are adopting English phrases. All northern France has fallen into the use of a sort of war patois, one-quarter English and three-quarters French. At the same time our boys are falling into the use of English trench and other military phrases, and will bring them home. The English, always keen to get hold of graphic Americanisms, are finding a rich store of them in the talk of the Yankees. If the war keeps on long enough English and French may both be dead languages, and we shall all be talking Entente.

The Arrogant Germans.

Buxton, Derbyshire, England, is favored by Germans just now, says the London Daily Mail. They are not quite so abundant as the Antler moth grubs, which infest Axe Edge and crawl over the stone walls and roads of the country below. It is not yet a German spa, but there is no doubt German visitors are too abundant at Buxton, and are trying the temper of many British—really British—subjects there. They frequent the Baths, take their share of radium, drink the waters, shop, and generally "enjoy the war."

They sometimes patronize the military. The other day a German began to talk to a wounded soldier on a seat in the town. He patted the soldier, declared the hospital clothes reminded one of the German clothing band. He deplored that wounded men should be dressed "like paupers," and was beginning to ask interesting questions when the conversation was abruptly closed by an English lady on the same seat warning the German in his own language that she knew who he was and telling the soldier not to answer. The German scowled at her and huffed away angrily.

Lloyd George's Stick.

Mr. George Graves, in his favorite role of war auctioneer, was a distinct success at the Coal Exchange, London, when he raised a considerable sum of money for the Blindfolded Soldiers' Children Fund. "A nasty-looking instrument," remarked Mr. Graves, as he offered Mr. Lloyd George's walking stick for sale. The stick was sold for £100. An Irish blackthorn, sent by Sir Edward Carson, was accompanied by an autograph letter in which Sir Edward said that the stick had been his companion during many exciting visits to Ulster. A bid of 255 secured the blackthorn. Mr. Bonar Law's favorite briar pipe fetched £55, a £5 note with Mr. Asquith's signature on the back realized 45 guineas, and Mr. Balfour's favorite brass changed hands at £30.

An Accident.

"Hello, Tims!" said Jones, in London Tit-Bits. "I saw your wife this morning. By Jove! that new coat of hers must have cost a pot of money. You're doing specially well at present?" "No, not exactly," replied Tims, moodily. "Fact is, she got it by accident." "By accident," exclaimed Jones. "How was that?" "Well, it was this way, I got home rather late the other night. The hall was very dark, but I could just distinguish a figure standing by the chair. I slipped up to her, put my arm around her waist, and whispered, 'Mary, give me a kiss.'" "But—but," stammered Jones, "I thought your wife's name was Kate?" "It is," murmured Tims; "that's how she got the coat."

Through the vast section of Northern Quebec and Northern Ontario, the traveller enjoys all the delights of a quick and comfortable journey through a new country abounding in great lakes and rivers, a territory glowing with the lively promise of Canada's great future.

From Maritime Provinces points passengers may journey to Lewis by the "Oceana Limited" or by the "Maritime Express," the latter train affording the most convenient and direct connection with the "Western National" which leaves Quebec at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday of each week. Mysterious Subterranean Chambers

Mr. Deutchman digging for the main entrance to caves. Under the foot of snow. THE Naklun Caves at Glacier House, B.C., whose mysterious subterranean chambers, washed out of the marble heart of a Canadian Rocky Mountain by a glacial river, are reached in summer from an Alpine meadow six thousand feet high, surrounded by beautiful snow-clad peaks, though the meadow itself is gay with flowers. In winter, however, the snow falls deep, and in early spring Mr. Deutchman, who originally discovered these caves, and who is employed by the Canadian Government to show them to passing tourists, has to prospect for the entrance, which may lie ten feet under a snow drift. All around are the tracks of wild animals which pass this way in winter over the Baloo Pass to the heights where only the keenest hunter is likely to follow them—grizzly bear, mountain lion, wolf, caribou, goat and mountain sheep. In summer, of course, the fierce animals are but rarely seen, but the whistling marmots come and play around the cabin door, cheekily begging bread from the luncheon stand, while overhead the eagle flies in tireless watch for his own prey. The caves themselves are entirely unhabited, and so far no fish have been discovered in the waters of the river. Under the blaze of a magnesian ribbon, however, there is scenery enough, and to spare—the marble flowered walls contrasting strangely with the water torn floor. Up to the present no one has discovered what becomes of the torrent which rages through the caves. It does not find any exit in the Illecillewaet Valley below, but there are sulphate springs on the mountain side forty miles away, which Mr. Deutchman suspects to be connected with this subterranean river.

A WET FIND
One day last week, a local young man discovered a quantity of liquor in the woods, near the town, in all about two cases and a half. It was not hidden in any manner, but had evidently been placed in the woods for safe keeping. The matter was reported to Inspector Asford, who at once drove to the scene, but on his arrival, found that one case had taken flight in the meantime, but he took the balance in charge, and is now endeavoring to locate the owners, who if found will likely face a charge of having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling.

RECEIVES LETTER REGARDING MISSING HEIFER
Pte Graham, who, as reported in these columns a few weeks ago, lost a heifer from its pasture near Patterson's Siding, and found part of the remains in the woods where it had been slaughtered, recently received an anonymous letter regarding the animal. The writer stating that it had been killed by boys in mistake for a deer, and that it would be paid for. Enclosed with the letter was a $2.00 bill, and more was promised later on, but as yet, Pte Graham has heard no further word of the matter. The animal was valued at about $20.00, the loss is very heavy one to Pte Graham, and it is to be hoped that the guilty parties will make good his loss.
