THURSDAY EVENG, DEC. 18, 1873

Town and County News
Lecture at Knox Church to-night.

The examination of Miss Walker's school is going on this afternoon.

The examination of the Senior Primary School takes place to-morrow (Friday), beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The new municipal law contains severe penalties for the punishment of parties guilty of bribery or corrupt practices at elections.

The Hamilton Times suggests that corporations, instead of doing out charity to able-bodied indolents, should give them employment.

WELLINGTON CATTLE AT OTTAWA.—The Globe's Ottawa correspondent says:— There were on exhibition on the street to-day a number of very fine fat cattle, brought from Guelph for Christmas beef.
Some of the animals would weigh 2,700 pounds each.

THE REEVE OF MOUNT FOREST.—We find that some remarks made by Mr.
Kilgour at the last County Council meeting, opposing Mr. Robb's resolution about the new county formation, were inadvertently credited to Mr. Sutherland. It was Mr. Kilgour who spoke.

ANCIENT GOSPEL.—Alex. Anderson, of Erasmus, has been preaching at the United School House and neighborhood in Godrich Township, for the past week with great success. Three men and one woman have been immersed. Mr. Anderson belongs to a body called Disciples or Christians, and he insists on calling the Church to which he belongs "The Church of God."—Huron Signal.

RECIPE FOR PREVENTING INFECTION OF TYPHOID FEVER.—J. C. Smith, of London, England, got £5,000 from the British Government for making public the following recipe: Take nitre (saltpetre) pulverized, 2 of an oz, oil of vitriol 2 of an oz, put the nitre in a tea-cup, and set it on a red-hot shovel, adding the vitriol one sixth at a time, stirring it with a pipe stem, avoiding the fumes as they rise from the cup. No damage, however, in breathing the air of the room. The above amount is sufficient for a room 12x16.

A FEAT OF MEMORY.—Mr. John Laing, superintendent of the Sabbath School of the Methodist New Connection Church, Nassagaweya, offered three prizes for those of his scholars who would commit to memory the Epistle of St. James with the fewest mistakes. The trial came off on Sunday the 13th, when Eliza King repeated the whole of the epistle without a single mistake, and received the first prize, a Bible. The second prize, a New Testament, was given to Margaret Campbell; and the third prize, a religious book, Lizzie Campbell obtained.

ONTARIO AND QUEBEC RAILWAY.—Mr.
Fowler, an old and experienced railway man, has called a public meeting of the citizens of Guelph at the Court House (the Town Hall being engaged) to-morrow evening to hear explanations in reference to the construction of the Ontario and Quebec Railway from Ottawa to Goderich, by a branch line from Orangeville to Guelph. We believe that Mr. Fowler will be able to lay before the meeting a feasible scheme for the construction not only of the main line but also of the branch to Guelph, and will also earnestly advise all who have the prosperity and progress of the Town at heart to attend the meeting.

The agricultural delegates, Messrs.
Arch and Clayton, have returned to England, and at Leamington they informed the union that they fully believe in Canada as a most eligible field for the emigration of agricultural laborers. Mr.
Arch is going to try and send out 10,000 emigrants in the spring, and when he will again visit Canada, he hopes to take out with him 500 families. Mr. Arch's impression is that both Canada and the States afford ample scope for English agricultural laborers; but owing to the present stagnation of trade, he considers it would be injudicious for artizans to emigrate.

It is said that no such prolonged re-suspension of navigation on the Erie Canal as the present, after it had once closed for the winter, has occurred in thirty years.

Nary Powder Found.
More Dry-Goods Failures.

The Virginias Surrendered.
Taxation in the States.

The Bombardment.
Slavery in Cuba.

New York, Dec. 17.—Official contradiction is given to the report that two kegs of gunpowder had been found in the hold of the Minnots.

The failure of two large dry goods jobbing houses is announced to-day. The principal one is Oberholzer & Keffer, importers and jobbers in foreign and domestic woollens. This firm had capital of between $150,000 and $200,000, and claims to have done business of nearly $200,000 a year. Their liabilities are admitted to be at least half a million. It transpires that on the 10th inst. the firm of Edson, Bradley & Co. failed. Liabilities $45,000.

Public School No 18, Brooklyn, took fire to-night from the hot air tubes and was completely gutted. Loss $2,000.

A Tribune special says the Virginias surrendered to Capt. W. D. Whiting, chief of staff to Admiral Sloat, who proceeded to Bahia Conda on the despatch boat Despatch, with a crew of 39 men. The Virginias is in a terribly filthy condition, and stripped of every thing moveable.

London, No. 18.—The Times this morning editorially approves of Secretary Richardson's additional taxation propositions, and thinks the demand for retrenchment is inopportune, in view of the large expenditure necessitated by Cuban difficulties, and says that without a surplus-venue return of specie payments will be indefinitely postponed. If Congress desires to practice economy it might relinquish back salaries. The Times does not believe that increased taxation will be voted this session.

A despatch to the Standard says that a force besieged Cartagena, and have occu-ped San Antonio. A suburb attack is progressing vigorously.

London, Dec. 18.—Official enquiry into the collision of Ville du Havre and Loch-earn, on the part of the British authorities, will open at Greenwich on the 30th.

Havana, Dec. 17.—The slavery question is now seriously discussed among slave owners. According to telegrams and letters received from Spain, the Government is determined to bring the question before the Cortes for action, but desires the slave owners to propose some plan. The number of members of the Havana Abolition Society is increasing.

The coal barge Upland, which was accidentally sunk in the front of the gate of the dry dock at Brooklyn navy yard, preventing the Spanish iron-clad Arapiles from going out, was surveyed to-day by divers, preparatory to raising her.

POLICE COURT.
(Before the Police Magistrate.) Thursday, Dec. 17.
The adjourned snow cases have now been disposed of: Dr. Clarke, John Mc-Crae and James Hawkins were fined a dollar each without costs.

The Great Rascal Alton.
Alton, who outraged the school girls at Warren, U.S., is thought to have escaped to Canada. The following description is given, with the remark that all Canadian papers who will copy the description will do much toward aiding justice:—

"He is a beast too dangerous to live, and should be tracked to the confines of the earth. His personal appearance is so peculiar that notwithstanding he has shaved his beard, it will be easy to recognise him. He stands about five feet five inches high, holds his shoulders back, and has an awkward duck-like waddle, induced partly by rheumatism, partly by a pot-belly. He is fifty-four years of age, has dark hair, slightly iron-grey, and dark eyes. His left eye has a peculiar cast, and when speaking he turns both eyes up, showing a great deal of the whites, which are milky in appearance." His hair comes far down on the middle of his forehead, but recedes over the sides, leaving bare patches back almost to the middle of his head. He is well dressed, carries a cane, wears a heavy silver watch chain about his neck, and a large gold ring on the first finger of his right hand. This ring is used for a more deadly use than ornament, as it fits into a cavity in a four-barrelled pistol which he carries in his right-hand vest pocket, and forms a trigger to it. He weighs over two hundred pounds."

FAREWELL.—On Monday evening Mr.
W. Buckingham entertained the editorial and mechanical staff of the Stratford Beacon to a supper at the Balmoral Hotel. About twenty-five employees and guests partook of the bounteous repast provided. The Herald and Colonist were present as invited guests. The occasion was the retirement of Mr. Buckingham from editorial life, and as a farewell mark of respect to those who have for many years been associated with him, he being about to leave Stratford to assume the duties of Private Secretary to Hon.
Mr. Mackenzie at Ottawa. The chair was occupied by Mr. Buckingham, and the vice chair by Mr. Mowat, founder of the Beacon.

LISWALLO.—Mr. D. D. Hay having received the appointment of Emigrant Agent to Scotland, and being about to start on his journey, was on Tuesday night entertained to an oyster supper, after which Mr. D. D. Campbell, Reeve, on behalf of the citizens in general, presented him with a valuable gold chain and locket.

The Emerald Benefit Association of Hamilton have been presented with a richly-ornamented green silk banner by the Irish nationalists of that city.

The Montreal Bar on Strike.

The Montreal Bar is now on strike. It held a meeting on Tuesday, and unanimously resolved not to plead in the Court of Queen's Bench this term, because "the administration of justice in the Court has been for some time past inefficient, unsatisfactory, and destructive of the confidence which should be reposed in the highest Court of the Province." A resolution was passed calling on the Government to order a Royal Commission to enquire into its irregularities.
The most damaging charges against Judge Monk were hinted at by Mr. Gironard in a long speech. Favoritism was shown towards relatives, and bribery was resorted to to secure biased judgments.
Judge Badgley as deaf as a post, and never hears argument of counsel. Chief Justice Duval is old and sickly. Judge Drummond saw the storm brewing, and resigned before it burst, while Caron was pitchforked into the Lieutenant-Governorship of Quebec by the Macdonald Ministry. Monk and Badgley refuse to resign until compelled by Parliament. They declare that the action of the Bar is illegitimate, and that they will stick to their ground. "This dead lock causes much inconvenience, and popular feeling goes with the lawyers."

The resolutions were presented to the judges on Wednesday. There was quite a scene in Court. Judge Taschereau left the bench, rather than hear the resolutions read. The other judges refused to receive the resolutions, except Judge Ramsay, who said he sympathised with the Bar. The resolutions were, however, tendered to the clerk. Mr. Justice Bad-gley said that if the members of the Bar of Montreal should refuse to plead before the Court, practitioners from other sections of the Bar might do so, and consequently the Court would be opened each morning during the term.

Local and Other Items Republican candidates have been successful in the French elections.

Udderzook has been sentenced to death, the motion for a new trial being denied.

Great alarm has been caused by the discovery of the embarrassed condition of U. S. National Treasury.

Two large kegs of gunpowder were discovered in the U. S. ship-of-war "Minnesota" on Tuesday morning, apparently placed there for the purpose of blowing her up.

"Venom of an exasperated ass," comes to us as a St. Louis expression. It is about as remarkable as the Irishman's observation that the "sting of an ox was in his horns." The venom of an ass must be in his ears.

Whenever we hear a man making a disparaging insinuation in regard to his mother-in-law, we always feel like saying to him, "Sir, you never would have been anywhere if your father had never had a mother-in-law."

LARIE REWARD.—Mr. Alfred Barber, purer of the "City of Montreal," who on Nov. 14th lost his pocket book, containing money and papers, has offered a reward of five hundred dollars for its recovery.

The Leader seems to publish the West Toronto election returns. A rumour had reached that office that the majority for Moss was four or five hundred, but on the ground that the "greater the majority the greater the disgrace," the Leader would have none of it. So far as Beaty is concerned, West Toronto is a black—excommunicated, as it were.

On Wednesday afternoon a meeting was held in Toronto to consider the best means for relieving the necessitous poor of the city. The meeting was numerously attended. It was resolved that a temporary lodging-house or dormitory be provided in a central part of the city for the purpose of affording cheap accommodation and refreshment to homeless persons, and that a Committee be appointed to mature the plan.

STRANGE ACCIDENT.—A sad and fatal accident occurred in the township of Colborne on Tuesday. While Wm. Stitt was killing hogs, he slipped and fell on the knife he was using, which entered his breast near the shoulder. He died in about an hour and a half after the accident. He was a young man about 28 years of age, and highly respected.

It is proposed to tunnel the strait between Ireland and Scotland. The length of the tunnel would be about twelve miles, and its estimated cost is $23,000, 000. It would extend from a point on the north shore of Ireland, under the Irish Sea, to the extremity of the peninsula opposite in Scotland. A single line tunnel, 15 feet wide at the base, 25 feet wide at the maximum, and 21 feet high, with side walls varying from 4 to 7 feet in thickness, is proposed.

Tidings of one of the many missing postal balloons, dispatched from Paris during the siege, comes from Natal. A shapeless bundle of rags found recently in a tree-top in the colony, proved to be one of the missing balloons which floated out of Paris during the siege with a freight of letters and dispatches—orders from the Government of National Defence to its general in the field, and messages of love and cheer, of sorrow and complaint, from the suffering citizens to their friends outside. A question which will interest the balloonists is how the balloon should have found its way from France to the southern extremity of Africa.
Natal is over 5,000 miles from Paris in a direction almost due south.

JEAN LUTE, a very material witness for the defence in the Tichborne trial, has been discovered to have been a ticket-of-leave man. On his being reminded back to serve out the term of his unexpired sentence, he stated that he had been invited and encouraged to give the evidence he had given, but refused to say by whom. It will be recollected that the Claimant stated that he left Rio in the Bella, which was

The Hon. George Brown.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Globe says:—Hon. George Brown was today appointed to the Senate. It is to be presumed that Mr. Brown's appointment supplies the vacancy caused by the decease of Hon. Oliver Blake.

Cause for Congratulation.

We see from an article in the Monetary Times that the commerce of Canada for the year ending June 30 last, returns of which have now been made up, shows an astonishing progress. Notwithstanding that there had been a great increase in each of the three preceding years, the twelve months, 1872-3, show an increase of nearly twenty-seven millions of dollars over 1871-2, taking imports and exports together. The figures for 1872-3 are, in round numbers, exports $90,610,000, and imports $126,580,000. During these last four years, says the Monetary Times, the expansion has been no less than $92,892,760, or at the rate of nearly twenty-three and a half millions of dollars during each twelve months! This rate of progress may be said to be unexampled in our previous history, and it is doubtful if it would ever have been attained if the various provinces of the Dominion had remained separate; and it adds:—

"The disparity between imports and exports last year alone is greater than was the entire trade of Canada in 1852, only twenty-one years ago! If this balance of nearly $36,000,000 could speak (not to mention the six years' deficiency) it would shed light on the causes of the prevailing scarcity of money. It must be quite apparent, with such results before us, that our importers are only exercising common prudence in buying cautiously this season, for the Dominion will be all the better for a realization of stocks on hand, before much further indebtedness is incurred abroad."

The Spectator Talks Sense.

"If the charges made are true, we look to the people of West Toronto to take immediate steps to prove them true; if not, to retract them, and to acknowledge that Mr. Moss has been fairly elected."

The foregoing is from the Hamilton Spectator and refers to the charges of bribery and intimidation made against Mr. Moss by the Mail. In the same article the Spectator points out that similar charges were made against Mr. Cartwright after the Lennox election, but that no steps had been taken to prove their truth. It objects to these vague charges being made, without any subsequent attempt to back them up, and calls it a discreditable piece of policy—copied, of course, from the Grits! Suddenly becoming squeamish, it remarks:

"We do not wish our readers to come to the conclusion that our assertions are not to be relied upon; we do not wish to make an assertion, for our party any more than against it, which may not be reasonably believed to be correct."

Which means, we suppose, that the Spectator intends to mend its ways. We hope it will. Perhaps some of its influential readers have been talking to it in a paternal sort of way, hence these "wishes."

We are glad to be able to agree with our contemporary for once. Charges of bribery and intimidation are flung about too recklessly by the losing candidate's friends after an election. Our new law, however, supplies a crucial test for all this loose talk, by furnishing a sharp and short remedy for electoral misdeeds. It requires a protest on account of undue election returns to be filed within thirty days of the publication of the return in the Canada Gazette, and in case of bribery within thirty days after the commission of the act complained of. We shall soon see, therefore, if the Tory press can substantiate their wild accusations. If these attempts to damage the Reformers are more than mere empty words, nothing is easier than to put the matter to the proof. But this is what these John A. men dare not do.

Shady Transactions.

The collapsed Western of Canada Oil Company is severely criticised by the Monetary Times—a steady going responsible journal not given to railing accusations. The Company was organized in 1871 by Major John Walker, of London. The capital stock was £45,000 in 4,500 shares of £100 each; only about $700 was actually subscribed and a small portion paid up. The Canadian Directors were Hon. John Carling, Aquila Walsh, M.P., and Jacob Heppeler. A million dollars' worth of debentures were sold in the English market, of which $200,000 is unaccounted for. Liberal salaries were arranged for friends of the promoters and others, and the Major retained his interest of one third in the firm of Reeves & Co., from which he, as Manager, made large purchases. The Monetary Times adds:—

"So long as the facts are known, they place Mr. Walker and the Canadian Directors in a very unfavorable light; leaving them open to the suspicion of having sold their reputations for money. We have formed a very decided opinion on the character of the whole business, but as a few weeks are likely to afford further evidence, we reserve till then the use of such terms as only would be fit to characterize an operation proven to be really as bad as this at the present moment appears."

There is some decency yet left in the United States. Victoria Woodhull attempted to lecture at Ann Arbor a day or two since, but was hooted off the stage.

The Peel election comes off to-morrow.

The South Simcoe nominations take place on the 2nd.

The Premier and several of the Ministers dined with the Governor-General on Tuesday.

The Minister of Militia, Mr. Ross, defeated his opponent by a vote of nearly two to one; the numbers being at the close of the poll—for Ross, 612, and for Campbell, 329.

Later information from the polls in Montigny County shows that Mr. Langelier has been elected to represent Montigny in the Local Parliament by a majority of one hundred and seventy five.

Mr. Joseph Arch has delivered an important speech at Leamington, England, in which he spoke very favorably of the laborer's prospects in Canada. We shall try to find room for some extracts to-morrow.

The Advertiser says that D'Arcy Boulton, the Scandal Party's candidate for South Simcoe, bids fair to be the champion failure of the Dominion. Although he stands credited with defeats in North Simcoe, Grey, and Muskoka, and South Simcoe will scarcely care to be represented by the cast-off of three counties.

Here is another joke from the editor of the London Herald—and really, he does it so naturally one would think he was in earnest. Speaking of the West Toronto election, he remarks:—

"This result will be tortured into a great victory for the Grits, although it was in no respect a political contest. From beginning to end of the contest, the Globe never claimed support for Moss because he was a follower of Mackenzie. It was made purely a test of personal popularity, and Mr. Moss has won."

The Ottawa correspondent of the Hamilton Times says:—Sir John A. knows since the Toronto election, that the tide of public opinion has turned against him and his party, and their return to power is impossible. It is freely stated that before the resignation of the late Ministry certain members of it urged upon Sir John and Langevin to retire, allowing Tiley to form a Government without them, thus saving the Conservative party from going to pieces. Both refused to play the part of Jonah. Since the story became public, the friends of the late Ministry condemn their leaders for not accepting their colleagues' advice!

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE NORTH WARD. GENTLEMEN—At the solicitation of a number of rate-payers of the above Ward, I have consented to become a Candidate for the office of Councilman for the ensuing year. If gentlemen should deem me worthy of the honor of representing you, and should elect me to that position, I will endeavor to the best of my knowledge and ability to exert my power for the benefit of the Town in general and the North Ward in particular. Soliciting from all their hearty support and vote, I have the honor to remain, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, E. HARVEY, Guelph, Dec. 15th, 1873.

The Rival clansmen
A Scottish Vendetta.

"Your wish shall be gratified," cried M'Leod, as he saw a number of the clansmen appear with four busts upon their shoulders. "This night I trust our mission shall be crowned with success. Forward, and death to the enemies of M'Leod!"

Another cheer was the response, and the clan were off. In all the force numbered over forty, and several were left behind to guard the Castle in absence.

As they passed out of the gate, they observed several of the windows of the Castle lit up, at one of which the Chief-tain's sister, with her companions, could be distinctly seen gazing after them and waving their hands encouragingly.

Again did the wild cry of "MacLeod gu brath! Bas do ramhaid!" rend the air, and, confident of success, the M'Leods pursued swiftly forward.

Little was said during the journey to the loch—the old Chief preserving a strict silence. The Witch of Ben-Lair, too, seemed to be occupied with her own thoughts, and Gordon did not seek to interrupt silence.

The Lowlander then fell into a deep reverie, his mind being filled with speculations as to how he was to discover the proofs of Jeannie's marriage with Ian M'Kenzie.

She had told him that the ceremony was performed in Edinburgh, in a house in the High Street or in the Canongate, she could not be sure which, and that the man who performed it appeared to be a minister whom she had heard Ian address as Mr. Blakie. Only an old man and woman were witnesses of it—the old woman's name was Melis, but the name of her companion she had not learned.

To Gordon, search for this house and its occupants seemed like searching for a needle among hay. But he had some hopes that he might be able to trace the minister, who he thought was almost certain to be known by a good many people in the city.

He had intended to start for the Lowlands with his sister at once, but he felt that he could not do it without leaving whatever aid he could in the recovery of Hector M'Leod. For him this expedition provided no small degree of excitement. The hope that he might be able to meet Ian M'Kenzie also filled his breast, and he eagerly pushed on with the others.

Now and then a muttered imprecation would burst from one or other of the clansmen against the M'Kenzies and the Caterans, showing how deeply they felt the insult which had been offered to the house of M'Leod, and that they were determined to exact retribution.

When the party had reached the margin of the Loch they at once descended the steep sides of the cliffs which bound it—no easy task—and, launching the boats in the water, embarked, and headed for the upper end of the Loch.

To the Electors of the Town of Guelph GENTLEMEN.—Having been solicited by a large number of the ratepayers to become a candidate for the office of Reeve for the year 1874, I now beg to offer myself for that position.

During the six years I have served you in the Council (half of which term has been as Deputy Reeve) I trust my conduct has been such as to merit your approval, and entitle me to a further expression of your confidence.

Should you honor me by electing me to the Reeveship, I shall, without fear or favor, serve you to the utmost extent of my ability.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
GEORGE HOWARD.

To the Municipal Electors of the Town of Guelph.
GENTLEMEN.—I am indeed, strictly by the solicitations of many friends among yourselves, to offer myself to serve you in the Town and County Council during the coming year as one of your Deputy Reeves. In doing so I will only say that should you express your confidence by electing me I will honestly and faithfully endeavor to discharge the duties devolving on me, and use the position for no other purpose than that of forwarding, according to my most careful judgment, the property of the Town.

During the last twelve years I have noted with attention the various current matters affecting our welfare as a community, and feel therefore some that prepared to take a share in directing our public affairs. It is impossible for me to make a personal canvass. If there were no other reasons, my business engagements forbid it, and you will therefore, I trust, not impute its absence to neglect or discourtesy.

I am, Gentlemen,
Respectfully yours,
CHAS. RAYMOND.
