REPORT OF PROBE COMMITTEE STIRS UP CITY HALLODOM

Recommends the Dismissal of City Engineer, Health Officer and Sanitary Inspector

Suggests Resignation of Commissioner Clarke; Mayor is Charged with Interference

Advocates Drastic Reorganization of Various Departments of City Government

By a majority vote of the city council, with only one member absent the report of the civic investigation committee, recommending the dismissal of the medical health officer, the sanitary inspector and city engineer, and censuring the mayor and commissioners, was adopted practically without discussion when submitted last evening.

Protest against immediate adoption of the report was made by Aldermen Whaley, McDougall, Minchin and Brown, who supported a motion to hold it over for consideration two weeks hence, but the motion to adopt the report, supported by Aldermen Brocklebank, Carscallen, Morfitt, Hornby, Samis and Hester, carried.

The report calls for the dismissal of City Engineer Child, who is held responsible for the defective work done for the city by paving contractors last year, Dr. Estey, medical health officer, and A. Fox, sanitary inspector, who are held jointly responsible for the admittedly disgraceful conditions prevailing at the smallpox hospital.

Commissioner Clarke, the report says that "the best interests of the city would be served if he were to resign" and Mayor Mitchell is censured for interference with the department.

Following the reading of the report a motion was made to adopt it entirely, but it was defeated by a vote of 12 to 4. The report also recommends the dismissal of City Engineer Child, Dr. Estey, and A. Fox.

MAYOR JOHN MITCHELL

ONE PER CENT GRADE CALGARY-VANCOUVER

Revelstoke, July 8.—Canadian Pacific officials here are elated at the result of the first preliminary report of the engineers in the field trying to get a better grade for the proposed double track of the line through the mountains.

More than one of the sixty thousand citizens of this city. More applause greeted the tally. McDougall Attacks Committee.

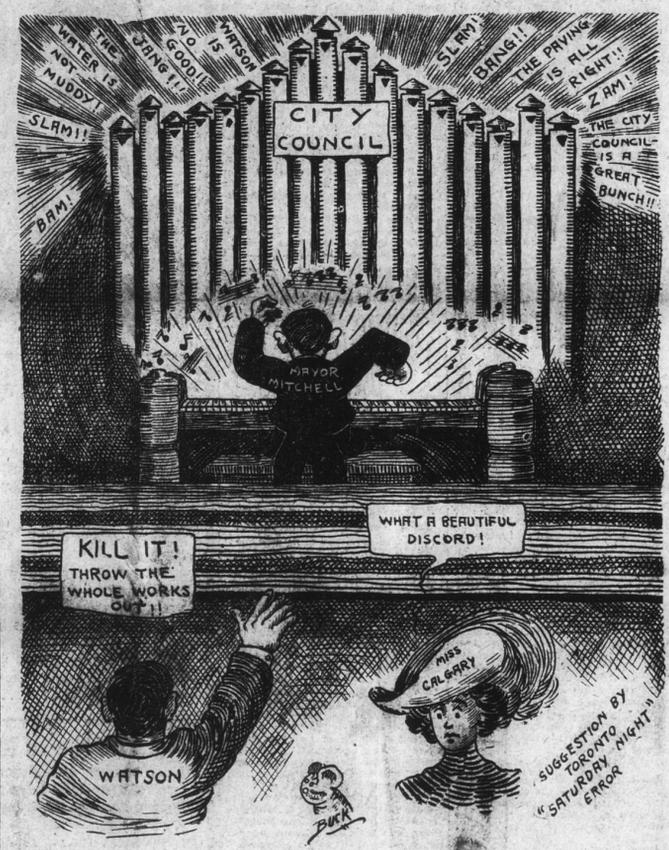

COMMISSIONER CLARKE

"I don't understand why the committee is so anxious to have the report adopted," said Alderman McDougall.

"I don't want to see this report adopted," said Alderman Whaley, "because it is a serious matter especially to the city engineer, and if he is dismissed the city will be in a very bad way."

Whaley Denies Praise Official. "I did not say the officials were doing good work," retorted Alderman Whaley.

PROVINCIAL ELEVATOR A FAILURE; FARMERS WILL ASSUME CONTROL

FAILING to make a success in the operation of its 172 provincial grain elevators, the government of Manitoba is prepared to lease them to the Grain Growers' Grain company which will hold its annual meeting July 16, next, at Winnipeg.

Negotiations already have been practically completed between the directors of the company and the Manitoba provincial government for the leasing of the elevators at an annual rental of $66,000.

The 172 elevators owned by the Manitoba government in that province have a capacity of 30,000 bushels each or an aggregate capacity of five million bushels.

When the Grain Growers' Grain company comes into control of these elevators it will mean an immense advantage to all the grain growers of the prairie provinces.

The Grain Growers' Grain company is a cooperative organization and is representative of the farmers' organizations of the various provinces known as the United Farmers of Alberta, the Grain Growers' association of Saskatchewan, and the Grain Growers' association of Manitoba.

Politics mixed with business is said to be the chief reason for the failure of the Manitoba government successfully to operate its long string of elevators.

RETURNS FROM WORLD TOUR APPRECIATIVE OF WORLD POWER

O. G. Devenish, Calgary Millionaire, is Home and Glad of It

Says That to Realize Power of Britain One Must Travel in Foreign Climes

Has Been Globe-trotting in the Far East and Through Historic Places

"To appreciate the world power of Great Britain one should travel in foreign climes. Seventy-five per cent of the vessels that sail the seas carry the British flag, and the subjects of Great Britain are afforded the greatest protection, no matter what the country or conditions."

O. G. Devenish, millionaire realty operator of Calgary, who returned last week from a tour of the world, made above statement last night during an interview regarding his globe travels.

"We sailed from San Francisco to Honolulu, enjoyed our visit in the Hawaiian Islands immensely, and then journeyed to Japan. The land of the Mikado is one of the most wonderful countries of the globe. The Nipponese are a wonderful people. They are extremely busy, progressed in the sciences, and a sturdy race. The 55,000,000 inhabitants are settled on an average of 500 to the square mile and 'keep busy' seems to be the watchword.

Japan and the Philippines "From Japan I discovered that the American government has practically wiped out the troublesome mosquito and the disease-carrying housefly. The harbor improvements outside of Manila occasion praise from practically every visitor.

"The island of Java in the Dutch East Indies, furnished a surprise to the members of our party. The island is heavily populated and very progressive—rice, sugar and tin being the chief products.

"Singapore was another surprise. It is largely populated by Japanese, is a seaport and strategic harbor of importance and the rubber plantations there are among the most productive in the world. India was extremely interesting. The Buddhists being especially so.

Irrigation in Egypt. "Great Britain has done wonders for Egypt, four and five crops being harvested in the valley of the Nile as a result of irrigation enterprises fostered by the parent country, whereas one was formerly the rule. Rome, with its wonderful cathedrals and wonders of art, is beyond description. France is a study, and London—well, London was the finest place I visited on the journey. It is every bit the wonderfullest city in the world.

"And yet after all, the man who said the best part of a journey is getting home was not wrong. It seems good to be back in Calgary once more, and even during the past six months marked improvements have been made."

HOMESTEADER SHOT AND KILLED HIS BROTHER

Lethbridge, Alta., July 8.—That on Sunday during a quarrel, a man named Stokely shot and killed his brother at the home, 4 1/2 miles north of Warner, was the information received at the barracks of the R.N.W.M.P. tonight. Officers will be sent immediately to the scene of the tragedy.

WHAT THE GREAT WEST DID YESTERDAY

In Calgary: Lieut.-Col. Lovther, military secretary of the Duke of Connaught, accepts the invitation on behalf of the Governor-General to attend "The Stampede," Calgary's frontier celebration, September 2 to 6.

In Victoria: Dr. Samuel Fortier, chief irrigation investigations, experimental station branch, United States Department of Agriculture, one of the foremost irrigation experts on the continent, whose advice in connection with the administration of the water matter had been solicited by the British Columbia government, arrives for a two months' stay. He will attend and address the Western Canada irrigation convention, Kelowna, August 13 to 16.

In Edmonton: The municipal census makes the Edmonton population 6928. The Dominion census a year ago made it 50,000, the census of 1906, 11,000; that of 1901, 2,600. 2,700 buildings have been built this year.

In Winnipeg: The Manitoba government and boards of trade take the entire basement of the permanent exhibition building, 2,700 square feet for exhibits. Belkirk whitefish catch was 154,000.

In Saskatoon: Twenty-seven miles of electric light and power lines were strung in this city last month.

In Port Williams: New additions to existing elevators will increase the grain storage capacity of Port Williams 150,000 bushels. The storage capacity will be 35,000,000 bushels.

EDMONTON'S ASSESSMENT ONE HUNDRED MILLIONS

Edmonton, July 8.—Edmonton's assessment this year will be more than double that of last year. The total assessment last year amounted to $46,000,000 while it is expected the figures will reach in the vicinity of $105,000,000 for 1912. This includes only the north side and on the south side the assessment will be about $25,000,000.

MEANS MARKED SAVING FOR CONSUMERS IN THIS CITY

Mayor Mitchell and Commissioners are Invited to Attend Demonstration to be Given When the Gas is Turned Into Mains

CALGARY will be supplied with natural gas from Bow Island late tomorrow afternoon. Announcement was made yesterday by President Eugene Coste, of the Canadian Western Natural Gas, Light, Heat and Power company, with offices in this city, that the 170 miles of pipe line from the wells to Calgary would be completed by tomorrow.

On roll "roll" the amendment to lay charge of construction informed President Coste yesterday that the intervening space would be closed by Wednesday night.

The introduction of natural gas in Calgary will mean a great saving in the cost of heat and illumination. The Canadian Western company, composed of enterprising Canadians and Englishmen, will be able to furnish gas at a much cheaper figure than that the rate now prevailing. The company has already constructed fifty miles of pipe-line and will use thirty miles of mains.

THE THIRD COLUMN

Ten years ago this mid-summer the peace of Vereeniging which closed the great war was signed. Ten years is not a long time in the lives of countries or even of individuals, but it has been sufficient for the birth and growth of a new nation within the British empire.

Ten years ago there was desolation and despair, and a ruined and embittered race, and a ruined and embittered continent their pastoral pursuits which had been for three years interrupted.

Today the parliament of South Africa sits at Cape Town which is the seat of a government under the British crown—in the election of which Englishmen played a deciding part.

It is a strange eventful history—this federation of the South African colonies, two of alien race and two driven asunder by mutual dissensions which were of so serious a character that it was concluded by some of the most astute observers that they would never come together again.

Some took a more hopeful view, notably Earl Grey and Lord Carnarvon. The goal was reached by a mightier event than they had anticipated, however.

The Strange Chaotic Story

Discontent, separation, disaster, vast schemes, only dimly recognized save by a few master minds, the racial growing dissimilarity, war, military rule, repatriation, crown colony administration, self-government for the once republics, racial outbursts, language difficulties, suspicions, prejudices, all these the land knew.

And in this strange, chaotic story, have been the ten years after the war ought to rank as the most important period of all. It has been the decade of reconstruction and of understanding. Men have seen more clearly since 1902. Yet these ten years imposed a final test as severe as that of actual conflict. It has been a time of strain and uncertainty in political life, sometimes of deep depression in commercial and social life. The extraordinary business optimism which was a feature of the months immediately following the peace gave way to ever greater pessimism. Everywhere losses, everywhere retrenchment, everywhere unemployment. Everywhere white families leaving for other lands. Looking back, one wonders sometimes how South Africa managed to survive through it all as she did. A smaller people must have failed. The community which stood such a test must have been in the making of a nation.

But after ten years South Africa is still misapprehended. You read in some of the English papers that British policy has been a failure. The assessment appears to be demanded by the exigencies of party warfare. Ireland, cry some, must have self-government because self-government has been conceded in South Africa. Those who disagree do not question the analogy.

British policy in South Africa has not failed. It has put down a foundation

The Bold Experiment Made

A bold experiment was made. So far it has been justified by results. The dominating feeling of the South African who on May 31, 1912, looks back across the years to May 31, 1902, must be one of thankfulness.

Thankfulness there must be for material progress. Ten years ago a land laid waste; today breaking every trade record it ever set up. The output of the mines mounts ever higher. Agriculture is advancing, and with the spread of education and the growing up of a new generation trained in modern methods greater prosperity is assured. What is needed is an effort to attract more white men. Without that much of the sacrifices of the past will have been made in vain. In time South Africa may see that clearly also.

And there must be a deeper thankfulness for social peace. For that is the foundation of all things. Here and there the prejudices and animosities may linger. But in all seriousness

SAY BRAIN STOPS WHEN FEET ACHE

Chiropodists in Convention Assert Corns Might Make Angels Murderers

"Pumps Huddle Women's Terminal Members Like Puppies in Basket"

Chicago, July 8.—A man's brain stops when his feet begin to ache. If angels were encha they might become murderers if they developed corns.

Such maxims were expounded as the psychology of foot comfort yesterday by members of the Illinois Chiropodist Society, in session at Hotel La Salle.

Although it is improbable that corns will grow into the beautifully foliated plants that some shoemakers depict in their advertisements, there is a possibility that the human race will develop one consolidated toe. This, according to Dr. Ignace J. Reis, a chiropodist of Chicago, who in substantiation of his theory mentions the starving existence of little toes.

Women's Toes Like "Puppies"

Dr. Reis, who is vice-president of the society, said women are more responsible than men for the increasing deformation of human feet. He described the position of fair toes in women's pumps as a "bunch of puppies huddled together in a basket."

In defense of unnatural shapes of shoes offered by the manufacturer, Dr. Reis said that the public wanted that kind. A large percentage of women, he said, have determined their feet to such an extent by buying footwear that it has become a necessity for manufacturing extremists.

AMUNDSEN'S CREW QUIET

No Doctor Cook About Them, Says Reporter

London, July 8.—Fourteen of Captain Amundsen's sailors who went on the Antarctic expedition passed through London en route from Buenos Ayres to Christiania.

"There was no Doctor Cook about them," is the comment made by a reporter who, on interviewing them, remarked that they always said "we did this or that."

The men's interviews added nothing to the history of the South Pole expedition that has been chronicled by Amundsen's dispatches.

NEGRO SOLDIERS TO PRISON

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 8.—William Stewart, Ninth Cavalry, was sentenced to twenty-five years in the state penitentiary yesterday for the murder of William A. Rucker, a fellow soldier, two months ago.

Henry A. Peace, also of the Ninth Cavalry, was sentenced to a 2-year term for manslaughter. He was tried for kicking to death Samuel Shickling a month ago. Both men were tried in a civil criminal court. Both soldiers are negroes.

there is more bitterness left in England than there is in South Africa. For political purposes some of the newspapers may be inclined to fan the racial fires on occasions. Extremists on both sides are guilty. Yet if you get away from the politicians and so among the common people you will find an atmosphere of friendliness.

True, the language trouble remains, but the problem is solving itself. Leave it alone for another ten years and it will have disappeared. Is the version of men who have studied the conditions.

Of course, the dividing line in politics is still too largely one of race. Racially the Dutch are apt to be nervous. It is not an unnatural feeling perhaps. They lack the national confidence of the English who feel that nothing can injure their nationality.

The anxiety of the Dutch to safeguard equality and protect their nationality often outweighs their immediate political convictions and ties them to a party they are not in entire agreement. They will change this. As the years pass away the big parties will be more and more divided by ordinary political principles. The Boer in the Transvaal has often more political sympathy with the Britisher in the Transvaal than with the Boer in the Cape. Common interests will destroy the racial division.

On the tenth anniversary of the peace, it is refreshing to find that the distinctly hopeful—Montreal Herald.

DECLARES HUDSON BAY RAILWAY WILL PAY DIVIDENDS

Ottawa, July 8.—That the Hudson Bay railway, when completed, will pay not only wages but dividends, is a prediction ventured in a report issued by the commission of conservation.

The prediction is based upon the belief that great mineral wealth would be developed along this line of railway.

In this connection the report states: "It is perhaps not common knowledge that the northern part of Keewatin is rich in minerals, especially copper. It has been stated that in all the great copper magmas have man at work in these very regions staking up everything that may prove capable of producing copper. To make mining the traffic carried by the Transvaal railway may be secured. At present the only outlet is by way of Hudson Strait, and this is available for only some four months in the year.

"Here is where the Hudson's Bay line should secure much of its returning freight traffic. It is a long haul, but it is not as great a proportion as the development of the route to Dawson.

"That such a class of freight would pay there need be no doubt. The weathered railroad companies in the United States are large carriers of mineral ores. Over 66 per cent. of the traffic carried by the Pennsylvania railroad, the largest freight carrying railroad in the world, is made up of minerals. Thus the new grain outlet for the West, the Hudson Bay railway, may be made not only to pay expenses, but dividends."

BISHOP FALLON GIVES LIFE TO STATEMENTS MADE AT CONGRESS

London, Ont., July 8.—His Lordship Bishop Fallon of the Catholic diocese of London, has issued the following statement:

"It is only on my return to London after a month's absence from Quebec, that I have been made fully aware of the proceedings of the recent congress of the French language at Quebec, in which my name and my assumed decisions formed a subject for discussion.

"I cannot believe that the members of that congress should do me a conscious injustice. I incline to the conclusion that they were made the victims of a rather clumsy trick, and I regret that I was not present to clarify it. It is almost inevitable that some irresponsible individual should attempt to introduce a topic concerning which it would be the height of impudence for either himself or the audience to expect an opinion. It was some such thing that actually happened at Quebec.

Made No Regulation

"I have never made any regulation regarding the absence of my priests from their parishes in the matter of the congress of the French language or in any other matter. I have never fixed their leave of absence, for any reason, to a day or to any number of days. On the contrary, I have permitted that leave of absence has been applied for ten times in the last six months. In seven cases it was granted; in three cases it was withheld, but my decision was based on reasons that had to do exclusively with the spiritual interests of my people. In no instance was the congress of the French language or any similar event an issue for my ruling.

"Of course, I utterly deny the competence of any congress, no matter by whom called, or under what auspices held, to pronounce judgment on me in the exercise of my jurisdiction, and I notice this latest occurrence merely to prevent a villainous falsehood from being unconsciously introduced into the reign of history.

(Signed) M. F. FALLON, Bishop of London."

AN IMPENDING ATTEMPT TO RESTORE MONARCHY IN PORTUGAL

Madrid, July 8.—Renewed reports have been received here of an impending attempt to restore the monarchy in Portugal. From the northern provinces of the country many families are fleeing across the border to Spain, as they fear uprisings. The authorities today seized an automobile near Monfort, bound for Vigo, loaded with 100 rifles and 20,000 cartridges, destined for the use of the monarchists.

C.N.R. WILL SPEND FIFTEEN MILLIONS ON COAST TERMINALS

Vancouver, July 8.—Colonel Davidson and A. D. McRae, representing the Canadian Northern railway, had several conferences the last few afternoons with a committee of the city council regarding the location of terminals here.

Sir Donald Mann has now arrived and will join the meeting. He says that the company will build its own line in from Port Mann, which is the Canadian Northern's own terminus, and will probably enter Vancouver at the south-eastern corner by means of such a tunnel as was used in entering Montreal. The tunnel would be five miles in length, and would extend from the Fraser river under Mount Pleasant, coming out at False Creek. The company wishes the city to give or lease 130 acres, which it owns in the mudflats at False Creek.

Last year a section of this area was given by the city to the Great Northern railway, which is now engaged in filling in and arranging to erect a fine station.

Sir Donald Mann stated today that the company would spend fifteen million dollars within the next few years in creating terminals in Port Mann, Vancouver and Victoria.

Evidently supplied with inside information, Toronto capitalists have lately made extensive purchases along Main street in the vicinity of the proposed new depot.

Sir Donald Mann said that as soon as the railway is finished the company would take up the question of erecting a chain of hotels across the continent and also establish a line of ships across the Pacific.

WOMEN SHOUTERS FROWNED ON

Delegates Weary of Seeing Pretty Girls Lead Stampede

Baltimore, July 8.—So many attempts were made by the managers of candidates to stampede the convention by using pretty girls as cheer leaders that the delegates became weary of such tactics. The fairs secured by Mrs. Davis in Chicago when she turned a Hadley demonstration into a long hurrah for Roosevelt seem to have made dozens of women attending this convention ambitious to equal her performance.

Whenever a demonstration started for Clark, Wilson or Underwood, it didn't matter which the boosters quickly put forward a girl to lead the cheering. The daughter of Champ Clark, the daughter of Gov. Brewer of Mississippi and Miss Gladys Hogan of this city were most active.

Miss Clark stood for half an hour on the speaker's platform the other night waving a Clark banner and having her picture taken. On several occasions little Miss Brewer was carried around the hall on the shoulders of Underwood followers. Miss Hogan attempted to storm the platform, but she was balked by an assistant sergeant-at-arms, who was promptly punched by her father.

The delegates, as well as many of the visitors, were saying towards the last that these performances were no longer novelties and that it was not desirable to push a woman into the hurly-burly of shouting, excited men.

WAR AGAINST STRIKE

British Labor Leaders Seek a New Weapon for Workmen

London, July 8.—War against the strike as a weapon by the workmen has been declared by some of the old-time labor leaders of Great Britain.

Philip Snowden, one of the cleverest of the Socialist members of the house of commons, was among the first to sound the warning that the men were gaining nothing by continual strikes. Kell Hardie, his more extreme colleague, followed his example. Mr. Hardie is fully convinced that legislative action would produce more permanent results than strikes. Reforms enacted by the state, he says, become permanent and cannot be taken away, but concessions won by a strike during good times, may be lost by a lockout in bad times. Therefore, labor representatives should be sent to parliament to enact the right kind of legislation. The union officials are beginning to realize that trade unionism is not a healthy state in England at present. The fall in the bank balance of the unions and the failure in most cases to secure any appreciable benefits through the enactment of legislation, strikes have made the men cautious about following their leaders.

THE CIVIC INVESTIGATION

Whatever may be said of the report of the civic investigation committee, adopted by a majority vote of the council yesterday, no one will venture to charge that body with cowardice. Where they believed blame to be due they have placed it, and where they found defects in the machinery of civic administration they have recommended, without hesitation, the completest and most drastic re-organization. There were many who feared that the committee was disposed merely to discuss interesting symptoms without passing on to the more delicate and difficult task of diagnosing the ills which have afflicted the municipal body politic. The most cursory perusal of the report dissipates this fear.

No one will be able to deny that they have displayed all the cool courage that would be expected of an experienced army surgeon on the field of battle. Some will doubtless charge them with an excessive eagerness of desire to use the knife.

Great care was exercised by the committee to ascertain all the facts necessary to enable them to pass judgment on the matters referred to them, and no effort was spared that would expose to view facts of even minor importance bearing in any way on the questions at issue. Their findings and recommendations therefore deserve immediate and careful consideration.

By many it was thought that the city council would make no final disposition of the report at the meeting at which it was submitted. A report so severely censuring some of the highest officials in the city, calling for the dismissal of some of these officials and asking for the resignation of others, might quite reasonably have been held for consideration at a special meeting if that course had been thought desirable. A majority of the council, however, including two members who were not members of the committee, voted for the adoption of the report without discussion, believing apparently that exception could not reasonably be taken to the findings of the committee.

Whatever may be the opinion held by anyone concerning any particular finding or recommendation there can be no doubt that the enquiry revealed a condition of affairs at the city hall which is lamentable in the extreme. There can be no difference of opinion regarding the necessity for re-organization, and the time when this must be accomplished is now.

Among those who followed the course of the present enquiry there can hardly be any doubt but the wisdom of the recommendation that all future purchases of goods for the use of city departments be made through one department established for that purpose. Evidence collected by the committee showed that there was too much indiscriminate and unauthorized purchasing by individual officials.

The recommendation that such provision be made as will prevent the use of automobiles owned by the city for any purposes other than those of the business of the city, will also meet with general approval.

Not the least valuable of the suggestions made by the committee is that which calls for the establishment of a system of checking and reporting that will enable the executive officials to assure themselves that the work of the several departments is being efficiently conducted. The absence of some such provision was revealed during the enquiry as one of the most glaring defects of the existing system.

Other recommendations, too numerous to be set forth and discussed in detail, are included in the report.

Of the value of this document there can be no question. The whole enquiry served a useful purpose by directing attention to defects in the municipal administration, the existence of which cannot be tolerated. It revealed in some departments much defective work and poor service for which individual officials appear to have been in part responsible.

The adoption of the committee's report would seem to imply that those officials will be at once called upon to pay by dismissal the full penalty for their shortcomings. By some it may be held that they are not so much the victims of their own incompetence as of an imperfect system of administration which tolerated, if it did not actually encourage, neglect of duty.

Whatever the degree of sympathy extended to any or all of them, however, and whatever the differences of opinion that may exist regarding to the findings of the committee, all will be willing to give the latter credit for accomplishing the task imposed upon them with a thoroughness rarely exhibited by such bodies.

GEO. E. FOSTER'S BULL

In the light of some of the recent utterances of the Hon. Geo. E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce for Canada, one accepts with some reluctance the fervid eulogiums of certain British journalists who do not fear to tell him in his face that he is "the greatest orator in Canada," not even excepting Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The following is an extract from one of Mr. Foster's recent speeches in London:

"Whether we adopt a system of preferential trade or not, we must agree that co-operation has taken place, and, whether or not recognized as such, the overseas dominions have cast their grappling hooks of preferential trade on the vitals of the United Kingdom and thus compelled a greater inflow of trade and commerce."

Would it be possible to imagine a more uncomfortable position for the United Kingdom than that suggested by this figure? The use of the grappling hook for the purpose of recovering the bodies of the drowned is common, but is not a matter upon which one cares to allow the mind to dwell. What then could be more horrible than the picture of the Dominions casting grappling hooks into the vitals of so lively and respected a member of the Imperial family as Great Britain?

In common with all British subjects we delight to observe any increase of the flow of trade between Great Britain and the Dominions, but we would not care to think that this increase could be encouraged only by operations so revolting as that suggested by the terms of Mr. Foster's speech. If, however, Mr. Foster was referring to the British preference we are disposed to think that he does it an injustice by referring to it in that way.

We would suggest that the former college professor should speak with a little more care, and try, if possible, to resist this impulse to make sense entirely subservient to sound. The people of England are anxious to think well of him, not because he is George Eulas Foster, but because he is the accredited representative of a country in which they are deeply interested at the present time. The people of Canada have made large claims for his ability as a public speaker, and are not anxious that he should make those claims ridiculous.

Stories of the Streets

By HARRY F. BURMESTER.

He was a tall, angular individual, garbed in a frock coat of somber black and possessing the traditional locks of the tragedian. Business had been bad along Broadway that winter and the exponent of Shakespeare was looking for work. An impresario—that's giving him the best of it for he was only an ordinary manager—passed by and recognizing the unmistakable stamp of the "legit" on the Thespian's face, inquired:

"Are you an actor?"
 "Yes sir," was the reply.
 "Play heavy parts?"
 Again a "yes sir."
 "Can you play the part of a Mexican?" came back the manager.
 "Certainly," was the reply.
 "Then roll me a cigarette," shot back the impresario.

"Never rolled a cigarette in my life. What do you use, a steam roller?"
 And at this juncture the manager sighed:
 "More heat waves from that Chicago convention." Then he passed on.

Harry Bulger, playing at the Sherman Grand this week in "The Slim Princess," is responsible for this. It deals with the power of auto-suggestion and force of habit.

A chorus girl married a bellboy. They attended a theatrical performance on the evening of their wedding day. When the bell rang for the curtain to be raised, the chorus girl by force of habit started for the stage and the bellboy-groom hurried to the rear of the theatre for a pitcher of ice-water.

H. C. Forrest, Western Canadian representative of the Oliver Typewriter company, arrived in Calgary recently, opened headquarters, told a few funny stories and then went out to get the business. He was rather unfamiliar with the Alberta territory and en route to Calgary from Chicago, inquired of a sales manager for a safe manufacturing company whom he met on the train, how business was in this province.

"I didn't have much luck," replied the safe salesman.

"How's that?" inquired Forrest. "Back in Chicago they told me that Calgary and Alberta generally were extremely prosperous."

"Quite correct," came back the safe man. Then he explained: "People out in Calgary are so honest that they don't need safes to protect their money and securities. That's why my line of business was dull. A man in most any other branch of business should do wonderfully well, even if he were only a designer for 1913 models of doughnuts. But the safe business is a bloomer in a country where the people are honest."

Real estate brokers must have their little jokes as well as other people. Frank Harcourt and a fellow realty operator were chaffing each other in a friendly way at the King George yesterday and discussing the merits of different subdivisions. Up spake Harcourt:

"Do you remember George the time you took a farmer out to one of your subdivisions to sell him some city lots? You remember that he expressed himself as highly pleased when you started out in the machine and described the location to him."

"That's a great country," he said. "I own a farm out that way."

"The two of you travelled for several hours and after the lots had been duly inspected, you asked:

"By the way, where is that farm of yours?"
 "Oh," was the reply. "We passed that forty minutes ago."
 Does distance lend enchantment?

THE COST OF A WIFE.

If you notice, it is always the man who contributes the least toward household expenses who is the first to cry loudly about the cost of keeping a wife and the expenses of a home. The wife and a privilege to spend what money he can afford upon the things which he considers as comfort and happiness belonging to those who look to him for protection.

It is the man with the hard working wife who contributes most of the money for the upkeep of the family, who falls at the growing extravagance of wives. He declares they should be limited to a certain amount. He complains on the high cost of living, insisting that the general run of husbands never can save anything, because their wives' hands are slaves which cannot keep money from slipping through.

Such men's wives could tell quite another story. They could tell of glories and schemes propounded by the husband to borrow every dollar of their earnings over the meager amount which must be paid to the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker. This class of men cannot withstand the temptation of victimizing their wives. They know they have a dollar in their pockets. Every able bodied man should be able to keep a wife, if he loves her sufficiently to work for her.

The American husband, as we know him, would not degrade himself in wife's eyes by letting her pay either rent or taxes for a roof over his head, or purchase the fuel which warms him, or maintain the household and buy the clothes for the family.

What redress is there for such a wife whose husband has spent her earnings for years? She cannot collect it by law, and there is no way left to recover it. If such a woman has daughters, she is apt to note carefully the kind of young men who come around courting them. She turns down abruptly the young man who begins to complain of the cost of keeping a wife. She encourages the young man who declares that his wife never shall earn a dollar to keep the pot boiling while his health and strength last; that they will pull together lovingly, use what is necessary to run the home, likewise a certain amount for pleasure and recreation, taking care to save a fair balance for a rainy day.

The husband who allows his wife to contribute to his keep, when he could do otherwise, if he were so disposed, is such a poor joke that she can see nothing to laugh at in it. It is only the husbands who provide for their wives who should voice their sentiments, if need be on the subject.

The man who wars fiercely over family expenses, and holds his pocketbook closest, is generally known to be the most reckless spender when away with his boon companions. A man should, first of all, satisfy himself that the woman he marries should be able to run the home economically and for the best interest of both, content to have the reins in her hands. He should content himself with the problem of earning the wherewithal.

Shall He Propose Now?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am nearly 22, and think a great deal of a girl of 20. I have known her about two years, and we have had many enjoyable times together. I think she cares for me, as she does not keep company with any one else and always writes regularly when I am out of the city. I am earning a fairly good salary for one of my age. What I would like to know is this: If I should propose now, could I reasonably expect her to wait a year and a half or two years before we get married. I need all the money I can get now, as I intend to go into business for myself."

"H. C. C."

I think the girl would be glad to wait a year or two if she really loved you. Tell her that you want to be established in business for yourself before you marry.

She Proposed.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a young man of 22. The other night a young lady invited me to go with her to a 'leap year' dance. During the course of the evening I danced with a friend whom I had known for several years, and although I never had kept company with her I knew her very well. At the end of the dance we seated ourselves over in one corner, away from the other people. We had no sooner become seated than she proposed to me. I was taken completely by surprise, because of the place and the suddenness of it. I could only say that I would call upon her within a week. Now, I am still in school and my expenses are being paid by a brother. What would you suggest as the best way for me to act when I go to call upon her?"

L. W.

I think you had better pay no attention to the affair. She probably meant it as a joke. It is much more sensible to treat it that way, anyhow. If she insists upon an answer, tell her you are not in a position to marry and won't be for a good many years to come, and that if you were in a position to marry you would not care to marry a girl who did the proposing.

Hears He Has Wooden Leg

"Dear Miss Libbey: I have been to a party and I met a young man there with whom I have been to shows and parties. He loves me, but I have heard he has a wooden leg. He is a nice looking man and has money. Would you ask the man if he has or should I keep on going with him? EMMA."

Yes, Emma, you might ask him if he has a wooden leg, though, it seems to me, if you have eyes and ears it would not be necessary to ask such a stupid question. There is no reason why you

He's in a Bad Fix

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am in a bad fix. I am 19 and haven't a girl yet. I live with a family where the man loves his wife very much and one would think to see them that they were not married yet. I am afraid I never shall strike it as lucky as he did. The girls look at me, but that is about all. Some time ago I received a card from a girl in the west, and she asked me to write to her, but did not sign her name to the card. She got my address from my sister, who is out there. I wrote and asked my sister to tell me what her name was, but she did not. What had

I better do to win girls' affections?

"VICTORIOUS."
I don't know how you are going to win her affections, Victorious, if you don't know her name, I am sure you can get your sister to send you her name, can't you? Don't be in too big a hurry to marry. You are entirely too young to think of it. I am sure years from now, you will meet some sweet girl who will make you just as charming a wife as is the wife of your friend.

My, the Minister Swears.

"Dear Miss Libbey: My lover is a young minister and a carpenter, yet when he is angry he uses swear words. I am so worried over it. What can I do to break him? I also have another lover who thinks very much of me. He has given me a diamond ring. He has considerable money and a good position as a bridge contractor. Which shall I take? They are both very fond of me. It is so hard to decide, for they are neither one nice looking."

SUNFLOWER.

My, I am surprised to hear of a minister swearing! I don't approve of a minister who swears, and if you are equally interested in the bridge contractor, I would advise you to let the minister who swears go his way.

She's Engaged

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am going with a young man of about 23 and he claims he loves me and also wants me to get married to him, although I haven't the ring. Is it right for me to go out with another friend, seeing I haven't received the ring so far?"

"BROWN EYES."

If you are engaged to the man, do not go about with other men.

She's "Awfully in Love."

"Dear Miss Libbey: I'm awfully in love with a nice young man. He is a ticket seller at one of the downtown theatres. I have purchased tickets from him several times and everytime I see him I am anxious to meet him. I am very good looking but do not like to flirt in a public place as a

The flies that are now in your kitchen and dining-room were probably hatched on some indescribable nastiness less than an hour ago, and as a single fly often carries many thousands of disease germs attached to its hairy body, it is the duty of every housekeeper to assist in exterminating this worst enemy of the human race.

theatre lobby. Could you suggest a method by which I could know him better? There's only one trouble I have with him—he is a blonde. I always had a fancy that blondes are flirts. Is that so? Any way, Miss Libbey, tell me what to do. Should I leave him alone, or should I find him out in some other way? He does not give me much encouragement. He is not married, because he does not look old enough.

"ANXIOUS ADMIRER."

I don't think that blondes are more flirtatious than brunettes. The color of one's hair does not make any difference. Better just the fellow alone. You can't tell whether he is married or not by his looks. Marriage does not always put an indelible stamp on people, you know. Don't be so foolish.

NINETY THOUSAND DOLLAR SUPPLY DEPOT FOR C.P.R. TO BE READY WITHIN A WEEK

New Headquarters for Dining and Sleeping Car Service Will be the Most Elaborately Appointed of Any American Railroad

MODERN 17-TON REFRIGERATING PLANT IS A FEATURE

Building Will Include Storerooms for Food Products, Offices, Linen Supply Department and Recreation Rooms for Company's Employees

THREE hundred thousand dollars worth of food products are supplied to travellers on the Canadian Pacific railway each year at Calgary, according to figures compiled by local officials of the dining car service.

Calgary is now the supply point for dining and sleeping cars on the Canadian Pacific between Vancouver and Montreal. With an average of twenty-five trains passing through this city each day, the task of supplying the needs of the dining and sleeping cars is of such magnitude that more than 100 men are required in the local depot.

The new building is constructed of red brick, is highly attractive and is admirably located for the purpose. It will include a 17-ton ice plant, storage rooms of the most modern type, linen rooms, offices and rest rooms.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS UNDER CONSTRUCTION WILL COST APPROXIMATELY $750,000

Six Big Schools are Building and Five Cottage Schools are in Various Stages of Progress; Largest Structure is King Edward School in South Calgary

KEEPING pace with the progress that Calgary is making in every line, three quarters of a million dollars is now being expended in constructing one of the finest school systems in the West.

The largest of the new schools, as well as the most costly, is the new King Edward school in South Calgary. The estimated cost of this addition is $80,000.

In addition to these, there is the new four-room school in Park Hill, which will be of brick with stone trimmings, and will cost about $21,000.

Work on the foundations was started simultaneously with the other schools in the city.

The Sunalta school, which also is estimated to cost some $150,000, likewise is under way, and the contractors are making rapid progress with the foundations.

The eight-room addition to the Victoria school between Eleventh and Twelfth avenues and Third and Fourth streets east, also, has been started.

INDUSTRIAL HALL CAMPAIGN STARTED

HAVING several sites under consideration, a committee from the Calgary Industrial Development bureau is prepared immediately upon the securing of a suitable location, to begin a campaign to raise between $100,000 and $150,000 for the erection of an industrial hall similar to the Industrial Building maintained in the City of Winnipeg.

It is proposed to put up a building similar to the Winnipeg structure in which exhibits from the various sections of the province and the districts tributary to Winnipeg are maintained by the railways, farm associations, merchants, and manufacturers showing the resources of the country.

The officers of the local development bureau, Mr. L. P. Strong, president; Mr. A. Miller, secretary and Mr. T. J. Skinner and Mr. O. G. Devenish, vice-presidents, are anxious to see the Calgary Industrial building erected as soon as possible as it will not only furnish needed headquarters for the dissemination of information concerning the province but will also prove an attraction to visitors to the city.

A dispatch from Winnipeg yesterday states that the Winnipeg permanent exhibition in the Industrial building there has proved so satisfactory that the Manitoba government and the board of trade have secured the entire basement of the building, comprising 2,700 square feet, for exhibiting the products of that province.

Itching and Burning on Face and Throat

Sores Disfigured So He Dreaded to Appear in Public. No Rest Night or Day. Cuticura Ointment Cured.

"Six months ago my face and throat all broke out and turned into a scalding sore. I did not bother about it at first, but in one week's time the disease had spread so rapidly over my face and throat and the burning itching sores became so painful that I began to seek relief in different medicines, but none seemed to give me any relief. The sores disfigured my face to such an extent that I dreaded to appear in public. I suffered terribly and could get no rest night or day. At last a friend advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I had about given up hope, but thought I would have one more try, and so I used a little Cuticura Ointment, and it helped me from the start. I continued using it and in six weeks' time was completely cured, and can say I would advise anyone suffering from skin disease to use Cuticura Ointment, as it is the best healing ointment in the world." (Signed) Joseph Good, Seven Persons, Alta., Feb. 18, 1911.

FOUND RELIEF ONLY FROM CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little girl when only a few weeks old broke out on the top of her head and it became a solid scab. Then her cheeks became raw and sore and after trying different remedies found relief only from using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I lasted six months or more, but after a thorough treatment with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment never had any return. (Signed) Mrs. W. S. Owen, Yachin College, N. C., May 25, 1911.

MR. MORGAN AS KAISER'S MASCOT

Emperor Christens Him—Attention to Americans Stir Critics

London, July 8.—A Berlin despatch to The Daily Mail says the feature of the regatta week at Kiel has been the Kaiser's intimacy with J. Pierpont Morgan. The Kaiser christened Mr. Morgan his mascot, as the only time when the Kaiser's Meteor won during the week was when Mr. Morgan was on board. After the race the emperor, escorted by Mr. Morgan, boarded the latter's yacht, Corsair, which was anchored in the place of honor nearest to the imperial yacht Hohenzollern in Kiel Bay. The Kaiser's marked attentions to wealthy Americans are provoking protests from ultra national quarters, and there will be further perturbations when it is learned that the Crown Princess Cecilie arrived at Danzig today from Kiel aboard Mrs. Robert Coe's yacht Nahama, instead of coming overland with her husband.

MOVEMENT IN REAL ESTATE MISSION HILL DISTRICT WILL COST $50,000

THE first hydraulic work ever attempted in Calgary, which is being carried on by F. C. Lowes & Co. in cutting down the sand bank on the Mission hill into Roxborough Place, the residence property owned by the firm just across the Elbow river on Fourth street west, is drawing crowds of the curious every evening. Considerable difficulty has been encountered in securing sufficient pressure from the city mains to carry on the work. A two stage centrifugal pump and a 150 horse power Westinghouse motor are being rushed across country by express and are expected to arrive this week. There are some 110,000 cubic yards of earth to be moved. The dirt is being washed across the road to the place desired by means of an 18 inch flume on a six inch grade. So far it has been possible to move in the neighborhood of 200 cubic yards per night from 8.30 p.m. to 5.30 a.m. but with the new machinery it is hoped to move 500 to 600 cubic yards a night. The property on the right hand side of Fourth street west, will be terraced and a 100 foot boulevard run from Mission bridge to the top of the hill. A thousand shade trees have just been planted and sidewalks and curbs will be installed prior to the offering of the property to the public in September or October, the first instance in which such improvements have been made before offering the property. The total cost of the improvement work is estimated at some $50,000.

MUST KEEP HUSBAND OF 76

That Wife Thought Him 70 Went Serve to Annul Marriage

New York, July 8.—The appellate division of the supreme court has decided that when a young woman marries a man 76 years old and sues to annul the marriage on the ground that he had led her to believe he was only 70 she has no legal ground for divorce. The suit before the court was brought by Mrs. Mabel Well of 214 West 116th street against Sigmund Well. They were married in 1906 and lived at 10 West Eighty-fifth street until two years ago, when they separated. Well did not defend the annulment suit which it was brought by court. He decided that "when a woman marries a man 76 years of age, knowing that he is 76 years of age, she is not entitled to relief in a case of this kind."

Taft's Ex-Pastor Fired

Maine Flock Says He Preaches Too Much Socialism

Saco, Me., July 8.—The Rev. Paul Harris Drake, pastor of the Second Parish (Unitarian) church of this city to the former of the Unitarian church of Beverly, where President Taft worshipped during his stay at that place, was discharged from his pastorate yesterday by unanimous vote of an increase in salary. His term will expire on September 1 of this year. Members of the parish say that Mr. Drake has been preaching too much Socialism the past few months. When he refused to change they held a meeting in the district and terminated his relations with the church. Mr. Drake became pastor of the First Unitarian church in Beverly in May, 1907. During his pastorate, President Taft frequently attended the church. The following year his first baby, Charlotte, was born. He immediately asked the trustees for an increase in salary. He was then receiving $1,000. "Every time there is a new baby born in a clergyman's family there should be an increase in salary," said he. The trustees refused to grant an increase. Baby No. 2 was born in July, 1911. He again asked for a raise, but was refused again. A few days later he resigned and went to Saco.

ALARMED BY DIVORCE HUNT

Sir on the Steamer Iroquois When Husband Hunts Wife

New York, July 8.—The smashing open of a cabin door by five men shortly followed by the cry of "woman overboard" caused much excitement on the Manhattan liner steamer Iroquois on Monday night when the boat was opposite Newburg. Capt. John Dearstone stopped his ship and lifeboats were lowered. After almost an hour's search the missing woman, Mrs. Pauline Frank, wife of Louis Frank, a Brooklyn lawyer, was found in the cabin of a companion. Meanwhile 500 frightened passengers were running about the saloon deck and it was only after they had learned the cause of the rumpus that they were quieted. They found out that the affair began when Mr. Frank, a friend, a lawyer and two members of a private detective agency had forced their way into Mrs. Frank's cabin. During the excitement which followed the unusual entry Mrs. Frank had climbed out of the window of her room and taken refuge in the cabin of a friend, who was making the trip from New York to Albany with her. Her disappearance led to the sounding of a general alarm. When Mrs. Frank was discovered by the detectives the excitement subsided. No arrests were made, but the party in the divided deck the missing wife were drawn up yesterday by Mr. Frank's lawyer. The couple were married three years ago, but had recently been separated.

ART LOSS STIRS ITALY

Prosecution to Follow Smuggling of Famous Paintings to Paris

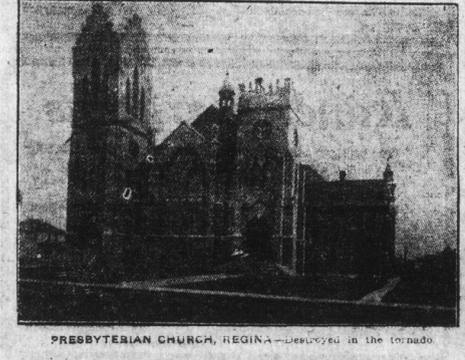

Rome, July 8.—So many art treasures have been smuggled out of Italy despite the precaution taken by the Government to prevent their exportation that feeling has been stirred throughout the country by the fact that four famous pictures by Gian Batista Tiepolo have just been secretly despatched to Paris. These canvases each measuring 9 feet by 6 feet and representing episodes of the love idyll "Rinaldo and Armida," were hung in the palace of Signor Giulio Cartier at Lido d'Albano, near Genoa. For the last five years persistent attempts have been made by foreign dealers to acquire them, and twice they were held up by the exportation officers at Milan, and Turin while on their way across the frontier. In March, 1911, Arthur Sullivan, of London, tried to conclude a bargain with the Cartier family to buy the pictures for $60,000. The state in exercise of the right conferred by the law, then offered half the sum. Pending the negotiations and in return for a formal written undertaking from Cartier that no attempt would be made to smuggle the masterpieces abroad, the Italian Government not only restored them to Cartier's custody but the detectives who were assigned to watch day and night the Cartier mansion on account of its being situated only a few paces from the seashore. Advantage was taken of the opportunity to send the pictures to Paris.

COLLEGE AND BISHOP QUARREL REACHES
ACUTE STAGE

Characterized as a Revolt Against Decision of the Holy See

Rome Decides Against College
and Bishop Puts Ban on Institution

Says Those Who Attend Will be Committing Grievous Sin
Against Church

Montreal, Que., July 8.—Serious trouble between the College of St. Marie de Monroie, which removed to St.
Johns following the disastrous fire, and the bishop of St. Hyacinthe, reached an acute stage today by the issuance of a pastoral letter in all the churches of the diocese of the arch diocese of Montreal, forbidding Father Lemieux
and his colleagues to again open the college at St. John's, also forbidding parents to send their children to the institution, and declaring that if the priests and others interested in what is designated as a revolt against the decision of the Holy See persist in their insubordination, it will be treated as a grievous sin by the Episcopal authorities.

Fire which destroyed the college, then
located at Marville, some years ago,
decided Father Lemieux and his colleagues to look for a more convenient site. The college authorities settled upon St. John's.

The bishop of St. Hyacinthe saw,
however, serious objection to this move,
and intimated to the college authorities, which had up to that time been opponents of the college's jurisdiction,
that they were not to move to St. John's
under any consideration, Marville
is in the diocese of St. Hyacinthe and St. John's in the diocese of Montreal.

A great deal of feeling was engendered
and while the clergy and laity were divided into two camps, Father Lemieux and his priests were for a time suspended and prevented from exercising their priestly functions.

Rome finally gave a decision against the pretensions of the college. The case was complicated by the fact that some eminent hymn writers belonging to the diocese of St. Hyacinthe opposed the case of the college. The decision of His Grace Archbishop Bruchési was also very delicate. The mail from the college from Marville
to St. John's would have been an acquiescence to the educational equipment of the arch diocese over which Monroie presides, but the Episcopal document read in the churches
this morning is ample proof that his grace of Montreal did not hesitate an instant when it became known that his Episcopal brother at St. Hyacinthe was antagonistic to the change, and his lordship's stand had received the approval of the Vatican.

A SIX-YEAR-OLD CHILD IS STRUCK AND KILLED
BY LIGHTNING

Ottawa, Ont., July 8.—May Mulvihill,
the six year old daughter of John Mulvihill, a farmer of Kingsmead, Wright county, Quebec, was struck by lightning Saturday and instantly killed, while her father, mother and three brothers were sitting in the same room had narrow escapes. The bolt tore away part of the walls of the house and split in half the chair on which the little girl was sitting. The father was rendered unconscious for several hours, and is suffering great agony
from burns received.

WIDOWS OF THE TITANIC
DISASTER FORM
TRINITY

New York, July 8.—Drawn together
by common grief in the loss of their husbands in the Titanic disaster, Mrs.
John Jacob Astor, Mrs. George D.
Widener and Mrs. John B. Thayer, have just created a Helong compact
of love and friendship.

Although she has lived secluded from practically all of her New York institutes and society friends since the disaster and subsequent funeral of Colonel Astor, his young widow has given up an entire week for a visit with Mrs. Thayer and Mrs. Widener at their homes in Philadelphia, having returned this week to her Fifth avenue
home.

Mrs. Astor has just revealed the facts of "the living trinity" to her intimate friends.

As if to disprove the report concerning a break in her health due to her expecting condition Mrs. Astor drove up and down Fifth avenue today in an open automobile with her mother. Her condition is the cause of much concern to her friends.

CHRONIC THROAT TROUBLE PERMANENTLY CURED

Seven Days' Use of Catarrhoxone Performed Regular Miracle

Miss Counter's Case Proves the Wonderful Efficacy of Catarrhoxone
in All Throat and Nose
Diseases

Windsor, Ont., July 8.—Miss Counter's
case will prove of great interest
to everyone troubled with sore throat,
bronchitis or weak lungs.

When asked for a statement, Miss Counter said: "About seven years ago I contracted a heavy cold that settled
in my lungs and resisted all treatment. After I had tried several doctors here and specialists in Detroit
without benefit, I went to my druggist and asked him for the best remedy he had for cold on the lungs. He recommended Catarrhoxone, which cured my cold in one week. It brought back my voice, and I have been ever since free from my old trouble. For coughs, colds and lung trouble I am sure that Catarrhoxone is the best remedy. It goes right to the sore spot, gives quick relief, and makes a lasting cure."

Catarrhoxone cures because its healing vapor is inhaled to the very places
that are sore and inflamed.

It permanently cures your winter
ills, your coughs, sneezing and Catarrh, by all means use a tried and proven remedy like Catarrhoxone.
But beware of the substitutor and imitator. Look for Catarrhoxone only, 50c and $1.00, at all dealers, or by mail from the Catarrhoxone Company, Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

LOLL IN COURTYARD

Free and Easy Ways of Chauffeurs
and Footmen

London, July 8.—"Other days, other manners." Any gentlemen of the old school, passing at the last levee through the Ambassador's court in St. James's Palace, where carriages of people who have the privilege of entry to the royal presence were waiting, would have been shocked to see the behavior of the chauffeurs and footmen.

They were lolled about, smoking
and taking their ease just as though they were in the garage after their day's work instead of being in livery
and in an inner precinct of the king's palace. Not very long ago a servant
wearing his livery was on duty like a soldier under arms. Now he is quite satisfied if he does his work capably.
His master has to put up with this change in demeanor. For it he blames the automobile, whose slanting
seat compels a loling, easy going position.

The chauffeur has now pretty well established his contention that he must be regarded as a mechanic and not as a servant. His independence has reacted on the footmen.

HE THINKS THAT AVIATORS WILL SOON FLY TO
THE MOON

New York, July 8.—According to Garret P. Serviss, the astronomer and writer, who called for France today, it will not be many years before aviators
will fly to the moon.

"I begin to think seriously, but not too seriously, now that we have achieved navigation of air by mechanical means, that there only remains the necessity of providing air to breathe
and things to eat for man to go to the moon," said Serviss.

"The first flying machine to the moon
will be based on the principle of the pith ball that flies away from the conductor of an electrical machine. When this has been accomplished, the only remains to be done what modern chemistry certainly can accomplish; that is,
to fill a strong vessel—a spherical vessel—with enough air and food to sus-

EASING HIS CONSCIENCE

Man in Maine Keeps Sending Two-Dollar Bills to Washington

Washington, July 8.—A man in Kittery, Me., who for more than a year
has been sending monthly contributions to the federal treasury, has sent to President Taft a two-dollar bill for deposit in the conscience fund.

"I am sorry to keep troubling you in this manner," he wrote, "but I am anxious that all money shall reach its proper destination as it is close work
saying it."

MODERN TRILBY SINGS AT GRAND OPERA WHILE HYPNOTIZED

New York, July 8.—Delegates to the state music teachers' convention were treated to a "hypnotic concert" today
by Miss Miriam Graham of New York, known as the modern Trilby.

Among those who gave special attention to the demonstration that Prof.
Charles Munster, the hypnotist, conducted were Dr. Frank E. Smith, noted throat specialist, and Eben Williams,
the tenor.

Dr. Smith, after the girl had rendered a selection from "Pagliaccio," explained that it was he who had discovered that her throat was physically adapted for singing. He had just operated to remove a mastoid growth.

The demonstration today was conducted with a phonograph accompaniment. The operatic airs had been sung into the phonograph by Caruso. During the appearance before the teachers and afterward to reporters the hypo-
notized young woman sang selections from "Lucia," also an "Ave Maria" and
"The Rosemary."

Several physicians watched the proceedings used to revive the girl and told witnesses there was no danger.

BRYAN SEES MAJORITY OF 2,000,000 FOR WILSON

Predicts Also an Overwhelming
Lead in the Electoral College

Baltimore, July 7.—William J. Bryan
in a formal statement tonight gave his unqualified endorsement to the nomination of Governor Wilson.

"I feel sure that the action of the convention thus far will appeal to the country," said Mr. Bryan. "I had no choice among progressive candidates,
but from the first included Governor Wilson in every list I had occasion to make. His action in coming out strongly against Mr. Parker for temporary chairman was the turning point in my campaign. The country is progressive. Nearly all of the Democratic party and more than half of the Republican party are progressive.

"The paramount question before this convention was whether we would take sides with the reactionaries and thus encourage the organization of a third party, and give to the third party the hope of defeating the reactionaries divided in two parties, this on the one side, and on the other the nomination of a ticket that would appeal to the progressive element of the nation and make a third party improbable.

"I am satisfied that with Mr. Wilson running for president on the platform
which has been prepared, there will be comparatively few progressive Republicans who will not feel justified
in supporting the Democratic ticket.
If I were to make an estimate I would say that we ought to have not less than 2,000,000 majority of the popular vote and enough of the electoral vote
to give us an overwhelming majority in the electoral college.

"The action of the convention in adopting the anti-Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution has demonstrated that the Democratic party is not only progressive, but is bold enough to throw down the gauntlet to the predatory interests.

"It is fortunate that Mr. Wilson's nomination was made without the aid of Mr. Murphy. It is no reflection upon the many good men in the New York delegation to say this.

"From every standpoint the outlook is hopeful. The only unpleasant thing about a political fight is that success
to one aspirant brings disappointment to others. Those who fail ought to find some consolation in the fact that failure is not always a reflection upon the individual, because circumstances exert a larger influence than the individual in the determination of a convention choice.

"Men are only available when they fit into positions. I decided some two years ago that I did not fit into the conditions as they then saw them, and I was not unwilling to assume the responsibility of advocating any particular progressive party because I preferred to trust to the wisdom of the multitude, and partly because I felt that a great deal would depend upon the

DOES BABY SAY "MAMMA?"

"A SQUAWL"

Joliet, Ill., July 8.—"Why, the little darling actually said 'Mamma,'" remarked a young mother who from time immemorial has used this stereotyped phrase to express their ecstasy
over the first lusty squawl of their infant offspring which might be construed into the word "mamma" have been stealing credit from Mother Nature according to T. S. Lowden, professor of the principles of education of the Ohio State University.

Professor Lowden, speaking before
the annual meeting of county teachers,
will say that the name forms the throat
so that the first sound that issues is a vowel in a shrill falsetto like the sound of "a."

So that while baby is being given credit for being "able to talk," he is sailing under false pretenses.

SAY AMUNDSEN WAS LUCKY

Companions Report Perfect Weather
Favored South Pole Dash

London, July 8.—Fourteen bronzed members of the crew of the Fram who were with Amundsen in his dash for the south pole passed through London
last night on their way from Buenos Ayres to Norway. Four of these men, Bjarnland, Hassel, Hansen and Wain-
ing, got to the pole with Amundsen.
All of the men refused to talk, as they were pledged to secrecy because of the forthcoming publication of "Capt.
Amundsen's book. They admitted,
however, that Amundsen was very lucky and that he had encountered few obstacles. For the final dash the weather was perfect and everything went according to program.

SIMPLICITY OF HAIR DRESSING
NOW FASHIONABLE

Women Favor Parted Locks—Puffs,
Pompadours, Coronet Braids
—Going Out

The present fashion of wearing the hair softly parted, without puffs and braids, demands a naturally fine head
of hair, and women with thin, faded
locks are at their wits end to know how to make their hair look well. The first step toward this end is to keep
hair and scalp in a healthy condition
by the systematic use of a stimulating tonic.

"LAX'S HAIR HEALTH" contains all the health-giving ingredients needed by the starved hair roots. It destroys dandruff germs and encourages rapid growth toward the end. It keeps hopesely dry, faded looking locks growing soft, lustrous and youthful and the whole appearance is improved.
You can get it from the Jas. Pindley
Drug Co. for 50c or $1.00 per bottle,
or from the Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

PASTOR PLAYS POLICEMAN
ARRESTS GIRLS' ANNOYER

Threatens to "Call the Wagon" When Prisoner Refuses to Go

Chicago, July 8.—The Rev. E. L.
Williams, pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, La Salle avenue
and Locust street, played policeman last night in Washington square at North Clark street and Washington place.

The minister took his prisoner by the coat sleeve and commanded him to go to the Chicago avenue police station. At first the man refused.

"Will you walk along with me quietly, or do you want me to call the wagon and have everyone see you
taken to the station," asked the Rev.
Mr. Williams.

The man then yielded. He said he was Joseph Clark and resided at 413
Wells street. He is 40 years old.

Dr. Williams was returning to his residence at 159 Locust street when several girls between 10 and 12 years old informed him that a man in the park had annoyed them.

Sarnia, Ont., July 8.—Two Turks,

by the police on Sunday attempting to swindle local clergymen on a religious book deal. The men, who talk broken English, state that they are get-financial help. Many clergymen in western Ontario towns have been defrauded.

RESTRAINS LOAN SHARKS

Judge Petit Grants Temporary Writ
Against Users

Chicago, July 8.—Attorney Morton T.
Culver of the Tribune Anti-Loan Shark Bureau yesterday obtained a temporary injunction against Frank W. Hill, Ernest T. Goodrich, Julius Schiller, Agnes Baker, Fannie A.
Fleming and Ida F. Smith, loan sharks.

The writ was granted by Judge Adelor J. Pettit, before whom the case later will be tried. Attorney Ralph Woodbury, who represented the sharks,
made an objection to the provision for a bond, but this was waved aside by the judge.

The case is one in which a widow borrowed $200, signed two successive notes, the second for $355, paid back $180, and now finds that the sharks
have credited her simply with the payment of "interest"—$180 interest on $250 in one year.

Victim Tells Recourse to Save Com-

Cincinnati, July 8.—"Don't mind me,

These were the words directed to a rescuing party seeking to free two workmen from imprisonment underneath a bank of dirt in a trench.

William Dietz and Edward Mooney, employed by an electric light firm at Newport, Ky., just across the river from Cincinnati, were engaged in stringing wires in a trench when one side of the ditch gave way, completely covering them with rock and dirt.

Mooney was liberated and helped to rescue his fellow workman. Neither of the men was severely injured.

RUNAWAY SCOTCH HUBBIES

London, July 8.—The Glasgow Herald discloses some extraordinary statistics in connection with emigration from Scotland.

It has been ascertained that the number of destitute and famine-stricken who have been thrown upon the streets in Glasgow is so large that the annual cost is estimated at between $55,000 and $100,000.

Inquiries in other parts of Scotland have brought out the information that in proportion to the population the percentage of the destitute outside Glasgow is even greater, so that it is estimated that the public expenditure due to this cause in Scotland must be between $150,000 and $200,000.

MONOPOLY ON THE THAMES

London Lightermen Protected by Law for Four Centuries

London, July 8.—Until their strike threatened to paralyze the busy business of the port of London and to spread the paralysis to every port in the kingdom, few Londoners knew anything about the Thames lightermen. He has now found out that the Thames barge is an important part of a monopoly protected by acts of parliament for the last 400 years.

The first act of parliament defining the constitution and powers of the Lightermen's Company was passed in 1505. Another act was passed in 1550. The Court of Watermen's Company, which consists of eight watermen, called overseers and rulers, their appointment by the lord mayor and aldermen being annual. In 1700 the watermen were incorporated with the Lightermen's Company, three members being appointed as additional overseers and rulers.

Any other act of parliament have been passed concerning the company. One of the most important is that of 1805, which provides that no person shall be a freeman of the company or a qualified apprentice if allowed

SYSTEMATIC SURVEY OF THE YUKON IS STARTED

Director Completes Map Giving Groups as Basis for Future Work in Territory

Dawson, July 8.—F. H. Kitto, director of surveys, leaves tonight for a trip to various points in the south and stopping off between Dawson and Whitehorse, and later going into the Klondike district. He will arrange for Mr. Dickson, of Whitehorse, to run a base line on Nansen creek and probably provide for other special work.

Mr. Kitto recently completed a fine group map of the Yukon and forwarded it to Ottawa. It divides the Yukon into groups for the purpose of all mineral, agricultural and other official surveys in accordance with the system adopted for the whole of the Dominion.

The groups are bounded by the meridians and the parallels of latitude and each group is subdivided into nine squares.

DENATURED ABSINTHE

All Injurious Ingredients Excluded by Proposed French Law

Paris, July 8.—Corentin Collin, a workman in the Lorient Arsenal, made a bet in a saloon that he would drink twelve glasses of pure absinthe. He won the bet and a few hours later was dead.

This item of news was printed on the same day that M. de Lamarzelle's bill to prohibit the manufacture and sale of absinthe came up again in the French senate. A committee reported that the consumption of absinthe in France had increased from 14,775 gallons in 1873 to 5,062,300 gallons in 1911. Evidence had been taken to show that some plants used in making absinthe were injurious while others were not. The committee said: "Absinthe is a producer of epilepsy of the first order, hypospise gives effects almost identical with absinthe,

GET MARRIED AFTER TWO ELOPMENTS

Miss McMillen Didn't Change Her Mind the Second Time

Kansas City, July 8.—After John T. Peck, 433 Euclid avenue, and Miss Winifred McMillen, daughter of C. H. McMillen, 3312 Morrill avenue, had eloped to Olathe three weeks ago and returned, Miss McMillen changed her mind and decided she did not want to be married. Miss McMillen and her sister, Miss Beulah McMillen, then made a trip to Denver. Peck and Miss McMillen exchanged several letters. The girls' parents received a letter from her Saturday saying she would return home Saturday night. She returned as near home as the depot. Peck met her at the train and the Olathe trip was made again.

That time the bride had the courage of her convictions. The deputy probate judge, Arch Green, was summoned from his home in the edge of the town and the two were married in the court house at midnight. They did not return to Kansas City.

Mrs. Louis H. Peck, the groom's mother, had not been informed of the marriage nor had the bride's parents until yesterday afternoon.

"I'm getting used to being left out of the arrangements," Mrs. Peck said. "Six years ago my older son, Perry, eloped to Olathe with Miss Angelina Chamberlain. They kept their marriage a secret two years. He was 19 years old when he married."

Peck is employed by the Stuckey cigar company. He formerly was secretary to the mayor under the administration of Daris A. Brown.

SECOND TAXI DEATH IN SAME LONDON STREET

Both Victims Americans—Latest is Caleb J. Milne of Germantown, Pa.

London, July 7.—Caleb J. Milne of Germantown, Pa., died at the Charing Cross hospital this evening as the result of injuries received last night when he was run down by a taxicab in Cockspur street.

The fatality occurred practically on the identical spot in Cockspur street, a busy thoroughfare near Trafalgar Square, where the Rev. Elmer Orlando Weld of Brooklyn was recently killed by a major bus while on his honeymoon.

The same policeman on duty at that point picked up both victims. A visiting card found on Mr. Milne shows that he is a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club.

UNDER WATER 10 MINUTES

Kansas City, July 8.—Jacob Sherman, 18 years old, narrowly escaped drowning in the lagoon at Electric Park at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is supposed that he was struck and rendered unconscious by another swimmer. Because of the crowd in the water Sherman was not missed until he had been at the bottom ten minutes. The life-saving crew was called and he was rescued by P. Cavill, who gave emergency treatment until Dr. C. R. Manley arrived. Sherman was taken to his home, 1829 Charlotte street.

SAW NAPOLEON'S FACE

Boyhood Experience of Jean Richepin, the Poet

London, July 8.—The British Medical Journal quotes an article from the Journal Medical de Bruxelles giving Dr. Mat Billard's account of the exhumation of the great Napoleon's remains in 1840.

The remains were in an almost perfect state of preservation. They were enclosed within four coffins, one of mahogany and one of tin plate. The head of the conqueror rested on a pillow. The thin lips were parted; under the upper one, which was a little raised on the left side, were seen three extremely white incisor teeth.

The remains are now enclosed in five coffins, made of tin plate mahogany, lead a second one in lead separated from the other by sawdust and pieces of wood, and one of ebony. For a long time the face of Napoleon was shown every year on August 15, the anniversary of his birth. Crowds passed before his tomb; the upper part of the coffin was raised and through a glass could be seen the face of the Emperor. Jean Richepin, the poet, has described what he saw. In a lecture delivered on January 25, 1909, he said:

"The general" (M. Mellinet then governor of the Invalides) "took us down into the crypt. My father took me in his arms, raised me in the air and I saw the Emperor. I have never forgotten that sight."

"I was 11 years old. What is seen at that age makes a deep impression and nothing can remove from my brain the extraordinary image—the eyes closed, the beard slightly grown, the face of the whiteness of marble, on which spread some yellow spots which seemed a bronze. When there mingle in my memory that face of wax which I have seen and those eyes which I have seen I see the Emperor truly as if I had known him."
