THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1888. VICTORY IN SHELBOURNE.

The election for the House of Commons, which took place in Shelbourne County, N. S., on the 24th inst., resulted in the return of the Government candidates, Gen. Laurier, by a majority of forty-two votes. This is not a very large majority, but when we come to consider all the circumstances, we must regard this election as one of the most important since the general election in 1873.

Until about a year ago Shelbourne never returned a Liberal-Conservative; but, on the contrary, was always regarded as one of the banner Grit constituencies of the Dominion. So strongly Liberal was this county considered, that prior to 1873 the Conservative never put a candidate in the field, but allowed the Grit nominee at the different elections to be returned by acclamation. In 1873 the Liberal-Conservative nominated a man; but he was badly beaten, although there were two Liberal runners. In 1878 the Grit majority was reduced below two hundred, and at the general election, in 1879, Mr. Robertson, Grit, was elected over General Laurier by only thirty-four votes. Robertson was assisted for bribery by agents, and in the election which followed, in December last, General Laurier defeated Robertson by the small majority of eight votes, and this was the first time Shelbourne elected a Conservative.

This is the history of the strength of parties in Shelbourne for twenty-one years. Let us now see what were the issues in the recent election, and how the canvass was conducted. The Opposition made Unrestricted Reciprocity the sole question during the campaign, and as the electors of Shelbourne are composed almost exclusively of farmers and fishermen, it ought to have many friends there, it is true. But the result shows that the people of Shelbourne are not to be fooled by any such false political doctrine. They are observers of the progress Canada is making under Liberal-Conservative rule, and have, in consequence, entrusted the destinies of their country to those who are their best friends.

The Opposition made a dead set on the county, and the contest was an unequal one. General Laurier is a man of seventy-six years of age, and prevented by illness from making much of an active canvass, and the only outside assistance he had was from Mr. Cahoon, of the Halifax Herald. On the other hand, his opponent, Mr. Congdon, is a young, active man, a lawyer and a good speaker, if we believe his own friends. Besides Mr. Fielding, Premier of Nova Scotia, stamped the whole county in Mr. Congdon's behalf, and he was assisted by Mr. McCoy, M. P. P., Recorder of Halifax. It will thus be seen that the Liberal-Conservative candidate had great odds against him, and his triumphant election shows that the people of Shelbourne are alive to their own interests, and are not to be dazzled by the sophistry of Mr. Fielding and his assistants.

From being a Grit stronghold we have seen Shelbourne lessening by degrees to a minimum, and now it is in the ascending scale, and increases the Conservative vote at every opportunity. No doubt in a short time it will become one of the strongest Conservative constituencies in Nova Scotia.

SIR JOHN AND THE TREATY.

It will be remembered that, a few weeks ago, Mr. Laurier, leader of the Opposition in the Dominion Parliament, took occasion, while making a speech at St. Thomas, to censure the Government of Sir John Macdonald in connection with the question of the fisheries. Mr. Laurier was pleased to take the same view of the subject as the United States politicians. He said the conduct of the Government was cruel, and thought they should make greater concessions to the United States. A great number of the Grit papers, of course, approved of Mr. Laurier's views, as expressed in that St. Thomas speech.

Quite recently the London, Ont., Free Press, an independent journal, made some unauthorized statements, which were construed by the Grits to indicate that the Government was going to recede from its position regarding the fishery treaty; and, always anxious to show Sir John and his party, no matter how inconsistent with their former declarations, such a course might be, the same paper had approved of Laurier's views, as expressed at St. Thomas, were beginning to pour out the vials of their wrath against the Government when Sir John spoiled their little game, at the Chapeau banquet, held in Ottawa a few days ago, the veteran Premier said, regarding the treaty: "It was a fish treaty, and I believe, after the President's election is over, when they get down to the real work, they will have to make some arrangements based on the same basis and principle as the treaty which we have made. It is not the purpose of the Government to renege on the treaty."

A DIPLOMATIST CAUGHT NAPPING.

Sir L. S. Sackville West, British Minister of Washington, has been heavily lampooned by the New York York politicians. He received a letter from a resident of Ponce, Carolina, who represented himself as an Englishman that had become a naturalized citizen of the United States; and in it obtained the minister's advice as to whether or not he should vote for Cleveland, and wishing to get an expression of opinion as to Mr. West's ideas of Cleveland's motives in making his declaration of independence. The plenipotentiary should have been more easy than to be caught in this trap; but acting in good faith and supposing his correspondent to be in earnest, he wrote him the following letter:

"Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th September, and I beg to say that I fully appreciate the difficulty in which you find yourself. It is a question of the highest importance, and one which is being discussed in all quarters. I have not the pleasure of knowing your name, but I am sure you are a gentleman of high standing in your country. I will be glad to see you again, and to discuss the matter more fully."

The value of Canadian exports during September aggregated $9,500,000; imports $9,700,000. Duty collected $4,150,000.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

ALDERMAN WHITEHEAD, London's next Lord Mayor, will be installed on the 9th of November. He is a fan-maker by trade, but is, of course, very wealthy. It is necessary that he should be elected as the salary for his year of office, $50,000, will scarcely meet half his expenses. During his reign of one year, the Lord Mayor ranks as and has the precedence of the officials and is privy as "My Lord," and his wife ranks at court as a Countess. When the term is over they sink into plain Mr. and Mrs.

ADVICES FROM ROME say that four hundred passengers on the train crushed by a landslide near Foligno, a few days ago. The work of unearthing the dead bodies has been impeded by cold and snow. Some heart-rending scenes were presented. A mother who had been driven mad by the catastrophe refused to release from her embrace two dead children. A young priest was buried two hours, and when extracted he was found that his hair had turned white. An entire family, consisting of six persons, were killed. All the officials attached to the train were killed.

THE PARRELL COMMISSION.

The commission appointed to investigate the charge made by the London Times against the Irish and Canadian Governments, is reported to have completed its report on the 24th inst. Sir Charles Russell, as leading counsel for the Irish Government, was applying for the release from the prison of William Redmond. Justice Keene, presiding at the hearing, has agreed to the request, and has ordered that he be released on bail of £10,000, and that he be allowed to return to his home in County Kerry. The commission, however, has not yet issued its final report, and the release of Redmond is a matter of some importance.

WILLIAM PREPPER, found guilty in Halifax last winter of the murder of Peter Doyle at Musquodoboit last fall, was, on Thursday last, sentenced by Judge Ritchie to be hanged on the 19th of January next. Some objections, which had been taken by the prisoner's counsel to the trial, are now pending the decision of the court at Ottawa. The decision of this court will probably determine whether or not the sentence will be carried out. During the same term of the court at Halifax, Mrs. White was tried for the murder of her husband, and was, after a six days trial, acquitted.

A DISPATCH FROM PITTSBURG, Pa., dated the 23rd inst., says that the District Attorney of Carbon county issued warrants for the arrest of the engineers, look-outs, flagmen and conductors concerned in the recent accident, charging them with gross negligence and causing the great disaster at Mud Run, which resulted in killing and injuring many persons. The coroner's jury in the recent rail-road disasters at Washington, Pa., says the same despatch, censured a testimony placing the responsibility for the accident on Conductor Heck, of the shifting engine, and charging him with involuntary manslaughter in causing the deaths of Engineer Noonan and fireman McGee. The testimony showing that he had ordered the switch opened and then failed to see that it was closed. Edward Bone, the new switch hand who opened the switch, was condemned for gross negligence. The coroner issued a warrant for Heck's arrest.

CONSIDERABLE excitement has of late been created in railway circles in Manitoba, on account of the deal which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the projectors of the Red River Valley Railroad. The Government of Manitoba are committed to the completion of the last-named road; but the track of this road has to cross the line of the Canadian Pacific. The C. P. R., who appears for some of the Parrellists, is a Scotch lawyer. Mr. Lockwood is a highly respected lawyer, and is a man of great ability. The array of legal talent is sufficiently imposing on both sides, but it is evident that the Parrellists have the advantage. The result, however, must depend entirely upon the evidence. Mr. Lockwood has a strong case, but he must be able to establish his case before the jury. It is believed Mr. Parrell will endeavor to show that the Parrellist was in the train at the time of the accident, and that he was the one who gave the signal to proceed. The case will be tried in Winnipeg, and is expected to last several weeks.

On the 24th inst., a fast freight train ran into the rear of another freight train, instantly killing one workman, severely wounding another workman, and breaking another locomotive and a freight car, and wrecking the engine. An express train running in the opposite direction was also wrecked, but no passengers were hurt.

MISCELLANEA.

THE STORM ON MONDAY last was one of the heaviest felt here for many days. It reached its height about 11 o'clock a.m., when the wind had attained a velocity equal to forty miles an hour. The tide was quite high in Charlottetown harbor, and all the vessels in port were pretty well tossed about. The schooner Enterprise, loaded with potatoes and turkeys, dragged her anchors and was driven against a pier, where she had her top side stove in, filled with water and sank; the potatoes and turkeys floating about in great numbers. No other great calamity happened in the city. The telephone, telegraph and electric light wires were pretty well tangled, broken and obstructed. In the vicinity of the city a great number of trees were blown down, and in many places fell across the wires. The telephones were all working through yesterday afternoon, and the local telegraph service does not seem to have suffered to any great extent.

The Steam Navigation Company's boats had a very rough time; but they both reached their destination, although late in the day. The St. Lawrence left for Pictou shortly after 7 o'clock, and after an extremely stormy passage, reached Pictou on Monday morning. The ship was blown about by the wind, and was forced to anchor in the harbor shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The schooner Mary J. Jewell, of Boston, went ashore near Pictou on Monday last, and the schooner Eureka is ashore near the Railway Wharf, in Summerside.

THE BARKENESS DIVA, Capt. Ledwell, arrived at this port on Monday last, after a run of twenty-five days from Liverpool, with a general cargo for the owners, Messrs. Peake Bro. & Co.

Mrs. DELLA S. PARNELL, mother of Charles Stewart Parnell, has addressed a letter to the Irish American voters in New York, appealing to them to support the Democratic ticket.

Messrs. DODD & ROGERS have just put down an excellent flag pavement in front of their building, used as a hardware store and drug store, on Queen Street. This is creditable to them; these are the kind of show places should all the city stand in need of. It is to be hoped others will follow their example.

The second meeting of the Charlottetown branch of the League of the Cross was held at St. Patrick's Hall on Sunday evening last. Although the weather was disagreeable there was a large attendance. Appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. Father McNeill and others. About twenty-five new members joined the League.

On Friday last a four-year old daughter of Mr. John D. Ridd, Windsor Road, came to her death under most pitiful circumstances. She was laughing and playing about the stable with two little boys and a dog when she was thrown from the stable by a horse, smartly against a very high gate. He kicked her in the head, and she died instantly. To add to the pain, the father of the child, Mr. Ridd, was away from home at the time.

GENERAL NEWS.

ARRIVAL IN MOSCOW. A ship from Moscow collapsed on the 29th inst., and a large number of its inmates were buried beneath the ruins. Sixteen dead bodies and 25 injured have been recovered.

A VESSEL CAPTURED. On the 24th inst., a full rigged three masted Italian ship was captured by the British Channel off month Atlantic Basin, near New York. The vessel contained a cargo of 3000 bushels of wheat and 1000 barrels of flour.

STOCK IMPORTATIONS. The steamer Ulanda arrived at Halifax on the 26th inst., and brought from London 2000 bushels of wheat, and three staves, four coach boxes, one outfit with one harness, 3 Durham cattle, all for Seville and Gilliland, of Fredericton, N. B. One coach was lost on the passage.

MAIL ROBBERY. The mail pouch which left Boston on the 24th and arrived in Chicago on the 26th, was robbed of all the first-class mail-matter it contained. The stolen packages consisted of registered letters, and the supposition is that a large amount of money was secured by the thief. The bag had been open, and the first taking the package containing first-class matter only. This leads to the belief that the perpetrator of the robbery was some one connected with the postal service.

IRISH AFFAIRS. The Times has served subpoenas upon Frank Hugh O'Donnell and his solicitor, requiring them to produce certain documents before the Grand Jury, in connection with the alleged conspiracy to assassinate the late President of the United States, James A. Garfield.

OUR READERS know quite well how careful we are to recommend nothing but what is thoroughly trustworthy. But in the present case we have no hesitancy in saying that Jas. Paton & Co. have added to their popular store in fitting up two large clothing rooms well stocked with Gents', Youths' and Boys' Overcoats, Hats and Suits. James Paton & Co. say to our representative:

"Sir, - You are the first representative of the press to visit our new clothing rooms, also our extraordinary and unparalleled stock of gents' winter clothing. All the clothing you now see in this department is to be offered to the public of Prince Edward Island at such prices as will be most startling and attractive. In laying before the public that extraordinary lot of bargains in clothing, we are aware that skeptics will be found who will doubt even your recommendation. To such we say 'facts are stranger than fiction.'"

Come and judge for yourselves by a personal visit and see that every statement is verified, and further we are determined not to keep any low class clothing in stock. We refrain from quoting prices in our advertisement in your valuable paper, as they usually lead to disappointment, but we will be glad to show to any of your readers who may favor us with a call. Our representative says: "Jas. Paton & Co. have spared no pains to place before the public and their friends a large and valuable stock of Gents' Overcoats and Suits as well as to maintain but extend the reputation of the firm for Variety, Freshness, Quality and Value." We wish Jas. Paton & Co. success in their new enterprise, and advise intending purchasers of ready-made winter clothing to pay them a visit and inspect their valuable stock.

Patrons of the press who give you the best goods for the least money. And it is from us to the very top.
