Having shown where we excel in the Bedding Line, we wish to add one word more on Our New Idea Bedstead. Having installed machinery the past month for the punching, boring, &c., of our Beds, we can now fit our Oxford or Copper Spring to any Bed as required. This does away with the wood altogether, makes it absolutely vermin proof, and makes a Bed superior in every way to the old, as it is made into the Bed and can be removed and packed work closely. A great convenience when removing. We also have the Combinery very closely—a great convenience when removing. S. S. Conference.

Avalon Deanery Sunday School Teachers held their fifth biennial Conference last night at the Synor Hall. Rev. Canon Colley, Rural Dean, presided. There were present about 150 teachers, representing most of the Parishes and Missions of the Deanery of Avalon. A large number of delegates assembled at the Or-phanage in the afternoon. From there they visited Government House and viewed the work that is being done on behalf of our soldiers and sailors. Then they were entertained to afternoon tea at the Orphanage and were given an opportunity of the happy little boy and girl inmates there in whose welfare the Associa tion is keenly interested. At 5 p.m. at the C. of E. Cathedral an address was given to the teachers by the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland on the his-tory of and other matters in relation to the Cathedral. Evensong and a short organ recital followed. At the our batteries continued their destruc-tive fire upon the works of the enemy and brought into their field certain routes by which the enemy has been securing provisions. Dr. Jones on "A Graded School in Action," and by Miss Dawson on "Some Sugges-tions for an Educative Method for Junior School." A discussion likely to promote interest and enthusiasm in the work of Sunday Schools and in which His Lordship the Bishop, Revs. Canon Smith, A. J. C. Stamp and Messrs. Ll. Colley, H. Y. Mott and A.

Refreshments were then served and an enjoyable hour spent. At 7 o'clock this morning the Conference closed with a celebration of Holy Communion and an address by the Lord Bishop.

THE LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, To-day. Many big battles have been fought on the Eastern front during the past five months. Few, if any, have been fraught with such importance for the opposing armies as that now in progress East and South of Vilna, where the German Field MarshalVon Hindenburg, is attempting to cut off the retreat and destroy the Russian army which defended that city. The German official report issued yesterday throws little light on the progress of the operations, simply stating that the attack against the enemy retreating from Vilna is proceeding. Petrograd continues to express confidence in the ability of the Russians to extricate themselves from the net thrown around them. In the opinion of military writers they are in dangerous positions. It is quite likely, however that they got their artillery away before the Germans moved across the railways at Vilna, decided upon a week ago. Prince Leopold of Bavaria is also approaching the railway South and East of Lida, having reached the district of Dworzeo which is imme diately West of the road skirting the Pripet marshes, running to Rovno. South of Pripet the Russians still control the situation and keep on harrassing the Austro-German armies at Volbynia Galicia. Although pre-sumably Germany has her hands full in driving the Russians back, she has found men and guns to go to her Al-lies' assistance against Serbia. German official communication announce ed that German guns have taken up the fight against Serbian artillery across the Danube and claim to have silenced them. Bombardment with heavy guns have become mutual in the West, both sides maintaining almost a continuous fire, while the British fleet makes matters lively for the Germans on the Belgian coast. There are no signs as yet of a general offensive however. Another winter in the trenches may be looked for. Intense interest is taken in the Bulgarian situation. With respect to the German denial of responsibility for the sinking of the Allan Line steamer Hesperian, the British Official Press Bureau issued the following statement: According to information to the press, a semiofficial statement has been issued at Berlin that it was practically impossible that a German submarine could have sunk the Hesperian, since according to the war plans no German submarine was, on Sept. 4th, in the locality where the Hesperian was sunk; also, because, according to the description from English sources, the explosion was of such a kind that it must be inferred that it was caused by a mine rather than a torpedo, unloubted proof exists that a German submarine was actually in the locality where the Hesperian was attack-Ships were sunk both north and south of this spot on Sept. 4th and Commenting on Field Marshal Voi Hindenburg's latest coup, the military correspondent of the Times suggests that the recent changes in the Russian egy of Grand Duke Nicholas seems to have lost favor, and instead of con tinuing their orderly retreat the Russians held on too long. This gave the German commander an opportunity of which he availed himself fully. I was the greatest coup, the correspon dent says, for the German cavalry to reach Vilerka and the railway junc tion at Molodacino, which must hav been the main artery for supplies, not only for the Vilna army but for all Russian troops fighting on the Vilna Slonim front. It was a bad business for the Russians to lose this point even temporarily.

BANKER NITA M. CONRAD PUTS INTO PORT DAMAGED.

With flag flying at half-mast, the Burin banking schooner Nita M. Con-rad, Capt. Rob. Hollett, entered port last evening and reported the loss of one of her crew during a storm in which the vessel got a severe drubbing and sustained damage. The name of the victim is Heber Knight, aged 28 years, unmarried, belonging Garnish, Fortune Bay. He was a lory hand.

En Route to Labrador.

Capt. Bob, who is a cousin of Skippers Tom and Bill Hollett and equally as noted a fish killer as they, spoke regretfully of the drowning accident as he told of his trip to the Telegram. Swept Overboard.

The mate and White were engaged reefing' the mainsail. The yessel was being tossed about roughly and mate Walsh secured himself with rope lashings, but, unfortunately, his assistant did not. The latter was holding on a tackle in one hand for the mate and holding on for his own safety with the other hand. Suddenly a heavy sea boarded the vessel, which gave a lurch, causing Knight to lose his hold and he was carried over-board. Although able to swim, he was instantly buried by the waves. Despite the fury of the elements, however, a dory was launched in an attempt to rescue the drowning man, but the attempt was futile, for as soon as the dory struck the water it was turned turtle. The vessel then bore up for St. John's. The tragic event cast a gloom on board, as deceased was popular and well liked by his fellow shipmates. A particularly sad circumstance in connection with the tragedy is that a brother of the deceased was on deck and witnessed the tragedy, but was powerless to render assistance. The District of Fortune Bay has paid heavily to the toll sensation caused by Asthma or Bron- of the sea this year and the present victim adds another to the list. The Nita M. Conrad will resume the voyage as soon as repairs are effected.

Hardware Co., Ltd.

While every true Briton will be attracted by the magic letters above, every true smoker should know they also stand for a tobacco composed of finest Burley and Virginia leaf, so perfectly blended that it needs only one trial to make it first favorite, so magic is its flavor.

For either pipe or cigarette this Smoking Mixture is equally good. It is delightfully cool and fragrant to taste, is free from any sting or bite, and is altogether a tobacco that is sure to become first a popular tobacco then a favorite tobacco, and eventually, to the really appreciative smoker,a "regular old friend."

V. C. Smoking Mixture is sold in 1 lb. tins, but it can also be purchased loose in smaller quantities from 1 ounce upwards, as required. If you're not using V. C. Smoking Mixture you don't know what real pipe-joy is.

Have You Tried "Blossom" Tea?

If not, will you ask your Grocer for some? You will be charmed with its delightful flavor. If you are already using "BLOSSOM", will you please tell your friends how good it is?
